'Go, little book, God send thee good passage
And specially let this be thy prayere,
Unto them all that thee will read or hear,
Where thou art wrong, after their help to call,
Thee to correct in any part or all.'

PREFACE.

The HANDBOOK FOR AUSTRIA, which is now issued for the ninth time, and corresponds with the twenty-fifth German edition, is designed to assist the traveller in planning his tour and disposing of his time to the best advantage, to render him as far as possible independent of the services of hotel-keepers, commissionnaires, and guides, and thus to enable him the more thoroughly to enjoy and appreciate the objects of interest he meets with on his tour.

The Handbook has been compiled almost entirely from the personal observation of the Editor, and most of the country described has been repeatedly explored by him with a view to procure the latest possible information; but, as many of the data in the Handbook relate to matters which are constantly undergoing alteration, he will highly appreciate any corrections or suggestions with which travellers may favour him. Those already received, which in many instances have proved most useful, he gratefully acknowledges.

The districts described in this Handbook were formerly embraced in the Handbook for Southern Germany and Austria, which is now published in two separate volumes. The information in the present volume is, however, much fuller than that contained in the corresponding part of the older Handbook, and has been augmented by a short description of the Austrian Alps. Its contents are divided into TEN SECTIONS (I. Vienna and its Environs; II. Upper and Lower Austria, Salzkammergut, and Salzburg; III. Tyrol; IV. Styria, Carinthia, Carniola, and Istria; V. Bohemia and Moravia; VI. Galicia and the Bukowina; VII. Dalmatia; VIII. Hungary, Croatia, and Slavonia; IX. Transylvania; X. Bosnia), each of which may be separately removed from the book by the traveller who wishes to minimise the bulk of his luggage. A fuller description of the mountainous districts of S. Germany and Austria (Tyrol, Salzkammergut, etc.) has been published in a separate volume entitled 'The Eastern Alps'.

The MAPS and PLANS, on which special care has been bestowed, will, it is hoped, render material service to the traveller in planning his tour.

TIME TABLES. Information as to the departure of trains, steamboats, and diligences is seldom to be relied upon unless obtained from local sources. The best Austrian time-tables are contained in 'Waldheim's Conducteur', which appears at Vienna ten times annually (60 kr.).

DISTANCES by road are given approximately in English miles; but in the case of mountain-excursions they are expressed by the time in which they can be accomplished by average walkers. HEIGHTS are given in English feet (1 Engl. ft. = 0,3048 mètre), and the POPULATIONS from data furnished by the most recent census.

HOTELS. The Editor has endeavoured to enumerate, not only the first-class hotels, but also others of a less pretending kind, which may be safely selected by the 'voyageur en garçon', with little sacrifice of comfort and great saving of expenditure. The asterisks indicate hotels which the Editor has reason to believe good houses of their class. At the same time he does not doubt that equally comfortable accommodation may often be obtained at hotels which he has not starred or even mentioned. Hotel-charges, as well as carriage-fares and fees to guides, are liable to frequent variation, and generally have a strong upward tendency; but these items, as stated in the Handbook either from the personal experience of the Editor or from data furnished by numerous correspondents, will at least afford the traveller an approximate idea of his expenditure.

To hotel-keepers, tradesmen, and others the Editor begs to intimate that a character for fair dealing towards travellers forms the sole passport to his commendation, and that advertisements of every kind are strictly excluded from his Handbooks. Hotel-keepers are also warned against persons representing themselves as agents for Baedeker's Handbooks.

INTRODUCTION.

I. Language. Money.

Language. For travellers purposing to explore the remoter parts of Austria a slight acquaintance with German is very desirable; but those who do not deviate from the beaten track will generally find that English or French is spoken at the principal hotels and the usual public resorts. A few remarks on the Hungarian and Slavonic languages, which may be useful to travellers in the E. and S. provinces of Austria, are given on pp. 320 and 430.

Money. The new Austrian monetary unit is the Crown (Krone) = 100 Heller, but reckonings are still universally made in the old Florins (Gulden) and Kreuzers (1 florin = 100 kreuzer = 2 crowns; 1 kreuzer = 2 heller). The paper 1 florin notes have been withdrawn and are now replaced by silver florins (about 1*s.* 9*d.* or 43 cents). Large sums are paid in government notes (5 and 50 fl.) or bank-notes (10, 100, and 1000 fl.). The average rate of exchange for a sovereign (or a German gold piece of 20 marks) is 12 fl., and for a Napoleon $9^3/_4$ fl. Those who desire to convert considerable sums into Austrian notes should be careful to employ respectable bankers or money-changers; and they will effect the exchange to better advantage in the principal towns of Austria itself than at Munich or other towns in Germany. Those who travel with large sums should be provided with circular notes (of 10*l.* each, issued by the London and other bankers), in preference to bank-notes or gold, the value of the former being recoverable in case of loss.

Travellers who propose to visit Servia will find a short account of the Servian currency under Belgrade at p. 381. The Roumanian currency is similar, francs being called Lei and centimes Bani. — Money in Bosnia, see p. 429; in Montenegro, see p. 314.

The expense of a tour in Austria depends of course on a great variety of circumstances. It may, however, be stated generally that travelling in this country, except the large cities and the fashionable health-resorts, is less expensive than in most other parts of Europe. The pedestrian of moderate requirements, and tolerably proficient in the language, may, by avoiding the beaten track as much as possible, succeed in limiting his expenditure to 6-8*s.* per diem; but the traveller who prefers driving to walking, frequents hotels of the highest class, and requires the services of guides and commissionnaires, must be prepared to expend at least 25-30*s.* daily.

II. Passports and Custom House.

PASSPORTS are not absolutely necessary in Austria; but they are sometimes called for in order to prove the identity of the traveller, they are not unfrequently serviceable in procuring admission to collections, and they must be presented at the post-office before the traveller can obtain delivery of registered letters. — For Servia and Roumania passports are indispensable (see pp. 381, 404).

Foreign Office passports may be obtained in London through C. Smith and Son, 63 Charing Cross; Buss, 440 West Strand; E. Stanford, 26 Cockspur Street, Charing Cross; W. J. Adams, 59 Fleet Street (charge 2*s.*; agent's fee 1*s.* 6*d.*).

CUSTOM HOUSE formalities are now almost everywhere lenient. As a rule, however, articles purchased during the journey, which are not destined for personal use, should be declared at the frontier. At the Austrian frontier playing-cards, almanacks, and sealed letters are liable to confiscation. Tobacco and cigars, the sale of which in Austria is a monopoly of government, are liable to a duty of about 6 fl. per pound. According to the strict rule, one ounce of tobacco and 10 cigars only are exempt from duty. Cycles, see p. xiv. — The keys should be sent along with all luggage forwarded in advance.

III. Conveyances.

RAILWAY TRAVELLING in Austria and Hungary is less expensive than in most other parts of Europe, and the carriages are generally clean and comfortably fitted up. The second-class carriages, provided with spring-seats, are sometimes nearly as good as those of the first class in England. The first-class carriages, lined with velvet, are comparatively little used, but are recommended to the lover of scenery and of fresh air, as he will be more likely to secure a seat next the window. The third-class travelling community is generally quiet and respectable, and the carriages tolerably clean. On a few railways there is even a fourth class, unprovided with seats. Smoking is allowed in all the carriages, except those 'Für Nichtraucher' and the coupés for ladies. The speed seldom exceeds 25 M. per hour, and as the railways are generally well organised and under the supervision of government, accidents are happily rare. The Circular Tour Tickets issued by the Austrian and German railways are freely used in the districts covered by this Handbook. Where the 'Zonentarif' is in operation (Austrian State Railways), they, however, rather increase than diminish the expense of the journey. On some lines 20-50 lbs. of luggage are free, in addition to smaller articles carried in the hand. Over-weight is charged for at moderate rates. In all cases the heavier luggage must be booked, and a ticket procured for it; and this being done, the traveller need be under no apprehension, as it will be kept in safe custody at its destination until he presents his ticket. When a frontier has to be crossed the traveller is strongly recommended to keep his luggage with him, and to superintend the custom-house examination in person. — English money is occasionally refused at the Austrian ticket-offices, and the traveller should therefore always be provided with a sufficient store of Austrian or German money.

DILIGENCES, called 'Eilwagen' or 'Mallepostes' in Austria, generally carry three passengers only, two in the inside, and one in the coupé. The latter alone affords a tolerable survey of the scenery, and should if possible be secured. In much-frequented districts it is frequently engaged several days beforehand. The guards, who are often retired non-commissioned officers, are generally well-informed and obliging. The usual quantity of luggage allowed to each passenger by the Eilwagen does not exceed 20 lbs., over-weight being charged for by tariff. Passengers are sometimes required to book their luggage two hours before the time of starting, or even on the previous evening. — The old 'Stellwagen', formerly the chief means of transit in Tyrol, has now been superseded by the more comfortable OMNIBUS. On nearly all the chief routes Post-Omnibuses now run, with relays of horses at the different stages. The best places are the cabriolet and the coupé; and travellers should secure their seats in good time.

EXTRA-POST. The usual tariff in Austria for a carriage and pair for four persons with moderate luggage is about 5 fl. per stage of 15 kilomètres ($9^3/_8$ Engl. M.). For a party of four persons posting is cheaper than travelling by diligence, and of course pleasanter. — In engaging PRIVATE CARRIAGES the stipulation should always be made that the fare includes all tolls.

IV. Cycling.

(Communicated by W. O'Meara, Manager of C. T. C. Touring Bureau).

The roads of Austria-Hungary, on the whole, fall considerably short of the English standard, for the steam-roller is unknown in that country. The best are those in Tyrol and Carinthia, which are about equal in quality to middling English roads. The further east one goes the worse the roads become. As a rule, the principal roads in the neighbourhood of the larger towns are in bad condition owing to the traffic, and are almost impassable in wet weather. The roads in the principal Alpine valleys are often very fair and generally not very steep. When they lead over a pass they are mostly rideable with comfort up to a certain point; then comes a steep rise followed by a steep pitch on the other side, and then again a moderate incline. Their condition is at its worst in early spring and late autumn, for then the repairs take place; i. e. loose, sharp edged stones are dumped into all the holes on the surface and along the ruts; the rest is left to the traffic. — In Hungary only the Hungarian names of places appear on the guide-posts.

The rule of the road in Austria is somewhat complicated. In Styria, Upper and Lower Austria, Salzburg, Carniola, Croatia, and Hungary we keep to the left, and pass to the right on overtaking; in Carinthia, Tyrol, and the Austrian Littoral (Adriatic coast: Trieste, Gorizia and Gradisca, Istria and Dalmatia) we keep to the right and overtake to the left. Troops on the march always keep to the right side of the road, so in whatever part of the Empire you meet them, keep to the left.

In Styria the law allows cyclists to make use of the paths set aside for foot-passengers on all the government roads (Reichsstrassen). On other roads there is generally a strip on one side used by pedestrians but not absolutely reserved for them, which can be used with impunity by cyclists, always on the understanding that they must make way for people on foot. On the whole, the police are not nearly so strict in Austria as they are in Germany with regard to the use of footpaths by cyclists. Every machine must be provided with a lamp; coloured glass is not allowed. There is no fixed rule as to the hour for lighting up. It is sufficient to show a light about nightfall.

In some localities there are special laws, for instance with regard to the use of certain streets by cyclists. But these municipal regulations are too numerous and subject to too frequent change to be quoted here. They are moreover not applied very strictly in the case of foreign riders. The prudent tourist might perhaps enquire locally, especially in the larger towns, as to whether there are any such municipal regulations in force.

Cyclists entering the Austrian Empire have to deposit a duty of 25 florins in gold (about 2*l*. 10*s*.), which is refunded when they leave the country, provided the rather intricate conditions stated on the customs receipt are complied with. The tourist would do well to join the Cyclists' Touring Club (chief offices, 47, Victoria Street, Westminster, London, S.W.), whose members are, on presentation of the special ticket supplied gratis by the Club, exempted from making this deposit.

Bicycles accompanied by their owners are carried in all trains as passenger's luggage. There is no free allowance of luggage on the state-railways. Superfluous luggage should be sent on, preferably a few days ahead, by parcels post; the service is rather slow.

Before starting on one's journey one should procure the necessary maps and carefully study the proposed route, endeavouring as far as possible to so arrange it as to ride down the river valleys and to avoid long toilsome grinds uphill. Suitable maps are supplied by the Cyclists' Touring Club, and the Touring Bureau of the club will always assist members in planning their tours. The C. T. C. issues a Road Book, in which the principal Austrian roads are described. It has concluded a great number of contracts with hotel-keepers whereby its members are granted special terms and discounts, and there is a reciprocal agreement between that body and the Austrian Touring Club, in virtue of which C. T. C. members are entitled to the special terms arranged by the Austrian Club for its own members with a great many hotel-keepers and others. The Consuls or local representatives of both clubs are always pleased to give advice and assistance to C. T. C. members.

V. Hotels.

Little variation occurs in the accommodation and charges of first-class hotels in the principal towns and watering-places throughout Austria and Hungary; but it frequently happens that in old-fashioned hotels of unassuming exterior the traveller finds as much real comfort as in the modern establishments, while the charges are lower. The best houses of both descriptions are therefore enumerated.

Where the traveller remains for a week or more at a hotel, it is advisable to pay, or at least call for his account every two or three days, in order that errors may be at once detected. Verbal reckonings are objectionable. A waiter's arithmetic is faulty, and his mistakes are seldom in favour of the traveller. It is also objectionable to delay paying one's bill till the last moment, when errors or wilful impositions must be submitted to for want of time to investigate them. Those who intend starting early in the morning will do well to ask for their bills on the previous evening.

A feature of many of the Austrian inns is the 'Gastzimmer' for the humbler classes on the groundfloor, while the 'Salle à Manger' is on the first floor. The refreshments supplied in these different apartments are generally the same, while the charges differ considerably. Pedestrians and travellers of moderate requirements will find the Austrian country-inns very reasonable, 5-6*s*. a day being generally sufficient to include every item.

Hotel-keepers who wish to commend their houses to British and American travellers are reminded of the desirability of providing the bedrooms with large basins, foot-baths, plenty of water, and an adequate supply of towels. Great care should be taken to ensure that the sanitary arrangements are in proper order, including a strong flush of water and proper toilette-paper; and no house that is deficient in this respect can rank as first-class or receive a star of commendation, whatever may be its excellencies in other departments.

The word Pension is used in the Handbook as including board, lodging, and attendance.

English travellers often give trouble by ordering things almost unknown in Austrian usage; and they are apt to become involved in disputes owing to their ignorance of the language. They should therefore endeavour to acquire enough of the German language to render themselves intelligible to the servants, and should try to conform as far as possible to the habits of the country. For this purpose Baedeker's 'Conversation Dictionary' and 'Traveller's Manual of Conversation' will be found useful.

Commissionaires generally charge 1 florin for half-a-day, and 2 fl. for a whole day.

Vienna (436 ft.), the capital of the Empire of Austria and the residence of the emperor, lies in a plain surrounded by distant mountains, on the Danube Canal, the southern arm of the river, into which the Wien falls within the city. The city is divided into 19 districts ('Bezirke'): I. Interior of the city, II. Leopoldstadt, III. Landstrasse, IV. Wieden, V. Margarethen, VI. Mariahilf, VII. Neubau, VIII. Josefstadt, IX. Alsergrund, X. Favoriten, XI. Simmering, XII. Meidling, XIII. Hietzing, XIV. Rudolfsheim, XV. Fünfhaus, XVI. Ottakring, XVII. Hernals, XVIII. Währing, XIX. Döbling. According to the census of 1896 the interior of the city had a population of 67,440, the whole town 1,511,000 inhab., including 120,000 Jews and a garrison of 22,650 soldiers.

Vienna was originally the ancient Celtic settlement of Vindomna or Vindomina (old Celtic Vindóbona), which the Romans seized and fortified about A. D. 14. Marcus Aurelius died here in 180. By the end of the third century the settlement had become a municipium or town, and the seat of the Roman civil and military government, and it continued to flourish until the invasion of the Avars about 588. From that date the Roman Vindobona disappears from history until 791, when Charlemagne conquered the Avars and made the tract between the Enns and the Wiener Wald the boundary of his empire. From the time of Emp. Otho II. (973-983) the fief of Austria (the 'Eastern Mark') was held by the Babenbergers, who exchanged their title of 'Markgraf', or count of the Mark, for that of duke in the reign of Frederick Barbarossa (12th cent.). The first mention of Viennis occurs in a charter of 1030; in 1137 it is spoken of as Viennensis Locus; and in 1156 it became the residence of Duke Heinrich Jasomirgott. During the Crusades Vienna increased so rapidly, owing to the traffic which flowed through it, that when the Babenbergers had become extinct, and Ottokar of Bohemia occupied the country (1251-1276), those fortifications were probably marked out which formed the boundary of the inner city down to 1857. Ottokar was defeated by Rudolph of Hapsburg in 1276, and Vienna then became the seat of the Hapsburg dynasty. In 1365 Duke Rudolph IV. founded the University. In 1519 Emp. Maximilian I. entertained Wladislaw, King of Hungary and Bohemia, and Sigismund I., King of Poland, at Vienna, and on that occasion concluded the marriages of his children, through which Bohemia, Moravia, and Hungary fell to the crown of Austria, giving rise to the saying: —

'Bella gerant alii, tu felix Austria nube;
Nam quae Mars aliis, dat tibi regna Venus'.

Vienna was twice besieged by the Turks, under Soliman II. from 22nd Sept. to 15th Oct., 1529, and under Mohammed IV., by the grand-vizier Kara Mustapha, from 14th July to 12th Sept., 1683. In the latter case they were defeated by John Sobieski, King of Poland, and Margrave Lewis of Baden with an allied army of Poles, Austrians, Saxons, Bavarians, and Franks. In addition to its inner fortifications, External Works were constructed in 1704 as a protection against the incursions of the Hungarians under Francis Rakoczy. These, consisting of a rampart, 12 ft. high, and a fosse, were called the Linien-Graben and Linien-Wall, or the 'Lines', but the Viennese afterwards generally applied the word to the eighteen exits from the city named after the suburbs adjoining them. After the disastrous battles of 1805 (Austerlitz) and 1809 (Wagram) Vienna was for a short period occupied by the French. The Congress of Vienna was held from 3rd Nov., 1814, to 9th June, 1815. The period of political reaction that followed the overthrow of Napoleon retarded also the material prosperity of the city. An insurrection in 1848 was repressed by the strong hand, but it led to the abdication of Emp. Ferdinand I., and a better condition of things dawned at the accession of Francis Joseph. The Internal Fortifications, consisting of rampart, fosse, and glacis, were levelled in pursuance of an imperial decree of 1857, and the space used for the erection of the Ring-Strasse (p. 25), a broad street encircling the interior of the city. The famous 'Compromise' or agreement between Austria and Hungary in 1867 made Pest the capital of the E. or 'Transleithan' half of the empire and an alternative residence of the emperor, thenceforward known also as 'King of Hungary'; but Vienna obtained compensation for its loss of dignity as the sole capital of the empire in the immense increase of trade and commerce due to the regulation of the Danube in 1870-77, which provided a new channel for the river and removed all danger of floods. The international exhibition of 1873 and the introduction of admirable drinking-water by an aqueduct in 1870-73 contributed also to the prosperity and health of Vienna. Another great advance was made after 1890, since which date the Linien-Wall has been levelled and the onter districts incorporated with tbe city (p. 12), the huge Imperial Museum opened, and the new Burg-Theater and other theatres built. But Vienna still lags behind other great cities in such matters as the lighting of the streets and the means of communication, though an improvement in the latter is looked for from the construction of the suburban lines (p. 6) and the regulation of the Wien.

The great Religious Houses and Abbeys of Austria formerly possessed and still hold much valuable property in Vienna. They own several of those huge edifices called Höfe, which contain inmates enough to people a small town. One of the largest is the Schottenhof (p. 24), once belonging to Scottish Benedictines, who were invited bither by Heinrich II. Jasomirgott in 1158, but afterwards gave place to German monks. Opposite to it, and nearly as large, is the Mölkerhof, owned by the Abbey of Melk (p. 90). The Starhembergische Freihaus in the suburb of Wieden contains upwards of 200 different dwellings, and the Rothe Haus in the Alsergrund is scarcely smaller.

Within the last few decades Vienna has acquired an importance as a seat of ART of which nothing in its previous history gave promise. It has, indeed, possessed an Academy of Art since the end of the 17th cent., but this institution had no share whatever in promoting the modern revival of art in Germany. The honour of inspiring Viennese painting with new life, and of introducing an elevated and monumental style, is chiefly due to Karl Rahl (d. 1865), who settled in Vienna after the revolution of 1848; and with his name we must couple that of Führich, Overbeck's associate, whose powers were not fully revealed till the closing years of his life (d. 1876). To the success of their efforts, however, various circumstances contributed. Thus, about the middle of the century, artistic work was much in demand in connection with the building of the Votive Church (by Ferstel), and of the Arsenal. A still greater stimulus to art has been given since 1860 by the extension of the city, the institution of admirable museums of art and industry, the erection of many great public buildings (Reichsraths-Gebäude, University, Rathhaus, Theatres), and the collection of pictures by enthusiastic amateurs. The chief modern exponent of Gothic architecture was Fr. von Schmidt; Hansen and Hasenauer also gained high repute; and Semper's influence has been beneficially exerted. In the province of sculpture Zumbusch and other masters were not natives of Vienna, but a healthy and vigorous Austrian school soon sprang up, directing its efforts chiefly to portraiture (Kundmann, Tilgner, Weyr, Hellmer). Painters abound, their zeal being stimulated by their Hungarian rivals, and not a little by influences from Paris and Munich. The eminent Hans Makart (d. 1884), however, must be reckoned as a genuine product of Austrian soil.

I. THE INNER CITY AND THE RING-STRASSE.

a. Church of St. Stephen. Graben. Kohlmarkt.

The Church of St. Stephen (Pl. II; C, 3), or Cathedral, the most important edifice in Vienna, was erected after conflagrations in 1258 and 1276, on the site of an earlier church dating from 1144-47. The W. façade, which retains Romanesque forms on the portal and towers, was begun immediately after the first fire. The choir, with three aisles, was not built until the following century, and was consecrated in 1340. Duke Rudolph IV. (1356-65) directed the architect, Meister Wenzla of Klosterneuburg, to prepare comprehensive plans for the remaining portions and he laid the foundation of the nave, and probably of the S. tower also, in 1359. The latter was completed in 1433, but the N. tower, begun in 1450, was left unfinished in 1519. Among the other architects of the church are Ulrich Helbling, Hans von Prachatitz, who completed the tower in 1433, and Hans Puchsbaum, who vaulted the nave in 1446. The church, which is in the form of a Latin cross, and is built of limestone, is 355 ft. long; the nave and aisles are of equal height (89 ft.) and nearly equal width (35 and 29 ft.). The rich groined vaulting is borne by 18 massive pillars, adorned with upwards of 100 statuettes. The roof is covered with coloured tiles. Since 1852 the cathedral has been thoroughly restored by L. Ernst (d. 1862), Fr. von Schmidt (d. 1891), and Herrmann.

Exterior. At the W. end are the Romanesque Riesenthor, or Giant's Door (opened only on occasions of great solemnity), the two towers called the Heidenthürme (210 ft. high), and a number of sculptures of the Romanesque era. On the S. side, adjoining the first entrance (Singerthor), is a tombstone said to be that of the Meistersänger Neithart Fuchs (14th cent.). Then follows the bay of the tower with the Primthor, in which are memorial tablets, with busts, by Kundmann (1894), of L. Ernst and Fr. von Schmidt (see above). The Choir is surrounded by tombstones. In a recess is a fresco of Hell by Danhauser (1827; restored in 1894 by Groll). The reliefs in stone, Christ taking leave of the Holy Women, Christ on the Mt. of Olives, and Bearing of the Cross, date from the 15th century. On the N. side is the Pulpit of the Franciscan monk Capistranus (1451); adjacent is the entrance to the catacombs (p. 15). The entrance to the bay of the (unfinished) N. tower (213 ft.) is named the Adlerthor (Eagle's Door), the second is the Bischofsthor (Bishop's Door).

Interior. The Adlerthor forms the entrance to the bay of the N. tower, to the left of which is the CHAPEL OF ST. BARBARA, containing a votive altar in memory of the escape of Emp. Francis Joseph in 1853 (p. 26). Next to this is the FRAUENCHOR (N. side choir), with a new altar designed by Schmidt and many monuments, including those of Duke Rudolph IV. and Catharine, his duchess. In the HAUPTCHOR (centre-choir), on the left, is the altar of St. John of Nepomuc; in the centre a high-altar of black marble, with an altar-piece of the Stoning of St. Stephen, by Bock; on the right the altar of St. Carlo Borromeo; richly-carved choir-stalls of the 15th century. In front of the steps to the vestry is a stone which closes the entrance to the old burial vault of the sovereigns of Austria; but for the last 200 years the members of the imperial family have been interred in the church of the Capuchins (p. 20). The THEKLA CHOIR OR FRIEDRICHSCHOR contains the Sarcophagus of Emp. Frederick III.* (d. 1493), by Lerch, completed in 1513, a most elaborate work in red and white marble, surrounded by 32 coats-of-arms; in 8 sections below are Scripture scenes; at the feet of the figure various animals. In front of the steps of the altar is a Monumental Brass, with three coats-of-arms, and a Latin inscription, recording that three town-councillors repose here who were executed by Leopold the Proud in 1408, on account of their adherence to their lawful prince, the infant Albert V. To the right of the emperor's tomb is a fine winged altar, brought in 1885 from the Neu-Kloster at Wiener-Neustadt (p. 178). — In the bay of the S. tower is a triumphal *Arch (50 ft. high) of red marble in the baroque style, by Hellmer (1894), commemorating the relief of Vienna from the Turkish besiegers in 1683; the numerous figures and reliefs in Carrara marble are explained by the inscription. Opposite is the CHAPEL OF ST. CATHARINE, which contains the tomb of Archbp. Milde (d. 1853) and a fine font of 1481. — The NAVE contains the Pulpit*, executed in stone in 1512 by the architect Pilgram; on the front, four Fathers of the Church; under the stairs, the figure of the master, looking through a window; on the hand-rail, toads, lizards, and other animals. — On the N. wall, immediately to the W. of the entrance, and forming the termination of a former organ-choir, is the Stone Figure of the Architect Jörg Oechsel* (beginning of 16th cent.), holding a rule and pair of compasses in his hand, and looking through a small window. — By the W. Portal, on the N. side, is the SAVOY or LIECHTENSTEIN CHAPEL, with the tomb of Prince Eugene of Savoy (d. 1736). Two of the stained-glass windows in the choir date from the 14-15th cent., the others are modern, by Geyling (three from designs by Führich). All the other windows of the church are also filled with stained glass. — Below the church are extensive CATACOMBS, consisting of three vaults, one below another, filled with bones and skulls. Visitors not now admitted.

The Tower of St. Stephen's (449 ft.), which affords an extensive view and a good survey of the battlefields of Lobau, Wagram, and Essling, was erected in 1860-64 to replace the former tower, which had to be taken down owing to its unsafe condition. In the second stage hangs the huge bell. Tickets for the ascent (533 steps) obtained at the sacristan's office, Stephans-Platz 1 (20 kr.; on week-days only, 8-5).

On the N. side of the STEPHANS-PLATZ is the Archiepiscopal Palace, erected in 1632-41; in the court is a tasteful fountain; in the chapel an altar-piece by Kupelwieser. Opposite, at the corner of the Brandstätte, is the handsome Thonet'sche Haus. — The S. continuation of the Stephans-Platz is called the Stock-im-Eisen-Platz.

No. 6, at the corner of Graben, is the richly-decorated house, by Van der Nüll (1867; rococo style), of Ph. Haas & Sons (p. 8). — At the corner of the Graben and Kärntner Str., in front of the Equitable Assurance Office (built 1890), is the 'Stock im Eisen', the stump of a larch, full of nails driven into it in accordance with an ancient national custom (not peculiar to Austria), on account of its supposed sanctity. The stump is secured with an iron hoop and a lock bearing the date 1575. It is said once to have marked the end of the Wiener Wald. — At the corner of the Stephans-Platz and the Singer-Str. rises the handsome house 'Zum Goldenen Becher', adorned with frescoes.

The GRABEN (Pl. II; C, 3), with its attractive shops (p. 8), the principal business-street in Vienna next to the Kärntner-Str. (p. 20), was the moat of the fortifications in the 12th cent., and the houses on the N. side occupy the site of the ancient wall. Its appearance has been entirely modernized within the last few decades.

On the right, No. 31, is the Aziendahof, in the Italian Renaissance style, by Hasenauer; then (No. 29) the Trattnerhof (1776) and (No. 21) the First Austrian Savings Bank (1836). To the left (No. 8) is the New York Insurance Co. The Lechleitner'sche Haus, or 'Grabenhof' (on the left, Nos. 14, 15), has a rich façade by Wagner and Thienemann (1876). — In the centre of the Graben rises the Trinity Column (Pl. II; C, 3), a confused group of figures among clouds, erected by order of Emp. Leopold I. in 1679, on the cessation of the plague. The figures of SS. Joseph and Leopold on the two Fountains are by J. M. Fischer (1804).

The Jungferngasse leads to the N.E. from the Graben to the Peters-Platz. The Church of St. Peter here (Pl. II; C, 3), with its handsome dome, was erected in 1702. It was restored in 1839-44 and again in 1890. Ceiling-paintings by Rothmayer and Bibbiena, and altar-pieces by Altomonte, Kupelwieser, and others.

The KOHLMARKT (Pl. II; B, C, 3), another busy street, leads from the end of the Graben to the left to the Burg. To the left, in the Michaeler Platz, is the Church of St. Michael, originally erected in the Transition style in 1219-21, with a Gothic choir and tower (1327), but greatly altered in the 17th century. Over the high-altar, the Fall of the Angels, in stucco. Many tombstones of the 16-18th centuries. Paintings by Schnorr and others. — The large Fountain in the middle of the square is by Hellmer (1895).

b. The Imperial Hofburg.

The imperial Hofburg (Pl. II; B, C, 3, 4), usually called the Burg, residence of the Austrian princes since the 13th cent., is an extensive, irregular pile, dating from different periods. To the N. is the Reichskanzlei-Palast, built in 1728 by Fischer von Erlach, with an admirable curved *Façade on the N.E., facing the Michaeler-Platz, erected in 1890-93 by Ferd. Kirschner from the old plans of Fischer von Erlach. This façade, occupying part of the site of the old Burg-Theater, is adorned with a fine iron gateway and a handsome central dome, flanked by two smaller domes. In niches below the latter are fountain-groups in marble, symbolizing *Naval Power, by R. Weyer (1895; to the E. or left), and Military Power, by Hellmer (1896; to the W. or right). In the centre of the vestibule, between the Michaeler-Platz and the Innere Burghof or Franzens-Platz, is a large rotunda, with the staircases to the Treasury (see below), the state-archives, the Obersthofmeister-Amt, or office of the major-domo, and the apartments of Emp. Francis Joseph (first floor).

At the entrance from the Michaeler-Platz are four Hercules groups: Fight with the Hydra, by Hoffmann von Aspernburg, Rescue of Hesione, by Joh. Scherpe. Deliverance of Prometheus, by Jos. Lax, and Fight with Cerberus, by A. P. Wagner. Over the entrance is an inscription (Franciscus Josephus I. vetus palatii opus a Carolo VI. inchoatum a Maria Theresia et Josepho II. continuatum perfecit. A.D. MDCCCXCIII); above which, in the attic story, is a group of Justice, Wisdom, and Strength, by Joh. Benk. — In the outer archways to the rotunda are two reliefs designed by Kenner: on the right, Departure of the Ruler to War, executed by Otto König; on the left, Victorious Return, by Stefan Schwartz. In the niches of the narrow cross-passages are four allegorical figures: to the right, Pietas Augusti by H. Kalmsteiner, and Fides Publica by W. Seib; to the left, Providentia Augusti by Fr. Koch, and Spes Publica by W. David. Beyond the rotunda are the mottoes of the various princes who have taken part in erecting the Burg. — At the entrances from the Franzens-Platz and from the Schauflergasse (on the N.W.) are four Hercules groups by Matthielli (Antæus, Busiris, at the former; Nemean Lion, Cretan Bull, at the latter).

The Imperial Treasury (adm., p. 10) is still highly interesting, though many objects have been removed to the Imperial Museum of Art-History (p. 33). Among its contents may be mentioned: Insignia of the Holy Roman Empire*, once preserved at Aix-la-Chapelle, afterwards (1424-1796) at Nuremberg: the crown of Charlemagne, the sceptre, orb, dalmatica, alb, stole, girdle, coronation-robe, book of the Gospels; swords of Charlemagne and of St. Mauritius; sabre of Haroun al-Raschid; also the relics which were shown during the coronation (fragment of the 'true cross', lance which pierced the Saviour's side, etc.). — The Austrian Regalia: crown, sceptre, and orb, of the time of Rudolph II.; crown of the empress, reset in 1867. — Burgundian Heralds' Vestments (15th cent.) from the treasury of Charles the Bold, brought to Vienna after the marriage of Maximilian I. and Mary of Burgundy. — The Collection of Jewels is of enormous value. One of its most interesting objects is the celebrated 'Florentine' diamond, 133 1/5 carats in weight, valued at 57,449*l.*, also once the property of Charles the Bold, said to have been found by a peasant after the Battle of Morat and sold to a Bernese merchant for 1 fl. It was subsequently purchased by the Grand-Duke of Tuscany, and is now set in a hat-clasp. Decorations of Orders, e.g. jewel of the Golden Fleece, composed of 150 brilliants with the so-called 'Frankfort solitaire' (42 1/2 carats) in the centre; scarf with the Grand Cross of the Order of Maria Theresa, with 548 brilliants and a pink diamond in the centre (26 carats); star of Joseph II. Insignia of Napoleon I. as King of Italy; also the silver-gilt cradle of the King of Rome, weighing 5 cwt. Historical Curiosities: Staff of the president of the imperial chamber, presented by Maximilian to his privy-councillor and chancellor, Frederick, Count of Hohenzollern, on 13th Oct., 1495; Horoscope (talisman) of Wallenstein; Snuff-box of Prince Kaunitz.

In the centre of the Franzens-Platz rises the Monument of Emp. Francis II. (d. 1835), in bronze, by Marchesi: the Emperor in antique garb; at the corners, figures of Religion, Peace, Justice, and Bravery; on the sides, eight bas-reliefs of Science, Commerce, Industry, Mining, Agriculture, Cattle-breeding, Arts, and War.

Opposite the Reichskanzlei-Palast, on the S.W. side of the Franzens-Platz, is the Leopoldinische Trakt (built by Leopold I. after the fire of 1668), with the old Residence, containing the superb 'Rittersaal', the long 'Controlor' corridor in which Joseph II. granted audience to all comers, the apartments once occupied by Maria Theresa and Joseph II. (adm., see p. 10), and the Military Office of the emperor. In front of it is the Hauptwache, or Guard House (parade with military music daily, except Sunday, at 1 p.m.).

Adjoining the Franzens-Platz on the N.W. is the Amalienhof, erected at the end of the 17th cent., and sometimes occupied by the late Empress Elizabeth. It contains the office of the Oberst-Stallmeister (tickets for the stables are obtained on week-days from 10 to 12 at the office to the right in the passage under the clock, p. 10). The passage to the left in the S.E. corner of the Franzens-Platz, with the coloured and gilded armorial bearings, leads across an old drawbridge and moat to the Schweizerhof (16th cent.), the oldest part of the Burg now left. On the bridge over the fosse are two small lions in stone with armorial bearings, on the left those of Hapsburg, on the right five larks (or properly eagles), the ancient crest of the Archduchy. To the left in the corner of the Schweizerhof is a side-entrance to the Treasury (p. 16). On the right is the Burgkapelle; the end of the choir is the only relic of the original Gothic building of 1449. (Church-music, see p. 7). A gateway leads hence to the Josefs-Platz and the Augustine Church. In the Josefs-Platz, in the corner to the right, is the entrance to the Imperial Library, and in the middle is the entrance to the Cabinet of Engravings. On the left are the Redoutensäle, or Ball Rooms, and the Winter

Riding School, erected in 1735, with a gallery borne by 46 columns. In the centre of the Platz rises the Equestrian Statue of Emp. Joseph II. (d. 1790) by Zauner, in bronze; two large reliefs at the sides refer to agriculture and commerce; on the granite corner-columns are 16 small reliefs in bronze, scenes from the emperor's life. — The Augustine Church, etc., see p. 19.

The Imperial Library (entrance in the S.E. corner of the Josefs-Platz; adm., see p. 10), erected by Fischer von Erlach in 1722, occupies the S.W. side of the Josefs-Platz. Roman antiquities on the walls of the staircase. In the centre of the richly decorated *Hall (85 by 18 yds.) are statues of Charles VI. and other princes of the House of Hapsburg. The imposing dome is embellished with frescoes by Daniel Gran. The library contains upwards of 400,000 vols. and 20,000 MSS., including valuable Oriental documents collected by Baron von Hammer-Purgstall (d. 1856), and 12,000 vols. of music. Among the 6800 'Incunabula' (i. e. books printed prior to 1500) are a Psalter of 1457 by Schöffer and Fust, and the oldest edition of the Biblia Pauperum, of 1430. The chief treasures of the library are exhibited in eight glass-cases.

Case A. Materials used for writing: purple parchment with silver and gold letters of the 6th cent., being fragments of the Gospels; cotton, linen, and mulberry paper; palm-leaves. — B. Greek MSS.: Fragments of the Book of Genesis of the 5th cent. on purple parchment; a work on medicinal herbs, with illustrations, of the 5th century. — C. Latin MSS.: Fragments of the Roman history of Livy, the only MS. which contains the 5th Decade, brought by St. Suitbert from Scotland in the 7th century. — D. German MSS.: Harmony of the Gospels, by Otfried, composed about 885, a fine contemporary MS.; Tristan and Isolt, by Godfrey of Strassburg (about 1210), a MS. of the 14th cent.; fragments of a MS. of the 8th century. — E. Other Western Languages: Illustrated French Bible with miniatures on gold ground, of the 14th cent.; Tasso's Gerusalemme Conquistata, written by the poet's own hand. — F. Oriental Languages: Small octagonal Koran of 1545, worn as an amulet; Chinese MS. on paper with golden letters on an azure ground, with illustrations on fig-leaves. — G. and H. MSS. with beautiful miniatures of the 8-16th cent.; Hortulus Animæ by Seb. Brant, with 66 exquisite illustrations, scenes from the life of the Saviour and saints, by a Flemish artist; well-thumbed prayer-book of Charles V. with the names of several of his relations.

Connected with the Imperial Library is a collection, founded by Prince Eugene, of about 300,000 Engravings and Wood-cuts, embracing artists from the earliest period to the present time (about 1000 vols.; under the dome; entr. to the left of the main door). The Collection of Portraits comprises 34,000 plates.

On the right, in the large Outer Burg-Platz, or Helden-Platz, between the Burg and the Ring-Strasse, rises the equestrian Statue of Archduke Charles (d. 1847), in the act of waving a flag, in allusion to the victory of Aspern (p. 325), designed by Fernkorn (1860). To the left is the equestrian Statue of Prince Eugene of Savoy ('der edle Ritter'; d. 1736), also by Fernkorn (1865).

The outer Burgthor (Pl. II; B, 4), with five passages, and adorned with twelve Doric columns, was erected by Nobile in 1822. On the side next the town is the motto of Emp. Francis II., 'Justitia Regnorum Fundamentum'. Semper's design for the reconstruction of the Hofburg includes two large wings, extending from this gate, along the Hofgarten and the Volksgarten, to the central part of the new, dome-covered Hofburg. The S.E. wing, along the Hofgarten, is approaching completion.

The Volksgarten (Pl. II; A, B, 3), on the N.W. side of the Burg-Platz, laid out by Emp. Francis in 1824, contains pleasant grounds which attract numerous visitors (café; concerts, see p. 7). The so-called Temple of Theseus formerly contained Canova's marble group of the Victory of Theseus over the Centaur, now in the Imperial Museum of Art (p. 33). — To the left, near the café, is the Grillparzer Monument, erected in 1889, forming a semicircle, in the central niche of which is the sitting figure of the poet (d. 1891), over life-size, by Kundmann; the inner walls of the wings are embellished with scenes from his works, in relief, by R. Weyr: on the left the Ancestress, Dream a Life, King Ottokar; on the right Sappho, Medea, Hero and Leander.

The Hofgarten (Pl. II; B, 4), on the S. side of the Burg-Platz, with an equestrian Statue of Francis I. (d. 1765), husband of Maria Theresa, is closed pending the extension of the Burg (see above).

c. The S.E. Part of the Inner City.

In the Josefs-Platz (p. 17), opposite the statue, is th Palais Pallavicini (No. 5; Pl. II, B, C, 3), built in 1784; colossal double Caryatides at the entrance by Zauner. No. 6, on the right, is the Italian Embassy. On the left is the Stallburg (built in 1529), containing the offices of the Oberstkämmerer and the Obersthofmarschall, connected with the Hofburg by an arcade.

In the Augustinergasse, which leads hence to the S. to the Albrecht-Platz, is the Augustiner-Kirche (Pl. II, B, C, 4; court-church), begun in 1330, a Gothic building with an unusually long choir (nave 61 ft., choir 75 ft. high). The tower, dating from 1850, replaces one burned down in 1848.

Opposite the entrance stands the beautiful marble Monument of the Archduchess Maria Christina* (d. 1793, daughter of Empress Maria Theresa), by Canova. Farther on, to the left, is the door of the Loretto-Kapelle, which contains the hearts of all the emperors and empresses since Matthias. In an adjacent chapel on the left, closed by a gate, is the monument of Emp. Leopold II. (d. 1792), in marble by Zauner. By the wall is the monument of Marshal Daun (d. 1766), erected by Maria Theresa to this 'patriae liberator'. Van Swieten (d. 1772), the physician of the Empress, also reposes here. — Abraham a Sancta Clara (d. 1709) was preacher at this church.

Nearly opposite the church are the Dorotheergasse with the Lutheran and the Reformed Churches (Nos. 18 and 16), and the small Lobkowitz-Platz with the Palais of Prince Lobkowitz (1685-90), now the French Embassy. In the Albrecht-Platz (Pl. II; C, 4) is the Mozart Monument, by Tilgner (1896), with charming putti on the pedestal. Opposite, at the corner of the Augustiner-Bastei, is the Albrechts-Brunnen, erected in 1869, and adorned with marble statues by Meixner: in the centre the Danube with Vindobona; on the right the Theiss, Raab, Enns, Traun, and Inn; on the left the Save, March, Salzach, Mur, and Drave. Above it rises the Equestrian Statue of Archduke Albrecht (d. 1895), in bronze, by Zumbusch (1899).

On the Augustiner-Bastei stands the Palace of Archduke Friedrich (Pl. II; C, 4), built in 1801-4 and altered in 1865-67, containing the Albertina, a famous library and collection of engravings and drawings (adm., see p. 10; entrance in the rear-building, first floor).

This collection, one of the most valuable in Europe, was founded by Duke Albert of Sachsen-Teschen (d. 1822), enlarged by Archduke Charles (d. 1847) and Archduke Albrecht, and now belongs to Archduke Frederick. It is chiefly remarkable for its Drawings, 18,000 in number. Among them are about 50 by Raphael (including the study of the battle with the Saracens at Ostia, presented by Raphael to Dürer in 1515), 150 by Dürer, 52 by Rubens (nearly all genuine), and 147 by Rembrandt (100 authenticated; the largest existing collection of Rembrandt's drawings). Among the most interesting are the portrait of Emp. Max I., the so-called 'Green Passion', the hare, the flowers, etc., by Dürer, and the numerous etchings and sketches by the best masters. The number of Engravings exceeds 220,000, the older masters being copiously represented (works of Marcantonio Raimondi in beautiful specimens, etc.). The finest plates are framed and exposed to view in cabinets. — The Library of 50,000 vols. includes many superb old works, historical, military, and relating to the history of art. Also a collection of 24,000 Maps and Plans.

Opera House, Ring-Strasse, etc., see pp. 53 et seq.

The Tegetthoffgasse leads to the N. from the Albrecht-Platz to the NEW MARKET (Pl. II; C, 3, 4), enclosed by handsome blocks of buildings, erected since 1894. The Fountain* in the centre represents the chief rivers of the Archduchy (Enns, Ybbs, Traun, and March) which fall into the Danube. The original in lead, by Raph. Donner (1739; restored by C. M. Fischer in 1801), was replaced in 1873 by a copy in bronze.

On the W. side of the Platz is the Capuchin Church (Pl. II; C, 4), a rococo edifice of 1622, containing the Imperial Vault. The latter is open to the public on All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day (1st and 2nd Nov.), and to strangers daily, from Easter to All Saints', 9-12, in winter 10-12. Apply to the porter (the guide, a Capuchin, expects a donation for the poor). A passage leads down the middle of the long vault, between the numerous coffins (120).

In front is the large double sarcophagus of Maria Theresa (d. 1780) and her husband Francis I. (d. 1765); then Joseph II. (d. 1790); Francis II. (d. 1835); Marie Louise, Empress of the French (d. 1847), and her son the Duke of Reichstadt (d. 1832); Emp. Maximilian of Mexico (d. 1867); Crown Prince Rudolph (d. 1889); Empress Elizabeth (d. 1898). In the side-vault on the left Archduke Charles (d. 1847); Leopold II. (d. 1792). In the side-vault to the right the older sarcophagi, most of them richly decorated: Charles VI. (d. 1740), Leopold I. (d. 1705), Joseph I. (d. 1711), Matthias II. (d. 1619). The last-named, with his empress (d. 1618), were the first members of the imperial family to be buried here.

The short Schwanengasse leads hence to the busy Kärntner-Strasse, the chief artery of traffic in the inner city, widened and embellished since 1894. Nearly opposite the end of the Schwanengasse is the Maltese Church (Pl. II; C, 4), or St. John the Baptist's, attended by Hungarians. It contains an honorary monument in plaster to the Grand Master Lavalette, representing the fortress of Malta. — In the adjacent Annagasse are the Annahof (No. 3), erected in 1894, with a frescoed façade (Franziskaner Keller, see p. 3), and the Church of St. Anna (Pl. II; C, 4), rebuilt in the rococo style after a fire in 1747, formerly a church of the Jesuits, and now used by a French congregation (French sermon on Sundays); the frescoes and picture of the Virgin are by D. Gran. — To the N., Himmelpfortgasse 8, is the Office of the Minister of Finance, in a rich rococo style, with a handsome vestibule and staircase, erected by Hildebrand and Fischer von Erlach in 1703; it was originally the palace of Prince Eugene of Savoy, who died here in 1736. — To the E., in the Seilerstätte (Pl. II; C, D, 4), are Ronacher's Establishment (p. 7), in the former Stadt-Theater (burned in 1884), and the Palace of the Duke of Coburg (No. 3).

From the N. end of the Seilerstätte we return through the Singer-Strasse to the Graben. The House of the Teutonic Order, on the right side of the Singer-Str. (No. 7), occupies the site of a commandery and chapel of 1200; the Gothic church, richly adorned with coats-of-arms, banners, and monuments, erected in 1326, was rebuilt in 1730 and restored in 1864.

From the Stephans-Platz the busy Rothenthurm-Strasse runs to the N.E. to the Leopoldstadt. No. 10, on the right, at the corner of the Lugeck, is the grand 'Germaniahof'. The Lugeck, then the Bäcker-Str., to the right, lead to the small Universitäts-Platz (Pl. II; D, 3), in which rises the University Church, erected by the Jesuits in 1628-31 in the baroque style. The frescoes in the dome, executed by Andr. Pozzo in 1705, were restored by P. Krafft in 1834; high-altar-piece by Kupelwieser. Adjacent (No. 2), is the old building of the University, a handsome rococo building (1753-55) with a splendid vestibule, occupied since 1857 by the Academy of Sciences (founded in 1846).

In the Fleischmarkt, the next side-street to the right of the Rothenthurm-Str., stands the Greek Church (Pl. II; D, 3, 4), built in 1804. The new Byzantine façade, designed by Hansen, was added in 1858 at the cost of Baron Sina (d. 1876); the frescoes on gold ground are by Rahl. The vestibule contains paintings by Bitterlich and Eisenmenger, and the rich interior is adorned with frescoes by Thiersch. — The Church of St. Barbara, in the neighbouring Postgasse, carefully restored in 1852, belongs to the 'United Greek' congregation. In the same street are the Office of the Minister of Commerce (No. 8), the Post-Office Savings-Bank (No. 9), and the General Post Office (Nos. 10 & 12).

d. The N. W. Part of the Inner City.

From the N.W. end of the Graben the Bognergasse (observe memorial tablet on No. 1) leads straight to the Hof and the Freiung, while the Tuchlauben to the right (No. 8, the Austrian Kunstverein; p. 9) leads to the Hohe Markt (Pl. II; C, 2, 3), said to have been the forum of the Roman Vindobona (p. 12). The Sina Palace (No. 8), restored by Hansen and decorated by Rahl, is part of the Berghof, the oldest house in Vienna, where the Roman Prætorium is supposed once to have stood (inscription). In the centre rises a Votive Monument designed by Fischer von Erlach, representing the marriage of the Virgin, erected by Charles VI. in 1732 to commemorate the bravery of Emp. Joseph I. at the siege of Landau, and restored in 1852. The figures are by Corradini. On each side of it is a fountain. Between the Hohe Markt and the Danube lay the old Jewish Quarter. From the N. angle of the Markt the Marc-Aurel-Str. and Vorlauf-Str. lead to the Danube. — No. 8 Wipplinger Str., a little to the N.W., is the Old Rathhaus (unoccupied), the oldest part of which, next to the Salvatorgasse, dates from 1455, and the façade in front from 1706. In the court is a Fountain with Perseus and Andromeda by Donner. Opposite, No. 11, at the corner of the Juden-Platz, are the offices of the Minister of the Interior, erected by Fischer von Erlach in 1716.

Adjoining the old Rathhaus on the right is the Salvator- or Rathhaus-Kapelle (Pl. II; C, 2), consisting of two chapels united by an archway, the older dating from 1361, the other from 1452-57, and the fine Renaissance portal from 1515. Tower added in 1867. The chapel is used by an Old-Catholic congregation.

The church of Maria-Stiegen ('Maria am Gestade'; Pl. II, C, 2) in the Salvatorgasse, attended by the Bohemians, contains handsome altars and old and modern stained glass. The narrow and lofty nave, without aisles, dates from 1394 (restored 1817-20); it joins the choir (completed about 1350) in a slightly oblique direction. The heptagonal tower (190 ft.), of the close of the 15th cent., terminates in an elegant open-work dome.

We now return to the Wipplinger-Str., where we have a glimpse, between Nos. 22 and 24, of the 'Tiefe Graben' below. The Färbergasse leads hence to the Platz am Hof (Pl. II; B, C, 2, 3), the largest square in the interior of the city, where stood, as an inscription on No. 14 (see above) records, the old castle of the margraves and dukes of the house of Babenberg (p. 12). In the centre rises a Column of the Virgin, erected by Leopold I. in 1667. The Equestrian Statue of Fieldmarshal Radetzky* (1766-1858), by Zumbusch, on the S. side of the square, was unveiled in 1892. In the S.E. corner of the Platz is the War Office (No. 14). Adjoining it is the Church am Hof (Pl. II; C, 2), formerly belonging to the Jesuits, of the 15th cent., with a rococo façade added in 1662. The handsome building opposite (No. 6) is the Austrian Credit-Anstalt (Pl. II; B, 2), built in 1858-60 and adorned with six statues by Gasser. The Civic Arsenal (No. 10), on the N. side, built in 1562, with a façade of 1732, has yielded its collection of weapons to the New Rathhaus (p. 27).

The FREIUNG (Pl. II; B, 2), the adjoining Platz on the W., is adorned with a Fountain by Schwanthaler, a column wreathed with oak-leaves, bearing a figure of Austria; below, the Danube, Elbe, Vistula, and Po.

On the left (No. 3) is Count Harrach's Palace (Pl. II; B, 2), built in 1689, containing a fine winter-garden and the Harrach Picture Gallery (on the second floor; adm., see p. 10; entrance by the door on the left). The 400 pictures are well arranged in three rooms and two cabinets, and lighted from above. Catalogue, 70 kr.

Opposite, between the Freiung, Schottengasse, and Schottensteiggasse, lies the spacious Schottenhof (Pl. II, B, 2; p. 13), facing which is the Mölkerhof (p. 13). The Schottenkirche (Pl. II; B, 2), built in 1638-62 and restored in 1892-93, with a superb high-altar, restored by Ferstel, and paintings by Sandrart, contains the tombs of Count Starhemberg (d. 1701), the brave defender of the city against the Turks in 1683, and of Duke Heinrich Jasomirgott (d. 1177; handsome sarcophagus in the vault). The last-named is also commemorated by a monument on the exterior, by J. Breitner (1893).

At the N.E. corner of the Platz, Renngasse 4, is Count Schönborn's Palace (Pl. II; B, 2), with the Schönborn Picture Gallery (first floor; adm., see p. 10; door to the right in the entrance). Catalogue, 20 kr.

Adjoining the Harrach Palace on the left is the Bankgebäude (Freiung, No. 2), erected by Ferstel in 1856-60 in the early Italian Renaissance style. The passage contains a pretty fountain in bronze with a nymph of the Danube by Fernkorn. — In the court of the Montenuovo Palace (now the Anglo-Austrian Bank), Strauchgasse 1, is a fountain-group of *St. George and the Dragon by Fernkorn.

The Herrengasse leads to the left to the Michaeler-Platz (p. 16). No. 13 is the Niederösterreichische Landhaus (Pl. II; B, 3), or hall of the Diet of Lower Austria, erected by Pichl in 1839, with a good façade.

Interior. Observe the old chapel with an altar-piece by Geyling (designed by L. von Schnorr) and a fine mosaic pavement. Assembly-hall, with a fresco by A. Belucci. Room of the Prelates and Barons. MSS. Room with beautiful ceiling-paintings of the 16th cent. (battles between Roman Catholics and Protestants) and two fine marble portals. Library Hall with handsome old timber roof and curious door opening either way. — The Landhaus contains the collections of the Imperial Agricultural Society (adm., see p. 10).

On the right (No. 11) is the Statthalterei, with a ceiling-painting in the great hall by Kupelwieser. The back of the Landhaus adjoins the Minoriten-Platz. The Minorite Church (Pl. II; B, 3), belonging to the Italians, built in the 14th cent., with a handsome E. portal, contains an admirable *Mosaic (30 ft. long, 15 ft. high) of Leonardo da Vinci's Last Supper, by Raffaeli, executed in 1806-14, by order of Napoleon, at a cost of 400,000 fl., and placed here in 1846. On the right is the monument of the poet Metastasio (1698-1782), a sitting figure in marble, by Lucardi. — A little to the S., on the N.W. side of the Burg, is the Ballhaus-Platz with the Foreign and Crown Office.

By the Löwel-Str. and the Bankgasse (No. 9 in which is the imposing Palace of Prince Liechtenstein, built in 1694 by Martinelli) we may now return to the Herrengasse to the right, or proceed to the left to the Franzens-Ring (p. 26).

e. The Ring-Strasse.

The Ring-Strasse, 62 yds. in breadth, which with the Franz-Josef-Quai (see p. 61) encircles the inner city, has been constructed since 1857 mainly on the site of the old ramparts and glacis (comp. p. 13). From the Aspern Bridge to the end of the Schotten-Ring it is 2 M. in length. Apart from a number of disfiguring buildings erected by speculators, it is architecturally one of the finest streets in Europe.

Beginning at the Franz-Josef-Quai (p. 61) is the SCHOTTEN-RING (Pl. II; B, C, 1, 2). On the left (No. 16) rises the Exchange, built in 1872-77 in the Renaissance style, by Hansen and Tietz, a rectangular edifice (108 by 100 yds.). The vestibule and great hall are worth seeing (adm. 10 kr.). On the second floor (entrance from the Wipplinger-Str.) is the Museum of Austrian Ethnography (adm., see p. 10; catalogue 15 kr.), opened in 1897, a collection of ethnographical specimens, costumes, and curiosities from the different countries of the Austrian empire. — Behind the Exchange, Börsen-Platz 1, is the Central Telegraph Office (Pl. II; B, 2). — Farther on, to the right, is the Police Office (Pl. II; B, 1); then, at the corner of the Hessgasse, is the Stiftungshaus or Sühnhaus (Pl. II; B, 1, 2), a charitable institution, with an 'expiatory chapel' on the first floor, erected by Fr. Schmidt, at the cost of the Emperor, on the site of the Ring Theatre, which was burned down in 1881 with the loss of about 400 lives (comp. p. 73; commemorative mass yearly on Dec. 9th).

In the triangular Maximilians-Platz, between the Währinger-Str. and the Universitäts-Str., rises the Votive Church (Heilandskirche; Pl. II, A 1), a beautiful Gothic church, erected from designs by Ferstel in 1856-79, in memory of the Emperor's escape from assassination in 1853. Fine façade, with two slender open towers, 325 ft. high, and numerous statues. Interior lavishly enriched with gilding and painting, and adorned with 78 stained-glass windows. (Open daily, 6-11 and 4-6.) The Salmkapelle, adjoining the N. transept, contains the monument of Marshal Niklas Salm (d. 1530), the defender of Vienna against Soliman II. in 1529. The monument was brought from Raitz, near Brünn, in 1878. Opposite is the superb font.

The Schotten-Ring is contnued to the S. by the *Franzens-Ring (Pl. II; A, B, 2, 3), where a number of grand new buildings make this section of the Ring-Strasse the finest part of Vienna. On the right rises the University (adm., see p. 10), a vast quadrangular structure in the early Tuscan Renaissance style, built by Ferstel in 1873-84, containing the university collections, the library, and most of the lecture-rooms. A flight of steps ascends to the portico, which is adorned with sculptures, and opens on the vestibule of the lofty Aula. A marble tablet on the left bears the names of all the rectors since 1365. On the first floor in the right wing is the entrance to the magnificent festival hall. Above the main staircase of the left wing is a marble Statue of Emp. Francis Joseph I., by K. Zumbusch. Beneath the arcades in the quadrangle are placed the busts of distinguished professors: (from right to left) R. von Eitelberger, J. B. Quarini, F. Schuh, G. B. van Swieten, J. Hyrtl, A. J. von Stifft, Joh. and Th. von Oppolzer, Lor. von Stein, etc. The centre of the W. façade is occupied by the University Library, built on the model of that of Ste. Geneviève at Paris, and containing 500,000 vols. and a fine reading-room, divided according to faculties (296 seats; adm., see p. 10).

The University, founded in 1365, reorganised under Maria Theresa by the celebrated physician Van Swieten (p. 19), and now attended by about 6500 students, has a staff of 347 professors and lecturers. — To the University belong also the Observatory (p. 71); the Physical Institute (IX. Türken-Str. 3); the Botanical Garden with herbaria (III. Rennweg 14); the Chemical Laboratory (p. 68); the Anatomical & Pathological Museum (p. 68); the Protestant Theological Faculty (IX. Mariannengasse 25, Alsergrund); the Anatomical Institute (IX. Währinger-Str. 13; see p. 68), etc.

No. 7 Universitäts-Str., behind the University, is the Generalcommando (Pl. II; A, 2), or Offices of the Commander-in-Chief, in the Renaissance style, erected in 1872-74 by Doderer. Portal embellished with Atlantes by Pilz. — Opposite the University, on the left side of the Ring-Str., where the Mölker-Bastei joins it, a monument has been erected to Liebenberg, the valiant burgomaster of Vienna during the Turkish siege of 1683, by Silbernagel (1890).

No. 23 Reichsrath-Str. (Pl. A, 2), the Museum of Industrial Hygiene (adm., see p. 10), containing inventions for the protection of workmen in industrial establishments.

From the S. side of the University to the Reichsraths-Gebäude extends the attractive Rathhaus-Park (Pl. II, A, 2, 3; concerts on summer afternoons, see p. 7). On the W. side of the park, about two hundred paces from the Franzens-Ring, rises the *Rathhaus, or Town Hall (adm., see p. 10), built in 1873-83 by Schmidt in the Gothic style, at a cost of 15 million florins, and lavishly enriched with statues. The stately tower, 320 ft. in height, is crowned with a banner-bearer in copper. On three sides the tower is adorned with reliefs of Emp. Each staircase is embellished with two allegorical figures by Benk and statues of famous actors. Ceiling-paintings in the vestibules by Karger, in the foyer by Charlemont. The rooms adjoining the latter contain the *Collection of portraits of actors of the Burg-Theater, founded in 1786 by Joseph II.; in the lunettes and domes of the main room are paintings by R. Russ and Charlemont. — The INTERIOR of the theatre itself (daily visible, on application to the inspector) is enriched with sculptures by Weyr and Tilgner, and with paintings by Hynais. Observe in the sumptuous rooms leading to the imperial boxes the frieze (figures of children and animals) by Eisenmenger and a statue of Clytia by Benk.

Next, on the right side of the Ring-Str., facing the Volksgarten, is the imposing Reichsraths-Gebäude, or Houses of Parliament (Pl. II, A, 3; adm., see p. 10), in the Greek style, by Hansen. A broad approach leads to the portico, borne by columns. Adjacent is the atrium, from which we enter the magnificent peristyle, borne by 24 monolithic marble columns and adorned with a frieze of historical events painted in fresco. The Chamber of Deputies on the right and the Upper House on the left form two independent buildings, adorned with marble statues and bas-reliefs and crowned at the corners with bronze quadrigæ. The lower wings uniting these buildings contain the offices, committee-rooms, etc.

Beyond the Houses of Parliament, to the left, in the Volksgarten-Str., is the Justizpalast or Palace of Justice, built in the German Renaissance style by Wielemanns in 1875-81, and containing the supreme courts of the Austrian empire. In the magnificent hall in the centre rises a marble statue of Justice by Pendl, 10 ft. in height. — Beyond the Justizpalast is the Deutsche Volkstheater (Pl. II, A, 4; p. 6), in the Italian Renaissance style, designed by Fellner and Helmer. Sculptures on the chief façade by Vogl, those in the interior by Friedl. In the Maria-Theresia-Platz, in the BURG-RING (Pl. II; C, 4), opposite the Burgthor, rises the grand Maria Theresa Monument, erected by Emp. Francis Joseph in 1888, in bronze, designed by Zumbusch. Pedestal by Hasenauer.

Enthroned on a marble pedestal, 43 ft. in height, is seated the bronze figure of the Empress (19 ft. high), at the age of thirty-five. The right hand is outstretched in an attitude of salutation. In the left she grasps the sceptre and the Pragmatic Sanction, emblem of the unity of the empire. Below, on projecting plinths, are the equestrian figures of (r.) Laudon and (l.) Daun, and at the back (r.) Traun and (l.) Khevenhüller. Between these stand four tall figures: in front the Chancellor, Prince Kaunitz, at the back Prince Wenzel Liechtenstein, organiser of the artillery, on the left Hangwitz, the jurist, and on the right Van Swieten, the physician. In niches on the upper part of the plinth are placed portrait groups of distinguished men of the period: above Kannitz are Starhemberg, Bartenstein, and Mercy; above Liechtenstein are generals Lacy, Hadik, and Nadasdy; above Haugwitz are placed Brukenthal, Grassalkovits, Rieger, Martini, and Sonnenfels; and above Van Swieten we observe Eckhel, the numismatist, Pray, the historian, then Gluck and Haydn holding yonng Mozart by the hand. Still higher are ideal figures of Strength, Wisdom, Justice, and Clemency, which lead up to the crowning statue of the illustrious empress.

The Platz is farther adorned by four Fountains with marble groups by Schmidgruber, E. von Hoffmann, and H. Härdtl, and by two colossal Groups of Horse Tamers, by Th. Friedl, at the beginning of the Museum-Strasse.

Flanking the Maria-Theresia-Platz are the new Imperial Museums, two exactly similar buildings in the Italian Renaissance style, erected by Hasenauer, partly from designs by Semper, in 1872-89. That on the W. side contains the natural history, and that on the E. side the art-history collections belonging to the imperial family. Each museum forms a vast rectangle (175 by 77 yds.), the corners and centre of which are relieved with slightly projecting avant-corps adorned with columns. Above the central portion rises a dome, which, including the colossal figure on the top, reaches the height of 210 ft.

Natural History Museum. The two central stories of the main building contain the chief part of the extensive collections, which originated with the purchase, by Emp. Francis I. in 1748, of the collection of J. von Baillou of Florence. The present intendant is Franz von Hauer, the distinguished geologist. (Adm., see p. 10; sticks and umbrellas must be given in charge.)

The figures which enrich the EXTERIOR indicate the object of the building. On the dome is a colossal figure of Helios in bronze, by J. Benk, while the four canopies flanking the dome coutain Hephæstus, Poseidon, Gæa, and Urania, by Silbernagel. In the spandrels of the dome and on the attic of the central avant-corps are Victories by Härdtl and Kundmann. On the balustrade are portrait-statues of 34 pioneers of natural science, each 10 ft. in height. Over the windows of the 2nd floor are portrait-heads of 64 naturalists; then in 12 medallions of the 2nd floor, in 44 spandrels of the great windows, and in 12 niches of the avant-corps are allegorical figures which the official guide explains (see below). Between the columns of the central projection, on the groundfloor, are sculptures: in front Europe and America with Australia, by Kundmann; at the back Asia aud Africa, by P. Wagner.

The ENTRANCE is under the dome, in the centre of the façade. The dome of the VESTIBULE is adorued with 8 medallion-portraits of former directors of the museum by Jos. Lax. A short flight of steps leads thence to the Hochparterre or groundfloor to the right, while the grand staircase ascends straight to the foyer or corridor of the first floor. The large ceiling-paiuting of the STAIRCASE (Cycle of Life) and the 12 allegorical figures in the luuettes are by Canon; the 8 portrait-statnes on the wall-pillars by Tilgner, etc. The niches of the dome of the foyer are filled with allegorical figures by Tilgner; above these rnns a pleasing frieze with animals, by Benk. The spandrels of the windows contain reliefs by Weyr.

Visitors with 2-3 hrs. only at command had better confine their attention to the two principal floors. The following description notes the chief objects of iuterest. For fuller information, see the official 'Allgemeine Führer' (60 kr.; sold by the door-keeper and the attendants).

The Heroön of Gjölbashi, the tomb of a Lycian prince, found near the ancient Trysa in Asia Minor, has been placed in the large S.W. court and the central room on the S.W. side of the museum. This tomb, dating from about the middle of the 5th cent. B.C., was originally discovered in 1842 by the Prussian scholar Schönborn, and was re-discovered in 1881 by Prof. Benndorf of Vienna and brought to Austria in 1882-83. The tomb-enclosure round the sarcophagus of the deceased formed a kind of miniature cemetery, 78 ft. long and 65 ft. broad, and the entire inner surface of the walls as well as the exterior of the S. wall, beside the door, was embellished with a double limestone frieze, most of which has been preserved. The subjects of the frieze (very much mutilated) are taken from the Iliad, the Odyssey, and other epic works (now lost) dealing with the Greek heroic myths, and appear to have been executed by Ionian sculptors under the influence of the paintings by Polygnotos and his school. — A Reconstruction by P. Kohl, in the centre of the room, gives an excellent idea of the original arrangement of the tomb, which is not seen to advantage in its present position. In the court, facing the entrance, is the Door of the Heroön, with portions of four winged bulls and other carvings on its exterior, and on its interior, relief of two dancing youths and seven dwarfish figures resembling the Cabiri of the Phœnicians. Among the Reliefs from the Frieze, in the interior of the hall, may be mentioned the following. In the anteroom to the right: to the right, I, 1 (above). The Seven against Thebes; I, 2 (below). Greeks landing near Troy; II, 3 (above). Contest of Amazons and Greeks; II, 4 (below). Strife of the Lapithæ and Centaurs at the marriage of Peirithous. In the anteroom to the left: to the right, V, 9 (above). Ulysses slaying the wooers of Penelope; V, 10 (below). Calydonian boar-hunt; to the left, VI, A. Battle of Greeks and Trojans. At the entrance to the centre room: VI, B. Storm of Troy (to the left); VI, C. Battle of Amazons (to the right). In the centre room: VII, 12. Rape of the Leucippidæ (to the right); IV, 8. Feasting and Dancing (to the left).

In the court, in front of the door of the Heroön, is the Sarcophagus of Dereimis and Æschylus, also from Gjölhashi. In the hall to the left of the Heroön-room: Architectural Fragments from the Greek Temples in Samothracia; in the hall to the right: Sacred Images and Votive Stones of Mithras.

*Museum of Weapons and Armour.

This incomparable collection was originated by Emp. Frederick III. and was largely increased by bequests of Maximilian I. and Archdnke Sigmund of Tyrol. After the separation of the Spanish line the weapons belonging to the House of Hapsburg were divided between Madrid and Vienna. After the death of Emp. Ferdinand I. (1564) that half of the residue which belonged to Emp. Maximilian II. remained in Vienna, the other, belonging to Archduke Ferdinand of Tyrol, was taken to Innsbruck, zealously extended by its owner, and deposited in Schloss Ambras. In 1606 his son sold it to Emp. Rudolph, who allowed it to remain at Ambras. In 1806 this and the other treasures of Ambras were removed to Vienna, and in 1814 were placed in the lower Belvedere. The first-mentioned half, which had remained in Vienna, was afterwards largely enriched, but sustained severe losses in 1805, 1809, and in 1848, when the Arsenal was plundered. In 1856 it was re-arranged in the Arsenal and greatly enriched with additions from imperial châteaux, and in 1889 it was removed to the Imperial Art-History Museum and united with the Ambras collection.

On the first floor is the *Picture Gallery, divided into two parts by the domed saloon and the staircase, and occupying 15 large rooms and 18 cabinets. On the S. (left) side are the Italian, Spanish, and French Schools and the modern paintings; on the N. (right) side the Netherlandish and German Schools. Each picture bears the name of its painter. Catalogues, 40 and 60 kr. Director, Herr Aug. Schäffer.

The 1700 ancient paintings in this gallery, which was preserved in the Belvedere (p. 63) from 1776 until 1891, represent several separate collections united in the 18th cent.; hardly any recent additions having been made except to the modern department, which now contains about 350 canvasses. The older collections referred to are: 1. 'Kunst & Wunder Kammer' of Prague, founded by Emp. Rudolph II., which at one time embraced 763 paintings (5 Raphaels, 5 Correggios, 16 Titians, etc.), but was unfortunately diminished by the plundering Swedes in 1648 and by sale. 2. Collection of Archd. Leopold William, son of Ferdinand II. and Stadholder of the Netherlands in 1646-56, which included not only Dutch works but also Venetian paintings of rare excellence. 3. Collection of Archd. Ferdinand of Tyrol, son of Ferdinand I., which yielded some at least of its treasures to this gallery (Raphael's Madonna al Verde; Moretto's St. Justina).

The Imperial Picture Gallery may justly boast of possessing masterpieces of almost every school in the world, at once deeply interesting to students and delightful to amateurs; but its chief strength lies in its examples of the Venetian School, of Rubens, and of Dürer, in which it is unsurpassed. Most striking among the works by Early Italian Masters are two by Perugino (R. I; Nos. 27, 32); Fra Bartolommeo's Presentation in the Temple (I; 41), painted in 1506, remarkable for the noble simplicity of the grouping and for its tranquil dignity; Andrea del Sarto's Pietà (I; 39), characterised by robustness of expression. Raphael's Madonna al Verde (I; 29), an example of his Florentine period, though inferior in life and expression to the similar Madonnas in the Louvre and at Florence (La Belle Jardinière and the Madonna del Cardellino), is interesting as indicating the influence of Leonardo da Vinci. The St. Margaret (I; 31) formerly attributed to Raphael is now usually ascribed to Giulio Romano. Of the Masters of Upper Italy, Correggio and Mazzola or Parmigianino, who, though not his pupil, is closely related to him, chiefly claim our attention. Correggio reveals himself both as an impressive delineator of Scriptural types (I; 63) and as a fascinating narrator of myths (I; 59, 64). Parmigianino is best represented by his Cupid shaping his bow (I; 62) and the portrait of Malatesta Baglioni (perhaps Lorenzo Cibò?; I, 67). Among the many excellent works by VENETIAN MASTERS it is difficult to single out the most attractive. The far-reaching fancy of Titian, which enabled him to embody the most diverse themes in appropriate form, is perhaps nowhere studied to such advantage as here. With what a host of different emotions the mind passes from the Ecce Homo (II; 178) to the Callisto (II; 169) or the Danaë (II; 174), from the Entombment (II; 179) to the mysterious allegories of love (II; 173, 187), from the sweetness of his Madonnas (II; 166, 176, 180) to the austerity of his portraits of Italian savants, a Varchi, a Strada, or Parma the physician (I; 177, 182, 167). In portraits the Vienna gallery is particularly rich, and it affords an admirable opportunity of comparing the Venetian works with those of Velazquez, the greatest Spanish portrait-painter, or with those of Van Dyck. Of the works attributed to Giorgione the 'Geometricians' (I; 16) alone is satisfactorily authenticated. Among other noteworthy Italian works are the Visitation and Madonna of Palma Vecchio (II, 139, 140), the Madonna with saints of Paolo Veronese (III; 309), the Madonna of Lorenzo Lotto of Bergamo (II; 214), and the St. Justina of Alessandro Bonvicino of Brescia, surnamed Moretto (II; 218), one of the gems of the collection.

Turning to the NORTHERN SCHOOLS, we find that Jan van Eyck's Portrait of an old man (XVIII; 624), the sketch for which is at Dresden, is by far the most striking example of early Netherlandish art. By Geertgen van Haarlem are a Pietà and the Burning of the bones of John the Baptist (XVIII; 645, 644); by Rogier van der Weyden a Crucifixion and a Madonna (XVIII; 634, 632); and by Memling altar-pieces with the Virgin (XVIII; 635-638).

Dürer's masterpiece, the most perfect composition he ever produced, is the Trinity (IX; 1415), painted in 1511. The best of the portraits by Holbein the Younger are those of Derick Tybis, a London merchant, and John Chambers, the physician (IX; 1485, 1480). In spite of their unpleasing subjects, the miracles of St. Ignatius and St. Francis Xavier by Rubens rivet the attention by their dramatic expression and their skilful colouring (XIV; 865, 860). Other fine works of the great Flemish painter are (in R. XIV) the Boar Hunt (858), St. Ambrose (850), and the allegory of the four quarters of the globe (857), the Madonna with St. Ildefonso (834) and the Festival of Venus (830). A not unpleasing contrast to the exuberant spirit of Rubens is afforded by the refined, almost frigid, repose of Van Dyck, who is admirably represented by his two Madonnas (XII; 1039, 1040), his Delilah (XIII; 1043), and the portrait of Francesco de Moncada (XIII; 1046). The portraits by Rembrandt, of various dates, illustrate his change of manner: the portrait of a lady and its pendant (Cab. XII; 1271, 1272) are painted luminously and minutely, the portrait of himself (Cab. XIII; 1274) belongs to his middle period, while the portrait of himself in a round hat (Cab. XIII; 1268) shows the deep golden one of his later years.

Imperial Academy of Art (Pl. II; B, 5), a Renaissance edifice built by Hansen in 1872-76. The upper stories are enriched with terracotta ornamentation. The windows of the façade alternate with niches containing copies of celebrated ancient statues. The two bronze Centaurs on the steps in front are by E. von Hoffmann (1892). The Academy, founded by Leopold I. in 1692 and frequently reorganised, has occupied its present position as a school of art since 1872.

The flight of steps in front leads into the Vestibule, borne by columns, whence we enter the Aula, the ceiling of which is embellished with A. Feuerbach's imposing *Fall of the Giants. This is also the chief room of the Museum of Casts (adm., see p. 10), a rich collection of copies (1650 in all) of ancient, mediæval, and modern sculptures, and also containing several good originals. Observe the *Torso of Hera, of the best Greek period, the leaden model of Fischer's Anatomy, and reliefs, busts, and statues by Raphael Donner, Beyer, Zauner, etc.

The Entresol on the S. side (entrance by the W. corridor) contains the Library (catalogue of 1876; 3 fl.) and the collection of Engravings and Drawings (about 21,300 drawings and water-colours, 62,300 engravings and wood-cuts, 8500 photographs; adm., see p. 10). The most interesting drawings are those of Koch (landscapes from Italy, illustrations of Dante, etc.), Führich's scenes from the Prodigal Son, those by Genelli, and admirable works by Schnorr, Steinle, Schwind, Wächter, Schwanthaler, and Rottmann. Among the engravings note the Hüsgen collection of Dürer's works (with a lock of Dürer's hair).

The *Picture Gallery (adm., see p. 10) is on the first floor, No. 152, on the right (entrance by the W. corridor). The greater part of this valuable collection (1220 works) was presented by Count Anton Lamberg in 1812; the remainder consists of purchases by government and presentations by the Emp. Ferdinand (1838), Prince Liechtenstein, etc. Almost every school of painting is represented, but the chief treasures are the Dutch masters of the 17th cent.: thus, Pieter de Hooch (one of his best works), Van Goyen, Jac. van Ruisdael, Willem van de Velde the Younger, and the architectural and flower painters. The Graces and the Rape of Oreithyia by Rubens, Cupid sitting on a stone parapet by Titian, and Boys playing at dice by Murillo deserve special mention. There are also a number of modern paintings, including less important examples of the Viennese school of the beginning of the present century.

The gallery consists of a Hall (No. V) facing the S., divided into 17 compartments, parallel with which is a corridor (No. IX) lighted from the N.; also two large corner-rooms (E. No. VI, W. No. IV, each in 3 compartments); a hall (copying-room, No. VII) in the E. and 3 rooms (Nos. III, II, and I) in the W. wing of the building. The arrangement is chronological, beginning in Room I with the early Italian schools, which are followed by the Spanish, Flemish, and German schools, and a few French works, down to modern times. The Corridor (No. IX), reserved chiefly for the Dutch and German schools, contains some of the gems of the collection (on the back-wall and on 14 revolving stands). In Rooms I-III several inferior pictures are placed in dark niches. Catalogues (1 fl.) and photographs on sale in the gallery.

We first enter Room V, but we turn to the right and go back to —

The entresol of No. 9 is occupied by the Scientific Club and the Club of Austrian Railway Officials The groundfloor of No. 11 contains the show-rooms and library of the Gewerbeverein.

We return to the Ring-Strasse. In the KÄRNTNER-RING (Pl. II; C, 4, 5), which, like the adjoining Kolowrat-Ring, is thronged towards evening by fashionable carriages, are a number of handsome dwelling-houses and hotels. To the right in the Academie-Str. is the Handels-Academie (Pl. II; C, 5), erected by Fellner in 1860-62. At the entrance are statues of Columbus and Adam Smith by Cesar. Opposite, facing the Lothringer-Str. and the Wien, is the Künstlerhaus (Pl. II; C, 5), built in the Italian Renaissance style by A. Weber in 1865-68 and enlarged in 1881 (exhibitions of pictures, see p. 9; halls, see p. 7). Beyond it, in the Künstler-Gasse, is the Musikvereins-Gebäude (Pl. II; C, 5), in the Renaissance style, erected by Hansen in 1867-70. In the tympanum, the myth of Orpheus in terracotta, designed by Rahl; in the niches of the façade, statues of ten famous musicians by Pilz. In the interior are the class-rooms of the Conservatory of Music and superb concert-rooms; the chief hall is decorated with ceiling-paintings of Apollo and the Muses by Eisenmenger. The society possesses a library of 20,000 musical works, and a valuable collection of old instruments, portraits of composers, MSS., busts, medals, etc. (adm., see p. 10; concerts, see p. 7).

We regain the Kärntner-Ring by the Canovagasse. The corner-house on the left is the old Palace of Duke Philip of Wurtemberg, now the Hôtel Impérial (p. 1). To the right, in the Schwarzenberg-Platz (Pl. II; D, 5), rises the equestrian Statue of Prince Charles Schwarzenberg (d. 1820), 'the victorious leader of the Allies in the wars of 1813 and 1814', designed by Hähnel (1867). On the left is the Palace of Archduke Ludwig Victor (No. 1), erected by Ferstel in the Italian Renaissance style in 1865 (rich façade). Farther to the S., beyond the Wien which has recently been vaulted over, is the Palace of Prince Schwarzenberg (Pl. I; F, 5), with a pleasant garden (open to the public in summer). In front of the palace is the Hochstrahl-Brunnen, with a jet 100 ft. high.

The KOLOWRAT-RING (Pl. II; D, 4, 5) begins at the Schwarzenberg-Platz. To the right in the Christinengasse is the Academic Gymnasium, with a handsome Gothic façade, erected by Schmidt in 1863-66. In front of it is the Beethoven-Platz, embellished with a Monument to Beethoven, by Zumbusch (1880). On a lofty granite pedestal is the sitting figure of the great composer in bronze, $8^3/_4$ ft. high; to the left is Prometheus Bound, to the right Victory with a wreath of laurels; at the front and back are youthful genii.

In the Ring, farther on, is (r.) the Adelige Casino (club of the noblesse), with a long balcony. — Near the Stadt-Park, to the right, at the corner of the Johannesgasse and the Lothringer-Strasse, stands the Palais Larisch, a fine French Renaissance building by Van der Nüll.

The Stadt-Park (Pl. II; D, 4), about 32 acres in area, is a favourite resort on summer-evenings. The pretty Cursalon, in the Italian Renaissance style, was built in 1865-67 from designs by Garben (concerts, etc., see p. 7). On the N.E. side, near the Wien, is a fountain with a figure of the Danube by Gasser. A little farther on, by the pond ('Schwanenteich'; skating in winter), is the tasteful monument of J. E. Schindler (1842-92), the landscape-painter, with a seated marble-figure by Hellmer (1896); to the left, near the S.W. end of the pond, a statue of Hans Makart (d. 1884), the painter, from Tilgner's design (1898). Farther to the N., near the Ring-Str., are Schubert's Monument* (d. 1828), by Kundmann, and a bronze bust of Burgomaster Zelinka (d. 1868), by Pönninger.

In the PARK-RING, opposite the Stadt-Park, is the building of the Gartenbau-Gesellschaft, or Horticultural Society (Pl. II; D, 4), containing spacious saloons for exhibitions, concerts, etc. (p. 7). Farther on rises the Palace of Archduke Eugène* (Pl. II; D, 3, 4), erected by Hansen in the Renaissance style in 1865-67. Handsome façade with Ionic columns, adorned with statues and trophies above, and a fine staircase. At the back of the palace (Stuben-Bastei 5) is a Detailmarkthalle, or Retail Market. — At the end of the Stadt-Park the Stuben-Brücke (Pl. II; E, 3), dating from the 16th cent., leads to the right to the suburb of Landstrasse (p. 62).

In the STUBEN-RING, on the right, are the Austrian Museum of Art and Industry (Pl. II. The Outer Districts.

Of the 19 municipal districts of Vienna, Leopoldstadt, the second (II. Bezirk), lies on the N. side of the Danube Canal. The chief artery of traffic is the Prater-Strasse (formerly Jägerzeile; Pl. II, E, F, 2, 1), through which the tramway runs from the Aspern-Brücke to the Prater-Stern (p. 71), thence in a straight direction to the Kronprinz-Rudolfs-Brücke and the Municipal Baths (p. 72), to the left to the N. and N. W. Railway Stations (p. 1), and to the right to the back of the Rotunda in the Prater (p. 72). In the Prater-Str. are situated the Carl Theatre (Pl. II; E, 1, 2) and the Church of St. John, built by Rösner in 1842-45, and decorated with frescoes by Führich, Schulz, and Kupelwieser. Near this, Tempelgasse 5, is the Synagogue (Pl. II; E, 2), a brick edifice in the Moorish style by Förster (1853-58), with an atrium tastefully decorated with mosaics; and in the Circusgasse, beyond the Circus Renz, is the Synagogue of the Turkish Jews (Sephardist community), by Wiedenfeld, with atrium, handsome dome, and sumptuous interior. — In the Prater-Stern is the Tegetthoff Monument, erected in 1886, consisting of a bronze statue of Admiral Tegetthoff, the hero of Lissa and Heligoland (d. 1871), by Kundmann, on a marble column (36 ft. high), adorned with ships-prows in bronze, with Battle and Victory below, in chariots drawn by sea-horses.

On the E. the Leopoldstadt is bounded by the Prater (p. 71). On the N.W. lies the Augarten (Pl. I, E, F, 2; concerts, see p. 7), a park of 125 acres laid out in the French style, and opened to the public by Emp. Joseph II. in 1775.

The Augarten is bounded on the N. by the Brigittenau (Pl. I; E, 1, 2), which contains extensive factories and the handsome early-Gothic Church of St. Brigitta*, with two towers, built by Schmidt in 1867-73. The richly painted interior is adorned with frescoes by C. and F. Jobst. Altar-sculptures by Erler; stained glass by Geyling. — The Kaiser-Franz-Josefs-Brücke (Pl. F, 1), constructed in 1872-76, crosses the main arm of the Danube from Brigittenau to Floridsdorf (p. 268).

The III. District, Landstrasse, lies on the right bank of the Wien and the Danube Canal, and extends W. to the Heugasse and S. to the former Belvedere-Linie. Opposite the Aspern-Brücke the Wien is crossed by the Radetzky Bridge (p. 61). On the right are the Goods Post Office and the Custom House (Pl. II; E, 3), on the left the Steamboat Offices (p. 1). The Radetzky-Str. and the Löwengasse lead straight to the Weissgärberkirche (St. Othmar's; Pl. II, F, 3), erected by Schmidt, in the early-Gothic style (1866-73), with a tower 250 ft. high.

On the Wien, to the S. of the Custom House and beyond the Stuben-Brücke (p. 59), stands the Central-Markthalle (Pl. II; E, 4). In the Invalidengasse, a little to the E., beyond the railway-viaduct, is the Imperial Invalidenhaus (Pensioners' Hospital; Pl. II, E, 3, 4), containing two large paintings by Krafft of the battles of Aspern and Leipsic (adm. on application to the Commandant). — Heumarkt No. 1, a little to the S., is the Imperial Mint. Near it, in the Linke Bahngasse, is the Veterinary College (Thierarznei-Institut; Pl. II, E, 5), attended by 1000 students.

The Geological Institution (Pl. I, F, G, 4; adm., see p. 10) in the Liechtenstein Palace, Rasumoffsky-Gasse 23, founded in 1849, possesses important collections. At the E. end of the Rasumoffsky-Gasse the Sophien-Brücke crosses the Danube Canal to the Prater. On the right bank of the Canal, lower down, are the Gas-works (Pl. I; G, 4, 5), with one of the biggest gasometers on the Continent.

Farther to the S., in the Boerhavegasse, is the Rudolph Hospital (Pl. I; F, 5), built in 1862-65. Then the large Artillery Barracks (Pl. I; G, 5), and, outside the former St. Marxer Linie, the Slaughter Houses, with the Central Cattle Market (Pl. I; G, 5, 6), covering 18 acres of ground, with room for 37,000 head of cattle. — From this point the Rennweg leads N.W. to the Schwarzenberg-Brücke (p. 59), passing the new Government Printing-Office ('Staatsdruckerei'; Pl. I, F, 5), the Botanic Garden (Pl. I; F, 5), with the Botanical Museum of the University, the Palais Metternich (right; No. 27), built by Romano in 1840, and the Lower Belvedere. What was once Prince Metternich's park (Pl. I; F, 5) is now covered by a handsome new quarter, including the palaces of the German and British Embassies (Metternichgasse 3 and 6) and of the Grand-Duke of Luxembourg.

The Belvedere (Pl. I; F, 5), an imperial château, erected for Prince Eugene of Savoy (d. 1736) in 1693-1724, and occupied by him till the time of his death, consists of two buildings, the Lower Belvedere, which contained the Ambras and other collections down to 1889, and the Upper Belvedere, or château proper, restored in 1892, which contained the picture-gallery, now in the Imperial Art Museum. Between them extends a terraced garden, laid out in the French style; the flight of steps between the lower part, with its shady avenues, and the upper part, with its grass-plots, flowerbeds, and fountains, is embellished with figures of children, representing the twelve months, by Gasser.

The Kärntner-Strasse (p. 58; Pl. II, C, 5) forms the chief approach to Wieden, the fourth municipal district of Vienna (IV. Bezirk), in which, on the right, beyond the Wien (here vaulted over), lies the Fruit Market (p. 9). To the left is the Protestant School (Pl. II; C, 5), a brick edifice in the Renaissance style by Hansen (1861). Adjacent is the Polytechnic Institution (Pl. II, C 5; adm., see p. 10), founded in 1815, containing numerous technical collections and a large laboratory. In the grounds in front of the building is the Statue of Ressel (d. 1857), inventor of the screw-propeller, in bronze, designed by Fernkorn (1863). The Technological Cabinet (adm., see p. 10), connected with the Polytechnic, is divided into four sections: 1. Tools and machinery; 2. Raw materials and manufactures in various stages; 3. Finished manufactures; 4. Models.

The Karlskirche (Pl. II; C, 5), erected in 1716-37 in the reign of Emp. Charles VI., after the cessation of the plague, by Fischer von Erlach, is a lofty structure with a dome, in the Italian baroque style, and is preceded by a Corinthian portico of six columns. The effects of the plague are portrayed in relief in the tympanum. Flanking the portico are two colossal Columns, 108 ft. in height, and 13 ft. in diameter, with reliefs from the life of St. Carlo Borromeo by Mader, and clock-towers at the top (to which staircases in the interior ascend). To the left in the church is a monument of the poet Heinrich von Collin (d. 1811).

The quarter to the S. E. of the Karlskirche now contains many handsome new buildings. In the Theresianumgasse (Pl. I; E, F, 5) is the Palace of Baron Nathaniel von Rothschild (No. 14), by Girette, with a beautiful garden. The adjacent Heugasse contains the palaces of Miller von Aichholz (No. 30), Baron Albert von Rothschild (No. 26), by Destailleurs, and others.

In the Favoriten-Strasse, to the W., are the Deaf and Dumb Asylum (Pl. I, E, 5; adm., see p. 10), founded by Maria Theresa in 1779, and the Theresianische Ritter-Akademie (founded in 1746; formerly Schloss Favorite, whence the name of the present 10th District), with a large garden. The latter building also contains the Oriental Academy, founded in 1754, as a training-college for the diplomatic and consular services. — The Church of St. Elizabeth, in the Karolinen-Platz (Pl. I; E, 5), is a Gothic edifice in brick, built by Bergmann in 1860-66.

The fourth district is adjoined on the S. by the X. District Favoriten, in which are the stations of the Südbahn (*Restaurant) and Staatsbahn (Pl. I; F, 6). Near the latter is the Arsenal (Pl. I, F, 6; adm., p. 10); station on the girdle-line (p. 6); tramway from the Schwarzenberg-Platz to the Südbahnhof, in summer only; omnibus from the Stephans-Platz, see p. 5. The Arsenal, erected in 1849-55, is enclosed within a spacious quadrangle, more than $^1/_3$ M. in length, and $^1/_4$ M. in breadth, at the corners and on the sides of which are barracks. Entrance through the Commandantur-Gebäude; over the entrance are statues in sandstone by Gasser, representing the different handicrafts connected with war, with Austria in the centre. Within the precincts are the Army Museum, the gun-factory, smithies, carpenters' yards, a cannon-foundry, etc. (adm. to the workships only by order of the war-office).

The Army Museum ('Heeresmuseum'; adm., see p. 10), erected by Hansen in a rich Romanesque style, contains on the first floor the Ruhmeshalle, and on each side of it the Waffensäle. The superb Vestibule, borne by twelve groups of pillars, is adorned with 56 marble statues of Austrian heroes. The Staircase, supported by four clustered columns, is decorated with allegorical frescoes by Rahl, marble statues of Radetzky, Haynau, Windischgrätz, and Jelačić, and a group in marble, Austria protecting her children, by Benk.

The Austrian Ruhmeshalle ('Hall of Fame') consists of a central hall covered with a dome, 75 ft. in height, and two smaller saloons adjoining it. Frescoes by Blaas: in the central hall, on the left, the Battles of Nördlingen 1634, St. Gotthard 1664, Zenta 1697, Turin 1706. In the dome are scenes from the earlier history of Austria. In the saloon on the left the central picture is the Foundation of the Maria Theresa order; on the left, Piacenza 1746, Kolin 1756, Hochkirch 1758, Belgrade 1781. In the saloon on the right the central picture represents the Entry of Francis II. into Vienna in 1815; on the left, Caldiero 1805, Aspern 1809, Leipsic 1813, Novara 1849. The gallery of the central hall (ascent in the corner to the left) affords a good survey of the frescoes in the dome and the twelve smaller scenes in the corners. The marble walls of these three rooms bear tablets recording the names of Austrian generals and colonels who have fallen in battle since 1618.

The Weapon Rooms on the right and left are fitted up as an Austrian Army Museum. In the weapon-room on the left, ranged along the walls in stands, in chronological order, are the weapons and accoutrements of the Austrian army from the Thirty Years' War down to the year 1788. Above, in large groups, are other Austrian weapons with contemporaneous foreign weapons, banners, and other trophies captured in war. The glass-cases in front of the windows and by the walls contain the most interesting objects, e.g. the sword of Tilly; the collar of Gustavus Adolphus, covered with bullet-marks and blood-stains, which the king wore when he fell at Lützen; Wallenstein's written orders to Pappenheim, general of cavalry, found soaked in blood on his dead body after the battle of Lützen; hat of Marshal Aldringen, torn from his head by a bullet at the battle of Rain (1632); swords of *Emp. In the grounds at the back of the Rathhaus (p. 27) is a monument to Fr. Schmidt, the architect, by Hofmann and Deininger. — Farther on, Landesgerichts-Str. 19, is the Criminal Court (Pl. II; A, 2), a large building with two corner-pavilions, erected in 1830-34, and recently enlarged by an addition fronting the Alser-Str. The court-room for jury-trials is very handsome (adm. during the assizes). — A little off the line of the Ring-Strasse are the Josephstadt Theatre (Pl. The Alser-Str. separates the Josefstadt from Alsergrund, the IX. District. Immediately to the right, in the Maximilians-Platz, rises the Votive Church* (p. 25). Farther to the W., in the Alser-Str., is the vast Public Hospital (Allgemeine Krankenhaus; Pl. I, D, 3), the largest in Europe (2000 beds). I; D, E, 2, 3), No. 1 Fürstengasse, $^1/_2$ M. from the Schotten-Ring (tramway), containing about 800 valuable works, besides others of less importance, is by far the most extensive of the private collections at Vienna.

The gallery is rich in important works by Rubens and Van Dyck. The six pictures illustrating the story of Decius bear witness to Rubens's study of the antique, and, though certainly not entirely the work of his own brush, must yet be numbered among the best examples of the master in existence. The Daughters of Cecrops and the portraits of his sons also deserve special attention. Van Dyck's portrait of Maria Louisa de Tassis is one of the finest female portraits of the 17th century. The early Netherlandish and early Italian works will also repay careful inspection. Besides the pictures, a large number of sculptures and other works of art are exhibited (majolica, porcelain, Italian chests, bronzes, etc.). The rooms are decorated with ceiling-paintings by Belluccio, Franceschini, and Pozzo. The beautiful stucco mouldings should be noticed.

The district of Währing (XVIII), which lies to the W. of Alsergrund, outside the former Währinger Linie, contains the tasteful villas and handsome casino of the Wiener Cottage-Verein (Pl. I; C, D, 2), charmingly situated at the S.E. base of the Türkenschanze. On the top of the Türkenschanze is the Observatory; and around it is the newly opened Türkenschanz Park (Restaurant). Beautiful *View from the top of the belvedere (10 kr.). — In the Gürtel-Str. is the Jewish Hospital (Pl. I; D, 2), founded by the late Baron Anselm von Rothschild, and admirably fitted up. — Near the Martins-Str. is the Evangelische Jubiläums-Kirche, from the plans of Bach and Schöne (1898).

Döbling, the XIX. DISTRICT, which adjoins Währing on the N., includes both Ober-Döbling (concerts, see p. 7; omnibus and tramway, p. 5), and Unter-Döbling, to the S. and N. respectively, and also the village of Sievering (p. 75; omnibus, p. 5), Grinzing (p. 74), Heiligenstadt, and Nussdorf (Restaurant zur Rose, Haupt-Str. 4, near the station; Bockkeller, with view). Nussdorf (tramway and steam-tramway, see p. 74) is a station on the Staatsbahn (p. 74) and is a favourite pleasure-resort of the Viennese. Rack-and-pinion railway to the top of the Kahlenberg, see p. 74.

The Prater, a park and forest on the E. side of the city, adjoining the Leopoldstadt, 4270 acres in extent, became the property of the imperial family in 1570, and was used as a chasse till 1776, when Emp. Joseph II. opened it as a public park. From the Prater-Stern (Pl. I; F, 3), a circular space at the end of the busy Prater-Strasse (formerly Jägerzeile, p. 62), radiate three great avenues, the Haupt-Allee, the Ausstellungs-Strasse or Feuerwerks-Allee, and the Kronprinz-Rudolf-Strasse, which divide the Prater into three fan-shaped sections. The HAUPT-ALLEE, or principal avenue, to the right, with a quadruple row of fine chestnut-trees, is a fashionable resort in spring, when many fine horses, elegant toilettes, and handsome faces will be observed. The chief gala-days are Easter Monday, 1st May, and 18th Aug. (the Emperor's birthday). The usual drive extends past the three Cafés (see below) as far as the (1½ M.) Rondeau (Restaurant), or to the Lusthaus (Restaurant), 1½ M. farther on. Near the entrance of the Haupt-Allee, to the left, is the large pleasure-resort known as Venice in Vienna, with a theatre (p. 7), a giant wheel (50 c.), etc.; farther on are the Vivarium or menagerie (adm., see p. 10), and the Three Cafés (the third also the Summer Orpheum, see p. 7). Opposite the last, on a hill, is Sacher's Restaurant*, with an artificial pond. The three cafés contain good restaurants (p. 7; military bands daily in summer). Excellent beer may be obtained at the Kreuz, Schweizerhaus, Hirsch (Haupt-Allee), etc. — A few min. to the S. of the Vivarium, between the Laufbergergasse and the Kurzbauergasse, is the Thiergarten (Pl. I; G, 3, 4), with restaurant and concert-garden (steamboat from the Stefanie-Brücke; Pl. I, E 3).

The part of the Prater between the Haupt-Allee and the Ausstellungs-Strasse, and beyond the latter, known as the VOLKS- or WURSTEL-PRATER, is the favourite haunt of the humbler classes, especially on Sunday and holiday afternoons, and abounds in suitable attractions ('Wurstel' = buffoon). Venice in Vienna, see p. 71; Jantsch-Theater, see p. 6. Fire-works occasionally in summer, and on the Emperor's birthday (18th Aug.).

To the International Exhibition held in the Prater in 1873 originally belonged the Rotunda, the two 'Pavillons des Amateurs', and the Maschinenhalle, now used for exhibitions, concerts, studios, etc. Extensive view from the roof of the rotunda (lift, up and down, 30 kr.; adm. week-days 2-5, on Sun. after 8 a.m.). Near this are the Course for Trotting-Matches and the dairy of the Krieau (*Restaurant). — At the end of the Prater is the Freudenau, where the chief horse-races take place (grand stand 2 fl.); on race-days steamboats 1-2 p.m. from the Ferdinandsbrücke (Pl. II; D, 2).

At Wittelsbach-Str., No. 5. (Pl. I; G, 4), is the Blind Asylum; foreign visitors admitted daily 11-12 on application to the physician in charge; public adm. Sat. 10-12.

The Danube Improvement Works, on which 32 million florins were spent in 1870-77, have provided a broad new channel for the river on the N.E. side of the Prater, where a new quarter, called the Donaustadt, is projected. At the end of the Kronprinz-Rudolf-Strasse (tramway), which leads from the Prater-Stern to the Danube, to the left, is the admirably organised Städtische Bad (p. 7; Pl. I, G 2), with a Café-Restaurant (from the terrace fine view of the new channel of the Danube, as far as the Kahlenberg). The Kronprinz-Rudolf-Brücke, built by Fischer in 1872-76 at a cost of 3 million florins, crosses the Danube here to Kagran, passing the Franz-Joseph-Land on the right (Pl. I, H, 2; Restaurant, boats for hire). Below the bridge, on the right bank, are extensive warehouses and magazines, connected by rails with the N. station and the junction-line. About $^1/_2$ M. farther down, on the same bank, are the Military Swimming Baths (p. 7).

Schönbrunn (Pl. I, A, B, 6, 7; excursion of 3-4 hrs.; tramway via Mariahilf or Margarethen, p. 5), an imperial château on the Wien, $1^1/_2$ M. to the S.W. of the old Mariahilf Line, was once a hunting-lodge of the Emp. Matthias (1619). The present building, begun in 1696 by Fischer von Erlach under Leopold I., was altered under Maria Theresa in 1744-50. Napoleon I. had his headquarters here in 1805 and 1809, and his son, the Duke of Reichstadt, afterwards died (22nd July, 1832) in the room once occupied by his father. — The extensive GARDEN, in the French style of the 18th cent., is open to the public. On the parterre, with its well-kept flower-beds, are 32 marble statues by Beyer and others; farther on, a large basin with two fountains, and Neptune with sea-horses and Tritons in the centre. On a hill (777 ft.) is the Gloriette, a colonnade built by J. F. von Hohenberg, commanding a fine view of Vienna and the Wiener Wald (ascent to the right in the arcade). To the left of the main avenue are the Roman Ruin, the Obelisk, and the 'Schöne Brunnen' (beautiful fountain; the Nymph Egeria by Beyer), whence the château derives its name. The Menagerie, on the W. side, is an old-fashioned zoological garden. The adjacent Botanic Garden is well stocked with palms and exotic plants (large palm-house, open in summer Mon., Wed., Thurs., and Sat. 2-5; Mon. 50 kr., other days free). The park is adjoined on the E. (exit to the E. of the Gloriette) by the Tivoli Restaurant (Pl. I; B, 6, 7), with a large garden and pretty view.

On the W. side of the gardens of Schönbrunn (exit by the conservatories, past the 'Kaiserstöckl') lies Hietzing, the XIII. District (tramway, see p. 6), consisting almost exclusively of villas and pleasure-resorts (Casino Hopfner, Tucher's Etablissement, Restaurant zum Enget, etc., see p. 7). In the principal Platz a bronze Statue of Emp. Maximilian of Mexico (Archduke Ferdinand Max, d. 1867) was erected in 1871. The cemetery contains the monument of a Baroness Pillersdorf by Canova. — The new iron Kaiser Franz Josef Bridge over the Wien connects Hietzing with the village of Penzing (suburban line of the Stadtbahn, see p. 6; tramway, see p. 6). The upper church contains the *Monument of a Frau von Rottmann by Finetti.

The large and admirably kept Central Cemetery near Kaiser-Ebersdorf (Pl. I, to the S.E. of H, 7; tramway, see p. 6) lies at the second station on the Aspang railway (p. 179; 3½ M., fares 31, 21, 11 kr.). It contains many fine monuments. Observe, to the left of the Arcades, in the middle, the monument to the victims of the fire at the Ring Theatre in 1881 (see p. 25). Among illustrious persons buried here, or whose remains have been brought hither from other cemeteries, are Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert, Ghega, Gen. John, the two Littrow's, Haymerle, Dingelstedt, Makart, Amerling, Laufberger, Fernkorn, Romano, Arlt, Maroicic, Hauslab, Weilen, Adam Burg, Toni v. Arneth (betrothed to Th. Körner), etc. — In the large MATZLEINSDORF CEMETERY (Pl. I; E, 6), ¾ M. to the S.W. of the Südbahnhof, reposes Gluck, on the right, about the middle of the wall between the old and the new cemetery. Also Zedlitz, Füger, and others. — In the PROTESTANT CEMETERY (Matzleinsdorf; Pl. I, D, E, 6) lie Count Beust, Hebbel, Mohs, H. Laube, Beckmann, Fichtner, Löwe, Anschütz, Meixner, Am. Haizinger, Julie Rettich, Josefine Gallmeyer, Saphir, Jac. Alt, Canon, Fritz l'Allemand, etc. — In the WEIDLING CEMETERY (p. 75) repose the poet Lenau (granite pyramid with bust in bronze) and the Orientalist Jos. v. Hammer-Purgstall.

2. Environs of Vienna.

The LEFT BANK of the Danube below Vienna is uninteresting, excepting historically as the scene of the battles of Aspern and Wagram, fought in 1809 on the Marchfeld (p. 267), a flat agricultural tract bounded on the E. by the March. (Visitors to the battlefield take the Steam Tramway from the Stefanie-Brücke, p. 6; to Aspern 46, 36 kr., return-tickets 76, 56 kr. A stone lion marks the battlefield.) The beautiful environs on the RIGHT BANK, such as the Leopoldsberg, Kahlenberg, Hermannskogel, and Sofien-Alpe, the picturesque hills of the Wiener Wald, and Laxenburg, the Brühl, Baden, etc., farther to the S., are easily reached by railway. The paths to the points of interest are generally indicated by coloured marks and signs, a key to which is sold at the railway-stations. — Excursions by the Westbahn, see pp. 81 et seq.; to Greifenstein, p. 92; by the Semmering Railway, pp. 177 et seq.

KAHLENBERG and LEOPOLDSBERG.

Charming excursion. RAILWAY (from the Franz-Josef-Bahnhof; Pl. I, E, 2) in 10 min., or STEAMBOAT (starting from the Stefanie-Brücke at 1.54, 2.24, 3.24, 4.54, 5.54, etc., p.m.) in 40 min. to NUSSDORF (railway-fares 30, 20, 10 kr.; steamboat 15 kr.). From Nussdorf to the top of the Kahlenberg by the Zahnradbahn (rack-and-pinion railway) in ½ hr. (fare 1 fl. or 50 kr., return 1 fl. 40 or 70 kr.): trains hourly, half-hourly from 5.22 to 9.52 p.m. Through-tickets (not advisable) from Vienna to the top of the Kahlenberg: by rail and Zahnradbahn 98, 62, 52 kr., there and back 2 fl. 16 kr., 1 fl., 90 kr.; by steamer and Zahnradbahn, return-ticket 1 fl. 70 or 95 kr. — TRAMWAY: Schotten-Ring-Nussdorf in 40 min., 12 kr.

Nussdorf, see p. 71. We follow the lines of the steam-tramway from the railway-station to (5 min.) the station of the Zahnradbahn. The 'Zahnradbahn', 3¼ M. long, constructed like that on the Rigi on the 'rack-and-pinion' system, ascends at a gentle gradient (1 : 33 to 1 : 10) to the top in 32 min., passing first through vineyards, then through fine woods. Stations: 1¼ M. Grinzing (Berger's Restaurant, in the vicinity, shady garden and good wine), above the charmingly-situated village of that name, with its numerous villas (observe that of Herr Ferstel, in the Gothic style); 1¾ M. Krapfenwaldl (Restaurant), a favourite resort, near which is the Kobenzl, with château and park. The line now curves round the Wildgrube, and reaches (3¼ M.) the terminus on the Kahlenberg (1404 ft.). The adjacent Stefaniewarte* (ascent 10 kr.; printed panorama 5 kr.) affords a splendid view over Vienna and the Marchfeld (p. 267) to the spurs of the Carpathians, and to the Styrian Alps on the S. About ¼ M. below are the hamlet of Josefsdorf and the large Hôtel Kahlenberg, in an open situation (band, see p. 7).

Walkers also ascend the Kahlenberg from Nussdorf (1 hr.). We cross the Zahnradbahn (see above) above the station, and ascend along the Schreiberbach by a shady path called the Beethoven-Gang, with a bronze bust of the great composer, who made this a frequent resort. We then follow first a poor field-path, then the road ascending past the Inn Zur Eisernen Hand (*View), to the hotel. — A fine route for good walkers (marked red) leads from the Kahlenberg to the S.W., viâ the Jägerwiese, the Hermannskogel, and the Holländer Dörfel (p. 76) to the (3½-4 hrs.) Sofien-Alpe (p. 76). — From the Kahlenberg to Weidling, see p. 76.

A pleasant forest-path (red marks) leads from the hotel to the Leopoldsberg (1380 ft.), the last spur of the Wienerwald, ½ hr. from the Kahlenberg, risiug abruptly 886 ft. above the Danube. In the church here, built on the site of an old castle, the generals of the allied army offered prayers for success in their approaching conflict with the Turks (3rd Sept., 1683). Iun adjacent. *View similar to that from the Kahlenberg: N., the hilly region from the heights at Meissau to the Polaugebirge; E., the Wetterling, Plassenstein, and the Lesser Carpathians with the Ballenstein and the Thebenerkogel; S.E., the Leithagebirge; S., the Styrian Alps and the Wienerwald; also the Danube for many miles, with its beautiful wooded islands; lastly, in the centre of the extensive landscape (900 sq. M.), the imperial city of Vienna, with the new channel of the Danube and its five bridges. — From the Leopoldsberg a path (along the wall to the left of the inn-door; guide-board) descends in easy zigzags to Kahlenbergerdorf (railway and steamboat station, p. 93), at the N.E. base of the hill, in 1/2 hr. Another path (yellow marks), before the inn to the left, descends to (1 hr.) Klosterneuburg (see below).

A good survey of Vienna is obtained by ascending the hill to the left o Grinzing (p. 74) as far as the (20 min.) beautifully-situated Villa Belle vue; and in 10 min. more (way indicated by a board) to the still highe Am Himmel Inn (finest view from the steps of the Elisabethkapelle). Ascen of the Hermannskogel hence, see p. 76. From the Himmel a rapid descen through a shady valley to (1/4 hr.) Sievering (Inn Zur Heiligen Agnes) whence omnibuses run every half-hour to Vienna (p. 5).

Klosterneuburg, Dornbach, Neu-Waldbgg.

At Klosterneuburg (Schiff; Herzogshut), 5 1/2 M. to the N.W. o Vienna (a station on the Staatsbahn, p. 257), a small town (8700 inhab.) on the right bank of the Danube, 3 M. above Nussdorf (p. 71) is situated the oldest and wealthiest Augustinian Monastery i Austria. The church, consecrated in 1136, was originally a Romanesque basilica, with later Gothic additions, but has been completely modernized. Fine cloisters. The palatial abbey-buildings were erected about 1750 by Felice Donato d'Allio. On the E. dome rises the imperial crown, on the W. dome the archducal hat, in wrought iron. Within the abbey is preserved the actual archducal hat which is used at the ceremony of swearing allegiauce.

The valuable Treasury (apply to the treasurer, best at 10.30 a.m. 1 fl. to the attendant) and the 'Kaiserzimmer' with their handsome tapestry (attendant 50 kr.) are well worthy of a visit. The Leopoldskapelle contains the celebrated Altar of Verdun, made in 1181 by Nicholas of Verdun, of 59 plaques of gilded bronze with rude representations of Biblical subjects ('niello' work). The windows of the old chapter-room are filled with stained glass, dating from the end of the 13th century. — The paintings in the abbey are chiefly by Austrian artists of the 15-16th centuries.

The column in front of the church was erected in 1381 on the cessation of the plague. Large Barracks of the Pioneer Regiment. Good wines at the Stiftskeller*, Albrechtsbergergasse 3 (near the abbey; beyond the Gothic column go through the archway towards the town, then turn to the right into the gateway), and fine view from the terrace. Frequented restaurant at the Schiess-Stätte, opposite. A small house adjacent to the church on the left contains a monster cask, one of the curiosities of the place. The well-organised Lunatic Asylum and the Œnological and Pomological Institute deserve the attention of specialists.

In the Weidlinger-Thal, 2 M. to the S.W. of Klosterneuburg, lies the pleasant village of Weidling (Strauss; Zum Tiroler). Farther up the valley are Unter-Weidlingbach (Matuschka's Restaurant) and (1 1/2 M.) Ober-Weid lingbach (Wallner's Restaurant). The Kahlenberg or the Hermannskogel (see below) may be ascended from Weidling in 3/4 hr.; from Unter-Weidlingbach to the Hermannskogel 3/4 hr., to the Holländer Dörfel (see below) 3/4 hr.; from Ober-Weidlingbach over the Toifl to the Sofien-Alpe 3/4 hr., see below. Numerous finger-posts and way-marks.

From Kierling (whey-cure; pension 30 fl. per week), in the valley of that name, 3 M. to the W. of Klosterneuburg, pleasant wood-paths lead by the Gsänger-Hütte, the Eichenhain inn, the Kanzel-Hütte, and the Windisch-Hütte to (2 hrs.) Weidlingbach (p. 75).

Dornbach and Neu-Waldegg, two adjoining villages to the W. of Vienna (Restaurant zur Güldnen Waldschnepfe, closed in winter; tramway and omnibus, see pp. 5, 6), are also frequently visited. The chief attraction here is the Park of Prince Schwarzenberg, through which a road (one-horse carr. 1 1/2-2 fl.) ascends from the tramway terminus to the (3 M.) Hameau, or Holländer Dörfel (1515 ft.; Inn), a fine point of view: E., a part of Vienna, the Marchfeld, and the spurs of the Carpathians, the Danube down to Hainburg (p. 326); S., the mountains with the Schneeberg in the background. From the Holländer Dörfel a pleasant path leads in 3/4 hr. to the Sofien-Alpe* (1595 ft.; Inn), which may also be reached direct in 1 1/4 hr. by a picturesque path from Neuwaldegg viâ the Rohrer-Hütte (Inn). The Franz-Karl-Aussicht, 10 min. to the S.W., is another fine point of view. We may then descend the Halter-Thal, or by the path past the 'Knödelhütte' Inn, to (1 1/4 hr.) Hütteldorf.

Other paths descend from the Sofien-Alpe to Hinter-Hainbach, to Steinbach (recommended to good walkers), and to Ober-Weidlingbach (p. 75).

A steep path descends to the N. from the Holländer Dörfel to Unter-Weidlingbach (see p. 75). — A fine point of view is the Habsburgwarte* (adm. 10 kr.) on the Hermannskogel (1780 ft.), ascended from the Holländer Dörfel in 2 hrs., or from Sievering, Weidling, Weidlingbach, or Himmel (p. 75) in 3/4-1 hr. A little below the top is a restaurant. A path, indicated by red marks, leads from the Hermannskogel over the Jägerwiese (Tavern; close by is the Jungfern-Bründl) to the Kahlenberg (comp. above). — The Galizinberg (1273 ft.; Restaurant), to the S.W. of Dornbach, is another excellent point of view. It is reached from Ottakring, which is connected with Vienna by the suburban line and by tramway, by a pleasant path in 1/2 hr., or from the station of Hütteldorf (p. 82) in 1 hr.

Brühl, Laxenburg, Baden.

S. Railway to (10 M.) Mödling in 23-35 min. (fares 70, 55, 35 kr.; return, 1 fl. 10, 85, 55 kr.); to Laxenburg in 3/4 hr. (90, 70, 45 kr.; return, 1 fl. 40, 1 fl. 5, 70 kr.); to Baden, 17 M., in 3/4 hr. (1 fl. 25, 95, 65 kr.; return-tickets, not available by express-trains, 1 fl. 95, 1 fl. 45, 95 kr.). — Laxenburg is 1 M. from (11 1/2 M.) Biedermannsdorf on the Aspang Railway (62, 41, 21 kr.).

The Southern Railway (see p. 177) passes through pleasing scenery (best views on the right). The train runs at a considerable height, affording an extensive view to the E. as far as the Leitha Mts., and to the W. over the city, numerous villas, and populous villages at the base of a beautiful range of hills. The train skirts the Matzleinsdorf and Protestant cemeteries (p. 73). Farther on, to the left, on the top of the Wiener Berg, rises a Gothic column 65 ft. in height, erected in 1382, known as the Spinnerin am Kreuz. The suburbs of the city extend as far as (2 1/2 M.) Meidling. To the right, beyond the avenue from Schönbrunn to Laxenburg, is the Gloriette (p. 73). 3½ M. Hetzendorf, with an imperial château (to the left); ½ M. to the W., on the Rosenhügel near Speising (800 ft.), is the chief reservoir of the Vienna Water Company. 5½ M. Atzgersdorf-Mauer; 6 M. Liesing (*Waldbauer), with a large brewery and restaurant (fine view from the pavilion in the garden).

From Liesing to Kaltenleutgeben, 4½ M., branch-railway in 22 min. (fares 35, 25, 15 kr.). The only intermediate station of importance is (1¼ M.) Perchtoldsdorf (Schwarzer Adler*, good wine), also a station on the steam-tramway to Mödling (p. 6). The Gothic church, destroyed by the Turks in 1683, has been restored. — 4½ M. Kaltenleutgeben, a charming village with numerous villas and two hydropathics, in the valley of the Dürre Liesing. We may thence ascend the (1¼ hr.) Höllenstein (2120 ft.), the Julienthurm on which commands a superb view. Another good view is obtained from the Josefswarte (1885 ft.), on the Föhrenberg or Parapluieberg, reached in 1¼ hr. from Kaltenleutgeben or Perchtoldsdorf. Pleasant walk (1½ hr.) from the Föhrenberg to the Julienthurm.

8 M. Brunn am Gebirge.

10 M. Mödling (Hôtel Cursalon, R. from 1½ fl.; Goldnes Lamm*, good wine; Hôt. Mödling; Hirsch; Enzenbrunner, garden-concerts in summer) is an old town with 11,100 inhabitants. At the W. end is the Stadt-Park, with a 'Cursalon' and an open-air theatre. To the right, on a rock, rises the Gothic Church of St. Othmar (built about 1454; restored 1690), with a crypt, adjoined by a round Romanesque burial-chapel ('Karner'), dating probably from the end of the 12th century. To the left of the railway lies the suburb of Schöffel, with the Hyrtl Orphanage. About ¾ M. to the W. is the hydropathic of Priessnitzthal; and ¾ M. farther on is the Richardshof dairy-farm (hence to Gumpoldskirchen 1½ M., see p. 79).

The Brühl (electric railway from Mödling to Hinterbrühl, 2 M. in 20 min., 33 trains daily; fare to Klausen or Vorderbrühl 10, Hinterbrühl 15 kr.), a ravine in the limestone-rock, abounding in natural beauties, is the property of Prince Liechtenstein, whose father adorned it with pleasure-grounds and artificial ruins. The road passes, at the entrance to the valley, under the Vienna water-conduit, and follows the left bank of the brook to (½ hr.) Vorderbrühl. The path on the right bank of the brook (which is crossed before the aqueduct is reached) is preferable. As far as Vorderbrühl the valley is called the Klause (the houses on the road being named Klausen), at the end of which on the hill to the left rises the ruin of Mödling. The valley then expands into the pleasant dale of the Vorderbrühl (*Hôt. Garni Hajek, R., L., & A. 1 fl. 80 kr.-7½ fl.; *Zwei Raben, R. & A. 1½-4 fl., L. 20, B. 50 kr., pens. 6-10 fl.; at the farm of the prince is a café; Dr. Scheimpflug's Sanatorium, pens. from 5 fl.). To the N.E., ¾ M. above the Vorderbrühl, is the Hôtel-Restaurant Radetzky, charmingly situated.

Another very attractive path leads to the (¾ hr.) Vorderbrühl along the brow of the hills bounding the Klause on the N. Beyond the church of St. Othmar we ascend in 10 min. to the Schwarze Thurm on the Kalenderberg; thence a good path, protected by railings, at the end of which we descend into the Brühl by steps cut in the rock. Or we may follow a path to the right upon the hill, passing some artificial ruins, to (¼ hr.) the extensive ruins of the castle of Liechtenstein, which was destroyed by the Turks; adjoining it is a modern Château with a garden in the English style. From the Hôtel Radetzky (p. 77) a road descends to the left to (¾ M.) Vorderbrühl. — From stat. Brunn (p. 77) to Vorderbrühl by the castle of Liechtenstein is a walk of 1 hr.

One of the highest hills in the neighbourhood is crowned by the Husaren-Tempel (1620 ft.), erected by Prince Liechtenstein in 1813. Seven Austrians who fell at Aspern and Wagram are interred in the vault below. Extensive view. The road leading to it is bad at first, but afterwards improves. The walking route (¾ hr.) is preferable: we follow the highroad, passing the Raben and Stern inns, and then ascend by the second lane to the left ('Husarentempelgasse') beyond the latter inn. — From the temple viâ the Anninger to Baden, see below.

The valley beyond Vorderbrühl is less interesting. The road leads by Hinterbrühl (Weintraube; Restaurant Höldrichsmühle) and Gaaden (p. 80) to the ancient abbey of (7½ M.) Heiligenkreuz and its Romanesque church (1150-87; partly rebuilt in the Transition style in the 13th cent.), with fine cloisters and the tombs of Frederick the Quarrelsome and other members of the Babenberg family. The choir dates from the 14th century. Thence (diligence, see p. 79) through the Sattelbach-Thal and the pretty Helenen-Thal to Baden. A shorter path leads from Gaaden by Siegenfeld to the Helenen-Thal, the latter part rugged. Another direct path descends from Gaaden to Baden in 1½ hr. viâ the Calvarienberg (p. 79). If time be limited, the traveller should return from the Husaren-Tempel to Mödling, go by railway to Baden, and visit the Helenen-Thal thence.

The ascent of the Anninger (2215 ft.), 2-2½ hrs. from Mödling, is interesting. The Wilhelmswarte, on the highest point of the Anninger plateau, commands a magnificent view. At the Buchbrunnen, a little below the summit, to the N.W., is the Anninger-Haus (restaurant in summer). The Anninger may also be ascended from the Husaren-Tempel (see above; in 1¾ hr.), Gumpoldskirchen, Baden, Hinterbrühl, and Gaaden (shortest and easiest). The paths are all provided with finger-posts.

Branch-line from Mödling to (7 min.) Laxenburg (Kreuz; Stern; Hartmann's Restaurant* at the station), an imperial château and park, on the Schwechat and the Vienna and Neustadt Canal. The old building was erected in 1377, the new in 1600. The flower gardens are closed, but the *Park (985 acres) is open to the public. The principal points are generally visited in the following order (directions from the rangers in the park).

Monument of Francis I., a colossal bust in marble by Marchesi; Rittergruft, a Gothic chapel; Meierei (farm); Rittersäule. Near the latter (1 M. from the station) is the *Franzensburg, erected in 1799-1836 in the mediæval style, on an island in the lake (ferry 10 kr.), and adorned with numerous works of art (visitors are hurried round by a guardian; fee 40-50 kr.). The Waffenhalle contains a lifesize leaden statue of Emp. Francis I., by Fr. Messerschmidt (1769). In the Hapsburg Saloon are marble statues of 16 sovereigns, from Rudolph I. to Charles VI., by Paul Strudl (1680), and a leaden statue of Maria Theresa by Messerschmidt (ca. 1760); in the First Reception Room, portraits of 7 princes, and a majolica stove, leather hangings, and ceiling of the 16th cent.; Second Reception Room, ceiling of the 16th, and three cabinets and leather hangings of the 17th cent.; in the Drawing Room, two large pictures by Höchle (Marriage of Francis II. in 1808 to his third wife, and Banquet on that occasion); in the Dining Room, a fine inlaid table, said to date from 1628, old glass, etc.; in the Bed Room, a copy of Dürer's Holy Trinity (p. 51); in the Dressing Room, wall-decorations of the 17th cent.; in the Throne Room, Coronation of Francis II. and Banquet in the Römer at Frankfort; ceiling of the 17th cent.; in the Chapel, marble walls, etc., from the Romanesque chapel of St. John (Capella Speciosa) at Jerusalem (p. 75), consecrated in 1222,

A walk through the park by the above route, allowing 1/2 hr. for the Franzensburg, takes 2 hrs.; but a delay sometimes occurs at the château, as a limited number of persons only are admitted at one time.

Baden (695 ft.), a town with 15,800 inhab., pleasantly situated on the Schwechat, is celebrated for its warm springs (72°-97° Fahr.; chief ingredient, sulphate of lime), which were known to the Romans (Thermae Pannonicae) and are annually visited by about 23,000 guests. The chief spring (Römerquelle or Ursprung; Pl. 14) rises copiously in a cavern at the base of the Calvarienberg, in the dolomite lime-stone, through which it is reached by a passage, 40 yds. long (fee 25 kr.). The entrance is in the left corner of the shady Stadt-Park (Pl. D, E, 2), which contains the Cursaal, a Trinkhalle, and the Arena, an open-air theatre. In the park also is a bronze bust of the poet Franz Grillparzer (d. 1872), erected in 1874. Band daily 7.30-8.30, 12-1, and 8-9.30. Most of the baths are fitted up for bathing in common ('Vollbäder'), costumes being provided for the purpose. The Herzogsbad (Pl. 6) holds 150 persons; adjacent, in the Franzens-Str., are the Antonsbad and Theresienbad (Pl. 13).

In the Berg-Str., near the park, is a Swimming Bath* (Pl. 12) with thermal water (75° Fahr.; bath 30 kr.), and in the pretty Dobelhof Park (Pl. C, 2, 3) is a Swimming Bath with river water. In the Schlossgasse is the well-organized Kuranstalt Gutenbrunn (Pl. 5; R. from 10 fl., pens. 24½ fl. weekly).

A path ascends the (¼ hr.) Calvarienberg (1070 ft.). The Moritzruhe (Pl. D, 2), an open pavilion at the top, built in memory of the satirist Moritz Saphir (d. 1858), and the Annahöhe both command fine Views. The (½ hr.) Theresienwarte (1365 ft.; Pl. D, E, 1; Restaurant Rudolfshof at the foot) is another view-point.

The Helenen-Thal (Sacher's Hotel & Restaurant*, with hydropathic, at the entrance) is a favourite resort. The entrance to the valley is crossed by the aqueduct of the Vienna waterworks. The road (electric tramway from the station to the Hydropathic) ascends on the left bank of the Schwechat; on the right bank there is a road as far as (1 M.) Weilburg only, where it descends to the left bank. The path, crossing to the right bank at the second bridge, is preferable. On the right bank at the entrance to the valley stands the Weilburg, a château built in 1823-25 by Archduke Charles (d. 1847), with a fine Gothic chapel. The hill above is crowned with the ruin of Rauheneck. Above the Weilburg are pleasant grounds extending past the Villa of Archduke Eugene up to the Antons-Brücke and beyond it (Restaurant on the side next Baden). On the steep rocks on the opposite bank is perched the considerable ruin of Rauhenstein (worthy of a visit; good path to it through the Alexandrowicz grounds, ascent from the Berg-Strasse in Baden, ½ hr.). Then, on the right bank, the ruin of Scharfeneck, a little farther up. The Urtelstein (1½ M. from Baden), a rock which formerly closed the valley, is now penetrated by a tunnel. Paths on both sides ascend to the top, which affords a good survey of the wooded valley (small café). Farther distant are the Cholera-Kapelle and (4½ M. from the electric tramway-terminus) the Old and New Krainer-Hütte (omnibus, see p. 79), and a little higher up is the Augustiner-Hütte (all four with good restaurants).

The main road continues to ascend the valley of the Schwechat viâ Sattelbach and (3 M.) Mayerling, the hunting-lodge in which the Crown Prince Rudolph died in 1889 (now a convent; opposite on the hill-slope is a monument to the Crown-Prince, brought in 1898 from the château of Achilleion at Corfu), to (4½ M.) Alland (omnibus, p. 79), whence a road leads to the abbey of Heiligenkreuz (p. 78). Another road diverging ¼ M. above the Urtelstein tunnel unites the Helenen-Thal with (¾ hr.) Siegenfeld and (1½ hr.) Gaaden (to the Brühl, see p. 78); while a third road (omnibus, p. 79) leads direct from Sattelbach (see above) to Heiligenkreuz.

The *Eiserne Thor (Hoher Lindkogel; 2825 ft.), the highest hill in the environs, is ascended from Baden in 3 hrs.: to the shooting-lodge in the Weichsel-Thal 1¼ hr.; thence by a path, indicated by red and blue marks, to the (1¾ hr.) summit (Restaurant; view-tower). — Marked paths also ascend (in 1½ hr.) from the Krainer-Hütte (see above) and from Merkenstein (p. 178).

Near ($6^1/_4$ M.) Hadersdorf-Weidlingau are the château and park of Weidlingau.

A little to the N.E. lies Hadersdorf, once presented by Maria Theresa to Marshal Laudon (d. 1790), who is interred in the park (fine sarcophagus in stone). Thence through the pleasant Mauerbach-Thal to (3 M.) Vorder-Hainbach (Café-Restaurant Lohner*), from which a road to the right leads through a narrow wooded valley to (1 M.) Hinter-Hainbach (ascent of the Sofien-Alpe, $^3/_4$ hr., see p. 76). Purkersdorf.

The line quits the old highroad, turns to the left, and runs through the wooded valley of the Wien towards the heights of the Wiener Wald, passing the small stations of Kellerwiese and Tullnerbach. To the S.W. of ($12^1/_2$ M.) Pfalzau-Pressbaum (1040 ft.) are the sources of the Wien. Woodland scenery as far as ($15^1/_2$ M.) Rekawinkl (1185 ft.; *Rail. Fares 3, 5, 10 kr. — From Urfahr an ELECTRIC MOUNTAIN RAILWAY ascends the Pöstlingberg (24 min., see p. 86); up 25, down 15 kr., including the Tramway from the Rail. Station 50 kr. there and back.

Cab from the station into the town, with one horse 60 kr., with two horses 1 fl.; from the steamboat-quay 50 or 80 kr.; drive by time, first 1/4 hr. 50 or 70, each additional 1/2 hr. 30 or 50 kr.

Popular Festival, with agricultural show, in September, much frequented by peasants from the environs.

Linz (813 ft.), the capital of Upper Austria (Austria 'ob der Enns'), with 50,000 inhab., lies picturesquely on the right bank of the Danube, and is connected with Urfahr (10,000 inhab.) on the opposite bank by an iron bridge 308 yds. long, resting on six granite piers (tramway, see above). A second bridge is under construction.

In the handsome Franz-Josef-Platz (Pl. D, 2, 3), which rises from the Danube, stands a lofty Trinity Column (1723). The Kloster-Strasse leads hence to the W. to the Promenade (p. 86), and the Schmiedthor-Strasse to the S. to the Land-Strasse, the chief street of the town. In the Domgasse, on the left, is the Alte Domkirche (Pl. 6; D, 3), built in 1669-82 in the rococo style. Beyond it, in the Pfarrplatz, rises the Stadt-Pfarrkirche (Pl. 7), with its high tower.

Near this, in the Museum-Str., is the handsome Museum Francisco-Carolinum (Pl. 11; E, 3), in the late-Renaissance style, erected in 1895 from designs by Bruno Schmitz of Düsseldorf. Around the second floor, in front and on the E. and W. sides, runs a *Frieze (200 yds. long, 8 ft. high) in white sandstone, designed by Prof. zur Strassen of Leipsic (d. 1897) and executed by R. Cöllen, portraying the progress of culture in Upper Austria from the earliest times down to its occupation by the House of Hapsburg. (E. side: prehistoric times; façade: introduction of Christianity and the Nibelungen period; W. side: investiture of Duke Albrecht at Augsburg.) Adm. in summer on week-days 9-12 and 2-5, 50 kr.; Sun. and holidays 9-12, 5 kr.; in winter closed on Mon. and Thurs., other days 25 kr.

1st Floor. Prehistoric and Roman antiquities found in Upper Austria; large collection of weapons; art-industrial objects; collection of musical instruments, including a piano presented by Erard Frères to Beethoven in 1803; *Room with Gothic furniture; Hall with ecclesiastical sculptures and paintings; Hall with peasants' costumes. In the banquet-hall are two large landscapes by Obermüllner (Celtic burial-ground at Hallstatt and View from Kreuzen near Grein). — 2nd Floor. Extensive mineralogical and geological collections; relief-map of Upper Austria; picture gallery. — Ground Floor. Coins, seals, natural history specimens. — Sunk Floor. Weapons from the peasants' war, cannons; rustic tavern and dwelling-room, with interesting furniture. Objects in iron, tombstones, etc. — The building is surrounded by a garden; the gate, brought from the Landhaus, is a specimen of highly finished iron-work (end of the 17th cent.).

In the Promenade (Pl. D, 3), with its fine avenue of plane trees, to the right, stands the Landhaus (Pl. 3), or House of the Estates, built in 1565, restored after a fire in 1800, with a court surrounded by arcades. The beautiful marble portal and the Hall of the Estates date from the original building. Opposite is the Theatre.

From the Promenade the Herren-Str. and then (to the right) the Baumbach-Str. lead to the Marien-Dom (Pl. D, 4), commenced in 1862 from the designs of V. Statz of Cologne (d. 1898) in the early-Gothic style. The richly decorated chancel is completed, and used for service. The tower (425 ft. in height) is now approaching completion.

A good new road ascends hence in windings, over the Bauernberg, to the (1 M.) Freinberg (Pl. A, 5). The massive tower erected on the top by Archduke Maximilian of Este (d. 1864), the constructor of the fortifications of Linz (which have since been dismantled), with a small church added later, now belongs to the Jesuits. A good level road leads hence towards the N. to the (¼ hr.) Jägermayer (Pl. A, 4; Restaurant; cab from Linz and back 1½ fl.) and the Grounds of the Verschönerungs-Verein, with several fine points of view. A beautiful panorama is obtained from the Franz-Josefs-Warte (Pl. A, 3), a tower 66 ft. high, on the N. margin of the plateau (adm. 5 kr.): at our feet lie the Danube, the town, and its environs; to the S. stretches the chain of the Alps of Salzburg and Styria. (When the view is clear a white flag is hoisted on the gallery of the Landhaus tower on the Promenade in the town.) Adjoining the tower is the inn Zur Schönen Aussicht. The Jägermayer is about 1 M. due W. from the bridge over the Danube. The direct route to it is by the Schweizerhaus-Gasse and the Römer-Str.; it is pleasanter, though 20 min. longer, to follow the road on the bank of the river as far as the Calvarienberg, and to ascend thence direct through the wood.

The view from the Pöstlingberg (1762 ft.; electric tramway, see p. 85), on the left bank, 1 hr. to the N.W. of Urfahr, is still more extensive, and particularly fine by evening-light. The mountain-line (pretty views) ascends past the château of Hagen (now a brewery); to the right is the conspicuous building of the Petrinum, a seminary for boys. From the terminal station we ascend in a few min. to the pilgrimage-church and the new inn on the top (near it is the Restaurant Jaglbauer). Good panorama by Edlbacher.

From the Pöstlingberg a path provided with way-marks leads in 1½ hr. to the Giselawarte* on the Lichtenberg (3039 ft.), a belvedere commanding an extensive view (Inn). About ½ hr. farther is the small bath and summer-resort of Kirchschlag. The Giselawarte may also be reached from Linz direct by several routes (marked) in about 3 hrs. — St. Magdalena*, a pilgrimage-church (Inn) 3/4 hr. to the N. of Urfahr, is another admirable point of view (one-horse carr. 5 fl.), and may easily be combined with the Pöstlingberg. — The Pfenningberg is ascended in 1 1/2 hr. by a marked path beginning at Windegg (p. 256). — The Cistercian abbey of Wilhering (p. 89), 4 1/2 M. down the Danube, may be reached by the high-road or by a route through the Kürnberger Forst.

FROM URFAHR (Linz) TO AIGEN-SCHLÄGL, 36 M., railway (Mühlkreisbahn) in 3 1/4 hrs. The train ascends the left bank of the Danube to (5 1/2 M.) Ottensheim (p. 89), turns N.W. to Rottenegg, Gerling, and (20 1/2 M.) Neufelden in the valley of the Grosse Mühl, and then follows that stream. 22 1/2 M. Pürnstein-St-Peter (above, to the right, the ruined château of Pürnstein); 27 1/2 M. Haslach; 30 1/2 M. Rohrbach-Berg; 32 1/2 M. Oepping. — 36 M. Aigen (Almersberger) is a pretty village, enclosed by finely wooded hills. To the S. lies (3/4 M.) the wealthy old Præmonstratensian abbey of Schlägl, with an interesting Gothic church and a considerable library.

FROM LINZ TO KLAUS-STEYRLING, 41 M., narrow-gauge railway (Kremsthalbahn) in 3 3/4 hrs. (fares 2 fl. 2, 1 fl. 35 kr.). At (7 1/2 M.) Traun the line crosses the Traun (p. 93), and at (10 M.) Nettingsdorf enters the smiling Kremsthal. In the background rise the Grosse Priel and other Styrian mountains. 12 M. Nöstelbach (with Schloss Weissenberg on the hill to the right); 13 1/2 M. Neuhofen; 16 M. Kematen; 20 M. Rohr-Bad Hall (see below). — 22 1/2 M. Kremsmünster (1085 ft.; Kaiser Max*; Post), a prettily situated little town, with an ancient and celebrated Benedictine abbey, founded in 777 by Tassilo, Duke of Bavaria. The present palatial structure dates from the 18th century. The valuable library contains 70,000 vols., 1700 MSS., and 837 incunabula. The cabinet of antiques contains several rare curiosities. In the lower floors of the lofty observatory, which is admirably fitted up, is an extensive natural history collection. The fish-ponds are interesting. Good wine at the abbey-tavern. — 27 1/2 M. Wartberg; 31 M. Schlierbach; 33 1/2 M. Kirchdorf; 36 M. Michldorf. At (38 1/2 M.) Herndl the line enters the Steyrthal and soon reaches its present terminus at (41 M.) Klaus-Steyrling (1820 ft.; Bahnhof Hotel; Wegscheider). Thence to Stoder and Windischgarsten (p. 187), see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

From station Rohr (see above) a branch-line runs in 20 min. to Bad Hall (1230 ft.; Hôtel Kaiserin Elisabeth*; Erzherzog Karl*; Süssmayer; Budapest), a watering-place with springs impregnated with iodine. Curhaus, baths, and colonnade, and a theatre and fine park. — From Hall a railway runs viâ Sierninghofen in 1 3/4 hr. to (14 M.) Steyr (see p. 185 and Baedeker's Eastern Alps).

4. The Danube from Passau to Vienna.

STEAMBOAT to Linz twice daily in about 3 1/2 hrs. (upstream ca. 8 hrs.), fares 2 fl. 80, 1 fl. 70 kr.; from Linz to Vienna once daily in 9 (upstream 18) hrs.; fares for the descent 4 fl. 70 or 2 fl. 70 kr., for the ascent 2 fl. 35 or 1 fl. 70 kr. Austrian custom-house examination at the landing-place in Passau. Passengers by the first morning steamer may embark the night before and sleep on board (berth 75 kr.). — RAILWAY, see R. 3. Down stream the steamer is far preferable, as the railway touches the river between Kemmelbach and Melk only.

The scenery of the Danube is grander but less smiling than that of the Rhine, while the finest points are often rather far apart. The mountains are higher, and the banks are generally fringed with forest, or clothed with luxuriant pasture; but the population is poor and sparse, and there is an almost total absence of the busy traffic which characterizes the sister-river.

The names of the steamboat-stations are printed in bold type.

Passau, see Baedeker's Southern Germany. — A beautiful retrospect of the town and environs is enjoyed immediately after starting.

Below Passau the right bank belongs to Austria, and the left bank as far as Engelhartszell to Bavaria.

L. Erlau. — R. Schloss Krempelstein, on an abrupt cliff.

L. Obernzell or Hafnerzell (964 ft.; Post; Weber*), the last Bavarian village, with large quarries of graphite and manufactories of lead-pencils and fire-proof crucibles. Excursion to the Bavarian forest, see Baedeker's Southern Germany.

R. Viechtenstein, an old château on the hill, formerly the property of the bishops of Passau and now of Count Pachta. Farther on, below Grünau, the Jochenstein juts far into the river on the left, the ancient boundary between Bavaria and Austria. The present boundary is a wooded ravine on the left bank, a little lower down.

R. Engelhartszell *(Post), prettily situated, with the Austrian custom-house. Near it is Engelszell, once a Cistercian monastery, now owned by Count Pachta.

L. Ranariedl, an ancient mountain-castle, still inhabited; at the foot of the hill is the village of Niederranna.

R. Wesenufer or Wesenurfahr, with a large wine-cellar hewn in the rock, formerly owned by the cathedral-chapter of Passau.

L. Marsbach, with the ancient tower of a mediæval castle.

R. Waldkirchen, a ruin on a pine-clad rock.

L. Hayenbach, or the Kerschbaumer Schloss, destroyed by Emp. Maximilian I., is seen a second time after a bend in the river.

The channel of the river now contracts to nearly half its former width, and is confined between precipitous wooded hills, 600-1000 ft. in height. This is one of the grandest parts of the river. At —

L. Obermühl, a pleasant village, the Kleine Mühlbach descends from a wooded ravine into the Danube.

L. Neuhaus, a handsome château on a lofty wooded height, the property of Herr von Plank. The Danube suddenly emerges on a broad plain shortly before we reach —

R. Aschach (Sonne; Adler; Niklas). a small town extending picturesquely along the bank, with a château and park of Count Harrach. The Pöstlingberg (p. 86) comes into view; in clear weather the Styrian and Austrian Alps form the background towards the S. The view is soon concealed by the numerous islands, overgrown with underwood, between which the river flows. — From this point to Linz, and beyond it, the valley was the scene of many sanguinary encounters during the revolt of the peasantry of Upper Austria. In 1626 Aschach was the headquarters of the insurgents, where, as well as at Neuhaus, they had barricaded the Danube with chains to prevent the Bavarians from assisting Count Herberstein, the Austrian governor, who was shut up at Linz. — Railway to Wels, see p. 93.

About 1½ M. to the E., on the left bank of the Danube, are the favourite chalybeate baths of Mühllacken (Curhotel*, English landlady, pens. 3-5 fl.), in well-wooded environs.

Perched on the hills to the right are the ruined castles of Stauf and Schaumburg.

L. Landshag, with a small château of Count Harrach.

R. Brandstadt is the station for (1½ M.) Eferding (rail. stat., see p. 93). To the left, in the distance, rises the Pöstlingberg.

L. Ottensheim, burned in 1899 (rail. stat., see p. 87). Château of Hr. von Weissenegg.

R. Wilhering, a Cistercian abbey (1146), with a pleasant garden. The church and conventual buildings date from the 18th century.

L. Schloss Buchenau. Then the Pöstlingberg, with its church. To the right, the Calvarienberg, with the Jägermayer rising above it. The steamer passes under the handsome bridge and reaches —

R. Linz (see p. 84).

Below Linz the right bank of the river is flat. Fine retrospect of the town and environs. The steamer passes under the Linz and Prague railway-bridge (p. 256).

R. Zizelau, at the influx of the Traun (p. 84). Opposite to it —

L. Mauthausen (Post), a small town with a flying-bridge, station for Enns (p. 84), 2½ M. from the river. Schloss Pragstein projects far into the stream. On the right the green Enns flows into the Danube, and retains its colour for a long distance. Below the village the steamboat passes under the bridge of the railway from St. Valentin to Budweis (p. 256). The left bank now becomes flatter.

R. Erlakloster, with a dissolved nunnery.

R. Wallsee (905 ft.), a village on a hill, amidst fruit-trees, and the handsome Schloss Wallsee, with its lofty tower commanding a fine view, now the property of Archduke Francis Salvator.

L. On an eminence, a little inland, Schloss Klam. Near —

R. Ardagger the Danube suddenly turns to the N. On the Kollmitzberg (1538 ft.), high above, is the pilgrimage-church of St. Ottilia. The channel contracts, and is flanked by lofty, wooded hills.

L. Grein (715 ft.; Herndl; Kelcher), a pretty little town, is commanded by the Greinburg, a castle of the Duke of Coburg. On the hill above lies the hydropathic of Kreuzen (1570 ft.; pens. from 19 fl., baths 6 fl. weekly; closed in winter), finely situated (on foot 1 hr.; carr. 3 fl.; omn. 30 kr.).

Ridges of rock projecting far into the stream here form the 'Greiner Schwall' ('surging water'). The stream is divided by the large island of Wörth, on the N. side of which the main arm descends in rapids called the Strudel ('whirlpool', 'eddy'), 300 yds. long, and 10-15 yds. in width, once very dangerous to vessels. The obstructing rocks were at last removed by blasting, the final operations having taken place in 1866, and the passage is now safe. The steamer steers along the rocky bank of the Wörth, at the N. end of which are the ruins of a castle, a stone cross, and a statue of the Virgin. Opposite, on the left bank, is the ruin of Werfenstein, and just beyond it the village of Struden, with the ruin of that name on an abrupt rock. A little lower the Hausstein, a lofty rock, crowned with a ruined tower, forms a new obstacle to the stream, causing the once dangerous Wirbel ('whirlpool'), now an ordinary rapid. The passage of the Strudel and the Wirbel takes a few minutes only. At the end of this defile lies —

L. St. Nicola, with fine rocky scenery, a resort of artists.

L. Sarmingstein, with an old watch-tower.

R. Freyenstein, with a ruined castle. — L. Isperdorf, where the Isperbach, the boundary between Upper and Lower Austria, falls into the Danube.

R. Donaudorf, with a small château. Opposite, on a rock projecting into the river, rises —

L. Persenbeug, a château of Archduke Otto.

R. Ybbs (Lamm; Stadt Wien), the Roman Pons Isidis. One of the two large buildings is a lunatic asylum, the other a poor-house, connected with that of Vienna. — The river forms a large bend. To the right is the mouth of the Ybbs (p. 84). To the S. a distant view is obtained of the Austrian Alps, with the Oetscher. At Sarling, on the right, the railway approaches the river (p. 83).

R. Säusenstein, with the ruins of the Cistercian abbey of Gottesthal, burned down by the French in 1809.

L. Marbach (Sonne; Ochs; Adler), a market-town. On the hill above it (1450 ft.; 1 hr.) rises the pilgrimage-church of Maria-Taferl, visited by 100,000 devotees annually. The summit (Inn) commands a fine view of the valley of the Danube, a great part of Lower Austria, and the Styrian and Austrian Alps, from the Schneeberg near Vienna to the Bavarian frontier. Opposite Marbach is the rail. stat. Krummnussbaum (p. 84). A little farther on the Erlaf falls into the Danube.

R. Pöchlarn (rail. stat.; Goldner Anker), the traditional residence of Rüdiger of Bechlaren, one of the heroes of the Nibelungen-Lied, who accorded a brilliant reception to Chriemhild on her journey to the land of the Huns. On the opposite bank is Klein-Pöchlarn, with a little old church, on the hill above which is Schloss Artstetten (p. 83). Farther down, the church of Ebersdorf on the left. The valley now expands. Near —

L. Weitenegg rises a picturesque old pinnacled castle, said to have been erected by Rüdiger of Bechlaren, restored by Emp. Francis. Below it is the little château of Lubereck.

R. Melk, or Mölk (rail. stat.; *Lamm; Ochs; Köttl, at the station), is a small town at the base of the rock on which stands a celebrated Benedictine Abbey, 188 ft. above the river, founded in 1089, re-erected in 1701-38, resembling a large palace rather than a monastery. The church, sumptuously fitted up with gilding and red marble, contains a famous organ. The library (30,000 vols., valuable incunabula, and MSS.) in its handsome saloon, and the picture-gallery, deserve a visit. The private chapel of the abbot contains the 'Melker Kreuz', 2 ft. high, admirably executed in embossed gold, dating from 1363; the back is adorned with pearls and precious stones; the foot is of silver. Melk and Mautern, which lies farther down, are also mentioned in the Nibelungen-Lied. — The landing-place of the large steamers is 1 M. from the railway-station (p. 83). — Cable-ferry to the left bank (12 kr. there and back).

Below Melk the Danube enters the Wachau, a sequestered defile, many miles in length, noted for its scenery and its legends.

L. Emmersdorf, opposite the influx of the Pielach (p. 83), with a church and a monastery. — R. Schönbichl, with a château of Count Beroldingen and a Servite monastery.

L. Aggsbach. Opposite is Aggstein, once the seat of the powerful knights of Kuenringe, afterwards a dreaded robbers' castle. Below —

L. Schwallenbach the Teufelsmauer (devil's wall), a rocky ridge, extends from the river to the summit of the hill above.

L. Spitz, a market-town with an ancient church and a ruined castle, is built around a vine-clad hill.

The *Jauerling (3145 ft.), ascended from Spitz by a good bridle-path in 2½ hrs., commands a fine view of the Danube and the Austrian and Styrian Alps (tourists' hut at the top).

L. St. Michael. On the roof of the old church are placed seven hares made of clay, a quaint memorial of a snow-drift which once so completely covered the church that the hares ran over the roof.

L. Wesendorf. Then Weissenkirchen (Salomon's Inn).

Pleasant excursion by (1½ hr.) Weinzierl to (¾ hr.) the château of Hartenstein* (Hydropathic), finely situated above the Teufelskirche ravine. We may then go through the Kremsthal and past the ruin of Hohenstein to (2 hrs.) Obermeisling (*Inn), whence a road leads through the gorges of the Krems to (6 M.) Senftenberg, with a ruined castle, and (4½ M.) Krems (see below).

R. Rossatz, a market-town and château. Opposite, on a rocky eminence, rise the ruins of the castle of —

L. Dürrenstein* (680 ft.). In 1192-94, according to the tradition, Duke Leopold VI. kept Richard Cœur-de-Lion a prisoner here for 15 months, and here the faithful Blondel is said to have discovered his lost master. The village looks picturesque from the river; the modern Schloss of Prince Starhemberg, the old abbey, and the church are the chief buildings. In the ruins of a nunnery of St. Clara, dissolved in 1769, an inn has been established.

R. Mautern, the Roman Mutinum Favianis. An iron bridge, resting on six piers, connects Mautern with —

L. Stein (Elephant), a town of 4200 inhab., with three churches. Near the bridge are the ruins of a castle destroyed by Matthew Corvinus in 1486, and on the Frauenberg the remains of another stronghold. The old town of Krems (Hirsch; Ross; Hôt. Bahnhof; pop. 10,584) is separated from Stein by the suppressed Capuchin monastery of Und. From the river they look like one long town. A monument to Marshal Schmidt, who fell here in a skirmish with the French in 1805, was erected on the Promenade in 1820. The Städtische Museum is interesting (open on Sun.).

From Krems to Absdorf, 20 M., railway in 1¼ hr. Stations: Gedersdorf, Hadersdorf (junction of the Kampthal-Bahn to Sigmundsherberg on the Staatsbahn, p. 257), Wagram (½ hr. to the W. of which is Schloss Grafenegg*, the property of the Duchess of Ratibor, with a fine park and interesting stables), Kirchberg on the Wagram. 20 M. Absdorf (p. 257).

The line from Krems to Herzogenburg-St-Pölten (p. 83) crosses the Danube below Stein. We now near the famous Benedictine abbey of Göttweig, founded in 1072, on a hill 856 ft. high, 3 M. from the Danube. The present extensive buildings were erected in 1719. The portal of the church and the great staircase are very imposing. The abbey possesses a library with numerous incunabula and MSS., a physical cabinet, and collections of coins, antiquities, engravings, etc.

The left bank is now flat, and numerous islands again divide the stream. To the right, on the crest of the hill, rises the solitary church of Wetterkreuz (1207 ft.).

R. Hollenburg (772 ft.), with a château and park, and above it a ruined castle. The right bank also now becomes flat, and the scenery is uninteresting until Vienna is approached.

R. Traismauer, a very old village, not visible from the river, is mentioned in the Nibelungen-Lied. Near it the Traisen falls into the Danube. Then, Zwentendorf.

R. Tulln (Brenner; Hirsch; Löwe), one of the oldest towns on the Danube, the Comagenae of the Romans, and the station of one of their river-fleets, is also mentioned in the Nibelungen-Lied. Beside the old church is an ancient Romanesque *Charnel-house. In the extensive plain here, the Tullner Feld, an army of 60,000 Germans and Poles assembled in 1683, and marched thence to aid the distressed Viennese against their Turkish besiegers. The Danube is here crossed by the Staatsbahn (p. 257).

From Tulln to Herzogenburg and St. Pölten, see p. 83; to Absdorf-Hippersdorf and Krems, see above and p. 257.

Below Tulln, as the Wiener Wald is approached, the scenery improves.

R. Greifenstein (Schwarzer Bär; Hirsch), with a fine ruined castle of Prince Liechtenstein, which attracts many visitors from Vienna (station on the Staatsbahn, p. 257, which here skirts the bank). Hadersfeld (Inn), on the hill, from which pleasant forest-paths lead to Klosterneuburg, Kierling, etc., commands the whole valley of the Danube.

L. Kreuzenstein, a castle concealed by trees, destroyed in the Thirty Years' War, but restored in 1887 by Count Wilczek.

R. Höflein, below which the river suddenly turns to the S. In the distance we observe the Leopoldsberg and the Kahlenberg (p. 74)

L. Korneuburg (548 ft.; Goldenes Kreuz; Restaurant Steinbach), formerly a fortress, frequently mentioned in the war between Matthew Corvinus and Emp. Frederick III., and in the Thirty Years' War, lies in the plain, far inland, on the Nordwest-Bahn (p. 262). Along the bank extends the vine-clad Bisamberg (1180 ft.). In the distance glitter the domes of the great Augustine abbey of Klosterneuburg.

R. Klosterneuburg (p. 75). Below it the Leopoldsberg (p. 74) lies so close to the river as scarcely to leave room for the railway and the road. To the right, on a prominent spur, is the church of the Leopoldsberg (p. 74), at the foot of which, amidst vineyards, lies Kahlenbergerdorf.

R. Nussdorf (p. 71). The broader arm of the Danube, to the left, does not touch the capital. Passengers are conveyed by a smaller vessel through the Danube Canal from Nussdorf to the Franz-Josef-Quai, below the Stefanie-Brücke.

R. Vienna (560 ft.), p. 1.

5. From Linz to Salzburg.

77½ M. Railway in 3-5½ hrs. (fares 4 fl. 97, 2 fl. 98, 1 fl. 66 kr., express 6 fl. 98, 4 fl. 32, 2 fl. 33 kr.).

Linz, see p. 84. — 6 M. Hörsching; 11¼ M. Marchtrenk. — 17 M. Wels (1026 ft.; Rail. Restaurant, with R.; Höng's Hôtel Greif; Schwarzer Adler; Post; Kaiserin von Oesterreich, at the station), an old town (10,118 inhab.) on the Traun, with a restored Gothic church and an old castle in which Emp. Maximilian I. died in 1519. The public archives and a collection of Roman antiquities may be visited. The town contains numerous borings, the gas issuing from which is used to heat and light the houses, as well as for motive power. The Marienwarte*, on the Rainberg, commands a wide prospect.

From Wels to Simbach, 56½ M., railway in 3½ hrs. — Stations: Wallern; Grieskirchen; 18½ M. Neumarkt (Rail. Restaurant; *Reiss), junction for Schärding (p. 94); Pram-Haag; 31½ M. Ried (Hirsch; Löwe), a thriving district-capital and the junction of the Salzkammergut-Bahn (Schärding to Steinach, see p. 94). Beyond several unimportant stations the line crosses the Inn at the old town of Braunau and at (56½ M.) Simbach reaches the Bavarian frontier (Rail. Restaurant). The last is one of the most ancient places in Upper Austria, where Chriemhild passed the night on her journey to the land of the Huns (Nibelungen-Lied, 21st Adventure). Beautiful early-Gothic church. — 17½ M. Aschach, see p. 88.

From Wels to Unter-Rohr, 20 M., railway in 1¾ hr. — Unter-Rohr and thence to Bad Hall, see p. 87.

20 M. Gunskirchen. — 24 M. Lambach (1100 ft.; Rail. Restaurant, with rooms; Deisinger), a small town with important-looking buildings. Among these is a Benedictine Abbey, founded in 1032, which contains a collection of engravings, incunabula, MSS., and nine large altar-pieces by Sandrart.

The line quits the Traun and enters the valley of the Ager. On the left, the Traunstein and the Höllen-Gebirge. 26 M. Neukirchen; 28 M. Breitenschützing (branch to Wolfsegg, see below); 30½ M. Schwanenstadt. — 34½ M. Attnang-Puchheim (1322 ft.; Railway Hotel & Restaurant, R. 1 fl.), junction of the Salzkammergut Railway (see p. 106).

Fine views from the Schloss-Park and the 'Schanze'. — 10½ M. Holzleithen; branch-line to Thomasroith, in a coal-mining district. The train penetrates the Hausruck by a tunnel 770 yds. long, and descends by Hausruck, Eberschwang, and Oberbrunn to (20½ M.) Ried (p. 93). 25½ M. Aurolzmünster; 28 M. St. Martin, with a château of Count Arco-Valley; 30 M. Hart; 32 M. Andiesenhofen. The train approaches the Inn, crosses the Andiesenbach, and beyond (36½ M.) Suben the Prambach, and reaches (42 M.) Schärding (Altmann), an old town picturesquely situated on the right bank of the Inn. From Schärding to Passau (Ratisbon, etc.), see Baedeker's Southern Germany.

To the left, the old château of Puchheim; in the background, the Höllen-Gebirge. — 37½ M. Vöcklabruck (1420 ft.; *Rail. Restaurant; Mohr; Post) is a pleasant little town on the Ager; on a height on the E. side stands the old Gothic church of Schöndorf.

RAILWAY to (7½ M.) Kammer in 30-35 min.; thence STEAMBOAT on the Attersee to Unterach six times daily in summer (1½-2 hrs.; fares 1 fl. 20, 85 kr.); OMNIBUS from Unterach to (½ hr.; 40 kr.) See; and STEAMBOAT thence to Scharfling (4 times daily in ½ hr.; 60 kr.) and to Mondsee (ten times daily in 1-1¼ hr.; 1 fl. 10 kr.). — The Attersee line diverges to the W. from the State Railway and skirts the winding Ager, which it finally crosses. — 7½ M. Kammer (Hôt. Kammer*, R., L., & A. 1½ fl.; Köck; Traube, etc.), a pleasant village with lake-baths, lies on a promontory at the N. end of the Attersee or Kammersee (1525 ft.). This lake, 12½ M. in length, 1-2 M. in breadth, and 660 ft. in depth, is the largest (17 sq. M.) in Austria, and is bounded by picturesque mountains at the S. end. The steamboat, leaving the quay near the railway-station, touches at several stations, including Attersee (Hôt. Attersee), at the foot of the Buchberg (2650 ft.), and Steinbach (Inn), whence a pleasant excursion in dry weather may be made to (3 hrs.) the Langbath Lakes (p. 108). The steamer next steers close to the precipitous rocks at the head of the lake, and halts at Weissenbach (*Post), whence a good road leads through the sequestered Weissenbach-Thal to (9 M.) Mitter-Weissenbach (p. 108; omnibus to Ischl daily, see p. 109). The steamer coasts the pine-clad Breitenberg to Burgau (Loidl) and Unterach (Goldnes Schiff; Mayer*), a summer-resort, beautifully situated at the mouth of the See-Ache, which descends from the Mondsee. The Schafberg (p. 105) may be ascended hence in 4-4½ hrs. (the finest route, recommended to experts; guide, advisable for the inexperienced, 3 fl., from See on the Mondsee 2 fl. 40 kr.).

The road from Unterach to the Mondsee (path through the woods on the right bank preferable) follows the left bank of the Ache to (2¼ M.) the steamboat-station See (Inn) at the E. end of the Mondsee (1570 ft.), a picturesque lake, 7 M. long and 1¼ M. broad, bounded on the S. by the imposing Schafberg. The steamboat calls at Kreuzstein and Pichl (*Hôt. Auhof) and then crosses to Scharfling (Wesenauer), on the E. bank, 1/2 M. from the railway-station of the same name (p. 104). The Schafberg (p. 105) may be ascended hence in 3 1/2 hrs. (guide, 4 fl., unnecessary). Beyond Scharfling the steamer hugs the S. shore to Plomberg (Hôt. Plomberg; railway-station, see p. 103) and then steers obliquely across the lake, with fine mountain views. — Mondsee (Post*; Krone*; Weisses Ross; Traube; Adler; Königsbad*, on the lake), a thriving place (1590 inhab.), with a large church and a number of country-seats, prettily situated at the W. end of the lake, attracts numerous visitors in summer. Beautiful walks on the banks of the lake; fine survey from the (8 min.) Mariahilf Chapel. — Narrow-gauge railway to Salzburg viâ St. Lorenz, see p. 103.

On the right are the château and ruins of Wartenburg. 40 M. Timelkam; 43 M. Neukirchen-Gampern; 45 M. Redl-Zipf, with a large brewery; 47 1/2 M. Vöcklamarkt; 50 1/2 M. Frankenmarkt (1760 ft.; Rail. Restaurant). The railway quits the Vöckla and winds through the wooded hill-district forming the watershed between the Traun and the Inn. 54 1/2 M. Pondorf. The highest point is stat. Ederbauer (1960 ft.). Near (58 1/2 M.) Rabenschwand-Oberhofen the overhanging summit of the Schafberg is seen on the left. 60 1/2 M. Strasswalchen (1772 ft.); thence to the Mondsee, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps. 62 M. Steindorf, junction for Braunau (p. 93). 63 M. Neumarkt-Köstendorf.

The Tannberg (2570 ft.; Inn with view-tower), 1 hr. from Neumarkt or from Weng, commands a superb view (path marked). Descent to (2 hrs.) Mattsee (see below).

Beyond (65 1/2 M.) Weng the line skirts the pretty Wallersee, or Lake of Seekirchen. 67 M. Wallersee. — 69 M. Seekirchen (1675 ft.; Gmachl's Inn).

Diligence daily in 1 1/2 hr. to (8 M.) Mattsee (1650 ft.; Iglbräu; Stift), charmingly situated on a neck of land between the Ober-Trumersee and Nieder-Trumersee (the 'Mattseen'); 1 1/4 M. to the N.W. is the smaller Grabensee. The Schlossberg (1860 ft.; 1/4 hr.) affords a good survey; and a still finer one is commanded by the Buchberg (2610 ft.; 1 hr.; key of the pyramid at a cottage near the top).

The train enters a wooded tract and crosses the ravine of the Fischach (outflow of the Wallersee) several times. 71 M. Eugendorf; 73 M. Hallwang-Elixhausen. We now turn to the S. into the valley of the Salzach; to the left, the rounded Gaisberg, to the right, the Untersberg, Watzmann, and the Stauffen. 75 M. Berg-Mariaplain (p. 103). — 77 1/2 M. Salzburg.

Salzburg (1350 ft.), the ancient Juvavum, was once the capital of the wealthiest and most powerful ecclesiastical principality in S. Germany, which was secularised in 1802 and converted into a temporal electorate. It afterwards became Austrian, then Bavarian, and finally, in 1816, Austrian again. The town (27,600 inhab.· 500 Prot.) is now the seat of an archbishop and of the government and law-courts of the province. Few German towns can compare with Salzburg for beauty of situation. The town lies on both banks of the Salzach, bounded by the abrupt castle-hill and the Mönchsberg on the left bank, and by the Capuzinerberg on the right bank. Frequent fires have left few mediæval buildings here. Most of the principal edifices were built by the splendour-loving archbishops in the 17th and 18th centuries. Shady promenades afford charming walks on both banks of the Salzach, from the railway-viaduct to the Carolinen-Brücke. On the right bank a new and handsome quarter has sprung up since the demolition of the fortifications.

The older part of the town is on the left bank of the Salzach, its central point being the Residenz-Platz (Pl. E, 4), in the middle of which is the handsome Residenz-Brunnen (Pl. 3), 46 ft. in height, executed in 1664-80 by Ant. Dario. Each of the hippopotami and figures of Atlas is hewn out of a single block of marble. At the summit a Triton spouts water out of a horn. On the W. side of the Platz rises the spacious Residenz, or Imperial Palace (Pl. D, E, 4), erected in 1592-1724, and now partly occupied by Grand-Duke Ferdinand IV. of Tuscany. Opposite to it is the Neugebäude (1588), including the Government Buildings, Law Courts (Pl. 34), and Post and Telegraph Offices (Pl. 32), with a small tower containing a set of chimes, which play at 7, 11, and 6 o'clock (names of the tunes on a tablet on the Palace). On the S. side is the Cathedral (Pl. E, 4), erected in 1614-28 by Santino Solari in the late-Renaissance style, with florid stucco ornamentation. A chapel to the left of the entrance contains a Romanesque *Font in bronze, dating from 1321; while the chapels of the aisles have modern pictures representing the ascent to Calvary, and ceiling-paintings by Glötzle. The treasury of the cathedral is worth seeing (apply to the verger, in the transept to the right). — In the Dom-Platz, on the W. side of the cathedral, rises a Column of the Virgin, in lead, by Hagenauer (1771).

Mozart's Statue (Pl. 28), in bronze, by Schwanthaler, erected in 1842, adorns the Mozart-Platz (to the E.). The house in which the great composer (1756-91) was born, No. 7 Getreidegasse (Pl. 27), contains the interesting Mozart Museum on the third floor (MSS., portraits, piano, etc.: open in summer daily 9-12 and 2-4, Sun. 10-12; in winter daily 3-5; adm. 50 kr.). The Mozart Album, containing autographs and photographs of composers, singers, etc., is shown only by special permission (obtainable at Sigmund-Haffner-Gasse No. 29, first floor; 20 kr.). — Mozart's House (Pl. 29; D, 3) is in the Makart-Platz (p. 100).

On the S. side of the cathedral is the Kapitel-Platz, with its handsome marble horse-trough (1732; Pl. 4). On the left side of this Platz is the Archiepiscopal Palace (Pl. E, 4).

Nearly opposite, in the S.W. corner of the Platz, is the entrance to the Burial Ground of St. Peter (Pl. 24), the oldest in Salzburg. The vaults hewn in the rock and adjoining the Chapels of St. Maximus and St. Gertrude are interesting. The former chapel, the most ancient Christian shrine in Salzburg, is, according to the legend, the spot whence St. Maximus and his companions were cast down in 477 by the pagan Heruli. The late-Gothic Church of St. Margaret* (Pl. 16) in the centre of the burial-ground was erected in 1483 and restored in 1864. Abbot Johann Staupitz (d. 1524), the friend of Luther, is interred in the Chapel of St. Veit. The Church of St. Peter (Pl. 18), a Romanesque edifice of 1131, badly restored in 1754, contains a poor monument to the composer Michael Haydn (d. 1806), brother of the more celebrated Joseph Haydn, and the tombstone of St. Rupert (d. 718). — The Benedictine Abbey of St. Peter (Pl. 6) contains a library of 40,000 vols., with a collection of incunabula and ancient MSS., a very interesting treasury, and extensive archives (visitors admitted, generally at 1 p.m., by permission obtained at the gate, to the left of the church-door). — At the N. entrance to the burial-ground is the Stiftskeller (p. 96; good wine).

In the vicinity is the Franciscan Church (Pl. 9), of the 13th cent., with a fine Romanesque S. portal, and an elegant Gothic tower, restored in 1866. The interior is in the transition style, disfigured with later additions. The hexagonal choir borne by columns, with its net-work vaulting and its series of chapels, dates from the end of the 15th century. On the high-altar, a *Madonna, in wood, by M. Pacher (1480). In the Franciscan Monastery opposite a performance is given daily at 10.30 a.m. (ladies not admitted) on the 'Pansymphonicum', an instrument invented by Father Singer, one of the monks (d. 1882).

Adjoining are the stables of the former prince-bishops, now a cavalry-barrack, and the Summer Riding School (Pl. 35; adm. 10 kr.), with three galleries hewn in the rock of the Mönchsberg in 1693. The Winter Riding School has a ceiling-painting of a tournament (1690).

On the N. side of the barracks, in the Universitäts-Platz, is a horse-trough (Pl. 31) with a group of horse-tamers by Mandl (1670). Thence to the W. runs the Neuthor, a tunnel 150 yds. long, hewn in 1765-67 through the conglomerate rock (breccia) of the Mönchsberg, leading out of the town. Beyond it rises a statue of St. Sigismund, by Hagenauer, in memory of Archb. Sigismund, the constructor of the tunnel, a medallion of whom has been placed at the end of the tunnel next the town. There is a small stalactite cavern about 200 yds. to the left of the exit. — In the Universitäts-Platz rises the Collegiumkirche (Pl. 22; D, 4), a handsome rococo edifice with a lofty dome, built in 1696-1707 from plans by Fischer von Erlach.

On the Franz-Joseph-Quai is the valuable Museum Carolino-Augusteum (Pl. D, 3; adm. 50 kr., on Sun. 30 kr.; daily in summer, 8-1 and 2-6, Sun. and Thurs. in winter, 1-4; good light necessary).

Ground Floor. In the Vestibule are a handsome bronze fountain of the 17th cent. and the arms of several archbishops in stone. The Lapidarium contains Roman mosaic pavements, milestones, monuments, etc. — First Floor. In the Hall of Industry are works of the art-handicrafts and a Guild Room, with master-works. Music Room, with a fine collection of musical instruments of the last three centuries. Hall of Antiquities, with prehistoric and Roman bronzes, etc. Weapon Saloon: weapons of the last three centuries. Mediaeval Kitchen; Study; State Room of the time of the Thirty Years' War; Hunting Room; Women's Apartment, with bay windows and old paintings on glass; Dining Room; Romanesque Chapel and Sacristy, fitted up in the Gothic style; Gothic Hall; Rococo Room; Renaissance Hall. — Second Floor. Library, with more than 50,000 volumes. Collection of Documents, Seals, and Coins. Keil's Relief Map of Salzburg and the Salzkammergut, a large and carefully executed work, completed by Petikan. Costume Saloon. Picture Saloon, with original panelling from the château of Goldegg (1603). The collection of natural history has been removed to the château of Mirabell (p. 100).

The houses of the adjacent Gstättengasse (Pl. C, 3; electric lift to the Mönchsberg, see p. 100) cling to the side of the Mönchsberg like swallows' nests, with rooms and cellars hewn in the conglomerate rock. The Klausen-Thor was formerly the termination of this part of the town, lying between the hill and the river. The latter is now bordered by the broad Franz-Joseph-Quai, planted with trees. Beyond the gate is the iron Franz-Karl-Gehsteig (foot-bridge; 1 kr.).

Above the town, on the S.E. point of the Mönchsberg, rises the fortress of Hohen-Salzburg (1780 ft.), now reached in 3 min. by a Cable Railway, starting in the Festungsgasse, close to St. Peter's Cemetery (Pl. E, 4; fare 30, up and down 40, including admission to the fortress and the view-tower 60 kr.). The railway is 200 yds. long and ascends at a gradient of 58 : 100. Halfway up is the station Mönchsberg, adjoining the restaurant Zur Katz (approach to the Mönchsberg, see p. 100). Farther on the train penetrates the wall of the fortress by a tunnel 25 yds. long and reaches the upper station in the Hasengraben (Restaurant). The View Tower (82 ft. high; platform 560 ft. above the town) commands a splendid *Panorama, including (from left to the right) the Gaisberg, Schwarzenberg, Tennen-Gebirge, Pass Lueg (above Schloss Hellbrunn), Hohe Göll, the Steinerne Meer (in the background), the sombre Untersberg (above Schloss Leopoldskron), the Latten-Gebirge, Müllnerhorn, Ristfeichthorn, Sonntagshorn, Hochstauffen, and the château of Klesheim (on the plain). In the W. foreground rises the Mönchsberg, beyond which is the wooded Reinberg (Ofenlochberg), with its breccia quarries. To the N.W. extends the plain of Bavaria. To the N. is Maria-Plain, with the village of Bergheim below, on the Salzach. On the N.E. the Gaisberg is adjoined by the Capuzinerberg, at the base of which, on the Salzach, lies the town. — The fortress, now used as barracks, was founded in the 11th cent. and extended at different periods; the greater part of the present imposing pile dates from 1496-1519. The Church of St. George in the castle-yard, erected in 1502, contains statues of the Twelve Apostles in red marble. On the exterior is a relief, representing the founder, Archb. Leonhard (d. 1519). The Fürstenzimmer, restored in 1851, are worth inspection. The Goldene Stube contains a fine Gothic stove of 1501.

The Mönchsberg (1645 ft.), a wooded hill about $1^1/_2$ M. in length, bounding the town on the W., affords charming walks with beautiful views. An Electric Lift (200 ft.; fare 20 kr., down 10 kr., up and down 25 kr.) ascends every 10 min. from Gstättengasse 13 (Pl. C, 3) to the top of the plateau (Restaurant*, with frequent concerts). The Belvedere (10 kr.), 360 ft. above the Salzach, commands a splendid panorama, more picturesque, though less extensive, than that from the fortress. The view of the town, overhung by the fortress, is especially attractive. — Forest-paths lead hence to the S. to the Bürgerwehrsöller (Restaurant), to the W. to the Restaurant St. Hubertus*, below the St. Johann-Schlösschen (Villa Paschkow), and to other points.

The easiest approach to the Mönchsberg leads from the station Mönchsberg, on the cable-railway (p. 99), through an archway under the Restaurant Katz (fine view, see p. 99) and past the Ludwigs-Fernsicht and the Villa Freyburg. — The most direct footpath from the town to the Mönchsberg is by a flight of 283 steps near the Summer Riding School (p. 93); another leads from the suburb of Mülln, past the Augustine Church (Pl. 5; C, 2) and through the Monica Gate; a third from the suburb of Nonnthal.

The E. spur of the hill, below the fortress, is the Nonnberg (Pl. E, F, 4), so called from a Benedictine convent situated here. The Gothic Convent Church (founded 1009, restored in the 15th cent.), possesses a fine winged altar-piece, beautiful stained glass (15th cent.), a crypt with interesting columns, and in the tower ancient frescoes. The cloisters, dating from the end of the 11th cent., are the oldest now extant in Germany (no admission). Charming view from the parapet. — Outside the Kajetaner-Thor, on the Salzach, is the Künstlerhaus (Pl. F, 4), for exhibitions of art (p. 96).

The Salzach is crossed in the middle of the town by the iron Stadt-Brücke, 300 ft. long and 36 ft. broad. In the 'Platzl', near the bridge, on the right bank of the Salzach, is the House of Paracelsus (Pl. 30), indicated by his effigy. The tomb of this celebrated physician and naturalist is in the Cemetery of St. Sebastian (Pl. 25), at the end of the Linzergasse. Farther on, in the Makart-Platz, is the Theatre (Pl. 36; D, 3), a handsome rococo building by Fellner & Hellmer (1893). Opposite is Mozart's House (Pl. 29; p. 97). Farther on, in the Mirabell-Platz, stands the Mirabell-Schloss (Pl. D, 2), erected in 1606 by Archbishop Wolf-Dietrich, rebuilt after a fire in 1818, and now the property of the town. The staircase is adorned with sculptures by Raph. Donner. The Mirabell-Schloss contains the natural history section of the Museum (p. 99), including a geological-mineralogical collection of 20,000 specimens, and also a permanent industrial exhibition (p. 96). Behind the château lies the Mirabell Garden (also entered from the Makart-Platz), laid out in the old French fashion, with fountains, marble statues, and an aviary. It is connected with the Cur-Garten by the handsome new Mirabell Steps.

Adjoining Schloss Mirabell on the N. is the well-kept Curgarten, containing a Curhaus and Bath House (Restaurant; concerts, see p. 96). A building in the park contains Sattler's Cosmorama and Panorama of Salzburg (adm. 20 kr.). — To the W., on the Elisabeth-Quai, is the Protestant Church (Pl. 14), a Romanesque edifice by Götz (1867). — The garden of the Villa Schwarz, near the railway-station (1½ M.), contains an excellent bronze statue of Schiller, by Meixner. Above the Stadt-Brücke (p. 100) on the right bank of the Salzach the Gisela Quay with its pretty villas (Café Corso, see p. 96) extends to the Carolinen-Brücke and the new Franz-Josef-Park in the Brodhäusel-Au (Pl. G, 4), the 'Prater' of Salzburg.

In the Linzergasse on the right bank, about 200 paces from the Stadt-Brücke, opposite the Gablerbräu Inn, and recognisable by its large stone portal (r.), is the entrance to the Capuzinerberg (2130 ft.). The Capuchin Monastery (Pl. 11) is reached in 8-10 min. by a 'Route de Calvaire', with 225 steps, or by the Capuzinerstiege (Steingasse 9; also with steps). At the top visitors ring at the gate (1 kr.) and enter the park. On the left, brought hither from Vienna, stands the 'Mozart-Häuschen', in which Mozart completed the opera of 'Zauberflöte' in 1791 (adm. 10 kr.). In front of it is a bronze bust of Mozart by Hellmer. We ascend hence through the wood by about 500 steps more. After 10 min. a finger-post on the left indicates the way to the 'Aussicht nach Bayern', whence we survey the new town on the right bank and the railway-station in the foreground, to the right Maria-Plain, to the left Mülln, in the centre the Salzach stretching far into the plains of Bavaria. About 2 min. farther on another direction-post shows the way (diverging from the straight path to the restaurant) to the (5 min.) 'Stadt-Aussicht' (1985 ft.), the finest point on the Capuzinerberg (pavilion): admirable *View of the town and fortress, the Hochstauffen, Sonntagshorn, Latten-Gebirge, Untersberg, Schönfeldspitze, Hohe Göll, Pass Lueg, and Tennen-Gebirge. In 5 min. more we reach the Francisci Schlössl, or Capuziner Schlössl (Restaurant), 780 ft. above the Salzach, and commanding a very extensive prospect towards the E. and S. A shady path (pretty views) leads hence down the hill on the side farthest from the town, which we regain through the Linzergasse.

The Gaisberg (4220 ft.) is the finest point of view near Salzburg. A ZAHNRADBAHN, or rack-and-pinion railway, ascends to the summit from Parsch (1410 ft.), reached by the Staatsbahn (p. 119) in 6 min., or by the steam-tramway (p. 96) in 22 min. (from Aeussere Stein to Parsch, 8 min.), or by 20 min. walk from the Carolinen-Brücke (Pl. F, 4) viâ the Aigen and Gaisberg road (cabs, see p. 96). Opposite the station is the Hôtel Gaisbergbahn; to the left, higher up, Dr. Breyer's Hydropathic Establishment (Wasserheil-Anstalt, p. 96). The ascent by the railway, which is $2^3/_4$ M. in length, with a maximum gradient of 25:100, takes about $^3/_4$ hr. (fares, up 2 fl. 4 kr., return-ticket 3 fl. 6 kr.). The line ascends on the S.W. side of the hill, passing the station of Judenberg-Alp (2405 ft.), to ($1^3/_4$ M.) the Zistel-Alp (3270 ft.; Restaurant), and then mounts in a wide curve towards the E., through cuttings in the rock, to the terminal station (4190 ft.). A few paces to the W. is the Hôtel Gaisbergspitze (R., L., & A. $1^1/_2$-2 fl.), on the N.W. brink of the plateau, commanding a charming view of Salzburg. The *View from the summit (4220 ft.; 5 min.) embraces the Salzburg Alps and the plain, in which seven lakes may be descried.

Aigen, a château and park of Prince Schwarzenberg, at the foot of the Gaisberg, $3^1/_2$ M. to the S.E. of Salzburg, merits a visit (railway-station, see p. 119). Morning-light the best. At the entrance to the grounds ($^3/_4$ M. from the station) is a Hotel & Restaurant*, with a shady terrace. Those who are pressed for time may obtain a guide here (30 kr.). The Kanzel is the finest point.

About $1^1/_4$ hr. above Aigen is Count Platz's château of St. Jakob am Thurn (1700 ft.; Restaurant), an excellent point of view ($^1/_2$ hr. from stat. Elsbethen, p. 119). From the 'Aussicht', 5 min. from the château, we enjoy a view of the mountains and the plain of the Salzach, most picturesquely grouped. In the background lies Salzburg.

The imperial château of Hellbrunn, 3 M. to the S. of Salzburg (steam-tramway, see p. 96), with garden and fountains in the style of the 17th and 18th cent., was built by Archbp. Marcus Sittich in 1613 and is adorned with frescoes by Mascagni and others (1615). The fountains play on Sundays gratis (fee on other days 50 kr., for a party 20 kr. each). There are also a Mechanical Theatre (fee) and a *Restaurant. From the garden an iron gate (fee for opening it) leads into the Park. Ascending the wooded hill to the right, we pass the Monats-Schlösschen (so called because built in a single month) and arrive at (10 min.) the Stadt-Aussicht, commanding a fine view of Salzburg. Thence through wood to (10 min.) the Watzmann-Aussicht, on the other side of the hill, from which the Watzmann is seen to great advantage. On our way back we descend to the right, after 5 min., to the 'Steinerne Theater', hewn in the rock, where pastorals and operas used to be performed before the archbishops. We then return by the drive, skirting the hill to the left. — About $1^1/_2$ M. to the S. of Hellbrunn, on the road to Hallein, is the Gothic château of Anif (Count Arco-Steppberg), with a fine park (steam-tramway, see p. 96). — From Hellbrunn to Aigen (see above) is a walk of about $^3/_4$ hr.

About $1^1/_2$ M. to the S.W. of Salzburg (steam-tramway to Nonnthal, p. 96) is the château of Leopoldskron, with a large pond and Swimming Bath (p. 96; Restaurant; rowing and sailing boats). From this point the extensive Leopoldskroner Moos stretches southwards to the base of the Untersberg. On the 'Moos-Strasse', which traverses the moor to Glaneck, are a group of 200 houses inhabited by peat-cutters, and the 'Moos-Bäder' or peat-baths (omnibus, see p. 96). The Ludwigsbad is 3/4 M. from Leopoldskron, and the Marienbad 1 1/4 M.

From the (2 1/2 M.) old castle of Glaneck (1460 ft.; Inn) a carriage-road ascending by the falls of the Glan leads to (3/4 M.) the Fürstenbrunnen* (1950 ft.), the excellent water of which (42° Fahr.) is now conducted to Salzburg. In the vicinity are the (1/2 hr.) Quarries which yield the beautiful Untersberg marble (Restaurant zur Schönen Aussicht).

To the N. (3 1/2 M.), on the right bank of the Salzach, rises the conspicuous and handsome pilgrimage-church of Maria-Plain (1720 ft.), erected in 1634. The *View from the parapet is the most extensive in the vicinity of Salzburg. Evening-light most advantageous.

The Untersberg, the most conspicuous mountain in the environs of Salzburg, culminates in the Geiereck (5910 ft.), the Salzburger Hochthron (6070 ft.), and the Berchtesgadener Hochthron (6480 ft.). The mountain is usually ascended from Glaneck (see above; guide necessary). The path leads viâ the Lower and (3 hrs.) Upper Rositten-Alp to the (1 1/2 hr.) Untersberg-Haus (5410 ft.; Inn in summer), whence the Geiereck may be ascended in 40 min.; thence to the Salzburger Hochthron, the finest point of view, in 1/2 hr. A visit to the Kolowrats-Höhle, a cavern containing fantastic ice-formations, now easily accessible, may be made in 1/2 hr. from the Upper Rositten-Alp.

6. From Salzburg to Ischl. Aber-See. Schafberg.

40 M. Salzkammergut-Lokalbahn (narrow-gauge railway) in 3-3 1/2 hrs. (first class 4 fl. 11, third class 2 fl. 6 kr.). This is an attractive excursion, with which the charming visit to St. Wolfgang and the Schafberg* may be combined (4-5 hrs. more; the steamer should in that case be joined at Lueg, p. 104).

Salzburg, see p. 95. The station of the Salzkammergut line is opposite the State Railway Station (p. 95). For a time the line runs parallel to the Linz railway, with Maria-Plain to the left and the Untersberg, Hohe Göll, Gaisberg, and Nockstein to the right. We then pass under the Linz line and reach (1 1/4 M.) Itzling (Kapellenwirth). Farther on we ascend gradually amid wood-clad hills to (3 M.) Söllheim and (5 1/2 M.) Eugendorf-Kalham (1830 ft.; to the left, the large village of Eugendorf, p. 95). The train then crosses the upland plain, with its meadows and farms. 8 M. Kraiwiesen. At (11 M.) Enzersberg (2040 ft.) we reach the watershed and begin to descend in windings. Beyond (18 3/4 M.) Irlach we cross the Fischbach. — 14 M. Thalgau (1770 ft.; Neuwirth), a prettily situated little town on the Fuschler Ach. To the E. rise the Schober, Drachenstein, Schafberg, and Höllen-Gebirge. — The line follows the pleasant valley, passing Vetterbach and Teufelmühle (Restaurant, with river-baths). 17 1/2 M. St. Lorenz (1600 ft.; Rail. Restaurant) is the junction of the branch-line (2 1/2 M., in 10 min.) to Mondsee (see p. 95).

Near (18 1/2 M.) Plomberg (Hôt. Plomberg) the train reaches the lovely Mondsee (p. 94), into which the Schafberg descends abruptly on the right. We ascend gradually (tunnel), first on the open hillside and then through wood, and turn to the right through a tunnel 105 yds. long. — 20 M. Scharfling (1770 ft.). The village (p. 95), with the small Eglsee, lies 1/2 M. to the left, below the line. — Farther on the line is carried along the slopes by rock-cuttings and two tunnels, one of which, the Eibenberg Tunnel (1900 ft.), is 1/4 M. long. Beyond the wood-girt Grottensee we reach (22 M.) Hüttenstein (Batzenhäusl), with a château to the left (ascent of the Schafberg, see below). We descend at first through meadows and wood (to the left, above, the Schafberg Hotel) and then along the steep face of the hill (gradient 1:4), with a fine view of the Aber-See. Beyond (23 M.) Billroth the line sweeps round and reaches — 23 1/2 M. St. Gilgen *(Rail. Restaurant; See-Hotel, on the lake; Post, with restaurant on the lake; Kendler), an attractive village at the N.W. end of the Aber-See.

Excursions. Falkensteinwand, 1-1 1/4 hr. We proceed to Fürberg (Ebner), either by steamer (10 min.) or on foot round the N. end of the lake viâ Brunnwinkel (1/2 hr.). Thence, passing (10 min.) the Scheffel Monument (a pyramid, 13 ft. high), we ascend to the (1/2 hr.) pilgrimage-chapel and hermitage of St. Wolfgang. (The path leads on, passing the Villa Frauenstein, to St. Wolfgang; 1 1/2 hr.) A marked path, starting at the precipice at the beginning of the ascent, leads to the right to (1/2 hr.) the Aber-See Panorama and (2 min.) the Scheffel-Blick, on the top of the Falkensteinwand.

Ascent of the Schafberg from St. Gilgen (see above); bridle-path 3 1/2 hrs. The best plan is to take the train (10 min.) to Hüttenstein (se, above) and proceed to the E. from the Batzenhäusl, over meadows, to the (5 min.) Reithberger Inn. This point may also be reached on foot, from St. Gilgen viâ Winkel in 35, or from Fürberg (see above) in 20 minutes. A few paces farther on we ascend the steep path (with red marks) to the left. After 1/4 hr. a glimpse of the Aber-See is obtained. Farther on the path ascends in windings through wood to the (1/2 hr.) Untere Schafberg-Alp (3180 ft.). We then ascend in a straight direction, and afterwards again in windings through wood to the (1 hr.) Obere Schafberg-Alp (p. 105).

From St. Gilgen to Salzburg, 18 1/2 M. The road passes (1 1/2 M.) Fuschl (2170 ft.; Mohr; Brunnenwirth), at the E. end of the small Fuschlsee (2 1/2 M. long), ascends gradually to (9 1/2 M.) Hof (2120 ft.; Post), and then descends, passing the Nockstein, to Guggenthal (1995 ft.; Bräuhaus) and (18 1/2 M.) Salzburg (p. 95).

The Aber-See or St. Wolfgang-See, a greenish-blue lake (1770 ft.), 7 1/2 M. long, 1 1/4 M. broad, and 370 ft. deep, is bounded on the N. by the Schafberg, while on the S., beyond the wooded banks, rise the Sparber, Hohe Zinken, Königsberghorn, and other picturesquely shaped mountains. A Steamboat (preferable to the railway if time allows) plies in summer 8-9 times daily, in 1 hr., from St. Gilgen viâ St. Wolfgang to Strobl, and vice versâ. The boat touches first at Fürberg (see above), on the E. bank, and then steers round the projecting Falkensteinwand (see above). On the S. face of the Falkenstein, in red letters a yard high, is an inscription in honour of the poet Victor von Scheffel. The next steamboat-station is at the Bräuhaus Lueg, on the W. side of the lake (railway-station, see p. 105). The boat then descends the lake, passing the Villa Frauenstein (l.), threads the narrows of St. Wolfgang, and calls at the Station of the Schafberg Railway and at St. Wolfgang (see below). Thence our course lies past the Pürglstein to the terminus at Strobl, 1/2 M. to the W. of the railway-station (p. 106).

The RAILWAY leads from St. Gilgen along the S.W. bank of the lake to the stations of (25 M.) Lueg (see p. 104) and (26 M.) Gschwandt (Steinwirth) and then intersects the flat delta of the Zinkenbach. At (27 1/2 M.) Zinkenbach we cross the stream. 28 1/2 M. St Wolfgang (*Hôtel Erzherzog Franz Karl), the station for St. Wolfgang and the Schafberg Railway (steamer to the village in 5 min., to the mountain railway in 10 min.).

St. Wolfgang (1820 ft.; Drassl zum Weissen Ross*, at the steamboat-quay, R. 1 fl. 20, B. 30 kr.; Hôtel-Pension Peter*, in an elevated situation, R., L., & A. from 1 fl.; Zum Touristen, Zimmerbräu, both well spoken of; Alter Peterbräu, R. 60 kr.; Kortisenbräu, at the W. end of the village; Hirsch; Bär) is a considerable village, prettily situated on the narrow strip of shore at the foot of the Schafberg. The Gothic church contains a winged *Altar-piece, carved in wood by M. Pacher in 1481. In the entrance-court is a fountain with good reliefs (1515).

The Schafberg (5840 ft. above the sea-level, 65 ft. lower than the Rigikulm), an isolated mass of Alpine limestone, rising between the Aber-See, the Mondsee, and the Attersee, commands one of the finest and most picturesque views among the German Alps. A RACK-AND-PINION RAILWAY ascends from St. Wolfgang to (4 M.) the top in 1 hr. (fare 3, down 2, up and down 4 1/2 fl.). — The railway-station (*Hôtel Peter zur Schafberg-Bahn) lies 1/2 M. to the W. of the village, near the lighthouse. Soon after starting the line crosses the Dietlbach by a viaduct 50 ft. high and then leads to the W. through wood, with an average gradient of 1:10. 1 1/2 M. Station for water and passing. The lake sinks farther and farther beneath us. In the valley to the left lies the Dorner Atp (3130 ft.). Magnificent view to the S.W., embracing the Hochkönig, Hohe Göll, Watzmann, and Untersberg. Near the (2 1/2 M.) Schafberg-Alp (4465 ft.; Gasthof Schafbergalpe), which commands a splendid view, the train quits the wood and ascends over the bare upper slopes. Beyond a tunnel, 110 yds. long (windows should be closed), we reach the (4 M.) terminus Schafbergspitze (5665 ft.). An easy path leads hence to (6 min.) the summit (Hotel, R. 2 1/2-3 1/2 fl.; rooms should be ordered in advance by telephone from St. Wolfgang).

The *VIEW from the summit of the Schafberg (comp. the annexed Panorama) embraces the mountains and lakes of the Salzkammergut, Upper Austria as far as the Bohemian Forest, the Alps of Styria and Salzburg, and the Bavarian plain as far as the Chiemsee and Waginger See. The most conspicuous group is that of the massive Dachstein to the S.; to the E. rise the Höllen-Gebirge and the Priel group; to the S.W. the Berchtesgaden mountains. — About 20 min. below the summit are the Schafberg-Höhlen, a series of picturesque grottoes which have recently been made accessible and are lighted by electricity (adm. 50 kr.).

Paths also ascend the Schafberg from St. Gilgen or Hüttenstein (see p. 104), from Scharfling (see p. 95), and from Unterach (see p. 94).

The Railway to Ischl leads from the station of St. Wolfgang (see p. 105) along the Aber-See. In front rise the Sparber and Rettenkogel, in the background the Todte Gebirge. — 31 M. Strobl; the village (Hôtel am See*, with garden, R. & L. 1 fl. 20 kr.; Brandauer; Aigner) and steamboat-station (p. 105; to St. Wolfgang 1/4 hr.) lie 1/2 M. to the N., at the E. end of the lake. Farther on we cross the Weissenbach and pass (34 M.) Aigen-Voglhub (Restaurant zur Voglhub) and (left) Weinbach. 34 1/2 M. Wacht (Inn). We cross the Ischl, flowing from the Aber-See, to (35 M.) Aschau and recross it to (36 1/4 M.) Pfandl (Inn). The train now sweeps round to the S. and penetrates the Calvarienberg by a tunnel 770 yds. long. At (33 1/4 M.) Kaltenbach, at the S.W. end of Ischl, we pass over the Kaltenbach Viaduct, 130 yds. long, which is supported by iron piers, and immediately afterwards cross the Traun (bridge 75 yds. long) and reach the main station of (40 M.) Ischl (p. 108).

Gmunden (1395 ft.), the capital of the Salzkammergut, is a busy town (6500 inhab.) and favourite summer-resort, charmingly situated at the efflux of the Traun from the Traunsee. The Parish Church contains an altar in carved wood by Schwanthaler, of 1656. Handsome modern Protestant Church in the English Gothic style. The shady Esplanade (band 8 to 9, 11.30 to 12.30, and 6 to 8; Sundays 11.30 to 1 and 5.30 to 7), on the W. bank, commands a good survey of the lake: to the left is the wooded Grünberg (3295 ft.), then the Traunstein (5550 ft.), rising almost perpendicularly from the lake, and the Erlakogel (5150 ft.); farther to the right, in the background, the Wilde Kogel (6865 ft.) and the Kleine Sonnstein (3030 ft.), apparently terminating the lake; then the Sonnstein-Höhe (3430 ft.), the broad Fahrnau (3940 ft.), the Kranabet-Sattel, and the Höllen-Gebirge. Pleasant gardens and villas in the environs.

Short Walks (routes all indicated by marks). To the N.W. the (10 min.) Wunderburg and (5 min. farther) the Calvarienberg (1575 ft.); to the N.W. the Hochkogel* (1770 ft.), with splendid view (1/4 hr.); at its S.W. base the new Town Park (fine views); to the W. the (25 min.) Satori-Anlage*, with a charming park; to the S.W. Ort (1 1/2 M.), with two châteaux, one on an island connected with the mainland by a bridge, 77 yds. long. To the N.W. Rosenkranz (25 min.), to the N.E. Baumgarten (3/4 hr.), and to the E. Siberroith (3/4 hr.), on the slope of the Grünberg, all with restaurants. On the right bank of the Traun (footpath over the Marien-Brücke) lie the shady Kronprinz-Rudolf-Anlagen (pleasure-grounds), with two restaurants (1/2 hr.). On the height to the E. is the magnificent château of the Duke of Cumberland, with fine grounds (no admission). — On the E. bank lie the Alpensteig (10 min.), Grünberger Gut (20 min.), Steinhaus (1/2 hr.), Kleine Ramsau (50 min.), and the Hoisengut (1 1/4 hr.), all with restaurants; if the traveller prefer to go one way (or both) by water, a boat should be ordered at Gmunden (see p. 106). In the afternoon the steamer touches at the Ramsau, Hoisengut, and Steinhaus.

Longer Excursions. Past the Satori Park (see above) to the (1 1/2 hr.) Gmundner Berg (2700 ft.; fine view; Inn at the top); descend to (1 hr.) the Reindl-Mühle (Inn) in the Aurach-Thal, and return by (1 hr.) Ebenzweier (4 1/2 hrs in all). — The Traun Fall may be visited on foot (3 1/2 hrs.), or better by the Lambach railway (p. 94) or by one of the salt-barges that leave Gmunden twice weekly at 10 a.m., descend to the fall in 1 1/2 hr., pass it by means of the canal ('der Gute Fall'), and land passengers 1/4 hr. lower down (a novel and pleasant trip quite without danger; fare 1 1/2 fl.). The return is made by train. — Across the Himmelreich-Wiese (2590 ft.), and the Hochgeschirr (3140 ft.), with a view of the glaciers of the Dachstein, to the (3 hrs.) Laudach-See (2890 ft.); return either by Franzl im Holz (2 hrs.), or by (1 3/4 hr.) the Kleine Ramsau (see above), and take a small boat thence to (3/4 hr.) Gmunden. Finger-posts on this route, so that a guide may be dispensed with. — Traunstein (5550 ft.), ascended in 5 hrs. from Gmunden, interesting (guide, necessary, 4 fl.; A. Reitter of Gmunden). The Alpenspitze (the highest peak) commands a magnificent view, particularly of the Todte Gebirge and the Dachstein.

From Gmunden to Ischl (steamboat to Ebensee in 1 hr., fares 75 and 40 kr., preferable to the railway; tickets are issued available both for the steamboat and the train). The train (best views to the left) passes the back of the Duke of Wurtemberg's Villa, and at Altmünster, with an old partly Gothic church, approaches the beautiful Traunsee (1385 ft.; 7½ M. long). — 10½ M. (from Attnang) Ebenzweier, with a château (now a girls' school); pretty retrospect of Gmunden, with the Traunstein to the left. The scenery becomes more severe as the S. end of the lake is approached. Behind the Traunstein are the Hochkogel (4865 ft.) and the fine cone of the Erlakogel (5150 ft.). — 13 M. Traunkirchen; about ¼ M. from the station, on a beautiful bay, is the *Stein Inn, with a shady garden and terrace (R. from 80 kr.). The train next threads two tunnels and reaches (14½ M.) Traunkirchensee, the station for the village of Traunkirchen (*Post; Burgstaller, with a terrace overlooking the lake, unpretending; Swimming Bath), charmingly situated on a peninsula. The church contains a quaintly carved wooden pulpit in the form of a ship, with nets and fish.

The train passes through a short tunnel, and then the Sonnstein Tunnel, 1570 yds. in length, and stops at (17 M.) Ebensee-Landungsplatz (Post, R. 1 fl. 20 kr.; Bäckerwirth), a steamboat-station. It then crosses the Traun, and reaches (17¾ M.) Ebensee-Bahnhof (1395 ft.; Hôtel Lehr, plain; Rail. Restaurant), a prettily situated place of some importance (5860 inhab., including Langbath), with salt-works, a watch-factory, and a large ammonia-factory. The brine evaporated at Ebensee is brought from Ischl and Hallstatt (p. 112) in wooden pipes.

Excursions. Pleasant walks on the left bank of the Traun, along the brine-conduit, to (¾ hr.) the Steinkogl Hotel*, a fine point of view, opposite the station of that name (see below). — The Langbath Lakes (2½ hrs.) deserve a visit (omnibus from stat. Ebensee-Langbath to the Vordere See twice daily, returning from the Kreh, there and back 1½ fl.). The road ascends the Langbath-Thal to (4½ M.) the Kreh (2130 ft.; Inn) and (1 M.) the Vordere Langbath-See (2215 ft.), whence a footpath leads to the smaller but finer (¾ hr.) Hintere See (2385 ft.).

The line now follows the wide Traunthal. 19½ M. Steinkogl (*Marien-Gasthof, ½ M. from the station; *Steinkogl, on the left bank of the Traun), at the mouth of the Traunweissenbach-Thal, 6 M. up which lies the picturesque Offensee. — 22 M. Langwies. 24½ M. Mitter-Weissenbach (road to the Attersee, p. 94). Near Ischl the train crosses the Traun.

27½ M. Ischl. — Hotels. *Kaiserin Elisabeth (Pl. 1); *Hôtel vormals Bauer (Pl. 2), charmingly situated on a height above Ischl, both 1st class, with corresponding charges; *Goldenes Kreuz (Pl. 5), R. 1½-2 fl.; *Post (Pl. 3), R., L., & A. 1-3 fl.; Hôtel Austria, Habsburger Hof, both on the Esplanade; *Victoria (Pl. 4); Erzherzog Franz Carl (Pl. 6); the last four with garden-restaurants; Hôt.-Pension Rudolfshöhe, with café-restaurant, at the end of the Esplanade. — Second-class: Stern (Pl. 7); Kaiserkrone (Pl. 8); Bayerischer Hof (Pl. 9), etc. — *Pension Flora; Hôtels Garnis Ramsauer, Athen, Redlich. — Dr. Hertzka's Hydropathic Establishment, ½ M. from the end of the Esplanade, pension 25-32 fl. per week; Dr. Wiener's Hydropathic, Kaltenbach 66.

Cafés, etc. *Cur-Salon, with café, reading-room, etc. (see p. 109). — Café Ramsauer, opposite the Post Hotel; Walter, Esplanade; Zauner, Pfarrgasse, confectioner's; Rudolfshöhe (see above). — Rail. Restaurant. — Theatre (Pl. 16) during the season.

Ischl (1535 ft.), the central point of the Salzkammergut, beautifully situated on a peninsula formed by the Traun and the Ischl, is now a highly fashionable resort. Pop. (incl. Gries) 8500. Besides the salt-baths (which contain 25 per cent of salt) there are mud, sulphur, pine-cone, vapour, and other baths, in addition to the whey-cure and the saline and sulphureous drinking-springs. Well-kept walks, with shady resting-places, intersect the beautiful valley in all directions.

The shady Bahnhof-Strasse leads from the station past the Rudolfs-Garten and the new Post Office to the Parish Church (Pl. 11), built under Maria Theresa, restored in 1877-80, and adorned with altar-pieces by Kupelwieser. In the Kaiser-Ferdinands-Platz are the Trinkhalle (Pl. 12), with a covered promenade, and beyond it, to the right, the Wirerbad and the Giselabad. To the left are the extensive Salt Works (Pl. 13) and the Salt-Water Vapour Bath (Pl. 14).

From the Kaiser-Ferdinands-Platz the Pfarrgasse leads to the W. to the Franz-Carl-Platz, which contains a handsome bronze fountain in memory of the parents of the Emperor Franz Joseph, and to the Traun Bridge. On the left bank of the Traun at this point begins the Sophien-Esplanade, with its pleasant avenues, confectioner's, and café. — In the Wirer-Park is the Cur-Salon, with café-restaurant, reading-room, etc. To the E., in the Wirer-Strasse, is a colossal bust of Dr. Wirer von Rettenbach (d. 1844), who first brought Ischl into notice. — In the Schulgasse (No. 7) is a small Museum (adm. on Tues., Thurs., & Sat., 9-12, 20 kr.), with natural history specimens and other objects from the Salzkammergut.

Walks. The Imperial Villa*, with its beautiful garden and grounds (no admission during the residence of the family, usually from July to Septemher). — The Neue Schmalnau (1½ M.), a café to the left of the road to Ehensee, affords a good view of Ischl. — The Sophiens-Doppelblick* (café; view of Ischl, the Dachstein, and the St. Wolfgang-Thal) may be reached in ½ hr. This walk may he prolonged to the (¼ hr.) Dachstein-Aussicht* and the Hohenzollern Waterfall; we return either to the right hy Trenkelbach (¾ hr.), or to the left through the Jainzen-Thal and by the Gstätten Inn (1½ hr.). — To the W. by the (¼ hr.) Calvarienberg to the (½ hr.) Ahornbühl (café). — From the Esplanade through the Franzens-Allee past Kaltenbach rail. station (p. 106) to the (½ hr.) Kaiser-Franz-Josefs-Platz; to the ruin of (1 hr.) Wildenstein, on the slope of the Kater-Gehirge. Through the valley of the Traun by the shady promenade following the salt-water conduit to (1 hr.) Laufen (see p. 110). — Right bank of the Traun: Ascent of the Siriuskogel* or Hundskogel (1960 ft.; 1/2 hr.); finest view of Ischl and its environs from the Kaiser-Franz-Josefs-Warte (small restaurant). — Across the Steinfeld-Brücke to the (1/2 hr.) Rettenbach Mill (café) and the (1/4 hr.) Rettenbach-Wildniss (a pretty ravine); return by Sterzen's Abendsitz (fine view) to (3/4 hr.) Ischl.

To the Ischl Salt Mine (Ischler Salzberg, 3170 ft.), 4 M. We follow the road viâ Reiterndorf (*Bachwirth) to (3 M.) Pernegg, where permission to visit the mine is procured at the mining-office. The mine, an inspection of which takes 1 1/2 hr., consists of 12 horizontal shafts or galleries, one above the other. During the bath-season the mine is illuminated once weekly; the illumination at other times costs about 5 fl. The brine, which is conducted to Ischl and Ebensee and there evaporated, is obtained by filling the different chambers with fresh water. After 4-6 weeks it becomes highly saturated with salt, and is then drawn off.

From Ischl to St. Wolfgang and the Schafberg*, a charming excursion for half-a-day, see p. 105 (return-ticket, 2nd class 6 fl. 66, 3rd class 5 fl. 63 kr.). — To Aussee, see below; to Hallstatt and Gosau, see R. 8. — To Weissenbach on the Attersee (p. 91) omnibus daily in 2 hrs., viâ Mitter-Weissenbach.

From Ischl to Aussee. The train (views to the right) crosses to the right bank of the Traun (short tunnel), skirts the base of the Siriuskogel (see above), and recrosses the Traun. 30 1/2 M. Laufen. The picturesque village (1570 ft.; Rössl; Krone*) lies on the opposite bank, 1/4 M. to the S. The rapids of the Traun here are called the 'Wilde Laufen'. — The train again crosses the Traun. 31 1/2 M. Anzenau. On the opposite bank lies Ober-Weissenbach, at the mouth of the Weissenbach-Thal. About 6 M. up the valley is the Chorinsky-Klause, a huge dam with sluice-gates (disused). — 33 1/2 M. Goisern (1640 ft.; Petter's Hotel*, R. 70 kr.-1 fl. 50 kr.; Goiserer Mühle; Ramsauer; Zur Wartburg; Bär*), a considerable village (4150 inhab.), containing the largest Protestant community in the Salzkammergut, and frequented as a summer-resort. About 1/2 M. to the N. are the small sulphurous and iodine baths of Goisern, with the Marie-Valerie-Quelle. — 35 1/2 M. Steg (Goldnes Schiff, R. from 60 kr.), at the E. end of the Lake of Hallstatt (p. 112). The train skirts the E. bank of the lake, the line, 50 ft. above the water, having been hewn at places in the precipitous rocks of the Sarstein (6470 ft.). 38 M. Gosaumühl (p. 112). 39 1/2 M. Hallstatt; the station is opposite the town of that name (p. 112). We then pass to the rear of the small château of Grub, with its four towers. — 41 M. Obertraun (Zum Sarstein, at the station; Höll, Hinterer, on the lake), at the S.E. angle of the lake.

The line now runs, skirting the base of the Sarstein, through the wild and narrow Koppen-Thal. The train passes through a tunnel and crosses the foaming Traun three times. The gorge expands, and we soon reach (48 M.) the station of Aussee (2130 ft.; Railway Restaurant and Hotel), at Unter-Kainisch (salt-works), about 1 M. to the S. of the town.

Aussee. — Hotels. *Erzherzog Franz Carl (Post); *Hackinger; *Erzherzog Johann; Sonne; Wilder Mann; Pension Hürsch; Pension Szamwald. — Curhaus, with restaurant, reading-room, etc., in the Mecséry Promenade.

These fares include the driver's fee. — Omnibus from the station to the town 30 kr.; to Alt-Aussee and Grundl-See, see below.

Aussee (2155 ft.), a Styrian market-town, charmingly situated on the Traun, is much visited as a watering-place (salt-baths, etc.) and summer-resort. The small Spitalkirche contains a good winged altar-piece of 1449. — A little to the N., on the road to Alt-Aussee, is Dr. Schreiber's Cur-Anstalt Alpenheim* (hydropathic establishment; R. 1-4, board 3-4 fl.), and about ½ M. farther on is the Bade-Hôtel Elisabeth* (R. 1½-2, board 4 fl.).

Excursions. — *To Alt-Aussee (3 M.), a drive of ½ hr. (carriage, see above); omnibus thrice daily from the railway-station (70 kr.). The road (the Elisabeth Promenade and Payer Promenade preferable for walking; 1 hr. 10 min.) follows the wooded valley of the Alt-Ausseer Traun to Alt-Aussee (Seewirth*, prettily situated on the lake; Kitzerwirth), on the charming Alt-Aussee Lake (2320 ft.; 2 M. long and ½ M. broad), overshadowed by the precipitous Triesselwand on the E., the Tressenstein on the S., and the Loser and Sandling on the N. The lake is skirted all the way round by the Erzherzog Franz Carl Promenade, 4½ M. long. The Seewiese (on foot ¾ hr., by boat ½ hr.), at the N.E. end, commands a good view of the Dachstein. — From Alt-Aussee to the Grundl-See, direct, across the Tressen-Sattel (3140 ft.), 2½ hrs. (guide advisable for the inexperienced) beautiful views on the ascent and descent.

*To the Grundl-See (4 M.), a beautiful drive of 1⅓ hr. (as far as Schramml's Inn; carriages, see above; omnibus thrice daily, fare 50, from the station 70 kr.). The road leads for the most part through wood, skirting the Grundlsee Traun, which it crosses at the (3 M.) Seeklause (to the right, the Hôtel Grundlsee*, with fine view), and then along the lake to the (1 M.) Schramml Inn (generally crowded in summer), a charming point of view. The Grundl-See (2300 ft.), 3¾ M. long and ½ M. wide, is enclosed by wooded mountains and abounds in fish. The E. background is formed by the bare precipices of the Todte Gebirge. The road next leads past the (2 M.) Inn zum Ladner to (1½ M.) Gössl (Veit), at the upper end of the lake. From the Seeklause a small screw-steamer plies five times daily in summer to the Schramml, Ladner, and Gössl. From Gössl a path leads to (1 M.) the beautiful Toplitz-See* (2350 ft.), 1¼ M. long (boat across in 25 min., boatman to be brought from Gössl). About ¼ M. farther on lies the sequestered Kammer-See (2360 ft.), in a grand situation at the base of the Todte Gebirge. This 'Drei-Seen-Tour', or tour of the three lakes, makes a very charming excursion (fare from Schramml's Inn to Gössl and back, including the ferry across the Toplitz-See, 1 fl., 2 pers. 1½ fl.).

Railway from Aussee to Steinach and Selzthal, see p. 187.

8. From Ischl to Hallstatt, and to Abtenau and Golling viâ Gosau.

Railway to (12½ M.) Hallstatt station in 40-50 minutes. Steamboat between the station and town of Hallstatt in ¼ hr., in connection with each train (fare 25, return 40 kr.). Railway-tickets may be obtained including the ferry to the town of Hallstatt (railway and steamboat tickets are issued at the post-office in the Hôtel Seeauer). — Steamboat from Gosaumühl to Hallstatt and from Hallstatt to Obertraun and back once or twice daily. — Omnibus (9 seats) between Hallstatt (Seeauer) and Gosau-Schmied every morning in summer in 2½ hrs., returning in the afternoon; fare 1½ fl., there and back 2 fl. — Carriage from Hallstatt to Gosau-Schmied and back, 8 fl., with two horses 12 fl., from Gosaumühl or Steg (Goldnes Schiff) 6, carr. and pair 10 fl. (fee included). — One-horse carr. from Ischl to Hallstatt in 2½ hrs., 6 fl. 10 kr., two-horse carr. 10½ fl.; to Gosau (Brandwirth) in 3½ hrs., 7 fl. 15 or 12 fl. 30 kr.; to Gosau-Schmied in 4 hrs., 8 fl. 15 or 14 fl. 30 kr. (driver's fee included). — DILIGENCE from Gosau to Abtenau daily in 4 hrs. (1 fl. 70 kr.); from Abtenau to Golling daily in 2¼ hrs. (1 fl. 60 kr.); one-horse carr. from Abtenau to Golling 4 fl., two-horse 7-8 fl., and 1 fl. to the driver.

Railway from Ischl to (12½ M.) Hallstatt station, see p. 110. The Hallstätter See or Lake of Hallstatt (1620 ft.), which is 5 M. long and ½-2 M. broad, is bounded on three sides by lofty mountains (E. the Sarstein; S. the Krippenstein, Zwölferkogel, and Hirlatz; W. the Plassen, Gosauhals, and Ramsauer Gebirge).

Hallstatt (Hôtel Seeauer*, R., L., & A. 1 fl. 70 kr., with garden on the lake and a dépendance named the Post; Grüner Baum*, same proprietor; Zur Simonyhütte, well spoken of; Goldner Adler, plain), a long village (1400 inhab., ½ Prot.), lies within very narrow limits between the hillside and the lake. In the middle of the village the Mühlbach forms a waterfall. The old Parish Church contains an altar in carved wood of the 15th cent.; numerous skulls are preserved in the ossuary. The Protestant Church is modern. In the former 'Gefängnishaus', or prison, is a small Museum (open 8-12 and 1-6; adm. 20 kr.), with Celtic antiquities. A road leads to the S. to (½ M.) the Lahn (Inn), a small plain formed by the alluvial deposits of the Waldbach, with the Salt Works.

EXCURSIONS. — The Rudolfsthurm (2800 ft.), occupied by the manager of the salt-mine, is reached by a good zigzag path in 1 hr. (horse 3 fl. 50, to the mine 4 fl. 70 kr.). The little garden in front of the house affords a fine view of the lake. Excavations made since 1846 have brought to light an ancient burial-ground in the vicinity. The graves (of which more than 2000 have been opened) are probably those of Celtic salt-miners of the 3rd or 4th cent. B.C. Numerous relics, especially bronze ornaments, have been discovered. The most important of these are now in the Imperial Nat. Hist. Museum at Vienna (p. 31) and in the Museum at Linz (p. 85); but there are also a few in the Hallstatt Museum (see above). — The mining-offices and the entrance to the Hallstatt Salt Mine (3675 ft.) are reached in ¾ hr. more. A visit to the interior is more fatiguing than to that of the Ischl mine (p. 110; tickets of adm. at the offices).

The Waldbach-Strub (2060 ft.), in the well-wooded Echern-Thal, 1 hr. to the S.W. of Hallstatt, is precipitated in three leaps from a height of 305 ft. through a cleft in the rocks. The Schleier Fall, of about equal height, descends into the same abyss. Pools are insignificant in dry seasons. — A picturesque path ('Malersteig') leads along the Waldbach from Croallo's Inn (halfway through the Echern-Thal) to the Lahn and back to Hallstatt.

MOUNTAIN ASCENTS from Hallstatt (Plassen, Sarstein, Dachstein, etc.), see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The road from HALLSTATT TO GOSAU skirts the lake to the (2 M.) Gosau-Zwang (p. 113), ½ M. to the W. of the Gosaumühl (*Inn; ferry to the station, see p. 110), at the mouth of the Gosau-Bach. [Pedestrians should take the more interesting Soolenleitungs-Weg (¼ hr. longer), or path by the brine-conduit, which leads from the Rudolfsthurm along the mountain-slope, with a constantly varying view of the lake; at the Gosau-Zwang it joins the road.] The road now turns to the W., passes under the Gosau-Zwang (an aqueduct, 146 yds. long and 140 ft. high at its highest part, by which the salt-water conduit crosses the valley), and ascends the narrow wooded ravine of the Gosau-Bach. Near the long village of (6 M.) Gosau (2510 ft.; Brandwirth; Kirchenwirth) the valley expands. Towards the S. tower the barren pinnacles of the Donnerkogeln (6730 ft.). The carriage-road ends at (3 M.) Gosau-Schmied (2690 ft.; *Inn).

We may ascend on foot through the wood to the (¾ hr.) beautiful green Vordere Gosau-See* (2980 ft.), 1½ M. long, 1½ M. broad, surrounded by woods. To the S.E., in the background, towers the lofty Dachstein with the two Gosau Glaciers; to the right the Thorstein and Donnerkogeln. About 5½ M. farther up the valley (ferry to the upper end of the Vordere See 30 kr.) is the light-green Hintere Gosau-See* (3790 ft.), a lake about half the size of the Vordere See, grandly and wildly situated.

From Gosau to Abtenau, 13 M. From Vorder-Gosau the road ascends for nearly 3 M. to the Pass Gschütt (3185 ft.; Inn), the boundary between Upper Austria and the province of Salzburg. View of the Tennen-Gebirge to the W., and of Gosau with the Donnerkogeln to the S.E. The road now descends via (2¼ M.) Russbach-Sag (2660 ft.; two Inns) to the (5 M.) Lammer-Brücke (½ M. to the S. is the Zwieselbad, see below) and re-ascends to (3 M.) Abtenau (2335 ft.; Post; Rother Ochs), a village of some size.

The route over the Zwiesel-Alp* (5195 ft.) is, however, far preferable to the above-mentioned road (from Gosau 3, to Abtenau 6 hrs.; guide 1 fl. 70 kr., to Abtenau 3 fl.). The bridle-path from Gosau, indicated by red marks, diverges to the right from the road near the church and ascends gradually, chiefly through wood. At the foot of the peak, beyond a fence, the path to the right leads to the (2¾ hrs.) Ed-Alp (4770 ft.; Inn), ¼ hr. below the summit. The magnificent view includes the Dachstein and Thorstein, with the Gosau-Thal and its lakes far below; to the S. the Tauern chain from the Hochalpenspitze to the Gross-Venediger; to the S.W. the Uebergossene Alp, the Tennen-Gebirge, the Hohe Göll, and finally the Untersberg. — The descent leads through wood and past several farms to the (1½ hr.) Lammer-Brücke. We may either cross the bridge and follow the road direct to (1½ M.) Abtenau; or, without crossing, follow the cart-track to the right to the (1½ M.) Hôtel Zwieselbad*, with a mineral spring and baths, in a quiet and sheltered situation. The road hence joins the (½ M.) Gosau road (see above), and in 3 M. more reaches Abtenau. (From Abtenau to the Zwiesel-Alp 4-4½ hrs.; guide, 2½ fl., advisable.).

From Abtenau to Golling (11 M.; diligence and carriages, see p. 112). The new road leads to the N.W. to Döllerhof and (1½ M.) Mühlrain and then descends into the deep and well-wooded valley of the Schwarzbach, which it crosses near its junction with the Lammer (1½ M.). We then follow the left bank of the latter, passing (¼ M.) the Voglau Inn. 1 M. Finger-post indicating the way to the right across the Lammer to the (5 min.) Aubach Fall*, which descends over a rocky wall in three stages from a height of 230 ft. (20 kr.). About 1 M. farther on, to the right, below the road, is the St. Veit's Bridge, which affords a fine view of the wild Lammer-Ofen*. (The path descending into the gorge is now impassable.) The road descends to (1 M.) the Lammer-Brücke, crosses it (Brückenwirth, on the right bank), and follows the right bank to (3 M.) Scheffau and (3 M.) Golling (p. 119)

9. From Salzburg to Berchtesgaden. Königs-See.

From Berchtesgaden to Saalfelden.

15½ M. Steam Tramway to (8 M.) St. Leonhard in 53 min.; Omnibus thence to Berchtesgaden seven times daily in 1¼ hr., and to Königs-See four times daily in 2 hrs. Through-ticket from Salzburg to Berchtesgaden 2nd cl. 1 fl. 20 kr., 3rd cl. 1 fl.; to Königs-See 1 fl. 70, 1 fl. 50 kr., return-ticket 2 fl. 60, 2 fl. 10 kr. Circular ticket from Salzburg to Berchtesgaden and back viâ Reichenhall, 2 fl. 90, 2 fl. 10 kr. For a day's excursion the best plan is to leave Salzburg at 9.8 a.m., arriving at Königs-See at 12.25 p.m., and row to the Obersee and back (3 hrs.); then from Königs-See at 3.40 p.m. to the Salt Mines (4.20 p.m.; stay of 1 hr.) and thence back to Salzburg, which will be reached about 8.15 p.m. — In summer (June-Oct.) an Omnibus plies direct from Salzburg (Café Tomaselli) to the Königs-See, starting at 6 a.m., reaching the Königs-See at 9.30 a.m., leaving for the return-journey at 3.30 p.m., passing the Salt Mines at 4.30 p.m. (halt of 1 hr.), and regaining Salzburg at 8.30 p.m. (fare 1 fl. 10 kr., there and back 2 fl.). — Carriage from Salzburg to Berchtesgaden 5 or 8 fl., there and back 6 or 10 fl.; to the Königs-See and back 8 or 12 fl. (visit to the salt-mines included in each case). The drive from Salzburg and back, with a visit to the salt-mines, occupies 8 hrs. A supply of small change in German money will be found useful.

The Steam Tramway ('Salzburger Localbahn'; p. 96) leads through the suburb of Nonnthal (p. 100), passes (4 M.) Hellbrunn (p. 102) and (5 M.) Anif (p. 102), and near (6¼ M.) Grödig (*Bräuhaus; Löwe), at the foot of the Untersberg (p. 103), crosses the Alm Canal, conducted to Salzburg from the Ache, which drains the Königs-See. On the hill to the right is the old château of Glaneck (p. 103), behind which towers the pointed Hochstaufen (5815 ft.); on the left is the Schmidtenstein (5555 ft.), resembling a castle. About 1½ M. to the W. is the Gosleier Fels (1870 ft.), commanding a fine view of the valley. The line skirts the Alm Canal (cement-works) and reaches its terminus at the station of St. Leonhard (1585 ft.; Restaurant). On the hill to the left is Schloss Gartenau, above the prettily-situated village of St. Leonhard.

On the right, near the (5 min.) Restaurant Drachenloch, high up in the side of the Untersberg, is the curious opening called the Drachenloch ('dragon's hole'). A narrow defile, traversed by the Ache, between the Untersberg and the N. spur of the Hohe Göll, now leads to the district of Berchtesgaden. The boundary is formed by the Hangende Stein (1490 ft.), a cliff rising above the Ache. The Austrian custom-station is on this side of the cliff; the Bavarian station is 1 M. farther on, near an old tower. — 9½ M. Schellenberg (1560 ft.; Forelle; Untersberg*), with a monument to the memory of natives who fell in 1870-71. — The road follows the right bank of the Ache, and reaches the (2½ M.) Almbach-Klamm Hotel* (1660 ft.), where a bridge on the right leads to the Almbach-Klamm, a picturesque gorge recently made accessible as far as the (1 hr.) Theresien-Klause. About ½ M. beyond the hotel the road from Hallein viâ Zill (p. 119) joins our road on the left. The valley expands, and the Grosse and Kleine Watzmann, with the Watzmann Glacier between them, suddenly appear. Crossing the Larosbach, and then the Ache by the (1/2 M.) Freimann-Brücke, we soon obtain (1/2 M.) the first glimpse of Berchtesgaden, delightfully situated on the slope of the mountain, and surrounded by meadows and trees. About 1/2 M. farther on, at a finger-post indicating the way to the 'Salzberg und Königs-See', a road (the direct route to the Königs-See) leads across the Goldenbach-Brücke to (1/4 M.) the Salt Mine (1742 ft.).

*Visit to the Salt Mine (easier, more expeditious, and less expensive than a visit to the Dürnberg mine at Hallein). Ticket for the regular trips at 11 a.m. and 5 p.m., 2 M each; at other hours, from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m., separate trips for not less than 12 persons, 2 M each, and 3 M extra for the whole party (tickets at the mining-offices, opposite the entrance-shaft). Visitors of each sex are provided with appropriate miners' costumes and with lanterns. The mine is entered on foot, numerous flights of steps ascended, and an occasional descent accomplished by means of wooden slides inclined at an angle of 45° or more. These present no difficulty. The 'Salz-See', illuminated somewhat feebly by miners' lamps, is traversed in a boat. The entire visit takes barely an hour.

The mine lies about 3/4 M. from Berchtesgaden, to which the Bergwerks-Allee leads. — The road from Salzburg, leading straight on from the Goldenbach bridge (see above), crosses the Gernbach (on the left is the Malerhügel, a massive rock commanding a beautiful view), and ascends through the straggling suburb of Nonnthal to (1 M.) Berchtesgaden. Travellers bound for the Königs-See do not go through Berchtesgaden, but drive past the salt-works round the base of the hill.

15 1/2 M. Berchtesgaden. — Hotels. *Grand Hôtel & Curhaus, well situated, R., L., & A. 4-5, board 6 M; *Bellevue, with baths, R., L., & A. 2-4, B. 1, D. 3, pension 7-10 M; *Leuthaus or Post, R. 2-3 M, B. 80 pf.; Vier Jahreszeiten, at the upper end of the village, with garden and view; Deutsches Haus; Hôt.-Restaurant Bahnhof, Schwabenwirth, both near the station, pens. 5-6 M; Watzmann, R. 2 M; Stiftskeller; Krone; Neuhaus; Bär; Hirsch; Triembacher. — Pensions. Geiger; Berghof; Villa Minerva; Villa Gisela; Luitpold; Waldluft; Göhlstein; Fürstenstein; Wenig, etc. — Pens. Villa Gregory; Malterlehen, etc., in Schönau (see p. 117); Moritz, Steiner, and Regina, on the upper Salzberg (1 1/4-1 1/2 hr.). — Café Forstner, near the Post; Café Grassl, Wittelsbach, at the S. end of the town, with fine view. — Reading Room at the Rathhaus.

Baths. Fresh and salt-water baths at the better hotels and pensions; Huber, Bahnhof-Str.; Wilhelmsbad, near the park. Open-air Baths at the Aschauer Weiher, 2 M. to the N.W. of the town.

Carved Wares in wood, bone, and ivory, for which Berchtesgaden has been famous for centuries, are kept in great variety by S. and P. Zechmeister, Kaserer, Walch, Wenig, Huber, Grassl, and others.

Carriages. In the town and nearer environs, 1/4 hr., with one horse 70, two horses 1 M 20, every 1/4 hr. more 50 pf. and 1 M. To the Königs-See and back, with stay of 3 hrs., one-horse carriage 8 M, two-horse 11 M 70 pf. (for each additional hour 1 M more); to Ramsau 8 M 10 or 11 M 70, there and back (1/2 a day) 11 M 10 or 15 M 70 pf.; Hintersee 11 M 40 pf. or 17 M, there and back 13 M 40 or 20 M 40 pf.; to Reichenhall viâ Schwarzbachwacht, returning viâ Hallthurm, 17 M 50 or 26 M 50 pf. Fees included, but tolls extra. — Omnibus from the station to Königs-See in connection with the trains (1 M); to the Wimbachklamm Hotel (Ramsau), twice daily in summer from the station (2 1/2 M); to the Hintersee once daily in July and August from the Hôtel Bellevue (3 1/2 M).

English Church Service in summer.

Berchtesgaden (1870 ft.), a small Bavarian town with 2350 inhab., was down to 1803 the seat of an independent provostry, or ecclesiastical principality (165 sq. M.). The handsome old abbey is now a royal château. The Abbey Church possesses Romanesque cloisters of the 12th cent., carved stalls, etc. Pleasant public gardens. The Luitpold Park, in front of the royal villa to the S. of the town, was embellished in 1893 with a bronze Statue of Prince Luitpold*, Regent of Bavaria. This point commands a fine view: to the left the Schwarzort, Hohe Göll, and Hochbrett, in the background the Stuhlgebirge and Schönfeldspitze, to the right the Kleine and Grosse Watzmann and the Hochkalter. In the valley, on the Ache, are situated extensive Salt Works and the Station of the Reichenhall Railway. Berchtesgaden is a very favourite summer-resort, and the environs afford an almost inexhaustible variety of beautiful walks and excursions (comp. Baedeker's Eastern Alps).

The Lockstein (2235 ft.; 1/2 hr.) commands an admirable view of the valley of Berchtesgaden, particularly by evening-light.

The gem of this district is the clear, dark-green Königs-See (1975 ft.), or Lake of St. Bartholomew, 5 M. long and 1/2-1 M. broad, the most beautiful lake in Germany, vying in grandeur with those of Switzerland and Italy. Some of the surrounding mountains, which rise almost perpendicularly from the water, are 6500 ft. in height above the lake. The new road crosses the Ache near the station, ascends for about 3/4 M., and proceeds on the same level along the hillside to (3 M.) the lake.

At the Wemholz, 1 M. from the station by the new road, another route diverges to the right, leading past Unterstein (Inn), with a château and park of Count Arco-Zinneberg (not accessible). The roads unite again about 1/2 M. from the lake. — Pedestrians follow the pleasant and shady footpath, which at the Hôtel Bahnhof crosses the Ramsauer Ache, and then ascends, at first on the left bank, afterwards on the right bank of the Königsseer Ache, to the (1-1 1/4 hr.) village of Königssee.

On the bank of the lake lies the village of Königssee (Zum Königssee, Schiffmeister, both on the lake).

The 'Schiffmeister' presides over the rowing-boats and their crews, and regulates their trips. From the middle of June to 1st Oct. there are 4-5 regular trips daily round the lake, occupying about 4 3/4 hrs., including 3/4 hr. at the Sallet-Alp and 1 hr. at St. Bartholomä (fare for each pers. 1 1/2 M). Small boat (2 pers.), with one rower, to St. Bartholomä 3 M; with two rowers (1-4 pers.) to St. Bartholomä 4 1/2, to the Sallet-Alp 6 1/2 M; with three rowers (7 pers.) 7 1/2 and 11 M; for parties of 10 or upwards 1 M and 1 1/2 M each (fee to the boatmen). The best plan is to row direct to the Sallet-Alp (1 1/2 hr.), and call at St. Bartholomä in returning. The most favourable light is in the early morning or late in the afternoon.

Lake Voyage. To the left, on a promontory, is the Villa Beust; in the lake lies the islet of Christlieger, with a statue of St. John Nepomuk. The boat passesthe Falkenstein, a rock with a cross commemorating the wreck of a boat with a party of pilgrims about 150 years ago. The lake now becomes visible in its entire extent; in the background rise the Sagereckwand, the Grünsee-Tauern, and the Funtensee-Tauern, and adjoining them on the right the Schönfeld- spitze (8700 ft.). On the E. bank the Königsbach falls over a red cliff (about 2525 ft.) into the lake. A little farther on, at the deepest part of the lake (616 ft.), a long, reverberating echo is awakened by a pistol fired in the direction of the W cliffs (Brentenwand). In the vicinity, on the E. bank, not far from the Kessel Fall, is a cavern on a level with the water, called the Kuchler Loch, from which a streamlet enters the lake. The boat touches at the Kessel, a wooded promontory on the E. bank, whence a good path, leading through the Kesselgraben, ascends to the (10 min.) pretty waterfall of the Kesselbach (bridle-path to the Gotzen-Alp, see below).

The boat now proceeds to the W. to St. Bartholomä, a green promontory, with a chapel and a former royal hunting-château. At the restaurant kept by the forester good salmon-trout (Salmo salvelinus, Ger. Saibling) may be obtained. In the cellar is a large tank for keeping the fish.

On the S.W. bank of the lake the Schrainbach is precipitated into it from a rocky gorge. The Sallet-Alp, a poor pasture $^1/_2$ M. in breadth and strewn with moss-grown rocks, with a villa of the Duke of Meiningen, separates the Königs-See from the beautiful Obersee (2000 ft.), a lake 1 M. long, enclosed on three sides by high rocky mountains. To the left rises the sheer Kaunerwand; beyond it tower the Teufelshörner (7855 ft.), from which a brook descends over the Röthswand in several arms from a height of 1600 ft. On the E. bank is the Fischunkel-Alp, to which a narrow path (not recommended) leads on the S. bank in $^1/_2$ hr. — A good survey of the imposing Watzmann is obtained in returning.

From the Kessel (see above) a good path ascends in long windings to the ($3^1/_2$ hrs.) Gotzen-Alp (5530 ft.), opposite St. Bartholomä. It passes the chalets of ($1^1/_2$ hr.) Gotzenthal and (1 hr.) Seeau, and then ascends in zigzags viâ the Kreuzeck, where we take the path to the right, to (1 hr.) the Gotzen-Alp, with three chalets (rustic quarters in the Springel-Hütte). Magnificent view of the Uebergossene Alm, Steinerne Meer, Watzmann, Hohe Göll, Untersberg, etc. The view towards the N. is not perfect until we reach the ($^1/_4$ hr.) Feuerpalfen (5640 ft.) on the N.W. margin of the Alp. Somewhat beyond that point, from the brink of the rock lower down, the lake and St. Bartholomä are visible 3300 ft. below us. Descent to the (2 hrs.) Kessel, where a boat (previously ordered) should be in waiting.

To THE RAMSAU a road (poor at places) leads direct from the Königs-See viâ Schönau (p. 115) to ($4^1/_2$ M.) Ilsank (see below).

The Ramsau ranks next to the Königs-See among the attractions in the neighbourhood of Berchtesgaden. The road passes the Luitpold Park and after $^3/_4$ M. (direction-post) descends to the left, crossing the ($^1/_3$ M.) Gmund-Brücke over the Bischofswieser Ache. At ($2^1/_4$ M.) Ilsank (1910 ft.; Inn, pens. 4-5 M) a brook descending about 400 ft. works a pump by which the salt-water from the mines is forced up to the Söldenköpfl, 1200 ft. higher, and to Reichenhall, a distance of 20 M. To the left, a grand view of the Watzmann; before us rises the broad Steinberg. The Ramsau is remarkably picturesque owing to the contrast of the luxuriant vegetation of the valley with the imposing and picturesquely-shaped grey mountains.

— On the left (1½ M.) a finger-post indicates the path to the 'Jagdschloss Wimbach'.

A path crossing the bridge (2050 ft.; Restaurant) to the left, and ascending to the right by the 'Trinkhalle', leads to the (¼ hr.) Wimbach-Klamm. The clear blue water of the brook here forms beautiful falls in its rocky ravine, into which the sun shines about noon. The whole length of the ravine should be traversed. About 10 min. before its upper end, to the right, is a bench commanding a beautiful view of the romantic Wimbach-Thal, enclosed by the Watzmann, Hundstod, and other massive mountains.

The ascent of the Watzmann (Vordere Gipfel or Hocheck, 8700 ft.; 6½-7 hrs.; guide 10 M) is fatiguing but interesting. The night is spent at the (4 hrs. from Ilsank) Watzmann-Haus on the Falzköpfl (6330 ft.; Inn in summer).

On the road, ½ M. above the finger-post (see above), is the Inn zur Wimbachklamm, and a little beyond it the Inn zum Hochkalter. Then (¾ M.) Ramsau (2190 ft.; Oberwirth; Pens. Villa Steinberg). The road divides ¾ M. farther on, the branch to the right leading to (12 M.) Reichenhall viâ the Schwarzbachwacht (see Baedeker's Eastern Alps).

The Saalfelden Road (to the left) crosses the Ache and again forks. The new road, which almost all carriages now follow, leads to the left, partly through wood, with fine views of the Reiter-Alpe, etc., and at the (2¼ M.) Hintersee-Klause reaches the Hintersee (2580 ft.), a lake ¾ M. in length (ferry to the Wartstein Inn, 10 pf.). About ¾ M. farther, ⅓ M. from the lake, are the forester's house of Hintersee and the Bavarian custom-house. Opposite is Auzinger's Inn* (pens. 4-4½ M), at the junction of the old road, whichskirts the W. bank of the lake, passing (¾ M. from Auzinger's) the hotels Villa Gemsbock* and Wartstein* (pens. 4-5 M), and affording a picturesque view of the Hochkalter with the Blaueis, the Hohe Göll, etc. The beautiful wooded valley between the Hochkalter (left) and the Mühlsturzhorn (right) is now ascended to the (6 M.) Hirschbühl (3780 ft.; Inn), with the Austrian custom-house of Mooswacht.

The Kammerlinghorn* (8225 ft.), ascended from the Hirschbühl in 3½-4 hrs (somewhat fatiguing; guide, desirable, 5 M), commands a splendid view of the Steinerne Meer, the Tauern, etc.

The road ascends a few hundred paces farther to its highest point (3870 ft.), and then descends into the Saalach-Thal. Before us rise the imposing Leoganger Steinberge. About 2¼ M. from the Hirschbühl, by a saw-mill, a finger-post on the right indicates the way to the Seisenberg-Klamm, a profound and very narrow gorge, hollowed out by the action of the Weissbach, which dashes over huge blocks of rock below. At the (25 min.) Binder-Mühle, at the lower end of the ravine, we reach the Saalach-Thal; a road leads hence to (½ M.) Ober-Weissbach (2150 ft.; Auvogl*, near the church), where we rejoin the road from the Hirschbühl (to the left). The Inn zur Frohnwies lies ½ M. to the S. Hence to (3½ hrs.) Saalfelden, see p. 123.

From Berchtesgaden to Reichenhall, 11 M., railway in 1½ hr., viâ Hallthurm, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

10. From Salzburg to Innsbruck viâ Zell am See.

156 M. Railway (Staatsbahn) in 5½-9½ hrs. (fares 9 fl. 84, 5 fl. 86, 3 fl. 21 kr.; express 13 fl. 83, 8 fl. 52, 4 fl. 54 kr.). — Good railway-restaurants at Bischofshofen and Saalfelden; dinner, at a charge of 1 fl., will be handed into the carriage at either of these places, if previously ordered through the guard. — The end-carriage in each train on the Austrian mountain-railways is generally an open first-class carriage, with an unimpeded view on every side; second-class passengers may use this carriage between any two stations on taking a supplementary third-class ticket ('Ergänzungsbillet') for that distance.

Salzburg, see p. 95. — The train describes a wide curve round the Capuzinerberg (p. 101). To the right is Hohen-Salzburg; to the left the château of Neuhaus. 2½ M. Parsch (Gaisberg Railway, see p. 101); 4 M. Aigen (p. 102). The Salzach is now approached, and the precipitous Untersberg (p. 103) becomes more prominent. Several old country-seats are passed. To the right, on the opposite bank of the river, is the château of Anif (p. 102). 6 M. Elsbethen, 1½ M. to the N. of which lies St. Jakob am Thurn (p. 102). Beyond (9½ M.) Puch the train passes the large brewery of Kaltenhausen, on the left bank of the Salzach, and crosses the Alm.

11 M. Hallein (1450 ft.; Stern*, with salt-baths, near the station; *Alte Post; Auböck; Schöndorfer; Gasthaus zum Bahnhof, at the station, unpretending), an old town (3940 inhab.) on the left bank of the Salzach, noted for its salt-works, and also making tobacco and cement.

The Dürnberg, whence the salt-water is obtained, rises above the town. The mode of extracting the salt from the earthy matter with which it is mingled is described at p. 110. About 350 miners are employed here. Permission to visit the salt-mine is obtained at the office of the salt-works at Hallein (1-2 pers. 3 fl., a party 1½ fl. each). The entrance (2360 ft.) is reached in ¾ hr.; the visit occupies 1-1½ hr.

To Berchtesgaden (7 M.). The road viâ Zill is recommended to walkers, but is not very suitable for driving.

15½ M. Kuchl (1525 ft.; Schnöll), an old village with a Gothic church. To the W. rises the Hohe Göll (8265 ft.); to the S. the Tennen-Gebirge (p. 120).

18 M. Golling (1530 ft.; Hôtel-Pension Bahnhof*, in an open situation at the station; Alte Post*, Neue Post, Traube, Metzger Holzherr, in the village) lies on a hill, ¼ M. from the station.

The route to the (2¼ M.) Golling or Schwarzbach Fall cannot be mistaken (one-horse carr. for 1-2 pers. 1½, 3 pers. 2 fl.). Starting from the station, we cross the railway to the right, and then the Salzach, and walk in the direction of the white church of (1½ M.) St. Nicolaus, on a hill (guide-post). In 5 min. more we reach Maier's Inn*, and 3 min. farther on is the inn Zur Mühle. On the wooded slope of the Hohe Göll the Schwarzbach is precipitated from a cavern (1900 ft. above the sea-level) and through an aperture in the rock, over a cliff 200 ft. high, in two vast leaps. Masses of rock projecting over the abyss form a natural bridge.

The Salzach-Oefen, 2¼ M. to the S. of Golling, on the W. side of the highroad to Werfen (one-horse carr. for 1-2 pers. 1½, 3 pers. 2 fl.), are curious and picturesque ravines, filled with huge blocks of rock heaped together in wild confusion, between which the Salzach has forced its passage for upwards of a mile. These rocks, partly overgrown with wood, and undermined by the action of the water, are rendered accessible by paths and bridges in every direction. At the N. and S. entrances to the Oefen are finger-posts indicating the approach, and not 1/4 M. apart, though the walk through the rocky wilderness occupies 1/2 hr. A path leads along the left bank of the Salzach to a point of view ('der Oefen Ende') commanding the best survey of the Oefen as well as a glimpse of the Salzach-Thal, and to the (16 min.) Croaten-Höhle, a fortified cave on the slope of the Hagengebirge, at the entrance of the Pass Lueg. At the S. entrance to the Oefen is the Maria Brunneck Chapel (700 ft.), whence the best view is obtained of the Pass Lueg (see below).

Route from Golling to Abtenau (Lammeröfen; ubach Fall) and viâ the Zwiesel-Alp to Gosau, see p. 113.

Beyond Golling the railway traverses the broad valley towards the S., passing on the right the entrance to the Blüntau-Thal and on the left that of the Lammer-Thal (p. 113). It crosses the Lammer and Salzach, passes through a tunnel (1000 yds. long) piercing the Ofenauer Berg, and again crosses the Salzach by a slanting iron bridge of 105 yds. span. It then enters the Pass Lueg, a grand defile of the Salzach, 6 M. in length, between the Tennen-Gebirge on the E. and the Hagen-Gebirge on the W. 24 1/2 M. Sulzau (1660 ft.; Inn); 27 M. Concordia-Hütte (1700 ft.; Inn), at the entrance to the Blühnbach-Thal. The line follows the right bank, and crosses several torrents. To the right, farther on, romantically perched on a rock 345 ft. above the Salzach, is the well-preserved Schloss Hohenwerfen, built in 1076, and restored in the 16th century.

28 M. Werfen (1700 ft.). The important-looking village *(*Post; Tirolerwirth) lies on the opposite bank, overlooked by the jagged rocks of the Uebergossene Alp (see below). — 28 1/2 M. Pfarr-Werfen. The valley expands. The train crosses the Fritzbach (p. 188), issuing from a narrow gorge, and then the Salzach.

33 M. Bischofshofen (1795 ft.; Rail. Restaurant & Hotel, R. & L. 1 fl.; *Alte Post; Böcklinger; Neue Post, well spoken of), an old village with three churches, is the junction for the upper Ennsthal Railway (p. 188). The (1/4 hr.) Fall of the Geinfeldbach is worth seeing. To the W. rises the Ewige Schnee ('perpetual snow') group of mountains or Uebergossene Alp, culminating in the Hochkönig (9640 ft.).

The line traverses the broad valley, on the left bank of the Salzach; fine retrospect of the bare and jagged peaks and precipices of the Tennen-Gebirge. — 38 M. St. Johann im Pongau (1845 ft.; Pongauer Hof, at the railway-station; Post; Franz Prem; Zum Andrä'l; Goldnes Kreuz; Lackner; Schwaiger, near the church), a large village (3000 inhab.), 3/4 M. from the station, with a fine modern Gothic church, is a favourite summer-resort.

To the *Liechtenstein-Klamm (on foot there and back 3 1/2-4 hrs.; one-horse carr. from the station in 1 hr., there and back, including a stay of 1 1/2 hr., 2 fl. 20 kr.; two-horse carr. 3 fl. 60 kr.; omnibus to Plankenau 50 kr.). We cross the Salzach and the Wagreiner Bach and follow the Grossarl road to the village of (2 1/2 M.) Plankenau (*Winkler's Inn). The new road diverges here to the right and ascends to (1/2 hr.) the bridge over the Grossarler Ache, 5 min. from the entrance to the wild rocky gorge (adm. 30 kr.). The Ache descends through the gorge in a series of cascades. The path, 970 yds. in length, is perfectly safe, being a yard wide and provided with a railing. At the end of the imposing Second Gorge (1/4 hr.) is a *Waterfall, 175 ft. in height.

The Hoch-Gründeck (5990 ft.) may easily be ascended in 3½ hrs. by a marked bridle-path from St. Johann or Bischofshofen. Beautiful view. Summer Inn ¼hr. below the top.

The valley of the Salzach now contracts and bends towards the W. — 42 M. Schwarzach-St-Veit. The train crosses the Salzach, which here dashes through a rocky ravine, passes through a tunnel, recrosses the Salzach, and reaches — 47 M. Lend (2070 ft.; Turri's Inn). The village *(Straubinger; Post) lies on the opposite bank. — Road to Gastein, see p. 125. Below the village (½ M.) a fine *Waterfall is formed by the Gasteiner Ache just before it joins the Salzach.

Above Lend the line crosses the Salzach twice, in order to avoid the Eschenauer Plaike and the Embacher Plaike (slopes of loose stones), and then penetrates the Unterstein, a spur of slate-rock on the left bank, by a tunnel, 352 yds. long. We next skirt the Salzach and reach (51½ M.) Rauris-Kitzloch, at the entrance of the Rauris-Thal, ½ M. to the E. of Taxenbach.

*Kitzloch-Klamm (1½ hr. there and back from the Rauris-Kitzloch station). We cross the Salzach to the Restaurant Embacher, and then the Rauriser Ache (adm. 20 kr.), and ascend the right bank of the latter to the (25 min.) Kessel, into which the Ache is precipitated in four leaps from a height of 330 ft. (Kitzloch Fall). We cross the bridge and ascend in zigzags and by wooden steps, and at the top we turn to the right and pass through three tunnels, one of which is 58 yds. long. This point commands a striking view of the chasm. We may either turn here or follow the footpath farther to the (1½ hr.) village of Rauris.

The shortest route to the Rauris, a valley known for its gold-mines, leads through the Kitzloch-Klamm, the new road being 1½ M. longer. — 6 M. Rauris or Gaisbach (3110 ft.; Bräu; Post) is the chief place in the valley, which at Wörth, about 3 M. farther on, divides into the Seitenwinkel-Thal (right) and the Hüttenwinkel-Thal (left). About 3 hrs. up the former lies the Tauernhaus (4965 ft.; rustic Inn), whence we may proceed to (2½ hrs.) the Hochthor of the Heiligenblut-Rauriser Tauern (8440 ft.) and (1¾ hr.) Heiligenblut; see Baedeker's Eastern Alps. — A bridle-path ascends the Hüttenwinkel-Thal viâ (1 hr.) Bucheben (Inn) to (3 hrs.) Kolm-Saigurn (5240 ft.; Holleis' Inn), with gold-mines worked by a French company, in a grand situation, and to (2½ hrs. farther) the Knappenhaus am Hohen Goldberg (7680 ft.), situated on the margin of the Goldberg Glacier, which has covered part of the old mines. The interesting ascent of the *Sonnblick (10,180 ft.; splendid view) may be made from Kolm-Saigurn in 4½-5 hrs., with guide. On the top is the Zittelhaus, an inn and meteorological station. Descent to Heiligenblut, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps. — From Kolm-Saigurn to the Gasteiner Nassfeld viâ the Pochhard-Scharte, see p. 127.

Immediately beyond Rauris-Kitzloch the train traverses a tunnel (297 yds.) under the Taxenbach Schlossberg. — 53 M. Taxenbach (2330 ft.; Alte Post; Taxwirth; Restaurant at the station). The village, on an eminence ¾ M. to the E., has two castles, the newer of which, below the village, on a rock above the Salzach, is the seat of the district-court. — The valley now expands. To the right, on a hill near (56 M.) Gries, is the church of St. Georgen (2705 ft.), a fine point of view. On the left the ice-clad Hohe Tenn (11,080 ft.)

rises from the Fuscher-Thal. The train crosses the Salzach and the Fuscher Ache.

59 M. Bruck-Fusch (2475 ft.; Hôtel Kronprinz*, at the station; Lukashansl*; Gmachl*) lies opposite the entrance to the Fuscher-Thal. To the N.W. (1/4 hr.) rises Schloss Fischhorn (11th cent.), the property of Prince Liechtenstein, tastefully restored.

The most attractive and the most frequented approach to Heiligenblut from the N. leads through the beautiful Fuscher-Thal. A road ascends from Bruck to the (1 1/2 hr.) village of Fusch (2645 ft.; *Zum Imbachhorn, Embacher) and thence on the E. side of the valley to (1 1/2 hr.) Bad Fusch or St. Wolfgangs-Bad (4040 ft.; *Weilguni, pens. 3 1/2-6 1/2 fl.; Post), a frequented summer-resort in the Weichselbach-Thal. Pleasant footpath hence to (1 1/2 hr.) Ferleiten. — The valley-road goes on from Fusch to the (1/2 br.) Bär Inn (2690 ft.), whence a cart-track (ride or walk) leads to (1 1/4 br.) Ferleiten (3775 ft.; Lukashansl Inn; Tauernhaus*, plain), the last hamlet, commanding a fine view of the imposing head of the valley. The best points of view are the Durcheck-Alpe (5595 ft.; rfmts.), on the E. side of the valley, 2 hrs. above Ferleiten, and the Trauner-Alpe (5055 ft.; *Inn), on the way to the Pfandelscharte, 1 1/2 hr. to the S. — To Heiligenblut viâ the Fuscher Thörl or the Pfandelscharte, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The train crosses the Salzach for the last time, traverses the Zeller Moos, and reaches the Zeller See.

62 M. Zell am See (2460 ft.; Kaiserin Elisabeth*, on the lake, opposite the station; Böhm's Hotel am See; Pinzgauer Hof, near the station; Krone, on the lake; Post; Metzger Schwaiger; Bodingbaur; Lebzelter, moderate), beautifully situated on a peninsula on the W. bank of the lake, is a favourite summer-resort.

The Zeller See (2450 ft.) is 2 1/2 M. long, 1 M. broad, and 240 ft. deep. The water is pleasant for bathing (bath-houses; temperature 68° Fahr.). A small steamer plies on the lake, making the round eight times a day in 1 hr. (60 kr.). Stations: Thumersbach (Bellevue, restaurant with a view), on the E. bank, and Seehäusl (Restaurant), on the N.W. bank. The E. bank commands a beautiful view to the S. of the Tauern, Imbachhorn, Hochtenn, Kitzsteinborn, etc. Evening-light most favourable.

The Schmittenhöhe (6455 ft.) is one of the best and most accessible points of view in the Austrian Alps (3 hrs.; guide, 2 1/2 fl., unnecessary; horse 6 fl.; chair-carriage for one pers. 6, there and back 8, incl. night on top 12 fl.). The route leads to the W. from Zell through the Schmittener-Thal to (1/4 hr.) Schmitten. Here we turn to the left and follow an easy bridle-path, which ascends mostly through wood viâ the (1 1/2 hr.) Schweizerhütte Restaurant and (1 1/2 hr.) Brunner's Inn to the (1 hr.) summit (Haschke's Hotel*, 90 beds). The superb panorama embraces to the S. the entire Tauern range from the Ankogel to the Gross-Venediger; to the N. the limestone Alps from the Kaiser-Gebirge to the Dachstein; immediately opposite us is the Kaprun Valley.

An attractive day's excursion may be made to the Kaprun Valley. Omnibus from the Post Office to the Kesselfall Hotel, from July 15th to August 31st five times, from June 1st to July 15th and 1st to 15th Sept. thrice daily in 2-2 3/4 hrs. (allowing time for a visit to the Sigmund-Thun-Klamm), return in 1 1/2-1 3/4 hr.; single fare 1 fl. 60, return-ticket 2 fl. 80 kr.; fast carriages 2 fl., return 3 fl. 60 kr. Carriage and pair from Zell to the Kesselfall-Alpenhaus for 1/2 day 11 1/2, whole day 14 1/2 fl.; horse or chair carriage from the Kesselfall to the Rainer-Hütte and back (incl. 1 1/2 hr.'s stay) 8, to the Mooserboden and back (incl. 2 hrs.' stay) 10 fl. A new road leads from Zell through the broad valley of the Pinzgau and across the Salzach to (1 1/2 hr.) the village of Kaprun (2465 ft.; three rustic Inns), with a ruinous château, at the mouth of the valley. It then follows the right bank of the Kapruner Ache and winds up the Birgkogel (3155 ft.), which forms a barrier across the valley, through which the torrent has forced its passage by means of a highly picturesque gorge, the Sigmund-Thun-Klamm*. Passengers alight near the entrance of the gorge, walk through it (adm. 30 kr.) and rejoin the carriage at the (2¼ M.) Bilinski-Brücke, at the top of the hill. The road then proceeds through the open valley to the (1½ M.) Hinterwaldhof in the Wüstelau (2865 ft.). At the (¾ M.) Inn zum Kapruner Thörl we enter the fine Ebenwald and ascend to the (1¼ M.) Kesselfall-Alpenhaus (3355 ft.), a good first-class hotel, near the beautiful Kesselfall (electric light in the evening). The road, now steep and narrow, here crosses the Ache, mounts in windings to the (1½ hr.) Limberg-Alpe (5145 ft.), at the beginning of the Wasserfallboden, and then leads to the (25 min.) Orgler-Hütte (Inn) and the (6 min.) Rainer-Hütte (5320 ft.; Inn). On the opposite bank is the Wasserfall-Alpe. The Moosersboden* (6465 ft.; new Hotel), the highest terrace of the valley, is reached in 1 hr. from the Rainer-Hütte (to the end of the Karlinger Glacier ½ hr. more). It is surrounded by a majestic amphitheatre of glaciers and snow-clad mountains: Wiesbachhorn (11,710 ft.), Glockerin (11,235 ft.), Bärenkopf (11,175 ft.), Johannisberg (11,375 ft.), Kitzsteinhorn (10,510 ft.), etc. — For mountain ascents (Kitzsteinhorn, Wiesbachhorn, etc.), see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

From Zell am See to Mittersill and Krimml (Upper Pinzgau)*, see p. 127.

The train quits the lake at Schloss Prielau, now occupied by peasants. 64½ M. Maishofen (2495 ft.; Post), on the flat watershed between the Salzach and the Saalach; to the left, the château of Saalhof, at the mouth of the Glemmthal, from which the Saalach issues. The broad grassy valley of the Mitter-Pinzgau, with a fine view of the Steinerne Meer on the right, is next traversed. — 70 M. Saalfelden (2380 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Dick's Inn). The village (Neue Post; Alte Post), with 2919 inhab., 1 M. to the E. of the station, is prettily situated on the Urslauer Ache, in the middle of the broad valley. About ¼ hr. to the S. of the village is Thalmayr's Bath Establishment* (peat-water), with swimming-baths, restaurant, and rooms to let (pens. 2–2½ fl.).

From Saalfelden to Lofer, 15½ M., diligence daily in 3½ hrs.; carr. 6, with two horses 10 fl. The road runs on the right bank of the Saalach through the Diesbacher Hohlwege, a narrow gorge about 6 M. long, to (3½ hrs.) Oberweissbach (2150 ft.; Frohnwies Inn; Auvogl, near the church), where the road from Berchtesgaden viâ the Hirschbühl descends on the right (p. 118; ½ hr. to the N. is the interesting Seisenberg-Klamm*). Crossing the Saalach, we next pass the Lamprechts-Ofenloch (left), a capacious cavern, and the (1 hr.) mouth of the Schüttachgraben, ½ hr. up which is the imposing Vorderkaser-Klamm;* and beyond (1 hr.) St. Martin reach (½ hr.) Lofer (2095 ft.; Post; *Bräu; Schweizer), a frequented summer resort, amid beautiful surroundings (to the W. the Loferer Steinberge, to the E. the Reitalp-Gebirge). Hence to St. Johann viâ Waidring, see p. 124. A beautiful road (diligence twice daily in 4 hrs.) leads from Lofer to (17½ M.) Reichenhall, viâ Unken (1810 ft.; *Post; Lamm), a summer-resort near which lie the baths of Oberrain, and viâ Melleck, Schnaizlreut, and Jettenberg. A preferable route for pedestrians leads viâ the Nesselgraben and past the Thum-See. For details and for a description of Reichenhall, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The train now turns to the W., crosses the Saalach, enters the Leogang-Thal, and ascends rapidly at the base of the Birnhorn to (75 M.) Leogang (2750 ft.; Inn). About ¾ M. to the N. are the baths of the same name. The line next crosses the Weissbach and Griessenbach, and beyond Pass Griessen (2835 ft.), which was once fortified, crosses the Tyrolese frontier. Beyond (81 M.) Hochfilzen (3170 ft.), on the watershed between the Saalach and the Inn, the train descends a sharp gradient (1 : 44) on the right side of the Pramau-Thal, or Pillersee-Achenthal. — 87 M. Fieberbrunn (2560 ft.; Wieshofer, at the station), a picturesquely situated summer-resort *(Obermaier; Hammerwirth; *Post; Sieberer). We next pass Schloss Rosenberg and the Pillersee Iron Works (with the Loferer Steinberge, on the right). The Pillersee-Ache is crossed.

92 M. St. Johann in Tirol (2130 ft.; Post; *Bär; Zum Hohen Kaiser, at the station), in the broad Leuken-Thal, or valley of the Grosse Ache, is commanded by the Kaiser-Gebirge on the W.

A road leads to the N. from St. Johann through the Achenthal and viâ Erpfendorf to (3 hrs.) Waidring (2560 ft.; Post*), a thriving village on the watershed between the Ache and the Saalach; and thence through the wild Pass Strub to (2 hrs.) Lofer (p. 124). — A pleasant walk may be taken from Waidring through the Oefen or gorge of the Strubache to the (1¼ hr.) picturesque Piller-See (2735 ft.; inn at the S. end; trout).

97 M. Kitzbühel (2420 ft.; Haas, at the station; *Tiefenbrunner; Hinterbräu; Goldener Greif; Englische Pension Pfleghof and Schloss Lebenberg, pens. 3½-4 fl.; Rössl; Schwarzer Adler, etc.), a charmingly situated little town, much frequented in summer. About ¾ M. to the S. is the Kitzbühler Bad, with a chalybeate spring.

The Kitzbühler Horn (6540 ft.; 3½ hrs.; guide, 3½ fl., unnecessary; horse 4-5 fl.) is a highly attractive point. A good bridle-path ascends to the (2¾ hrs.) Inn above the Tratt-Alp. The chapel on the summit is reached in ¾ hr. more. The view, particularly of the Tauern, surpasses that from the Hohe Salve.

A picturesque road leads to the S. from Kitzbühel viâ the Pass Thurn (4180 ft.) to (5½ hrs.) Mittersill (p. 128).

The railway curves round the town and gradually ascends viâ (101 M.) Schwarzensee to (103 M.) Kirchberg (2690 ft.; Bechlwirth; Rainwirth), prettily situated at the entrance to the Sperten-Thal. The line now descends at the S. base of the Hohe Salve to (107 M.) Westendorf (2490 ft.; Restaurant), 1½ M. to the W. of the large village of Brixen, and beyond a tunnel enters the Windau-Thal, where it describes a wide curve before traversing a second tunnel (360 yds. long) back to the narrow Brixen-Thal. — 113½ M. Hopfgarten (2030 ft.; *Post; Rose; Diewald; Restaurant at the station, with rooms), a large village.

The Hohe Salve (5985 ft.), the Rigi of the Lower Innthal, is usually ascended from Hopfgarten (3 hrs.; guide, 2 fl., unnecessary; horse 5, 'chaise-à-porteurs' 12 fl.). The route leads through the (¼ hr.) village and ascends to the left by the (5 min.) finger-post to the (1½ hr.) Thenner Inn. Thence it leads past the Kalbn-Hütte to the (1½ hr.) summit, on which are a chapel and a clean Inn (40 beds at 80 kr.). Splendid *View, especially to the S. (Uebergossene Alm, Tauern, Oetzthal glaciers, etc.); to the N.E., the Kaiser-Gebirge.

11. The Gastein Valley.

DILIGENCE from Lend (p. 121) to Bad Gastein (21 M.) in summer twice daily in 4 hrs. (3 fl. 40 kr.). Passengers with through-tickets to Bad Gastein or with circular-tour coupons (Zell-am-See-Gastein, Bischofshofen-Gastein) are conveyed by the railway-company from Lend to Gastein in comfortable landaus ('Bahn-Expositur' at Gastein, adjoining the Wandelbahn). Two-horse carriage from Lend to Hof-Gastein 9 fl., to Bad Gastein 13 fl. (there and back 20 fl., if a night be spent 23 fl.). — The valley below Bad Gastein is scarcely picturesque enough to repay the pedestrian.

Lend (2070 ft.), see p. 121. The Gastein road ascends rapidly from the 'Post' past (10 min.) a restaurant. In the valley on the left are the waterfalls of the Ache. Near the (1/2 hr.) Klammhöhe (2700 ft.), at the beginning of the pass proper, stands a Chapel. The Klamm Pass is a profound and sombre gorge in the limestone rock, through which the Ache has forced a passage. At the end of the pass the road crosses by the (20 min.) Klammstein-Brücke (2550 ft.) to the right bank. At (1/4 hr.) Brandstatt (Inn) a view is disclosed of the green Gastein valley; to the right rises the double-peaked Bernkogel (7625 ft.). We now ascend gradually, passing Mairhofen, to (1 1/2 hr.) Dorf Gastein (2740 ft.; Edler) and (2 hrs.) —

14 M. Hof-Gastein (2850 ft.; Moser*, R. from 1 fl.; Müller; Post* or Traube; Bieber zum Boten), the capital of the valley (800 inhab.), which in the 16th cent., when its mines still produced considerable quantities of gold and silver, was the wealthiest place in this district next to Salzburg. Several of the houses, with decorations of the 16th cent., still testify to the ancient prosperity of the place, especially that of Moser, with arcades on each floor. The Kaiser-Platz is adorned with a gilded bust of Emp. Francis I., commemorating the construction in 1828 of a conduit, upwards of 3 M. long, which brings the thermal water hither from the springs at Bad Gastein. The temperature of the water falls during its transit from 102° to 93° Fahr. Baths (60 kr.) at the 'Märktische Badeanstalt', the hotels, and many private houses.

The Gamskarkogel (8085 ft.; horse and attendant 10 fl.; guide 4 fl.) is ascended from Hof-Gastein or the Bad Gastein in 4 1/2 hrs. On the summit is a refuge-hut. The snow-mountains of the Ankogel and the Tischlerkar Glacier are most conspicuous to the S.; to the W., the lofty double-peaked pyramid of the Gross-Glockner and the Wiesbachhorn; N., the Uebergossene Alm; N.E., the Dachstein and the Hochgolling.

The road to Bad Gastein (7 M., by carriage in 1 hr.) traverses a marshy part of the valley and then ascends on its W. side. On the left we obtain a view of the Kötschach-Thal, commanded by the Bocksteinkogel and Tischlerkar Glacier.

21 M. Bad Gastein (3250-3430 ft.). — Hotels. *STRAUBINGER, R. 1 1/2-6 fl., L. & A. 50 kr., with dépendance AUSTRIA (R. 2-10 fl.); *GASTEINER HOF, R. from 1 1/2 fl., L. & A. 40 kr.; WEISMAYR; *BADESCHLOSS; *SCHERNTHANER (GRABENWIRTH), opposite the lower fall of the Ache; *MOSER; *HIRSCH (1/4 M. from Straubinger's), *GERMANIA, both in open situations; all these with baths. — Lodging Houses, with baths: *ELISABETHHOF; *SCHWAIGERHAUS; *GEUBER; *DR. SCHIDER; MAYR; *HÖLLER; *MÜHLBERGER; *BELLEVUE; SOLITUDE; *VILLA HOLLANDIA; LAINER; VILLA ELLA and VILLA LOUISA, below the Wandelbahn; GROYER; ANGERER; *RADLINGER, with restaurant; SABATHIL; *ERZHERZOG JOHANN, picturesquely situated at the beginning of the promenade of that name; SENGER; ECHO; HELENENBURG; ALPENROSE; WENGER (the last three without baths). — Post & Telegraph Office in the Straubinger-Platz. — Office (Expositur) of the State Railways, adjoining the Wandelbahn. — Visitors' Tax during the season (May-Sept.), for a stay of five days or upwards, 4½-15 fl. according to the class in which the visitor is ranked; additional members of a family and servants proportionally less; for the poor 1 fl.

Most of the older houses of Bad Gastein, built of wood, lie on the E. slope of the valley, which is so steep that the door of one is frequently on a level with the chimneys of its neighbour. Of recent years, however, the Bad has become a fashionable and thriving place, with numerous handsome houses and villas. The chief rallying-points of visitors are the small Straubinger-Platz, between the Straubinger and Badeschloss hotels, and the Wandelbahn, a long covered glass-gallery, used as a promenade in wet weather. At the W. end is the Cur-Casino, with reading-room, etc.

The Ache, which flows through the valley, is precipitated here through narrow gorges, forming two magnificent *WATERFALLS, the upper 207 ft., the lower 280 ft. high. The upper fall is best viewed from the bridge by Straubinger's, the lower from Moser's café-pavillon or from the bridge at the foot of the fall. In summer the falls are illuminated on Wed. and Sun. at 8.30 p.m.

The springs (77° to 120° Fahr.) rise on the slope of the Badberg and yield about 770,000 gallons of water daily. The water, which has neither taste nor smell, contains a very small proportion of mineral ingredients, but possesses invigorating properties, and is beneficial in cases of debility, nervous affections, gout, etc.

On the right (E.) side of the valley a charming walk is afforded by the Kaiserweg, which follows the slope of the hill above the Church of St. Nicholas, and leads past the Memorial to the Emperor William I., with a bronze bust by Kokolsky (1889), to (20 min.) the Habsburger Hof Restaurant (fine view) and to (25 min.) the Café zum Grünen Baum in the Kötschach-Thal (see below). — The Schwarze Lisl, a café with an admirable view, on the road to the Kötschach-Thal, is rached in 10 min. by a path diverging to the right naer the Habsburger Hof. — Shady paths with steps ascend from the Badeschloss Hotel to the (5 min.) Hohe Brücke with a view of the upper fall, and to the (¼ hr.) Pyrkershöhe (café). — The best ascent to the (5 min.) Schiller-Höhe is from Gruber's.

LONGER EXCURSIONS. The Windischgrätz-Höhe (¾ hr.), on the slope of the Badberg, affords a survey of the valleys of Gastein and Böckstein, the Schareck, etc. The path to it ascends from the Hohe Brücke (right bank), and an easier route leads fom the Patschger. — The picturesque Kötschach-Thal is reached by the road leading to the (2 M.) Café zum Grünen Baum (see above), whence a bridle-path ascends past the (1¼ hr.) Himmelwand to (1½ hr.) Prossau, the last Alp (4220 ft.; refreshments).

BÖCKSTEIN and the NASSFELD are the two favourite points for excursions from the Wildbad. (The shady Kaiserin Elisabeth Promenade, which leads to the left from the Café Bellevue over the hill and then follows the left bank of the Ache, takes walkers 1¼ hr.). The road leads from the Hohe Brücke (p. 126), following first the left, then the right bank of the Ache, and passes the (1 M.) Patschger (Inn). ½ hr. Böckstein (3700 ft.; Curhaus*, with garden; Mühlberger) is a straggling village, charmingly situated opposite the mouth of the Anlauf-Thal, which stretches to the S.E. towards the Ankogel. A good path diverging to the right near the (1 hr.) Tauern Fall leads viâ the Hohe or Korn-Tauern (8080 ft.) to (7 hrs.) the Hannover-Hütte (8830 ft.) or (8 hrs.) Mallnitz (see below; guide, 7 fl., unnecessary in fine weather). The Ankogel (10,705 ft.) is easily ascended by experts from the Hannover-Hütte in 2½-3 hrs.

The route to the Nassfeld (from Böckstein 2 hrs.; guide unnecessary) is a carriage-road for 1½ M. We then ascend by a tolerable cart-road through the Asten, a rocky gorge about 2 M. in length, in which the Ache forms a series of cascades. At the entrance is the Kessel Fall, at the end the Bären Fall. Below the latter the stream, which drains the Pochhard-See, falls into the ravine over a precipice 260 ft. high, forming the graceful Schleier Fall ('veil-fall'). By the bridge, 5 min. farther on, the path enters the Nassfeld, a sequestered green valley, 2½ M. in length and 1½ M. in breadth, surrounded by massive mountains, amongst which the Schareck is conspicuous. Near the last bridge (8 min.) stands the Erzherzogin Marie Valerie Schutzhaus of the German Alpine Club (5121 ft.; Inn in summer).

FROM BÖCKSTEIN TO OBER-VELLACH OVER THE MALLNITZER TAUERN 10 hrs. (guide unnecessary in fine weather). From the Nassfeld-Haus to the Reck-Hütte at the S.E. end of the Nassfeld, ¾ hr. The bridle-path, indicated by stakes, winds up a steep slope to the (2½ hrs.) Mallnitzer, or Niedere Tauern (7920 ft.). A few hundred paces below the saddle stands the Mallnitzer Tauernhaus (7455 ft.; Inn, bed 1 fl.). The path descends viâ the Mannhart-Alp to (2½ hrs.) Mallnitz (3890 ft.; *Drei Gemsen), whence a carriage-road runs to (2 hrs.) Ober-Vellach (*Post), in the pleasant Möllthal, 4½ hrs. from the station of Sachsenburg (p. 173; carr. 3½ fl.).

FROM THE NASSFELD TO KOLM-SAIGURN OVER THE POCHHARD-SCHARTE 7490 ft.), an attractive route of 4-4½ hrs. (guide from Gastein 5½ fl.), see p. 121

12. From Zell am See to Krimml. Upper Pinzgau.

Comp. Map, p. 124.

33 M. PINZGAUER LOCALBAHN (narrow-gauge railway) in 3¾ hrs. (2nd class 1 fl. 63, 3rd cl. 82 kr.). — The scenery of the Upper Pinzgau is somewhat monotonous, but the Krimml waterfalls are well worth seeing and may be visited by means of the new railway in a long day's journey.

Zell am See, see p. 122. The line skirts the lake and then turns to the right. 2 M. Bruckberg; to the left, at the mouth of the Fuscher Thal (p. 122), rises the Imbachhorn, adjoined by the snowy summit of the Hochtenn. The line now proceeds almost on the same level to the W., along the foot of the hills on the S. side of the valley. 3¾ M. Fürth-Kaprun. To the left, at the entrance to the valley of Kaprun, are the village and castle of that name, commanded by the Kitzsteinhorn (10,510 ft.). 5½ M. Piesendorf; 7 M. Walchen; 9¼ M. Niedernsill (Hackl). Near (13 M.) Uttendorf (2535 ft.; *Bichlwirth, ¾ M. from the village) opens the Stubach-Thal, with the Schneewinkelkopf (to Kals over the Kalser Tauern, see p. 173). Above Uttendorf the whole valley was formerly occupied by the river and its numerous stony islands, but much of this area has lately been reclaimed. 15½ M. Stuhlfelden; then the small sulphur-baths of (16 M.) Burgwies.

17½ M. Mittersill (2560 ft.; Post*, on the left bank; Schwaiger*, Gruntner, Rothbacher, on the right bank), the principal village in the valley (600 inhab.). The well-preserved old Château, on a height on the left bank, 500 ft. above the river, is fitted up in the old-German style and commands a fine view of the Velber-Thal to the S. — Over the Pass Thurn to Kitzbühel, see p. 124.

19¼ M. Rettenbach; 20½ M. Hollersbach, at the mouth of the valley of that name. In the distance rises the snow-clad Kratzenberg (9925 ft.). 21¾ M. Dorf-Pass-Thurn (footpath to the right to Pass Thurn, p. 124); 23 M. Mühlbach; 24¼ M. Bramberg (*Seningerbräu); 26 M. Habachthal. To the right is Weierhof, with a ruined castle (Inn, with old panelled rooms, good wine). Opposite is the mouth of the Habach-Thal, with the Hohe Fürlegg (10,750 ft.) and the Habachkopf (9945 ft.) in the background. On the left, beyond (27⅓ M.) Neukirchen (2800 ft.; Schett; Kammerlander), is the Sulzau, at the junction of the Unter- and Ober-Sulzbach-Thal. The Unter-Sulzbach Fall* (½ hr.) deserves a visit.

We now pass the ruin of the Hieburg (right), and reach (30½ M.) Wald (2900 ft.; Strasser's Inn), where the path to (41½ M.) Gerlos, via Ronach, diverges to the right (p. 137). The line crosses the (1½ M.) Salza, which here unites with the Krimmler Ache to form the Salzach, skirts a projecting rock called the Falkenstein, and reaches its terminus at (33 M.) Unter-Krimml (3020 ft.; *Kastlunger's Inn), 2 M. (omnibus in ½ hr., 50 kr.) below —

Ober-Krimml (3500 ft.; Waltl; Zum Wasserfall*, near the falls), a pleasant village, chiefly visited on account of its magnificent Waterfalls*, the finest among the German Alps.

The Krimmler Ache, the discharge of the great Krimml Glacier, is precipitated in three falls into the valley below, a depth of about 1400 ft. The finest points of view have been rendered easily accessible by new paths on the left bank (there and back 3½ hrs.; guide unnecessary). A road leads from the inn in the direction of the falls as far as a (¼ hr.) finger-post, where we go straight on (while the old Tauern path crosses the bridge to the left, see below). Passing various points (*Riemanns-Kanzel) commanding views of the Lowest and Middle Falls, we ascend over the Schönangerl (Hofer's Inn) to the (¼ hr.) 'Jung-Kanzel', the first point of view for the Highest Fall*, which descends in two leaps from a height of about 460 ft. (Those who do not care to mount to the top of this fall should at least ascend for a few hundred paces more in order to obtain a complete view of it.) Crossing the Ache above the highest fall, we may return by the well-made Tauern path on the right bank.

To Gerlos over the Platte, 4 hrs., bridle-path, guide unnecessary (horse to Gerlos 5, to Zell 11 fl.); see p. 137.

Over the Krimmler Tauern to Kasern, 9 hrs., laborious (guide advisable). In the Krimmler Achenthal, 3 hrs. from Krimml, is the Tauernhaus (5350 ft.; Inn, plain). Thence to the Innerkees Alp, 1½ hr. We then ascend the Windach-Thal to the (2 hrs.) pass of the Krimmler Tauern (8640 ft.), where a splendid View is obtained, to the S., of the Dreiherrnspitze, the Röthspitze, etc. Rapid descent thence to (2 hrs.) Kasern (5135 ft.; Steger, plain), the highest village in the upper Ahrnthal (see p. 171), whence a road leads in 8-9 hrs. to Bruneck.

Innsbruck (1880 ft.), the capital of Tyrol, with 30,000 inhab., is charmingly situated on the Inn, not far from the influx of the Sill, and next to Salzburg is the most picturesque town among the German Alps. In every direction, particularly towards the N., the eye is met by striking groups of bold and fissured limestone mountains (Brandjoch, Frauhitt, Seegrubenspitzen, Hafelekar, Rumerjoch), towering above the cultivated slopes of the valley; while towards the S., above the wooded Berg Isel, rise the noble outlines of the Saile-Spitze and Waldraster-Spitze. To the S.E., nearer the foreground, above the Lanser Köpfe, peeps the rounded summit of the Patscher Kofel.

Leaving the station (Pl. D, 4), we proceed to the right along the Rudolf-Strasse to the MARGARETHEN-PLATZ (Pl. C, D, 4), where the Rudolfsbrunnen (Pl. 2), in red Tyrolese marble, erected in 1863-77, commemorates the 500th anniversary of the union of Tyrol with Austria (1363). At the top is a bronze statue of Duke Rudolph IV., 10 ft. in height, by Grissemann, and around the basin below are four water-spouting dragons and four griffins as shield-bearers.

We next reach the MARIA-THERESIEN-STRASSE (Pl. C, 3, 4), which contains the Landhaus, the Post Office (formerly the palace of Prince Thurn and Taxis; Pl. C, 4), and other handsome buildings of the 17-18th centuries. The Anna-Säule (Pl. C, 4), erected in 1706, commemorates the evacuation of Tyrol by the Bavarians and French in 1703. — The Maria-Theresien-Str. is continued towards the N. by the Herzog-Friedrich-Strasse, a street flanked with arcades ('Lauben'), which leads direct to the Goldne Dachl.

The 'Goldne Dachl' (Pl. C, 3), a gilded copper roof, covering a rich late-Gothic balcony constructed in 1425, belongs to a palace which Count Frederick of Tyrol 'with the empty pockets' is said to have built at a cost of 30,000 ducats (about 14,000*l.*) in order to refute the imputation in his nickname. The paintings on the outer wall, representing the Emp. Maximilian and his two wives, and the well-executed armorial bearings in marble commemorate the restoration of the balcony by that emperor in 1504. — The handsome old Stadtthurm or Feuerthurm, 236 ft. high, commands a fine view.

Thence the Hofgasse leads to the right to the Franciscan Church, or Hofkirche (Pl. C, 3), in the Renaissance style, erected in 1553-63, in compliance with the will of Emp. Maximilian I. (d. 1519; interred at Wiener-Neustadt, p. 178), whose sumptuous Monument* occupies the centre of the nave. Maximilian is represented in a kneeling posture, in bronze, on a massive marble sarcophagus, surrounded by 28 bronze statues of his contemporaries and ancestors, in the guise of mourners and torch-bearers. The completion of this imposing work occupied several generations; begun as early as 1509, it was not finished till 1593 under Archduke Ferdinand. The general design is due to Gilg Sesselschreiber of Augsburg, the court-painter. The figures were cast by Stephan Godl, Bernhard Godl, Gregor Löffler, Hans Lendenstreich, and others; and the famous Peter Vischer of Nuremberg, to whom the figures of King Arthur (the finest of the series) and Theodoric (8th and 5th on the right) are attributed, also took part in the work. The figure of Maximilian himself is by L. del Duca. On the sides of the sarcophagus are 24 *Reliefs in marble, representing the principal events in the emperor's life. The first four are by Bernhard and Albert Abel of Cologne; the other twenty, by Alex. Colins of Malines (d. 1612), have been pronounced by Thorvaldsen the most perfect works of their kind. Many of the heads are portraits; the features of Maximilian at different periods of his life are unmistakable; and the characteristics of the different nationalities are faithfully rendered. The reliefs are covered with glass and enclosed by a railing; those who wish a closer inspection must pay 50 kr. for admission within the latter.

The steps to the right, at the beginning of the right aisle, lead to the Silberne Kapelle, so called from a silver statue of the Virgin, and embossed representations in that metal of the 'Lauretanian Litany' on the altar. On the left wall are 23 bronze statuettes of saints, cast at Innsbruck, and probably once destined for the monument of Maximilian. The tomb of Archduke Ferdinand II. (d. 1595), executed by Colins during the duke's lifetime, is adorned with four scenes in relief from the life of the deceased. The tomb of Philippina Welser of Augsburg (d. 1580), first wife of the archduke (see p. 134), is embellished with two reliefs by Colins. The old organ is said to have been a gift of Pope Julius II.

At the entrance to the left aisle is the Monument of Andreas Hofer, in Tyrolese marble, executed by Schaller, with a relief by Klieber. Hofer was shot in 1810 at Mantua, and in 1823 his remains were brought to Innsbruck and solemnly interred here. At the sides are the tombs of Speckbacher (d. 1820) and Haspinger (d. 1858). Opposite these is a monument to all the Tyrolese who have fallen in the defence of their country since 1795, with the inscription: 'Absorpta est mors in victoria'.

To the left, on leaving the Franciscan Church, is the imperial palace, or Hofburg (Pl. C, 3), erected in 1766-70. Visitors are admitted 8-11 and 2-5 from the Hofkirche by the Silver Chapel (see above); the Riesensaal (with portraits) is worth seeing.

Opposite the Burg are the Stadtsäle (Pl. 19; Restaurant, see p. 130) and the Theatre (Pl. C, 3). In the Rennweg, in front of the Stadtsäle, rises the Leopoldsbrunnen, erected by the town of Innsbruck in 1893, with a small equestrian statue of Archduke Leopold V. and other bronze figures by C. Gras (1626). — To the N. is the well-kept Hofgarten (Restaurant). Farther to the N.E., in the quarter between the railway and the Inn, is the large new Orphanage (Pl. E, 1, 2), founded by J. von Sieberer, with a fine chapel. The sculptures on the façade are by Baumgartner. Near it, in the Sieberer-Str., is an interesting Panorama of the battle of Berg Isel, by Diemer and Burger (adm. 50 kr.). Adjacent are the old Exhibition Grounds, with a large restaurant, etc.

Next the Hofkirche, in the Universitäts-Strasse, is the University (Pl. C, D, 3), founded by Emp. Leopold in 1672 and restored in 1826. A medical faculty was added in 1869. It is attended by about 1000 students and possesses the usual collections. The Jesuitenkirche or University Church (Pl. 9), erected in 1627-40 in the baroque style, is crowned with a dome 200 ft. high. Adjoining is the University Library (Pl. 25), a collection of 180,000 vols. (open 8-1 and 3-5). — The adjacent Botanic Garden (Pl. C, D, 3) contains upwards of 600 species of Alpine plants with the different kinds of rock on which they grow, arranged orographically.

Near this point, in the Museums-Str., rises the handsome Renaissance building of the Ferdinandeum or Tyrolese National Museum (Pl. C, D, 3). Begun in 1842, it received its upper story in 1884-86 (open daily, except Sun. afternoon, in summer 9-5, in winter 10-3; admission 50 short guide 10, catalogue of pictures 15 kr.). The façade is adorned with busts of twenty-two eminent natives of Tyrol.

GROUND FLOOR. In the Corridor are Roman, mediæval, and modern monuments in stone and bronze. — The central Hall, containing portraits of the founders and benefactors of the museum, is intended for temporary exhibitions. To the left and right are the Zoological Collection and the Geological Collection. — FIRST FLOOR. Room I: Collection of Arms. — R. II: Rhætian, Roman, and Teutonic antiquities. — R. III: Ethnographical Collection. — R. IV: Geographical Collection; globes by Anich; ancient measuring-instruments. — R. V: Collections illustrating the history of civilization. — R. VI, a circular apartment containing patriotic and historical relics and curiosities: statue of Hofer; his tombstone from Mantua; his sabre, amulet, coins struck during his brief rule, his rifle, etc.; Speckbacher's chain, sabre, and belt; Haspinger's hat and breviary; a Neapolitan six-pounder; the flag of a Venetian volunteer corps, captured from the Italians by a corps of Innsbruck students in 1848; a mountain-gun of the same period. The Radetzky Album, a memorial of the marshal of that name, contains over 1000 autographs; the most interesting leaves are exhibited in frames on the wall. — R. VII: Sculptures and plaster-casts of works by Tyrolese artists. — R. VIII: Small objects of art. — RR. IX, X: Objects of art in metal. — R. XI: Coins. — SECOND FLOOR. The Picture Gallery here occupies seventeen rooms and cabinets. To the right of the staircase, Cab. I-V: Tyrolese, German, and Dutch artists of the 14-16th centuries. — RR. I-III: Works by Tyrolese masters of the 17th, 18th, and first part of the 19th centuries. — R. IV ('Defregger Room'): *422. Defregger, Speckbacher and his son Anderl; six copies of Defregger's chief pictures, touched up by himself. — R. V: Modern Tyrolese and German masters. — R. VI: Italian, French, and Spanish masters of the 17-18th centuries. — R. VII: Netherlands masters: Van der Helst, Rembrandt, Frans Hals, Terburg, G. Dou, etc. — Cabinets VI-X: Engravings, water-colours, and drawings.

The Church of St. James (St. Jakob; Pl. C, 3), erected in 1717, contains a picture of the Virgin over the high-altar by L. Cranach (well known from numerous copies), surrounded with a painting by Schöpff, and the tomb of Archduke Maximilian (d. 1618), Master of the Teutonic Order, designed by C. Gras and cast by H. Reinhart.

The handsome Bridge (Pl. B, 3), which leads to the suburbs of St. Nikolaus and Mariahilf on the left bank of the Inn, affords the best survey of the environs. In the Inn Alley on the left bank is a zinc Statue of Walther von der Vogelweide (p. 151). To the Weiherburg and Mühlau, see p. 136.

At the S. end of the Maria-Theresien-Strasse is a Triumphal Gate (Pl. C, 5), erected by the citizens in 1765, on the occasion of the entry of Emp. Francis I. and the Empress Maria Theresa, to commemorate the marriage of Prince Leopold (afterwards Emp. Leopold II.) with the Infanta Maria Ludovica. The emperor died before the conclusion of the festivities.

Beyond this gate, to the right, are the Tyrolese Glass-Painting and Mosaic Establishment (Pl. 24, B, 5; open on week-days 11-12 and 5-6) and the Lying-in Hospital (Pl. C, 5). In the adjacent Fallmerayer-Str. stand the Law Courts (Pl. B, 4, 5), the Turnhalle (gymnastic institute; Pl. 6), and the Paedagogium (teachers' seminary; Pl. B, C, 4). The garden of the last (open 4-7 from May 1st to July 15th, 8-12 and 2-4 from July 15th to Sept. 15th) contains a department for Alpine plants, and a large and interesting Relief

Model of Tyrol (scale 1:7500; vertical scale 1:2500), by Prof. Schuler, covering an area of about 100 sq. yds., and reproducing accurately the geological peculiarities of the different districts (fee to school-attendant who explains it). In the Anich-Str. rises the Technical School (Pl. 21); more to the S.W. are the large Municipal Hospital (Pl. A, B, 4, 5), with the University clinical institutions, the Children's Infirmary, and the Pathological and Anatomical Institutes (Pl. A, 5). In the same quarter lies the well-kept Cemetery, containing handsome modern monuments by Tyrolese sculptors, and that of A. Colins, the sculptor (p. 131), in the Renaissance style.

About 3/4 M. from the gate, on the Brenner road (p. 146), is the Premonstratensian abbey of Wilten, the Roman Veldidena. By the portal of the church to the E. are statues of the giants Haimon and Thyrsus, the traditional founders of the abbey. The church is sumptuously decorated with stucco, frescoes, and gilding.

In 3 min. more the road brings us to the Berg Isel (2460 ft.), at the foot of which is the station of the steam-tramway (p. 130). A little farther up are the Bierstindl Restaurant and a notice indicating the way to the shooting-range of the Tyrolese Riflemen ('Kaiser-Jäger'). The road sweeps to the right and ascends in 10 min. to the park-like plateau (restaurant), in the middle of which rises a Bronze Statue of Andreas Hofer*, by Natter (1893). Beyond is the rifle-range, on the side next the Sillthal. The Pavilion at the N.E. angle affords a charming survey of the Innthal and the town.

Among the other monuments on the plateau is an obelisk bearing the inscription: 'Donec erunt montes et saxa et pectora nostra Austriacae domui moenia semper erunt.' The dates 13th April, 29th May, and 13th August, 1809, refer to the repeated capture of the town from the Bavarians by the brave Tyrolese peasants under Andreas Hofer, whose attacks were chiefly directed against it from the Berg Isel and the hills adjoining it on the E. as far as Schloss Ambras. — The central block is arranged as a museum, and contains portraits of Hofer, Speckbacher, and Haspinger, tropbies, uniforms, etc. (adm. in summer from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.; 20 kr.).

On a spur of the Mittelgebirge, or lower hills, 3 M. to the S.E. of Innsbruck, stands Schloss Ambras, the direct road to which leads by Pradl. (A shorter footpath leads to the right below the railway station and crosses the Sill to the gas-works; here we go towards the right for a few hundred paces, and then follow a field-track to the left, which leads to the road in 10 min.) The other road, viâ Wilten, is longer but pleasanter (steam-tramway, see p. 130). It passes to the left from the tramway-terminus, crosses the Sill, and then leads straight to the (3/4 hr.) château along the base of the hills (Schlosskeller Restaurant, to the right, near the entrance).

Schloss Ambras or Amras (2070 ft.), originally erected in the 13th cent., owes its fame chiefly to Archduke Ferdinand, son of Emp. Ferdinand I., and husband of Philippina Welser, daughter of a wealthy patrician of Augsburg, whom he had met at the diet of Augsburg in 1547 and secretly married in 1557. The archduke, an enthusiastic lover of art, who became governor of Tyrol in 1563, extended the château considerably and filled it with treasures of art. His historical collection of arms and armour established here, but transferred to Vienna in 1806, is to this day one of the finest in existence, and forms the most valuable part of the Imperial Museum of Weapons (p. 40). The Schloss gradually fell into decay, but when Archduke Karl Ludwig (governor of Tyrol in 1856-58) selected it as his residence, it underwent a thorough restoration. The objects of art were considerably increased by contributions from the imperial collections in Vienna, and in 1882 the château was opened as a museum (open from June to Oct. daily, except Mon., 9-12 and 2-5, in winter 10-12 and 1-3; tickets of admission gratis at the Hofburg in Innsbruck, daily, except Mon., 9-12 and 2-5).

The outer court contains 8 Roman milestones, from the time of Septimius Severus (193-211 A.D.), found on the road from Wilten to Schönberg. The visitor is first shewn the 'Unterschloss', and then the 'Hochschloss' with the 'Spanish Saloon' (fee for each). In the UNTERSCHLOSS ('lower castle'), two large halls to the right contain the valuable Collection of Weapons, from the 15th cent. to the present time, arranged in chronological order. At the entrance to the Hochschloss is the large Spanish Saloon, 140 ft. long, 32 ft. broad, and 18 ft. high, built in 1570-71, and restored in 1856-77. — The Ground Floor of the HOCHSCHLOSS ('upper castle') contains a restored Gothic chapel of the 15th cent., with frescoes by Wörndle; and a bath-chamber said to have been used by Philippina Welser (p. 132). The First and Second Floors contain miscellaneous collections: furniture, models of buildings, objects in metal, sculptures in marble, wood, ivory, etc., glass and pottery, and a large collection of portraits, including those of Archduke Ferdinand (d. 1595), at various ages, Philippina Welser (d. 1580), etc.

The pretty Park, with its miniature waterfalls, is also accessible (entrance near the Spanish Saloon).

The finest of the shorter excursions from Innsbruck is the ascent of the Lanser Köpfe (3050 ft.), accomplished from the terminus of the steam-tramway (p. 130) in 1 hr. Beyond the bridge over the Sill, by a finger-post to the right, we ascend the Paschberg past the Bretterkeller, soon obtaining a fine view of the Inn valley; by the (6 min.) finger-post ('Abkürzungsweg nach Lans') we diverge to the right and ascend (good path) through wood, passing (20 min.) a bench (*View of Innsbruck); 6 min. farther on we join the road and follow it to its highest point (15 min.), whence a path (yellow way-marks) ascends to the (12 min.) N.E. summit (330 ft. above the plateau) which commands a charming *View of the Inn valley from the Martinswand to the Kellerjoch and Kaiser-Gebirge, and of the Stubai glaciers, Habicht, Waldraster-Spitze, Saile, etc., towards the S. (see the mountain-indicator). We may also drive from Innsbruck to the foot of the Lanser Köpfe and back in 4 hrs. (carr. and pair, incl. stay of 1 hr., 6 fl.). — We may return past the small and boggy Lanser See (2760 ft.; bath-house) to (½ hr.) Igls (2900 ft.; Iglerhof, first-class, with baths, pens. 4-6 fl.; Altwirth; Stern, unpretending), a finely situated summer-resort, and thence follow the road via (¾ M.) Vill (2660 ft.; Inn) to the (¾ hr.) tramway-terminus (p. 130); or we may proceed to the left from the S. base of the Lanser Köpfe to (1 M.) Lans (2835 ft.; Traube; Wilder Mann), and follow the road viâ Aldrans (2495 ft.; Plattner) to (2 M.) Ambras (p. 134).

A pleasant walk may be taken on the left bank of the Inn, by St. Nikolaus (p. 133), the château of Büchsenhausen (with a brewery and bathing-establishment), and the Pension Kayser (p. 130), to (1/2 hr.) Schloss Weiherburg (2210 ft.; Pens. and Restaurant), with a terrace commanding a charming *View of the valley of the Inn, the Glungetzer, Patscher Kofel, etc. About 800 ft. above the Weiherburg (steep ascent of 1/2 hr.) is the cottage of Maria-Brunn (the 'Hungerburg'; Restaurant), which commands a *View extending to the Stubai glaciers; carriage-road back to Innsbruck viâ Hötting, 2 M. — We may return from the Weiherburg by (20 min.) Mühlau (2025 ft.; Pension Edelweiss; Stern), a charmingly situated village, at the mouth of the wild Mühlauer Klamm (Innsbruck Electric Works, interesting), and thence to (1 1/2 M.) Innsbruck, either by the steam-tramway in 12 min. (station Dollinger, near the Stern Inn) or on foot by the handsome suspension-bridge (1/2 hr.).

A pleasant expedition may be made to (2 hrs.) Schönberg at the mouth of the Stubai-Thal (p. 146; carr., see p. 130); best views in the morning.

14. From Innsbruck to Salzburg viâ Kufstein and Rosenheim.

123 M. Railway in 1 1/2-3 hrs. to Kufstein, and 3 1/2-6 hrs. thence to Salzburg. Luggage is examined at Kufstein (in both directions).

Innsbruck, see p. 130. The railway traverses the valley on a long viaduct, and at Mühlau (see above) crosses the Inn, above the influx of the Sill. To the right is the château of Ambras (p. 134).

5 1/2 M. Hall (1835 ft.; Bär; Stern*, with garden; Neuwirth; Hôt.-Pens. Vorderwalderhof, finely situated 1/2 M. to the E., on the right bank of the Inn), a quaint old town of 5760 inhab., with salt-works, to which the brine is conveyed from a distance of 6 M. The evaporating houses near the station contain a cabinet of models. Steam-tramway to Innsbruck, see p. 130.

9 1/2 M. *Fritzens; 12 1/2 M. Terfens. — 18 1/2 M. Schwaz (1765 ft.; *Brückenwirth; Post; *Zum Freundsberg; Thurm; Stern), a town with 6000 inhab., lies on the left bank of the Inn, commanded by the château of Freundsberg. On a hill to the right is the Benedictine abbey of Fiecht, restored after a fire in 1868.

The ascent of the *Kellerjoch (7690 ft.; 4 1/2-5 hrs.; guide not necessary for adepts) is easy and attractive. The route (marked path) leads past the château of Freundsberg through wood to the (3 1/2 hrs.) Kellerjoch-Hütte (6055 ft.), and thence to the (1 1/2 hr.) summit (fine view). Descent to Fügen (p. 137), 3 1/2 hrs.

23 1/2 M. Jenbach (1735 ft.; Prantl's Hôtel Toleranz*, at the station; Post; Bräuhaus, above the village, with view-terrace), at the entrance to the Achenthal, is the station for the Zillerthal (p. 137). On the mountain-slope, 2 1/4 M. to the W., is Count Enzenberg's handsome château of Tratzberg.

*To THE ACHENSEE, 4¼ M., narrow-gauge railway (partly on the rack-and-pinion system), eight trains daily in 36 min.; a highly attractive excursion (fare 1 fl. 53, down 1 fl. 2 kr.; return-ticket available for 10 days 2 fl. 4, including a round of the lake 3 fl. 34 kr.). The railway ascends (16:100), with a pretty view on both sides of the Inn valley, viâ the station of Burgeck. The highest point of the line (3180 ft.), where the toothed rail ends, is reached at (2 M.) Eben (3160 ft.; Kirchenwirth), a frequented pilgrim-resort, with the tomb of St. Nothburga (d. 1313). The line now descends slightly to Maurach and reaches the (4¼ M.) terminus beside the Seespitz Hotel, 3 min. from the steamboat-pier. The dark-blue Achensee (3045 ft.; 5½ M. long, ½ M. broad) is the finest lake in N. Tyrol. A steamboat belonging to the abbey of Fiecht makes the circuit of the lake six times daily in 1½ hr. On the S.W. bank is the Pertisau, a green pasture enclosed by precipitous mountains and frequented as a summer-resort (*Fürstenhaus, on the lake; Höt. Stefanie; Pfandler; Karl, in the village). — On the E. bank, towards the N. end, is the Hôtel Seehof, 1 M. farther on is the Hôtel Scholastika, and at the end is Maier's Inn. The Unnütz (6815 ft.; easy and interesting) may be ascended from the Scholastika in 3 hrs. — The scattered houses of the village of Achenkirch (*Post, 3 M. from the lake; *Kern; *Adler) extend almost to the N. end of the lake. About 6 M. farther on, beyond the village of Achenwald (Traube), the Tyrolese frontier is reached in the once strongly fortified defile of Achen. For details, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The Zillerthal. An OMNIBUS plies twice daily in summer from Jenbach to (21 M.) Mayrhofen in 5½ hrs. (1 fl. 80 kr.); carr. 9, with two horses, 13 fl. and fee of 1 fl. — Quitting Jenbach the road crosses the Inn and enters the Zillerthal at (3 M.) Strass (Holaus). 7 M. Fügen (1785 ft.; *Post; Stern; Zum Aigner; *Sonne) is the capital of the lower Zillerthal. The road then leads viâ Kapfing, Finsing (*Zum Erzherzog Johann), Uderns, and Ried, and at (12 M.) Kaltenbach (Post) approaches the Ziller. — 16½ M. Zell (1885 ft.; Post, Daviter, on the left bank; Welschwirth*, Bräu*, Greiderer, on the rigbt bank), the chief place (1200 inhab.) of the valley, which is here broad and fertile, lies at the confluence of the Gerlosbach with the Ziller. To the E. rise the Hainzenberg and the Gerloswand (7105 ft.); to the S. the Tristner (9065 ft.) and tbe Ingent (9570 ft.). [To the E. of Zell opens the Gerlos, through which a bridle-track leads to tbe Pinzgau (to Krimml 8-9 hrs.; horse 9 fl., guide, 4 fl. 20 kr., unnecessary), viâ (2½ hrs.) Gerlos (Alpenrose; Stöckl; Kammerlander) and thence either by the Gerlos Pass (4875 ft.) or the Pinzgauer Platte (5560 ft.).] See Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The road from Zell to Mayrhofen follows the right bank of the Ziller. — 21 M. Mayrhofen (2065 ft.; Neuhaus; *Stern; Alte Post; Krammer), the highest village in the lower Zillerthal, is beautifully situated in a green basin amidst lofty mountains. Tbe valley divides here into four branches: E. the Zillergrund, S.E. the Stillup, S.W. the Zemmtbal, W. the Tuxer-Thal. Through the Tuxer-Thal an easy and interesting bridle-path leads viâ (5½ hrs.) Hinter-Tux (4900 ft.; Inn, with baths) and over the (2½ hrs.) Tuxer or Schmirner Joch (7675 ft.) to the Schmirner-Thal and (4¼ hrs.) St. Jodok on the Brenner railway (p. 147).

FROM MAYRHOFEN TO STERZING OVER THE PFITSCHER JOCH (16 hrs.; two days), interesting. Tbe Zemmthal is worthy of a visit (to Ginzling 3 hrs., to the Berliner Hütte 8-9 hrs.; guide unnecessary). Beyond Mayrhofen we cross tbe (10 min.) Zillerbach and (¼ hr. more) the Stillup-Bach (fine waterfall), and turning to the left reach the (¼ hr.) Hochsteg (2165 ft.), a covered bridge over the Zemmbach. The bridle-path then ascends gradually through the Dornauberg-Klamm, a picturesque valley enclosed by lofty pine-clad hills, skirting the left bank of the Zemmbach, which is precipitated in numerous cascades through a rocky ravine. The Karlsteg, 1¾ hr. from Mayrhofen, crosses the torrent, wbich here dasbes wildly over huge rocks. 1¼ hr. Ginzling (3280 ft.; Kröll) is prettily situated on the rigbt bank of the Zemmbach. The path crosses again to the left bank and ascends viâ the Rosshag-Alp (3595 ft.; *Inn) to (2 hrs.) Breitlahner (4070 ft.; *Eder's Inn), opposite the mouth of the Zemm-Grund or Schwarzenstein-Grund, a picturesque valley, in which a highly interesting excursion may be made to the (3½ hrs.) Berliner Hütte of the German Alpine Club, grandly situated on the Schwarzenstein-Alp (6725 ft.; Inn in summer).

Farther on the path ascends the Zamser-Thal, at first rapidly, to the (2¼ hrs.) Dominicus-Hütte (5525 ft.; Inn), beautifully situated opposite the entrance of the superb Schlegeisen-Thal, and to the (2½ hrs.) Pfitscher Joch (7375 ft.; Inn). We then descend to (2½ hrs.) St. Jacob in the Pfitscher-Thal (4760 ft.; Rainer's Inn) and thence viâ Wieden and Afers to (4 hrs.) Sterzing (p. 148.)

37½ M. Wörgl (1665 ft.; Rail. Restaurant, R. 1 fl.; Rose), the junction of the Tyrol and Salzburg line (R. 10). The round summit of the Hohe Salve (p. 124) rises from the Brixen-Thal to the S.

The railway now crosses the Brixenthaler Ache and at Kirchbichl passes to the right bank of the Inn. To the E. rises the imposing Kaiser-Gebirge.

47 M. Kufstein (1600 ft.; Hôtel Gisela*, near the station; Auracher Bräu; Post; Eggerbräu; Drei Könige; Rail. Restaurant;* Bavarian and Austrian custom-house examination), a small town of 2550 inhab., frequented as a summer-resort. An interesting visit may be paid to the old fortress of Geroldseck. Fine view from the Calvarienberg, beyond the cemetery, ½ M. from the Inn. About ¼ M. farther are the baths of Kienbergklamm, well fitted up.

WALKS: on the left bank of the Inn to the (40 min.) Klause (*Inn, with fine view) and the König Otto Kapelle (see below); to the top of the (1 hr.) Thierberg (fine view from the tower); to the Kaiser-Thal, etc.; see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The frontier of Tyrol is now passed in the Klause, a narrow defile. To the left, the pretty König Otto Kapelle. — 49½ M. Kiefersfelden; 52½ M. Oberaudorf; 57 M. Fischbach. — 60 M. Brannenburg (1550 ft.; Inn* at the station; Schlosswirth*, in the village), beautifully situated at the base of the hills. — 64½ M. Raubling.

68 M. Rosenheim (1470 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Deutscher Kaiser and *Bismarckbad; *Hôt. Greilerer; König Otto; Alte Post; Deutsches Haus; Zum Wendelstein, moderate), the junction of the line to Munich (in 1¼-2 hrs.), is a town of 12,200 inhab., with salt-works and saline-baths (brine conducted hither from Reichenhall, over 50 M. distant). — About ¾ M. from the station are the Kaiserbad, with a large park, the Bismarckbad, Marienbad, and Dianabad, all with hotel-pensions and salt and other baths. Pretty view from the (½ hr.) Schlossberg (Restaurant).

The train crosses the Inn, passes (72 M.) Stephanskirchen, the Simm-See (3¾ M. long), with the station of (74½ M.) Krottenmühle (Restaurant) at its N. end, and (78 M.) Endorf, and then runs through a hilly district to (84 M.) Prien (1740 ft.; Hôt. Chiemsee, at the station; Zur Kampenwand; Kronprinz; Bayrischer Hof*), a favourite summer-resort in the smiling Prienthal.

From Prien a STEAM TRAMWAY runs in 8 min. to (1 M.) Stock, the landing-place of the steamer on the Chiemsee, which plies nine times daily in 1/4 hr. to the Herreninsel and seven times in 1/2 hr. to the Fraueninsel (return-ticket to the Herreninsel, 2nd cl. in the steam-tramway, 1st cl. on the steamer, 1 M 80 pf.). — The Chiemsee (1700 ft.), 8 1/2 M. long and 6 1/2 M. broad, contains three islands: the large Herrenwörth, with a Benedictine monastery (now an inn and brewery), the Frauenwörth, with a nunnery, and the Krautinsel ('vegetable-island'), formerly a kitchen-garden for the monks and nuns. There are also a fishing-village and an inn on the Frauenwörth. On the much larger Herrenwörth (9 M. in circumference) rises the large Schloss Herrenchiemsee, begun in the style of Louis XIV. by King Lewis II. after the model of Versailles, but not completed (adm. from 15th May to 16th Oct. daily 9-5, fee 3 M, Sun. & holidays 1 1/2 M; closed on 13th June). The interior is fitted up with lavish splendour. The lake is celebrated for its fish. The banks are low, and in the distance to the S. extends the long chain of the Bavarian and Tyrolese mountains.

The line skirts the S. bank of the Chiemsee and passes the stations of Bernau, Uebersee, and Bergen. About 3 M. to the W. of Bergen are the well-equipped baths of Adelholzen.

101 M. Traunstein (1935 ft.; Traunsteiner Hof*; Krone*, at the station; Wiespauer*; Post*; Weisses Bräuhaus), a thriving place with 6600 inhab., on a slope above the Traun, is much frequented as a summer-resort. The Friedens-Denkmal, the Monument of King Max II., the Luitpold Fountain (1794), and the handsome marble Liendl Fountain (1526) in the upper Platz may be inspected. Mineral and Saline Baths, with large garden (pens. 4-8 M). Bregenz (1260 ft.), the capital of the Vorarlberg (district 'before the Arlberg'), with 7000 inhab., lies at the base of the Pfänder, at the E. end of the Lake of Constance (Ger. Bodensee). The Old, or Upper Town, of irregular quadrilateral shape, situated on a hill, occupies the site of the Roman Castrum, and formerly had two gates of which that to the S. has been removed. The handsome Church, with an ancient tower, is situated on another hill to the S. The Harbour Promenade affords a good survey of the town and lake. The Vorarlberg Museum (adm. daily 9-12 and 2-5; 25 kr.) contains natural history specimens, coins, and Roman antiquities. Pleasant walk along the Lindau road, to the (1 M.) Klause, which commands a charming view.

The Gebhardsberg (1965 ft.; ascent 3/4 hr.), on the summit of which are the scanty ruins of the castle of Hohen-Bregenz, a small church, and a restaurant, commands an extensive prospect, embracing the Lake of Constance, the valleys of the Bregenzer Ach and the Rhine, and the snow mountains of Appenzell and Glarus.

The Pfänder (3490 ft.), to the E. of Bregenz, commands a still more extensive view. The best path (1 1/2-2 hrs.) leads viâ the Berg Isel (shooting range) to Weissenreute, and then ascends to the right through wood viâ Hintermoos to the Hôtel-Pension Pfänder*, 5 min. below the summit.

From Bregenz to the Schröcken, 12-13 hrs., a very pleasant expedition through the Bregenzer Wald. Railway to Schwarzach in 1/4 hr. or to Dornbirn (see below) in 25 min., from both of which roads lead to the E. into the mountains viâ (1 1/2 hr.) Alberschwende (*Taube) to (2 1/2 hrs.) Schwarzenberg (2275 ft.; *Hirsch; Lamm), a summer-resort, charmingly situated at the foot of the Hochälple (4810 ft.; ascent of 2 1/2 hrs., easy and repaying). Thence the road leads viâ (2 1/4 hrs.) Mellau (2365 ft.; *Bär), with chalybeate springs, (1 1/4 hr.) Schnepfau, and (1 hr.) Au (Krone; Rössle), to (1 hr.) Schopernau (2730 ft.; *Krone), where it ends. A good bridle-path ascends hence, past the small sulphur-baths of Hopfreben, to (2 1/2 hrs.) the Schröcken (4135 ft.; Inn), a little village in a green basin, surrounded by mountains rising to a height of 7000-8000 ft., covered with forest and pasture at their bases and snow on their summits.

Mountain-paths lead in various directions from the Schröcken:

To Stuben on the Arlberg, 5 hrs. (guide unnecessary), a good bridle-path viâ the Auenfeld-Alp to (2 1/2 hrs.) Lech (4745 ft.; Krone), prettily situated in the upper Lechthal, whence a new road leads viâ Zürs and the Flexen-Sattel (5775 ft.) to (2 1/2 hrs.) Stuben (p. 142).

To Oberstdorf, 8 1/2 hrs. The path ascends to the N. viâ (1 1/2 hr.) Krumbach ob Holz (5620 ft.; Inn) to the (1 hr.) Gentschel-Joch (6480 ft.) at the foot of the Widderstein (8320 ft.; ascended in 1 1/2 hr. from the pass; attractive), and then descends through the Gentschel-Thal to (2 hrs.) Mittelberg (3980 ft.; Krone; Zum Widderstein), the principal place in the Kleine Walser-Thal. and viâ Hirschegg and Riezlern (Inn) to the Walser Schänzle (Inn, good wine) and (4 hrs.) Oberstdorf. See Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The railway skirts the Gebhardsberg (see above), crosses the Bregenzer Ach, and at (2 1/2 M.) Lautrach enters the broad valley of the Rhine. — 5 1/2 M. Schwarzach (1420 ft.; Hotel Bregenzerwald, Post) is a station for the Bregenzer Wald (see above).

7 1/2 M. Dornbirn (1435 ft.; Hôt. Weiss*, at the station; Hirsch; Dornbirner Hof*; Mohren), the largest market-town in the Vorarlberg, with 14,000 inhab., is a busy place upwards of 2 M. long, on the Dornbirner Ach. It consists of the four quarters of Markt, Ober- dorf (E.), Haselstauden (N.), and Hatlerdorf (S.; the last two are railway-stations). The S.W. horizon is bounded by the mountains of Appenzell, the Kamor and Hohe Kasten, the snow-clad Sentis, and the indented Curfirsten.

About 3 M. to the S.E. lies the Gätzle (1700 ft.), with a cotton-mill, a restaurant, and a fountain which plays to a height of 180 ft. About 1/2 M. farther up is the picturesque Rappenloch Gorge*, through which dashes the foaming Ach. The return may be made viâ the Zanzenberg (fine views; 1 1/2 hr. to Dornbirn).

12 1/2 M. Hohenems (1420 ft.; Post*), a well-to-do village (4970 inhab.), lies at the foot of precipitous rocks, commanded by the ruins of Alt- and Neu-Hohenems.

The flat alluvial plain of the Rhine is relieved at places by rocky and wooded knolls, the chief of which is the Kummenberg (2190 ft.), on the right. — Near (15 1/2 M.) Götzis (1400 ft.; Goldner Adler), with a modern Romanesque church, are two ruined castles of the former Counts of Montfort. The train crosses the Fruttbach to (20 1/2 M.) Rankweil (*Hecht; Zum Schützen), at the entrance to the Laternser-Thal.

The ascent of the Hohe Freschen (6580 ft.; 5-6 hrs., with guide) is a fine but somewhat toilsome excursion. About 1/2 hr. from the top is the Freschenhaus (Inn in summer). Magnificent panorama from the summit, embracing the Vorarlberg, Glarus, and Appenzell Alps, the Lake of Constance, etc.

22 1/2 M. Feldkirch (1510 ft.; Englischer Hof; Vorarlberger Hof*, at the station; Bär, with beer-garden; Löwe; Schäfle, well spoken of; Railway Restaurant), a thriving town (4000 inhab.), 1/2 M. from the station, is commanded by the ancient castle of Schattenburg. The Gothic Church, erected in 1487, possesses a *Descent from the Cross attributed to Holbein and a fine pulpit. Pleasure grounds have been laid out at the upper end of the town, near the Ill-Klamm; and adjacent are well-equipped public baths.

A fine view of the valley of the Rhine, from the Falknis to the Lake of Constance, and of the gorge of the Ill, is obtained from the Margarethenkapf* (1830 ft.), a hill 1/2 hr. to the W. of Feldkirch, on the left bank of the Ill, with the villa and grounds of the Tschavoll family. (Ascent to the right beyond the lower bridge over the Ill; adm. daily, except Frid., 7-11 and 3-7; free). — Similar views from the Veitskapf on the Ardetzenberg, on the opposite (N.) side of the gorge of the Ill (road ascending to the right on this side of the bridge).

From Feldkirch to Buchs, 11 M., railway in 3/4 hr. The line passes the stations of Nendeln and Schaan (Linde), and near Buchs crosses the Rhine (comp. Baedeker's Switzerland). — About 2 M. to the S. of Schaan is Vaduz, the capital of the small principality of Liechtenstein.

Above and below Feldkirch the Ill has forced a passage through the limestone rocks by means of the Upper and Lower Ill-Klamm. The train passes through a tunnel, enters the Upper Klamm, and crosses the Ill. Before (25 1/2 M.) Frastanz the valley, now called the Walgau, expands. To the right is the Samina-Thal, and farther on, at (30 M.) Nenzing, the Gamperton-Thal opens on the right, and the Grosse Walser-Thal on the left. The train crosses the Mänkbach and the Ill, and reaches (32 M.) Strassenhaus.

36 M. Bludenz (1905 ft.; Bludenzer Hof*, Scesaplana, Hôtel Arlberg, all three near the station; Eisernes Kreuz* and Post, in the town), a prettily situated little town of 4500 inhab., dominated by the château of Gayenhofen (now government offices). To the S. is the picturesque ravine of the Brandner-Thal, with the Scesaplana and the broad snowy saddle of the Brandner Glacier in the background.

The Hohe Frassen (6480 ft.; 3½-4 hrs.; guide, not indispensable, 4 fl.) affords an admirable view of the Vorarlberg and Rhætian Alps. About 1 hr. below the summit is a refuge-hut with refreshments.

To the Lüner See and the Scesaplana, a very interesting excursion (6-6½ hrs. to the lake; guide unnecessary). A narrow carriage-road crosses the Ill to Bürs and ascends the charming Brandner-Thal to (3 hrs.) Brand (3360 ft.; *Beck; *Kegele), prettily situated at the base of the Mottenkopf. Hence a footpath leads viâ the Schattenlagant-Alp to the (3-3½ hrs.) picturesque dark-green Lüner See (6475 ft.). On the W. side is the Douglass-Hütte (Inn in summer). — The ascent of the Scesaplana (9735 ft.; 4 hrs.; guide 3 fl.), the highest peak of the Rhætikon chain, is rather fatiguing, but not difficult for moderately experienced walkers. Splendid *View.

Above Bludenz the beautiful Montafon Valley, watered by the Ill, opens to the S.E. The chief place in the valley is (9 M.) Schruns (2260 ft.; Taube; *Löwe; Stern), a picturesquely situated village, frequented as a summer-resort, reached from Bludenz by diligence twice daily in 1½ hr. (70 kr.). Various excursions may be made hence: past the monastery of Gauenstein to the (1¼ hr.) top of the Bartholomäberg (fine view); through the Gauer-Thal to the (6 hrs.) Lüner See (see above); to the Sulzfluh (9200 ft.; 7 hrs.; with guide) viâ the Tilisuna-Hütte (Inn), etc. The Rhætikon chain, dividing the Montafon from the Prätigau in the Grisons, is traversed by several passes, all rarely used (Schlapina-Joch, St. Antönien-Joch, Drusen-Thor, Schweizer-Thor, etc.). — The road (rough at places) goes on above Schruns viâ (2 hrs.) St. Gallenkirch (*Adler; *Rössl) and (1¼ hr.) Guschurn (*Rössl; *Krone) to (¾ hr.) Patenen (3435 ft.; Essigwirth), the highest village. Attractive and not difficult passes lead hence over the Zeinisjoch (6075 ft.) in 4 hrs., and over the Bielerhöhe (6710 ft.), with the Madlenerhaus of the Ger. Alp. Club (Inn in summer), in 6½-7 hrs., to Galtür (5040 ft.; *Rössl), the highest village in the Patznaun-Thal, whence a carriage-road descends viâ (2½ hrs.) Ischgl (Post; Wälschwirth) and (2 hrs.) Kappl (*Löwe) to (3½ hrs.) Pians (p. 143).

The Arlberg Railway quits the Ill at the nunnery of St. Peter, enters the Kloster-Thal, watered by the Alfenz, and ascends along its N. side. A beautiful view up the valley is soon disclosed; on the left rises the Rogelskopf (7460 ft.). 40½ M. Bratz (2313 ft.). Viaducts, cuttings, and tunnels follow each other in rapid succession. 43½ M. Hintergasse; 46 M. Dalaas (3055 ft.; Paradies), 300 ft. above the village. The line now skirts the hillside at a considerable elevation, and crosses the picturesque Radona Gorge and two smaller torrents (in the valley to the right is Wald) to (49½ M.) Danöfen. We cross the Spreubach, traverse two snow-sheds, and cross the Wäldlitobel by a single-arched bridge (206 ft. high, 140 ft. wide) to (51 M.) Klösterle (3470 ft.; *Löwe), at the mouth of the narrow Nenzigast-Thal. The train now threads a tunnel, 550 yds. long, passing under the great landslip of 1892. — 52½ M. Langen (3990 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Post).

From Langen to St. Anton by the Arlberg (11½ M.), an interesting route for pedestrians. The Arlberg road leads viâ (2 M.) Stuben (4600 ft.; Sonne or Post) and ascends in windings to the (5 M.) Arlberg Pass (5910 ft.).

Beyond the pass (¼ M.) is the hospice of St. Christoph. The road descends, with fine views of the Fervall-Thal and the Stanzer-Thal, to (4½ M.) St. Anton (see below).

The train now crosses the Alfenzbach and plunges into the great Arlberg Tunnel. This tunnel, 6⅜ M. (or 10¼ kilomètres) long, 26 ft. wide, and 23 ft. bigh (3 M. shorter than the St. Gotthard Tunnel), cost 16 million florins (about 1,300,000*l.*). It ascends at a gradient of 15 : 100 to its highest point (4300 ft.; 1595 ft. below the Arlberg Pass), and descends thence at a gradient of 1 : 50 to St. Anton. The transit (very smoky) lasts 16-17 min., and the temperature is 59-64° Fahr. An obelisk, to the left of the E. end of the tunnel, bears a portrait in relief of Jul. Lott (d. 1883), the first chief engineer of the line.

59 M. St. Anton (4270 ft.; Post; Adler*, unpretending), the highest village in the Rosanna-Thal, which above St. Anton is called the Fervall-Thal, and below it the Stanzer-Thal. — The railway next crosses the Rosanna twice. Above, to the left, is the hamlet of St. Jacob. To the right is the Riffler (10,365 ft.), with its precipitous glacier. 62½ M. Pettneu. The railway now crosses to the right bank of the Rosanna. To the left is Schnan, at the mouth of the Schnaner Klamm, a gully of the Schnanerbach. We cross the Rosanna twice more. — 67 M. Flirsch (3795 ft.; Post) is pleasantly situated at the base of the Eisenspitze (9400 ft.). The valley contracts; the rapid and brawling Rosanna forms several waterfalls. 69½ M. Strengen (3355 ft.), 125 ft. above the village (Post; Traube), which lies to the left. Numerous tunnels and viaducts follow. Straight on opens a magnificent view down the valley as far as the Innthal; in the distance rises the pyramidal Tschirgant. An imposing Bridge*, 280 yds. long and 180 ft. high, crosses the Trisanna, which issues from the Patznaun-Thal and unites with the Rosanna to form the Sanna. 71½ M. Wiesberg, with the picturesque castle of the same name, commanding a fine view. The line is now conducted along the Maienwand, high above the Sanna, by a series of viaducts and cuttings.

76½ M. Landeck (2670 ft.; Rail. Restaurant*, R. 1 fl. 20 kr.). The little town *(Post; Goldner Adler), 1 M. to the W., lies on both banks of the Inn, commanded by the ancient Schloss Landeck. Road to Finstermünz, see R. 18. Picturesque walk (2 hrs. there and back) viâ Perjen to the Lötzer Klamm, a ravine with a fine waterfall.

The railway from Landeck to Innsbruck remains on the right bank of the Inn. 78 M. Zams, with a large nunnery of Sisters of Charity.

Passing the foot of the lofty rock crowned by the ruins of Kronbury and traversing a defile by means of rock-cuttings, the train reaches (82½ M.) Schönwies and (87 M.) Imst (2310 ft.; Rail. Restaurant), on ground reclaimed from the Inn. The little town (2715 ft.; Post; Lamm; Sonne*), 2 M. to the N., is pleasantly situated at the entrance to the Gurgler-Thal. To the E. rises the Tschirgant (7770 ft.).

A carriage-road (diligence twice daily in 1¾ hr.) traverses the shadeless Gurgler-Thal viâ Tarrenz to (9½ M.) Nassereit (2765 ft.; Post*), where the road from Telfs (16 M.; see p. 145) viâ Obsteig dehouches on the right. — FROM NASSEREIT TO REUTTE viâ the Fern Pass, 25 M., one of the finest passes between Tyrol and Bavaria (diligence twice daily in 5½ hrs.). Passing the château of Fernstein and the picturesque Fernstein Lake, with the ruins of Sigmundsburg, we ascend to the (1¾ hr.) Fern Pass (3970 ft.; rustic Inn), and thence descend past the Blind-See and Weiss-See (fine views of the Wetterstein range) to (6 M.) Lermoos (3245 ft.; Post; Drei Mohren), prettily situated in a green basin, whence a road leads to Partenkirchen viâ Griesen (see Baedeker's Eastern Alps). Our road leads viâ Heiterwang to (25 M.) Reutte (2795 ft.; Post; Hirsch; Adler*), a considerable village on the Lech. About ¾ hr. to the E. are the picturesque Stuiben Falls*, to the left of the road from Reutte to the (1½ hr.) Plansee and (6 hrs.) Partenkirchen. — To the Upper Lechthal, Hohenschwangau, etc., see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

A visit to the Pitzthal, a valley opening to the S. of Imst, is recommended, especially to less ambitious travellers who desire to obtain a glimpse at the Oetzthal glacier-region. A cart-track, beginning at the station, ascends to (½ hr.) Arzl, finely situated at the foot of the Burgstall (3440 ft.), and thence viâ (1¾ hr.) Wenns (3195 ft.; Ochs; Post; Adler) and (4½ hrs.) St. Leonhard (4580 ft.; Sonne; Post) to (2½ hrs.) Planggeros (5300 ft.; Inn) and (1¼ hr.) Mittelberg (5090 ft.; Kirschner's Inn), the last hamlet, beautifully situated in view of the huge Mittelberg Glacier*, the grand ice-fall of which extends 3 M. farther to the bottom of the valley. In the Taschach-Thal, 6 M. to the S.W., is the imposing Taschach Glacier. — Various passes lead from Mittelberg (guides: J. J. Ennemoser, Al., Franz, and Jos. Dobler, etc.). To Sölden viâ the Pitzthaler or Söldener Jöchl (9830 ft.; 7 hrs.; guide 5 fl.), laborious. The route to Vent viâ the Taufkar-Joch* (10,530 ft.; 8-9 hrs.; guide 8 fl.) is preferable; on the Karlesköpfe, 3 hrs. from Mittelberg, is the finely-situated Braunschweiger Hütte (9050 ft.; Inn in summer). — Viâ the Oelgruben-Joch (9885 ft.) to Gepatsch (7½ hrs.; guide 7 fl.), attractive and not difficult: viâ the beautiful Taschach Glacier to the (3 hrs.) Taschach-Hütte (7980 ft.), in a magnificent situation, and thence across the Sechsegerten Ferner to the top of the pass (view limited), whence we descend over debris and grassy slopes to the Gepatsch-Haus (p. 157). For details, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

Beyond Imst the train crosses the Pitzthaler Ache by a bridge, 130 ft. in height (to the left, the village of Karres, with its slender Gothic church-tower). The line is here carried along the sheer precipices on the right bank of the Inn. From (90 M.) Roppen (Klocker) a road runs over the hill to (1¾ hr.) Oetz (p. 145). A bridge, 130 yds. long and 65 ft. high, carries the line across the Oetzthaler Ache, affording a fine view of the Oetzthal with the Acherkogel, to the right, and of the Tschirgant and Weisse Wand, to the left.

92½ M. Oetzthal (2256 ft.; Sterzinger Hof, with carriages for hire) is the station for the Oetzthal.

The Oetzthal*, the longest lateral valley of the Inn, well watered and remarkable for the varied charms of its scenery, is broad and fertile in the lower part, contracts higher up to a succession of wild ravines, and in its highest region branches off in several arms towards the S., terminating in a vast expanse of snow and glacier. A diligence plies from Oetzthal station twice daily to Oetz (1¼ hr.; 40 kr.), to Umhausen (3¼ hrs.; 90 kr.), to (15 M.) Längenfeld (5½ hrs.; 1 fl. 40 kr.), and to (24½ M.) Sölden (9 hrs.), see below. — The road leads along the right bank of the Oetzthaler Ache to (3½ M.) Oetz (2690 ft.; *Kasslwirth, pens. 2½-3 fl.; Stern), a thriving village and summer-resort. At Habichen we cross the Ache, and ascend viâ (2¼ M.) Tumpen (*Acherkogl Inn) and (6 M.) Umhausen (3400 ft.; Krone). About 2 M. to the S.E. is the beautiful Stuiben Fall. — We now enter the wild defile of Maurach, and beyond a short ascent reach a broad green plateau in which lie the hamlets of Au and Dorf, and farther on (6½ M.) Längenfeld (3860 ft.; Hirsch*; Stern*), at the mouth of the Sulzthal, from which the rapid Fischbach issues (¼ M. from the Hirsch is the well-equipped Kurbad Längenfeld, with sulphureous springs). Above (2 M.) Huben the valley contracts. Crossing the Ache beyond the (3½ M.) Aschbach Inn, we reach (3½ M.) Sölden (4465 ft.; Grüner zum Alpenverein*; Unterwirth Gstrein*; Oberwirth Rimml*), charmingly situated. To Mittelberg viâ the Pitzthaler-Jöchl, see p. 144. — From Sölden we proceed by a rough cart-track through a grand rocky ravine of the Ache called the Kühlreien. At the (1 hr.) hamlet of Zwieselstein (4830 ft.; Unterwirth Prantl; Traube), at the foot of the Nöderkogel (10,385 ft.), the valley divides into the Gurgler-Thal, to the left, and the Venter-Thal, to the right.

The path into the VENTER-THAL crosses the Ache, and follows a stony slope on the left bank of the Venter Ache to (2 hrs.) Heilig-Kreuz (5375 ft.) and to (2 hrs. more) Vent (6250 ft.; Tappeiner; Inn at the Curé's), an Alpine hamlet at the foot of the Thalleitspitze (11,175 ft.), which divides the valley into two branches. The route viâ the Hochjoch (9465 ft.) to (8 hrs.) Unser Frau leads through the Rofen-Thal or W. arm; that viâ the Niederjoch (9990 ft.) to (7 hrs.) Unser Frau, through the Nieder-Thal or E. arm. From Unser Frau (4910 ft.; Adler) a bridle-path descends the pretty Schnalser-Thal to (1¼ hr.) Karthaus and (1 hr.) Neu-Ratteis (3085 ft.; Inn), whence a new road leads through a picturesque rocky gorge to (6 M.) Naturns, on the Vintschgau post-road (p. 159; diligence several times daily in 1½ hr. to Meran).

From Vent to Mittelberg viâ the Taufkar-Joch, see p. 144. — The route into the GURGLER-THAL, crossing the Gurgler Ache at Zwieselstein, ascends abruptly on the left bank, but (1 hr.) above the mouth of the Timmlbach (p. 157) returns to the right bank. We again cross the stream twice, pass the chalets of Pillberg and Königsrain, and reach (2 hrs.) Ober-Gurgl (6265 ft.; Scheiber's Inn*), the loftiest village in Tyrol, situated in the midst of imposing scenery. For excursions and ascents, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

Beyond Oetzthal Station the valley of the Inn expands. To the right, beyond (94 M.) Haiming, appears the imperial château of Petersberg. — 97½ M. Silz (2130 ft.; Railway Inn; Post, Löwe, in the village), with a handsome modern church; 98½ M. Mötz; 100 M. Stams. In the village, 1 M. to the S., is an extensive Cistercian convent, founded in 1271 by Elizabeth, mother of Conradin, the last of the Hohenstaufen. To the N. are the massive limestone crags of the Mieminger Mts. and the Hohe Munde (8730 ft.).

102 M. Rietz. — 105 M. Telfs (2045 ft.; Seiser, at the station; Post; Löwe; Traube; Schöpfer's), a village ¾ M. to the N. of the station, contains a large cotton-factory. From Telfs a picturesque road leads viâ Ober-Mieming (Post) and Obsteig to Nassereit (p. 144).

107½ M. Flaurling; 108½ M. Hatting; 110½ M. Inzing.

112 M. Zirl (Zur Martinswand, at the station). The village (2035 ft.; Löwe; Post) is picturesquely situated on the left bank of the Inn, 1 M. to the N., overlooked by the ruined castle of Fragenstein. The Calvarienberg commands a beautiful view; to the S. rise the jagged peaks of the Selrain, to the E. the Solstein (8330 ft.).

Below Zirl the Martinswand (3650 ft.), the legendary scene of a perilous adventure of Emp. Maximilian I. while hunting, in 1493, rises perpendicularly from the valley. The spot where the emperor was in danger is marked by a cross in a small cavern, now accessible to steady walkers by a safe and easy path (1¼ hr. from the station).

FROM ZIRL TO MITTENWALD, 17½ M., diligence daily in 4½ hrs., viâ Seefeld (3850 ft.; Post) and Scharnitz. See Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The line now skirts the Inn and crosses the Melach to (114 M.) Kematen, at the entrance to the Selrain-Thal. In a picturesque gorge, 1½ M. to the S.E., are the Kaiser Ferdinand Waterfalls. 116½ M. Völs, situated among orchards; 119½ M. Wilten (p. 134).

121 M. Innsbruck, see p. 130.

16. From Innsbruck to Botzen by the Brenner.

Comp. Maps, pp. 136, 144, 148.

83 M. RAILWAY in 4¼-6½ hrs. (fares 6 fl. 25, 4 fl. 65, 3 fl. 10 kr.; express 7 fl. 55, 5 fl. 55, 3 fl. 75 kr.). Best views to the right as far as the Eisak bridge below Sterzing; beyond it, generally to the left. View-carriages, see p. 119.

The Brenner (4490 ft.), the lowest pass over the main chain of the Alps, is traversed by the oldest of the Alpine routes, once used by the Romans, and rendered practicable for carriages in 1772. The railway, opened in 1867, one of the grandest works of the kind (22 tunnels; 60 large, and many smaller bridges), is the shortest route between Central Germany and Italy. The steepest gradient, 1:40, occurs between Innsbruck and the summit; and thence to Sterzing the gradient is 1:44. The most interesting parts of the line are between Innsbruck and Gossensass, whence Hochwieden should be visited (p. 148).

Innsbruck (1880 ft.), see p. 130. The train passes the abbey of Wilten (right), traverses a tunnel 750 yds. long under Berg Isel, and then the Sonnenburg Tunnel (270 yds.), and crosses the Sill by a stone bridge, 78 ft. in height. Further on it runs through the narrow Wippthal, high above the brawling river. On the left bank is the Brenner road, which a little farther on crosses the bold Stefans-Brücke over the Rutzbach, issuing from the Stubai-Thal; to the S. rises the finely-shaped Waldraster-Spitze (8920 ft.). Two more tunnels follow before (4½ M.) Unterberg; and beyond three others we reach (6 M.) Patsch (2570 ft.), the station for the Stubai-Thal.

The Stubai-Thal stretches for about 20 M. to the S.W., in the direction of the central Oetztbal mountains. Diligence from Innsbruck viâ Schönberg to Fulpmes daily in 4¼ hrs. (1 fl. 20 kr.). — Ober-Schönberg (3325 ft.; *Hôt.-Pens. Jagerhof; Domanig's Inn) may be reached in ¾ hr. from the stations of Patsch or Unterberg, or (better) in 2½ hrs. from Innsbruck by the Brenner road. The Wilting-Warte at this village commands a beautiful survey of the valley, with the glaciers in the background. A road leads hence viâ (¾ hr.) Mieders (*Hôt.-Pens. Lerchenhof; Post) and (1 hr.) Fulpmes (*Pfurtscheller; *Lutz) to (1½ hr.) Neustift (3255 ft.; *Salzburger; Hofer), where the valley forks into the Oberberg, on the right, and the Unterberg, on the left. A pleasant excursion may be made up the Oberberg to the (1 hrs.) Franz-Senn-Hütte of the German Alpine Club (7120 ft.), finely situated near the foot of the great Alpeiner Glacier. — About 3 hrs. above Neustift, in the Unterberg or main valley, lies the hamlet of Ranalt (4130 ft.; Inn), 3 hrs. from which, in the Langenthal, is the Nürnberger Hütte of the German Alpine Club (7535 ft.; Inn in summer; ascents and passes thence, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps). An attractive expedition from Ranalt leads viâ the Mutterberger Alp to the (3½ hrs.) Dresdner Hütte in the Obere Fernau (7570 ft.; Inn in summer), and over the Bildstöckl-Joch (10,290 ft.) to (7 hrs.) Sölden (p. 145; guide from Neustift, 9 fl.). The top of the pass commands a fine view of the Stubai and Oetzthal Alps.

Three more tunnels, including the Mühlbach Tunnel (960 yds.), the longest on the line. Near Matrei the line penetrates the Matreier Schlossberg. On the right, close to the railway, flows the Sill in its artificial rocky channel. The train crosses the Sill to (12½ M.) Matrei (3240 ft.; Stern; Krone*), a beautifully situated village, with the château of Trautson, the property of Prince Auersperg. On the small Tebener See, 1 M. to the N.E., is the Pension Kraft.* — The railway and the road follow the valley of the Sill, which is again crossed. — 15½ M. Steinach (3430 ft.). The village (Steinacherhof; Post; Steinbock; Wilder Mann*, moderate), much visited as a summer-resort, lies on the left bank of the Sill, at the mouth of the Gschnitzthal.

The line now begins to ascend rapidly on the E. side of the valley and then, near the village of Stafflach (3610 ft.; Lamm), enters the Schmirner-Thal. (Above us, on the other side of the valley, is seen the mouth of a tunnel through which we afterwards pass.) To the right opens the Valser-That, with the village and station of St. Jodok (Post), charmingly situated at its entrance (over the Tuxer-Joch to the Zillerthal, see p. 137). The line crosses the Schmirner Bach, penetrates the hill between Schmirn and Vals by means of a curved tunnel, and crosses the Valser Bach (view of the Tux glaciers to the left). The train next ascends the S. slope of the valley (to the right, 225 ft. below, lies the route already traversed), regains the Sillthal through another curved tunnel, and runs towards the S., high on the slope of the Padauner-Kogel. — 22 M. Gries (4115 ft.). The village (3810 ft.; Aigner*, Rose*), a summer-resort, lies below on the road, at the mouth of the pretty Obernberg-That.

The line describes a long curve, high above the Sillthal, passing the small green Brenner-See (4300 ft.) and crossing the Vennabach. The Sill is now crossed for the last time, and we reach the station of (25 M.) Brenner (4490 ft.; Buffet), in a valley devoid of view, forming the watershed between the Black Sea and the Adriatic. At the railway-station is a memorial to K. von Etzel (d. 1867), builder of the Brenner Railway. On the road opposite is the Brenner Post Hotel*, frequented in summer.

The Eisak descends in several falls to the right of the station. — 27½ M. Brennerbad (4390 ft.; Sterzinger Hof*), with indifferent thermal springs (68° Fahr.). The line then descends rapidly by means of a long embankment and two tunnels to (30½ M.) Schelleberg (4070 ft.). One of the most curious parts of the line is between this point and Gossensass, which lies 580 ft. below Schelleberg. The line turns suddenly to the right into the Pflerschthal, which opens here, gradually descends on its N. slope, enters the hillside by the curved Aster Tunnel, 840 yds. long, and emerges lower down, but in an opposite direction. A fine view of the Pflerschthal glaciers, with the Feuerstein, Schneespitze, etc., is obtained to the right on emerging from the tunnel. — 36 M. Gossensass (3610 ft.; Gröbner; *Wielandhof; Aukenthaler), a favourite summer-resort, lies at the foot of the Hühnerspiel (9025 ft.), which is frequently ascended for the sake of the view (4½ hrs.; good path, no guide required). An exquisite view of the Pflerschthal is obtained from (½ hr.) Hochwieden* (4590 ft.; Restaurant). Swimming-bath near the station.

The railway crosses the Eisak at the influx of the Pflerschbach, follows the old bed of the river for some distance, and then leads high up on the left side of the narrow wooded valley. We now enter the broad basin of — 40 M. Sterzing (3110 ft.; Stoetter's Hotel*, at the station, with baths; Rose; Alte Post; Krone; Neue Post; Schwarzer Adler). The clean little town (1400 inhab.), with its picturesque old buildings, arcades, balconies, and turrets, lies ½ M. from the station, on the right bank of the Eisak, which is confined between strong embankments. The town owes its prosperous appearance to the mines formerly worked here.

The Rosskopf (7190 ft.; fine view) may be ascended from Sterzing or from Gossensass in 3½ hrs. (marked paths; guide unnecessary). About ¾ hr. from the top is the Rosskopf-Hütte (rfmts.). — Over the Penser Joch to Botzen, see p. 151; over the Pfitscher Joch to the Zillerthal, see p. 138; over the Jaufen to Meran, see p. 157.

A good road (omn. thrice daily to Mareith in 1¼ hr.; 60 kr.) leads through the Ridnaun-Thal, which opens here to the W., viâ (2¼ M.) Wiedner's Hotel (in the vicinity, the Gilfenklamm* or Marmorklamm; ½ hr.) and (2¼ M.) Mareith to (1½ hr.) Ridnaun (4430 ft.; *Steinbock; *Sonklarhof). A very interesting excursion may be taken hence to the Uebelthal Glacier, with guide (to the Grohmann-Hütte 2½, Teplitzer Hütte 3, Becherhaus 6 fl.). We proceed viâ (¾ hr.) Mayrn to the (3½ hrs.) Grohmann-Hütte (7275 ft.), splendidly situated opposite the end of the grand Uebelthal Glacier*. About 1 hr. farther up is the Teplitzer Hütte (8695 ft.), with a magnificent view. On the Becher (10,470 ft.), 3½-4 hrs. from the Teplitzer Hütte, is the Kaiserin Elisabeth Schutzhaus (Inn in summer), the starting-point for a number of grand mountain-ascents (Wilde Freiger, Sonklarspitze, Zuckerhütl, etc.) and passes; see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The train crosses the Pfitscher Bach and runs between river and rock, close under the castle of Sprechenstein. On the opposite bank rise the castles of Thumburg and Reifenstein, at the mouth of the Ridnaun-Thal (see above), at the head of which rise the lofty snow-clad Botzer, Sonklarspitze, and Freiger. The line traverses the marshy Sterzinger Moos by a long embankment and reaches (42½ M.) Freienfeld. On the left lies the château of Wolfsberg. 45 M. Mauls; 47½ M. Grasstein. The train now enters a narrow defile, in which lies (50 M.) Mittewald, where Marshal Lefebvre was defeated by the Tyrolese under Haspinger and Speckbacher in 1809. At Oberau 550 of Lefebvre's Saxon troops were taken prisoners, and the pass is still called the Sachsen-Klemme.

The mouth of the defile, called the Brixener Klause, near Unterau (2510 ft.), was strongly fortified in 1833-38. The works (Franzens- feste), which are very conspicuous when seen from the S., command the Brenner route and the entrance to the Pusterthal. 52½ M. Franzensfeste Station (2450 ft.; Rail. Restaurant*) lies upwards of 1 M. to the N. of the fortress. Pusterthal Railway, see R. 22.

To the left in the valley below, beyond the hill, is the Augustine monastery of Neustift, founded in 1142. To the right, near (57½ M.) Vahrn (*Pens. Villa Mayr; Waldsacker), opens the Schalderer-Thal, in which lies the (3 M.) unpretending Bad Schalders. The vegetation assumes a more southern character, and vineyards and chestnuts begin to appear.

59½ M. Brixen (1860 ft.; Rail. Restaurant, with rooms; Elephant*, at the upper end of the town, ½ M. from the station; Stern; Sonne; Kreuz; Adler; Dr. von Guggenberg's Hydropathic, pens. 25-35 fl. per week), for nine centuries the capital of a spiritual principality, which was suppressed in 1803, and now an episcopal see, still exhibits traces of its ecclesiastical period. Pop. 5530. The 15th cent. Cathedral, with its two copper-roofed towers, was rebuilt in 1754. To the right of the portal is the entrance to the Cloisters, containing old mural paintings and tombstones. At the S.W. end of the town is the Episcopal Palace, with an extensive garden.

The Eisak is again crossed. To the left, at the entrance to the Aferser Thal, stands the church of (61 M.) Albeins. At (64 M.) Villnös (1770 ft.) opens the Villnös-Thal, with the jagged Geislerspitzen (9930 ft.) in the background.

65 M. Klausen (1715 ft.; Lamm; Krone; Alte Post; Traube), consisting of a single narrow street, and lying in a defile, as its name imports, has always been regarded as an important military point. The Benedictine nunnery of Säben (2350 ft.), crowning the cliffs on the right, was a baronial castle until 1685. A painted crucifix on the tower projecting to the N. was placed there in memory of a nun who was pursued by the French in 1809 and threw herself from the battlements.

99 M. Waidbruck (1545 ft.; Sonne; Krone; Lamm*) lies at the mouth of the Grödener-Thal. To the left, high above it, rises the Trostburg (2040 ft.), the property of Count Wolkenstein.

The Grödener-Thal is a narrow valley, 18 M. in length, watered by the Grödener Bach, and enclosed by massive dolomites. The local dialect is 'Ladin' (p. 171), but German is commonly understood. A diligence plies thrice daily in 3¼ hrs. from Waidbruck to (7 M.) St. Ulrich (4055 ft.; *Rössl; *Adler), the chief village in the valley, with extensive depots of wood-carvings. — To the E. rise the Langkofel and Sella. A road leads hence viâ St. Christina (Inn) to (2 hrs.) St. Maria or Wolkenstein (5128 ft., Hirsch), the last village. Thence over the Grödener-Jöchl to Enneberg (to Corvara 4 hrs.), see p. 171. — To Fassa over the Sella-Joch (to Campitello 4 hrs.), attractive. The bridle-path ascends to the right at (½ hr.) Plon, the last farm, to the (2 hrs.) Sella-Joch (7215 ft.; Valentini's Inn), between the Sella and Langkofel, which commands an admirable view of the Langkofel, Marmolada, etc. Descent to (1½ hr.) Campitello (p. 164).

The train crosses the Grödener Bach, and then the Eisak, in a grand defile of porphyry rock. From (71½ M.) Atzwang (1220 ft.; Post), at the mouth of the Finsterbach (p. 151), a steep bridle-path ascends to the right to (2½ hrs.) Klobenstein on the Ritten (p. 151).

A pleasant excursion may be made to the Seiser Alp (5500 ft.), the largest pasture in Tyrol. A bridle-path leads from Atzwang viâ (2 hrs.) St. Constantin to (1 hr.) Seis (3285 ft.; *Seiserhof; Unterer Wirth); while a carriage-road runs from Waidbruck past the Trostburg to (2 hrs.) Kastelruth (3590 ft.; Lamm; Rössl), a frequented summer-resort in an open and picturesque situation, and thence viâ (¾ hr.) Seis to (1 hr.) Bad Ratzes (3950 ft.; *Inn), in a wild and wooded ravine at the foot of the Schlern, with a spring containing iron and sulphur. From this point a cart-track ascends in 1½ hr. to the alp, a lofty and undulating grassy plateau, 12 M. long and 8-9 M. broad, sprinkled with about 70 chalets and over 300 hay-sheds. Guide desirable, especially before the hay-harvest. The alp commands a fine view of the Schlern, Rosszähne, Rosengarten, Langkofel, and Plattkofel; still more extensive from the Puflatsch (7140 ft.) the N. projection on the edge of the Grödener-Thal. — On the S.W. rises the huge dolomite mass of the Schlern (8402 ft.), the interesting ascent of which may be made in 3½ hrs. from Bad Ratzes, viâ the 'Touristen-Steig' to the Schlern-Haus (8050 ft.; *Inn in summer, 20 min. below the rocky summit). Magnificent panorama; immediately to the E. are the Rosengarten and other Fassa dolomites.

Again crossing the Eisak, passing through several tunnels, and crossing the Schlernbach at stat. Steg (to the left, high up, the château of Prössels; in the background the Schlern), we next reach (78 M.) Blumau (1020 ft.; Tierser Hof), at the mouth of the Tierser-Thal. On the right bank, beyond the next tunnel, begin the vine-clad slopes of the Botzener Leite (p. 152). 81 M. Kardaun, at the mouth of the Eggen-Thal (p. 152; to the left, the castle of Karneid). The train now crosses the Eisak, and enters the broad and luxuriant basin of Botzen (Botzener Boden), which resembles a vast vineyard.

83 M. Botzen. — Hotels. *Hôtel Victoria, at the station; *Kaiserkrone, Muster-Platz; *Hôtel Bristol, Weintraubengasse; *Greif, *Hôtel de l'Europe, Walther von der Vogelweide, Johann-Platz; *Hôt. Tirol, Obstplatz; Mondschein, Bindergasse; Erzherzog Heinrich, Riesen, Dominikanergasse; *Stiegl, at the Zollstange, ¼ M. to the N. of the station, moderate.

Botzen (880 ft.), a town with 12,000 inhab., was the chief depot of the traffic between Venice and the North in the middle ages, and is now the busiest commercial town in Tyrol. It is charmingly situated at the confluence of the Talfer, which descends from the Sarnthal on the N., and the Eisak, which falls into the Adige 3 M. below the town. The E. background, beyond the Eisak-Thal, is formed by the picturesque and fantastic dolomite peaks of the Schlern and the Rosengarten, while to the W. the view is bounded by the long ridge of the Mendel, stretching from Mte. Roën to the Gantkofel and rising above the castled hills of Ueberetsch. Fine view of the environs from the Talfer bridge. In summer, when the heat in the basin of Botzen is very oppressive, the Wassermauer on the Talfer affords a cool walk after sunset.

The Bahnhof-Strasse leads through the attractive Public Park to the Johann-Platz, in which in 1889 a monument was erected to the poet Walther von der Vogelweide (probably born about 1160 at the Vogelweidhof at Lajen, near Waidbruck), by H. Natter (d. 1892). The Gothic Parish Church*, of the 14-15th cent., has a W portal with two lions of red marble, in the Lombard style, and an elegant open tower (205 ft.), completed in 1519. The altar-piece (Assumption) is by Lazzarini, a pupil of Titian. — The Museum in the Spitalgasse (open daily 9-12, 3-5, Sun. 9-12; 60 kr.) contains a miscellaneous collection of curiosities, natural history objects, Tyrolese costumes, etc.; among the pictures, an original portrait of Andreas Hofer by Altmutter. — The Franciscan Monastery possesses a finely carved old German altar (in a chapel to the N. of the choir). — Horticulturists should visit the gardens of Dr. Streiter, on the Ober-Botzener Berg, of the late artist Moser in the Raingasse (now belonging to the Kaiserkrone), and of Count Sarnthein, Franziscanergasse.

The Calvarienberg (950 ft.) commands a fine view of the town and its W. environs (25 min.; turn to the left from the highroad by the Botzener Hof beyond the Eisak bridge, cross the railway, and ascend to the right). A more extensive view is obtained from the Virglwarte* of the German Alpine Club (1770 ft.), 20 min. farther up, to which also a direct path, diverging to the left from the Eisak bridge, ascends in ½ hr.

Gries (Hôt.-Pens. Austria*, Sonnenhof*, Bellevue*, Grieser Hof*, all first-class, with gardens; Badl*, beyond the Talfer bridge, with baths; Hôt. Brückl*, on the Heinrich-Promenade; Kreuz*; Pens. Trafoier*, etc.), a village on the right bank of the Talfer, lies ¾ M. to the W. of Botzen, in a sheltered situation at the base of the Guntschnaberg, and is frequented in winter by persons with delicate chests. The Curhaus contains a café-restaurant, reading-room, etc. (music from 3½ to 5½ p.m.). The Erzherzog Heinrich Promenade*, which gradually ascends the Guntschnaberg, affords a delightful walk. At its foot is a marble bust of the late Archduke Heinrich.

Excursions. A pleasant walk may be taken into the Sarnthal along the left bank of the Talfer, past the spinning-mill of St. Anton. The road passes below (1½ M.) Runkelstein* (1350 ft.), a castle built in 1237, restored in 1884-88, and presented to Botzen in 1893 by the Emperor of Austria. It contains curious mediæval frescoes. Farther on we pass the castles of Ried, Rafenstein, and Langegg, and enter the Mackner Kessel, a wild rocky chaos at the foot of the perpendicular Johannskofel. Then passing the Mayr Inn we reach (about 7½ M. from Botzen) the Inn zur Post Halbwegs*, beyond which the scenery loses in interest, and (6 M.) Sarnthein (3170 ft.; Schweizer*; Post*), the chief place in the valley, pleasantly and healthily situated, and much visited in summer. — At Astfeld, 3 M. higher up, the valley forks, the left branch leading to (3½ hrs.) Pens (Inn). From Pens to (7 hrs.) Sterzing (p. 148), over the Penser Joch (7250 ft.), uninteresting (guide 3 fl.).

The Ritten, an extensive plateau to the N.E. of Botzen, between the Talfer and the Eisak, is a favourite summer-resort. A bridle-path leads from St. Anton (see above) past the church of St. Peter to (3 hrs.) Oberbotzen (3915 ft.); inn at Maria-Schnee, ¼ hr. farther on. Thence a pretty route proceeds viâ Wolfsgruben to (2 hrs.) Klobenstein (3770 ft.; Mayr's Inn*, pens. 2½-3 fl.), which commands a beautiful view of the Schlern, Rosengarten, etc. About ½ hr. farther on, beyond Lengmoos, in the valley of the Finsterbach, are the curious Earth Pyramids*, worn into their present shapes by the action of rain-water and preserved from farther destruction by stones or trees on their summits. — The Rittnerhorn* (7420 ft.; guide unnecessary; horse 4 fl.), ascended viâ Pemmern in 3½-4 hrs., is an admirable point of view; on the top is the Rittnerhorn-Haus (Inn in summer). — The direct route from Klobenstein to (3 hrs.) Botzen is by a rough road (not recommended for driving) viâ Unterinn and Kleinstein, and down the Botzener Leite, with its vineyards, to join the main valley road at Rentsch.

Eggenthal. (Omnibus from Botzen to Vigo di Fassa, 26 M., daily in summer in 11 hrs.; to the Karersee Hotel, 20 M., several times daily in summer in 6½ hrs., returning in 4 hrs.; 3 fl., there and back 5 fl.). We follow the Brixen road to Rentsch, and cross the Eisak and the railway to (2½ M.) Kardaun. Here we turn to the right through a gateway (toll 2 kr.) and enter the narrow ravine of the Karneidbach, below the picturesque castle of Karneid. 1½ M. farther on, the road passes through a short tunnel, immediately beyond a bridge under which the Karneidbach forms a picturesque fall. Two other short tunnels are traversed farther on. The valley now becomes comparatively uninteresting until we approach (7 M.; 12 M. from Botzen) Birchabruck (2895 ft.; Post; Lamm), which commands a fine view of the Latemar, Rosengarten, and Rothwand. Thence the road ascends to the left to (15 M.) Welschnofen (3865 ft.; Rössl; Krone*), beyond which it enters the wood and mounts in wide curves, passing the picturesque Karersee*, to the (20 M.) Karersee Hotel* (5580 ft.), a large establishment finely situated among woods, with splendid views of the Rothwand, Latemar, and other dolomites. About 1½ M. farther on is the top of the Karersee Pass (5765 ft.; Rosengarten-Hof*), between the Rothwand (left) and Latemar (right), whence the road descends to the left to (4½ M.) Vigo in the Val di Fassa (p. 164).

Ueberetsch. Kaltern. Railway from Botzen to Kaltern, 12 M., in 1¼ hr. The line crosses the Adige to (3 M.) Ueberetsch (on a hill to the left rises the conspicuous castle of Sigmundskron, built in 1473 and now used as a powder-magazine), and ascends to the right, passing the ruins of Wart and Altenberg, to (7 M.) St. Pauls (1285 ft.; Adler), a large village below the beautifully-situated ruin of Hoch-Eppan. The railway then leads to the S. across a lofty and fertile plain to (8½ M.) Eppan-Girlan (1345 ft.; Hôtel Hocheppan), ¼ M. to the N. of Eppan or St. Michael (1345 ft.; *Eppaner Hof; *Sonne; Rössl), a well-built and thriving village, and viâ (10½ M.) Montiggl to (12 M.) Kaltern (1390 ft.; Rössl*), the capital of Ueberetsch, noted for its wine. ('Seewein' is the best). — To the Trent railway from Kaltern there are two roads: one on the E. bank of the Kalterer See viâ Gmund to (2½ hrs.) stat. Auer (p. 164); the other on the W. side of the lake viâ Tramin, noted for its wine, to (2¾ hrs.) stat. Neumarkt (p. 164).

From Botzen to Fondo over the Mendel Pass, 23½ M., omnibus three times daily in summer there and back (starting twice from the Hôtel Greif, once from the Hôt. Europa; return-tickets from Botzen to Mendel 3½, to Fondo 4¼ fl.). The *Mendel Excursions form a most enjoyable and convenient expedition for a day from Botzen. The fine new road ascends from St. Michael (see above) in a wide curve to the (1¼ hr.) Matschacher Hof (2730 ft.; rfmts.), and climbs, still in a serpentine course, with a magnificent view of the valley of the Adige and the Dolomites, to the (1¾ hr.) Mendel Pass (4475 ft.), ¼ M. beyond which are the Hôtel Penegal* and the Mendelhof Hotel*, charmingly situated. The road descends past the (20 min.) *Aquila Inn and Malosco to (2 hrs.) Fondo (3240 ft.; Post). — The part from the Mendel to Fondo is uninteresting; those who wish to give one day only to the excursion are recommended to drive only as far as the Mendel, ascend the Penegal (5685 ft.; 1¼ hr.; Inn and beautiful view), and return to Botzen by the afternoon omnibus. — A new road (1898) leads from the Mendel Pass viâ Malè and Dimaro to (55 M.) Madonna di Campiglio (diligence daily in summer in 9 hrs., fare 5 fl.; carr. and pair from Botzen in 14 hrs., 42 fl. and fee).

17. From Botzen to Meran.

Comp. Map, p. 144.

20 M. Railway in 1-2 hrs. (fares 1 fl. 64, 98 kr., no second class).

The train crosses the Talfer and at (3½ M.) Sigmundskron (castle, see p. 152) enters the valley of the Adige. We traverse embankments viâ Siebeneich (to the right, on a precipitous rock, the ruined Greifenstein) to (7½ M.) Terlan (Hôtel-Pens. Steindlhof*, pens. 2½-3 fl.; Oberhauser; Dr. Bederlunger*, R. 50 kr.), famous for its wine, with a Gothic church of the 16th century. To the right, on a low rocky hill above Siebeneich, lies the ruin of Neuhaus or Maultasch, a castle which once commanded the valley. Beyond (10 M.) Vilpian (Rail. Restaurant) begins the new artificial channel of the Adige. To the left we observe the large village of Nals and the hills of Tisens, overtopped by the wooded summit of the Gall (5350 ft.); more in the background, the Laugenspitze (p. 156). The Meran hills appear shortly after (15 M.) Lana. To the left is Oberlana, with the ruined castle of Braunsberg. — 18¾ M. Untermais, at the foot of the Marlinger Berg; to the left is the château of Lebenberg (p. 156). The train crosses the Passer and enters the station of (20 M.) Meran. Omnibuses at the station; cab to the town 60 kr., with two horses 1 fl., to Obermais 1-2 fl.

Marchetti's*, Laubengasse. Beer: Curhaus; Raffl; Forsterbräu (see above), with a garden, etc. — Curhaus (closed in summer), in the Gisela Promenade. — Hydropathic establishments: Hygiea (Dr. J. English Church Service in the Church of the Resurrection.

Meran (1000 ft.), with 7176 inhab., the ancient capital of Tyrol, occupies a sheltered situation at the base of the vine-clad Küchelberg, on the right bank of the Passer, ½ M. above its confluence with the Adige, and is much frequented in winter by persons with pulmonary complaints on account of its mild and equable climate. There are also a whey-cure in spring and a grape-cure in autumn. On the opposite bank of the Passer lie the villages of Untermais and Obermais (the latter higher and cooler), with numerous villas, old castles, and vineyards. The business-quarter of Meran is a long street intersecting the town from E. to W., flanked with arcades ('Unter den Lauben'). In this street, in the court of the 'Magistrats-

Gebäude', is situated the Burg, once the residence of the Counts of Tyrol, dating from the 15th cent.; it has been skilfully restored and deserves a visit (adm. 30 kr.). — The Gothic Church (14-15th cent.) contains a good painting by Knoller (d. 1804), representing the Assumption.

The Gisela Promenade (smoking prohibited), with its fine old poplars, the chief rallying-point of visitors, lies on the broad embankment on the right bank of the Passer. Adjoining it is the handsome Curhaus (see p. 153) in front of which a band plays in winter, and farther on is the Stefanie Promenade, with the new Protestant Church. Above the Spital-Brücke are tasteful pleasure-grounds on both banks of the river, united by means of the Tappeiner Steg. On the right bank are the Untere and the Obere Winter-Anlage, in the former of which is a new covered walk (band in the morning; smoking forbidden). On the left bank are the Untere and Obere Sommer-Anlage, or 'Maria-Valerie-Garten', where the band plays in the evening in spring and autumn. These grounds extend along both banks, beyond the Steinerne Stey, to the Elisabeth-Garten at Obermais, on the left bank, which contains a large covered promenade and a café-pavilion (band twice weekly), and to the Gilf-Anlage*, with its luxuriant vegetation and the Café Gilf, on the right bank. The platform at the upper end of the latter affords a charming glimpse of the gorge of the Passer, at the foot of the Zenoburg. Easy walks lead uphill, crossing the Passeier road, to the Hôtel and Café Ortenstein (fine view). — Another pleasant promenade may be taken along the Tappeiner Weg, which gradually ascends from the Burg (p. 154) along the S. slope of the Küchelberg. On this path is a marble bust of Dr. Tappeiner, by J. Steiner.

Pleasant walk from Obermais towards the E., past Schloss Rubein with its cypress-avenue, and across the Naif (two cafés by the bridge) to the (20 min.) church of St. Valentin, which commands a charming view; then back by Schloss Rametz, or to the S. by Schloss Trautmannsdorf (*Restaurant at the foot), with a park and a terrace at the back, which is another fine point of view. — The most interesting of the numerous old châteaux near Obermais are the ivy-clad Schloss Planta and Schloss Rottenstein, the latter belonging to the Archduke Franz Ferdinand (garden generally open to the public). The garden of the Villa Schillerhof (visitors admitted) contains a bust of Schiller, by Zumbusch.

Excursion to Schloss Tirol (there and back 3-3½ hrs.). The easiest and pleasantest route is by the Tappeiner Weg (see above), which commences at the back of the Magistrats-Gebäude in the Laubengasse; on the top of the Segenbüchel the 'Tiroler Steig' diverges to the left and joins the road (see below). — The road leads through the N.E. town-gate (Passeirer Thor), past the Zenoburg, with its curious Romanesque portal, and then ascends the Küchelberg to the left to (55 min.) Dorf Tirol (1960 ft.; Zum Rimmele, with a terrace affording a beautiful view; Zum Andreas Hofer). We next (¼ hr.) pass through the 'Knappenloch', a tunnel 100 paces long (passing the picturesque ruin of the Brunnenburg and several clay pyramids in the ravine to the left), and in a few minutes more reach the entrance to the castle. — Another and longer route (1¾ hr.), rough at places, but level for the first ½ hr., passes through the N.W. town-gate (Vintschgauer Thor), diverges from the highroad to the right opposite the Capuchin convent, and ascends by the village of Gratsch (wine at the *Wessobrunn Tavern), the old château of Dürnstein, and the church of St. Peter, to the castle. This route is recommended for the descent (1¼ hr.; fine view of Schloss Tirol).

Schloss Tirol (2095 ft.), situated on the N.W. side of the Küchelberg, was the earliest residence of the Counts of Tyrol. It is now in a dilapidated condition. The only ancient parts of the building are a porch and the two interesting marble portals (12th cent.) of the Rittersaal and the chapel, the latter, with a representation of the Fall of Man, being particularly rich. Magnificent *View from the windows of the Kaisersaal, best by evening-light, embracing the valley of the Adige to a distance of 20 M., bounded on the left by a chain of porphyry mountains extending to Botzen, and on the right by the cliffs of the Mendel and the Ultenthal Mts.; to the W. stretches the luxuriant valley of Meran, with the falls of the Adige (which descends 600 ft. from the Töll to Meran); in the background, the Laaser Ferner (fee 20-30 kr.).

The château of Lebenberg (1740 ft.; now a pension, 3 fl. per day; rfmts.), charmingly situated in the midst of rich vegetation 5 M. to the S. of Meran, is still in excellent preservation, and some of the rooms are adorned with paintings illustrative of its history. Shortest route by the 'Marlinger Steig', which crosses the fields to the (1 M.) Marlinger-Brücke, above the station of Untermais (p. 153). Beyond the latter we follow the road to the left to the (1½ M.) bridge over the Lebenberger Graben, ascend on the other side to the right to Basling, and then by the road to the (40 min.) castle. The short-cuts through the vineyards are barred in autumn, but a payment of 5 kr. to the mediævally-attired watchers ('Saltner') will generally secure permission to pass. — In returning we may choose the charming route along the hillside by St. Anton and Marling.

Among the numerous old castles visible from Meran that of Schönna (1925 ft.), at the entrance to the Passeier, built in the 12th cent. and containing a collection of old weapons and other curiosities, is one of the most interesting and picturesque. A carriage-road leads from Obermais viâ (1 hr.) Dorf Schönna (*Prunner; Schlosswirth). The Gothic *Chapel, immediately beyond the inn, contains the tomb of Archduke John (d. 1859) and commands as fine a *View as the castle itself (fee to the steward).

The Vintschgau road (p. 159) leads from Meran to the W. and crosses the Adige to the château of Forst, recently restored, beyond which is the (¾ hr.) Forster Brewery. The small château of Josefsberg lies ¼ hr. higher up (pension). The road ascends to the (1 M.) saddle of the Töll (1660 ft.; Inn), with the electric works for Meran and Botzen, whence a carriage-road to the left leads viâ the Quadrat-Höfe to the (2½ hrs.) Höt.-Pens. Eggerhof* (4210 ft.; fine views), and another path to the right ascends to the (1½ hr.) Partschins Waterfall* in the Zielthal. From the Töll we may return to Meran by the picturesque Old Road, or along the Plars Aqueduct to (1 hr.) Algund and (¾ hr.) Meran.

Ascents from Meran (Vigiljoch, Rothsteinkogel, Gfallwand), see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

From Meran to the Baths of Rabbi (p. 165) through the Ulten-Thal and over the Kirchberger Joch (8130 ft.), 15 hrs., not very attractive on the whole. About 5 hrs. from Meran lies the Ultner Mitterbad (3190 ft.), with a good bath-house, whence the Laugenspitze (7980 ft.; club-hut near the top), a famous point of view, may be ascended in 4½-5 hrs.

The Passeier, the valley watered by the impetuous Passer, is intimately associated with the memory of Andreas Hofer, the Tyrolese patriot (b. 1767; shot at Mantua 1810). New road past the Zenoburg (p. 155) viâ (1½ hr.) Riffian (1770 ft.) and (½ hr.) Saltaus (Inn) to (2 hrs.) St. Martin (1930 ft.; *Unterwirth). About ½ hr. farther on is the Sandhof (Inn), the house in which Hofer (the 'Sandwirth of Passeir') was born, containing a few mementoes of him. Adjacent is the Hofer-Kapelle, built in 1867.

Above St. Martin is the (2½ hrs.) Pfandl-Hütte or Hofer-Hütte (4700 ft.), where he was concealed from Nov. 1809 until his capture on 28th Jan., 1810.

Above (½ hr.) St. Leonhard (2130 ft.; Stroblwirth; Brühwirth*), the chief village in the valley, rises the Jaufenburg, a ruin on an isolated green hill (view). — From St. Leonhard to Sterzing (p. 148), 7 hrs., guide advisable (4 fl. 20 kr.); the bridle-path leads through the Walten-Thal to the E. and over the Jaufen (6870 ft.; Inn). — From St. Leonhard to Sölden in the Oetzthal, 10½ hrs., guide 6 fl. A good bridle-path ascends on the left bank of the Passer to (2½ hrs.) Moos (3340 ft.; Inn), beyond which it crosses the river and proceeds to (1½ hr.) Seehaus (Inn) and viâ Rabenstein to (1¾ hr.) Schönau (5520 ft.; Inn, clean). Thence we ascend rapidly to the (2½ hrs.) Timmel-Joch or Timbler-Joch (8230 ft.), whence we descend along the Timmlbach, either to the right to (4 hrs.) Sölden (p. 145), or to the left to (3½ hrs.) Gurgl (p. 145).

18. From Landeck to Meran. Finstermünz.

Comp. Maps, pp. 144, 140.

80 M. Diligence (landaus with four seats) daily in 15 hrs. (fare 12 fl. 90 kr.). Stellwagen (omnibus) daily from Landeck to Mals and from Mals to Meran. Extra-Post with two horses, without changing carriages, from Landeck to Nauders 23 fl. 81, to Mals 35 fl. 86, to Eyrs 43 fl. 9, to Meran 64 fl. 78 kr. (these charges include all fees, etc.).

Landeck (2670 ft.), see p. 143. — The road ascends on the right bank of the Inn, which here forms several rapids, to the Alte Zoll (Inn), and then descends to the (6 M.) Pontlatzer-Brücke (2820 ft.), where the Tyrolese 'Landsturm' nearly annihilated the Bavarian invaders in 1703 and 1809. On a precipitous rock, to the right, stand the ruins of Schloss Laudeck, near which is the village of Ladis (3900 ft.), with sulphur-baths (moderate charges), 1 hr. from Prutz, 1¼ hr. (new road) from Ried (see below). About ½ hr. higher lies Obladis (4545 ft.), with famous mineral springs, beautifully situated. — 3 M. Prutz (2840 ft.; Rose), where the road returns to the right bank, lies at the entrance to the Kaunser-Thal.

The Kaunser-Thal runs to the E. as far as Kaltenbrunn, then towards the S., parallel with the Pitzthal, to the central mass of the Oetzthal Mts. A new road ascends along the Faggenbach to (3½ hrs.) Feuchten (4175 ft.; *Hirsch), whence it goes on to the (4½ hrs.) Gepatsch-Haus (6325 ft.; Inn, 26 beds), picturesquely situated at the head of the valley, opposite the imposing Gepatsch Glacier, the largest in Tyrol but one. [Pedestrians will prefer to reach Feuchten by the footpath viâ Kauns and the pilgrim resort of Kaltenbrunn (4135 ft.; Eckhardt).] — Passes from the Gepatsch-Haus to Mittelberg in the Pitzthal over the Oelgruben-Joch (9885 ft.), 7-8 hrs. (guide 7 fl.), see p. 144; to Vent (p. 145) over the Gepatsch-Joch (10,640 ft.), 9-10 hrs., difficult (two guides at 9½ fl.); to Langtaufers over the Weiss-See-Joch (9745 ft.), 6 hrs. to Hinterkirch (guide 6 fl.), a fine route, free from difficulty. Graun (p. 158) is reached in 2 hrs. from Hinterkirch.

10 M. Ried (2875 ft.; Post), a thriving village, with the castle of Sigmundsried. The road now ascends over an extensive alluvial deposit and then closely skirts the Inn to (4¼ M.) Steinach (3055 ft.; Wilder Mann), crosses the Inn at (½ M.) Bruggen, passes (¼ M.) the Tschupbach Inn, and reaches (4¼ M.) — and Pfunds, on the right bank. To the S.W. towers the Piz Mondin (10,375 ft.), belonging to the N. Engadine chain.

Above Pfunds (1½ M.) the road crosses the Inn by a pretty bridge, and gradually ascends on the right bank, being hewn in the perpendicular rock at places, and passing through three tunnels and two avalanche-galleries. Picturesque views of the narrow valley of the Inn. One of the finest points is at (23 M.) Hoch-Finstermünz (3630 ft.; Hotel*), a group of houses on the roadside, 420 ft. below which is Alt-Finstermünz, with its old tower and a new bridge crossing the Inn. Opposite is the Piz Mondin; to the left, the Piz Lat and other mountains of the Engadine.

27½ M. Nauders (4470 ft.; Post; Löwe; Mondschein), a large village, with the old Schloss Naudersberg.

Highroad to the W. to the Engadine viâ Martinsbruck, see Baedeker's Switzerland.

The road gradually ascends on the right bank of the Stille Bach to (4 M.) the Reschen-Scheideck (4900 ft.), its culminating point, the watershed between the Inn and the Adige. A little beyond the village of (31½ M.) Reschen (4890 ft.; Stern), which lies near the small green Reschen-See, a striking View is disclosed. The background is formed by the snow and ice fields of the Ortler chain (comp. p. 160). About ¼ M. farther on, on the lake, is the hotel Villa Fischersheim. The Adige, Germ. Etsch, rises near Reschen, flows through the lake of Reschen, and afterwards through the Mittersee and Heidersee. We next reach (11½ M.) Graun (4880 ft.; Traube* or Post; Adler; Lamm or 'Doctor-Wirthshaus'), a village at the entrance to the Langtauferer-Thal.

37 M. St. Valentin auf der Heide (4695 ft.; Post), formerly a hospice, situated between the Mittersee and the Heidersee. Below the latter lake begins the monotonous Malser Heide. To the right, at the foot of the hills, lies the village of Burgeis, with its red spire and the castle of Fürstenburg, now occupied by poor families. Farther on, the Benedictine abbey of Marienberg lies on the hill to the right.

43 M. Mals (3440 ft.; Post or Adler; Bär; Hirsch), a village of Roman origin, in the Upper Vintschgau (Ital. Val Venosta), so named from the Venosti who once inhabited the valley. The mountain-slope to the E. (opposite the Post, 5-10 min. ascent) commands a fine view of the Vintschgau and the Ortler.

Two days may be pleasantly spent by walking hence viâ Taufers to (3 hrs.) the Swiss village of St. Maria (4550 ft.; *Kreuz; *Piz Umbrail), in the Münster-Thal, and thence over the Wormser-Joch (8240 ft.) to (4 hrs.) St. Maria on the Stelvio, returning to the valley of the Adige over the Stelvio Pass on the following day (see p. 161).

On quitting Mals we pass the venerable tower of the Frölichsburg. In the distance to the right, beyond the Adige, is the ruin of Lichtenberg. To the left, at Schluderns, rises the Churburg, a château of Count Trapp. At (49½ M.) Neu-Spondinig (2900 ft.; *Hirsch) the Stelvio road (p. 160) diverges to the right. Then (2 M.) — 51½ M. Eyrs (Post). At Laas the ice peak of the Laaserspitze (10,835 ft.) comes prominently into view.

59 M. Schlanders (2315 ft.; Post; Kreuz; Lamm), at the entrance to the Schlandernaun-Thal. At Göflan, in the vicinity, are quarries of white marble. The road crosses (2 M.) the Adige above Goldrain, and then the rapid Plima, which descends from the Martell-Thal on the S.

The Martell-Thal stretches to the S.W. towards the Ortler group. At the entrance to the valley (1 M. from Goldrain, 1¾ M. from Latsch) lies the village of Morter, with the castles of Unter-Montan and Ober-Montan, and 1 hr. farther on is the little chalybeate bath of Salt (3765 ft.), opposite which, on the left bank, is Martell or Thal, a village with a church. The road (repaired since the inundations of 1889 and 1891) leads from Salt viâ (¾ hr.) Gand (Inn) and (1¼ hr.) the chapel of Maria-Schmelz to the (1½ hr.) Untere and (¼ hr.) Obere Marteller Alp (5995 ft.), commanding a fine view of the snow-clad Cevedale (12,380 ft.). About 2 hrs. farther on is the Zufall Club Hut (7180 ft.; Inn in summer), finely situated opposite the huge Zufall Glacier. Glacier-routes lead hence to Sulden (p. 160), in 6 hrs. viâ the Madritsch-Joch (10,230 ft.) or in 7 hrs. viâ the Eissee Pass (10,280 ft.); and to the W. in 8 hrs. to Sta. Caterina (p. 162), viâ the Cevedale Pass (10,730 ft.).

Beyond (2 M.) Latsch (Hirsch) the road recrosses the Adige. To the left rises the picturesque ruined château of Kastelbell. The road next passes Tschars, Bad Kochenmoos, with a sulphur spring, and (6½ M.) Staben (Adler), at the foot of a barren slope. High above Staben is the ruined castle of Jufahl. Below Staben the road passes the narrow mouth of the Schnalser-Thal (on the left bank of which runs the road to Neu-Ratteis, p. 145), and leads to (2 M.) —

71 M. Naturns (1855 ft.; Post), with a ruined castle. Beyond (3¾ M.) Rabland (1740 ft.) the valley contracts. A saddle, called the Töll (1660 ft.), separates the Vintschgau from the Adige district. The road crosses the (1½ M.) rocky bed of the river, which forms several rapids lower down, and descends the slope of the Marlinger Berg (p. 156) in a wide curve, affording a striking view of the beautiful valley of Meran, which resembles a vast orchard of vines, chestnuts, and walnuts, enlivened with villages, churches, and castles, and enclosed by beautifully-formed porphyry mountains. At the foot of the hill (1 M.) we pass, on the right, the Forst Brewery, ¼ M. beyond which is Schloss Forst on the left (p. 156).

80 M. Meran (1000 ft.), see p. 153.

EXTRA-POST with two horses from Ma to Trafoi 12½ fl.; from the Baths of Bormio to Trafoi 65, to Sondrio 86 f

The route over the Stelvio (Giogo di Stelvio, Ger. Stilfser-Joch), th highest carriage-road in Europe, 9055 ft. above the sea-level, constructe by the Austrian government in 1820-25, is exceedingly interesting, an gradually carries the traveller from the huge glaciers and snow-fields of th Ortler and Monte Cristallo to the vine-clad slopes of the Val Tellina an the luxuriant vegetation of the banks of the Lake of Como. The fines scenery is on the Tyrolese side of the pass, whereas the construction o the road itself is an object of interest on the Italian side.

PEDESTRIANS crossing the pass are strongly recommended not to tak any short-cuts, as the road affords the finest view. The following time should be allowed for the various stages on foot: from Prad to Trafoi 3 Franzenshöhe 2¼; Stelvio Pass 2; St. Maria ½; Baths of Bormio 3 hrs. back to St. Maria 4; over the Wormser-Joch to St. Maria in the Münster Thal 4; Münster ¾; Taufers ¾; Mals 1½ hr.

From Landeck or Meran to Eyrs, see R. 18. The Stelvio roac leads to the right and crosses the Adige at (2 M.) Neu-Spondinig (2905 ft.; *Hirsch), and then runs straight across the valley, which is rendered marshy by the inundations of the Trafoier Bach. At — 3½ M. Prad (2950 ft.; Neue Post; Alte Post), at the entrance to the Trafoier Thal, the road is joined on the right by the direct route from Mals viâ Glurns (Sonne). At the Schmelz (Inn) the road begins to ascend, the valley contracts, and the brawling Trafoier Bach forms several waterfalls. On the slope to the right lies the poor village of Stilfs, Ital. Stelvio, whence the route derives its name. Opposite (5 M.) Gomagoi (4175 ft.; Reinstadler's Inn), with a small fort, opens the Sulden-Thal.

The Sulden-Thal extends for 9 M. into the heart of the Ortler group. A new road leads from Gomagoi to (2¼ hrs.) St. Gertrud or Sulden (6050 ft.: *Eller; *Zum Ortler) and to (25 min.) the large *Sulden Hotel (R. from 1½, D. 2, pens. 4½-6 fl.), commanding a beautiful view of the Ortler, Königsspitze, Monte Zebrù, etc. The large Sulden Glacier, descending from the Suldenspitze, has much receded, leaving its moraines behind it, and is now scarcely visible from the valley. A good view of it is obtained from the (2 hrs.) Schaubach-Hütte (8440 ft.; Inn), on the Ebenwand, the starting-point for the Königsspitze, Cevedale, Schöntaufspitze, Cevedale Pass (to Sta. Caterina, p. 162), and the Madritsch-Joch (to Martell). The (2-2½ hrs.) Düsseldorfer-Hütte (8880 ft.; Inn; fine view of the Ortler) in the Zaithal, and the (2 hrs.) Baeckmann-Hütte on the Hintere Grat (8760 ft.), above the Sulden Glacier, are both worthy of a visit. The former is the starting-point for the Tschengelser Hochwand, Vertainspitze, etc., the latter for Monte Zebrù, the Ortler viâ the Hintere Grat or the Hochjoch (very difficult), etc. — ASCENTS from Sulden: *Hintere Schöntaufspitze (10,905 ft.; 4½ hrs.; guide 4½ fl.), easily reached in ½ hr. from the Madritsch-Joch, and conveniently combined with the expedition to Martell (p. 159). — *Cevedale (highest peak 12,380 ft.; 7 hrs.; guide 7 fl.), not difficult for experts; fine view. The night may be spent at the Halle'sche Hütte on the Eissee Pass (10,280 ft.), 4½ hrs. from Sulden; thence to the top 2-2½ hrs. — Königsspitze (12,655 ft.; 5-6 hrs. from the Schaubach-Hütte; guide 12 fl.), difficult. — The Ortler (12,800 ft.; 7-8 hrs.; guide 10 fl.), the highest of the Eastern Alps, is frequently ascended from Sulden and is not difficult for experts when the snow is in good condition. The route from Sulden ascends rapidly through the Marlt-Thal to the (3½ hrs.) Payer-Hütte on the Tabaretta-Kamm (9940 ft.; Inn in summer), whence the summit is reached in 3-4 hrs. over the Tabaretta Glacier and Upper Ortler Glacier. Splendid view from the top. — For farther details, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The road ascends more rapidly and crosses the Trafoier Bach four times. Behind appears the broad snowy pyramid of the Weisskugel, and in front the imposing Ortler group.

10½ M. Trafoi (5080 ft.; Trafoi Hotel*, 1st class, R. from 1½, D. 2, pens. from 4½ fl.; Neue Post; Alte Post; Zur Schönen Aussicht*), a small village, is grandly situated.

Interesting walk (guide unnecessary) from Trafoi to the (¾ hr.) Heilige Drei Brunnen (5240 ft.). The path diverges from the road to the left by the Trafoi Hotel, runs through meadows and pine-wood, and finally crosses a moraine. Under a wooden roof are three rude figures representing Christ, the Virgin, and St. John, from whose breasts flows the ice-cold 'holy water'. Adjacent are a chapel and a tavern. Opposite rises the huge and nearly perpendicular Madatsch, from the dark limestone cliffs of which two brooks are precipitated from a great height. To the left, above us, are the ice-masses of the Trafoi and Lower Ortler Glaciers, overshadowed by the Trafoier Eiswand. The whole scene is very picturesque and impressive.

The road ascends in bold windings on the left side of the valley. As the best views are obtained from the bends of the road, shortcuts should be avoided. The finest point is (3½ M.) the Weisse Knott* (6110 ft.; rfmt. hut), a platform with a marble obelisk to the memory of Josef Pichler ('Passeirer Josele'), who in 1804 made the first ascent of the Ortler (see above). Facing us is the sombre Madatsch, to the right the Madatsch Glacier, and to the left the Trafoi and Lower Ortler Glaciers, overlooked by the Pleishorn. Far below, amid dark pine-trees, lies the chapel of the Three Holy Springs. Farther on, opposite the superb Madatsch Glacier, is the (1¼ M.) Cantoniera del Bosco, which was destroyed by irregular Italian troops in 1848. The zone of trees is now quitted, and stunted dwarf-pines only are occasionally seen. At (2¼ M.) —

15 M. Franzenshöhe (7180 ft.; Inn) the highest summit of the Ortler becomes visible for the first time.

The road ascends in long windings on slopes of talc-slate. High above us, on the left, are the snowy summits of the Monte Livrio (10,470 ft.) and the Geisterspitze (11,405 ft.).

On the (2 hrs.) Stelvio Pass (Stilfser-Joch or Ferdinandshöhe; 9055 ft.) is a road-menders' hut. In the Dreisprachen-Hütte simple refreshments may be obtained. A column to the left marks the boundary between Austria and Italy (the height given on the column is wrong). To the left is the Eben Glacier. The road then descends in windings, which may be avoided by short-cuts, to (2 M.) —

21 M. Santa Maria (8160 ft.; Gobbi's Inn), the fourth Cantoniera and the Italian custom-house.

A bridle-path, formerly the only route between the Vintschgau and Val Tellina, diverges from the Stelvio route to the right near the Cantoniera S. Maria, crosses the Wormser-Joch (8240 ft.), or Giogo di S. Maria, and descends (in 3 hrs., ascent 4 hrs.) through the Val Muranza to the Swiss village of St. Maria in the Münster-Thal (p. 158).

The ascent of the *Piz Umbrail (9945 ft.; 1½ hr. from S. Maria; guide, advisable, 5-6 fr.) is recommended. We diverge by the Dogana to the left from the route to the Münster-Thal, and ascend first a grassy slope and then a stony zigzag path to the jagged summit (the Umbrail Glacier remains to our right). Magnificent *View of the Ortler, the Alps of the Val Tellina, the Bernina, Silvretta, and Oetzthal Alps. A good panorama by Faller may be seen at the cantoniera.

We next reach the (1 M.) third Cantoniera al Piano del Braulio (7590 ft.; Inn), near a chapel, and then the Casino dei Rotteri di Spondalonga (7100 ft.), a house occupied by road-menders. The road descends in numerous windings, which the pedestrian can generally cut off. (In the gorge to the right are the *Falls of the Braulio, precipitated over rocky terraces.) We cross by the Ponte Alto the brook descending from the Val Vitelli, and reach the (second) Cantoniera al Piede di Spondalonga (6495 ft.), which was destroyed by the Garibaldians in 1859. To the right rises the abrupt Mte. Braulio (9775 ft.). The road skirts the mountain-slope and is carried through the Diroccamento (Wormser Loch) by covered galleries. Farther on is the (first) Cantoniera di Piatta Martina (5585 ft.), beyond which the Adda dashes forth from the wild Val Fraele on the right and unites with the Braulio. Beyond the last gallery but one the valley and the road turn towards the S., and a beautiful view is disclosed of the valley of Bormio as far as Ceppina. To the S.W. rise the Corno di San Colombano (9315 ft.), the Cima di Piazzi (11,280 ft.), and the Cima Redasco (10,300 ft.); to the S.E. are the Mte. Sobretta (10,720 ft.) and the ice-pyramid of Piz Tresero (11,870 ft.). On the other side of the deep gorge are the cliffs of the Monte delle Scale (8210 ft.). The Bagni Vecchi (4760 ft.; *Inn, R., L., & A. 2-3½, pens. 6-8 fr.), or Old Baths of Bormio, now come into view, perched on the rocks below the road. Before the last tunnel is reached, a road descends to them direct. About ½ M. farther down are the — 31 M. New Baths of Bormio, or Bagni Nuovi (4380 ft.; hotel, R. 3-6, D. 4, pens. 8-12 fr.; post and telegraph office), a handsome building on a terrace, commanding a fine view of the valley of Bormio and the surrounding mountains.

33 M. Bormio, Ger. Worms (4020 ft.; Posta or Leone d'Oro; Alb. della Torre, Piazza Cavour), an antiquated little Italian town at the entrance to the Val Furva, with many dilapidated towers.

From Bormio to Sta. Caterina, 9-10 M. (diligence twice daily in 2 hrs.; one-horse carr. there and back 12 fr.). The road leads through the Val Furva, along the Frodolfo. Sta. Caterina (5700 ft.; Stabilimento Clementi; Alb. Tresero) is a bath of some repute, with a spring impregnated with carbonic acid. A beautiful walk may be taken to the (2 hrs.) chalets called Baite del Forno (7660 ft.; Buzzi's Inn), situated opposite the huge Forno Glacier.

From Sta. Caterina to Ponte di Legno (p. 165), over the Gavia Pass (8465 ft.), 7-8 hrs., easy and interesting (guide advisable); over the Cevedale Pass to the Martell-Thal, see p. 159.

The road crosses the Frodolfo at (1¼ M.) Santa Lucia, and then turning towards the S. traverses the broad green valley (Piano) of Bormio. Beyond (3 M.) Ceppina we pass the hamlet of Sant' Antonio and then Morignone. The Serra di Morignone, a defile 3½ M. in length, here separates the district of Bormio from the Val Tellina, the broad valley of the Adda, the slopes of which yield excellent red wine. The Ponte del Diavolo was destroyed by the Austrians in 1859. Near the end of the defile (right) are the ruins of a fort. The valley expands and the vegetation assumes a more southern character.

45 M. Bolladore (2840 ft.; Posta; Hôtel des Alpes). On the slope to the W. rises the church of Sondalo. The road crosses to the right bank of the Adda before (3¾ M.) Grosio and at (1½ M.) Grosotto it crosses the Roasco. At (1½ M.) Mazzo it returns to the left bank of the Adda. To the W. rises the precipitous Piz Masuccio (9140 ft.). The road then descends by Lovero and Sernio to — 56½ M. Tirano (1475 ft.; Italia*, R., L., & A. 3-5, B. 1½ fr.; Posta; Hôtel Stelvio), a small town which has also often suffered from the inundations of the Adda, with old mansions of the Visconti, Pallavicini, and Salis families.

About ¾ M. farther on (right bank) lies Madonna di Tirano *(S. Michele), a small village with a large pilgrimage-church (17th cent.). (The road diverging here to the right leads to Poschiavo, and across the Bernina to the Upper Engadine; see Baedeker's Switzerland.) — We next cross the Poschiavino, which descends from the Bernina lakes. At (63 M.) Tresenda the Aprica road diverges to the left (comp. p. 165). On a hill to the N. rises the old watch-tower of Teglio (2945 ft.), which gives its name to the valley (Val Teglino).

73 M. Sondrio (1140 ft.; *Rail. Restaurant; Posta; Maddalena), the capital (7000 inhab.) of the Val Tellina, is prettily situated on the Malero, an impetuous torrent.

The Railway skirts the hill of Sassella, which produces a well-known wine, on the right bank of the Adda. 76 M. Castione; 79½ M. San Pietro-Berbenno. At (84 M.) Ardenno-Masino the Val Masino, in which are the frequented Bagni del Masino, opens on the right. — The train crosses the Adda. 88 M. Talamona. — 90 M. Morbegno (850 ft.; Ancora), noted for its silk-culture. — 90½ M. Cosio-Traona; 94 M. Delebio. — The lower part of the Val Tellina is made marshy and unhealthy by the inundations of the Adda.

99 M. Colico (700 ft.; Hôtel Risi, on the lake; Isola Bella) is situated at the N.E. end of the Lake of Como; see Baedeker's Northern Italy, or Baedeker's Switzerland.

Caterina*, see p. 162; to (4 1/2 hrs.) Edolo and through the Val Camonica to Iseo and Brescia, or over the Passo d'Aprica to Tirano (p. 163), see Baedeker's Eastern Alps or Northern Italy.

The line recrosses the Adige. Near (27 M.) Alle Nave is the Nave San Rocco, a very ancient ferry over the Adige, crossing to the road from the Val di Non. — 28 1/2 M. Lavis lies on the Avisio, a torrent descending from the Val Cembra (p. 164), which with its ramifications is crossed by a curved bridge, 1000 yds. long.

35 M. Trent. — Hotels. At the station: *Grand Hôtel Trento (Pl. a; B, 1), R., L., & A. 1 1/2-2 fl. — In the town: Europa (Pl. b; C, 2), Via Lunga, R. & A. 1 fl. 40 kr. — Second-class: Agnello d'Oro; Cornetta; Sole. — Restaurants. Railway Restaurant, with garden; All' Isola Nuova, near the station, with bedrooms; Löwenbräu, Via Larga. — Cafés. Europa, Specchi, both in the Via Lunga. — English Church Service in the Hôtel Trento.

Trent (640 ft.), or Trento, Lat. Tridentum, with 21,571 inhab., once the wealthiest town in Tyrol, founded according to tradition by the Etruscans, possesses numerous towers, marble palaces, and broad streets, and still presents all the characteristics of an important Italian town. — A large Monument to Dante*, designed by Zocchi, was erected in the grounds opposite the station in 1896.

The Cathedral* (Pl. B, C, 3), begun in the 11th cent., completed in the 15th, is a Romanesque basilica, with a lantern over the crossing. At the N. portal, as at Botzen, is a pair of lions (p. 151). In the Piazza del Duomo, which is embellished with the pretty Neptune Fountain (1769), are the Palazzo Pretorio (now military offices) and the Torre Grande or Clock Tower (Pl. 11). — Santa Maria Maggiore (Pl. B, 3; early 16th cent.), where the celebrated Council of Trent sat in 1545-63, contains a picture on the N. wall of the choir with portraits of the members. Outside the choir to the S. a column dedicated to the Virgin was erected in 1845.

The Museum, in the Palazzo Municipale (Pl. 2; B, 2, 3; open on weekdays 9-12 and 3-6, Sun. 9-12; closed in July and Aug.), contains Roman and other antiquities, natural history objects, coins and medals, etc. — On the right bank of the Adige is the fortified rocky hill of Verruca or Doss Trento (950 ft.; not accessible).

On the E. side of the town rises the Castello del Buon Consiglio (Pl. D, 1, 2), with remains of ancient frescoes, once the residence of the Prince-Bishops, now a barrack. The huge circular Torre di Augusto is not of Roman origin (fine view; permission to enter at the officers' guard-room). There is also a good view of the town from the terrace of the Capuchin Monastery above the castle.

FROM TRENT TO BASSANO THROUGH THE VAL SUGANA, 71 M. Railway from Trent to Tezze, 48½ M., in 4½ hrs., and diligence thence to (23 M.) Bassano in 4½ hrs. — The railway diverges to the left from the Verona line, crosses the broad valley of the Adige by means of a long viaduct, and ascends in a large bend (curved tunnel) to (5½ M.) Villazzano. At (8 M.) Povo it enters the ravine of the Fersina, being at places hewn through the overhanging rocks. Near (9⅓ M.) Ponte Alto, to the left, is an imposing waterfall of the Fersina in a somhre gorge (not visihle from the railway). — 15½ M. Pergine (1580 ft.; Voltolini), a market-village with a château. The line now descends gradually, skirting the heautiful Lago di Caldonazzo, to (24 M.) Levico (1663 ft.; Curhaus, Bellevue, Germania, etc.), a hathing-resort with arsenical springs, much visited hy Italians. The Val Sugana, watered hy the Brenta, begins here. — 30 M. Roncegno (*Hotel) also has arsenical springs.

33 M. Borgo (1290 ft.; Hôtel Valsugana; Croce Bianca) is the chief place in the valley. The line passes the stations of Castelnuovo, Strigno, Ospedaletto, and Grigno, and reaches its terminus at (48½ M.) Tezze, 1½ M. from the village of that name (Austrian custom-house).

The road crosses the Italian frontier (custom-house examination) to (3 M.) Primolano (710 ft.; Posta, poor) and enters the Canale di Brenta, an imposing gorge enclosed hy lofty precipices. In a rocky gorge heyond the village are the ruins of the old frontier-fortress of Covelo or Kofel, and 20 min. farther on we cross the Cismon, which descends from the Val Primiero. Beyond Solagna the valley expands. The road makes a curve and enters the extensive olive-clad plain of — 23 M. Bassano (420 ft.; S. Antonio; Mondo*), a finely situated town (13,700 inhah.), with old ivy-clad walls. The Museum (10-3) contains several pictures hy the Da Ponte family of artists, who are usually surnamed Bassano, after their native place. The Cathedral contains pictures hy Jacopo Bassano; the hest is a Nativity, in the Oratorio S. Giuseppe. Near the N.W. gate is the old castle of the Ghihelline tyrant Ezzelino, part of which is now occupied hy the 'arciprete' or dean of the cathedral. The promenades surrounding the town afford fine views of the Alps. — Railway from Bassano viâ (9½ M.) Cittadella to (30 M.) Padua and (53 M.) Venice, see Baedeker's Northern Italy.

FROM TRENT TO CAMPIGLIO, 45 M., diligence (4 fl. 70 kr.) in summer twice daily in 13 hrs. (carr. and pair in 10-11 hrs., 30 fl. and fee of 2-3 fl.). The road crosses the Adige and, skirting the Doss Trento (see p. 165), reaches its culminating point (1640 ft.) near the hamlet of Cadine. It then descends viâ Vezzano and past the picturesque Castel Toblino, on the lake of the same name, to (12½ M.) Sarche (860 ft.; Inn, good 'vino santo'). Here we cross the Sarca and then ascend the imposing ravine of that river in long curves to (1¾ hr.) Comano (1160 ft.), a sulphur-hath frequented hy Italians, whence we again descend to the (20 min.) Ponte delle Arche (with Stenico ahove it to the right) and through the picturesque Sarca valley to (27½ M.) Tione (1850 ft.; Cavallo Bianco; Corona), prettily situated, the chief village in Giudicaria. The Val Sarca here hecomes hroad and fertile, and turning to the N., is known as the Valle di Rendena. Passing numerous villages, we reach (38 M.) Pinzolo (2525 ft.; Hôt. Pinzolo; Corona*), starting-point for the interesting visit to the Val di Genova*, or highest part of the Val Sarca (to Bedole 4, Mandron-Hütte 6 hrs.). Hence the road ascends to the E., with heautiful views of the Brenta and Adamello Alps, viâ S. Antonio di Mavignola to (45 M.) Madonna di Campiglio (4970 ft.), an old monastery, now the Grand Hôtel des Alpes*, a pleasant summer-resort, in a sheltered situation at the foot of Monte Spinale (6630 ft.; easily ascended in 1½ hr.; fine views). Here also are the Pension Rainalter, the Hôtel Brenta, and the Albergo Dante. — Excursions and passes from Campiglio, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps. The most attractive is that over the Bocca di Brenta* (from Campiglio to Molveno 9 hrs., guide 7 fl.; from Molveno to Mezzo Lomhardo 4 hrs.). To Dimaro in the Val di Sole, new road in 4 hrs., see p. 165.

39 M. Matarello. On a hill to the left near (44 M.) Calliano rises the large château of Beseno (1420 ft.), the property of Count Trapp. The lower valley of the Adige, rich in fruit, and yielding excellent red wine, is called Val Lagarina as far as the Italian frontier. 47 M. Villa Lagarina.

49 M. Rovereto *(Hôtel Glira; Agnello), a busy town with 9000 inhab., on both sides of the Leno, is noted for its silk-culture. The old Castello is interesting. Sacco (2300 inhab.), 1 M. to the W., has a large tobacco factory.

On the right bank of the Adige is Isera, with vineyards, villas, and a waterfall. On the left bank, near Lizzana, is a castle in which Dante resided about the year 1302, when banished from Florence. — 51½ M. Mori (570 ft.; Railway Hotel) is the junction for Arco and Riva (see below).

Near (53½ M.) Marco are the Lavini di Marco, probably deposited by a glacier in the ice-age, but according to some, the remains of a vast landslip, which overwhelmed a town in 883, and is described by Dante (Inferno xii, 4-9). At (55½ M.) Serravalle, the ancient fort guarding the defile, the valley contracts.

61½ M. Ala (415 ft.; Hôt. Ala; Rail. Restaurant), a considerable place (4600 inhab.), where luggage is examined. — 62½ M. Avio, with a ruined château of Count Castelbarco, the last Austrian station.

67 M. Peri (410 ft.) is the first Italian station. The valley of the Adige is separated on the W. from the Lago di Garda by the ridge of Monte Baldo (p. 169). On a height to the right lies Rivoli, stormed several times by the French in 1796 and 1797 under Masséna, afterwards 'Duc de Rivoli'. 73 M. Ceraino. The train now enters the celebrated Chiusa di Verona, a rocky gorge at the entrance of which is the new fortification of Incanale. 78 M. Domegliara; 82 M. Pescantina; 85 M. Parona. The train crosses the Adige.

89 M. Verona, see Baedeker's Northern Italy.

21. From Mori to Riva. Lago di Garda.

Comp. Map, p. 164.

15½ M. Local Railway in 1½ hr. (fares 1st cl. 1 fl. 28 kr., 3rd cl 77 kr.). Steamer on the Lago di Garda, see p. 169.

Mori, see above. — The local railway crosses the Adige to (2 M.) Mori-Borgata, the station for the long and straggling village of Mori (Aquila). It then traverses the broad green valley to (4½ M.) Loppio, passes the pretty Lago di Loppio (720 ft.) with its rocky islands, and ascends in windings amid rocky debris to the summit of the pass (915 ft.). At (8 M.) Nago (705 ft.), a village situated on the brink of a ravine, with the ruins of the castle of Penegal above it, the old road to Riva viâ (3 M.) Torbole (*Hôtel Gardasee) diverges to the left. The line hence descends to the right along the hillside, affording fine *Views of the Lago di Garda and the Sarca valley. Beyond (10 M.) Oltresarca we cross the Sarca to — 12½ M. Arco. — Hotels. *Curhaus, *Schweizerhof (Cur-Casino), *Hôtel Olivo, *Hôtel Strasser, all in the Cur-Platz; Bellevue, near the rail. station; *Hôtel-Pension Arco, ½ M. to the W. of the Cur-Platz; *Hôtel Arciduca Alberto, in Chiarano, 1 M. from the Cur-Platz; Austria, Cur-Promenade; Corona, with garden; Hôt. Romarzolo; Hôt. Höner, at the station. — Pensions. Bellaria (well situated), Rainalter, Aurora, Olivenheim, etc. — The hotels and pensions are usually closed in summer.

Arco (300 ft.), an ancient town with a handsome domed church, in a sheltered situation, is a favourite winter-resort for consumptive and nervous patients. The château of Archduke Albert (d. 1895) has a fine winter-garden (custodian 50 kr.). To the N., on a precipitous rock (390 ft.), rises the Castle of Arco, destroyed by the French in the Spanish War of Succession, with garden and fine view (key at the Curhaus or the Schweizerhof; fee).

The railway now runs through the broad and fertile valley of the Sarca, viâ (13½ M.) San Tommaso, to — 15½ M. Riva. — Hotels. Hôtel Sole d'Oro, with a terrace on the lake, R. & A. 1 fl. 20-1 fl. 40, B. 50 kr.; *Hôtel-Pension du Lac, ¾ M. to the E., on the Torbole road, with a large garden and bath-house, R., L., & A. 1½ fl., B. 40 kr., pension 2½-3 fl.; *Hôtel-Pension Riva, R. & A. 1 fl. 20 kr.; Baviera, well spoken of; Giardino San Marco, outside the Porta S. Michele, Italian, pension 2½ fl.; Musch, Gallo, Alb. nel Popolo, all three moderate. — Beer: Musch; Giardino San Marco (see above); Birreria Kräutner; Railway Restaurant. — Baths in the lake, to the E., beyond the barracks. — English Church Service in the Hôtel du Lac.

Riva (230 ft.), a busy town and harbour with 6556 inhab., is charmingly situated at the N. end of the Lago di Garda, close to the foot of the steep Rocchetta. On the hillside, high above the town, are the ruins of the round keep of a castle said to have been built by the Scaligers (p. 169). On the lake is the old castle of La Rocca, now a fortified barrack. Riva is suitable for a prolonged stay. The climate is healthy, and the heat in summer is tempered by the lake.

Excursions. To the Fall of the Ponale, by boat (2-3 fl.), 1½-2 hrs. there and back; or we may go by boat and return on foot (steep ascent; 3-4 hrs. there and back). The waterfall itself, which the Ponale forms shortly before it falls into the lake from the ravine of the Ledro, is insignificant, but its surroundings are picturesque. The best point of view is beyond the old bridge over the bridle-path from the Ledro valley (small Restaurant). — The walk to the fall by the *Ledro Road is also very interesting. It leads at a considerable height along the rocky precipices of the W. bank, through a succession of tunnels and galleries, and commands beautiful views (shade after 3 p.m.). From the point (¾ hr.) where the road turns to the right into the Ledro valley (see below), the old bridle-path, descending to the left, leads to the waterfall.

Interesting excursion to the N.W. to (2 M.) Varone (400 ft.), where there is a wild and picturesque *Gorge with a fine waterfall (fee 20 kr. for each person). Thence on foot by Cologna to (2 M.) Tenno (1310 ft.), with an old castle (charming view), and along the richly-cultivated slopes to Varignano and (4½ M.) Arco.

To the Valle di Ledro, another beautiful excursion (one-horse carriage to Pieve and back 4, two-horse 8 fl.; diligence daily to Pieve). Beginning of the road, see above. It then turns a corner high above the gorge of the Ponale, enters the valley to the W., and leads viâ Biacesa and Molino to the pretty Lago di Ledro (2150 ft.), on the N. side of which is Mezzolago and (9 M.) Pieve di Ledro (2165 ft.; Albergo Alpino). Thence viâ Storo to Condino (Giudicaria), see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The Lago di Garda (213 ft.), the Lacus Benacus of the Romans, 34½ M. long and 2-11 M. broad, is almost entirely in Italy, a small part near Riva alone belonging to Tyrol. The lake is rarely perfectly calm, and Virgil's description (Geor. II, 160), 'Fluctibus et fremitu adsurgens Benace marino', is sometimes vividly recalled. In fine weather the S. wind usually makes the water rough in the afternoon, so that the morning is the best time for boating. The mountains at the N. end are lofty and abrupt, but slope gradually towards the S. until they are lost in the great plain of Upper Italy. The water of the lake is of a striking azure blue. The fish include the Carpione (salmon-trout), Trota (trout; sometimes 25 lbs. in weight), Anguilla (eel), and Luccio (pike).

Steamboats. WEST BANK (the finer side). From Desenzano to Riva, twice daily in 4 hrs. (fares 4 fr. 35, 2 fr. 40 c., with 10 c. passenger-duty) viâ Sirmione, Manerba, S. Felice di Scovolo, Salò, Gardone, Fasano, Maderno, Gargnano, Tignale, Tremosine, and Limone. The morning-steamer also calls at Castelletto, the afternoon-steamer at Malcesine (both on the E. bank). — EAST BANK. From Riva to Peschiera, twice daily in 4 hrs. (fares 4½, 2½ fr.), viâ Torbole, Malcesine, Assenza, Magugnano, Castelletto, Torri, Garda, Bardolino, and Lazise. The steamboats also call at Gargnano and sometimes at Maderno on the W. bank. — Information as to the hours should be obtained on the spot. Fares are paid in Italian currency.

STEAMBOAT TRIP. — E. BANK. The first station is Torbole (p. 167), at the mouth of the Sarca. Then we skirt the steep slopes of the long Mte. Baldo (7220 ft.) to Malcesine (Albergo Testa), a good harbour, with an old château. Beyond it rises the rock of Isoletto dell' Olivo, and farther on the small island of Trimelone. Then stations Assenza, Magugnano, Castelletto, Pai, and Torri. The promontory of San Vigilio, extending far into the lake, is the finest point on the E. bank. The surrounding hills are planted with vines, olives, and fig and other fruit-trees. The village of Garda (Tre Corone), in a bay at the influx of the Tesino, has a château of Count Albertini.

The next places on the E. bank are Bardolino and Lazise. The steamer finally stops at the small fortress of Peschiera, at the efflux of the Mincio, at the S.E. angle of the lake, ½ M. from the railway-station (Rail. Restaurant, poor; omnibus 50 c.).

To the W. of Peschiera, extending into the lake from the S. bank, is the narrow promontory of Sirmione, 2½ M. in length. At the S.W. angle of the Lake of Garda, to the W. of this peninsula, lies the busy little town (4500 inhab.) of Desenzāno (Mayer's Hôtel Royal; Due Colombe, with a small garden on the lake, well spoken of), another station on the Milan and Verona railway (see Baedeker's N. Italy; omnibus from the quay to the station 50 c., luggage 25 c.).

W. BANK. The first station, to the N. of Desenzano, is Sirmione (Hôtel Sirmione; Promessi Sposi), a fishing village near the N. end of the peninsula. Here the remains of baths and of a building projecting into the water are said to represent the villa in which the poet Catullus composed his poems ('Sirmio, peninsularum insularumque ocelle!'). The Scaligers, who ruled at Verona from 1262 to 1389, also built a castle here (fine view from the tower; fee). Farther on, on the W. bank, are the stations of Manerba and San Felice di Scovolo (not always touched at by the steamboat). Opposite the above-mentioned promontory of S. Vigilio lie the small Isola di San Biagio (St. Blasius) and the beautiful crescent-shaped Isola di Garda, or Isola Lecchi, the property of Prince Borghese. In a bay to the W. lies Salò *(Hôtel Salò), with 3200 inhab., in a luxuriantly fertile district. Charming prospect from the Mte. S. Bartolommeo (1865 ft.; 1½ hr.).

At this point begins the Riviera, a part of the banks distinguished for its warm climate and the luxuriance of its vegetation, and dotted with numerous villages and country-houses. Gardone-Riviera *(Hôtel-Pension Gardone-Riviera, closed in summer; Hôt.-Pens. Fasano, Hôt. Bellavista, both in Fasano, 1 M. to the E.; Pens. Villa Primavera, Häberlin, Aurora), in a sunny and sheltered situation, at the foot of the hills and close to the lake, is a favourite autumn and winter resort of patients suffering from pulmonary and nervous affections. On a promontory formed by the alluvial deposits of the Toscolano lies Maderno (Albergo S. Marco; Pens. Lignet; Pens. Amman), with an ancient church (Roman inscriptions on the wall) at the base of the Monte Pizzocolo. Then Toscolano, Cecina, and Bogliaco. Next, Gargnano (Cervo), a large village (4124 inhab.) surrounded by lemon and orange plantations.

The Riviera ends here. The mountains become loftier. Tremosĭne, hardly visible, lies high above the lake; the path to it, ascending a precipitous rock, is not easily distinguished. Farther on, in a bay, appear the white houses of Limōne, amid lemon and olive plantations. We next pass the mouth of the Ledro Valley, with the Fall of the Ponale (see p. 168), and the new road (p. 168) on the face of the cliff high above the lake, and at length reach Riva.

22. From Franzensfeste to Villach. Pusterthal.

Comp. Maps, pp. 136, 148, 124, 172.

132 M. Railway in 5-7½ hrs. (fares 9 fl. 40, 7 fl. 15, 4 fl. 80 kr.). Provisions should be taken, as the railway-restaurants are few and far between; dinner (1 fl.) will be handed into the carriage at Lienz, if ordered beforehand from the guard.

The Pusterthal, one of the longest valleys in Tyrol, consists of the valleys of the Rienz and the upper Drave or Drau, separated by the low saddle of Toblach. The scenery is pleasing, but has no claim to grandeur except at Franzensfeste, near Lienz, and at a few other points. The Val Ampezzo, Ahrnthal, Iselthal, Möllthal, and other lateral valleys afford many beautiful excursions.

Franzensfeste (2450 ft.), see p. 148. The train passes through the fortifications and crosses the Eisak by an iron bridge supported by six piers of granite, 200 yds. in length, and 260 ft. above the impetuous torrent in the gorge beneath. About 100 ft. lower is the old Ladritsch-Brücke. Beyond Aicha is a tunnel 275 yds. long. At (3 M.) Schabs the line passes through the watershed between the Eisak and Rienz by means of long cuttings, turns to the left into the Pusterthal, and is carried along the hillside by a lofty embankment. On the right is the conspicuous castle of Rodeneck. — 5 M. Mühlbach (2540 ft.; Sonne; Linde*), a considerable village in a sheltered situation at the mouth of the Valser-Thal, is a summer-resort. Beyond Mühlbach the valley contracts to a narrow ravine called the Mühlbacher Klause, once defended by fortifications, which were destroyed by the French in 1809. Beyond it the valley expands. — 10 M. Vintl, near the village of Nieder-Vintl (Post), at the mouth of the Pfunders-Thal.

The train crosses the Rienz. 11½ M. St. Sigmund. In a valley to the right lie the small sulphur-baths of Illstern. — 15 M. Ehrenburg, with a château of Count Künigl. Several deep cuttings. Near (18½ M.) St. Lorenzen (Rose; Post) the train crosses the Gader, descending from the Enneberg valley (see below). To the left is the dilapidated monastery of Sonnenburg; on a rock to the right, the ruined Michaelsburg.

The Enneberg or Gader Thal, about 27 M. in length, is chiefly interesting on account of the dolomites at its upper end. The language spoken is 'Ladin' (p. 149), but German is universally understood. The road (diligence to Corvara daily in 9 hrs.; 2 fl.) ascends from St. Lorenzen by the profound and romantic gorge of the Gader to (2 hrs.) Zwischenwasser or Longhiega (Inn), at the junction of the Vigil-Thal. In the latter, 1 hr. farther up, lies St. Vigil (3940 ft.; Stern; Krone), frequented as a summer-resort, at the foot of the Kronplatz (ascent in 3 hrs.; see p. 172). For expeditions and passes to the Val Ampezzo, Prags, etc., see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

At Zwischenwasser the road crosses the Vigilbach (to the S.W., the Peitlerkofel, 9440 ft.), and leads viâ Picolein to (3½ hrs.) St. Leonhard or Abtei (Ladin Badia; 4510 ft.; Craffonara), at the foot of the Heiligkreuzkofel (9550 ft.). Before (1 hr.) Stern the valley forks. In the S.E. branch lies (1¼ hr.) St. Cassian (5060 ft.; Inn), where fossils abound. The road follows the S.W. branch, finally crossing the Corvara-Bach or Grossbach to (1½ hr.) Corvara (5110 ft.; *Inn), a finely situated village. About ½ hr. farther up, to the W., is Colfosco or Kolfuschg (5400 ft.; Inn), the most picturesque point in this interesting dolomitic region. To the Gröden Valley over the Grödener Joch (7010 ft.; 3½ hrs. to Wolkenstein), attractive (see p. 149). — To the Fassa Valley over the Grödener Jöchl and the Sella-Joch (7275 ft.; 5½ hrs. to Campitello, p. 164), see p. 149.

From Bruneck to Taufers, a pleasant excursion of 1 day (omnibus twice daily in 2 hrs., 70 kr.; one-horse carr. 5 fl.). The road runs through the Tauferer-Thal viâ St. Georgen, Gais, and Uttenheim to (3 hrs.) Taufers (2800 ft.; Post: Elephant*), the picturesquely situated capital of the valley, consisting of the villages of Sand on the right bank and St. Moritzen on the left bank. Above rises the old castle of Taufers. Farther up the valley, now called Ahrnthal, contracts. 1 hr. Luttach commands a beautiful view of the Zillerthal glaciers (Hornspitzen, Schwarzenstein, etc.). The road goes on to (1½ hr.) Steinhaus (*Inn) and (4 hrs.) Kasern, see p. 128. — A very attractive excursion may be made from Taufers into the Rainthal, a splendidly wooded valley, through which the Rainbach descends in a series of fine waterfalls. In 3½ hrs. we reach Rain or St. Wolfgang (5250 ft.; two rustic inns), admirably situated in view of the snow-covered Rieser-Ferner (Hochgall, Wildgall, Schneebige Nock), which enclose the head of the valley.

The ascent of the Kronplatz (7455 ft.; 4 hrs.; guide, unnecessary, 3½ fl.) is very attractive, whether made direct from Bruneck by the good new path (marked with red) viâ Reischach, or from Olang (see below) viâ Geiselsberg (Inn). The top (*Inn) commands a splendid view of the Zillerthal glaciers, the Tauern, the Dolomites, etc.

The train crosses the Rienz, describes a wide curve round the town, and passes through a tunnel 350 yds. long, opposite the Lamprechtsburg. At Percha it recrosses the stream, the left bank of which it follows by means of cuttings and viaducts. — Beyond two more tunnels we reach (23½ M.) Olang (3380 ft.), at the entrance to the Geiselsberger-Thal (ascent of the Kronplatz, see above). Opposite, by the village of Rasen, opens the Antholzer-Thal, at the head of which the snow-clad Rieser-Ferner appear (see above). Beyond Olang the train runs in numerous windings high up on the left side of the deep ravine of the Rienz. — 32 M. Welsberg (3555 ft.; Lamm; Löwe; Rose*) is pleasantly situated at the mouth of the Gsies-Thal. To the N. rise the ruins of Welsberg and Thurn; to the S., opposite the station, are the baths of Waldbrunn. The train crosses the Pragser Bach, and ascends slightly to — 35½ M. Niederdorf (3800 ft.; Post; Adler 'zur Emma'; Stern), a large village in a broad green valley, much resorted to in summer.

About 1½ M. to the W. of Niederdorf, and about the same distance to the E. of Welsberg (see above), the attractive Pragser Thal opens to the right (omnibus from Niederdorf to Alt-Prags twice daily, 60 kr.; one-horse carriage to Alt-Prags or Neu-Prags, and back, 3½ fl.; to the Pragser Wildsee and back, 4½ or 80 fl.). About 1½ M. up the E. branch of the valley (road) lie the baths of Alt-Prags (4535 ft.; Badhaus*), amidst beautiful scenery, with the lofty Croda Rossa on the S. An easy and pleasant route leads hence over the Plätzwiesen (6540 ft.; Höt. Dürrenstein), to the S. of the Dürrenstein (9320 ft.; easily ascended in 2 hrs.), to (4 hrs.) Schluderbach, on the Ampezzo road (p. 174). — From the baths of (1¾ hr.) Neu-Prags (4320 ft.; Inn*) a road leads to the (2½ M.) beautiful Pragser Wildsee* (4850 ft.; *Hotel), in which the huge Seekofel (9220 ft.) is reflected.

At Gratsch the train crosses the Rienz for the last time, and soon reaches the Toblacher Feld (3965 ft.), the watershed between the Rienz and the Drave and the highest point on the line.

38 M. Toblach (Hôtel Toblach*, a large house, opposite the station, R., L., & A. from 1½ fl.; Germania*, Ampezzo, both near the station; Waldhof, Ploner, both on the road, ¼ M. from the station). About ¾ M. to the N. of the railway-station lies the village of Toblach (*Mutschlechner; Kreuz; Adler), with a handsome church, at the foot of the Pfannhorn (8730 ft.; ascent in 4½ hrs., by an easy bridle-path). The road to the Val Ampezzo runs hence to the S. (R. 23); beautiful view of the narrow entrance to the valley, surrounded by jagged dolomites, with the Cristallino in the background.

The train now descends, passing the insignificant source of the Drave on the right, to (41½ M.) Innichen (3855 ft.; Bär; Schwar- zer Adler; *Pens. Saxonia, 3-5 fl. a day; Goldner Stern; Rössl), another summer-resort, prettily situated at the mouth of the Sexten-Thal. The Romanesque Stiftskirche, dating from the 13th cent., has an interesting portal. The first chapel to the left on entering the village is a 17th cent. imitation of the chapel of the Holy Sepulchre at Jerusalem and served as a model for the burial-chapel of Emp. Frederick III. at Potsdam. To the E. rises the Helm (7985 ft.; bridle-path in 4-4½ hrs.); fine view from the top (Inn).

From Innichen a road ascends the Sexten-Thal on the left bank of the Sextenbach. In the woods above the main road, 2 M. from Innichen, is the Innicher Wildbach. In 1½ hr. we reach Sexten or St. Veit (4320 ft.; Post; Kreuz) and in ½ hr. more Moos or St. Joseph, where the valley forks. In the W. branch lies (¼ hr.) Bad Moos (4455 ft.; Inn), whence a most attractive walk may be taken to the (¾ hr.) Fischeleinboden, commanding a splendid view of the Dreischusterspitze, Bachernspitze, Zwölfer, Elfer, and other dolomites at the head of the valley.

Beyond Innichen the line follows the right bank of the Drave, passing (46 M.) the baths of Weitlanbrunn, to (48 M.) Sillian (3600 ft.; Adler*). To the N., at the mouth of the Villgratten-Thal, stands the castle of Heimfels. Beyond the stations of Abfaltersbach, Mittewald, and Thal the train enters the Lienzer Klause, a defile 9 M. long, which has often been successfully defended by the Tyrolese.

66 M. Lienz (2210 ft.; Post; Rose; Traube; *Adler; Sonne; Lamm; Rail. Restaurant, R. 1 fl. 20 kr.), the easternmost town in Tyrol, with 3600 inhab., is delightfully situated near the confluence of the Drave and the Isel, a river three times as large. Schloss Bruck, 1 M. to the N.W., is now a brewery. The (1 M.) Schiess-stand (shooting-range) commands a beautiful view.

From Lienz to the Iselthal, to Kals, and to the Möllthal (Heiligenblut; passes to the Pinzgau), see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

69 M. Dölsach (Putzenbacher; to the Möllthal over the Iselsberg, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps). Between (72½ M.) Nikolsdorf and (77½ M.) Oberdrauburg (2000 ft.; *Stern) we cross the Drave and the boundary of Carinthia. — 85 M. Dellach, to the right of which is the Reisskofl (7770 ft.); 89½ M. Greifenburg (1900 ft.; Post), where the Drave becomes navigable; 97½ M. Kleblach-Lind. — 103½ M. Sachsenburg (1840 ft.; Fleischhacker; Taschler), a village with a ruined castle, at the mouth of the Möllthal, is partly enclosed by the Drave. The train now crosses the Möll and traverses the fertile plain of the Lurnfeld. — 107 M. Lendorf; on the slope to the right lies the ruined Ortenburg.

108½ M. Spital (1770 ft.; Alte Post; Ertl*, at the station), a large village on the Lieser, has a handsome château of Prince Porzia.

A post-road leads hence to the W. over the Radstädter Tauern to Radstadt (comp. p. 188). — A pleasant excursion may be made through the Lieser-Thal to (8 M.) Millstatt (Burgstaller; See-Villa*, etc.) with lake-baths, prettily situated on the Millstätter See (1900 ft.), on which a steamboat plies.

The train crosses the Lieser. On the opposite bank of the Drave is Schloss Schüttbach. — 113 M. Rothenthurm, with a château; 119 M. Paternion-Feistritz; 127 M. Gummern. — 132 M. Villach, see p. 202.

23. From Toblach to Belluno. Val Ampezzo.

Comp. Map, p. 148.

66½ M. Post-Omnibus from the Toblach station to (18½ M.) Cortina daily in 4 hrs., starting at 7.30 a.m. (fare 1 fl. 70 kr., coupé 2 fl.). Omnibus from Hôt. Toblach in summer daily, at 3 p.m., in 4 hrs. (fare 1 fl. 80 kr., return-ticket 3 fl. 30 kr.). Omnibus from the Hôtel Germania daily, at 6 a.m., in 3¾ hrs. (fare 2 fl.). — Carriage with one horse from Toblach to Cortina 7 (there and back 9), with two horses 16 fl., if kept overnight 11 and 18 fl. — Post-Omnibus from Cortina daily to Belluno in 11½ hrs.

A visit to the Limestone Alps of S. Tyrol, enclosed by the Drave, Rienz, Eisak, Adige, Brenta, and Piave, and generally known as the Dolomites (from Dolomieu, the geologist, who first examined this magnesian limestone formation), is greatly facilitated by the Pusterthal railway. Strictly speaking, the term Dolomite belongs to the Fassa Mts., the Langkofel, Rosengarten, and Schlern, but does not apply to the Cristallo, Hohe Gaisl, Tofana, Sorapis, Antelao, Pelmo, and other peaks of the Ampezzo Limestone Alps; but as these mountains are widely known as the 'Ampezzo Dolomites', the popular nomenclature is adhered to in the Handbook.

The *Ampezzo Road (called by the Italians 'Strada d'Allemagna') quits the Pusterthal at the Toblach station (p. 172), leads due S. into the Höhlensteiner Thal, watered by the Rienz, and passes the small, dark Toblacher See (4130 ft.). The valley soon contracts to a wild gorge. To the right rise the jagged spurs of the Dürrenstein, while the view up the valley to the S. is bounded by the Mte. Pian (see below). Above the Klaus-Brücke (4310 ft.) the Rienz issues from its subterranean channel. Near Landro the road passes a new fort.

6¼ M. Landro, Ger. Höhlenstein (4605 ft.; Post*, kept by Baur, R. 1½-3, D. 1½, pens. 3-5 fl.), a pleasant summer-resort. At the head of the valley of the Schwarze Rienz, which opens here to the left, rise the lofty and glistening Drei Zinnen (Cime di Lavaredo; 9850 ft.). A few paces farther on is the light-green Dürrensee, dominated to the S. by the huge Monte Cristallo* (10,495 ft.), with its glacier, and its neighbours, the Piz Popena (10,310 ft.) and the Cristallino (9140 ft.), presenting a most striking picture.

8 M. Schluderbach (4730 ft.; Hôtel Ploner*, pens. 4 fl.), beautifully situated opposite the mouth of the Val Popena. To the left are the Cadini (9320 ft.), rising beyond the Val Popena, and to the right rises the imposing red limestone pyramid of the Croda Rossa (Rothwand, or Hohe Gaisl, 10,330 ft.).

The Monte Pian* (7630 ft.) may be ascended from Schluderbach without difficulty in 3 hrs.; guide not indispensable (2 fl.). We ascend the Val Popena by the Auronzo road, from which we diverge to the left after 1 hr. and follow a steep path (marked with red) over the Forcella Alta (6480 ft.) to the (1½ hr.) summit. The highest point is on the W. margin (refuge-hut), commanding a beautiful view. — From Schluderbach to the Lago Misurina and viâ Tre Croci to Cortina, see p. 175; viâ the Plätzwiesen to Prags, see p. 172.

The road ascends, skirting the base of the Croda Rossa (see above), and reaches the Gemärk, or Cime Banche, the low watershed (5000 ft.) between the Rienz and the Boite, which forms the boundary of the Ampezzo district. Ospitale (4835 ft.; Inn, good wine) lies opposite the entrance to the Val Grande. The road reaches its highest point near the Peutelstein (4945 ft.), to the left, a rock formerly crowned with the ruins of a castle, which were removed in 1866. The road bends sharply to the right, and winds down into the Ampezzo Valley, watered by the Boite.

19 M. Cortina di Ampezzo (4025 ft.; Hôt. Faloria*, finely situated on the hillside, about 20 min. to the S.E.; Bellevue; *Aquila Nera; Stella d'Oro, frequented by the English; Croce Bianca; Hôt. Cortina; Victoria; Ancora), with 800 inhab., superbly situated and well adapted for a stay, is the capital of the valley. The Church contains a rich altar, wood-carvings by Brustolone, etc. The gallery of the handsome detached Campanile (about 250 ft. in height) commands an admirable *Survey of the environs.

A fine view is obtained from the (1 hr.) Belvedere* on the Crepa (5000 ft.), a prominent rocky hill on the W. side of the valley (Restaurant).

From Cortina to Schluderbach viâ Tre Croci (5 hrs., or including Mte. Pian 8 hrs.), a very attractive route, especially for travellers approaching Cortina by the highroad (guide unnecessary; light vehicle 6¾, carr. and pair 12 fl.). A narrow road in the valley separating the Cristallo from the Sorapis, to the E., ascends to the (2 hrs.) Passo Tre Croci (5930 ft.; Hotel*), which commands a beautiful view of the Val Ampezzo, to the W., dominated by the imposing Tofana, and to the N. by the Cristallo and Popena; to the E. lies the Auronzo valley with the steep chain of the Marmarole, and farther to the left rise the Cadini. We descend by the road that goes on into the Val Auronzo, but diverge to the left from it after ¼ hr. and continue at the same level through wood. In ¾ hr. we reach the 'Erz-Strasse' leading from the Val Auronzo to Schluderbach, and, slightly ascending at first, continue straight on viâ the Misurina Alp (fine view of the huge Drei Zinnen, etc.), to the (¾ hr.) Lago Misurina (5760 ft.; Grand Hôtel Misurina*, near the S. end. new; Albergo Misurina, at the N. end, well spoken of). Thence we again ascend slightly to the (5 min.) Col dell' Angelo, beyond which we descend the wooded Val Popena to (1½ hr.) Schluderbach (p. 174). — Mte. Pian, see p. 174.

From Cortina to Caprile viâ the Falzarego Pass, 7 hrs., attractive. A tolerable road ascends to the (3 hrs.) Falzarego Pass (6945 ft.), beyond a hospice. Thence a rough cart-track descends viâ Andraz (G. Finazzer) to Caprile (Albergo Belvedere, 10 min. above the village; Posta; Albergo alle Alpi), finely situated on the Cordevole, 1½ M. to the N. of the pretty Lago d'Alleghe (3 M. long), which reflects the huge cliffs of the Mte. Civetta (10,565 ft.). From Caprile to Fassa over the Fedaja Pass, see p. 164; through the Val Cordevole to Agordo and Belluno, see p. 176.

The road next reaches Zuel and then (3 M.) Acquabuona, the last Tyrolese village, crosses the (1½ M.) Italian frontier, and descends rapidly to (1½ M.) Chiapuzza, the first Italian hamlet. Between (1 M.) San Vito (Albergo all Antelao) and Borca (Alb. al Pelmo) it runs high above the Boite on the slopes of the Antelao (10,710 ft.). To the right (W.) towers the isolated Monte Pelmo (10,395 ft.), a colossal rock forming the most conspicuous feature in the landscape.

34 M. Venas (2895 ft.; Alb. Borghetto), below which the Vallesina unites with the Boite. Then (2 M.) Valle, finely situated opposite the mouth of the Val Cibiana, (1½ M.) Tai di Cadore (Alb. al Cadore; Alb. Venezia), and (1 M.) —

38½ M. Pieve di Cadore (2905 ft.; Progresso; Angelo; Sole*), the capital of the Val Cadore, beautifully situated on a mountain spur high above the Piave. In 1880 a bronze statue of Titian (Tiziano Vecelli, b. at Pieve 1477; d. 1576), the great painter, by Dal Zotto, was erected in the Piazza. The school contains a small Museum of natural history objects, coins, and antiquities, and Titian's patent of nobility (1533). The church possesses a Madonna by Orazio Vecelli etc. The (1/4 hr.) Chapel of San Rocco commands a fine view.

Beyond Tai the road rounds Mte. Zucco (3930 ft.), and descends in windings, being hewn in the rock and supported by masonry at places, to the valley of the Piave, into which the Boite here falls.

43 M. Perarolo (1735 ft.; Corona d'Oro*, carr. and pair to Vittorio 25 fr.). The Piave runs for many miles through a narrow ravine, in which there is barely space for the road. To the right, near (5 M.) Ospitale, is a fine waterfall; opposite the hamlet of Termine, on the left bank, is a second fall. 3 1/2 M. Castel Lavazzo. Then (2 1/2 M.) —

54 M. Longarone (1470 ft.; Posta; Albergo di Roma), charmingly situated at the junction of the Maè, which issues from the Val di Zoldo, with the Piave.

The valley now expands, without at first losing its wild character. 3 M. Fortogna. 4 1/2 M. Ponte nelle Alpi or Capodiponte (1295 ft.; Campana; Stella). The road divides here, the left branch leading to Vittorio, the right to Belluno.

The road to Vittorio (20 1/2 M.) crosses the Piave, turns to the E., and follows the left bank of the Rai, which issues from the (6 M.) Lago di Santa Croce (1225 ft.; 2 1/2 M. long). At the S. end of the lake is the hamlet of Santa Croce. The road then crosses the debris of an extensive old landslip and descends steeply to Fadalto. It next skirts the E. bank of the Lago Morto (925 ft.), passes two other small lakes, and traverses a picturesque defile, at the end of which lies (12 M.) Serravalle (510 ft.), connected by a fine avenue, 3/4 M. long, with the larger village of Ceneda. These two places together form the town of Vittorio (Hôtel Vittorio*, not far from the station, with garden; Giraffa*, in the town). — Railway from Vittorio to Venice via Conegliano, in 2 1/4 hrs., see Baedeker's Northern Italy.

The Belluno Road (omn. twice daily from Longarone) leads to the right from Ponte nelle Alpi to (5 M.) —

66 1/2 M. Belluno (1330 ft.; Albergo delle Alpi, near the station; Cappello, well spoken of; Leon d'Oro), the capital of a province, with 5200 inhab., situated on a hill between the Ardo and the Piave, which here unite. The town is quite Venetian in outward appearance. The Cathedral, built by Tullio Lombardo, was partly destroyed by an earthquake in 1873, but has been restored. The massive campanile, 216 ft. high, commands a beautiful view. The triumphal arch outside the W. gate, completed in 1815, and dedicated to the Emp. Francis, was, like that at Milan, begun in honour of Napoleon I.

From Belluno to Caprile, 31 1/2 M. The carriage-road leads through the picturesque Cordevole Valley (Val d'Agordo) viâ (4 1/2 M.) Mas, (12 M.) Agordo (Alb. alle Miniere), the charmingly situated capital of the valley, and (6 M.) Cencenighe; and thence along the pretty Lago d' Alleghe to (9 M.) Caprile (p. 175). Thence to Campitello in the Val Fassa over the Fedaja Pass, see p. 164; to Cortina viâ Andraz and the Falzarego Pass, see p. 175. The head of the Cordevole valley, above Caprile, is called Val Livinalongo. — For farther details, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

From Belluno to Venice viâ Feltre, 72 M., railway in 4 1/2 hrs., see Baedeker's Northern Italy.

From Vienna to (17 M.) Baden, see pp. 76-79. On the hills to the right are the ruins of Rauhenstein and Rauheneck, with Schloss Weilburg and the Helenen-Thal between them (see p. 80). The broad plain to the left, sprinkled with villages, is bounded by the Leitha Mts. Near (19½ M.) Vöslau (800 ft.; Hôtel Bellevue; Hallmayer; Vöslauer Hof*, etc.), a watering-place (3680 inhab.), the best Austrian wine is produced. A large pond in the park of Count Fries, fed by a thermal spring (75° Fahr.), contains swimming and other baths.

Adjoining Vöslau is the prettily situated village of Gainfarn (Weintraube*), with two hydropathics. — Excursion to (1½ hr.) Merkenstein (1490 ft.), with a ruined castle, a château, and a belvedere in the park. Ascent thence of the Eiserne Thor (2785 ft.), an admirable point of view, 1½ hr. (see p. 80).

Near (21 M.) Leobersdorf (Adler) the barren Schneeberg is seen on the right; 1¼ M. to the E. is Schönau, with a fine park. Branch-lines to (46½ M.) St. Pölten (p. 82) and to (23½ M.) Gutenstein (see Baedeker's Eastern Alps). — 26 M. Felixdorf, at the beginning of the Steinfeld, has a large artillery-range. Near (26½ M.) Theresienfeld (a home for invalid officers founded by Maria Theresa in 1763) are extensive fields of maize.

31 M. Wiener-Neustadt (930 ft.; Hirsch; Kreuz; Krone; Rössl; Rail. Restaurant*), with 25,146 inhab., the birthplace of Emp. Maximilian I., was almost entirely destroyed by fire in 1834, and is now an important manufacturing town.

The Parish Church is partly Romanesque (nave, 13th cent.), partly Gothic (choir and transept, 14th cent.), with two modern towers. It contains interesting sculptures (painted statues of the Apostles, 15th cent.; *St. Sebastian, end of 16th cent.) and monuments.

At the S.E. angle of the town stands the ancient ducal Castle of the Babenberg family, built in 1192, and altered by Emp. Frederick III. in 1457. The late-Gothic Schloss-Kapelle contains three superb stained-glass windows, that in the middle, with portraits of Max I. and his two wives and the Baptism of Christ above, dating from 1479. On the high-altar, under which reposes Emp. Maximilian I. (p. 131), stands an excellent bronze statue of St. George, of the 15th century. In the court, over the entrance, are the armorial bearings (89 quarterings, many quite imaginary) of Frederick III., and his motto A. E. I. O. U. ('Austria erit in orbe ultima', or 'Austriæ est imperare orbi universo'); below is a statue of the emperor (1453). The building was converted into a military academy (450 pupils) by Maria Theresa in 1752 and contains portraits of the Empress and eminent officers educated here. In the garden are a statue of Maria Theresa and a monument to former pupils slain in battle.

The late-Gothic Neukloster-Kirche contains the tomb of Eleanor of Portugal (d. 1467), wife of Frederick III. The Monastery possesses a Library containing ancient miniatures, and a collection of early-German paintings, ivory-carvings, majolica, etc.

In the Rathhaus are preserved many charters of the 12th cent. and a small collection of antiquities, including the Corvinus Becher, a magnificent silver tankard, 2 ft. in height, executed in Germany in 1462 to commemorate the reconciliation of Frederick III. and Matthew Corvinus of Hungary (1462); also old codices (the Gospels of 1325), weapons, etc. (Custodian on 1st floor; fee.)

Geogr. Anst. v. Wagner & Debes, Leipzig

From Neustadt to Oedenburg, Steinamanger, and Mohács, see R. 74.

FROM NEUSTADT TO ASPANG, 22 M., railway in 1¼ hr. (from Vienna to Aspang, 54 M., in 3 hrs.). The station is on the E. side of the town. 5 M. Klein-Wolkersdorf; 7 M. Erlach; 8 M. Pitten, with a ruined castle; 10½ M. Seebenstein, commanded by a noble Schloss of Prince Liechtenstein, containing a collection of armour (fine view). — 22 M. Aspang (1556 ft.; Aspanger Hof; Hirsch; Kreuz, etc.). The Wechsel (5702 ft.; 5 hrs.) is a fine point of view. From Aspang a road leads to the W., viâ Feistritz, to (8 M.) Kirchberg on the Wechsel, where there is a grand stalactite grotto. Pleasant road through wood, by Schloss Kranichberg, a seat of the Archbishop of Vienna, to (7½ M.) Gloggnitz (see below). — Diligence from Aspang to Hartberg, see p. 393.

Railway from Wiener-Neustadt to Puchberg, and rack-and-pinion railway thence to the top of the Schneeberg, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

To the right beyond Neustadt the Schneeberg is visible from the summit nearly to the base; to the left, the Leitha Mts. (in the distance, Schloss Seebenstein, see above). 35½ M. St. Egyden; 39 M. Neunkirchen (Hirsch), a manufacturing place. Scenery picturesque and varied. 42 M. Ternitz; 43½ M. Pottschach, with spinning mills. — 47 M. Gloggnitz (1426 ft.; Baumgartner; Adler; Grüner Baum; Restaurant opposite the station), a pretty little town (4500 inhab.) on the Schwarza, lies at the base of the Semmering. Schloss Gloggnitz on a hill, a Benedictine abbey down to 1803, is now a private residence. On a hill to the left (1¾ hr. to the S.W.) is the picturesque castle of Wartenstein.

The Semmering Railway, which begins at Gloggnitz, the oldest of the great continental mountain-railways, constructed in 1848-54, is remarkable alike for its engineering and its scenery. Between Gloggnitz and Mürzzuschlag (35 M.) there are 15 tunnels and 16 viaducts. The maximum gradient is 1:40. The construction of this part of the line cost upwards of 60,000*l.* per English mile.

The train ascends with the aid of a mountain locomotive. Schloss Gloggnitz looks imposing. In the valley flows the green Schwarza, by which is the large paper-factory of Schlöglmühl. On the left rises the Sonnwendstein with its three peaks; to the W., in the background, the Raxalp. The line then describes a wide circuit round the N. slope of the mountain to (51 M.) Payerbach (1512 ft.; Leberl; Schwemmlein; Rail. Restaurant*, R. 1-2 fl.).

To Reichenau and the Höllenthal, with ascents of the Schneeberg and the Raxalp, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

Beyond Payerbach the train crosses the valley of Reichenau by a viaduct of thirteen arches, 249 yds. long and 80 ft. high, and then ascends (gradient 1:40) the S. slope of the valley. 56½ M. Eichberg. Two short tunnels; to the left, an extensive view over the plain. Gloggnitz now lies 558 ft. below the line.

The train next skirts the Gotschakogel (two tunnels). On a rocky pinnacle at (60 M.) Klamm (2254 ft.; Deininger) rises an old castle of Prince Liechtenstein, once the key of Styria, but now half destroyed. Far below runs the old Semmering road, wi several manufactories and the white houses of Schottwien in a ra ine. Beyond the next tunnel, a picturesque retrospect of the cas of Klamm. Farther on a fine view is obtained of the deep Adli graben with its rocky sides and pinnacles. The train traverses a lo gallery, with apertures for light, and a bridge, skirting the Wei zettelwand, and reaches (64½ M.) Breitenstein (2540 ft.). T more tunnels. We then cross the Kalte Rinne by a viaduct 200 y long and 150 ft. high, and ascend to the last large viaduct (166 y long, 79 ft. high), which spans the Untere Adlitzgraben.

After three more tunnels the train stops at (69 M.) Semmeri (2840 ft.; Hôtel Stefanie), reached in 1¼-1¾ hr. from Gloggnit On the rocks to the right is a memorial of Karl von Ghega, t constructor of the railway. About ½ M. to the N. is the Hô* Panhans, and ¾ M. farther (omnibus 40 kr.) is the large Hô* Semmering (3280 ft.), in a fine situation. At the highest point of t highroad (3216 ft.), 1½ M. to the S. of the station, is the Erzherz Johann Inn. — Ascent of the Sonnwendstein (4995 ft.; 2 hrs.), s Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The line now avoids a farther ascent of 276 ft. by means of tunnel, 1565 yds. in length, which penetrates the Semmering, t boundary between Austria and Styria. The middle of the tunn is the culminating point of the line (2940 ft.), whence the tra descends into the grassy Fröschnitz-Thal. 76 M. Spital (2520 ft Hirsch; Schwan; Krone), a summer-resort.

80 M. Mürzzuschlag (2200 ft.; Adler*, R. 80 kr.-1 fl.; Po* R. from 80 kr.; Hôt. Meier; Hôt. Guck ins Land, ⅓ M. from t station, well situated; Hôt. Lambach, 1 M. from the station; Ra* Restaurant, R. 1 fl. 20 kr.), on the Mürz, is a summer-resort (Cu haus, Hydropathic, etc.), with pleasant walks. In winter sno shoeing with Norwegian snow-shoes ('skis') is a favourite pastin here. To Neuberg and Mariazell, see R. 25.

The line follows the pleasant, pine-clad valley of the Mü enlivened with iron-forges. 85 M. Langenwang; 87 M. Kriegla (1970 ft.; Höbenreich; Maurer*), another summer-resort; 90 M. Mi terdorf (1935 ft.; Eggl, Mitterhammer). To the right, at the mou of the Veitschthal, is the château of Pichl, with its four towe and farther on, near Wartberg, the ruin of Lichtenegg. The tra sweeps round the Wartberg, crossing the Mürz twice, and reach (95 M.) Kindberg (1880 ft.; Wolfbauer; Körner*, etc.; Rail. R staurant, with rooms), a summer-resort, with the château of Obe kindberg (Count Attems). 99 M. Marein. 103 M. Kapfenbe (Ramsauer; Hirsch), at the entrance to the Thörlthal, ½ M. fro which lies the sheltered Bad Steinerhof. Narrow-gauge railway fro Kapfenberg to Au-Seewiesen, see p. 184.

106 M. Bruck on the Mur (1525 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Hôt Post, at the station; Löwe; Adler) is a small town (5788 inhab at the confluence of the Mürz and the Mur, with a Gothic church of the 15th century. In the principal square is the late-Gothic Kornmesser-Haus (the old ducal residence, 1497-1505), with arcades and an open loggia. Opposite it is a tasteful wrought-iron fountain of 1626. The Gloriette, to the E. of the station, and the Calvarienberg, on the right bank of the Mur, are good points of view. On a rocky hill to the N. is the ruin of Landskron, burned down in 1792. To St. Michael and Linz, see R. 26; to Mariazell, see R. 25; to Villach, see R. 31.

The train enters the narrow valley of the Mur. At (113 M.) Pernegg (Linde) is a large château of Herr Lipith. Near (114 M.) Mixnitz (Schartner) is an extensive stalactite cavern, called the Drachenhöhle, in the Röthelstein, 1533 ft. above the village. 122 M. Frohnleiten; the village (Stadt Strasshurg, Krone, Sonne), with forges and a hydropathic, lies on the opposite bank. To the right is Schloss Neu-Pfannberg or Grafendorf, and on a hill to the left are the ruins of the castle of Pfannberg. The château of Rabenstein rises on a rock on the right bank. The valley contracts to a narrow defile, through which the line is carried along the Badelwand by a gallery of 35 arches (400 yds. long). At (127 M.) Peggau the Schöckel (p. 193) is seen to the left. Opposite, at the mouth of the Uebelbach, lies Deutsch-Feistritz, with lead and zinc mines.

The train now crosses the Mur. 129 M. Stübing, with a château of Count Palffy; 132 M. Gratwein (1295 ft.; Fischerwirth), with a large paper-mill. — 134 M. Judendorf *(Fritscher's Alpen-Hôtel; Materleitner) is a favourite summer-resort with fine woods, numerous villas, and a hydropathic establishment. On a height to the right lies Maria-Strassengel, a graceful Gothic pilgrimage-church of 1355, with an open tower. The train passes the ruin and the new château of Gösting, property of Count Attems, and enters a fertile basin, where the isolated Schlossberg of Gratz rises on the left, with the capital of Styria at its base.

140 M. Gratz, see p. 188.

25. From Mürzzuschlag to Mariazell and Bruck on the Mur.

RAILWAY from Mürzzuschlag to (7½ M.) Neuberg in 34 minutes. — DILIGENCE from Neuberg to Mariazell (29 M.) twice daily in 7 hrs. (3½ fl.). One-horse CARRIAGE from Neuberg to Mürzsteg 2, two-horse 3 fl.; two-horse carr. to Mariazell in 5 hrs., 12-14 fl. — From Mariazell to (23 M.) Au-Seewiesen DILIGENCE twice daily in summer in 5 hrs. (3 fl. 18 kr.); from Au-Seewiesen to (14 M.) Kapfenberg, railway in 1 hr. 35 minutes. — From Gaming to Mariazell, see p. 183; from St. Pölten, viâ Lilienfeld and Kernhof, see pp. 83, 183.

Mürzzuschlag, see p. 180. The Neuberg line diverges here to the right from the main line, crosses the Mürz, and ascends the wooded valley of that stream, passing several iron-works, to (4½ M.) Kapellen (Rail. Restaurant, rooms to let; Baumgartner) and (7½ M.)

Neuberg (2400 ft.; Post; Hirsch; Stern; Kaiser von Oesterreich*), finely situated at the base of the Schneealpe (6245 ft.), which may be ascended hence in 3½-4 hrs. The handsome Gothic Cistercian Church, with its fourteen slender octagonal pillars and large rose-window, was consecrated in 1471. From the well-preserved cloisters, which contain portraits of all the abbots, we enter the elegant crypt. The abbey, suppressed in 1785, is partly occupied by the emperor during the shooting-season. A little to the N. of Neuberg are extensive iron-works of the Alpine Montan-Gesellschaft. At the foot of the Calvarienberg is a triangle carved in the rock, with a bronze portrait of Archduke John.

The valley becomes narrower and more picturesque. The road, skirting the clear and rapid Mürz, ascends to (8 M. from Neuberg) Mürzsteg (2570 ft.; Eder*, with garden; Grabner*), with an imperial shooting-box. To the S.W. stretches the Hohe Veitschalp (6500 ft.). The valley divides here. The highroad ascends the Dobrein-Thal to the W. and crosses the (1 hr.) Niederalpel Saddle (4000 ft.; fine view of the Veitschalp and Hochschwab) to (20 M.) Wegscheid, a village 9½ M. to the S. of Mariazell (p. 184).

The new Road to Mariazell viâ Frein is preferable. This runs to the N. through the gradually widening valley of the Mürz to the (3½ M.) Scheiterboden (2700 ft.; Inn), and then leads through wild ravines, between the cliffs of the Rosskogel on the right and the Proleswand on the left, close by the side of the foaming stream. In the midst of this rocky wilderness a small waterfall descends from a cavity above, called Zum Todten Weib (2730 ft.). The valley soon expands into a green dale, surrounded by lofty, pine-clad mountains, in which lies the hamlet of (2½ M.) Frein (2840 ft.; Inn). Thence the road continues to the W. through the Freiner-Thal, passing (3 M.) Gschwand, and then ascends in wide curves to the (2½ M.) Hühnerreith-Sattel or Schöneben-Sattel (3750 ft.), between the Student and the Fallenstein. Descending to (1 M.) the Schöneben Inn (3630 ft.), we follow the road through the pretty Fallensteiner-Thal to the (5½ M.) Gusswerk (p. 184), on the road from Bruck to (3½ M.) Mariazell.

The Footpath from Frein over the Frein-Sattel to Mariazell (4½ hrs.) is more attractive and saves 1 hr. Guide (3 fl.) not necessary. The marked path diverges from the road to the right at (3 M.) Gschwand (see above), and ascends into the wood to (¾ hr.) the summit of the Frein-Sattel (3670 ft.). Then a steep descent (after 20 min., to the left, following the brook) to the Hallthal, where we cross (½ hr.) the Salza to the Kernhof and Mariazell road (p. 183) and to (2 hrs.) Mariazell.

29 M. Mariazell (2830 ft.; Schwarzer Adler; *Löwe; *Krone; Weintraube; Greif; Kreuz; Rössl, etc.), very picturesquely situated in a wide basin, surrounded by wooded mountains of varied forms, is the most frequented shrine in Austria, being visited annually by upwards of 100,000 pilgrims. The village consists almost entirely of inns and taverns, all of which are crowded at the time of the great pilgrimages (from Vienna on 1st July, from Gratz on 14th Aug.) and during the latter half of August.

In the centre of the village rises the imposing Church, erected at the end of the 17th cent., with its four towers, of which the handsome Gothic central tower belongs to the original structure of the 14th century. The miraculous image of the Madonna and Child, 20 inches high, carved in lime-wood, was presented in 1157 by a priest of the Benedictine abbey of St. Lambrecht (the mother-church of Mariazell). Count Henry I. of Moravia built a chapel for it about 1200, and Lewis I., King of Hungary, enclosed this chapel in a larger church, after a victory over the Turks in 1363.

The INTERIOR is 207 ft. long and 69 ft. broad. Behind a silver railing in the nave is the chapel containing the miraculous Image, on a silver altar. The Pulpit is of red marble. On the High Altar is an ebony crucifix and two lifesize silver figures, presented by the Emperor Charles VI. Beneath the cross is a silver terrestrial globe, 6 ft. in diameter, surrounded by a serpent. The rosaries and similar articles placed by pilgrims on a long table in the corner to the right are blessed by a priest from time to time. In the upper ambulatories are numerous votive pictures, and over the arches are larger and more ancient paintings representing remarkable occurrences connected with Mariazell. — The Treasury contains precious vessels, reliquaries, gems, pearls, and ornaments; miniature altars of rare Itones; old mass-books, etc. Over the altar is a Madonna, by an early stalian master, presented by King Lewis I. of Hungary.

The semicircle of booths and stalls beside the church is devoted to the sale of religious articles and mementoes.

EXCURSIONS. Through the Grünau (Maria Waterfall; refreshments at the Klitznerhauer's) to the (1½ hr.) Erlafsee (2740 ft.; Seewirth*, at the upper end, trout; lake-baths; boats for hire), from which we may return by the S. bank to the Herrenhaus (*Inn), at the E. end, and thence by the direct road to (3 M.) Mariazell.

To the Lassing Fall, 4-4¼ hrs. (carr. there and back 8 fl.). We follow the road to the N. viâ Mitterbach and the Josefsberg (3365 ft.) to (3¾ hrs.) Wienerbruck (2590 ft.; Burger), and descend thence to the left to the (25 min.) fall, 200 ft. high, amidst grand rocky environs. (The fall, in itself insignificant, may be improved by the opening of a sluice; fee 2 fl.; tickets at Burger's Inn.) An interesting path descends to the left from the fall, crosses the Erlaf, and leads to the left through the romantic Oetschergraben to the (2 hrs.) Klause, and thence viâ the Riffel-Sattel (4210 ft.) to the top of the (3½ hrs.) Oetscher* (p. 83).

FROM MARIAZELL TO GAMING (25 M.). The road leads across the Zellerrain (3510 ft.) to (8½ M.) Neuhaus (3290 ft.; Konrad) and (15 M.) Langau (2260 ft.; Inn, clean), in the upper valley of the Ybbs, and then over the Grubberg (p. 83) to (25 M.) Gaming (p. 83).

FROM MARIAZELL TO KERNHOF, 16 M., diligence daily in 4 hrs., through the Hallthal and over the Knollenhals. — FROM KERNHOF TO ST. PÖLTEN, 33 M., railway in 3 hrs., viâ St. Egydi, Freiland, Schrambach, Lilienfeld (with a celebrated Cistercian abbey), and Scheibmühl (p. 83).

FROM MARIAZELL TO GROSS-REIFLING VIÂ WEICHSELBODEN AND WILDALPEN, 46½ M. Diligence to (18 M.) Weichselhoden in 4 hrs. (6 fl.); thence to (11 M.) Wildalpen in 2¼ hrs. (4 fl.); and thence to (17½ M.) Reifling in 4 hrs. (6 fl.). — The road quits the Bruck road at the (5 M.) Gusswerk (p. 181) and ascends the picturesque valley of the Salza. Beyond (6 M.) Greith (Inn) it quits the river and crosses the Hals (2785 ft.) to (7 M.) Weichselboden (2220 ft.; Post*; Schützenauer, 1 M. to the E.), a small village at the union of the Radmerbach with the Salza, in a sequestered basin surrounded by lofty mountains. The road hence still follows the rocky ravine of the Salza. Beyond a small tunnel it crosses to the left bank and reaches (5½ M.) Gschöder (Inn), at the mouth of the Antengraben, and thence leads between the precipices of the Riegerin (6370 ft.), on the right, and the Hochstadl (6300 ft.), on the left. — 5½ M. Wildalpen (2000 ft.; Zisler*), a thriving village and summer-resort, is charmingly situated on the Wildalpenbach, which here falls into the Salza. We continue to follow the narrow, wooded valley of the Salza, which is joined on the right by the (2½ M.) Lassing and at Erzhalden, 4½ M. farther on, by the Mendling. Beyond the (¾ M.)

Zur Wacht Inn the road divides. The shortest route to the Ennsthal and the railway leads viâ the (3 M.) church of Palfau (Hinterbuchinger's Inn), follows the right bank of the Salza to its confluence with the Enns, and then crosses the latter to (2¼ hrs.) Gross-Reifling (railway-station, see p. 186).

The ROAD TO SEEWIESEN leads through the pretty valley of the Salza. To the right, on a wooded rock, stands the Sigmunds-Kapelle, originally fortified and surrounded with lofty walls in the 16th cent. to protect it against the Turks. At the (5 M.) Gusswerk (2450 ft.; *Inn), with important iron-works, the road to Weichselboden diverges to the right (see p. 183). Our road now quits the Salza, ascends the Aschbach-Thal to the S.E., uniting after 2½ M. with the road from Frein (p. 182), and reaches (9 M. from Mariazell) the small village of Wegscheid (2670 ft.; Neue Post; Alte Post). — From Wegscheid to Mürzsteg across the Niederalpel (3½ hrs.), see p. 182.

FROM WEGSCHEID TO WEICHSELBODEN OVER THE KASTENRIEGEL, 12 M., a pleasant route (carriage-road). About ½ M. to the S.W. of Wegscheid the road turns to the right by a finger-post into the narrow entrance of the Rammer-Thal, and ascends through wood and meadow to the (5 M.) Kastenriegel (3545 ft.), a depression between the Zeller and Aflenzer Staritzen (6525 ft.). It then descends, running at first high up on the S. slope, to (6½ M.) Weichselboden (p. 183).

The road ascends by the Gollradbach to (3¾ M.) the important iron-mines of Gollrad, and 1½ M. farther on reaches Brandhof (3660 ft.), formerly a country-seat of Archduke John (d. 1859), finely situated at the foot of the Seeberg.

The villa is adorned with portraits and statues of Austrian princes, weapons, reminiscences of the chase, etc. The small Gothic chapel, with two paintings by Schnorr, is interesting. In the garden is a select collection of Alpine plants.

The road now ascends steeply to the (½ hr.) Seeberg Pass (4115 ft.), where we enjoy a fine view of the Seethal, enclosed by the rocky walls of the Hochschwab chain, and then descends in long windings (short-cut to the left) to (½ hr.) the village of — 18½ M. Seewiesen (3175 ft.; Post*), picturesquely situated.

The Hochschwab (7435 ft.; 5 hrs.; marked path; guide, not indispensable for adepts, to Weichselboden 5 fl.) is frequently ascended from Seewiesen. We ascend the Seethal to the (2¾ hrs.) Voisthaler-Hütte (5445 ft.) on the Obere Dullwitz, and then ascend to the right by the Edelsteig to the (1¼ hr.) Schiestl-Haus, on the Schwabenboden (7380 ft.; Inn in summer), and to the (½ hr.) summit. Extensive *View, embracing the whole of the E. Alps from the Schneeberg to the Dachstein. — Descent to St. Ilgen (p. 185), viâ the Hochstein-Alpe, 3½ hrs., easy; viâ the Gehackte, a precipitous cliff, shorter and more interesting, but more difficult.

From Seewiesen the road descends the narrow Seegraben, past the Dürrsee (2965 ft.), to (4½ M.) Au-Seewiesen, ½ M. from the terminus of the Styrian NARROW-GAUGE RAILWAY to (14 M.) Kapfenberg. — Beyond (13¾ M.) Seebach-Turnau the railway descends the pretty Stübming-Thal, viâ (3 M.) Hinterberg and (5½ M.) Wappensteinhammer, to (6 M.) Aflenz, 1½ M. to the N. of which lies the village of that name (Post; Karlon), a favourite summer-resort. At (7 M.) Thörl (Sommerauer), a village with wire-works, the brooks from the S. slopes of the Hochschwab combine to form the Thörlbach. Above the village rises the picturesque ruin of Schachenstein.

28 M. Steyr (990 ft.; *Rail. Restaurant; Steyrerhof, R., L., & A. 1-2 fl.; Schiff; Krebs; Löwe, wine), with 21,500 inhab., at the confluence of the Steyr with the Enns, is noted for its iron-wares. The town, situated between the two rivers, is connected with its suburbs Ennsdorf and Steyrdorf by three bridges. On a hill rises Burg Steyr (10th cent.), the property of Count Lamberg. (Adm. to the park on application to the gardener.) The Gothic Church, built in 1443-1630, contains fine stained glass and a font in bronze, with reliefs of 1560; also a modern altar in carved wood by Guggenberger of Munich. The tower (288 ft.) was rebuilt in 1885-89 after plans by Schmidt of Vienna. The Rathhaus, in the rococo style, and the extensive Austrian Rifle Factory (adm. on application), with a tasteful monument of its founder Jos. Werndl (d. 1889), by Tilgner, are also worthy of notice. The groundfloor of the Public School is occupied by the exhibition of the Styrian Industrial Society.

Walks. At the Franz-Josefs-Platz, the Carl-Ludwig-Platz, the Pfarr-Platz, and other points in the immediate vicinity of the town are pleasant new grounds laid out by the Verschönerungs-Verein, with benches. Pretty views of the town and its environs are enjoyed from the (½ hr.) Hohe Ennsleithe, the (¼ hr.) Tabor, and the (½ hr.) Dachsberg. St. Ulrich, Garsten, and Christkindl are each within ½ hr. of the town. The tower on the Damberg* (2450 ft.), affording a splendid view, is easily reached in 2 hrs.; about ½ hr. from the top is the Inn 'Zur Dambergwarte'.

Beyond Steyr the train crosses the Enns to (29 M.) Garsten.

From Garsten to Agonitz, 20 M., railway in 2 hrs., through the pretty Steyrthal, with its numerous factories and iron-works. The train runs viâ Steyrdorf, (4½ M.) Pergern (branch to Bad Hall, see p. 87), and Aschach on the Steyr to (12½ M.) Grünburg-Steinbach, two considerable villages, with numerous cutlery-factories. Then viâ (18 M.) Leonstein (1413 ft.; *Wecht; Wagner), a summer-resort, with a château and park of Count Hallburg, and (19 M.) Molln, at the mouth of the Krumme Steyrling, to (20 M.) Agonitz, 3½ M. from the station of Herndl, on the Kremsthal railway (p. 87).

At (72½ M.) Gross-Reifling (1400 ft.; *Baumann) the Salza falls into the Enns. To Weichselboden and Mariazell, see pp. 184, 183.

The train threads two tunnels and crosses the Enns. Beyond (75½ M.) Landl are two other short tunnels. — 79 M. Hieflau (1700 ft.; Hübner zur Post; Steinberger), with iron-works, is finely situated at the confluence of the Erzbach and the Enns.

From Hieflau to Leoben, 34 M., railway in 3½-4 hrs. Beyond (2½ M.) Radmer, on a height to the left, stands the château of Leopoldstein. — 9½ M. Eisenerz (2445 ft.; König von Sachsen; Goldenes Schiff; Zum Heiligen Geist; Rudolfbahn, near the station), with 5720 inhab., an old mining-town, as its name ('iron-ore') imports, is commanded on the E. by the abrupt Pfaffenstein (6140 ft.), and on the W. by the Kaiserschild (6830 ft.). The Church of St. Oswald, a Gothic structure founded in 1279 and rebuilt in 1471-1512, is an interesting example of a mediæval fortified church. By the approach to the church is an interesting Historical Museum (adm. 20 kr.). The terrace in front of the Schicht-Thurm commands a fine view (direction-tablet). To the S. the red Erzberg (5030 ft.) closes the valley. This 'ore-mountain' is so productive that the ore is quarried in summer without the aid of mining operations. In winter, however, the subterranean mode of excavation is more convenient. The greater part of the mountain belongs to the Alpine Montan-Gesellschaft. The mines, some of which have been in operation for 1000 years, employ 2000-3000 hands in summer and 1000-1500 in winter and yield 800,000 tons of iron annually. The best plan for visitors is to take the Erzberg railway to the station of Prebichl (see below), and thence to follow the carriage-road (fine views) to the (1 hr.) Vordernberger Berghaus (Restaurant). Thence (with guide, 50 kr.) descend to the (½ hr.) Barbara-Kapelle (*Restaurant) and to (½ hr.) Eisenerz.

The *Erzberg Railway, interesting both from its bold engineering and from the beautiful views it commands (best to the left), was constructed mainly for the mineral traffic, on Abt's cogged-wheel system. With an average gradient of 68:1000 it runs to the S., through the Schicht-Thurm Tunnel (below the above-mentioned tower) to the station of Krumpenthal (2365 ft.), where the toothed rails begin. The gradient now becomes steeper. The train threads the Klammwald Tunnel, traverses lofty viaducts and wide curves, crossing the Ramsau and the Erzgraben, and stops at (13½ M.) Erzberg (3510 ft.), above the mining terraces (see above). Beyond the Platten Tunnel and the Prebichl Tunnel is the station of (16½ M.) Prebichl (3950 ft.; Spitaler's Inn*). The line now descends to (18 M.) Glasibremse (3420 ft.) and (20½ M.) Vordernberg-Markt (2660 ft.; Krone: Adler; Zelinka), a prosperous place with a brisk trade in iron. — 21½ M. Vordernberg-Staatsbahnhof (2520 ft.; Rail. Restaurant); passengers for Leohen change carriages here. The train now runs viâ Friedauwerk and Hafning to (27½ M.) Trofajach (2160 ft.; Bräuhaus; Goldener Ochse*, R. 50 kr.), a frequented summer-resort in a fine situation. Good view from the (¾ hr.) Rudolfswarte (2920 ft.). — Thence the line proceeds viâ Gmeingrub, St. Peter-Freyenstein, and Donawitz to (34 M.) Leoben (p. 204).

The Ennsthal now turns towards the W., and we enter the Gesäuse, a profound defile, 12 M. in length, flanked by the Tamischbachthurm and the Grosse Buchstein on the N., and the Hochthor and Reichenstein on the S., and traversed by the Enns, which forms a series of wild rapids (from Admont to Hieflau fall of 400 ft.). The road, which runs on the left bank, well repays the pedestrian as far as Admont (carriage and pair from Hieflau to the end of the Gesäuse 12 fl.). The railway on the right bank pierces two tunnels, between which, on the left, opens the Hartlesgraben, and then crosses to the left bank of the Enns. — 84½ M. Gstatterboden (1850 ft.; Hôtel Gesäuse*), in a grand situation. The railway next passes the mouth of the picturesque Johnsbach-Thal, on the left, and then the wild gorge of the Burggraben, on the right, and crosses the Enns. Beyond a short tunnel is the (89½ M.) station Gesäuse-Eingang. The train then enters the broad green dale of — 93 M. Admont (2105 ft.; Post; Sulzer; Buchbinder; Wölzenberger; Windisch; Bartu; Neudorfer*, at the station; good wine at the convent), a picturesque village and summer-resort. The celebrated Benedictine abbey of Admont ('ad montes'), founded in 1074, was almost entirely burned down in 1865, but has been partly rebuilt. The Gothic abbey-church, St. Blasius-Münster, with its two slender spires, is modern. The library, in a richly-decorated hall, comprises 80,000 vols. and 1000 MSS. (open daily, 10-11 and 4-5).

Good views of the environs are obtained from the bridge over the Enns, 1 M. from the railway-station. — Above Admont, to the S., stands (½ hr.) Schloss Röthelstein (2680 ft.), the property of the abbey, which affords an admirable survey of the Ennsthal: to the N.W. is the wooded Pleschberg (5636 ft.), with the church on the Frauenberg (see below) at its base; to the N. rise the 'Haller Mauern', consisting of the Grosse Pyhrgas (7360 ft.), Scheiblingstein (7220 ft.), Hexenthurm (7155 ft.), and Natterriegel (6650 ft.); to the E. is the Grosse Buchstein (7295 ft.); to the S.E. the Sparafeld (7365 ft.).

The train follows the broad valley of the Enns. To the right, near (97½ M.) Frauenberg, rises the Frauenberg with the pilgrimage church of Mariakulm. At the confluence of the Paltenbach with the Enns the line turns towards the S. — 102 M. Selzthal (2080 ft.; Railway Hotel, Krone, both plain; Rail. Restaurant*), the junction of the line to Aussee and Bischofshofen (for Salzburg).

From Selzthal to Aussee and Bischofshofen. Railway to (30 M.) Aussee in 1½-2 hrs. (fares 1 fl. 50 kr., 1 fl., 50 kr.); to (62 M.) Bischofshofen in 2¼-3¾ hrs. (fares 3, 2, 1 fl.). — The railway crosses the Paltenbach and runs to the W. through the valley of the Enns, crossing the Enns and the Pyhrnbach, to (3½ M.) Lietzen (2160 ft.; Post; Fuchs*), a large village at the mouth of the Pyhrnthal. A diligence plies hence daily in summer to (15 M.) Windischgarsten (Fuchsjäger; Erzherzog Albrecht; Schöne Aussicht), a finely situated summer-resort. — The railway skirts the hillside. At (12 M.) Steinach-Irding (2105 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Würschinger) the line divides; the right branch goes to Aussee, the left to Bischofshofen.

The railway to Aussee soon begins rapidly to ascend the N. slope of the valley, affording fine views of the Ennsthal. Beyond two tunnels it enters the narrow and romantic Grimmingbach-Thal, and ascends in windings high up on the left side, reaching its highest point at (17 M.) Klachau (2730 ft.). — 20½ M. Mitterndorf-Zauchen (2615 ft.); 26 M. Kainisch, on the Oedensee-Train, which issues from the Oedensee (2570 ft.), 1½ M. to the S. Then along the wooded Traunthal to (30 M.) Aussee (p. 110).

The line from Steinach to Bischofshofen crosses the Grimmingbach and skirts the base of the precipitous Grimming (7710 ft.) to (20 M.) Oeblarn (Fischer; Grogger). — 23 M. Stein, at the mouth of the Sölkthal; 25 M. Gröbming, the village of which name lies 2 M. to the N.; 30 M. Haus. —

36 M. Schladming (2400 ft.; Alte Post*; Bräuhaus* or Neue Post; Tutter; Lebzelter; Zum Dachstein) is a large village pleasantly situated at the entrance to the Schladming-Thal. For excursions hence to the Ramsau, etc., and mountain-ascents, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The Ennsthal contracts. 39½ M. Pichl. At (42 M.) Mandling we cross the Mandlingbach, the frontier between Styria and Salzburg. — 47 M. Radstadt (2810 ft.; Post*; Thorwirth), an old walled town, standing on a rocky hill to the right. A diligence plies hence daily in summer in 23 hrs. (the night being spent at St. Michael, 40 M.) to (67½ M.) Spital (p. 173) viâ the Radstädter Tauern (5700 ft.); see Baedeker's Eastern Alps. — At (48½ M.) Altenmarkt the line quits the Enns, which rises 12 M. to the S.W. in the Flachau, and runs N.W. to (51 M.) Eben (2810 ft.), on the watershed between the Enns and the Salzach. It then descends the narrow Fritzthal viâ Hüttau (Post), traversing several tunnels and repeatedly crossing the Fritzbach. It penetrates the Kreuzberg by a tunnel 770 yds. in length, descends to the left, and crosses the Salzach to (62 M.) Bischofshofen (1795 ft.; Rail. Restaurant), see p. 120.

The train skirts the slopes of the Dürrenschöberl (5700 ft.) and enters the wooded Palten-Thal, a valley ascending to the E. On a pine-clad hill to the right rises the château of Strechau.

105 M. Rottenmann (2210 ft.; Tirolerhof*; Post; Goldbrich) is an ancient little town with iron-works. From (112½ M.) Trieben a road leads to the right to (33 M.) Judenburg (p. 205) viâ Hohentauern (4150 ft.). Near (115 M.) Gaishorn, to the right, lies the little Gaishorn Lake. The line ascends to the station of (121½ M.) Wald, on the Schober Pass (2785 ft.), the watershed between the Enns and Mur, and then descends the Liesing-Thal to Kallwang, with copper mines, Mautern, Kammern, Seitz, and Traboch-Timmersdorf. Then (142½ M.) St. Michael (Ruil. Restaurant*), also a station on the line from Villach to Bruck (p. 205) and 17½ M. from the latter.

Gratz (1135 ft.), the capital of Styria, with about 113,000 inhab. and a garrison of 4500 men, picturesquely situated on both banks of the Mur, which is crossed by seven bridges, is one of the pleasantest and healthiest of the Austrian provincial capitals, and is the residence of many retired civil servants and officers. On the left bank is the old or Inner Town (I. Bezirk, or district), adjoined by the former Jakomini Suburb (II.) to the S., and Geidorf (III.) to the N.; on the right bank are the districts of Lend (IV.) and Gries (V.). Gratz is an industrial place of considerable importance.

The chief thoroughfare between the centre of the town and the right bank of the Mur is the Franz-Carl Bridge (Pl. C, 5), built in 1891, with bronze figures of Austria and Styria, by Brandstetter, on the central buttresses, handsome candelabra surmounted by eagles, and a tasteful balustrade.

The HAUPT-PLATZ (Pl. C, D, 5) is embellished with a bronze Statue of Archduke John (d. 1859), by Pönninger, erected in 1878. — On the S. side of the Platz is the new Rathhaus (Pl. 10), a handsome German Renaissance building erected in 1887-92 by Wielemann and Reuter. The façade is adorned with twelve statues of men of importance in the history of the town. The staircase is decorated with a fresco by Scholz, representing Gratz in 1635. The Council Room contains a Court Scene of 1478, by N. Strobel.

In the Franzens-Platz (Pl. D, 4), to the N.E., is a bronze Statue of Emperor Francis II. (Pl. 2), in the robes of the Golden Fleece, by Marchesi (1841). On the E. side of the Platz is the Theater am Franzensplatz (Pl. 11) and the old Imperial Burg, or palace, now government offices, with an interesting spiral staircase at the end of the first court.

The Cathedral (Pl. 5; D, 4, 5), a Gothic structure of 1446-62 (the copper roof of the tower added in 1663), has been extensively modernized. It has an interesting W. Portal.

INTERIOR. The high-altar-piece in the choir, representing the Miracles of St. Ægidius, is by Jos. Flurer. On the walls are two votive paintings by Peter de Pomis, representing the Archduke Charles II. with his family before the crucifix and the Virgin. To the right and left of the approach to the choir are marble pedestals supporting two ebony reliquaries, brought from Italy in 1617. The six small ivory *Reliefs, choice Italian works of the 16th cent., represent the triumphs of Love, Innocence, Death, etc. (from Petrarch's 'I Trionfi').

The Mausoleum (Pl. 8), adjoining the cathedral, was built by Emp. Ferdinand II. (d. 1637), who sought refuge in Gratz at the outbreak of the Thirty Years' War. The vault contains his tom band the sarcophagi of his parents, Archduke Charles II. (d. 1590) and his Archduchess.

The Landhaus (Pl. D, 5), or Hall of the Estates, in the Herrengasse, the busiest street in the town, with the best shops, was erected in the Renaissance style in the 16th century. Interesting portal with two balconies, to the right of which is a curious painted notice of 1588, cautioning those who enter against quarrelling or 'drawing their daggers or bread-knives'.

The first court, with the arcades (new cloister of 1890) and a finely executed fountain, in cast and wrought iron of 1590, is particularly pleasing. Memorial tablet to Johann Kepler, the astronomer. The Rittersaal and Landtags-Saal ('Hall of the Diet') may be inspected.

The old Landes-Zeughaus, or Arsenal (erected in 1644), adjoining the Landhaus on the S., is maintained in exactly the same condition as it was 250 years ago, with a large quantity of weapons, chiefly of the 17th century. (Admission from the Landhaus daily, 10-1, 30 kr.; Sun. free).

The Parish Church (Pl. D, 5), farther on, to the left, a late-Gothic edifice of the 15th cent. (restored in 1875), contains an Assumption by Tintoretto as an altar-piece. — Near the end of the street opposite the Carl-Ludwig-Ring is the graceful Auersperg-Brunnen.

The Joanneum (Pl. D, 5) was founded in 1811 by Archduke John The Old Joanneum (Raubergasse 10) contains the Natural History Museum (geological, zoological, and botanical collections), the Prehistoric Collection (containing the 'Judenburger Wagen'), and the Cabinet of Coins and Antiquities (daily, 10-11, 20 kr.; Sun. free). The Library (over 140,000 vols.) is accommodated in a modern addition, which has reading-rooms on the groundfloor and an exhibition of rare books, etc., on the first floor (adm. 10-1, from May 1st to July 15th also 4-7; in winter 10-1 and 4-9).

The new Museum Buildings, a huge pile in the rococo style from the plans of Gunolt, opened in 1895, contain the Historical and Industrial Art Museum and the Collection of Paintings and Engravings. Admission: Sun., 10-1, free; Tues., Wed., Frid., & Sat., 9-1, 25 kr.; Thurs., 10-2, 50 kr.

The valuable collections of the Historical and Industrial Museum (Director, Prof. K. Lacher; catalogue 20 kr.) occupy three stories and are arranged in the following divisions: Dwelling-rooms from Styria; industrial and art-industrial works; ecclesiastical art and art-industries; historical portraits and relics; collection of samples of art-industrial works and a collection of models, with a drawing-room. Specially interesting are the Landschadenbund-Becher*, a masterpiece of the goldsmith's art in the 16th cent.; the *'Weizer Prunksaal' of 1563, and the old Styrian rooms of 1564, 1568, 1577, 1596, and 1607; the travelling-carriage of Emp. Frederick III., and the double litter of Stephan Bathory and his wife. Finally there is a room for the sale of modern Styrian art-industrial products.

The Collection of Paintings and Engravings is arranged in four rooms on the first floor. Among the works of the early-German school are: Cranach, Knight at the parting of the ways; B. Strigel, Emp. Maximilian; H. Memling, Mary of Burgundy. Dutch masters: Portraits by G. de Crayer and M. de Vos; P. Brueghel, Triumph of Death; H. Goltzius, Ecce Homo. Italian masters: G. Vasari, Michael Angelo; L. Giordano, Adoration of the Magi; P. de Pomis, Apotheosis of the Archduchess Maria, wife of Charles II. The older and the more modern Viennese schools are also represented.

Opposite, in the Neuthorgasse, is the new Post and Telegraph Office (Pl. C, 5), a magnificent building in the Renaissance style, by Fr. Setz. Adjacent, on the Stadtkai, rise the new Law Courts (Pl. q; C, 5), a handsome building designed by Wielemanns and Reuter.

On the site of the former glacis, between the inner town and the outlying suburbs, is the Stadt-Park (30 acres), charmingly laid out in the English style, and adorned with a Bust of Schiller by Gasser, the 'Waldlilie' (a bronze figure by Brandstetter, illustrating a poem by Rosegger), a marble statue of Count Anton Al. Auersperg, the poet (d. 1876), by Kundmann, and the handsome bronze Franz-Josefs-Brunnen*, by Durenne of Paris. Near the last are the Café Wirth and a Band Stand (concerts, see p. 189).

In the Glacis-Str. is the Leech-Kirche (Pl. E, 4), a small but interesting Gothic church (13th cent.), with old stained glass. — The Harrach-Str. leads to the E. to the new Karl-Franz University (Pl. E, 3; 1750 students), an imposing building from Rezori's designs (1890-95). Adjacent, to the left, are the Physical and the Anatomical-Physiological Institutes, to the right the Chemical Institute. The University Library, at the back of the central building, contains upwards of 130,000 volumes. — In the Rechbauer-Str., to the S.E. of the Stadtpark, is the Technical College (Pl. E, 5), a handsome Renaissance building by Hauberrisser and Wüst (1888). Farther to the E., in the Naglergasse, is the Herz-Jesu-Kirche (Pl. F,5), a modern building in the early-Gothic style from Hauberrisser's designs, with a lower church (crypt) and a tower 360 ft. in height.

The Schlossberg (Pl. C, D, 3, 4; 1545 ft.) towers above the town. The fortifications, constructed in the 15th cent. to protect the town against the Turks, were blown up by the French in 1809 in consequence of the armistice, after they had been successfully defended for four weeks by a garrison of 500 Austrians against 3000 French under General Macdonald. The plateau in front of the chalet (restaurant), halfway up the E. side, is adorned with a Statue of General Welden (d. 1853), the originator of the promenades, in bronze. On the S. slope are a quaint Clock Tower (52 ft. high), bearing a gigantic clock-dial, and the Türken-Brunnen (300 ft. deep). On the upper platform are a Belfry, 60 ft. high, and four topographical indicators. The noble *View is justly celebrated. The course of the Mur and the populous valley, surrounded by mountains of beautiful form, present a most picturesque scene. To the N. rises the Schöckel, N.W. the Alps of Upper Styria, S.W. the Koralpe, S. the Bacher Mts.

A CABLE TRAMWAY, starting every 1/4 hr., ascends the Schlossberg in 3 min. from No. 56 Sack-Strasse (Pl. C, 4); fares, up 20, down 10 kr., monthly ticket 2 fl. The line is 230 yds. long, has a double track with a toothed rail as an additional precaution, and ascends at a gradient of 60 : 100. Beside the engine-house at the top (360 ft. above the street) is a Café-Restaurant, with view-terrace. — FOOT PASSENGERS ascend (20 min.) on the E. side, from the Carmeliter-Platz (Pl. D, 4): the road passes through an archway under the house No. 1 Paulusthorgasse (with the inscription 'Am Fuss des Schlossbergs'), and passes the Clock Tower and the Türken-Brunnen (see above). On the N. side the hill is ascended from the Wickenburggasse (Pl. C, 3).

The next and last station is (42 M.) Wies (Heinisser; Stelzer), pleasantly situated on the Weisse Sulm, with iron-works and forges, commanded by an old castle. — We now follow the road towards the S.W. to (3 M.) Eibiswald, with iron-works, and ascend thence by a steep but well-kept road over the Radlberg (2200 ft.), which commands a fine view of the Drave Valley and the Karawanken Chain to the S., and of the Schwanberg Alps as far as Gratz on the N. The road then descends into the valley of the Drave to (12 M.) Mahrenberg, a straggling village, with a ruined monastery, from which we cross the Drave by means of a ferry to the (¾ hr.) railway-station of Wuchern (p. 200).

The Schwanberg Alps attract many excursionists from Gratz (comp. Map, p. 204). The line now enters the Windisch-Büheln, the hills between the Mur and the Drave, penetrating the watershed by the Egidi Tunnel (200 yds.). Near (36½ M.) Pössnitz it crosses the Pössnitz-Thal by a viaduct 700 yds. in length, pierces the Posruck by means of the Leitersberg Tunnel (725 yds.), and descends to —

41 M. Marburg (880 ft.; Erzherzog Johann; Mohr;* Stadt Meran; Stadt Wien; Traube;* Restaurant* in the Casino; Rail. Restaurant), the second town in Styria, with 20,000 inhab., picturesquely situated on the left bank of the Drau, at the base of the Posruck. The Tappeiner-Platz in front of the Commercial School is embellished with a statue of Admiral Tegetthoff (1827-71), a native of Marburg. Adjacent is the Stadt-Park, with monuments to

From Marburg to Villach and Franzensfeste, see RR. 29, 22.

The train crosses the Drave by a long bridge (picturesque view of the town and the Drave Valley to the right). A broad plain is now traversed; to the right, the slopes of the Bacher-Gebirge. 48 1/2 M. Kranichsfeld; 52 1/2 M. Pragerhof (823 ft.; Rail. Restaurant), the junction for Nagy Kanizsa and Budapest (see R. 76).

The train enters a hilly district and passes through two tunnels. 56 M. Windisch-Feistritz. — 60 1/2 M. Pöltschach (Baumann, near the station), at the base of the Wotsch (3215 ft.).

The conical Donatiberg (2900 ft.) is a favourite point of view (2 1/2 hrs. from Markt-Rohitsch); near the top is the Frölich-Hütte (2840 ft.).

Railway from Pöltschach, viâ Heiligengeist and Gattersdorf, to (9 1/2 M., in 1 hr.) Gonobitz (Hirsch), a pleasant wine-growing town with two châteaux.

Germau is now replaced by a Slavonic or Wendish dialect. The train winds through a sparsely-peopled district, intersected by narrow valleys, and richly wooded. Several small stations and foundries are passed. At length an extensive view of the Sannthal, a hilly, populous, and undulating plain, bounded by the Sannthal Alps, is suddenly disclosed.

82 1/2 M. Cilli (790 ft.; Erzherzog Johann; Elephant; Stadt Wien; Hôtel Koscher*), a pleasant old town on the Sann (6260 inhab.), founded by Emp. Claudius (Claudia Celeja), attracts visitors by the picturesqueness of its environs and its river-baths (in summer 75-85° Fahr.). The Museum contains interesting Roman antiquities (Sun. & Thurs. 10-12; other days on application). On the right bank of the Sann is the Town Park, prettily laid out.

The (1/4 hr.) Josefiberg (985 ft.) commands a charming view, and the (3/4 hr.) Laisberg (1545 ft.) is a still finer point. On the wooded Schlossberg stands the ruin of Ober-Cilli (1350 ft.; 1 hr.).

The Baths of Neuhaus (1160 ft.; Curhaus*), frequented chiefly by ladies, lie 10 1/2 M. to the N.W. of Cilli, on the spurs of the Sannthal Alps (diligence twice daily in 2 hrs.). Thermal water (117° Fahr.), almost free from mineral ingredients. Charming environs, and beautiful walks in every direction, particularly to the (3/4 hr.) ruined Schlangenburg (1660 ft.), with an extensive view.

The interesting Hudalukna-Klamm, in the Packthal, is 6 M. to the N.

Excursions to the Sannthal Alps or Steiner Alpen, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The train crosses the Sann twice, and enters the narrow wooded ravine of that stream. The scenery between Cilli and Sava (see below) is the finest on the line. Several of the hills are crowned with churches and chapels. — 89 M. Markt-Tüffer (930 ft.), with the Franz-Josefs-Bad and a ruined castle.

The Franz-Josefs-Bad, prettily situated at the foot of the dolomitic Humberg (1920 ft.), on the left bank of the Sann, possesses three warm springs (95-102°), resembling those at Neubaus and Römerbad. Visitors received at the Curhaus* (pens. from 2½ fl.; closed in winter) and at the lodging-houses Zum Flösser, Zur Brücke, Bräuhaus, Villa Stein, Rödelhof, and others.

94 M. Römerbad (690 ft.; Post, at the station; Alte Post, ⅓ M. from the station, near the baths; both well spoken of). The baths of that name, Slav. Teplitza ('warm bath'; 97°), which are proved by inscriptions to have been known to the Romans, beautifully situated on the opposite bank of the Sann, have a good Curhaus (200 rooms; closed in winter), etc.

Beyond Ratschach, 2 M. below Steinbrück, is the château of Weichselstein, rising above the Save, with a park containing rare pines (carr. from Römerbad in 1¼ hr., 5 fl.). Another excursion is through the Gramnitz-Thal (a side-valley of the Sann, with grand dolomite rocks) to Gairach, with its ruined monastery (12 M. from Römerbad; carr. in 2 hrs., 7 fl.).

97½ M. Steinbrück (Rail. Restaurant*, with rooms) is a thriving village on the Save or Sau, which here falls into the Sann.

From Steinbrück to Agram, 47 M., railway in 3 hrs. Stations: Lichtenwald, Reichenburg, Videm-Gurkfeld, Rann, and Zaprešić (to Warasdin and Csakathurn, see p. 395). From (41½ M.) Podsused we may drive to Samobor (p. 398) in 1 hr. — 47 M. Agram (Süd-Bahnhof), see p. 397.

The train follows the ravine of the Save, bounded by lofty limestone cliffs. 103 M. Hrastnigg; 106 M. Trifail, with one of the largest coal-mines in Austria (yielding about 300,000 tons annually). The coal is excavated in large open quarries, where the huge seam, 65-80 ft. thick, doubled and trebled at places by dislocations, rises in cliffs of quite imposing appearance. 109 M. Sagor, the first place in Carniola; 114 M. Sava. The valley expands. At (118 M.) Littai the Save is crossed; to the right, the château of Poganek. Scenery still picturesque. 122 M. Kressnitz; 127½ M. Laase. At the influx of the Laibach into the Save the line enters the valley of the former. 132 M. Salloch. To the N.W. rise the Julian Alps; in clear weather the Terglou is visible.

137 M. Laibach (940 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; *Stadt Wien; Elephant; Hôt. Lloyd, Bayrischer Hof, both near the station; Café-Restaurant Casino; Café Valvazor*), Slav. Ljubljana, on the Laibach, the capital of Carniola, with 34,000 inhab. (chiefly Slavs), lies in an extensive plain enclosed by a succession of hills rising in ter-

ces. The town was severely injured by an earthquake in April, 895. The old Castle, now uninhabited, which commands the town, fords a superb view, especially towards the Terglou and the Sann-al Alps. The Cathedral, in the Italian style, is decorated with ucco mouldings and frescoes of the 18th century. At the begin-ng of Lattermann's Allée is the Landes-Museum (adm. Sun. 10-12, urs. 2-4 free, other days 30 kr.), with natural history and other llections (including lacustrine remains from Carniola) and a cture-gallery. New Theatre. Concerts are given at the Tonhalle the Philharmonic Society. The Stern-Allée is adorned with a onze Bust of Marshal Radetzky, by Fernkorn.

Pleasant walk through Lattermann's Allée, an avenue with beautiful i chestnuts, to the (3/4 M.) park and château of Tivoli, commanding a arming view (restaurant) and to (3/4 M.) Unter-Rosenbach (café), both vourite resorts. Thence through wood to (20 min.) Ober-Rosenbach (1280 ft.), th its conspicuous church, whence a fine view is obtained.

A narrow-gauge railway (48 M., in 3 hrs.) runs to the S.E. from Lai-ch viâ (13 1/2 M.) Gross-Lupp (branch-line to Strascha, 38 1/2 M.) to Gott-hee (Post), a German-speaking town (2830 inhab.) in the Karst. Near it e the interesting Friedrichstein Ice Cave, made accessible in 1893, and ner caverns.

Another railway runs from Laibach to the W. to (14 M.) Stein (1245 ft.; scher), a little town, pleasantly situated at the S. foot of the Steiner Alps e Baedeker's Eastern Alps).

From Laibach to Villach, see R. 30.

The line now traverses the Laibacher Moos by means of an nbankment nearly 1 1/2 M. long, and crosses the Laibach, which eady becomes navigable here, though it issues from the moun-ins at Ober-Laibach, only 2 1/2 M. higher up. This river is prob-ly identical with the Poik, which rises near stat. St. Peter (p. 198), sappears in the cavern of Adelsberg (p. 198), re-appears at Planina the Unz, and after a brief career is again lost to view to the S. of itsch. Such phenomena are not uncommon among the Julian Alps, limestone range intersecting Carniola from N.W. to S.E.

Before reaching (150 1/2 M.) Franzdorf the train crosses a viaduct rne by a double series of arches, 625 yds. in length and 125 ft. gh in the centre. It then passes Ober-Laibach and stops at (160 M.) itsch (1555 ft.; Kramer, unpretending).

QUICKSILVER MINES OF IDRIA, 21 M. to the N.W. of Loitsch. Diligence ice daily in 4 1/2 hrs., 1 fl.; carriage there and back in 6-8 hrs., 6-8 fl.; spection of the mines and mining appliances, 3-4 hrs. The road leads i Hotedersic and Godovič and through the picturesque gorge of the Sala Idria (1540 ft.; Schwarzer Adler*), the largest town (5000 inhab.) in Car-la but one, finely situated on the Idriza. The quicksilver-mines, dis-vered in 1497, have been worked by government since 1580 (ticket of mission from the manager, 1 fl. 20 kr.). The ore, containing on an av-ge 1 per cent of quicksilver, occurs chiefly in the form of cinnabar; h cinnabar sometimes contains 75 per cent of the pure metal. Pure icksilver occurs very rarely here. The foundries at which the ore is elted lie on the right bank of the Idriza, 1/2 M. to the N.E. of Idria. e quicksilver is obtained by smelting and distillation, and particularly mixing the heated and pulverised cinnabar with unslaked lime, which mbines with the sulphur and sets the metal free. The annual yield is) tons of quicksilver, of which about a tenth is converted into pigment on the spot. The miners, about 1200 in number, form a kind of regulated colony; the women employ themselves in lace-making. The château of Gewerkenegg, built in 1527 and now the mine-office, the theatre, built under Maria Theresa, and the school should be noticed. Walks may be taken to the (½ M.) Zemlja Park and the (1½ M.) Wilden-See.

169 M. Rakek, about 4 M. to the E. of which is the Zirknitzer See, abounding in fish. — 177 M. Adelsberg (1800 ft.; Adelsberger Hof; Hôt. National; Krone; Restaurant* near the station), Slav. Postójna, is a summer-resort of the Triesters. Fine view from the Schlossberg or castle-hill (2215 ft.; 25 min.), with its ruined castle.

The celebrated Adelsberg Grotto, known in the middle ages and accidentally re-discovered in 1818, is illuminated with electric light daily in summer (April 15th-Oct. 15th) at 10.30 a.m. (adm. 2½ fl. for each person; no extras), but it may also be visited at any other time on payment of from 10 to 40 fl. according to the scale of the illumination (ticket-office near the church; omn. from the hotels, 15 kr., from the station, 50 kr.). Gratuities are forbidden. Total length of the cavern, so far as accessible, upwards of 2½ M. The visit usually takes 2½ hrs. (chair with four bearers 6 fl.). Temperature of the interior 48° Fahr.

An avenue of lime-trees ascends to the ENTRANCE (1970 ft.), closed by a gate, ¾ M. to the W. of Adelsberg. The cavern consists of several different chambers: 1. The Poik Cavern, into which the Poik (Piuka; see p. 197) flows, 60 ft. below the entrance, this being the beginning of its subterranean channel. Two natural bridges of rock, connected by one of masonry, lead to the — 2. Cathedral, 72 ft. high, 158 ft. broad. The dimensions of this imposing grotto appear magnified owing to the uncertain light, and the eye in vain endeavours to penetrate its sombre recesses, from the bottom of which the murmur of the Poik reaches the ear. — 3. The Kaiser-Ferdinand Grotto, consisting of a succession of chambers, in one of which, the Ball Room, 150 ft. long and upwards of 40 ft. high, balls take place annually on Whit-Monday and on 15th August, with brilliant illumination. — 4. The Franz-Joseph-Elisabeth Grotto, one of the most spacious caverns known, 112 ft. in height, 223 yds. in length, and 214 yds. in breadth, containing the Belvedere, a height composed of fragments of stalactites. — 5. The Maria-Anna Grotto, with the Calvarienberg, the farthest point from the entrance.

About 1½ M. from Adelsberg is the Ottok Grotto (adm. for 1-5 pers. 2 fl. each, 6-10 pers. 1½ fl. each), another interesting cavern with magnificent pure white stalactites.

FROM ADELSBERG TO PRÄWALD, 8 M., diligence daily in 1¾ hr. About 4 M. from Adelsberg a road diverges on the right to Landol and (4½ M.) Lueg (1660 ft.; inn), a village with a castle, picturesquely situated at the foot of a wall of rock, 400 ft. high, containing several fortified caves. At its base is a grotto in which the Lokva is swallowed up. — Präwald (1900 ft.; Bräuhaus), with 350 inhab., is a summer-resort of the Triesters. The Nanos (4265 ft.) is frequently ascended hence (3½ hrs., with guide). Extensive view of the Carinthian Alps, the Adriatic, and the coast of Istria.

The train now traverses the valley of the Poik to Prestranek and (183½ M.) St. Peter (1900 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Südbahn-Hôtel; Stadt Fiume, unpretending). To Abbazia and Fiume, see R. 34.

Beyond St. Peter the train enters an inhospitable and dreary plain, strewn with blocks of limestone, called the Karst (Ital. Carso, Slav. Kras), extending from Fiume to Gorizia (p. 213). The surface is intersected by gorges, and partly covered with underwood and loose stones; numerous funnel-shaped cavities ('Dolinen') are observed in the rocks. The fierce N.E. wind (Bora) which often prevails here has been known to overthrow loaded waggons. The train passes through

A diligence plies twice daily in 3 hrs. viâ Eberndorf and Miklauzhof (Inn) to (12½ M.) Eisenkappel (1830 ft.; Niederdorfer), a large village at the influx of the Ebriach-Bach into the Vellach-Bach, good headquarters for the exploration of the Karawanken and Sannthal Alps (see Baedeker's Eastern Alps). The fortifications, destroyed by the French in 1809, have been converted into a Ring-Strasse. The Museum Rudolfinum (Pl. C, 4, 5) is situated in the latter, near the station. On the groundfloor is a large *Relief of the Gross-Glockner group, by P. Oberlercher (adm. 30 kr.). The first story contains the Museum of Natural History (Sun. 10-12, Wed. 2-4, free; other days 9-12 and 2-5, 20 kr.); in the second story are the collections of the Carinthian Historical Society (Sun. 10-12 and Wed. 2-4, free; other days, 9-12 and 2-5, 30 kr.), including Roman and prehistoric antiquities, mediæval and modern works of art, a library, and the provincial archives. Near the museum, to the right, is the School of Agriculture and Mining, with a bronze bust of the Emperor Joseph II. The principal hall of the Landhaus, or House of the Estates (Pl. The gallery (164 ft.) of the tower of the parish-church (Pl. B, 2, 3) commands a fine Panorama of the environs (20 kr.). The Franz-Josefs-Anlagen on the Kreuzberg, 1/2 hr. to the N.W. of the town, contain a tower 82 ft. in height, commanding a beautiful view of the entire chain of the Karawanken Alps, etc. (adm. 10 kr.; *Restaurant). Pleasant lake-baths in the Wörther-See (steamboat, see below; also tramway to the Military Swimming Baths).

Railway to Glandorf, see p. 206. From Klagenfurt a road leads to the S. over the Loibl (4495 ft.) to (36 M.) Krainburg (p. 203). In the Feistritz-Thal, on the S. side of the Karawanken chain, is the considerable village of Neumarktl (*Post), 3 hrs. from Krainburg.

(Steamboat on the Wörther See, a pleasant break in the railway-journey, several times daily to Velden and back). To the left, on a promontory, is the château of Maria-Loretto, and farther on, on the S. bank, lies Maiernigg, both with restaurants and baths. — 84 M. Krumpendorf (Simonwirth), with baths and numerous villas. 86 1/2 M. Pritschitz; opposite, on a rocky promontory on the S. bank, the village of Maria-Wörth (Inn on the lake), with an ancient Gothic church. — 87 1/2 M. Pörtschach (Wahliss's Establishment*, consisting of a hotel and twelve villas, with restaurant, large park, etc.; Werzer; Hôt.-Pens. the old Schloss Göss on the left) to (18 M.) St. Michael (Rail. Restaurant; Hôtel Kronprinz Rudolf*, at the station, well spoken of), the junction for Selzthal (R. 26).

20 M. Kaisersberg. — 28 M. St. Lorenzen. In the Kobenz-Thal, 4½ M. to the N., lies Seckau, with a fine abbey-church. — 32 M. Knittelfeld (2115 ft.; Fintze; Pissel), a prettily-situated industrial town (5800 inhab.), with the workshops of the state-railway. An ancient monument in the chief square commemorates the ravages of the plague, the Turks, and locusts. Important cattle-fairs are held here on Aug. 24th and other dates. About 2 M. to the W. lies Schloss Spielberg (2300 ft.), commanding a fine view.

The valley of the Mur now expands to its greatest width. — 36½ M. Zeltweg (Gumpl), with extensive iron-works.

41 M. Judenburg (2380 ft.; Post* or *Krone; Brand; Nowotny Frank, with garden), a very ancient town (4642 inhab.), 1 M. from the station, on a height on the right bank of the Mur, at the foot of the Seethal Alps. The principal church dates from the 16th century. In the Platz rise the Römerthurm (235 ft.), built in 1449-1509 (fine view from the gallery, 10 kr.), and a column in memory of the plague, erected in 1719. Fine view from the Anlagen on the N. and E. sides of the town; also from the Calvarienberg. To the E. (¼ hr.) rise the château and the ruin of Liechtenstein.

44 M. Thalheim; 50 M. St. Georgen an der Mur. — 53 M. Unzmarkt. On the opposite bank is the ruined Frauenburg, with a chapel containing the tombstone of the minstrel Ulrich von Liechtenstein.

From Unzmarkt-Frauenburg to Mauterndorf, 48 M., railway in 5 hrs., viâ (16½ M.) Murau (2610 ft.; Post; Sonne; Bräu), a small town with three old churches, commanded by the castle of Ober-Murau. For details, see Baedeker's Eastern Alps.

The train quits the Murthal at (57 M.) Scheifling (to the right, the château of Schrattenberg, now a hotel & pension) and ascends to (62 M.) St. Lambrecht, on the watershed between the Drave and the Mur. — 65 M. Neumarkt; the village, 1 M. to the E., attracts summer-visitors. We next enter a narrow defile in which the Olsa forms a series of small cascades. On the right, near (70 M.) the station of Einöd, are the baths of that name (warm alkaline water, a cure for gout). The castle of Dürnstein, the traditional prison of Richard Cœur-de-Lion (comp. p. 91), situated on the frontier of Styria and Carinthia, guards the entrance to the Olsa-Thal.

75½ M. Friesach (2090 ft.; Post; Küster; Czechner; Bauer*), an old town (2575 inhab.), still surrounded with walls and moats, and commanded by the ruined castles of Geiersburg, Lavant, and Petersberg, and the remains of the provostry of Virgilienberg, is picturesquely situated on the right bank of the Metnitz, and is much frequented in summer. Gothic Parish Church of the 15th century. The octagonal fountain in the market was erected in 1563.

79½ M. Hirt. At the influx of the Metnitz into the Gurk, 1½ M. to the S., lies Zwischenwässern, with Schloss Pöckstein, the summer residence of the Bishop of Gurk. To the E. is the long crest of the Saualpe (see p. 200); to the S. rise the Karawanken. At (82 M.) Treibach are extensive iron-works.

91 M. Launsdorf (1696 ft.; Rail. Restaurant). The most interesting of the old ancestral castles of the Carinthian nobles which abound in this district is Hoch-Osterwitz*, 2 M. to the S.W. of stat. Launsdorf, the seat of the Khevenhüller family since 1571. This imposing and well-preserved stronghold, on a rock 500 ft. in height, is reached by a winding path hewn in the rock, passing through fourteen turreted gateways, and crossing three drawbridges. The chapel, with its numerous monuments, and the armoury are in good preservation. Fine view from the balcony and the bastions.

From Launsdorf to Hüttenberg, 20½ M., railway in 1½ hr. The train traverses the Görtschitz-Thal, the principal seat of the Carinthian iron-industry. Stations: Brückl, Eberstein, Mösel, and (18½ M.) Hüttenberg (2530 ft.; Sacherer; Krone, etc.), the chief village in the Görtschitz-Thal (2300 inhab.), at the base of the Erzberg, which yields a large proportion of the iron of Carinthia.

The train now turns to the W. and enters the valley of the Glan. — 94½ M. Glandorf (1530 ft.; Rail. Restaurant*).

From Glandorf to Klagenfurt, 11 M., railway in 40 min., traversing the Zollfeld, an extensive and at places marshy plain, where many Roman coins and other antiquities have been found. To the left, just before (3 M.) Willersdorf, is the handsome château of Stadelhof. To the left of (3½ M.) Zollfeld is the château of Töltschach, probably erected on the site of the Roman station Virunum; to the right, on a hill, on the opposite bank of the Glan, rises the castle of Tanzenberg. 5½ M. Maria-Saal, with a pilgrimage-church. Between these two stations, near the road, is the ancient Ducal Chair (surrounded by an iron railing), on which the dukes of Carinthia took the oath of fidelity to their subjects. — 11 M. Klagenfurt, see p. 201.

96 M. St. Veit (Rössl; Stern), an ancient town with 4000 inhab., on the Glan, was the capital of Carinthia down to 1519. A fountain-basin of white marble in the market-place, 30 ft. in diameter, excavated in the Zollfeld, is said to be Roman. The Museum (adm. Sun. & Thurs., 10-12) contains some interesting antiquities found in the environs, etc.

The line follows the marshy valley of the Glan. 100½ M. Feistritz-Pulst. To the right, high up, rises the ruin of Liebenfels, to the left the ruined castle of Karlsberg. — 104 M. Glanegg, with another old castle. The valley contracts, but beyond (111 M.) Feldkirchen (9 M. to the N.W. of which are the baths of St. Leonhard) becomes broad and marshy. The line approaches the Ossiacher See (1600 ft.), a lake 6 M. in length. — Opposite (119 M.) Ossiach is the village of that name, with an old monastery. 122 M. Sattendorf (*Gerlitzenhaus; Pens. Julienhöhe), frequented as a summer-resort. From (123½ M.) Annenheim steam-launches ply to the Cur-Hôtel Annenheim*, on the S. bank of the lake (pens. 3½-5 fl.). On a mountain-spur at the S.W. end of the lake stands the ruin of Landskron (p. 202).

126½ M. Villach, junction of the Franzensfeste and Marburg line (Südbahn), see p. 202 and R. 22.

Skirting the town, the train runs towards the S. and crosses the Drave by a handsome iron bridge. On the right is the Dobratsch (p. 203). — 129 M. Bad Villach (p. 203). Crossing the Gail, we next reach (132½ M.) Fürnitz, opposite Federaun, with its lofty shot-tower. — 137 M. Arnoldstein.

FROM ARNOLDSTEIN TO HERMAGOR, 19½ M., railway in 1½ hr., through the smiling Gailthal with its numerous villages, viâ Nötsch, St. Stefan, and Görtschach-Förolach. — 19½ M. Hermagor (2010 ft.; Post*; Fleiss, etc.) is a charmingly situated little town at the mouth of the Gitsch-Thal, through which a diligence plies daily in 4 hrs. to (20 M.) Kötschach (2325 ft.; Rizzi; Post), the beautifully situated capital of the upper Gailthal, frequented as a summer-resort. From Kötschach a road leads to the N. over the Gailberg-Sattel (3180 ft.) to (9½ M.) Ober-Drauburg (p. 173); and a route to the S. leads viâ the Plöken-Alpe (4125 ft.; *Inn) and the Plöken Pass (4500 ft.) to (11 hrs.) Tolmezzo and (3 hrs.) Stazione per la Carnia (p. 208).

140 M. Thörl-Maglern. The line runs high up on the left side of the deep valley of the Gailitz, and threads two tunnels.

144 M. Tarvis (2410 ft.; Railway Hotel & Restaurant*), the junction of the Laibach Railway (R. 30), a large and finely-situated village and summer-resort (3230 inhab.), consists of Unter-Tarvis (Teppan), in the valley, ½ M. from the station, and Ober-Tarvis (Schnablegger; Gelbfus), on the hillside, ¾ M. farther off.

From Tarvis to Raibl* (2½ hrs.) and to the (4 hrs.) Predil (carr. 4 fl.), see p. 213; to the Weissenfels Lakes* (one-horse carr. 3 fl.), see p. 204.

The train runs to the W. to (147 M.) Ober-Tarvis, and ascends (with the Luschariberg on the left, and the Manhart behind) to (149 M.) Saifnitz (2615 ft.; Post), on the watershed between the Black Sea and the Adriatic.

The Luschariberg* or Heilige Berg (5880 ft.), the most frequented pilgrimage-resort in Carinthia, is generally ascended from Saifnitz (2½ hrs.; horse 4 fl.). On the top are the church and an inn. Extensive *View.

The train gradually descends on the bank of the Fella, which rises a little to the N., past the rock-strewn mouth of the Seisera Valley (splendid view, with the jagged Wischberg in the background), to (152½ M.) Uggowitz (2580 ft.). It then passes the picturesque Fort Malborget (with a monument at its base, in memory of the heroic defence of the fort by Capt. Hensel in 1809), and crosses the Fella to (155 M.) Malborget (2375 ft.). The large village of that name *(Schnablegger) lies on the opposite bank.

The train threads its way through a narrow rocky valley, which offered many difficulties to the construction of the railway. 159 M. Lusnitz, with a small sulphur-bath. Beyond Leopoldskirchen (on the left) the line crosses the rapid Vogelbach, and reaches — 164½ M. Pontafel (1875 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; in the village, Post, unpretending), splendidly situated (custom-house examination for travellers leaving Italy).

The train crosses the Pontebbana, the frontier between Austria and Italy, and reaches — 165 M. Pontebba (Ital. custom-house; Rail. Restaurant), a village quite Italian in character. Interesting carved altar in the old church.

The construction of the line from Pontebba through the wild, rocky ravine of the Fella *(Valle del Ferro) to Chiusaforte was attended with extraordinary difficulties, necessitating an almost uninterrupted series of rock-cuttings, tunnels, huge bridges, and imposing viaducts. The train descends rapidly on the right bank of the Fella, and crosses it at Ponte di Muro by means of an iron bridge, 158 yds. long, 131 ft. high, borne by four huge buttresses. — 171 M. Dogna, at the mouth of the Canale di Dogna or valley of the Dogna, at the head of which, towards the E., rises the grand pyramid of the Montasio* or Bramkofel (9030 ft.).

173 M. Chiusaforte (1280 ft.; Albergo alla Stazione, with garden and staircase to the station), below which, on the left, opens the wild Raccoluna Valley. The train crosses the Fella for the last time at Peraria. 179 M. Resiutta (1035 ft.), at the mouth of the Resia Valley. 181 M. Moggio. The valley of the Fella expands, and its rock-strewn floor is intersected with numerous water-courses. — 183 M. Stazione per la Carnia (dillgence to Tolmezzo, 1 fr., see p. 207). A little lower down, in a wide plain, the Fella falls into the Tagliamento.

187 M. Venzone (755 ft.), an old walled town on the Tagliamento. The train crosses the marshy Rughi Bianchi by an imposing viaduct of 55 arches, 860 yds. in length, and quits the Tagliamento, which descends towards the S.W. to the Adriatic. — 191 M. Gemona-Ospedaletto; 194 M. Magnano-Artegna; 197 M. Tarcento; 199 M. Tricesimo; 203 M. Reana del Rojale.

208 M. Udine (Italia; Croce di Malta*, etc.), see Baedeker's Northern Italy.

Trieste, the Tergeste of the Romans, and the chief seaport of Austria, with 145,073 inhab. (incl. the suburbs), lies at the N.E. end of the Adriatic. It was made a free port by Emp. Charles VI. in 1719, but since 1891 only the harbour proper is outside the customs limit. About 17,500 vessels, including 11,200 steamers, of an aggregate burden of 3 1/2 million tons, enter and clear the harbour annually.

The Harbour was greatly enlarged and improved in 1867-76 at a cost of 15 million florins. From the New Harbour near the railway station, which is sheltered by a huge breakwater, the Old Roads, with several moles, stretch S. to the Molo Santa Teresa (Pl. A, 5, 6), on which stands a Lighthouse (Fanale Marittimo), 108 ft. high. On the Riva dei Pescatori, to the N., is the Health Office (Sanità; Pl. B, 5). Adjacent, on the Piazza Grande (p. 210), are the handsome new offices, built by Ferstel, of the 'Austrian Lloyd', a steamboat-company established in 1833. Farther N., between the Molo del Sale and the busy Molo San Carlo, is the mouth of the Canal Grande (Pl. C, 4; 366 yds. long, 56 ft. deep), which penetrates into the new town or Theresienstadt and is always filled with shipping. At the E. end of the canal rises the church of Sant' Antonio Nuovo (Pl. 4), erected by Nobile in 1827-49 in the Greek style; to the right is the Greek church of San Spiridione. An early morning visit to the Fish Market (Pl. 11) is interesting.

On the Riva Carciotti, to the S. of the Canal Grande, are the Palazzo Carciotti, with its green dome, and the Greek Church (San Niccolò dei Greci; Pl. 6, C 4), sumptuously fitted up. A few paces from the harbour, opposite the Teatro Comunale, is the Tergesteo Pl. C, 4), an extensive block of buildings, containing a cruciform arcade roofed with glass, which is used as an Exchange.

Near the Tergesteo are the two busiest squares in Trieste, the Piazza della Borsa and the Piazza Grande. The Piazza della Borsa (Pl. C, 4), with the handsome Old Exchange (now the Chamber of Commerce), is embellished with a Group of Neptune, in marble, and a Statue of Leopold I., erected in 1660. In the Piazza Grande (Pl. C, 4) are the new Municipio, the Maria Theresa Fountain, erected in 1751, and a Statue of Emp. Charles VI.

The Corso (Pl. C, D, 4), the principal street of Trieste, which leads to the E. from the Piazza della Borsa, separates the New Town, with its broad and handsome streets, from the Old Town. The latter, nestling round the castle-hill, consists of narrow, steep streets, some of which are inaccessible to carriages.

On the way from the Piazza Grande to the cathedral, to the left, is situated the Jesuits' Church (Santa Maria Maggiore; Pl. 5, C 5), built in 1627-82, containing a large modern fresco by Sante. To the W., a few paces higher up, is the Piazzetta di Riccardo, named after Richard Cœur-de-Lion, who is said to have been imprisoned here after his return from Palestine (?). The Arco di Riccardo (Pl. C, 5) is believed by some to be a Roman triumphal arch, but probably belonged to an aqueduct.

Ascending the Via della Cattedrale, we soon reach on the right the entrance to the Museo Lapidario (Pl. 9, C 5; daily 10-2; custodian opposite, to the left, No. 18, fee 20 kr.), an open-air collection of Roman antiquities, in a disused burial-ground.

The fragments placed on the upper terrace were found at Trieste, those on the lower at Aquileia. Winckelmann, the famous German archæologist, who was murdered at Trieste in 1768, is buried here. A small temple contains a Monument to him, erected in 1832, with an allegorical relief, and a genius with a medallion-portrait above; on each side are fragments of an Amazonian frieze. At the lower end is the 'Glyptothek', containing an inscription from the pedestal of Fabius Severus, a decurio of Trieste, and heads and other fragments of statues.

The loftily-situated Cathedral of San Ginsto (Pl. 3, D 5; closed 12-2) occupies the site of an ancient Roman temple, part of the foundations and some of the columns of which are still visible by the tower. The present building was formed in the 14th cent. by the union of three contiguous edifices of the 6th cent., an early-Christian basilica, a baptistery, and a small Byzantine church with a dome. At the basement of the façade several tombstones are im-mured; above the portal are the busts of three bishops in bronze. Most of the interior has been whitewashed, but there are some interesting mosaics: in the altar-recess on the right is Christ between SS. Justus and Servatius; in that to the left is the Madonna between Gabriel and Michael (11th cent.), with the Apostles below (7th cent.). Some of the capitals are antique, others Romanesque. In the Chapel of San Carlo (first on the left) are buried all the members of the older line of the Spanish Bourbons. The projecting terrace commands a fine view of the town and the sea.

In the Piazza Lipsia, which is laid out in promenades, is the Commercial and Nautical Academy (Pl. 8; B, 5), on the third floor of which is the Natural History Museum, containing a complete collection of the fauna of the Adriatic (Wed. and Sat. 10-1, Sun. 11-1). On the opposite side of the court, on the first and second floor, is the Municipal Museum of Antiquities (daily 9-2; fee 20 kr.), which contains terracottas, vases, bronzes, and other small antiquities, chiefly from Tarentum, Apulia, and Aquileia, Egyptian and Cyprian relics, coins, weapons, and objects relating to Trieste.

At the corner of the Via della Sanità and the Piazza Giuseppina is the Palazzo Revoltella (Pl. 10; B, 5), handsomely fitted up and embellished with pictures and sculptures, which was bequeathed to the town by Baron Revoltella (now the Museo Civico Revoltella; adm. on week-days, 11-2). The Piazza Giuseppina is embellished with a Monument to Emp. Maximilian of Mexico* (d. 1867), in bronze, by Schilling, erected in 1875. The unfortunate prince, who was a rear-admiral in the Austrian navy, resided at Trieste before he undertook his ill-starred expedition to Mexico.

The Passeggio di Sant' Andrea (Pl. A, E, 7), an avenue 3 M. long, skirting the coast and commanding a series of fine views, leads on the E. side of the town, past the Villa Murat, the Zoological Station (Pl. A, 6; for admission apply to the director, Prof. Cori), the Lloyd Arsenal, and the Gas Works, to Servola. The extensive * Wharves of the Lloyd Co. (Pl. C, D, 7), opposite Servola, may be visited on week-days, 9-11 and 12-4 (tickets obtained at the gate, 30 kr.). — From Servola the road proceeds, passing the handsome Cemeteries, to Zaule and to Muggia (p. 212).

A favourite resort is the Boschetto (brewery) to the E. of the town, reached by the tramway (10 kr.) through the Via del Corso and the Via Stadion, passing the shady Giardino Pubblico (Pl. E, 2). Shady walks ascend hence to ($^1/_2$ hr.) the Villa Ferdinandea (Restaurant al Cacciatore), on a plateau 755 ft. above the sea. Adjacent is the Villa Revoltella, now the property of the town, with park and chapel, commanding a charming view of town, sea, and coast.

Excursions. A very pleasant excursion (railway to Miramar station; trains stop if desired, and then 10 min. walk; tram, see p. 209; steamboat at 10.15 a.m. and 3.15 p.m., returning from Grignano at 1 and 6, return ticket 30 kr.; one-horse carr. 2 fl., carr. and pair 3 fl., boat 3 fl.) may be made to the château of Miramar, formerly the property of Emp. Maximilian of Mexico (see p. 211), charmingly situated near Grignano (*Hôt. Grignano, R. 1 fl. 20-2 fl. 50 kr.), 5 M. to the N.W. of Trieste, and commanding a fine view of Trieste, the sea, and the coast. The beautiful park is always open to the public. The sumptuously-furnished château is shown to visitors daily after 11 a.m. on application to the steward. Outside the entrance to the garden, on the right, is a 'museum' of Greek and Roman antiquities. Good sea-baths at Barcola (restaurant), halfway between Trieste and the château (steamboat, see p. 209).

Other excursions may be taken to (3½ M.) Občina (1035 ft.; *Hôtel-Pens. all' Obelisco), with a beautiful view of the town and the sea; to Servola (p. 211); to St. Canzian (drive of 2½ hrs., viâ Corgnale; see p. 199), etc. — A very interesting excursion for a whole day (early start) is by steamer (p. 209) to Muggia; over the hill on foot (beautiful view from the top) to S. Nicolo (1 hr.), thence by boat (40 kr.) to Capodistria (Albergo al Vaporetto; Caffè in the principal piazza), an ancient town (10,690 inhab.), the Roman Justinopolis, on an island now connected with the mainland. The chief objects of interest are the Cathedral, the Palazzo Pubblico, on the site of a temple of Cybele, and the extensive Salt Works. We now skirt the shore, passing Semedella, to (3 M.) Isola (good Refosco wine; p. 209) and (4½ M.) Pirano, and return to Trieste by steamer in the evening.

From Trieste to Herpelje and Pola, 86 M., railway in 4½ hrs., from the S. Andrea Station (p. 208; Pl. B, 7). Beyond the Lloyd Arsenal (p. 211) the line quits the sea and mounts in many windings, affording splendid views, to Rizmanje, (8 M.) Borst, and the Karst plateau, which we reach at (12½ M.) Draga. From (17 M.) Herpelje-Kozina to (86 M.) Pola, see p. 199.

33. From Trieste to Villach. Isonzo Valley.

Comp. Map, p. 172.

120 M. Railway to (35½ M.) Gorizia (Görz) in 1¾-3 hrs. Diligence from Gorizia to (67 M.) Tarvis daily in 15½ hrs. (5 fl. 40 kr.). Railway from Tarvis to (17½ M.) Villach in 1¼ hr.

From Trieste to (10½ M.) Nabresina, see p. 199. Near (12½ M.) Bivio-Duino, to the left, is the pleasant bathing-resort of Sistiana. 15½ M. Duino, with a handsome château of Prince Hohenlohe. At San Giovanni the Timavo emerges from a rock, and 1½ M. lower down it falls into the Adriatic. 22 M. Monfalcone.

Branch-line to (10½ M., in ¾ hr.) Cervignano, whence a shadeless road (carriage in ¾ hr., 1 fl. there and back including ½ hr.'s stay) leads to (5 M.) Aquileia (Aquila Nera; Fortuna), one of the most important of the ancient Roman provincial cities, formerly strongly fortified, but destroyed by Attila in 452. Though now only a poor village with barely 1000 inhab., it is of great interest from the antiquities found here. The Archaeological Museum (adm. in summer 9-12 and 3-6, 20 kr.; director, Prof. Maionica) contains a collection of sculptures on the groundfloor, and smaller antiquities (bronzes, glass, ornaments, coins, etc.) on the first floor. The delightful garden, with its cedars, cypresses, and palms, among which antique statues are tastefully interspersed, recalls the Villa Albani in Rome. — The Cathedral, built in 1031, was formerly the metropolitan church of the patriarchs of Aquileia; fine view from the tower (adm. 30 kr.).

A Steamboat plies several times daily (40, 20 kr.) from Aquileia through the Lagune di Grado to Grado (Cervo d'Oro; Fonzari), a small fishing-port on the Adriatic, with good sea-bathing and a marine hospital for children. In the early middle ages Grado also was the seat of a patriarch; and a relic of its importance is seen in the 6th cent. cathedral of S. Eufemia, a basilica with aisles, marble columns, mosaic pavement, curious old pulpit, etc.

The line skirts the N.W. spurs of the Karst (p. 198) and passes the stations of Sagrado, Gradisca, and Rubbia.

35½ M. Gorizia, Ger. Görz (280 ft.; Südbahn Hôtel; Gr. Hôt. Suda; Post; Union; Pension Wienerheim; Angelo d'Oro; Rail. Restaurant), the capital of a province, and an archiepiscopal see, with 21,900 inhab., is charmingly situated on the Isonzo. Pleasant walks and excursions; theatre; casino. The cathedral (14th cent.) merits inspection; its treasury contains several costly Romanesque works from Aquileia. The Provincial Museum, adjoining the cathedral, contains natural history collections, antiquities, etc. (open on Sun., 11-1; at other times on application). In the Piazza Grande are a tasteful fountain and the elaborately adorned church of St. Ignatius (17th cent.), built by the Jesuits, whose former convent is now a barrack. Close by, in the Via Giardino, is the pretty Giardino Pubblico, with its luxuriant southern vegetation. In the upper part of the town is the ancient Castello of the Counts of Gorizia, now used as a barrack (fine views). The public bath-establishment is well equipped.

High above the town, to the N., is the Franciscan convent of Castagnavizza (fine view), with the burial-vault (shown on application) of Charles X. (d. 1836), Henry V. (d. 1883), and other members of the Bourbon family. — About 7½ M. to the N. is the Monte Santo (2245 ft.; two inns), with a pilgrimage-church and a fine view.

The HIGHROAD leads from Gorizia on the left bank of the Isonzo, viâ Salcano, to (48 M.) Canale (Inn), where it crosses the river. It then leads viâ Ronzina to (58 M.) Volzano (Koffou), and crosses the Isonzo to (59 M.) Tolmino, Ger. Tolmein (Posta), in the château of which Dante, according to a doubtful tradition, wrote several cantos of his Divine Comedy.

70 M. Caporetto, Ger. Karfreit; 77 M. Serpenizza.

83 M. Flitsch (1470 ft.; Post; Huber), a poor village in a sequestered basin. On the W. rises the huge Canin group. The road now quits the Isonzo valley and follows the Koritenza towards the N., into a defile called the Flitscher Klause (1745 ft.), guarded by a new fort. Beyond this pass, near (6 M.) Unterbreth (Post), a view of the imposing Mangart (8785 ft.) is disclosed.

The road ascends in long windings (short-cut for pedestrians) to Oberbreth, grandly situated, passes the mouth of the Mangart Valley, and a small fort, where a handsome monument commemorates the death of a Capt. Hermann, who fell in a skirmish here in 1809, and reaches (4 M.) the highest point of the Predil Pass (3810 ft.; two plain Inns). We now descend, enjoying fine views of the light-green Raibler See, to (2¼ M.) —

97 M. Raibl (2925 ft.; Schnablegger; Post), a picturesquely situated village and summer-resort on the Schlitza (the outlet of the Raibler See), with extensive lead-foundries. To the N.W. rises the dolomitic Königsberg (6292 ft.), to the N.E. the Fünfspitz (6240 ft.), with its five huge pinnacles.

The road thence leads through the smiling valley of the Schlitza, viâ Ausser-Raibl (Hôt. Slatorog), Kaltwasser, and Flitschl, to — 102½ M. Tarvis (p. 207). Thence to (120 M.) Villach, see R. 31.

34. From St. Peter to Abbazia and Fiume.

39 M. Railway in 1½-2 hrs. From Vienna to Abbazia express in 12¾ hrs. (27 fl. 60, 20 fl. 75, 13 fl. 80 kr.); through-carriages; sleeping-cars by the night-express.

St. Peter, see p. 198. The line traverses the undulating district of the Karst (p. 198). Beyond three tunnels we reach (6 M.) Küllenberg, Slav. Kiloca, with a fine view. At (10 M.) Dornegg-Feistritz, which is overlooked by an old castle, the Feistritz (Bystrica) issues from the hill in a copious stream. The line then traverses a tunnel and descends, in view of the sea and the island of Cherso, viâ (19½ M.) Sapiane (1400 ft.) and (26 M.) Jurdani, with a large cavern, to (28½ M.) Abbazia-Mattuglie (690 ft.; Hotel Ambrosini, near the station, R. 1-2 fl., B. 20 kr.; rooms also at the station), the station for Abbazia, with a beautiful view of the sea and its islands. About 2½ M. to the N.E. is the small town of Castua, once capital of Liburnia, with fine view from the church of the Trinity.

From the station to Abbazia, 3 M., omnibus in ½ hr. (1 fl. 20 kr.); carriage for 1-3 pers. 4 fl., 4 pers. 4½ fl. The new road makes a wide bend towards the E. Visitors' and Music Tax, 2 fl. weekly. — English Church Service in winter at the Hôtel Stefanie.

Abbazia, in a splendidly sheltered situation, with beautiful grounds and woods of evergreen laurel, has recently become a favourite summer and winter resort (mean temperature in winter 50° Fahr., in summer 77°). The favourite walk is along the Strandweg, a path 4-6 ft. wide, which skirts the rocky coast from Volosca to (3 M.) Ičiči. Excursions may be made: to the N. along the coast to (¼ hr.) Volosca (Verboschek's Inn, at the S. end), a prettily situated village and winter-resort; to Mattuglie (see above), 1 hr.;

Castua (p. 214), 1½ hr. — To the W. by a somewhat steep path (road viâ Mattuglie, see below) past the Littrow-Quelle, to (1½ hr.) Veprinac (1675 ft.). — To the S. by the picturesque coast-road along the Liburnian Riviera viâ Ičići and (3 M.) Ika (Restaurant Zehentner) to (1½ M.) Lovrana (Pension Villa Lovrana; Hôt.-Restaurant Müller), a beautifully situated sea-bathing resort. About 5 M. farther to the S. is Mošćenice (Hôtel Carla, unpretending), prettily situated on the hillside. — Fiume (p. 399) may be visited by steamboat (¾ hr.) or carriage (1½ hr.).

The Monte Maggiore (Vela Učka; 4580 ft.) is also a delightful object for an excursion on foot (5 hrs.) or by carriage (see p. 214; to the Schutzhaus a drive of 3½ hrs.). The road gradually ascends viâ Volosca, Mattuglie, and Veprinac (see above). Pedestrians ascend to the W. to (1½ hr.) Veprinac and thence follow the road to the (2 hrs.) Stefanie-Schutzhaus (4115 ft.; inn), whence the top (shelter-hut) is reached by a good path along the N.E. slope in 1½ hr. Extensive and beautiful view.

The Railway to Fiume from Abbazia-Mattuglie descends towards the sea, affording a fine view of the Gulf of Quarnero, with the islands of Veglia and Cherso. — 39 M. Fiume, see p. 399.

35. From Trieste to Pola and Fiume.

Steamers of the Austrian Lloyd to Pola five times weekly in 4½-8 hrs. (fares 4 fl. 14, 2 fl. 76 kr.; berth 35 kr.). — Steamers of the Hungarian-Croatian Steamship Co. to Fiume viâ Pola (where the night is spent), once weekly in 32 hrs.; also twice weekly from Pola to Fiume in 9 hrs. (fares from Trieste to Fiume 6 fl. 35, 4 fl. 40; berth 50 kr.; good restaurants on board, dinner 1½, supper 1 fl.). — Railway viâ Herpelje to Pola (in 4½ hrs.), see p. 212; viâ Divača (in 5½ hrs.), see p. 199; viâ St. Peter to Fiume (in 4½-5 hrs.), see p. 198. Luggage is examined at Trieste before the train starts.

The steamer skirts the hilly, olive-clad coast of Istria. In a bay to the S.E., in the distance, lies Capodistria (p. 212), with its large prison. On a prominent hill is seen the church of Pirano, supported by arches; the town (12,300 inhab.) lies in a bay, with the towers and pinnacles of an old fortress peeping from among olive-groves. Monument of Tartini, the musical composer (d. 1790). About 1½ M. to the S. of Pirano (omnibus hourly in ¼ hr.) is Porto Rose (Stabilimento di Cura, R. 1-1½, board 2½ fl.), with sea and brine baths, and 6 M. to the S.W. of Pirano are the salt-gardens of Sicciole. — We next observe the lighthouse of Salvore, Umago, the lofty Buje ('la spia dell' Istria'), the château of Daila (seat of Count Grisoni), Cittanuova (on the site of the ancient Noventium), and Parenzo, once the first station of the Crusaders, with an interesting cathedral of 961 (in the interior the decoration of the choir, the tabernacle, and mosaic pavements of the 2nd and 4th cent. should beneticed). Then follow the monastery of San Niccolò (converted into a château) and a watch-tower on an island, Orsera, and the Canal di Leme, an arm of the sea 7½ M. long. In the distance (E.) rises Monte Maggiore (4580 ft.; see above). Usually about noon the steamer reaches Rovigno (Albergo alla Città di Trieste; Caffè del Municipio), the ancient Arupenum or Rubinum, a thriving place with 12,000 inhab., busied in ship-building, the sardine-fishery, the timber-trade, and the culture of the olive and the vine. The wine of Rovigno is the best in Istria, and its hazel-nuts are reputed the finest in the world. The Cathedral of St. Euphemia is interesting. The tower, a copy of the campanile of Venice, is crowned with a bronze vane in the form of a figure of the saint. Fine sea-view from the square in front of the cathedral. The old town of Cissa, famous for its purple dyes, is said to have sunk in the sea in the 7th cent. near the present lighthouse. To the N., in the bay of S. Pelagio, is a large Marine Hospice for children, opened in 1888. Opposite, on the S. side of the Valdibora, is a station of the Berlin Aquarium, where the interesting fauna of the Adriatic may be seen and studied (visitors admitted). On the island of S. Andrea, to the W., is an old Benedictine monastery, now a private residence. — Railway to Canfanaro, see p. 199.

Nearing Fasana, we observe on the right the hills of the Brionian Islands, separated from the Istrian coast by the narrow Canale di Fasana (local steamer from Pola and back, 1/2 day). The Genoese defeated the fleet of Venice here in 1379. These islands yielded the Venetians stone for their palaces and bridges; in San Girolamo, the southernmost, a huge quarry stretching across the whole island is still conspicuous.

Beyond this strait Pola with its amphitheatre comes in sight. Two fortified towers, one on Capo Compare to the right, and the other on the Punta del Cristo to the left, defend the Canale di Pola and the harbour, which has become important since the headquarters of the Austrian navy were transferred from Venice to Pola.

Pola. — Hotels. HÔTEL CENTRAL, Arsenal Street, with café and restaurant; EUROPA, by the harbour, R., L., & A. 1 fl. 20-2 fl. 40 kr., pens. 3 1/2 fl.; HÔTEL DE LA VILLE, with restaurant and garden. — German is spoken everywhere, as well as Italian.

Restaurants. Grazer Bierhalle, at the theatre; Budweiser Garten, behind the infantry barracks, good cuisine; Pilsner Bierhalle, on the Riva, near the Piazza dei Pesci; Lloyd, on the quay. Italian: Trattoria ai Due Mori, Piazza dei Pesci; Al Vecchio Tempio d'Augusto, near the quay of the Austrian Lloyd steamers. Ordinary dishes: minestra, a kind of soup; riso con ostriche, rice with oysters; frittura, allesso, and arrosto, fried, boiled, and roast meat; umidi, stew; bracciola di vitello, veal-cutlet; testina di vitello, calves' head; pollo, fowl; dindietta, turkey; selvatico, game; cavolifiori, cauliflower; dolce, pudding.

Cafés. Centrale*, see above; Miramare*, newspapers; Pavanello, both on the quay; Caffè del Municipio, by the Municipio.

Cabs. In the town, with one horse, 1/4 hr. 30, 1/2 hr. 50, 3/4 hr. 75 kr., 1 hr. 1 fl., each 1/4 hr. more 20 kr.; with two horses 40, 75 kr., 1 fl.; 1 fl. 30, and 30 kr. respectively. To the 'Jäger' 50 or 70 kr.; Bosco Sianna 70 kr. or 1 fl., there and back 1 fl. 30 or 1 fl. 80; to Punta Cristo 1 fl. 75 or 2 fl. 10 kr. — At night (9-6, in winter 8-7) 15 or 20 kr. more for each drive. Trunk 10 kr.

Baths. Bagno Polese (Pl. A, 3, 4; June 1st to Oct. 1st), ferry 3 kr., bath incl. towels 20 kr.; Military Swimming Bath, reserved for ladies till 11 a.m. — Warm Baths at Wassermann's, at the Café Miramare; vapour-baths at the Marine Hospital.

Post and Telegraph Offices, Piazza Dante (Pl. C, 4).

Geograph. Anstalt von

Wagner & Debes Leipzig

Pola, a considerable sea-port, with 31,620 inhab., became a Roman colony after the conquest of Istria by the Romans in B. C. 178, and attained great prosperity under Augustus and his successors. As a war-harbour it was known as Pietas Julia. In 1148 Pola was taken by the Republic of Venice. During their contests for supremacy the Venetians and the Genoese repeatedly destroyed the place, particularly in 1379, since when it remained little more than a ruin until recently.

Several superb Roman buildings still exist. The Temple of Augustus and the Amphitheatre are enclosed by a railing. Keys at the Municipio (Pl. B, 4), where a guide may be obtained (fee).

The Temple of Augustus and Roma* (B.C. 19), adjoining the Municipio, 27 ft. high, 51 ft. broad, with a portico of six Corinthian columns 23 ft. high, and a frieze with admirable ornamentation, is in excellent preservation. The inscription is gathered from the holes made by the nails which once secured the metal letters to the wall: Romæ et Augusto Cæsari Divi F (ilio) Patri Patriæ. The narrow and dark cella contains a small collection of Roman antiquities.

Another Temple, of which the back only remains, is supposed to be that of Diana, but is more probably a temple of Roma. Its site is enclosed by the Municipio, dating from 1300. A bust of L. Carrara (d. 1854), a preserver of the antiquities, has been erected here.

From the Municipio the Via Sergia, the main street, runs to the E., passing the Piazza Dante, with the palace of Archduke Charles Stephen and the post-office, to the Porta Aurea* (Pl. D, 4), once connected with the Minerva town-gate (now destroyed). This elegant and richly decorated triumphal arch in the Corinthian style, 21 ft. in height, was erected according to the inscription on the back (Salvia Postuma Sergi de sua pecunia) by the family of the Sergii, who resided at Pola. The monument, dating perhaps from the 1st cent. after Christ, is protected by a railing. To the right, at some distance, stood the ancient Theatre, now recognisable only by a semicircular cutting in the hill. To the right, farther on, are the large 'Marine Casino'*, with a well-supplied reading-room and a pleasant garden (introduction by a member), and the *Monte Zaro (Pl. D, 5), on which lie the Hydrographic Office and the Observatory. On the W. side, towards the sea, are pleasure-grounds, embellished with a Statue of Admiral Tegetthoff*, by Kundmann (1877), and commanding a beautiful view of the harbour and the town.

In the ancient town-wall, which ascends the hill to the left of the Porta Aurea, excavations made since 1845 have brought to light two gateways on the E. side, the Porta Erculea, the name of which is indicated by the head and the club adjoining the keystone, and the Porta Gemina, probably erected about A. D. 150, the entrance to the ancient Roman Capitol. The site of the latter is now occupied by the Castle (Pl. C, 3, 4), built by the Venetians and restored in the 17th cent. under Emp. Francis. (Visitors not always admitted. The view from the grounds a little below it is nearly the same as from the Castle.) The excavations are still leading to the discovery of interesting buildings, mosaics, etc. To the S. of the castle is the monastery of S. Francesco (Pl. B, C, 4), erected in the 13th cent., now a military magazine. Fine cloisters. Romanesque W. Portal, with tasteful shell-ornamentation.

From the Porta Gemina a street leads to the N. to the Amphitheatre* (Pl. C, 2), constructed in the time of the Antonines (A.D. 150), 79 ft. in height, 345 ft. in diameter (with room for 20,000 spectators). The enclosure, which is in excellent preservation, consists of two rows of arches (72 in all), one above the other, each 19 ft. high, while a third story contains square window-openings. Four gateways, preceded by a kind of jutting story, the object of which is not clear, lead into the interior from the four points of the compass. The interior is in a chaotic condition, most of the steps having been removed to Venice as material for palaces (whereas in Verona the interior of the amphitheatre has been preserved, and little of the external enclosure remains). In the centre, however, the arrangements of the Naumachia are still traceable. The ground is now overgrown with thistles, creepers, and fragrant herbs. The view from the top (where an echo may be awakened) through the lofty arches embracing the sea, with its islands and promontories, and the green olive-clad hills, is strikingly beautiful.

On our way back we may visit the Cathedral (Pl. B, 3), built in the 15th cent. and containing several antique columns. Along the quay run rails connecting the Railway Station (Pl. A, 1) with the Naval Arsenal (see below).

To the S.W. of the Monte Zaro, in the suburb of S. Policarpo, lies the beautiful Maximilian Park (Pl. C, D, 6), adorned with a Monument of Ferdinand Maximilian, consisting of a column with a relief of the archduke (p. 211), and ships' prows, and a goddess of fame above. Near this are several buildings connected with the dockyard (School, Barracks, Hospital, Prison). To the W., on the quay, is the imperial Naval Arsenal (Pl. C, 5, 6). A museum in the Artillery Office contains interesting ship-models, trophies, weapons, etc. (foreigners admitted to the arsenal and museum only by permission of the war-office). — The wharves and docks are on the Olive Island, between the naval and the commercial harbour.

A favourite resort is the Bosco Sianna or Kaiserwald, an oak-grove 2 M. from the town, on the road to Altura. (On the 'Kaiserwiese', a pavilion and restaurant.)

On its way to Fiume the steamer rounds the S. point of the Istrian peninsula, leaves the islands of Cherso and Veglia on the right, and steers to the N. through the Canale di Farasina into the broad Bay of Quarnero. To the left rises the Monte Maggiore, with Abbazia at its base (p. 215). To the E. on the horizon rise the Croatian Mts., conspicuous among which is the Kapella range (p. 398).

Prague (635 ft.), Bohemian Praha, capital of the kingdom and crown-land of Bohemia, the seat of the imperial government, and residence of a prince-archbishop, lies picturesquely in a broad basin on both banks of the Moldau. Its foundation is ascribed to Libussa, the first Duchess of Bohemia (8th cent.?). From Ottokar II. it received a municipal charter, and it attained to great prosperity under Emp. Charles IV. (1346-78), when the university and the Neustadt were founded. Prague was besieged and captured in the Hussite War (1424), the Thirty Years' War (1631 and 1648), the War of the Austrian Succession (1741), and the Second Silesian War (1744); and it was occupied by the Prussians in 1866. Population of the town proper 186,318, of the suburbs Karolinenthal, Žižkow, Weinberge, and Smichow 171,844, together 358,162 ($^5/_6$ Bohemians, $^1/_6$ Germans), not including a garrison of about 8800 men. The town possesses many mediæval buildings and towers, and rising above them all the venerable Hradschin. Its historical associations are also deeply interesting.

The town is 9 M. in circumference, and is divided into seven districts: on the right bank of the Moldau the Altstadt, the centre of the town and the focus of traffic; the Josefstadt on the N.W. (formerly the Judenstadt); the Neustadt, encircling the Altstadt; and the Wyšehrad; — on the left bank the Kleinseite, partly in the valley and partly on the slopes of the Hradschin and Laurenziberg; the Hradschin, with the imperial palace, on the heights of the left bank; and Holeschowitz-Bubna.

The principal streets radiate from the Josefs-Platz, near the Staats-Bahnhof (Pl. G, 4): the Zeltnergasse, Grosse and Kleine Ring, and Karlsgasse lead W. to the Karls-Brücke; the Graben and the Ferdinand-Strasse lead S.W. to the Franzens-Brücke; the Elisabeth-Strasse leads N. to the Franz-Josefs-Brücke. We follow the ZELTNERGASSE, leading into the Altstadt, at the entrance to which rises the late-Gothic Pulverthurm (Pl. G, 4), erected as a gate-tower in 1475-84 and restored in 1883. Adjoining it on the N. is the Königshof, once a palace of the Bohemian kings, now a military training school. Opposite is the Custom House. To the left, in the Zeltnergasse, at the corner of the Obstmarkt, are the Civil Courts of Law (Pl. F, 4).

At the end of the Zeltnergasse is the GROSSE RING (Pl. F, 4), in the middle of which rises the Mariensäule, erected by Emp. Ferdinand III. in 1650 to commemorate the liberation of Prague from the Swedes in 1648. On the E. side of the Ring stands the — Teynkirche, the old church of the Hussites, begun in 1360 by German merchants (sacristan, Unter den Lauben 18, to the left, where there is also the entrance of the church). The W. façade, partly concealed by houses, with its two pointed towers, and the high-pitched roof were added in 1460 in the time of George Podiebrad, who was crowned King of Bohemia here in 1458. He caused the façade to be adorned with a large gilded chalice (an emblem of the Hussite doctrine that the communion should be administered in both kinds), and with a statue of himself; but after the battle of the White Hill (p. 233) the chalice was superseded by an image of the Virgin. In the interior, on the last pillar on the S.E., is the tombstone of the celebrated Danish astronomer Tycho Brahe (d. 1601), who was invited to Prague by Emp. Rudolph II. in 1599. The Marien-Capelle, to the right of the high-altar, contains marble statues of Cyril and Methodius, the apostles of Bohemia, presented by Emp. Ferdinand in 1845. Opposite is an ancient font, in pewter, dating from 1414. — The Kinsky Palace, containing a valuable library, adjoins the Teynkirche on the N.

The Rathhaus of the Altstadt, on the W. side of the Grosse Ring (adm. on week-days 9-4, Sun. and holidays 9-1; 29 kr.), was erected in 1838-48 in the Gothic style on the site of an older building, of which the chapel, the great tower of 1474 (with a curious clock), the S. side with its fine portal, and the old council-chamber still exist. The statues (by J. Max) on the balcony of the second floor represent two Bohemian kings, two German emperors, and two Austrian emperors, to whom Prague is indebted. In the S. wing of the Rathhaus are the handsome new Council Chamber, adorned with a colossal *Painting by Brožik (Huss before the Council of Constance; adm. 25 kr.), the old Council Chamber, with fine wood-carvings, and the Chapel (see above). The N. wing contains the rich municipal Archives. — In front of the Rathhaus, on 21st June, 1621, after the battle of the White Hill (p. 233), twenty-seven of the leaders of the Protestant party, most of them Bohemian nobles, were executed. On the same spot, in Feb., 1633, the same fate befell eleven officers of high rank, by Wallenstein's command, on the ground of alleged cowardice at the battle of Lützen.

In the Hussgasse, a little to the W. of the Rathhaus, is the handsome palace of Count Clam-Gallas (Pl. E, 4, 5), erected in 1701-12 by Fischer von Erlach in the rococo style.

Farther on, in the Karlsgasse, on the right, is an extensive block of buildings, erected in the latter half of the 17th cent., consisting of two churches, two chapels, three gateways, and four towers, the Jesuit Clementinum (Pl. E, 4, 5), comprising the archiepiscopal seminary, the University Library (230,000 vols., rich in Bohemian literature), natural history collections, an observatory, lecture-rooms, etc. The first court contains a *Statue, by E. Max, of a student of Prague in the costume of the 17th cent., erected in 1864 to commemorate the participation of the students in the defence of the town against the Swedes in 1648.

Near the Karls-Brücke, in the Kreuzherren-Platz (where the Kreuzherren-Kirche, in the Italian Renaissance style, rises on the right), is the handsome bronze Statue of Charles IV. (Pl. E, 4, 5), founder of the University, designed by Hähnel and cast at Nuremberg, erected in 1848 on the 500th anniversary of the foundation. The *University of Prague, founded in 1348, was soon attended by students from every part of Europe. Wenzel, the successor of Charles, having proposed to limit the privileges of foreign students, many hundreds quitted Prague and founded the university of Leipsic (1409) and others. Since 1882 the university, called 'Carolo-Ferdinandea', has been divided into a Bohemian and a German section, the former attended by 2800, the latter by 1300 students. The university-building for students of law is the Carolinum (Pl. F, 4, 5), Eisengasse 11, which has a fine Gothic oriel window on the side next the Obstmarkt. The hall where degrees are conferred contains portraits of Austrian emperors and archbishops of Prague. Medical buildings of the university, see p. 228. Adjoining the Carolinum is the German Theatre (p. 221); and a little farther on, in the Rittergasse, is the Municipal Savings Bank.

The Karls-Brücke (Pl. D, E, 4, 5), with 16 arches, 546 yds. in length, erected between 1357 and 1507, was partially destroyed by the floods of the Moldau in 1890, but has been restored.

The ALTSTADT TOWER, on the right bank, erected in 1451 and restored in 1874-78, is adorned with the armorial bearings of the lands once subject to the crown of Bohemia, and the statues of Emp. Charles IV. and his son Wenzel IV. The heads of the Protestant nobles executed in 1621 were barbarously exposed to view for ten years on the gallery of this tower. In 1648 the tower defended the city against the Swedes, who through the treachery of an Austrian officer had gained possession of the Kleinseite almost without a blow. When the Prussians were expelled from Prague in 1744, the bridge was the scene of a fierce struggle.

The buttresses of the bridge are adorned with thirty STATUES and GROUPS of saints, some of them 18th cent., others modern by Jos. Max. The inscription on the crucifix records that it was erected with a fine exacted from a Jew in 1606 for reviling the Cross. The bronze statue of St. John Nepomuc, the patron-saint of Bohemia, in the middle of the bridge, and the two reliefs were executed in 1683 at Nuremberg. A slab of marble with a cross on the right, on the coping of the wall, between the 6th and 7th pillars, marks the spot where the saint is said to have been flung from the bridge in 1383 by order of Emp. Wenzel, for refusing to betray what the empress had confided to him in the confessional. According to the legend, the body floated for a considerable time in the Moldau, with five brilliant stars hovering over the head. Since 1728, when the holy man was canonised, the bridge has been visited annually by thousands of pilgrims from Bohemia, Moravia, and Hungary, especially on 16th May, the festival of the saint.

The Kaiser-Franz-Brücke (Pl. D, 6; toll 1 kr.), a suspension bridge 500 yds. in length, crosses the Moldau at the Schützen-Insel, above the Karls-Brücke. Between these bridges runs the Franzens-Quai, with the Monument of Francis I. (Pl. E, 5), a Gothic canopy, 75 ft. high, over an equestrian statue of the emperor in bronze, serving at the same time as a fountain. Below, at the corners, are the sixteen ancient districts of Bohemia and the city; above are figures of art, science, commerce, and industry, in sandstone. The whole was designed by Kranner; the statues executed by Jos. Max. — The Bethlehemsgasse leads hence to the E. to the Bethlehems-Platz (Pl. E, 5), in which once stood the chapel and house of John Huss (now Nos. 5 & 6). At No. 1 is Náprstek's Bohemian Industrial Museum (adm. on application). — By the Franzens-Brücke is the Bohemian National Theatre (p. 227). — Farther down the river is the Palacky Bridge (toll 1 kr.), 250 yds. long, which crosses the river from the Palacky-Quai on the right bank to Smichow (p. 232).

Below the Karls-Brücke is the Rudolfs-Quai, on the right bank, on which stand the Academy of Art and the Rudolphinum. The Kettensteg (footbridge; toll 1 kr.) crosses the river to Kleinseite.

The Rudolphinum (Pl. E, 4) was erected in 1884 from designs by Zitek and Schulz. The S. wing contains the Conservatory of Music and two concert-rooms; the N. wing contains the Art-Industrial Museum, the exhibitions of the Art Union (15th April to 15th June annually), and the picture-gallery of the Bohemian 'Kunstfreunde'. Adm. to the picture-gallery free on Wed., Frid., & Sun., 11-3; on Tues., Thurs., & Sat. 30 kr.; to the Art-Industrial Museum daily, except Mon., 10-3 free, Sat. 20 kr. — In the first room are sold catalogues of the pictures (80 kr.; with 30 photographs 2 fl.) and of the engravings (10 kr.) and separate photographs (large size, 1 fl.).

From the Cabinet (a) of Room V a flight of steps leads to the *Cabinet of Engravings, where 658 specimens of masters of all schools are exposed to view. Adjacent is the *Hollareum, devoted to 457 plates exclusively by Wenzel Hollar (1607-77), a native of Prague.

The gronndfloor contains the valuable and tastefully arranged Art-Industrial Collection. Here also is Wurzelbauer's colossal group of Venus and Cupid, in bronze, carried off by the Swedes from the Lobkowitz Palace in 1648, and presented in 1889 to the museum by a patron of art; and a bronze horse by Adr. de Vries (1610). A new building for this collection behind the Rudolphinum, is approaching completion.

To the N.E. of the Rudolphinum, lower down, the Moldau s crossed by the Franz-Josefs-Brücke (Pl. G, 3; toll 1 kr.).

The Josefstadt (Pl. E, F, 4), formerly called the Judenstadt, on the Moldau, at the N.W. angle of the Altstadt, used to be occupied exclusively by Jews, but more than half of the present population are Christians. At present the larger part of the Judenstadt and the adjacent portions of the Altstadt are being demolished to make room for a modern quarter. Opposite the old Jewish Rathhaus is the Altneuschule (Pl. E, 4; custodian, Rabbinergasse 7), a strange-looking, gloomy pile, the oldest synagogue in Prague, having been founded, according to tradition, by the first fugitives from Jerusalem after its destruction. After the fire of 1338 it was renewed on the old plan with the retention of the old walls. The large flag suspended from the vaulting was presented by Ferdinand III., in recognition of the bravery of the Jews during the siege of Prague by the Swedes in 1648.

In the midst of these narrow lanes and crowded purlieus, near the Altneuschule, lies the ancient *Jewish Burial Ground (Pl. E, 4; Bethchajim, 'house of life'), disused since 1787 (adm. in summer daily, except Sat., 8-6; ticket 20 kr.). Thousands of grey, time-worn, moss-grown stones, some of them of great antiquity, bearing Hebrew inscriptions, are interwoven with underwood, creeping plants, alders, etc. Many of them are furnished with the symbol peculiar to the tribe to which the deceased belonged; thus, a pitcher marks the tribe of Levi, two hands the descendants of Aaron. The small stones piled on the graves and tomb-stones have been placed there, according to the Jewish custom, by relatives of the deceased as a token of regard.

Around the Altstadt, on the E. and S., lies the Neustadt, from which it was formerly separated by a wall and moat. The Graben

(Pl. F, 5, G, 4) is now the finest and busiest street in the town, containing the best shops and the most popular cafés.

The S.W. end of the Graben is adjoined on the left by the WENZELS-PLATZ (Pl. F, G, 5, 6), 55-65 yds. in width, and 750 yds. in length, ascending slightly towards the S.E. and planted with double avenues. At the upper end rises the Bohemian Museum (Pl. G, 6), erected in 1889-93 by Schulz, and handsomely fitted up in the interior (adm. in summer Sun., 9-12, Wed. and Sat., 2-6 p.m., free, Tues., Thurs., Frid., 9-1, 30 kr., and 3-5, 50 kr.).

From the entrance we proceed straight on to the Pantheon, an imposing hall destined for festivals, occupying two stories and embellished with eight lifesize bronze statues of persons celebrated in Bohemian history, by Schwanthaler. — FIRST FLOOR. Room I: Autographs (of Huss, Ziska, Wallenstein, Gustavus Adolphus, etc.), documents, incunabula. Room II: Coins, medals, seals, stamps, etc. Rooms IV-VI: Prehistoric collection. Rooms VII-X: Historical, archæological, and ethnographical collections. In R. VII, two ancient Bohemian druggist's shops; in R. VIII, flails used in the Hussite wars, fire-arms, the sword of Gustavus Adolphus, musical instruments, art-industrial objects (glass, majolica, ivory-carvings, etc.); in R. IX, a Bohemian, in R. X, a Moravian-Silesian peasant's room. Room XI (adm. for botanists only): Herbaria. Room XII: Botanical collection. Rooms XIII-XVI: Mineralogical collection (in R. XVI, several meteorites). — The SECOND FLOOR contains the Geological and Palæontological collections (beautiful and rare specimens in R. I and II) and the Zoological collection (R. IX, X, XII-XIV). — On the GROUND FLOOR are the Library (reading-room open daily, 8-1, except on Sun. and holidays) and the Archives.

In front of the Museum is a handsome fountain, from which the water descends in cascades. — To the N.E., below the Franz-Josefs-Bahnhof, is the pretty Stadt-Park, 18 acres in extent. In the Park-Strasse, on the S. side of the park, is the New German Theatre (p. 221; Pl. G, 6), built in 1887 by Fellner & Hellmer.

At the E. end of the FERDINAND-STRASSE, opposite the church of St. Maria-Schnee (Pl. F, 5; 1347), rises a monument to the Bohemian scholar Joseph Jungmann (d. 1847), designed by Šimek. Farther on in the same street (No. 24), to the left, at the corner of the Brenntegasse, is the Palais Schlik; on the right (No. 15), at the corner of the Postgasse, is the Police Office (Pl. E, 5), opposite which are the Church and Convent of the Ursuline Nuns (Pl. E, 6). On the right again are the Bohemian Savings Bank (No. 7), a handsome building by Ullmann (1861), and the Lažansky Palace. Lastly, on the left, by the Franzens-Brücke, rises the handsome Bohemian National Theatre, a Renaissance edifice by Zitek, altered and enlarged by Schulz since a fire in 1881. — Kaiser-Franz-Brücke, see p. 224.

The largest Platz in Prague is the KARLS-PLATZ (Pl. F, 6, 7), 580 yds. long, and 165 yds. broad, embellished with tasteful grounds and monuments to the Bohemian poet Vitezlaw Halek (d. 1874) and to Benedict Roezl, the botanist (d. 1885). In the N.E. corner is the Rathhaus of the Neustadt (Pl. F, 6), so altered in 1806 that of the original structure of 1370 a tower only remains. It is now occupied by the criminal courts of justice. The Hussite wars began here in 1419. The infuriated populace under Ziska stormed the Rathhaus, released the Hussite prisoners, and flung the unpopular counsellors from the windows. On the W. side of the Platz is the Czechish Polytechnicum, in the Italian style. Half of the E. side of the Platz is occupied by the Military Hospital (Pl. F, 7), formerly a Jesuit college. On the S. side are the Children's Hospital (Pl. E, 7) and the Deaf & Dumb Asylum (Pl. E, 7). Near this are the Hospital (Allgemeines Krankenhaus; Pl. F, 7), the buildings of the Medical Faculty of the University, the Foundling, Commercial, and Lying-in Hospitals, and the Lunatic Asylum (Pl. F, G, 7, 8). In the same neighbourhood is the Karlshof Church (Pl. G, 8), a Gothic edifice erected by Charles IV. in 1351-77, and rebuilt in the baroque style by Dientzenhofer, with a dome and superb star-vaulting. In the Wyšehrader-Str., which runs S. from the Karls-Platz, is the Monastery of Emaus, with the lately restored Marien-Kirche, a Gothic structure of 1348-72, with interesting, but seriously damaged frescoes of the 14th cent. in the cloisters. In the Slupergasse, farther to the S., are the Elisabethinerinnen Hospital (Pl. F, 8) and a Lunatic Asylum, with the Church of the Annunciation built by Charles IV.

The Wyšehrad (Pl. E, F, 9), occupying the site of the castle of Libussa, the traditional foundress of the Bohemian royal family, forms the S. extremity of Prague. The shortest approach leads through the old Rathhaus, beyond which steps ascend to a bastion (fine view). The original Wyšehrad was almost entirely destroyed during the Hussite wars. The present fortifications date from 1848.

Karolinenthal, the N.E. suburb of Prague, intersected by the long viaduct of the Dresden railway, is a busy manufacturing place. The large Church of SS. Cyril and Methodius (Pl. I, K, 3) was built in 1854-63 from designs by Rösner. The small Park (Pl. H, 4) between Karolinenthal and the Neustadt, opposite the station of the N. W. Railway (p. 220), contains a monument by J. Max in memory of the Bohemian soldiers who fell in 1848 and 1849, and the Town Museum, with guild-insignia, ethnographical collections, etc.

From the Karls-Brücke the Brückengasse leads to the Kleinseitner Ring, embellished with the Radetzky Monument (Pl. C, 4), erected in 1858. The marshal, with his baton, holding a flag in his hand, stands on a shield borne by eight soldiers; figures in bronze, designed by Em. and Jos. Max. — The neighbouring church of St. Nicholas (Pl. C, 4), built in 1673-1752 by the Jesuits, is richly decorated with gilding and marble. On the N. side of the Platz are the Government Offices; on the W. side is the Office of the Commandant.

From the N.E. angle of the Kleinseitner Ring the Thomasgasse leads past St. Thomas's Church to the Waldstein-Platz, in which, to the right, is Count Waldstein's Palace (Pl. D, 4), erected in 1623-30 by Albrecht von Wallenstein, or Waldstein, the famous general of the Thirty Years' War, and still belonging to the family. The great hall was restored in 1854; adjacent is the chapel, with paintings attributed to Dürer, Guido Reni, etc. At the back, facing the garden, is a magnificent open hall in the Renaissance style, a former bathing grotto, and a playing hall, where the horse (stuffed) which Wallenstein rode at the battle of Lützen is shown. On the first floor are the audience-chamber (renewed in 1854) and several rooms once inhabited by Wallenstein (with French tapestry, furniture, portraits, etc.). (Castellan in the first court, to the right; fee 30 kr.)

In the Waldsteingasse (Nos. 10, 11) is the Palace of Prince Hanau (formerly Fürstenberg; Pl. D, 3, 4), with a beautiful garden.

Farther to the S., in the Malteser-Platz, is the Palace of Count Nostitz (Pl. D, 5), containing about 300 pictures and a library. Many of the best pictures are in the private apartments, which are inaccessible in winter (catalogue 12 kr.; fee).

Among the best works are: Rembrandt*, Rabbi (1635; damaged); Rubens*, General Spinola, in full armour; 163. Ravesteyn (ascribed to Pourbus), Man and woman; 48. G. Mostaert, Market; 53. N. Knüpfer, Diana's bath; 278. Lucidel, Girl; 291. A. van der Neer, Moonlight-scene; *106. J. van Ruysdael, Forest-scene (an early work); Mignon, Still-life; 275. G. Dou, A savant; 171. A. van Dyck, St. Bruno (early work); 215. Sir A. More (?), Portrait; Lucidel, Woman and child; 212. D. Teniers, Rustic tavern.

The catacombs beneath the neighbouring Carmelite church of Maria de Victoria (Pl. C,5) afford a curious but gruesome sight, to which visitors are admitted on application to the verger (fee 1 fl.).

Two routes lead from the Kleinseitner Ring to the Hradschin: the shorter to the right through the Schlossgässchen, and by 203 steps to the entrance to the court; the longer and easier (10 min.) leads straight through the Nerudagasse (with the rococo palaces of Count Thun on the right and Count Czernin on the left), and then to the right.

The Hradschin (Pl. B, C, 4, 3) may be called the Capitol of Prague. The Hradschiner-Platz is a quadrangle bounded on the N. by the Archiepiscopal Palace, on the S. by the Palace of Prince Schwarzenberg and by a Carmelite Nunnery, and on the W. by a palace of Emp. Francis Joseph. In the middle rises a Column of the Virgin.

The Burg (Pl. C, 4), or Imperial Palace, which occupies the E. side of the Platz, traditionally founded by Libussa (p. 222), restored after 1333 by Charles IV. in the French Gothic style, renewed by Ladislaw II. in 1484-1502, and again in the 16-17th cent. by Ferdinand I., Rudolph II., and Matthias, was completed by Maria Theresa. The court is separated from the Platz by an iron railing. On entering we bear to the right and pass through a gateway into the first court; farther on, to the right of the chapel, we pass through another archway into the second court, to the left in which rises the cathedral (see below). To the right is the main entrance to the S. wing of the Palace (adm. on application to the porter; fee 30 kr.).

The most interesting rooms in the palace are Ladislaw's Hall, or the Hall of Homage, constructed in 1484-1502, in which tournaments were once held, the old Statthalterei, the Palace Chapel, and the German and Spanish Halls. From the window of the old Council Chamber Count Thurn caused the two imperial counsellors Martinitz and Slawata to be thrown down on 23rd May, 1618. This act of violence was the immediate occasion of the Thirty Years' War. Two small obelisks under the windows, bearing their names, commemorate the event.

The equestrian Statue of St. George, a fountain-figure opposite the portal of the palace, was cast in bronze in 1373; the horse, having been injured, was restored in 1562. In the N. corner of this court is a gallery connecting the cathedral and the palace. In the passage under this gallery, on the left, is the entrance to the cathedral.

The Cathedral (Pl. C, 4; open 5-12 and 2-5 o'clock), the Metropolitan Church of St. Vitus, begun in 1344 under Charles IV. by the French architect Matthias of Arras, consists of little more than the spacious Gothic choir completed by Peter Arler of Gmünd in 1385 and recently restored. On the W. side are two towers completed in 1897. The chief tower, once 520 ft. high, was reduced by a fire in 1541 to its present height of 323 ft. The church and its monuments were seriously damaged by the Prussian bombardment in the siege of 1757. The chief tower and the nave are now being completed.

The nave (118 ft. in height) contains the large *Monument of the Kings, executed in marble by Alex. Colins of Malines (p. 131) in 1589, under Rudolph II., and erected over the hereditary burial-place of the Bohemian monarchs. Beneath it repose Charles IV. (d. 1378), Wenzel IV. (d. 1419), Ladislaw Posthumus (d. 1458), George Podiebrad (d. 1471), Ferdinand I. (d. 1564), Maximilian II. (d. 1577), Rudolph II. (d. 1612), and several queens and princesses. The *Wenzel Chapel (20 kr.), the first on the right, contains the monument of the saint; behind it, his helmet and coat-of-mail, and a large candelabrum with his statue, cast by the celebrated Peter Vischer of Nuremberg in 1532. The chapel, built in 1358-66, is inlaid with Bohemian precious stones and decorated with very ancient, half-obliterated frescoes of the early Prague school. A small picture of Cranach's school (1543) represents the murder of St. Wenzel. The ring on the door is said to be one which was grasped by the saint when he was slain at Alt-Bunzlau in 936 by his brother Boleslav. — The Martinitz Chapel, adjoining the Wenzel Chapel, contains a handsome modern Altar by Achtermann (d. 1884). In the Chapel of SS. Simon & Jude, on the left wall, hangs a Head of Christ on the napkin, revered as a 'vera icon', copied in 1368 by Thomas of Mutina from an ancient Byzantine picture; the patron-saints of Bohemia on the margin are original; the whole admirably executed. Above is a picture of St. John Nepomuc. The royal Oratorium is borne by admirably-executed stone vaulting (1493). Opposite, on the wall of the choir, a large representation in carved wood of the devastation of the church by the Protestants. To the right in the choir is the Shrine of St. Nepomuc, executed in 1736, of no artistic value, but said to consist of 1½ tons of silver. In the Sternberg Chapel are the very ancient tombs of Ottocar I. and II. and other Slavonic monarchs. A ball suspended by a chain from a pillar is one of those which injured the church in the Seven Years' War; the damage it occasioned to the balustrade is still observable. The Trinity Chapel contains the altar of St. Ludmilla, the first Christian duchess of Bohemia, with a modern group by Em. Max, and also a candelabrum said to have been in Solomon's Temple, but really dating partly from the 12th cent. (foot) and partly from 1641 (upper part). Opposite to it, at the back of the high-altar, is the tomb of St. Vitus, the patron-saint of the church, with a modern statue. In the Chapel of St. John the Baptist is a Crucifixion carved in wood. The walls of St. Anna's Chapel are adorned with paintings by Swerts. The marble figures of SS. Anna, Luke, and Methodius, at the altar, are by Simek. Opposite this chapel, on the wall of the presbytery, are two reliefs in wood, one representing Prague before 1620, the other the flight of King Frederick of the Palatinate from Prague after his defeat on the White Hill. Over the N. portal is an Adoration of the Cross, a fresco originally executed in 1562 and painted over in 1631, interesting only on account of the portraits of Ferdinand II. and III. and the two wives of the latter. — Adjoining the cathedral is the Treasury, containing numerous curiosities and objects of value, shown on application to the sacristan (fee).

Behind the cathedral rises the Romanesque Church of St. George, a heavy-looking edifice of the 10th cent., rebuilt after a fire in 1142-50, with two modern towers and a monument of St. Ludmilla, dating from the 15th century. To the right is the Theresianische Adlig-Fräuleinstift, an institution for spinsters of noble family, the balcony of which commands an admirable view (comp. p. 222; entrance in the circular portico; fee 20 kr.). At the end of the Georgsgässchen, a gate to the right, adjoining the Schwarze Thurm and the Daliborka-Thurm (fee 20 kr.), in which imprisoned noblemen are said to have been starved to death, leads to the Old Bastei, another good point of view. Adjacent is the Palace of Prince Lobkowitz. The Alte Schlossstiege (98 steps) descends hence to the Bruskagasse and the chain-bridge over the Moldau (p. 225).

From the Hradschiner-Platz the Lorettogasse leads to the S.W., passing the House of Correction, to the Loretto-Platz, in which rise the extensive Franz-Josef Barracks, formerly Count Czernin's Palace (Pl. A, 4). Opposite, to the N., is a Capuchin Monastery (Pl. A, B, 4), into the walls of which are built Prussian balls in memory of the siege of 1757. Adjacent is the church of St. Loretto, in the court of which is an imitation of the celebrated Casa Santa of Loretto. The treasury, to which 6 persons only are admitted at a time, under the guidance of a Capuchin (9.30 to 11.30; each pers. 20 kr.), contains several monstrances of the 16th cent., the most curious of which is in the form of rays, said to be set with 6580 precious stones.

From the Pohoželetz-Platz, which adjoins the Loretto-Platz on the W., a flight of steps through No. 8, or farther up, near the Reichsthor (Pl. A, 4), leads to the Strahower-Platz. Here, to the right, on the highest site in the town, stands the wealthy Premonstratensian Abbey of Strahow (Pl. A, 4, 5; visitors admitted on week-days 9-11.30 a.m.), with spacious arcades and the Church of the Assumption, containing the tombs of St. Norbert, founder of the order, and Pappenheim, the Imperial general, who fell at Lützen in 1632. The finest work in the Picture Gallery (ladies not admitted) is a *Virgin and Child crowned by angels, by Dürer (1506), containing portraits of the painter himself, his friend Pirkheimer, Emp. Maximilian, Pope Julius II., and other personages (freely retouched). The Library (door to the right of the church; first floor; ring), with 70,000 vols. and 1000 MSS., contains autographs of Tycho Brahe and a portrait of Ziska, the blind leader of the Hussites. Superb *View, from the upper windows, of the imposing city and the distant landscape bounded by the Giant Mts. on the N.E. (Fee to the guide in the monastery 20 kr.; donation to the librarian 'for the poor'.)

Returning to the Burg we regain the road from the N. side of the first court and, passing the Schloss-Garten on the right, reach the Belvedere (Pl. C, 3), an imposing villa in the Italian Renaissance style, erected in 1536 by Emp. Ferdinand I. for the Empress Anna. It is erroneously called Tycho Brahe's observatory, perhaps from the fact that Rudolph II. sometimes observed the stars here with his astronomer. The great hall is adorned with worthless frescoes from the history of Bohemia, after cartoons by Ruben (of Trèves). *View from the balcony (fee 20 kr.). In the Schloss-Garten, in front of the W. façade, is a handsome Renaissance fountain.

From the Belvedere we may descend through the grounds of the Volks-Garten (Pl. D, 3) and by the Chotek-Str. to the Bruskagasse (p. 231), and then cross the chain-bridge (p. 225), or turn to the right through the Wendische Gasse to the Karls-Brücke (p. 224). — To the E., on the steep bank of the Moldau, are the Kronprinz Rudolf* or Belvedere Promenades, commanding picturesque views, with the Belvedere Restaurant (electric railway to Baumgarten, see p. 221; cable-tramway in 1¼ min. to the Franz-Josefs-Brücke, p. 221). Farther down is the suburb of Bubna-Holleschowitz, with numerous factories, the slaughter-house, and the new Moldau harbour.

The Hasenburg (Pl. C, 5), above the Aujezdgasse, to the N.W., affords a charming view. A cable-tramway ascends in 5 min. (there and back 15 kr.) to the upper terminus (985 ft.; 330 ft. above the lower terminus) beside the Hasenburg Restaurant, which lies 3 min. walk from the View Tower (adm. 20 kr., lift 50 kr.; Restaurant) on the Laurentiusberg. The upper gallery (1245 ft. above the sea-level) commands a superb *Survey of Prague and the valley of the Moldau and over the greater part of Bohemia to the Giant Mts., the mountains on the Moravian frontier, the Bohemian Forest, the Erzgebirge, and the limestone hills of Saxon Switzerland. The summits of the central Bohemian range are especially conspicuous. — Above the Aujezd, to the right, is the Villa Kinsky, the garden of which affords another charming view of Prague (adm. Mon., Wed., & Frid., tickets obtained from the head-gardener).

Smichow (Pl. C, D, 6-8), the S.W. suburb, is another busy industrial quarter.

In the Kinsky-Str. is the handsome Church of St. Wenzel (Pl.

C, 6), built in 1880-85 by Barvitius in the early-Renaissance style, with a tastefully decorated interior, and nave with lacunar ceiling. The Palacky Bridge (tramway, see pp. 221, 225) leads hence to the Neustadt.

On the White Hill (Weisse Berg), to the W. of Prague, 3½ M. from the Reichsthor (p. 231), the fate of Protestantism in Bohemia was decided on 8th Nov., 1620. The Protestant Bohemians under Frederick V. of the Palatinate, the king of their own election and son-in-law of James I. of England, had thrown up intrenchments on the White Hill, but the attacks of Maximilian of Bavaria, chief of the Roman Catholic League, with his army of Bavarians and Walloons, were so irresistible that Frederick and his party were speedily routed, and the battle won in less than an hour. A pilgrimage-church was afterwards erected here to commemorate the victory. — On the N.W. slope of the White Hill a large and massive structure, erected in the form of a star, rises in the midst of wood. It was originally a royal château, and afterwards a powder-magazine, and was restored in 1875. It is situated at the end of a park which derives its name of Stern (star) from this building, and is a favourite resort of the citizens, thousands of whom repair hither on the first Sunday after 13th July (½ M. from stat. Libotz, p. 240). A stone here, commemorating the capture of Prague by Frederick the Great in 1744, purports to occupy the precise spot whence that monarch directed the operations of the besiegers. — On 6th May, 1757, Marshal Schwerin, Frederick the Great's favourite general, fell at the battle of Prague. Two monuments mark the spot where he was mortally wounded, near the village of Sterbohol, 4½ M. to the E. of Prague and 1½ M. from the station of Hostivař (p. 268).

37. From Dresden to Prague.

121 M. Railway in 4-6½ hrs. (fares 14 ℳ 20, 9 ℳ 90, 5 ℳ 60; express 19 ℳ 40, 13 ℳ 40, 7 ℳ 40 pf.). — Finest views on the left. — Steamboat in summer five times daily, to Pirna in 2¼ hrs., to Schandau in 4½ hrs., to Aussig in 10 hrs. (descent from Aussig to Dresden in 6½ hrs.). — The traveller who desires to see the picturesque banks of the Elbe may perform part of this route by steamer. The finest scenery terminates at Aussig.

Dresden, see Baedeker's Northern Germany. — The station is on the S. side of the town. Soon after starting the Grosse Garten is seen on the left. Beyond the stations of Sedlitz and Mügeln the line approaches the Elbe and follows the serpentine course of the river through the picturesque 'Saxon Switzerland' (described in Baedeker's Northern Germany). The château of Sonnenberg at (11 M.) Pirna is now a lunatic asylum. Pötzscha is the station for the little town of Wehlen on the opposite bank. At stat. Rathen rises the Bastei*, a precipitous rock on the opposite bank of the Elbe, 640 ft. above the river, the finest point in the Saxon Switzerland, commanding a beautiful view. At (22 M.) Königstein is the fortress of that name, 810 ft. above the river, commanding a noble prospect. Opposite the fortress rises the Lilienstein, 167 ft. higher. 24 M. Schandau, a favourite summer-resort, lies on the opposite bank. Herrnskretschen is the first Bohemian place on the right bank. 32 M. Niedergrund is the first Bohemian village on the left bank. The line follows the left bank. Several viaducts and embankments. Then two short tunnels under the projecting Schäferwand.

38½ M. Bodenbach (430 ft.; *Rail. Restaurant; Hôt. Fuss,

R. from 80 kr.; Frieser, well spoken of; Umlauft; Post), with 7574 inhab., is the Saxon and Austrian custom-house station. Long halt and change of carriages. Opposite to it lies the pleasant town of Tetschen (p. 258), connected with the left bank by a railway-bridge and a suspension-bridge. The village of Obergrund (*Bad-Hôtel; Starck's Hôtel; Bellevue), on the left bank, below the bridge, is a favourite summer-resort.

From Bodenbach to Komotau, 56 M., railway in 3 hrs. The line traverses the narrow and picturesque valley of the Eulauer Bach; on the right rises the Schneeberg (see below) with its belvedere. Stations: Bünaburg, Eulau, and (12½ M.) Tyssa-Königswald (3 M. to the N. of which is the village of Tyssa, with its huge and curiously-riven cliffs of sandstone, called the Tyssaer Wände). On the hill to the right of (15 M.) Klein-Kahn lies Nollendorf. 18½ M. Tellnitz; 21 M. Kulm, where a battle took place on 30th Aug., 1813. 22½ M. Hohenstein, with the Geiersburg on the right; 23½ M. Mariaschein; 25 M. Rosenthal-Graupen (p. 239), where the Wilhelmshöhe and Rosenburg rise on the right; 27 M. Teplitz-Waldthor (p. 236; station 1 M. from the town; omn. 15 kr.). 30 M. Kosten (1½ M. to the W. is the little town of Klostergrab, p. 240). 34 M. Ossegg (p. 240; branch-line in 10 min. to Dux-Liptitz, p. 240). The train now skirts the S. base of the Erzgebirge, and runs by Bruch, Wiesa (junction for the line from Prague to Moldau, p. 240), Ober-Leutensdorf, Ober-Georgenthal, Eisenberg, and Görkau to (56 M.) Komotau (p. 241).

Ascent of the Schneeberg from Bodenbach (2½ hrs.). We diverge from the Teplitz road to the right, either at the (¾ M.) Zum Rothen Kreuz Inn, or at the (1½ M.) Zur Grünen Wiese Inn. The path in the first case is easy to trace, being indicated by white marks on the trees, but is almost shadeless. In the second case we cross the valley to (7 min.) the road leading to Dorf Schneeberg (see below). After about 1¾ hr. a good footpath (white marks) diverges to the right, which brings us to the top in 50 min. more. Those who wish to walk as little as possible may drive to Dorf Schneeberg by the private road (sometimes closed) diverging at Märzdorf, or by the road diverging to the left near Peiperz, below the chain-bridge, or take the Bodenbach and Komotau railway to Eulau (see above). The steep road from Eulau to (2½ M.) Dorf Schneeberg (1866 ft.; Hebestreit's Hotel) ascends to the right. From the village of Schneeberg we reach the plateau of the Hohe Schneeberg (2372 ft.), the highest of the Bohemian sandstone-hills, in ¾ hr. The tower at the top, 112 ft. high, commands a magnificent *Panorama (Inn).

43 M. Topkowitz-Kartitz; 47½ M. Nestersitz-Pömmerle.

53 M. Aussig (1600 ft.; Goldnes Schiff*, R. 1-2 fl.; Englischer Hof; Dampfschiff-Hôtel*, on the Elbe; Rail. Restaurant*), a busy town with 28,000 inhab., lies at the influx of the Biela into the Elbe. Large factories and a brisk coal-trade occupy the inhabitants. The vast brown-coal seams of N. Bohemia lie a little to the W. The large river-barges load at a special coaling-harbour on the Elbe. Aussig was the birthplace of the painter Raphael Mengs (1728-79). The town is connected by a railway-bridge (with passage for pedestrians) with the station of Schreckenstein on the right bank of the Elbe (p. 258). The traveller detained here should ascend the Ferdinandshöhe (¼ hr. to the S.) or to the ruin of Schreckenstein (¾ hr.). A more extensive prospect is obtained from the Hohe Wostrey (1920 ft.), ascended viâ Neudörfel and Ober-Sedlitz in 1¾ hr. — The plain of Bihana, to the W. of Aussig, was the scene of the great Hussite battle of 16th June, 1426, which ended in the rout of the Saxons under Frederick the Quarrelsome and the destruction of the then flourishing town.

From Aussig to Teplitz and Komotau, see R. 38. — Steamboat to Dresden, see p. 233.

A bold rock on the right bank, 280 ft. in height, resembling the Lurlei on the Rhine, is crowned with the extensive ruins of the Schreckenstein*, not destroyed until the 18th cent., the property of Prince Lobkowitz, who keeps them in good preservation. Beautiful view from the top. This forms a worthy termination to the more picturesque part of the Elbe scenery. 59 M. Salesl lies picturesquely on the river, opposite Sebusein (p. 259). 61½ M. Praskowitz.

66 M. Lobositz (Post; Ross; Dampfschiff-Restaurant, on the Elbe, with view), a manufacturing town with a château of Prince Schwarzenberg, was the scene of the first battle in the Seven Years' War, in which, on 1st Oct., 1756, Frederick the Great and the Duke of Brunswick defeated the Austrians under Marshal Brown. Branch-lines to Teplitz, viâ Boreslau (ascent of the Milleschauer, see p. 239), and to (8½ M.) Libochowitz. On the opposite bank are the village of Gross-Cernosek (p. 259), noted for its wine, and the Hradek (1180 ft.), with its chapel.

71 M. Theresienstadt (Rail. Restaurant); the fortified town (Hôtel Erzherzog Karl; Deutsches Haus; pop. 11,482) lies 1½ M. to the N., at the influx of the Eger. Fine *View of the picturesque basaltic cones of the Mittel-Gebirge from the station: to the N.E., the Geltsch and Kelchberg; to the N., the Kreuzberg, Radischken, and Radobil; to the N.W., the Lobosch, Milleschauer, and Kletschen; to the W., the Kostial, with a ruined castle; to the S.W., the isolated Hasenburg. Beyond Theresienstadt the Eger is crossed. To the left, on the Elbe, is the little town of Leitmeritz (p. 259).

74½ M. Hrobetz. — 77½ M. Raudnitz (Krone; Löwe), on the Elbe (7500 inhab.). The château of Prince Lobkowitz contains a library (60,000 vols.), an armoury, and interesting pictures from the time of Charles V. to the Thirty Years' War. In 1350 Cola di Rienzi, 'the last of the tribunes', was confined in the castle for a year by Emp. Charles IV. To the right rises the conspicuous Georgenberg or Ripberg (1325 ft.), with its white chapel, 1 hr. to the S.E. of Raudnitz.

84 M. Wegstädtl; 89 M. Beřkowitz-Melnik, where the line quits the Elbe, into which the Moldau falls 3 M. higher up. 94 M. Jenšowitz. In the distance, to the left, lies Melnik (p. 259).

98½ M. Weltrus, with a château and park of Count Chotek, where we reach the Moldau. 100 M. Mühlhausen (with a château of Prince Lobkowitz); we pass through several tunnels and galleries, and cross the Zakolaner Bach. 102 M. Kralup (Rail. Restaurant), junction for Neratowitz and Turnau (p. 274), and for Kladno (p. 241), with large factories and railway-works.

The train follows the sinuosities of the Moldau. 106 M. Libšitz;

112 M. Roztok, amidst fruit-trees. 116 M. Podbaba, at the mouth of the picturesque valley of the Scharka. At (118 M.) Bubenč, the last station before Prague, the narrow, rocky valley widens. Charming scenery. The line intersects the lower part of the Baumgarten (p. 220), and is carried across the Moldau and several of its arms, and over the Hetz-Insel, Jerusalems-Insel, and Karolinenthal (p. 228) by a vast viaduct of 87 arches, 1450 yds. long (which cost 3½ mill. fl.). On the left rises the Ziskaberg, memorable as the scene of the great Hussite battle of 1420.

121 M. Prague, see p. 220.

38. From Aussig to Komotau viâ Teplitz.

41 M. Railway in 2¼-3 hrs. (fares 2 fl. 45, 1 fl. 64, 82 kr.).

Aussig, see p. 234. The train starts from the State Railway Station. ½ M. Aussig-Neustadt. — 3 M. Türmitz, with coal-mines and a château belonging to Count Nostitz.

From Türmitz to Bilin, 16½ M., railway in 1½ hr. Stations: Tschochau-Hlinai, Auperschin (junction of the Teplitz and Lobositz line, p. 239), Liessnitz, Schwaz-Kutlowitz. — 16½ M. Bilin (650 ft.: Hohes Haus: Löwe), an industrial town (6500 inhab.) on the Biela, with a château of Prince Lobkowitz. About ¾ M. to the S.W. is the well-known Biliner Sauerbrunnen (*Curhaus, with restaurant; railway station, see p. 251), whence upwards of 4,000,000 bottles of the water are annually exported. About 3 M. to the S. of the Sauerbrunnen is the Borschen (1755 ft.), the largest mass of clinkstone, or phonolite, in Germany, with rare flora and fine view (shelter-hut on the top). — From Bilin to Dux and to Pilsen, see p. 251.

41/2 M. Schönfeld; 5½ M. Karbitz (Rail. Restaurant), a thriving manufacturing town, 1 M. to the N. of the line. The cones of the Mittel-Gebirge appear on the left. — 8 M. Mariaschein (Rail. English Church Service during the season.

Teplitz (720 ft.; Slavonic 'warm bath'; 6000 patients annually), a favourite watering-place with 20,300 inhab., lies in a broad and undulating basin between the Erzgebirge and the Bohemian Mittelgebirge, 3 M. to the N. of the Biela. It is now united with the village of Schönau. The thermal springs (97-120° Fahr.), said to have been discovered as early as 762, are almost entirely free from mineral ingredients. They are beneficial in cases of gout, rheumatism, stiffness of joints, etc., and are chiefly used for bathing. Their principal source is the Stadtquelle (115° Fahr.) in the Stadtbad (Pl. 5), which also supplies the Kaiserbad (Pl. 3; D, 3), the Steinbad (Pl. F, 3), the Stefansbad (Pl. 6; F, 3), the Schlangenbad (Pl. F, 3), and the small Sofienbad (Pl. 10), frequented by Jews. The Herrenhaus, Fürstenbad (Pl. 1 and 2), and Neubad (Pl. F, 3) at Schönau are supplied by separate springs.

The pleasant Curgarten (Pl. D, 3) is enclosed by the handsome buildings of the Herrenhaus, the Cursalon, the Kaiserbad, and the Theatre. A number of the patients assemble here at an early hour to drink the Teplitz and other waters, while the band discourses its music.

A little higher up, adjoining the linden-avenue leading to Schönau, is the small Seume-Park, with the marble bust (Pl. 17) and the tomb (Pl. 18) of the poet Johann Gottfried Seume, who died at Teplitz in 1810. Farther on are the Payer-Anlagen, with the handsome Technical High School (Pl. E, 3). — On the N. side of the Linden-Strasse are a number of lodging-houses and public buildings, including the Saxon and Prussian Military Baths, the Bürger-Spital, and the John'sche Spital. At the E. end of the Linden-Strasse is a Warriors' Monument, erected in 1864, adjoining which are the Steinbad and the Stefansbad, mentioned above, the Austrian Military Bath House (Pl. 18), built in 1807, the Schlangenbad, and the Neubad.

We now return by the Elisabeth-Strasse, which is adjoined to the N. by the Kaiser-Park. On a hill to the right rises the Roman Catholic Church (St. Elisabeth; Pl. E, F, 2); farther on, to the left, is the new Synagogue, with a conspicuous dome, and the Protestant Church, on a terrace commanding a pretty view. — In the Schulgasse, No. 8, is the Museum (Pl. C, 2; adm. 30 kr., on application to the kceper), with prehistoric antiquities and natural history collections.

The most attractive pleasure-grounds at Teplitz are those of the Schlossgarten (Pl. B, C, 4), at the back of the Prince Clary-Aldringen's Schloss, which occupies the highest site in the town. The grounds, with their fine old timber, and two large ponds enlivened with swans, were laid out at the end of last century. They are reached from the Schloss-Platz (with its rococo fountain-column of 1717) by the chief portal of the Schloss; or by an entrance adjoining the Garten-Salon (p. 237), where the band plays from 11 to 1. In the Schlossgarten, on the E. side, is the Meierei (Pl. C, 4), or dairy.

The best view of Teplitz is afforded by the Königshöhe (900 ft.; Pl. D, E, 4), ascended by a path with steps in 5 min. from the Stefans-Platz. On the top is a Monument of King Frederick William III., who frequently visited Teplitz, erected in 1841. A little farther on are the Poor House and the Franz-Josef-Warte, erected in 1897 (*Restaurant), with a tower commanding a splendid survey of Teplitz and its environs (adm. 10 kr.). Towards the S.W. is the Schlackenburg Restaurant, a grotesque castellated building of slag and brick; and in the direction of the Meierei is the Schiesshaus. — To the S. (¾ hr.) rises the Wachholderberg (1253 ft.), also a very fine point of view. We ascend by the Bilin road, past the Schlossgarten, and take the 'Katharinen-Weg' to the right. Halfway up is the Bergschlösschen Restaurant.

Another good vantage-ground is the Stefanshöhe (837 ft.; Pl. F, 3), which rises to the E., above Schönau, ascended from the Prager-Strasse (Pl. E, F, 4), to the left, or to the right from the route to the Schlossberg (Pl. F, 3). — Farther distant, to the E., rises the Schlossberg (1286 ft.; comp. Pl. F, 3; ascent ¾ hr.; one-horse carr. 2, two-horse 3, there and back incl. halt, 3 fl. 50 or 5 fl. 60 kr.). On the top are a ruined castle (partially restored), with a belvedere tower (adm. 10 kr.; good view), and a Hotel (pens. 2½-3 fl.).

The Mecséry-Weg (Pl. F, 2; one-horse carriage 50, two-horse 80 kr.) leads from Schönau to the (¾ M.) Turner Park (restaurant) and across the main street of the village of Turn, following the electric tramway (p. 237) past the rail. station of Probstau (p. 236), to the (1½ M.) Probstauer Park (restaurant).

Eichwald (1175 ft.; Curhaus Theresienbad*, 1405 ft., well fitted up, with restaurant and baths of every description, R. 7-10 fl. per week, closed in winter; Restaurant Waldschlösschen, with garden, lower down; lodgings abound), 3½ M. to the N.W. of Teplitz, situated on a slope and in a ravine of the Erzgebirge, is a favourite summer-resort. The dusty highroad from Teplitz to Eichwald passes numerous mines of brown-coal (electric tramway, preferable, see p. 237; carr. 2, with two horses 3 fl.). — A road and paths lead from Eichwald to the (25 min.) Schweissjäger, a forester's house (Restaurant), which commands a picturesque view of Teplitz and the plain, bounded by the Schlossberg and the Milleschauer. — A level road leads from the Theresienbad to the W., through wood, to (1¼ M.) the Tuppelburg, another forester's house often visited (rfmts.), with a deer-park.

At the foot of the Erzgebirge, 3½ M. to the N.E. of Teplitz, lies the old mining town of Graupen (1116 ft.; rail. stat., p. 234), near which rise the Wilhelmshöhe (1156 ft.) and the Rosenburg* (1381 ft.; rfmts.), two fine points. To the E., above Hohenstein, rises (½ hr.) the ruin of Geiersburg (1581 ft.). — The Graupen road then ascends by Obergraupen (the old road to which is shorter, but steeper) to the (4 M.) Mückenthürmchen (2644 ft.; Inn), a conspicuous point on the crest of the Erzgebirge (carr. from Teplitz 5 fl., with two horses 8 fl.).

The Milleschauer, or Donnersberg (2740 ft.), 3½ hrs. to the S.E. of Teplitz, commands the most extensive and picturesque view in Bohemia. Rustic *Inn at the top. Road (carriage with two horses in 1½ hr., 8 fl., or with one horse in 2 hrs., 5 fl.) from Teplitz viâ Boreslau (see below) to Pilkau (1930 ft.), whence the summit is easily reached in 1 hr. The path enters the wood at the foot of the mountain in 12 min., and 7 min. later turns to the right and follows the blue and white marks. Descent to (2½ hrs.) Lobositz (p. 235); or viâ Kostenblatt to (3½ hrs.) Bilin (p. 236).

FROM TEPLITZ TO LOBOSITZ, 25 M., railway in 2 hrs. (1 fl. 84, 1 fl. 13, 62 kr.). Trains start from the Aussig station (Pl. To BERAUN, 33½ M., railway in 3 hrs. — From (6 M.) Rakonitz (Krone), a town (5300 inhab.) with two ancient gate-towers and the Gothic church of St. Barbara, a branch-line runs to Petschau (p. 250), viâ Pladen and Luditz. — 15 M. Burg Pürglitz, founded about 1100, was splendidly restored by Emp. Thence we follow the Beraun-Thal, viâ Zbečno, Neuhütten, and Althütten, to (33 M.) Beraun (p. 250).

42 M. Krupa (junction for Kolleschowitz); 46 M. Milostin-Kounowa. The line crosses a wooded hill and enters the valley of the Trnowa. 52 M. Satkau-Teschnitz; 57 M. Michelob; 62 M. Trnowan (to the right, Schloss Dobritschan, with a small mineral bath). The train then crosses the Eger. — 64½ M. Saaz (764 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Engel; Hanslick), an old town on the right bank of the Eger, with 16,600 inhabitants. The old Dekanatskirche was rebuilt after a fire in 1383; the Rathhaus dates from 1559. Hops are largely cultivated here. From Saaz to Pilsen and to Dux, see p. 251.

The line enters the valley of the Saubach. 69 M. Horatitz; 73 M. Priesen (1000 inhab.), with iron-works and a mineral spring.

79 M. Komotau (1080 ft.; Reiter, R. 80 kr.-1½ fl.; Scherber, both well spoken of; Rail. Restaurant*), an old town (14,000 inhab.) with a late-Gothic church, at the foot of the Erzgebirge. The Stadt-Park (½ M.) is a favourite resort.

From Komotau to Aussig, see R. 38; to Bodenbach, see p. 234.

FROM KOMOTAU TO CHEMNITZ, railway viâ Reitzenhain (72 M.; 5¼-6 hrs.) or viâ Weipert and Annaberg (91 M.; 8½ hrs.). The first stations on the latter line are Tschernowitz and Domina-Schönlind. 20½ M. Krima-Neudorf, where the line to Reitzenhain diverges. 23½ M. Sonnenberg, 2 M. to the S.E., with a conspicuous church. 28 M. Pressnitz-Reischdorf; Pressnitz (3500 inhab.) is the home of many itinerant musicians. Beyond (30 M.) Kupferberg the line reaches its culminating point (2830 ft.); it then descends to (37 M.) Schmiedeberg and along the Saxon frontier to (44½ M.) Weipert (2395 ft.), a town with 6400 inhab. (custom-house examination). From Weipert viâ Annaberg to Chemnitz, see Baedeker's N. Germany. — From Schmiedeberg a road leads by (4½ M.) Ober-Wiesenthal (2995 ft.; Rathhaus; Stadt Karlsbad) to (2½ M.) Gottesgab (3373 ft.; Grünes Haus; Stadt Wien), the highest town in Bohemia, once a busy mining place. The Fichtelberg (3980 ft.), the highest mountain in Saxony, may be ascended from Ober-Wiesenthal in ¾ hr.; at the top is a stone tower, which commands an extensive view. From Gottesgab by Joachimsthal to (9 M.) Schlackenwerth, see p. 242. The Keilberg or Sonnenwirbel (4083 ft.), the highest point of the Erzgebirge, may be ascended from Gottesgab by road 1 hr. (tower at the top; extensive view).

84 M. Deutsch-Kralup. — 87 M. Kaaden-Brunnersdorf, 2 M. to the S. of which, on the Eger, lies Kaaden (975 ft.; Austria; Sonne; Grüner Baum), an old town (6900 inhab.) with an interesting gateway and fine Gothic Rathhaus tower. Outside the town are a handsome late-Gothic Franciscan church, with a monastery, and pilgrimage-stations sculptured in stone. Near the town rises the Heiligenberg; interesting excursion to the ruined castle of Hassenstein.

90½ M. Klösterle (Rathhaus), a small town belonging to Count Thun, with a large porcelain-manufactory. The train crosses the Eger and follows the pretty Eger-Thal. Several unimportant stations. From (102 M.) Welchau-Wickwitz a branch-line diverges to (5½ M.) Giesshübel-Sauerbrunn (p. 249). The line then quits the Eger and follows the Wistritzbach to the right, through a hilly district. — 107 M. Schlackenwerth (1312 ft.; Renthaus; Adler; *Restaurant at the Gartenhaus), a small town with a château and park of the Grand-Duke of Tuscany.

Branch-line in 40 min. to (5½ M.) Joachimsthal (2365 ft.; Stadt Dresden; Wilder Mann*), a town of 7000 inhab., with a modern church and a town-hall with a library. The word 'thaler' is derived from the coins ('Joachimsthaler') struck in the silver found here by Count Schlik in the 16th cent., but the mining is now insignificant. From Joachimsthal to Gottesgab and Schmiedeberg, see p. 41. The Keilberg (4083 ft.) may be ascended from Joachimsthal in 1 hr. (see p. 241; road to the top).

111 M. Neudau. — 116 M. Carlsbad (Rail. Restaurant); the town (p. 245) lies on the opposite bank of the Eger, 1 M. from the railway (cabs and omnibuses, see p. 245).

Beyond Carlsbad the railway quits the Eger, which from this point to Elbogen flows through a deep and tortuous rocky ravine. We turn towards the N. to (124 M.) Chodau.

From Chodau to Neudek, 9 M., railway in 1 hr. The line traverses the coal-measures of Chodau, passes Münchhof and Poschetzau, and at (4 M.) Neu-Rohlau enters the pretty valley of the Rohlaubach. 9 M. Neudek (1834 ft.; Rathhaus; Herrenhaus), a prettily situated town, with 3574 inhab., has a large cotton-mill and iron-rolling works. — From Neudek to Johanngeorgenstadt, see p. 250 and Baedeker's Northern Germany.

125½ M. Neusattl (1480 ft.).

To Elbogen, 4 M., branch-line in 25 minutes. Stat. Helenen-Schacht, with Siemens's large glass-works. Then the Vincenzi-Schacht, the Katharinen-Schacht, and the village of Grünlass, with brick-works. — 4 M. Elbogen (1454 ft.; Weisses Ross; Hirsch*) derives its name ('elbow') from the sudden bend of the Eger round the rocky eminence on which the town is charmingly situated. The old castle of the Margraves of Vohburg, subsequently of the Hohenstaufen, traditionally founded in 870, is now a prison (fine view; visitors admitted). The Rathhaus contains a fragment and a model of a meteoric stone found here, called the 'Verwünschte Markgraf' ('accursed count'), to which various traditions attach. Large porcelain factories. — From the station a pleasant walk may be taken up the beautiful, wooded Geiersbach-Thal to the Schützenhaus (cross the Eger by the 'Ziegel-Brücke', ascend the hill to the Eger highroad, and beyond it ascend the valley). We return by the road to the Suspension Bridge, 80 ft. above the Eger, and follow the new road to the town; or at the bridge descend to the Eger and follow the river through the Kolowrat Tunnel and reach the town by the Röhrsteg. — In the cemetery is a curious group of rocks, called the 'Spitzige Stein'. A picturesque and shady road leads hence along the Eger to (3 M.) Hans Heiling's Rock (p. 249), and thence by Aich to Carlsbad (p. 245).

The line returns to the Eger. — 130 M. Falkenau (Anker), with a château of Count Nostitz.

To KLINGENTHAL, 19 M., branch-line in 2 hrs. The train ascends the valley of the Zwodau to Davidsthal, Hartenberg, with a château of Count Auersperg, (8 M.) Bleistadt, an old mining town with 1100 inhab., and (11 M.) Annathal-Rothau, 3 M. to the E. of which is the small town of Heinrichsgrün. 15½ M. Graslitz (1640 ft.; Kaiser von Oesterreich; Herrenhaus), an industrial town with 7900 inhabitants. Then across the Saxon frontier to (19 M.) Klingenthal, whence a branch-railway runs to Zwota, on the Chemnitz and Adorf railway (see Baedeker's Northern Germany).

133 M. Zieditz; 136 M. Dassnitz; 139 M. Königsberg-Mariakulm. The old provostry of Mariakulm, 1½ M. to the N., with a pilgrimage-church, is said to have been once a haunt of robbers, the bones of whose victims (?) are shown in a vault.

141½ M. Mostau-Nebanitz; 146½ M. Tirschnitz, junction for Franzensbad (p. 244). The train crosses the Eger.

148½ M. Eger. — Hotels. *HÔTEL WELZEL ZUM KAISER WILHELM (Pl. a; D, 4), opposite the station, R., L., & A. 1-2 fl., B. 45 kr.; HÔTEL NEUBERGER (Pl. b; D, 4), Bahnhof-Str. 49, R. 80 kr.-5 fl., B. 40 kr.; KRONPRINZ RUDOLF (Pl. c; C, 3), VICTORIA (Pl. d; D, 4), both in the Bahnhof-Str.; ZWEI ERZHERZOGE (Pl. e; C, 2), Markt 26, R. 1 fl. 20 kr.-2 fl., B. 30 kr. — Restaurants: Railway Restaurant; Rathskeller, in the Sparkasse (Pl. B, 2). — For a visit to the town 3 hours are sufficient.

Eger (1470 ft.), with 20,000 inhab., formerly a free imperial town and fortress, lies on a hill on the right bank of the Eger. The fortifications were razed in 1809. From the Railway Station (Pl. E, 4) the Bahnhof-Strasse leads to the N.W. in 20 min. to the MARKTPLATZ (Pl. B, C, 2), at the upper end of which is a bronze Monument to Emp. Joseph II., by Wilfert (1887), and a fountain with a statue of Roland (1584). — In the Stadthaus, at the lower end of the Marktplatz, on 25th Feb., 1634, Wallenstein was assassinated by the Irishman Devereux (tickets at the police guard-room, 30 kr.).

The rooms in the upper story, which Wallenstein occupied before his death, contain a Museum of local antiquities and curiosities (observe the guild vessels and cabinets), including mementoes of the great general, most of them of doubtful genuineness (the partisan with which he was assassinated, his sword, his writing-table, etc.). A worthless picture designates the foul deed as the 'Execution of the General of Friedland.' A second represents the treacherous murder of Wallenstein's officers Illo, Terczky, Kinsky, and Neumann, with the names of the perpetrators, Cols. Butler, Gordon, Leslie, Geraldine, and 50 soldiers. The so-called portrait of Wallenstein, which is also shown, differs from authenticated likenesses. The Council Chamber contains portraits of the emperors from Leopold I. onwards.

The Imperial Burg*, or Castle (Pl. A, B, 1; adm. 20 kr.), situated in the angle formed by a bastion of the old fortifications, on a rock above the river, to the N.W. of the town, erected by Frederick Barbarossa about the year 1180, and once inhabited by kings and emperors, is now a ruin. The lofty square tower, built of blocks of lava, belongs to the ancient castle which stood here before the time of Barbarossa. The elegant double Chapel, the lower Romanesque (1183), the upper pointed (1295), is interesting.

Of the adjoining banquet-room, in which the above-mentioned officers of Wallenstein were murdered a few hours before Devereux assassinated his general, the arches of the windows now alone remain. Since the perpetration of that crime the castle has never been inhabited. The courtyard is now a garden. The terrace, 80 ft. above the Eger, commands a pleasing view: to the E., in the direction of the stream, rise the three towers of Mariakulm (p. 243). The casemates are still well preserved, and indeed externally the castle almost resembles a modern fort with a drawbridge.

The handsome church of the deanery of St. Nicholas (Pl. B, C, 1), founded in 1111, in the pointed style, with nave and aisles of equal height, borne by eight pillars, contains old paintings by Lucas (15th cent.), discovered in 1856, and a fine new pulpit. — Military Swimming School by the Schützenhaus (Pl. A, 2).

Excursions from Eger. The basaltic Kammerbühl (1640 ft.), described by Goethe, 3/4 hr. to the N.W.; the castle of Kinsberg, 4 M. to the S., with pleasing view; the Grünberg (1968 ft.) with the Chapel of St. Anne, commanding distant views; the abbey of Waldsassen (rail. station), founded in 1128 and ecularized in 1803; Alexandersbad, Marienbad (p. 252), etc.

From Eger to Franzensbad, 4 1/2 M., railway in 11 min.

Franzensbad. — Rail. Restaurant. — Hotels (generally closed in winter). *Königsvilla (Pl. a; D, 4), R., L., & A. 2-5 fl., B. 60 kr., pens. from 4 fl.; *Grand Hôtel (Pl. b; D. 4), both Salzquell-Str.; *Post (Pl. c; B, 3), Kaiser-Str., with two dépendances; *Park-Hotel (Pl. d; C, 2), *Hôtel Bristol (Pl. e; B, 2), both in the Park-Str.; Hôtel Gisela (Pl. f; C, 1), opposite the station, R. 1-2 fl.; Kaiser von Oesterreich (Pl. g; B, 3), Louisen-Str. (these two open in winter also); Hôtel Hübner, Kaiser-Str., R. 2 fl.; *Holzer (Pl. h; C, 3), Kreuz (Pl. i; C, 3), both in the Kulmer-Str.; Stadt Leipzig (Pl. k; B, 3), Kirchengasse; Deutscher Hof (Pl. l; C, 3), Postgasse, R. 1 1/2-5 fl., B. 30 kr. — Numerous Lodging Houses; agreements should be carefully made beforehand. — Restaurants: Curhaus: Hübner (see above).

Cabs: to and from the station, with one horse 70 kr., two horses 1 fl. (from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. 1 fl. or 1 fl. 50 kr.); 1/2 hr. 40 or 60, 1 hr. 80 kr. or 1 fl.; whole day 8 fl. or 11 fl. 50 kr., with fee.

Visitors' and Music Tax (after a stay of more than 7 days): 1st class 15 fl., 2nd cl. 9 fl. 50 kr., 3rd cl. 6 fl. 50 kr. — Music 6-7 a.m. at the Salzquelle, 7-8 a.m. at the Franzensquelle; Sun., Wed., Frid., Sat. 4-6, Mon. & Thurs. 4-5 p.m. in the Curpark. Details in the Curliste. — Post & Telegraph Office (Pl. C, 4), Neuquell-Str. — English Church Service in summer.

Franzensbad (1447 ft.), a favourite watering-place (2370 inhab.; 8-9000 visitors annually), situated on a high-lying plain between the outskirts of the Bohemian Forest, the Fichtelgebirge, and Erzgebirge, possesses ten mineral springs (chalybeate and saline, impregnated with carbonic acid gas), used for bathing and drinking, and also mud and gas baths. From the Railway Station (Pl. C, D, 1) the Bahnhof-Strasse leads in 3 min. to the well-shaded Curpark (Pl. B, C, 2), with the Café-Salon and a Statue of Emp. Francis I., the founder of the baths, in bronze, by Schwanthaler. In the Kaiser-Str., to the S. of the Curpark, is the Curhaus (Pl. B, 4), from which a long colonnade leads to the Franzensquelle (Pl. 1), the chief drinking-well, under a rotunda. To the S.E., beyond the Salzquell-Park, are the Salzquelle (Pl. 5) and the Wiesenquelle (Pl. 6), Carlsbad or Karlsbad (1165 ft.), a celebrated watering-place, with 16,000 inhab. and upwards of 40,000 visitors annually, the waters of which are especially efficacious in liver-complaints, is situated in the narrow valley of the Tepl, the pine-clad slopes of which are traversed by paths in all directions. The springs are said to have been discovered in 1347 by Emp. Charles IV. while hunting (whence the monument in the Stadtgarten); but Karlsbad was known as a health-resort a century earlier.

The chief ingredients of the mineral water are sulphate of soda, carbonate of soda, and common salt. The springs rise near the Tepl from beneath a very hard kind of rock, known as Sprudelschale, or Sprudeldecke, a crust from which, wherever it is broken through, the hot water gushes up. The greater part of the town is built upon this crust, under which it is believed that there exists a large common reservoir of the mineral water, known as the 'Sprudelkessel'. The steam of this subterranean cauldron escapes through artificial apertures in the rock, which, on account of the incrustations deposited by the water, require to be cleared and enlarged every three months. If the usual egress of the water and gas is obstructed at any one spot, they rise with increased force at the other outlets, and have even been known to force a new passage for themselves. At the time of the earthquake of Lisbon the Sprudel ceased to flow for three days. There are in all seventeen hot and two cold springs, which vary in temperature from 50° to 167° Fahr. and are used both for bathing and drinking. About 2,000,000 bottles of the water and 110,000 lbs. of the salt are exported annually.

The oldest and most copious (450 gallons per min.) of these springs is the Sprudel (Pl. 19; 162° Fahr.), on the right bank of the Tepl, connected with which is the Hygieia-Quelle. On the left bank are the Mühlbrunnen (Pl. 14; 124°), the Neubrunnen (Pl. 15; 140°), the Theresienbrunnen (Pl. 20; 138°), the Marktbrunnen (Pl. 13; 108°), the Kaiser-Karl-Quelle (Pl. 11; 113°), and the Schlossbrunnen (Pl. 17; 127°); more or less connected with these are the Russische Kronquelle (Pl. 16; 93°), the Bernhards-Brunnen (Pl. 7; 147°), the Elisabeth-Quelle (Pl. 8; 108°), the Felsenquelle (Pl. 9; 138°), the Spitalbrunnen (Pl. 18; 95°), the Curhausquelle (Pl. 12; 150°), the Kaiserbrunnen (Pl. 10; 120°), the Hochberger-Quelle (103°), and the Parkquelle (104°). The two cold springs are the Stefanie-Quelle (alkaline-saline, with carbonic acid; 70°), below the Schweizerhof

(Pl. E, 6), and the Eisenquelle (46°), on the slope of the Dreikreuzberg. There are four Bath Houses, with mineral, mud, vapour, and other baths (the Kaiserbad, the Sprudel Baths, the Curhaus, and the Neubad).

At an early hour, in the height of the season (June and July) even before 5 a.m., the water-drinkers repair to the various springs. At the Mühlbrunnen and Sprudel, where the band plays from 6 to 8, the crowd is often so great that the patients have to wait more than a quarter of an hour before they are served with a glass of water.

The town is creeping up towards the Railway Station (Pl. A, 1), to the N., on the left bank of the Eger, but the busiest part of it is the quarter bounded by the Stadt-Park on the N. and the Pupp'sche Etablissement on the S. Adjoining the pleasant Stadt-Park (Pl. C, 3), on the left bank of the Tepl, is the Stadtpark Restaurant (p. 245), with a colonnade contiguous, where the water of the Parkquelle (p. 246) is drunk. On the opposite bank is the Neubad, with mud-baths. — To the S.W. runs the handsome Park-Strasse, in which, on the left, rises the Synagogue, erected in 1876-77 from designs by Wolff of Stuttgart. On the right, farther up, is the Military Curhaus (Pl. B, 4), opened in 1896, and the Russian Church of SS. Peter & Paul, erected in 1893-97 from Wiedermann's designs, with a gilt central dome and frescoes on the outside. Farther on is the Café-Restaurant Klein-Versailles (Pl. B, 4).

On the S.E. side of the Stadt-Park is the Austrian Military Bath House (Pl. C, 3), within which rise the Kaiserbrunnen and the Hochberger-Quelle (p. 246). Next comes the Curhaus (at the S. end of which is the Curhaus-Brunnen, Pl. 12), high above which lies the Fremdenspital with the Spitalbrunnen (Pl. 18). On the lower ground, farther on, passing the Felsenquelle (Pl. 9), we come to the Mühlbrunnen Colonnade (Pl. C, D, 4), of the Corinthian order, erected by Zitek in 1871-78, with the Elisabeth-Quelle, the Theresienbrunnen, the Bernhardsbrunnen, the Neubrunnen, and the Mühlbrunnen. Above the colonnade are the grounds of the Schlossberg (see below) and the English Church (Pl. C, 4), built in 1877.

From the Colonnade the Mühlbadgasse leads to the Market Place (Pl. D, 4), where the Kaiser Karls-Quelle (Pl. 11) and the Marktbrunnen (Pl. 13) rise under the wooden Marktbrunn Colonnade, with the Stadtthurm towering above it. On the left is the Post & Telegraph Office (Pl. 21). To the N.W. a broad flight of steps ascends to the Schlossberg. Here, on the right, rises the Schlossbrunnen (Pl. 17), opposite which, on the left, is the Russische Kronquelle (Pl. 16).

From the market-place the Sprudel-Brücke crosses the Tepl to the Sprudel Colonnade (Pl. D, 4), an imposing iron structure by Hellmer and Fellner (1879). Within this colonnade rise the Hygieia-Quelle, adorned with a statue of Hygieia by Fernkorn, and the Sprudel (p. 246), which gushes up in 40-60 jets per minute, 1½ ft. thick, and varying from 6 to 13 ft. in height. — In the Kirch-Platz, beyond the colonnade, stands the Rom. Cath. Magdalenen-Kirche (Pl. 4), with a terraced platform, erected in 1732-36. Above it is the Stadtgarten (Pl. D, E, 4), with a statue of Emp. Charles IV. by Jos. Max, erected in 1868 on the '500th anniversary' of the discovery of the springs, and the Panorama Grounds (café), which afford a charming survey of the town.

On the S. side of the market-place, skirting the Tepl, is the Alte Wiese (Pl. C, D, 5), the most frequented promenade at Karlsbad, with the best shops. The Alte Wiese ends at the Goethe-Platz and the extensive Pupp'sche Anlagen.

Opposite the Alte Wiese the Neue Wiese (Pl. C, D, 5), on the right bank of the Tepl, leads past the Stadt-Theater (built by Fellner and Helmer in 1886) to the Pupp'sche Brücke. Farther on, in the Marienbader-Str., is the Kaiserbad*, a handsome building in the French Renaissance style, designed by Fellner & Hellmer and sumptuously fitted up, with baths of every description, a large saloon for gymnastic exercises, etc. The Marienbader Strasse goes on, past the Protestant Church (Pl. 2), to the Karls-Brücke (see below).

Of the many beautiful WALKS the most popular, because level, is through the Pupp'sche Allée and the Goethe-Platz (Pl. C, 5; embellished with a marble bust of Goethe by Donndorf), and by the Kiesweg to the (¼ hr.) Café Sanssouci* (Pl. D, 6). On the rocks by the wayside may be read inscriptions in many different languages, gratefully extolling the efficacy of the springs. A little farther on, leaving the Karls-Brücke on the left, and passing the 'Vieruhr-Promenade' (in shade after 4 p.m.) on the right, we follow the Marienbader Strasse, past the Körner Monument, on the right, to the (¼ hr.) Café Posthof*, with its pleasant garden (concerts, see p. 245). On the opposite bank of the Tepl are the Café Schönbrunn*, the Dorotheen-Säuerling, and the Café Schweizerhof*. About 8 min. to the W. of the Posthof, at the end of the Vieruhr-Promenade, are the Schwarzenberg Monument and the Theresien-Platz. From the Posthof we ascend past the Antonsruhe and the Stahlbuche to (12 min.) the Freundschafts-Saal (Pl. D, 7), another café. About 10 min. farther on is the romantic Kaiser-Park* (Pl. B, C, 7; café), whence we may extend our walk, crossing the Tepl halfway, to (1 M.) Pirkenhammer, or Hammer (1340 ft.; Hôt. Kempf, with garden-restaurant; Hôt. Habsburg; omnibus, see p. 246), with its large porcelain-factory. To the left of the factory is the (35 min.) Mecséry-Höhe (2038 ft.), a good point of view. In returning from Pirkenhammer we may follow the shady 'Plobenweg' on the right bank of the Tepl, and after ½ hr. (guide-post) either keep straight on viâ the Posthof to (¼ hr.) the Café Sanssouci (see above), or (preferable) follow the path (Schwindel-Weg) to the right along the hillside to the Café Schönbrunn (see above).

From the Schlossberg the Hirschensprunggasse and a good path beyond it ascend to the (20 min.) Hirschensprung* (Pl. C, 4; 1635 ft.), with an admirable view (café). The neighbouring Theresienhöhe, the Petershöhe, with a memorial tablet and a bust of Peter the Great, and Mayer's Gloriette are also good points of view. We return to the Schlossberg by the Jubiläumsweg, passing the 'Himmel auf Erden'.

From the Goethe-Platz by the Mariengässchen to the Marien-Kapelle (Pl. C, 5), and thence to the right to the Friedrich-Wilhelms-Platz, and to the left, past the Ecce-Homo-Kapelle, to the (1/2 hr.) Franz-Josefs-Höhe (Pl. C, D, 6; 1673 ft.), with a belvedere-tower (fine view of Carlsbad and the Erzgebirge). — Over the Schlossberg, or through the Park-Strasse, and past the Jägerhaus Kaiser Karl's IV. (café) and Findlater's Obelisk to the (3/4 hr.) Katharinen-Platz (Pl. A, B, 6), and thence to (1/2 hr.) the Bild (1802 ft.) and (1/2 hr.) the Aberg* (2000 ft.; restaurant), the tower on which commands an extensive panorama of the Erzgebirge.

From the Magdalenen-Kirche on the right bank of the Tepl, by the Schulgasse and past the garden of the Café Panorama, to the Prague road; turn to the left; then ascend by a winding path to the right to the (40 min.) Dreikreuzberg Restaurant (Pl. D, E, 3; Camera Obscura), an admirable point of view; thence in 5 min. more to the top of the Dreikreuzberg (1844 ft.), where the view is less extensive, and through wood to the (1/4 hr.) König Otto's Höhe (1965 ft.; view intercepted by trees), and to the (1/2 hr.) Stefanie-Warte* (café-restaurant), a tower 98 ft. high, with a superb view; descent past the Pöhlenhof to (1/2 hr.) Carlsbad.

Other fine points are the Bellevue and the Wiener-Sitz on the right bank of the Tepl, and the Freundschafts-Sitz, the Belvedere, and the Rohan-Kreuz on the left bank.

Thence to Elbogen, see p. 243. — Also by the Prague road, which commands charming views, to (4 M.) the ruin of Engelhaus, on a rock of phonolite (2340 ft.); thence in 1/2 hr. to the Schömitzstein, with a splendid view (rfmts. at the forester's). — On the Eger, 7 1/2 M. below Carlsbad (omnibus daily in 1 1/2 hr.; beautiful road through wood), are the baths of Giesshübel-Sauerbrunn (Curhaus and Hydropathic, with restaurant; several villas), with a famous mineral spring (alkaline, with carbonic acid; 8 million bottles exported annually). — The ascent of the Keilberg or Sonnenwirbel (4083 ft.), the highest summit of the Erzgebirge, forms another attractive excursion from Carlsbad (see p. 241).

The train starts from the Franz-Josef Station and turns to the S. into the valley of the Moldau. — 6 M. Kuchelbad, a resort of excursionists from Prague. 9 M. Radotin. The line quits the Moldau and approaches the Beraun, which it crosses at Mokropetz. 15½ M. Dobřichowitz; 18 M. Řewnitz; 21½ M. Karlstein (715 ft.; restaurant near the station).

On a precipitous rock 25 min. to the N., on the left bank of the Beraun, rises *Schloss Karlstein (Karluv Tyn; 1047 ft.; restaurant), the most interesting castle in Bohemia, erected in 1348-65 by Emp. Charles IV., as a receptacle for the Bohemian regalia, and once adorned with treasures of art, most of them now removed. The central point of the castle is the Kreuzkapelle in the tower, sumptuously decorated with precious stones, gilding, and painting, where the regalia, various relics collected by Charles IV., and the archives were once preserved. The paintings here belong to the early Bohemian school. Adjoining the strongly fortified tower is the Emperor's palace, with the chapel of St. Catharine, also embellished with precious stones. The portraits of Charles IV., his consort, and his son, mural paintings executed in the emperor's lifetime, are of special interest. The castle, which is shown by the guardian (fee 30 kr.), has been thoroughly restored since 1888.

Beyond Karlstein the valley of the Beraun is confined between lofty limestone rocks, but expands at (27½ M.) Beraun (725 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Böhmischer Hof; Schwarzes Ross), an old town with 7265 inhab., junction of the lines to Rakonitz and Lužna-Lischan (p. 241) and to Dusnik (p. 240). The train now enters the Litawa-Thal. — 30 M. Zditz.

To Protivin, 64 M., railway in 4 hrs. The line traverses the smiling Litawa-Thal. — 17½ M. Přibram (Erzherzog Franz Ferdinand; Kaiser von Oesterreich), a town of 15,000 inhab., with valuable silver and lead mines, which employ 5000 workmen and yield about 19 tons of pure silver annually. Nine shafts in all are worked, the chief of which are the Adalbert-Schacht, 3660 ft. deep, and the Maria-Schacht, 3694 ft. deep. About 1 M. to the E. of the town rises the Heilige Berg (1903 ft.), a great resort of pilgrims, with a church containing a miracle-working image of the Virgin. The next stations are unimportant. — 55 M. Pisek (Hôtel zum Rad), with 10,950 inhab. and an old château, half enclosed by the Wottawa, is the junction of a line to Iglau (p. 255). Near it is the extensive chasse of Prince Lobkowitz. — 58 M. Putim (p. 255). — 64 M. Protivin, on the Franz-Josefs-Railway (p. 256).

The train follows the Klabawa, passing the iron-works of Klabawa and Horomislitz, to (64½ M.) Chrast (Rail. Restaurant), whence a branch-line diverges to Radnitz, an important coal-mining place. The line re-enters the valley of the Beraun and crosses the imposing Uslawa Bridge.

68½ M. Pilsen (980 ft.; Pilsener Hof*; Kaiser von Oesterreich*; Goldner Adler; Rail. Restaurant, with rooms; Pilsner beer at Salzmann's, Pragergasse, and Knobloch's, Salzgasse), an old town with 50,150 inhab., lies at the confluence of the Mies and the Radbusa. Once fortified, it withstood several sieges during the Hussite wars, but was taken by storm by Mansfeld in 1618. Pilsen was in part the scene of the alleged conspiracy for which Wallenstein was outlawed, and twenty-four of his adherents were executed in the market-place here in 1634. In the Ring-Promenade, on the S. side of the town, are monuments to the burgomaster Kopecky (d. 1854), and to Smetana (d. 1874), the musical composer. The Gothic church of St. Bartholomew, the Historical and Industrial Museum (daily 10-12 and 2-5, free), and the large rock-cellars of the Bürgerliche Bräuhaus are worth seeing. Pilsen is famous for its beer.

Marienbad (2093 ft.), a famous watering-place (20,000 visitors annually), lies in a charming valley enclosed on three sides by pine-clad hills. At the beginning of the present century this region was an almost impenetrable wilderness. The place now consists of about 190 houses, most of them new, and some of them very handsome. The springs contain Glauber's salt and resemble those of Carlsbad, but are cold. They belong to the neighbouring Abbey of Tepl. The Kreuz-Brunnen, the Ferdinands-Brunnen (1¼ M. to the S., but brought in pipes to the Promenaden-Platz), and the Waldquelle (½ M. to the N.W. of the Kreuz-Brunnen) are the principal springs for drinking (of which 1,000,000 bottles are exported annually). The Marienquelle is used externally, and other baths (mud, pine-cone, alkaline, gas, etc.) may be obtained at the bath-house here. The chalybeate waters of the Ambrosius-Brunnen and the Karolinen-Brunnen and the strong chalybeate and saline water of the Ferdinands-Brunnen are also used for bathing. The Rudolfsquelle, to the S. of the Ferdinands-Brunnen, is strongly impregnated with carbonic acid.

The main street of Marienbad, which the traveller coming from the station first enters, is the long Kaiser-Strasse (Pl. B, 3, 4), bounded on the left by handsome houses and on the right by the

In lagen, or public grounds, which soon expand into a pretty park. An this street are the Military Curhaus and the Synagogue. To the left diverges from it the JÄGER-STRASSE, in which rises the Stadthaus (Pl. B, 3), containing the post-office, the telegraph-office, the custom-house, besides a restaurant, reading and assembly rooms, and a large concert and ball room. A little to the S. of the Stadthaus is the English Church (Pl. B, 3). The Kaiser-Str. ends at the FRANZ-JOSEFS-PLATZ (Pl. B, C, 2), which is planted with trees. On the N. side of this Platz rises the Protestant Church, erected in 1853-57, with which is connected a charity called the 'Friedrich-Wilhelm-Stift'. The Waldbrunn-Strasse leads hence to the N.W., past the Theatre (Pl. B, 2), to the Waldquelle (Pl. B, 1; restaurant; promenade-concert, see p. 253).

The above-mentioned park is bounded on the N. by the Stefan-Str. and the Untere Kreuzbrunn-Str. At the end of the latter is the Kreuz-Brunnen (Pl. C, 2), with its rotunda borne by columns and a bronze bust of Dr. Jos. Nehr (d. 1820), who first brought Marienbad into notice. Above it, to the N., is the Brunnen-Versendungshaus (export-depot). From the Kreuz-Brunnen Colonnade a covered passage leads to a long building containing the Brunnenhalle, where patients walk in bad weather, and the so-called Colonnade (Pl. C, 2, 3), with shops. In front of this colonnade, to the W., rises a bronze statue of Reitenberger (d. 1860), an abbot of Tepl, who did much to promote the prosperity of the baths. Opposite the S. end of the Brunnenhalle, under another colonnade, are the Ferdinands-Brunnen (p. 253) and the Karolinenquelle. Above this point, to the left, is the handsome Roman Catholic Church (Pl. C, D, 3), built in 1844-50. On the E. and S. sides of the Platz are the Moorbad (mud-baths; Pl. D, 3), with inhaling-room and hydropathic, the Ambrosius-Brunnen, under a Gothic rotunda, the Cursaal, with café-restaurant, the handsome Central-Bad (Pl. D, 3), with baths of every description, and the Neubad* (Pl. C, 3), a Renaissance building from Schaffer's designs (1893-96), with steel, mud, and other baths. In the grassy park rises an obelisk erected by Polish visitors to the bath-physician Dr. Heidler.

The pine-forests close to the town are intersected by charming walks, provided with finger-posts. Among the favourite points are, to the N., beyond the Waldquelle, the Waldmühle (restaurant), the Dianahof, and the Maxthal (20 min.; Restaurant); to the E. the Amalienruhe and the (½ hr.) Friedrich-Wilhelms-Höhe (2411 ft.), which affords a fine survey of Marienbad. From the Kreuz-Brunnen we may visit the (20 min.) Mecséry Temple, to the E., and go thence by the Franzensberg to the Forstwarte, with its belvedere. Fine distant views are also obtained from the Hamelikaberg (Pl. C, D, 5), to the S. of the park, above the Café Panorama, on which rises the Kaiserthurm (2350 ft.; view of Marienbad), and from the Hohendorfer Höhe (2546 ft.), 20 min. farther on Brünn (745 ft.), the capital of Moravia, with 94,753 inhab., including the suburbs, lies in a beautiful fertile region at the foot of the Spielberg, between the Schwarzawa and the Zwittawa. The town, which was an important place as early as the 9th cent., is now one of the chief manufacturing places in the Austrian empire, especially for leather and cloth. The cramped and angular old town is surrounded with promenades and handsome boulevards, beyond which substantial suburbs have sprung up.

Turning to the left on leaving the station, we enter the promenades of the Franzensberg (Pl. B, C, 6), embellished with an obelisk of grey marble in memory of the battle of Leipsic (1813), and obtain a view of the S. suburbs, the fertile environs, and the Polau Mts. to the S. in the background. To the right is the Episcopal Palace (Pl. 3). On an adjacent hill rises the Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul (Pl. 13), with its lofty nave, built in the Gothic style in the 15th cent., injured by the Swedes in 1645, and restored in rococo taste. — A little to the N.W. is the Stadthof (law-courts; Pl. B, 5), whence the Bäckergasse leads to the W. to the Augustine church (p. 266), and the Elisabeth-Strasse to the N., on the E. side of the Spielberg, to the Elisabeth-Platz (see below).

The Spielberg (830 ft.; Pl. A, 5) is crowned with the citadel of that name, a state-prison from 1621 to 1855, where the turbulent Trenck, colonel of the half savage Pandours, died in captivity in 1749. Count Silvio Pellico, the Italian poet, who was imprisoned here in 1822-30, has described his sad experiences in 'Le mie Prigioni'. The casemates contain lifesize portraits of several famous prisoners, the Emp. Joseph cell, with its inmate, a torture-cell, a well 375 ft. deep, etc. Tickets of admission to the citadel (now a barrack), a visit to which takes $^1/_2$-$^3/_4$ hour, may be obtained from the sergeant who acts as guide (20 kr.). Pleasant grounds and fine view.

In the Elisabeth-Str., bordered on the left by promenades extending to the Spielberg, rise on the right the Landes-Oberrealschule (Industrial School; Pl. 21), the Moravian Industrial Museum (Gewerbe-Museum; Pl. 20), with interesting collections and a library (adm. on week-days, except Mon., 9-12 and 2-5, Sun. and holidays 9-12), and the handsome Mansion of Dr. Pražak. At the end of the street is the Elisabeth-Platz (Pl. B, 4), with its promenades, enclosed by handsome modern buildings. On the W. is the Technical Institution; on the E., the German Grammar School (I. Deutsches Gymnasium; Pl. 7); on the S., the premises of the Slavonic Society ('Besedni dum'; Pl. 19), the Kronprinz Rudolf Public School (Pl. 22), and the German Gymnastic Hall; on the N., the tasteful Protestant Church (Pl. 8), in the Gothic style, by Ferstel (1867). Beyond the church is the Blind Asylum. Near it, in the Jodok-Str., is the Landhaus, built in 1876-78, where the Moravian Estates meet. In the adjacent Lazansky-Platz, on the left, is the 14th cent. Church of St. Thomas (Pl. 14), next to which are the Statthalterei, or government-buildings (Pl. 17; C, 4), once an Augustine convent, with statues of the margraves Johann (1350-75) and Jobst (1376-1411) at the portal. To the N. of the church rises the Deutsche Haus, in the German Renaissance style by Ende and Böckmann (1891), with café-restaurant, ball-rooms, etc. In front of it is a bronze Statue of Emp. Joseph II., by Brenek (1892).

The Rennergasse leads from the Lažansky-Platz to the S. to the Gothic Church of St. Jacob (Pl. 10), built in 1314-1480, with nave and aisles of equal height, remarkable for its elegant proportions. It has recently been restored and embellished with superb stained-glass windows. On the right side of the choir is the monument of Field Marshal Count Radwit of Souches (d. 1683), the gallant defender of Brünn against the Swedes in 1645. The incongruous iron tower, 305 ft. high, was added in 1845.

We now cross the Grosse Platz (Pl. C, 4, 5), with its column in honour of the Virgin (1680), observing the house of Count Radwit of Souches, restored and richly adorned with sgraffito paintings, and follow the Herrengasse and the Rathhausgasse to the Rathhaus (Pl. 16; C, 5), erected in 1511, but modernised; the rich late-Gothic portal, attributed to Meister Pilgram, and a Renaissance arcade in the court to the right alone retain their original form. A crocodile's skin suspended in the corridor at the back is pointed out as a 'dragon'. — In the Dominikaner-Platz is the old Landhaus, or House of the Estates (Pl. 18), containing (on the 1st floor) the municipal Gomperz Picture Gallery of modern works (adm. Sun., 10-1, free).

Near this is the Krautmarkt (Pl. C, 5), with a fountain of 1690 (known as the 'Parnassus'), by B. Fischer von Erlach, and a column in honour of the Trinity. The S.W. side of the square is occupied by the Provincial Law Courts. Adjacent is the Franzens Museum (Pl. 5; open in summer on Mon., Wed., & Sat. 10-12 and 1-4, Sun 10-1, at other times on application), containing antiquities, a natural history collection, Moravian costumes, paintings, etc. — A vault in the Capuchin Church, in the adjacent Kapuziner-Platz, contains the glass coffin of Colonel Trenck (see p. 265; apply to sacristan). — Beyond the station is the handsome Synagogue (Pl. 14½ M. Königgrätz (801 ft.; Goldnes Lamm; Merkur; Grand Hôtel; Ross; Rail. The municipal Museum contains reminiscences of 1866. — Branch-line viâ Sadowa (see below) to Wostroměř (p. 270).

The hilly ground to the N.W. of Königgrätz, between the Bistritz and the Elbe, is memorable as the scene of the Battle of Königgrätz or Sadowa, fought on 3rd July, 1866, between the Austrians and Prussians, in which the former were totally defeated. The Austrian forces commanded by Benedek occupied a strong defensive position on the ground rising gradually from the Bistritz, from which it was the object of the Prussians to dislodge them. The highroad from Königgrätz to Hořitz (and Jičin) passes nearly through the centre of this position, leading viâ Wšestar and Rosberitz to (6 M.) Lipa (¼ hr. to the right of which lies Chlum, the highest point in this region, where Benedek was posted during the battle), and crossing the Bistritz at Sadowa, 1½ M. farther on. The battle began early, and at midday was still undecided. The Prussians maintained with great tenacity the small wood of Sadowa and the Swiebwald on the hill to the N.E., but could not advance farther in the face of the strong and favourably-placed artillery of the Austrians. The fortune of the day was at last decided by the capture of Chlum by the Prussian guards. The Austrians were unable to resist the simultaneous advance of the whole Prussian army, and began a retreat, which at places degenerated into a wild rout. Numerous Prussian, Austrian, and Saxon monuments have been erected in different parts of the battlefield.

The country now becomes more fertile. Stations: Předměřitz, Smiřitz. 25 M. Josefstadt (840 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Wessely's Hotel), a town on the left bank of the Elbe, 1½ M. from the railway, was a fortress down to 1890.

From Liebau to Breslau, etc., see Baedeker's Northern Germany.

Farther on we observe the small town of Jaroměř (Zwei Hirschen) to the right, beyond the Elbe. The train passes through several cuttings and enters the grassy valley of the Elbe. The background is formed by dark forests, enlivened with châteaux. To the E. and N., in the distance, rise the Glatz and Giant Mts. — 30 M. Kukus.

34½ M. Königinhof (1120 ft.; Deutsches Haus); the town (10,000 inhab.) lies 1½ M. off, on the left bank of the Elbe. The 'Königinhof Manuscript', found here in 1817 by W. Hanka (now in the Bohemian Museum at Prague), contains fragments of old Czechish national songs, but its genuineness is disputed. The Zaboj Monument in the market-place commemorates the discovery. The Ziskaberg, to the E. of the town, recalls the siege of the town by the Hussites in 1421.

The line enters a wooded region. 38½ M. Třemešna; 42½ M. Mastig, with baths, 1 hr. to the S. of which rises the Swičin (2211 ft.; view of the Giant Mts.). Between Mastig and (49 M.) Falgendorf (1650 ft.; Rail. Restaurant, with rooms), the line reaches its culminating point, on the plateau of Borowitz (1707 ft.). A good view of the Schneekoppe and other peaks of the Giant Mts. is obtained from the station of Falgendorf. The road hence to the small town and ruined castle of Pecka, 4½ M. to the S., leads by the village of Stupna, near which is a petrified forest, interesting to geologists.

The train enters the narrow Woleschka-Thal. — 53½ M. Alt-Paka (1365 ft.; Rail. Restaurant). To Chlumetz, see p. 270.

To Parschnitz, 37 M., railway in 1¾ hr. Stations: Kruh; Starkenbach, an industrial town, with a Schloss that once belonged to Wallenstein; Pelsdorf (junction for Hohenelbe, prettily situated on the Elbe, at the foot of the spurs of the Giant Mts.); Arnau; Kottwitz; Pilnikau. — 34 M. Trautenau (1400 ft.; Union; Weisses Ross; pop. 13,287), a town on the Aupa, and centre of the Bohemian linen industries. The battles fought here on 27th and 28th June, 1866, are commemorated by an obelisk on the Gablenzhöhe (1657 ft.) and monuments on the Kapellenberg, a fine point of view. Branch-line to Freiheit, see below. 37 M. Parschnitz (see above).

From Trautenau to Johannisbad. Train up the valley of the Aupa to (8 M.) Freiheit in 40 min.; diligence thence in ½ hr. to Johannisbad 77½ M. Turnau (Rail. Restaurant; Bahnhofs-Hôtel, at the station; Kronprinz, in the town, 1 M. from the station), a pleasant town (pop. 5959) on a hill on the left bank of the Iser, commanded by the Gothic Marienkirche. The hydropathic of Wartenberg, 2½ M. to the S., is a health-resort. In the vicinity are the ruin of Waldstein (1276 ft.) and the château and park of Gross-Skal (1194 ft.).

A *Walk to Wartenberg, Gross-Skal, and Waldstein and back takes 3½ hrs. (guide 1 fl.); including the ruins of Troska and the Annen-Capelle (with a view as far as Prague in clear weather), 2½ hrs. more. The sandstone rocks of Gross-Skal are remarkably bold and grotesque. The path leads from the Wartenberg past the Wratislaw-Felsen, resembling an obelisk, the Greifennest, and the Drachenhöhle, and through the narrow cleft called the Mausloch, to the modern château of Gross-Skal (Steckel's Hôtel, opposite); thence through beautiful grounds with magnificent beeches and tall junipers, past the Felsenkammer with Adam and Eve, and the Felsenstadt, to Waldstein, the ancestral castle of Wallenstein, curiously built on and in the rocks.

VI. GALICIA AND THE BUKOWINA.

49. From Vienna to Cracow 278
Salt-mines of Wieliczka, p. 284.
50. From Cracow to Lemberg and Czernowitz 285
From Przemyśl to Chyrów, 285. — From Lemberg to Stryj; to Odessa, 286. — From Czernowitz to Bucharest, 288.
51. From Stanislau to Dzieditz viâ Stryj, Neu-Zagorz, and Saybusch 289
From Sucha to Podgórze. From Saybusch to Zsolna, 290.

General Remarks. GALICIA, the N.E. province of Anstria, slopes down in terraces on the N. side of the Carpathians and contains many marshy plains. Unprotected towards the N. and N.E., it has late springs, short summers, and long and severe winters. It is rich in corn, wood, salt, and petroleum, but poor in industries, which are chiefly in the hands of the Jews (710,000 out of a population of 6½ millions), to whom most of the inns, taverns, and shops belong. The horse-dealers and carriage-owners are always Jews. They differ in their dress and the mode of wearing their hair from the other inhabitants, who despise them but are financially dependent on them. Of the other inhabitants, who are almost exclusively Slavonic, about 3,000,000 are Poles, who dwell chiefly in the W. part uf Galicia, and 2,830,000 are Ruthenians, who occupy the E. part; but Polish is the official and the literary language of the whole province. The Ruthenians (Russinians. Russniaks) differ materially from the Poles in language, in religion, and in political views. In culture they are considerably inferior; their churches and houses, especially in the country districts. are miserably poor and squalid.

The BUKOWINA was severed from Moldavia, that is from Turkey, in 1786, and united with Austria. Unlike Galicia, it is hilly and wooded, and also differs greatly from it ethnographically. The inhabitants (about 647,000) are chiefly Ruthenians, Roumanians, Germans, Poles, and Armenians. The political administration is quite separate from that of Galicia, and the official language is German.

Two railways intersect Galicia from W. to E.: the N. railway, from Oświęcim to Tarnopol connects the chief towns; the S. line, or 'Galician Transversal Railway', leads from Bielitz to Czernowitz, skirting the N. slope of the Carpathians, and is far superior in point of scenery. The traveller who wishes to explore the country thoroughly should therefore gu by one of these lines and return by the other (RR. 50, 51). The most picturesque of the railways which cross the Carpathians to Hungary is that from Stryj to Munkács (p. 368).

Inns. There are good hotels at Cracow, Lemberg, Przemyśl, Tarnów, and Czernowitz. In the smaller towns and in the country the inns are generally very primitive and dirty, while in the villages as a rule the only house of call is the brandy-shop.

Cracow (625 ft.), Pol. Kraków, Ger. Krakau, situated in an extensive plain at the confluence of the Rudowa and the Vistula (Pol. Wiśła; Ger. Weichsel), once (1320-1610) the capital of Poland, is now an Austrian fortress of the first class, with a pop. of 100,000 (one-third Jews), incl. a garrison of 6000 men. The churches and towers, the lofty Schloss, and the pleasant promenades planted with trees (Planty), on the site of the old fortifications, round the inner town, produce an imposing effect.

Cracow, an important episcopal seat as early as the 11th. cent., was destroyed by the Mongolians in 1241, but was rebuilt by German colonists in 1257. In 1320 it was chosen by Ladislaus Łokietek as the coronation town and residence of the Polish kings. The favourable position of the town, its adhesion to the Hanseatic League, and the foundation of the University by Casimir the Great in 1364, all contributed to the progress of Cracow, which reached the zenith of its prosperity in the 16th century. The period of decline began with the transference of the royal residence to Warsaw in 1610 and with the warlike commotions of the 17th cent., but until 1734 the Polish kings continued to be crowned and buried at Cracow. In the final partition of Poland (1795) Cracow fell to Austria. In 1815 it became the capital of a small independent state, but it was again annexed by Austria after the insurrection of 1846. Cracow, however, has never lost its thoroughly Polish character.

Near the centre of the old town is the Ring-Platz, with the church of St. Mary and the Tuchhalle.

St. Mary's (Pl. B, 3) is a Gothic basilica without transept, and with a long choir. Founded in 1226, rebuilt in the 14th cent., and provided with a series of chapels in the 15th and 16th cent., it was restored in 1889-93 and richly painted from designs by Matejko (d. 1893). The N. tower, with a modern cap surrounded by 16 pointed turrets, is the highest (265 ft.) in the town.

In the INTERIOR, which we enter through a Renaissance vestibule, the chief object of interest is the huge High-Altar*, the masterpiece of Veit Stoss, executed in 1477-89, recently well restored, with rich painting and gilding (open on high festivals; at other times, fee 3 fl.). It is adorned in the middle with a Death of the Virgin, above which are the Assumption and the Coronation of the Virgin; on the sides are 18 large reliefs from the Life of Christ. The church contains numerous sumptuous tombs of the 16-17th cent., and several brasses. In the chapel of St. John are the *Brass of Peter Salomo (d. 1506), by Peter Vischer, and those of Severinus Boner (d. 1549) and his wife. At the entrance to the choir is an altar by Mosca, next which is a colossal *Crucifix of the early 16th century. In the chapels and treasury are some interesting paintings, including nine by Hans von Kulmbach (1514-16). The rich vestments and costly church-plate in the treasury are shown on application.

The large building nearly opposite, in the centre of the Ring-Platz, is the Tuchhaus (Pol. Sukiennice; Pl. B, 3), or cloth-hall, begun in the 14th cent. under Casimir the Great, altered by Mosca of Padua in the 16th cent., and largely rebuilt in 1876-79. On the ground-floor is a vaulted corridor with numerous shops and stalls.

On the first floor (entrance opposite the Mickiewicz Monument, see below), to the left, is the POLISH NATIONAL MUSEUM OF ART (daily, 11-3; 20 kr.), with pictures by Matejko (Kościusko at Raclawice in 1794, and Homage done to Albert of Brandenburg in 1525), Siemiradzki* ('Living Torches of Nero'), Grottger (Lithuania, in six cartoons), and other modern Polish artists; paintings by Polish and Ruthenian artists of the 16-17th cent.; casts; cameos and gems; engravings and drawings (shown on Sat. only); memorials of Kościuszko, Mickiewicz, etc. — To the right is the PERMANENT PICTURE GALLERY (daily, 11-4; 30 kr.): Matejko*, Battle of Grunwald, 1410; The Maid of Orleans entering Rheims, 1429; other modern pictures and sculptures by Polish masters.

In front of the Tuchhaus, opposite the Sienna-Strasse, is a bronze Statue of Adam Mickiewicz (1798-1855), the poet, by Ryger (1898).

Behind are a Gothic tower of the 15th cent., the only relic of a town-hall taken down in 1820, and the principal Guard House.

The Gallery of Countess Potocka, Ring-Platz, at the corner of the Anna-Strasse, is shown only to visitors with letters of introduction (fine works by Giorgione, Palma Vecchio, Giul. Romano, Giov. Bellini, P. Bordone, etc.).

To the S. of the Ring-Platz the Grodzka and Dominican streets lead to the Dominican Church (Pl. B, 4), a Gothic building of the 13-16th cent., almost wholly modernised since a fire in 1850. The choir contains a *Bronze Tablet in memory of the famous scholar Fil. Buonaccorsi, surnamed Callimachus (d. 1496), probably by Peter Vischer. The *Cloisters (13-14th cent.) contain about ninety elaborately sculptured tombstones of the 16-17th centuries. — On the W. side of the Grodzka-Strasse is the Franciscan Church (Pl. B, 4), of the 13th cent., but frequently altered. In the Gothic cloisters are portraits of the bishops of Cracow since the 16th century. The old refectory of the adjoining Franciscan monastery now contains the Technical and Industrial Museum (daily 9-1 and 3-6; 20 kr., Sun. and holidays 10-1 free). — Opposite rises the Prince-Bishop's Palace (Pl. 3, 4), restored since the fire of 1850. — The Grodzka-Strasse descends to the Jesuit church of St. Peter (Pl. B, 4), a spacious baroque edifice dating from 1619. The adjoining abbey-church of St. Andrew is a Romanesque building of the 12th century.

The Schloss (Zamek Królewski; Pl. B, 4, 5), on the broad Wawel hill at the S.W. end of the old town, was founded in the 14th cent. by Ladislaus Łokietek, and restored by Casimir the Great and Sigismund I. (after 1500), but later conflagrations and other injuries have left only a number of large separate buildings, dating chiefly from the time of Sigismund I. and his son Sigismund Augustus, and converted in 1846 into a barrack and hospital. A thorough restoration of the building is contemplated (for adm., apply to the castellan).

The Gothic Cathedral, or Schlosskirche (Pl. A, B, 4), on the W. side, founded in 1320 on the site of an earlier Romanesque church of which only the crypt remains, and consecrated in 1359 under Casimir the Great, is the burial-place of the Polish kings and heroes. The cathedral is at present under restoration (generally open during the day; sacristan in the sacristy, or in the vicar's house opposite the principal entrance).

The INTERIOR, originally in basilica form with rectangular choir and ambulatory, round which numerous Renaissance chapels were added in the 16th cent., was much modernized in the 18th century. To the right of the entrance, a *Bronze epitaph to Marshal Peter Kmita (d. 1505) by Peter Vischer, and two late-Gothic chapels built after 1431 on the site of the former side-portals. In the chapel of the Holy Cross (left) are some old wall-paintings of the Ruthenian School (1470) and the monuments of King Ladislaus Jagiello (d. 1434; to the left) and of King Casimir IV. Jagiello (d. 1492; to the right), the latter, with the recumbent figure in porphyry, by the Nuremberg sculptor Veit Stoss (or Stwosz), perhaps a native of Cracow (?). In the middle, Monument of Bishop Soltyk (d. 1788), who, as the relief indicates, was carried to St. Petersburg by the Russians on account of his opposition to them at the Polish Diet in 1767. — RIGHT AISLE. 1st Chapel. Thorvaldsen's Christ imparting a blessing, a beautiful statue in marble, but in a bad light. Busts of Count Arthur Potocki and his mother, also by Thorvaldsen. — 3rd. Memorial slabs of the Polish kings of the Vasa family (Sigismund, Ladislaw IV., John Casimir); superb bronze doors by Mich. Weinhold of Dantsic (1763). — *4th or Sigismund Chapel (built by Bart. Berecci of Florence in 1519-20, restored 1894; elaborately ornamented by Giov. Cini of Siena). The Mausoleum of the last scions of the Jagiello family contains the monuments of King Sigismund I. (d. 1548), Sigismund Augustus (d. 1572), and Queen Anna, wife of Stephan Bathory (d. 1596), with recumbent figures of the deceased in red marble. — Opposite the 5th chapel is Thorvaldsen's* statue of Count Wladimir Potocki, who fell at Moscow in 1812. — 7th. *Monument of King John Albert (d. 1501) in red marble, by an unknown Florentine master; opposite to it, the *Monument of King Casimir the Great (d. 1370), the 'Founder of Cities', as indicated by his girdle, by Veit Stoss (1492), in red marble under a canopy. — In the AMBULATORY, behind the high-altar, the monument of King John III. Sobieski (d. 1696), the conqueror of the Turks (comp. p. 12), as the reliefs indicate. Opposite is the Bathory Chapel, once connected by a passage with the palace, and used by the Polish monarchs as an oratory, with a throne of red marble and fine modern stained-glass windows. Monument of King Stephan Bathory (d. 1586), in red marble. In the chapels to the right and left are the tasteful tombs of Bishops Gamrat (1547) and Tomicki (1535), by Giov. Maria, surnamed Mosca, of Padua, the architect of the Tuchhalle. — CHOIR. In front of the high-altar is the engraved bronze of Cardinal Fred. Jagiello (d. 1503), with a later *Relief (1510) by Peter Vischer (?), representing the presentation of the bishop to the Madonna. — In the centre of the church, under a canopy, is a silver sarcophagus, borne by silver angels, in which are preserved the remains of St. Stanislaus, the patron saint of the Poles, and Bishop of Cracow, who was slain before the altar in 1079 by King Boleslaw. — In the LEFT AISLE, near the choir, is the tomb of the poet A. Mickiewicz (see below). — At the beginning of the RIGHT AISLE is a copper trap-door, leading to the Romanesque crypt (p. 281) and to the *ROYAL VAULT, constructed by Stanislaus Augustus in 1788, enlarged since 1873, where, beside many Polish kings, repose Poland's three most illustrious heroes: John Sobieski (d. 1696), Poniatowski (drowned in the Elster near Leipsic in 1813), and Kościuszko (who died in exile at Soleure in 1817). Adm. daily, except Sun., at 10 a.m. and 12.30 p.m. (20 kr.). — The TREASURY (daily at 10, except on high festivals) contains part of the ancient Polish regalia, rich sacerdotal vestments, and artistically-wrought vessels in gold and silver.

We now proceed to the N. from the Schloss, through the gardens, to the buildings of the Jagellonian University (Pl. A, 3; 1450 students), founded by Casimir the Great in 1364. The New University facing the gardens, a grand Gothic edifice designed by Księżarski (1881-87), with its handsome vestibule and fine hall, contains on the groundfloor the Archaeological Museum (week-days, 12-1) and the Art-Historical Collection of the university. The old university buildings (Anna-Strasse 8), erected in the 15th cent. and partly restored in 1839-72, include a beautiful Gothic *Court of 1492; in the interior is the University Library (about 320,000 vols.; daily, except Sun., 9-1). Adjacent is the Obergymnasium of St. Anna, founded in 1588. — On the opposite side of the Anna-Strasse is the University Church of St. Anna (Pl. A, 3), containing elaborate stucco ornamentation and a monument to Copernicus (d. 1543).

In the Sławkowska-Strasse is the Polish Academy of Sciences

(Pl. B, 3), containing a library, a museum of antiquities, and a physiographical collection (daily, except Sun., 11-1). — Farther on, in the promenades, Pijarska-Str. 6, is the Czartoryski Museum (Pl. B, 2, 3; Tues. and Frid. 10-1), a large and varied collection of objects of art.

Ground Floor. In the Vestibule, to the left, are a few Etruscan cinerary urns, mediæval and Renaissance sculptures of German and Italian origin. — Room I. Ancient sculptures; prehistoric and other antiquities. — R. 2. German and Venetian glass; Spanish and Italian majolica, etc.; early Arabian lamp; porcelain (fine service in old Dresden china). — R. 3. Marble sculptures.

First Floor. To the right is the Library; to the left, weapons, enamels, and carved ivory.

Second Floor. Room 1 contains the Picture Gallery*, which includes numerous good works, especially of the Italian and Dutch schools. To the right: 187. Holbein the Younger (?), Portrait; 238. J. Clouet, Portrait; 106. Van Dyck (?), Portrait; 110. Kaspar Netscher, Portrait of a Polish boy; *105. Rembrandt, Landscape (1638); 173. G. Schalcken, Wine-cellar; 186. G. Francia (?), Madonna. — Room II contains numerous good miniature portraits, chiefly of the French school. Also: 263. Matejko, Scene from the Polish insurrection of 1863. — The following rooms contain Egyptian antiquities, ancient glass, *Terracotta figures from Tanagra, Greek vases, Greek and Etruscan bronzes (No. 1, fine Etruscan situla); silver mirror-case (Hercules and Omphale), of the best Greek period; cabinets; tapestry, etc.

In the Floriánska street, to the N.E. of the Ring-Platz, is the Matejko Museum, in the house of the celebrated painter (1838-93), containing interesting collections of drawings, ancient Polish costumes, weapons, etc. — In the Promenades, at the end of the street, are the Florians-Thor (Pl. B, 2) and the Rondell, a singular structure dating from 1498, almost the only relic of the old fortifications. — Outside the Rondell, in the Matejko-Platz, is the Academy of Art. Farther on is the Church of St. Florian (Pl. C, 2), of the 12th cent., but repeatedly altered since, with four pictures by Hans von Kulmbach. A chapel to the right contains the late-Gothic *Altar of St. John, from the studio of Veit Stoss (1518). — At the corner of the Szpitalna-Strasse is the Theatre (Pl. C, 3), erected in 1891-93 from Zawiejski's designs in the late-Renaissance style, tastefully fitted up, with a magnificent drop-curtain by H. Siemiradzki (1894).

The town is surrounded with Suburbs, lying within the modern fortifications. To the S.W. is Stradom, with the offices of the commandant; on the W. is Nowy Swiat; on the N.W. Piasek, with the old church of the Visitation; on the N. Kleparz, with the grain and cattle markets; on the E. Wesoła, with the hospitals of St. Lazarus and St. Lewis, the University Clinique and Botanic Garden (Pl. D, 3; adm. daily, except Sun. and Sat.), the Observatory (Pl. D, 3), and the slaughter-house; to the S.E. is Kasimierz, the Jewish quarter, containing the Pauline convent and the churches of St. Michael, St. Catharine, and Corpus Christi. The two last contain numerous works of art. The Synagogue, or 'Alte Schule', is an interesting Gothic building of the 16th century. The Franz-Josefs-Brücke leads hence across the Vistula to Podgórze. To the S. rises the conical Krakusberg (905 ft.), said by tradition to be the grave of the mythical dragon-slayer Krakus, the founder of Cracow, and to have been thrown up by human hands.

Numerous houses of the 16-17th cent., with interesting court-yards, are still to be found in the old town. Among these may be mentioned the Jablonowski Palace (Ring-Platz 20); the aristocratic mansions at Anna-Strasse 2, Słakowska Strasse 4, and Ring-Platz 45; the canons' residences, Kanonicza-Strasse 18 and 21, and the clergy-houses beside the churches of St. Anna (Anna-Strasse; 1st floor) and St. Mary (Plac Maryacki 4).

The Kościuszko Hill (1093 ft.), 3 M. to the N.W. (carr. 1½ fl., bargain necessary), is a mound of earth, about 65 ft. in height, thrown up in 1820-23 by the united efforts of the whole population of Cracow in honour of the Polish hero of that name, on the hill of Bronisława. Since 1855 it has been converted into a fort. *View of Cracow, with its many towers, and Podgórze, with the Krakusberg beyond it; S. the Hohe Tatra, seldom free from snow; W. the Babiagóra (5660 ft.) and its neighbours of the Beskid range; then the Vistula, traceable for a long distance; N. the handsome marble buildings of the Camaldulensian monastery of Bielany.

'Salt Mines of Wieliczka. Railway viâ Bierżanów in 40 min. (or pleasanter by carriage, 5-8 fl.; p. 279) to Wieliczka (833 ft.; Rail. Restaurant and several inns; pop. 6000). Visitors are regularly admitted to the mines on Tues., Thurs., and Sat. at 3 p.m.; if one of these days is a holiday, then on the following day. At other times visitors drive direct to the office and request permission to inspect the mine. Tickets of admission are obtained at the office, 2 fl. for each person. The charges fixed by tariff for illumination vary from 20 to 55 fl., according to the amount desired and the number of persons. Visitors don mining attire and follow the attendant. The inspection of the mines takes 1½-2 hrs.; carriages may be ordered to wait at the shaft. Specimens of the rock-salt, from 10 kr. each, are offered to visitors on quitting the mine.

These mines, the greatest depth of which is 919 ft., employ over 900 hands and yield about 60,000 tons of salt annually. They consist of seven different levels or stories, one above the other, and have eleven shafts. Total length of the mines, from E. to W., 2⅓ M.; breadth, from N. to S., 1040 yds. The different stories are connected by a labyrinth of passages and flights of steps, and occasionally by lofty bridges, the aggregate length of which is computed at 380 M. The mines contain two ponds, which have boats upon them. Many of the disused chambers, 70 of which are spacious, are employed as magazines, and some of them are embellished with candelabra, etc., hewn in rock-salt. There are also several chapels with altars, statues, and other ornaments in rock-salt. In the largest of these mass is celebrated annually on 3rd July and 24th December. Some of these subterranean saloons are 80-100 ft. in height. The salt of Wieliczka is remarkable for its purity and solidity, but is generally gray or blackish in colour. Travelling in the interior is done by horse-tramways, 25 M. in total length, while four steam-engines bring the salt and the miners to the surface.

Excursionists to the Hohe Tátra take the Galician Railway from Cracow (Podgórze) by Sucha to Chabówka (p. 290), and drive thence by Neumarkt to Zakopane and Javorina (p. 365).

Czernowitz, the capital of the Bukowina, is situated on a rising ground on the right bank of the Pruth, which is crossed here by two bridges. Pop., including the suburbs, 55,000 (about 16,000 Jews). The town, which is entirely modern, is the seat of the governor of the Bukowina, of a Greek Oriental archbishop and consistory, of the provincial courts, and of a university (see below).

The most conspicuous building is the Archiepiscopal Palace, on a height at the end of the Bischofsgasse, an imposing brick edifice in the Byzantine style, erected by Hlawka in 1864-75. The richly-decorated Reception Hall* is worthy of a visit (apply to the castellan); the tower commands a fine view of the town and environs. The palace also contains the small Landes-Museum (open on Sun., 3-5 p.m.).

The largest church in Czernowitz is the Greek Oriental Cathedral in the Franz-Josefs-Platz, erected in 1864 in imitation of the church of St. Isaac at St. Petersburg. The tasteful Armenian Church, in a mixed Gothic and Renaissance style, was consecrated in 1875. The handsome Synagogue*, in the Moorish style, with its conspicuous dome, was completed in 1877 from the plans of Zachariewicz, and is tastefully decorated in the interior.

The University, founded in 1875, is attended by about 400 students. It has no medical faculty. The lectures are delivered partly in the Pædagogium in the Bischofsgasse, partly in the clergy-house adjoining the palace; the latter also contains the natural history and other collections.

The Austria Monument in the Austria-Platz, executed by Pekary, and erected in 1875 to commemorate the centenary of Austria's possession of the Bukowina, consists of a marble figure of Austria on a pedestal of green Carpathian sandstone, adorned with bronze reliefs and inscriptions. — The new Theatre, in the Schulgasse, is tastefully fitted up (closed in summer).

At the S. end of the town lies the Volksgarten (electric tramway, see above), a favourite resort with shady walks, containing the Schützenhaus, the Cursalon (both with restaurants), and the Botanic Garden (to the S.W.). Pleasant walks to the Panaita Grove on the Bischofsberg, which affords a good view of the town, and to the (3/4 hr.) wood of Horecza, near the interesting old church of which a fine survey of the valley of the Pruth is enjoyed.

FROM CZERNOWITZ TO BUCHAREST, 336 M., express in 20 hrs. 3 1/2 M. Volksgarten (see above). At (56 M.) Suczawa, the Austrian frontier-station, luggage coming from Roumania is examined. 57 1/2 M. Bordujeni, the first Roumanian station (custom-house examination for travellers from Austria).

The train now runs near the Szeret, the principal river of Moldavia. From (67 M.) Verestie a branch-line diverges to Botosani. 96 M. Pascani, junction for Jassy, Kishenev, and Odessa; 120 M. Roman; 148 M. Bakeu; 200 M. Marasesci (branch-lines viâ Tecuciu to Berlad and to Galatz); 212 M. Foscani; 255½ M. Buzeu (branch-line to Braila and Galatz); 298½ M. Ploesci (p. 424); 336 M. Bucharest, see p. 425.

The kingdom of DALMATIA, the southernmost crown-land of the Austrian-Hungarian Empire, belonging to Cis-Leithania, extends from the Quarnerolo on the N. to the hills on the Lake of Scutari on the S., while on the E. it is commanded by the Velebit Mts., the Dinarian Alps, and the mountainous region of the Herzegovina and of Montenegro. The W. side of Dalmatia is washed by the Adriatic, the Sino Adriático of mariners, which from time immemorial has been the highway of traffic between East and West. Coasting vessels usually steer within the belt of islands which protect the Dalmatian coast, while the opposite Italian coast is almost entirely destitute of such shelter. The tide within these islands rises to the unusual height of six feet. A constant current flows from Corfù to Venice, causing in stormy weather the dangerous tides of the Quarnero.

Covering an area of a little over 5000 sq. M., Dalmatia forms the N.W. fringe of the Balkan peninsula, and consists of a coast deeply indented with numerous bays and fjords, the entrances to which are guarded by innumerable islands and reefs (scogli), while the mainland is a mountainous region, culminating in the Velebit Mts. (5770 ft.) and the Orjen near Cattaro (6218 ft.), and forming a lofty plateau descending abruptly to the sea, with crests running almost exclusively from N.W. to S.E., parallel with the Dinarian Alps. The islands and peninsulas which have been formed by subsidence of portions of the land also run in the same direction, except the southern islands of Brazza, Lesina, and Curzola, which lie from W. to E. The Dalmatians usually speak of east and west only, ignoring the other points of the compass, the former being suso or levante ('up'), the latter giù or ponente ('down'). The bleak and sterile mountain-region is badly watered, being intersected, in its length of 370 M., by only four rivers worthy of mention (Zermagna, Kerka, Cetina, Narenta), which are torrents in their upper parts and are nearly dry in summer. Of lakes there is also a scarcity, and as spring-water is not always to be found, the inhabitants are sometimes obliged to use reservoirs.

Climate. The mean annual temperature of the Dalmatian coast is about 59° Fahr., but great variations are caused by the violent and changeable winds. The winds from the sea bring moisture and in winter warmth. The Scirocco (S.E.; Fortunale, S.W.), called at Ragusa 'the father of the poor', always alternates in winter with the dreaded Bora (Boreas; called the 'wind of the dead'), which descends from the mountain-gorges in terrific gusts (refoli), dangerous to the landsman and the mariner alike. The S.W. wind is also very violent, as may be gathered from an inscription on the molo of Ragusa, where the waves throw up their foam to a height of 100 ft., and wrench the heaviest blocks of stone out of the pier. The Bora prevails in winter only, usually from October to April. The prevailing wind in summer is the genial N.W. wind (Maestrale), which rises in the forenoon, blows steadily for several hours, and generally subsides at sunset. The water between the coast and the island is unaffected by these winds and is always calm, but very rough water is often experienced on the voyages to Lissa and Lagosta and from Ragusa to Punta d'Ostro. A heavy swell without wind is known here as ligazzi.

Vegetable and Animal Life. Strabo calls Dalmatia sterile, unsuitable for agriculture, and scarcely able to support its population. But in another passage he states that 'vines and olives abound, but that the country had been neglected and its value had remained unknown, probably on account of the barbarity and predatory habits of the natives'. The natives have certainly improved since Strabo's time, but the country, like most limestone regions, is still in great part destitute of vegetation. As the heavy rains are apt to sweep away the best soil, the inhabitants have great difficulty in cultivating the mountain-slopes, where they frequently grow vines, figs, olives, and almonds in carefully built terraces. They have lately taken to cultivating the Pyrethrum cinerariae folium and the Chrysanthemum turraneum, from the blossoms of which, somewhat resembling camomile, they prepare the Dalmatian insect-powder. The flora of Dalmatia also includes rosemary, oleanders, myrtles, pomegranates, agaves, and the cistus, which cover the slopes and the islands, especially in the south. While the north part of Dalmatia, as far as Sebenico, is comparatively poor, Spalato with its Riviera is famed for its wine, and the territory of the former republic of Ragusa is luxuriantly fertile, reminding one of Sicily. Altogether Dalmatia partakes more of an Oriental than a European character, and even with Italy it has little in common.

On the mountains are pastured flocks of sheep and goats, while the only beast of prey is the jackal, which descends from the east, and is sometimes found in the islands of Giuppana, Curzola, and Sabbioncello. The sea yields an abundant supply of fish. Among the varieties peculiar to Dalmatia are the gatto di mare (Squalus caricula and Squalus catulus), the rasp-like skin of which is used for scrubbing tables and benches; the scarpena negra and rossa (Scarpæna porcus and scrofa), the pesce colombo (Raja pastinaca), and the pesce ragno (Trachinus draco). The shark (Squalus or Hexandrus griseus), called by the Italians pesce manzo ('ox-fish') from its eyes which resemble those of an ox, though not a common fish, occurs everywhere, and sometimes endangers bathers even at Trieste. Among the more abundant varieties are lampreys and mackarel, the sampiero, the sepia (Sepia officinalis), the astice (Astacus marinus, or lobster), and the rizzo di mare (Echinus esculentus, or sea-urchin). Sea-gulls enliven every part of the coast. Where house-swallows congregate there is sure to be fresh water near.

The Population of Dalmatia (about 528,000) is chiefly of the Servian-Croatian race. In the north it is purely Croatian, in the south entirely Servian, in the towns partly Italian (to which race belong about 30,000 inhab.). Zara in particular is almost entirely Italian, but everywhere else the 'national' or Slavonic element is gradually ousting the 'autonomous' or Italian. The Croatians are mainly Roman Catholics, the Servians Greek (non-united) Catholics. As far as the Narenta the country-people are called Morlaks, but further to the south, as at Ragusa, the name is a term of reproach. They are remarkable for their fine stature and picturesque costumes. The usual costume of the men consists of a small cap or fez without shade (kapa), or a turban (peškir, Turkish for 'towel'; at Ragusa saruk); a brown woollen jacket, richly embroidered (haljina); a linen vest (krožet), and another vest embroidered with silver and several rows of filigree buttons (jačerma); a cloak (kabanica) of coarse cloth (kaba) with a hood (kukuljica); a red woollen sash (pas); a leathern girdle (pripasnjača) as a receptacle for weapons, pipes, etc.; gaiters with a multitude of hooks and eyes (dokoljenice and bicve); stockings (čape, terluke, napersniaci, or nadošivači); sandals (opanke) or shoes (djmelie or nestve); and a wallet (torbica). The women also wear sandals or shoes. Their usual dress is a blue (modrina) or white (bilaca) under-garment, with a linen (bernjica) or woollen (sadak, made of a coarse cloth called rash) jacket or frock, sleeveless and open in front, a bodice (krožet), and an apron (pregaca). The Italian Dalmatian calls himself a Dâlmata (adjective, dâlmato).

History. Anciently an independent kingdom, Dalmatia was subjugated by the Romans under Augustus and annexed to the province of Illyricum. Afterwards occupied by the Goths, and in 590 by the Avars, it came in 620 into possession of the Slavs, whose state was broken up at the end of the 11th century. Part of the land was then conquered by the Hungarians (1102), while the remainder, the later Duchy of Dalmatia, placed itself under the protection of the republic of Venice, from which part of it was afterwards wrested by the Turks. By the Peace of Karlowitz (1699) and by that of Passarowitz (1718) the present Dalmatia, with the exception of the republic of Ragusa (which was deprived of its independence by the French in 1806), was secured to Venice. By the Peace of Campo Formio (1797) it became Austrian, in 1805 it was attached to the kingdom of Italy, in 1810 to Illyria, and since 1814 it has again belonged to Austria.

Plan of Tour. The best seasons for travelling in Dalmatia are the months of April and May and from the middle of September to the middle of November. Travellers who wish to see the coast only are recommended to take the Austrian Lloyd or Hungarian-Croatian steamers, or the railway from Sebenico to Spalato, or the diligence from Ragusa to Castelnuovo. Circular tickets (valid for 30 days) from Trieste, Fiume, or Pola to Cattaro and back 45 fl., incl. 2 days' pension in the Hôtel Impérial at Ragusa. The interior may be explored with the aid of the railways from Spalato and Sebenico to Knin, and from Metković to Mostar and Sarajevo (see R. 86). Diligences also run from Zara to Knin; from Spalato to Sinj; from Knin to Verlika, Sinj, and Metković; from Ragusa to Trebinje; and on several other routes. Carriages (with one horse 3-4 fl. per day) and saddle-horses are procurable almost everywhere.

The following short tour is recommended to hurried travellers: — (1st Day) Steamer from Fiume or Trieste to Pola; (2nd) Zara; (3rd) Sebenico and Excursion to the Kerka Falls; (4th, 5th) Spalato, Salona, and Traù; (6th, 7th) Ragusa, Ombla, Cannosa; (8th) Castelnuovo, Cattaro; (9th, 10th) to Cetinje and back; (11th, 12th) Return to Fiume or Trieste. — The steamer-arrangements (which are liable to vary) may sometimes render it impossible to accomplish this tour within twelve days, so that careful enquiry beforehand should be made. In any case the Prospetto degli Arrivi e Partenze (10 kr.; obtained at Zara, Spalato, etc.) will be found invaluable.

Travellers desirous of visiting Bosnia from Dalmatia proceed from Ragusa to Metković (p. 305). A visit to the islands of Lissa, Méleda, Lagosta, and others takes much time.

The circular tours (10-20 days) in Dalmatia, Bosnia, and Herzegovina, by special steamers from Trieste, annually organized by Messrs. Thos. Cook & Son in April, May, and September, will be found convenient by some travellers. Inclusive return-fares from London, about 25-46*l.* Detailed programmes may be obtained at any of Messrs. Cook's offices.

Inns. Travellers who do not expect too much will, on the whole, find the inns of Dalmatia very tolerable, though at many the food is indifferent and the cleanliness insufficient. The night may sometimes be spent on board one of the Austrian Lloyd or Hungarian-Croatian steamers; but on arriving at a port in the evening the passenger is not allowed to sleep on board unless he is going on with the steamer next day. Dinner incl. wine 1 fl. 80, supper 1 fl. 25 kr. (Second-class passengers are admitted to the deck of the first class.)

Passport desirable, though not indispensable.

Police. The gensdarmes, respectable and trustworthy, are often Germans, seldom Dalmatians. Information may be obtained at their stations. The public safety is now well provided for.

Language. Italian will carry the traveller along the whole coast; German also, even as far as Montenegro, is fairly well understood. In the interior, on the other hand, it is difficult to get on without some knowledge of the Servian-Croatian languages (practically one and the same Slavonic dialect), though Italian is often understood. An idea of the pronunciation and a few of the commoner words are given at p. 430; but, as Italian is chiefly spoken on the coast, the strict Slavonic spelling is often modified.

Maps. The best are those of the Military Geographical Institute (Vienna, Lechner's university book-shop), on a scale of 1:75,000 (50 kr. per sheet) and of 1:200,000 (60 kr. per sheet).

52. From Pola or Fiume to Spalato.

Steamboats of the Austrian Lloyd from Pola to Zara and Spalato five times a week in 10½-23 hrs. (fares to Spalato 10 fl. 45, 7 fl. 5 kr.; express steamers 20 per cent additional). — Steamers of the Hungarian-Croatian Co. from Fiume to Zara and Spalato once a week direct, in 7½ and 13 hrs.; viâ Lussin-Piccolo, Sebenico, and Traù once a week in 12½ and 29 hrs.; to Zara once a week in 14 hrs., viâ Verbenico, Novi, Zengg, Arbe, and Novaglia.

Pola, see p. 216. The steamer touches at Lussin-Piccolo (Hôt. Vindobona; Restaurant Hoffmann, with rooms, pens. 2 fl. 20-3 fl. 50 kr.; Pens. Cagliari, Fritzi, Pundschu, Veth), the chief port of the island of Lussin and the busiest trading-place among the islands of the Quarnero (pop. 7625). Its sheltered situation has recently made it a health-resort. About 2½ M. to the S. lies Lussin-Grande (Pens. Rudy, Kiefhaber, R. 6-10 fl. per week, board 2 fl. 40 kr. per day). In the N. part of the island rises the Óssero (1930 ft.; ascent from Lussin-Piccolo in 3½ hrs.). To the W. lie the fertile islands of Unie and Sánsego.

The Express Steamers of the Hungarian-Croatian Co. from Fiume to Zara go through the Canale di Mezzo, between Veglia on the left, sometimes touching at the little town of Veglia (where the cathedral is worth seeing), and Cherso on the right, and through the Quarnerolo (with a grand view of the bare Velebit Mts., towering above the wooded island of Arbe) to Lussin-Grande (see above); then past the islands of Selve and Ulbo and through the Canale di Zara.

The steamers viâ Zengg and Arbe (see above) steer through the Canale della Morlacca or della Montagna, between the coast and the innermost islands, and touch at Cirkvenica (Hôtel Erzherzog Johann, with lift, R. from 80 kr., pens. 3 fl.), a seaside and winter resort, and at the sea-baths of Novi, Zengg (Ital. Segna; Stella d'Oro), once a notorious haunt of pirates, with the so-called castle of the Uskoks, and several places on the islands of Arbe (Slov. Rab) and Pago. The scenery is far finer than on the trip through the Quarnero and the Quarnerolo.

A specialty of Zara is the manufacture of 'Rosoglio Maraschino' from cherries ('marasca'; the best of which grow on the limestone-soil of the Poljica). The liqueur is distilled in July, August, and September.

Zara, Slav. Zadar, the Roman Jader, the capital of Dalmatia, with 20,000 inhab., a town of thoroughly Italian character, lies picturesquely on a peninsula stretching from S.E. to N.W. It is a busy, lively place, to which the costumes of the Morlaks impart an interesting air of variety. The strong fortifications have been converted into promenades. On the E. side of the town is a roomy Harbour, with the landing-place (barcagno) opposite the town. O the W. side, on the site of the old ramparts, runs a new quay, th Riva Nuova*, which affords a delightful walk, especially in th evening, and a heautiful view of the opposite island of Uljan with the lofty Fort S. Michele, itself a fine point of view (p. 297).

From the landing-place we enter the town hy the Porta Marin partly built of fragments from a Roman tomb, on the inside of whic a Latin inscription records the Battle of Lepanto (1571). In th Piazza Marina, on the left, is the Romanesque church of S. Grisó gono*, of the 13th cent., with modernised interior. The Via S. Barbar goes on hence to the Via Larga, which, under various names, inter sects the whole town from N. to S. (for foot-passengers only). Following it to the left, we reach the Piazza dei Signori, in whicl facing us, is the Loggia, formerly a court of justice, with the Paravi Library. To the left are a Clock Tower in the Venetian style and th Municipio. Farther on, to the left, is the church of S. Simeone, con taining the *Arca or reliquary of the saint, made by a Milanes master in 1377-80, plated with silver, and borne by four hronz angels, cast at Venice in 1647 with the metal of Turkish cannons

To the E. is the Piazza della Colonna, on the left side of whic rises a fine antique Corinthian Column, and on the right the mas sive tower of Buovo d'Antona, a splendid point of view (key a the commandant's office). Adjacent are the Cinque Pozzi ('fiv fountains'), erected in 1574 by the Veronese architect Sammicheli prohably in part with Roman materials. From this piazza w ascend to the Giardino Pubblico*, laid out on an old hastion h Gen. von Welden in 1829-30, and embellished with tropical plants The garden affords a heautiful view of the islands in front, witl the ruin of S. Michele, and of the Velehit mountains to the N. Th outer works of the fortress are now occupied hy a fine new park.

Following the Spianata, or Promenade, to the N., past the Giar dino Cosmacendi and Giardino Wagner (with the Riva Vecchia an the Dogana helow us to the left), we reach the Campo Castello a the N. end of the town, with the Theatre and the church of S. Fran cesco (containing a crucifix of the 9th cent. and fine choir-stall behind the high-altar), whence we may turn to the W. to the Riv Nuova (p. 297). We now follow the Via Castello to the S. to th *Cathedral (S. Anastasia), a hasilica in the Romanesque style built in 1250-1330, with a rich façade of 1324. It contains Gothi choir-stalls of the 15th cent., and an interesting crypt and treasury

To the W. of the cathedral is situated the ancient church o S. Donato*, erected in the 9th cent. on the foundations and partly with the materials of a Roman temple, the stylobate or hase of whicl has been brought to light. The church is a round huilding in tw stories, each with six pillars and two columns, a tribuna, and tw apses towards the W., and is now used as a Museum (adm. on ap plication in the sacristy of the cathedral). To the left, on the firs pillar, is an inscription which has led to the belief that the temple was dedicated to Juno Augusta, consort of Emp. Augustus. The upper story contains relics of the Christian period.

A little to the W. of S. Donato is the PIAZZA DELL' ERBE, on the N. side of which rises another antique Corinthian Column, crowned with a griffin. This column was once used as a pillory. On the W. side the piazza opens towards the Riva Nuova (Franz-Josefs-Quai), with its handsome new buildings and the Giardino Comunale. Near the last is the Post Office (p. 295). — The Via S. Maria leads to the S. to the Monastery of St. Mary, the church of which, on the wall to the right, contains a painting of *Christ and Mary, under glass, by an unknown master (perhaps Tintoretto?).

A beautiful walk outside the town leads through the Porta di Terraferma ('land-gate'), erected by Sammicheli in 1543, towards the S.E., and after 5 min., where the road divides, to the right, skirting the sea, to the (10 min.) Pozzo Imperiale ('imperial fountain') a rotunda, partly antique, with nine arches. To the left, 5 min. farther on, is the Albanian village of Erizzo, whence we return to the town past the new hospital.

Pleasant trip (5-6 hrs.; boat 3 fl.) to the (1 hr.) island of Uljan. We land at Oltre and ascend to the (1¾ hr.) Fort S. Michele (p. 296). — FROM ZARA TO KNIN (see p. 298), 62½ M., diligence thrice weekly in 12 hrs. (fare 7 fl. 58 kr.; carr. about 20 fl.) through the dreary Bukovica, viâ (22½ M.) Benkovac. Beyond (45½ M.) Kistanje is a Roman triumphal arch with two passages, popularly known as the Suplja Crkva ('pierced church').

From Zara the steamboat threads its way between the mainland and a fringe of islands, passing Zara Vecchia, and then turns to the left towards the Canale di Sant' Antonio, which is flanked by precipitous rocks. At the entrance is Fort S. Niccolò, built by the Venetians, as the lion of St. Mark over the gate indicates. About 6 hrs. after leaving Zara we reach — Sebenico (Hôtel-Restaurant Kerka; Café alle Fontana, C. Sloga, C. Zanchi; rail. stat. ¾ M. to the S. of the town; pop. 8000), Slav. Zibnik, picturesquely situated at the mouth of the Kerka, commanded by the three castles of Barone (named after Baron von Degenfeld, its gallant defender in 1647), San Giovanni (view), and Sant' Anna. The Cathedral*, with its raised choir, tribuna, and two apses, and a dome 100 ft. high over the centre of the transept, was erected in 1431-1555, and has recently been restored. To the S.E. is the Baptistery. Opposite the cathedral is the Loggia (formerly the town-hall). A marble statue of Nicolò Tomaseo, the author (1802-74), by Ximenes, was erected here in 1896.

TO THE FALLS OF THE KERKA AND SCARDONA (12 M.; carr. 4-5, with two horses 5-6 fl.) the road leads through the impressive solitudes of inland Dalmatia. In the distance to the E. towers the Dinara (6008 ft.); on the right rises the Mte. Tartaro (1628 ft.), and on the left lies the lake of Prokljan. At the village of Gulin the road divides, one branch leading straight on to Drniš and Knin (p. 298), the other descending to the left to Scardona. Pedestrians follow the latter route and descend after about ⅓ M. to the right to the falls of the Kerka. The carriage is quitted after a drive of 1¾ hr. on the high left bank of the Kerka, above the falls, and sent on to Scardona, while the traveller follows the zigzag descent into the valley of the Kerka. The *Falls of the Kerka (Skardinski Slap) descend in a number of cascades, the main fall, in five or six leaps, being about 160 ft. in height. On the left bank are several fulling-mills (cavatoji), an insect-powder mill, and the Pumping House where the water is forced to the top of the hill in order to supply Sebenico and its railway-station. We are then ferried across to the right bank at the Lower Mills (small Osteria), and may either walk in ¾ hr. or take a boat in ½ hr. (preferable; 2 fl.) to Scardona, situated on a hill amidst rich vegetation (*Café to the right about 4 min. up the main street). Another ferry (5 kr.) sets us on the left bank at the end of the road ascending in curves, where the carriage is in waiting. Then viâ Gulin (p. 297) back to Sebenico.

From Sebenico to Knin, 59 M., Dalmatian State Railway in 3½ hrs. To (16½ M.) Perković-Slivno, see below. Then Unešić; Zitnić; 42 M. Drnis, ½ hr. from which, on the S.E. slope of the Promina, are deposits of brown coal; Siverić; Kosovo; Kalderma. — 59 M. Knin (Rail. Restaurant; Hôt. Knin, near the station), once a frontier-fortress, is a town of 2000 inhab. on the slope of Monte Salvatore (1132 ft.). The valley of the Kerka is very fertile here. To the E. (¾ hr.), near the source of the Kerka, is the Topolje Fall*, 72 ft high, formed by the Karsić, a tributary of the Kerka. The main road through the interior of Dalmatia leads from Knin to Sinj (diligence in 4½ hrs. to Spalato), Kattuni (p. 304), Vergorac, and Metković (p. 305).

The Steamer to Spalato (preferable to the railway; some of the steamers call also at Traù, p. 301) returns through the Canale di S. Antonio (see p. 297) to the belt of islands and rounds the Punta Planka, the ancient Promontorium Syrtis. In the distance to the S. are the islands of Lissa and S. Andrea, and in clear weather the rock of Pomo is visible to the W. of them. We then steer between the islands of (l.) Zirona Piccola and Zirona Grande and (r.) Solta into the large harbour of Spâlato (see below).

The Railway from Sebenico to Spalato (56½ M.; two trains daily in 3½ hrs.) traverses the dreary and uninteresting Boraja. 16½ M. Perković-Slivno (640 ft.; Rail. Restaurant), junction for Knin (see above; carriages changed). The train descends viâ Doblač and Labin, on the S. slope of the Opor (several tunnels), to (43½ M.) Castelvecchio (420 ft.). The village lies on the coast, 2 M. below the station. Diligence thence to (7 M.) Traù (p. 301) daily in 1½ hr. (65 kr.; carr. sometimes to be had). The train skirts the slope of the Koziak Hills, traversing the fruit-yielding region of the Castelli, to Sučurac (p. 301) and Salona (p. 302). We then make a long sweep round the Canale Castelli and cross the Jader. Luxuriant verdure. Below us, to the right, lies the island-village of Vrânjica ('Venezia Piccola'), once the arsenal of Salona. Then a slight ascent, and lastly through a tunnel under part of the town, to (56½ M.) Spalato.

53. Spalato and Environs.

Arrival. The railway-station and the steamboat-quay lie near each other on the S. side of the town. No cabs. Porter 50, with handcart 70 kr.

Hotels: Hôtel Troccoli, Piazza dei Signori, R. 1 fl., L. 20 kr., well spoken of; Hôtel de la Ville, in the Nuove Procurazie, on the W. side of the town, R. from 1 fl., B. 30, déj. incl. wine 80 kr., D. incl. wine 1 fl.,

Spâlato, commonly called Spâlatro, Slav. Split or Spljet, with 16,000 inhab., the seat of a bishop, lies picturesquely encircled by lofty hills (to the N. the Koziak, to the E. the Mosor), in a fertile region, on a peninsula washed on the N. side by the Canale Castelli, and on the S. side by the Canale di Spalato. To the E. rises the Fort Grippi, to the W. the Monte Marian (584 ft.). The town owes its name to a great palace (palatium) of Diocletian, within the precincts of which (209 by 176 yds.) a great part of the old town is built, and around which have sprung up the suburbs of Lucac on the E., Manus and Pozzobon on the N., and Borgo Grande on the W. From the Punta di Botticelli extends a Molo, 730 yds. long, which now forms a large and safe harbour.

The antiquities of Spalato and of Salona are apt to disappoint. They date chiefly from the period of decadence, and, though following Roman traditions, often show traces of negligence, a fact accounted for by the haste with which the ailing and hypochondriac emperor sought to build himself a retreat from the world. The palace, in outline like a Roman castrum, formed a little world of its own, with its temples, halls, living-rooms, baths, barracks, offices, etc., but must have worn the prison-like air of an autocrat's castle, similar to the Escurial or the papal castle of Avignon. The style is a feeble imitation of the Greek, as will be noted on examining the quasi-Doric columns of the S. façade. The buildings on the whole resemble those of Palmyra, which were restored by the same emperor. Yet, with all their defects, it must be admitted that they produce an impression of grandeur.

From the Hôtel de la Ville (guide desirable), adjoining which is a new Marble Fountain, we go to the harbour and thence to the left to the PIAZZA DELL' ERBE, in which rises an old octagonal tower of the Venetian period. Skirting the harbour, we have on our left the S. Façade, originally the front, of Diocletian's palace, with its large corner-towers, niches, and quasi-Doric columns; it is in good preservation, though much disfigured by later buildings. From this side a covered passage ('Le Grotte'), once the Porta Aenea of the palace, leads into the interior.

To the left of the Piazza dell' Erbe we reach the fine PIAZZA DEI SIGNORI, pass the Hôtel Troccoli, and by the Porta Ferrea, formerly the W. gate, still partly preserved, we enter the Palace of Diocletian, which is now entirely occupied by houses. In a few paces from the Porta Ferrea we reach the piazza of the cathedral, once the PERISTYLE (disfigured by a building-shed), the Corinthian columns of which, six on each side, are partly built into the fronts of the houses, while the S. end is occupied by an imposing Loggia* or porch, with four columns of red Egyptian granite. On the E. (left) side is the cathedral, which is not accessible from this piazza.

Beyond the Loggia or porch mentioned above, which is approached by five steps and once led to the state and private apartments, opens a grand but dilapidated Rotunda*, which with its later additions produces a very picturesque effect. By the steps in front of the rotunda, to the left, we descend through the Grotte (p. 299) to the Marina, and ascend the first lane to the left to the —

Cathedral, a fine circular edifice 68 ft. high, enclosed by a dilapidated colonnade, now dedicated to the Virgin and St. Doimo, but originally either a temple of Diana or the mausoleum of Diocletian (see inscription). The dome is formed of upright bricks overlapping each other like scales. The roof and the windows, except the lunette over the chief entrance, are modern. The present restoration is superintended by Sign. Perišić of Spalato, who courteously gives information.

The INTERIOR is octagonal, 42 ft. in diameter. Eight columns, 23 ft. high, bear an ambulatory, on which stand eight columns (four of granite, four of porphyry), 11½ ft. high, which were once crowned with statues. Between these columns, above, runs a Frieze with hunting-scenes, genii, portraits, etc. The walls below are relieved with niches. Fine pulpit.

Over the massive colonnade of the cathedral, in 1416, was erected the Campanile*, into which several ancient sculptures are built. Splendid view from the top (ascent through the building-shed). A huge scaffolding has enclosed the tower since 1882. A little to the S. of it is an Egyptian Sphinx, broken by a falling stone, popularly called Grongona ('man-woman'), holding in her hands the sun's disk, which the natives take to be a Pogazza ('loaf of bread').

At the end of a lane to the W. of the cathedral is the Battistero di S. Giovanni, supposed to have been the private temple of the palace, dedicated to Jupiter. It is an elegant Corinthian edifice, with a portico and a fine frieze.

We return to the cathedral and thence turn to the left (N.) and go straight on, — or better turn a little to the right (N.E.) and follow the palace-wall, where various relics of the building are still to be seen, and pass through a small gate, — to the Giardino Pubblico. We thence descend the steps to the left to the PORTA AUREA, the landward palace-gate recently brought to light, through which led the road to Salona. We now return to the E. Front, the gate of which (Porta Aënea) has disappeared. Against this is built the —

Museum (1st section; director Fr. Bulič). Most of the antiquities are from Salona.

VESTIBULE. Early-Christian sarcophagus with representation of the Good Shepherd, lid unfinished; tombstone with Greek inscription; tiles with stamps. — ROOM I: Large sarcophagus with Hippolytus and Phædra, from Salona, front admirably preserved, ends and lid crudely executed; Venus and Cupid; Egyptian Sphinx, headless, with inscription; so-called *Sarcophagus of Diocletian, with the hunt of Meleager, which formerly stood on the steps of the Baptistery. — ROOM II: Idols, trinkets, needles, dice, car-rings, brooches, fine glass vessels, stone hammers, bronze vases, scales, mirrors, lamps, urns, pottery. Valuable collection of coins; head of Hercules (a cast; the Franciscans at Sinj have the original).

Three other sections of the museum are exhibited near the Gymnasium. The 2nd section, in the Casa Dimitrović, contains beautiful sarcophagi, interesting Christian inscriptions, mediæval Croat inscriptions, etc. The 3rd section, Casa Brajinovič, and the 4th section, Casa Gilaidi, also contain sarcophagi, inscriptions, and (3rd sect.) architectural fragments.

From the Porta Aurea (p. 300) the Borgo Grande leads to the W. to the Franciscan church of San Felice. By the large fountain in the court (entrance from the street to the left) is a Christian sarcophagus with a relief of the Passage of the Red Sea. — In the Casa di Geremia, over the steps at the entrance, is a relief of the Battle of the Centaurs and the Lapithæ.

The Environs of Spalato afford several beautiful walks. The lofty churchyard of S. Stefano, with its interesting tombstones, lies at the S.W. angle of the harbour (20 min.). — A stony road to the W. ascends the Monte Marian (584 ft.); to the left lies the Jewish cemetery; extensive panorama from the top. — The monastery of S. Maria dei Paludi is reached by a road to the N. of the great fountain. On the left are the drilling ground and the priests' seminary, on the right a villa into which many antique fragments are built. After 1/4 hr. we diverge to the left. (The road straight on leads to the Barcagno, see below.) The church contains early-Christian tombstones and a restored altar-piece. The monastery contains a famous antiphonarium made by Pater Bonaventura Radmilovic in 1675. — To the E. of Spalato is the pilgrimage-church of Poisan. We follow the Almissa highroad, passing on the left the busy bazaar and the church of S. Domenico. (The road to the right leads to the station.) Outside we soon observe the pretty church, lying in a basin. The height near it, with a small villa to the N.E. of the church, affords a charming view (a walk of 20 min. in all).

To Traù, an interesting day's excursion.

Best by carriage (about 16 M. from Spalato, in 2 1/2 hrs.; with one horse 4, with two horses 8 fl.). Or by train to Castelvecchio, and thence by diligence or carriage (p. 298). The hours of the Steamers are apt to change and should previously be ascertained in the hotel. Walkers save an hour by taking a boat from the Barcagno, 1 1/2 M. to the N. of Spalato, to Sučurac (rail. stat., see below). Those who wish to combine a visit to Salona with the excursion to Traù, which taken together are fatiguing, had better explore the ruins from the Porta Andetria (p. 303) on the E. side, and order their carriage to meet them at the W. entrance, by the railway-station.

We follow the Spalato and Salona road to the point where it divides (p. 302). The road to Traù here turns to the left and skirts the Canale Castelli, leading through the luxuriant Riviera of the Sette Castelli, seven villages partly contiguous, which sprang up around old Venetian castles. These are, from E. to W., Sučurac, Gomilica (or Abbadessa), Kambelovac (or Cambio), Lukšic (or Vitturi), Castelvecchio (these five are railway-stations, p. 298), Castelnuovo, and Stafileo. To the N., above Salona, rises the conspicuous chapel of St. George (S. Jure; 2220 ft.). Farther on, to the left, by the mill of Paludi, is a deep gorge, 1 1/2 M. beyond which (5 M. from Castelvecchio) we reach —

Traù (Locanda Pastore; Ristorante al Cervo; Café in the Piazza), Slav. Trogir, a town of 3000 inhab. on an island in the Canale di Traù, still quite mediæval in appearance. Almost unique is the Piazza dei Signori with the *Cathedral, a basilica of the 13th cent. with a superb porch, sculptures on the chief portal, and three apses. The interior consists of nave and aisles with two rows of pillars, four in each. Fine pulpit and choir-stalls. The Chapel of S. Giovanni on the left contains the remains of St. Ursinus (11th cent.). The Baptistery contains a relief of St. Jerome in the wilderness. The handsome Gothic tower has windows with exquisite tracery. Opposite the cathedral, to the S., is the Loggia*, with antique columns, presenting a perfect example of a public court of justice of the Venetian period. To the E. is the Opčina or town-hall. — A bridge connects Traù with the suburb of Bua on the island of that name. — To the W. rises the old fort Camerlengo*, with its large tower, one of the finest relics of the Venetian period in Dalmatia.

FROM SPALATO TO SALONA, CLISSA, AND THE SOURCE OF THE JADER.

RAILWAY to Salona (5 M.; 2-3 trains daily in 1/4 hr.; fares 38, 23, 13 kr.). — DILIGENCE to (4 M.) Salona and (8 M.) Clissa daily at 2 a.m. (1898). Best, however, by CARRIAGE (to Salona 1-2, with two horses 2-3 fl., whole day 4-5 or 6-7 fl.). A visit to the ruins of Salona takes an hour, and the whole trip by carriage 5-6 hrs. at least; a whole day should therefore be allowed. (Tolerable inn at Clissa, but provisions had better be taken.) The Source of the Jader should be visited first, Clissa second, and Salona last. Italian is spoken at Salona and Clissa, but not always on the routes to the Source of the Jader.

The traveller who walks or drives to (4 M.) Salona quits Spalato by the Manus suburb and the Sebenico road, which skirts the railway. Just outside the town, on the left, is the Reservoir of the Jader water-works (see below). About 2 M. from the town is the Duimovac Chapel (S. Doimo or Domnius), 8 min. to the right of which is the Ponte Secco*, an ancient Roman aqueduct, the nine arches of which are again utilised for the Spalato water-works.

WALKERS may go direct from the Ponte Secco to the Source of the Jader. They at first follow the conduit, then the path to the left towards the valley, and after 8 min. take the road to the right to the (3/4 hr.) mill of Vidović (p. 303). The route ascending by the conduit all the way is interrupted by walls and thorny hedges.

The road descends into the valley of the Jader, which issues from the limestone rocks 2 1/4 M. higher up (see p. 303). On the right bank the road divides. The branch to the left goes round the bay of Salona to the Castelli and Traù (p. 301); the branch straight on leads to —

4 M. Salona (Osteria*, not far from the station), the Roman Salonae, the ruins of which occupy all the heights around the bay, now a village of 1200 inhab., most picturesquely situated at the base of the Monte Caban (or Koziak).

The RUINS OF SALONÆ, though neither grand nor extensive, deserve a visit, if only for the sake of their beautiful situation. Once a Roman war harbour and arsenal, its massive walls, of which fragments are still seen on the road to Traù (p. 303), were formerly washed by the sea, which has since receded far from the ruins. The town extended from W. to E., between the Jader and the mountains, whence Lucan (Pharsal.) writes —

Qua maris Adriaci longas ferit unda Salonas
Et tepidum in molles zephyros excurrit Iader.

In the Roman Civil War Salonæ adhered to Cæsar, and was besieged by Octavius, Pompey's general. According to Dion Cassius the town owed its rescue to the female inhabitants, who, disguised as Furies, in the dead of the night, rushed into the enemies' camp or showed themselves on the walls with torches in their hands. The soldiers of Octavius, seized with a panic, fell into disorder and were easily routed by the men who hastened to profit by the stratagem. — In A. D. 305, after his abdication, Emp. Diocletian retired to Salonæ and thence directed the building of his palace at Spalato. After the Goths in 535 and the Avars in 639 had destroyed Salonæ, a number of the inhabitants fled to Spalato and began to disfigure the empty palace of Diocletian with their new dwellings.

Since 1847 the RUINS have been partly excavated, but without very valuable results. Most of the chief relics are now in the museum of Spalato. — Approaching either from the W. (from the station) or from the E. (the former Porta Andetria), we follow the stone rampart of the once double Town Walls, which was defended by towers and bastions (guide 30-40 kr.). Coming from the W., we first reach the Amphitheatre, partially excavated; then (1/4 hr.) a row of sarcophagi in a kind of trench; next (5 min.) a Gateway and beyond it an octagonal Christian Baptistery, with a fine mosaic pavement. Lastly, the Porta Andetria, through which the Via Gabiniana led to Clissa. Rich vegetation everywhere.

Near the Baptistery, to the N., is the extensive Christian necropolis of Monastirine, with a basilica and numerous early-Christian sarcophagi, most of which, however, have been long since despoiled of their contents. To the N.W. (20 min. to the N. of the amphitheatre) is the Christian necropolis of Marusinac, with a basilica containing an interesting mosaic pavement.

TO THE SOURCE OF THE JADER (3/4 hr.). The road from Spalato ascends the green valley of the Jader and crosses to the mill of Vidović, where it ends. A path to the right, just before the mill is reached, follows the conduit to the (10 min.) Sorgente or Source of the Jader*, a fine waterfall in grand surroundings, a genuine Dalmatian scene.

Walkers, instead of returning by the same route, may cross the stream and go to the W., past a burnt mill, to the valley descending from Clissa; then follow a bridle-path, good at first, but afterwards stony, towards Clissa, which is visible the whole way; at the top of the valley they turn to the left, and ascend to the (1 1/4 hr.) first Osteria.

FROM SALONA TO CLISSA. Leaving the town by the E. gate (Porta Andetria, see above), the road winds up the slope of the Monte Caban, commanding beautiful views of the Campagna of Spalato, the sea, and the islands, to the crest of the rock on which lies —

8 M. Clissa, Slav. Kliš (1182 ft.; three tolerable Osterie, the first by the roadside the best), with 1200 inhab., overshadowed on the W. by the Monte Caban (see above), on the E. by the bare Mosor (Mons Aureus; 4364 ft.). Once a place of importance during the wars between the Venetians and the Turks, it is now an unimportant guardian of the pass from the coast to the interior.

From the first osteria we ascend in 5 min. to the Fortress (admission by permit from the military authorities at Zara) for the sake of the *View it affords, stretching S. to Lissa, S. Andrea, and other islands, with the Mosor on the E., and the Dinarian Alps in the distance. — Those who wish to visit the Source of the Jader descend by a steep track through the village, having previously ordered their carriage to meet them at the mill of Vidovič.

From Spalato to Almissa (about 15 M.; carr. with one horse in 3 hrs., 4 fl.; steamboat, see R. 54). The road leads through the fertile Campagna to Stobreč, the ancient Epetium, at the entrance to the Poljica, which yields the best maraschino cherries (p. 295). This district, bounded on the N. by the Šernovica, on the S. by the Cetina, and on the E. by the Mosor (p. 303), was once a kind of peasant-republic under Venetian suzerainty. Beyond Stobreč the beautiful road skirts the sea. Almissa, see below.

54. From Spalato to Cattaro viâ Ragusa. The South Dalmatian Islands.

From Spalato to Metkovič. Austrian Lloyd Steamer once weekly viâ S. Pietro di Brazza, Postire, Pučischie, Makarska, Gradac, and Fort Opus in 12½ hrs., and once by S. Pietro di Brazza, Almissa, Makarska, Trappano, and Fort Opus in 12 hrs. (fares 4 fl. 75, 3 fl. 25 kr.). — Hungarian-Croatian Steamer once weekly direct to Metkovič in 7 hrs. — Rismondo's steamer several times weekly; also to Makarska alone once weekly in 12 hrs. — From Metkovič to Gravosa steamers of Cesare & Co. four times weekly in 10-11 hrs. viâ Stagno Piccolo and Stagno Grande.

From Spalato to Ragusa (Gravosa) and Cattaro. Austrian Lloyd Steamer once weekly direct to Gravosa in 7, to Cattaro in 11 hrs.; also four times weekly, touching at several ports in the islands of Brazza, Lesina, Lissa, Curzola, Lagosta, Meleda, and the peninsula of Sabbioncello, in 16-26 hrs. (fares to Gravosa 9 fl. 20, 6 fl. 45, 3 fl. 35 kr.; to Cattaro 11 fl. 95, 8 fl. 35, 4 fl. 35 kr.; express steamer 20% more). — Hungarian-Croatian Steamer once weekly to Cattaro viâ Milna, Lissa, Ragusa, Castelnuovo, and Perzagno, in 37 hrs. — S. Topič & Co.'s Steamer twice weekly to Lesina and Curzola in 10½ and 23 hrs. — Steamer 'Ragusea' (between Trieste and Bari) once weekly.

From Spalato to Metkovič. The vessel steers through the Canale della Brazza, which separates the island of Brazza from the mainland, with the imposing Mosor (p. 303) on the left, stops for half-an-hour at S. Pietro in Brazza (Slav. Brac), one of the largest Dalmatian islands, and after a voyage of 2½ hrs. reaches — Almissa (Albergo Adelina), Slav. Olmis, a little town at the mouth of the Cetina and at the base of the conical Dinara (1841 ft.). Farther back towers the Borak (2835 ft.), crowned with the castle of Mirabella, once a notorious haunt of pirates. In the bay of Almissa is a submarine spring of fresh water called Vrullia. The neighbouring hills yield a famous muscatel wine, the 'Vino Mte. Rosa d'Almissa'.

A visit to the *Cetina Waterfalls forms an interesting excursion from Almissa (14 M.; new road; carriage there and back in 6 hrs., 5 fl.). The road ascends in numerous windings to Svinišće and descends viâ Kućiće in two large bends to the Cetina. About ¾ M. from the 'Great Fall' (Velika gubavica, 98 ft. high) is Duare (tolerable inn), with a castle on a rocky hill. Road thence to (2¼ M.) Kattuni (p. 298). — The falls may also be reached from Almissa by a bridle-path (4 hrs.), which passes through the grand Cetina gorge, viâ the mills (Šarn) of Vissek.

We next touch at (2 hrs.) Makarska (Albergo), a brisk town trading largely in grain, the capital of the Primorje, a district similar to that of the Castelli (p. 298). From this point (or better from the village of Baskavoda, 6 M. to the N.) we may ascend the Sveti Juro (St. George; 5781 ft.), the highest peak of the Biókovo Mts., commanding a very extensive view (12 hrs. there and back; guide 2-3 fl.).

To the right, farther on, is the island of Lesina (see below); then the long peninsula of Sabbioncello. The steamer touches at Gradac and Trappano, enters the Narenta, which was regulated in 1882-89 by the Austrian government at an expense of 7 million fl., and passes Fort Opus and the Torre di Norino, the latter built by the Venetians.

Metkovič (Hôtel Austria, at the harbour), a little town on the left bank of the Narenta, has been since the Austrian occupation the chief depot of imports for the Herzegovina and seat of the district authorities. Splendid view from the terrace of the new church. — Railway to Sarajevo, see R. 86; the railway-station (restaurant) is on the right bank of the Narenta, beside the steamboat-quay, opposite the town.

From Metkovic to Gravosa, steamer (see p. 304) four times weekly in 10-11 hours. The vessel touches at Fort Opus, Trappano, Crkvice, and Drače, and then enters the narrow Canale di Stagno Piccolo. After 5¼ hrs. it stops at Stagno Piccolo, a fortified place on the peninsula of Sabbioncello with oyster-beds. We disembark here (omnibuses meet the steamer, 20 kr. each person; luggage is carried by ox-carts, 10 kr.), cross the peninsula of Sabbioncello, 1¼ M. in breadth (rich vegetation; there is usually time to walk), and at Stagno Grande, another fortified little town, with an excellent harbour and extensive sardine-fishery, embark in another steamer, in which we continue our voyage. The next station is Luca di Giuppana, the capital of the island of Giuppana. We next steer across to Slano on the mainland, with its fine harbour; then through the Canale di Calamotta to Mezzo, capital of the island of that name, and back to Cannosa (p. 310); and lastly, passing the mouth of the broad Ombla, to Gravosa (p. 307).

From Spalato to Ragusa and Cattaro. The Express Steamer of the Austrian-Hungarian Lloyd steers through the Canale della Brazza (p. 304) to Makarska (p. 304), then through the Canale della Narenta to Curzola, capital of the island of Curzola (p. 307), and between the long peninsula of Sabbioncello (see above) and the island of Meleda (p. 307) to Gravosa, situated in a charming bay (p. 307). The longer route taken by some of the steamers round and between the islands affords a better survey of the beauties of the Dalmatian scenery than the direct voyage. The following description is limited as a rule to the chief stations of the Lloyd steamers.

From Spalato the vessel steers due S. to the island of Solta, the ancient Olynta (famed for its honey produced from the cistus-rose and rosemary), with the harbour of Carober; then S.E. to Milna, the chief harbour of the large island of Brazza, prettily situated in a deep bay on the W. coast. The steamer next threads its way through the narrow Porte di Spalato, between (r.) Solta and (l.) Brazza. To the left we perceive Lésina and to the right of it S. Andrea, and in the distance, in clear weather, the Scoglio Pomo to the right (p. 306). A little later we round the Capo Petlegrino, the N.W. point of the island of Lésina (with the lighthouse of Vodnjak on the right), and enter the harbour of Lésina (pop. 3596), Slav. Hvar (Hôtel Pharia), sheltered by the Isole dei Spalmadori ('calkers' islands'). Agaves abound and the first date-palm appears. The fig-wines and rosemary-essence made here are in high repute. On the quay is the Loggia*, with seven arcades, built by Sammicheli, now a town-hall and 'Cursalon'. In the town, on the right, rises the Fóndaco, the ancient Venetian magazine and arsenal. To the left, on a promontory in the harbour, is the Observatory. A beautiful walk leads from the harbour to the S.E. to the Franciscan Monastery, the refectory of which contains a Last Supper by Matteo Rosselli (1578-1650). Lesina, a war-harbour and station of the Venetian fleet down to 1761, is commanded by three forts: the Fort Spagnuolo (289 ft.), erected by Emp. Charles V., connected with the harbour by walls, the Fort S. Niccolò (765 ft.), and the still higher Velika Glava. The fortifications are now abandoned.

Pleasant excursion (on horseback in 3 hrs., or better to Sokolica, 1/2 hr., and thence by boat) to Cittavecchia, the ancient Pharia (4719 inhab.), at which some of the Lloyd steamers touch. Near it, on the hill of Somotor (Ital. Torre), lie a number of massive hewn stones, carried thither, according to tradition, by witches. To the E. of Cittavecchia lie Gelsa and Verbosca (steamer, see p. 304), the latter with the church of S. Lorenzo, which contains a picture of a saint attributed to Titian. The church of St. Mary has a Nativity of Mary by Paolo Veronese (?).

The steamer rounds the fortified Scoglio Galesnik to the lofty island and town of Lissa (accommodation at Matteo Puhalović's, moderate; Brit. Consular Agent, Serafino Topić), Slav. Vis, the ancient Issa, also called Sovra Lissa, the westernmost of the larger islands of the archipelago. The town (pop. 4845) lies in a bay (the Porto S. Giorgio), strongly fortified, and sheltered by the Scoglio Hoste. From the higher ground in the island, such as the chapel of S. Cosmo (765 ft.), to the S., above the town, the Monte Gargnano is visible to the S., on the Italian coast. A marble Monument* in the cemetery, 1/2 M. to the N., commemorates the battle of 20th July, 1866, between the Austrian fleet, under Tegetthoff, and the Italian under Persano. Another monument, at some distance to the N.E. of the town, was erected in 1811 in memory of a victory of the British fleet, under Hoste, over the French, under Dubordieu. — On the W. side of the island (road, 2 1/2 hrs.), in a deep bay, lies Komisa (Albergo Erzeg), also a steamboat-station, at the foot of the Hum (1920 ft.), with important sardine-fishery. (Large nets called tratte, small voinghe.)

From Komisa a visit may be paid to the Spelonca di Ballon in the island of Busi (Slav. Bisove), a grotto 34 yds. long and 16-18 yds. broad, which, like the Blue Grotto of Capri, is lighted by means of a submarine rocky gateway (59 ft. high and 34 ft. broad). The boat (1/2 hr.; dear) steers into the grotto through an opening 5 ft. high and 8 ft. wide. The water is of an exquisite azure in two shades, while the vault above is in profound darkness. — Geologists may also visit the island of S. Andrea (11 M. to the W.), with its valuable marble-quarries, and the (28 M.) volcanic Scoglio Pomo (Slav. Jabuko, 'apple'), a rocky island 330 yds. long, 110-130 yds. broad, and 315 ft. high. Landing (at a place on the N.E. side) is not always feasible.

From Lissa the steamer turns to the E., round the Punta Stončica, with its large lighthouse, into the open sea. It then steers through the Canale di Cúrzola, between Lesina on the left (see p. 306) and Curzola on the right (with a view of the island of Cazza in the distance to the S.), and through the Canale di Sabbioncello, on the S. side of the peninsula of that name (see below), to — Curzola (Albergo Europa), the capital of the island of Curzola (Slav. Korčula), the Corcyra Nigra of antiquity, now, as in ancient times, extensively wooded. Part of the old town-wall is still preserved. Tower of 1420. The cathedral of S. Marco contains an altarpiece by Tintoretto. Above the town, to the S.W., rises Fort S. Biagio, built by the British. In 1298 the Genoese here captured the Venetian admiral Andrea Dandolo and the famous navigator Marco Polo.

Opposite Curzola, in Sabbioncello, a peninsula 31 M. long, is Orebič, with a fine harbour, at the foot of Mte. Vipera (S. Elia; 3153 ft.).

From Orebič we may ride to Trappano (p. 305), steam or row to Fort Opus, and thus combine the island tour with a visit to Metkovič.

The steamer skirts the coast of Sabbioncello. To the right in the distance rise the steep rocks of the island of Lagosta, with a lighthouse on its S.E. point (Punta Skriveva; 330 ft.), to the E. of which is a second lighthouse on Glavat, another rock of the Lagostini. To the left, in Sabbioncello, lies Terstenik; then Giuliana. Farther to the S. we reach Méleda (Slav. Mljet or Mlit, the ancient Melita), an island with numerous chasms and gorges, the largest of which is the Babinopolje on the S. side. Some of the steamers touch at Porto Palazzo, on the N. side, the chief port. On an island to the W. is the Benedictine monastery of S. Maria, now a forester's house.

We steer through the Canale di Meleda; then N.E. through the Bocca Elsa, between the islands of Olipa and Jaklan, into the Canale di Olipa, with its lighthouse. To the left, on the mainland, rises the bare limestone mass of the Tmor (2973 ft.). On the right lie the 'stag islands' of Jaklan, Giuppana, Mezzo, and Calamotta. Between the last two rises the Scoglio S. Andrea (Donzella), to which Margherita Spoletano, the 'Dalmatian Hero', used to swim nightly to visit her lover until drowned by her brothers. Farther on we pass several villages on the coast, the lofty Dubravica, Tersteno or Cannosa (p. 310), Valdinoce, and Malfi in a deep bay. On the right we next observe the Scoglio Daža; on the left opens the Ombla (p. 310).

Gravosa (Hôtel Petka, R. 1 fl., L. 20 kr.; Hôt. Paulowicz, R. 1 fl., both at the harbour; cab to Ragusa in 20 min., 50-80 kr., each trunk 10 kr.; bargain advisable), Slav. Gruž, the fortified harbour of Ragusa (of which the old harbour was Cassone, to the S.E., where only the small steamers now touch), is charmingly situated. A fine plane-tree adorns the quay. Along the shore extend villas and gardens with cypresses and palms. A beautiful road ascends from Gravosa and then descends past the new hospital to (1½ M.) —

Ragusa. — Hotels. *Hôtel Impérial, on the Brsalje, with view of the sea, lift, etc., 1st class, R. from 2 fl., B. 60 kr., lunch 1½, D. 2, pens. 5½ fl.; Hôtel de la Ville, good cuisine; Lacroma, behind the Rectors' Palace. — Cafés-Restaurants. Arciduca Federigo, in the Brsalje; Teatro, opposite the cathedral; Birreria Nuova, to the W. of the Corso.

Cabs abound in the Brsalje; drive to the town 30, to Gravosa 40 kr., to Gravosa and back with halt of ¼ hr., 60 kr. (bargain desirable). — Rowing Boats. To the Military Baths 12, per hour 50, each addit. hr. 25 kr.; ⅓ more for two rowers. — Good Sea Baths at the Military Baths, below the road to S. Giacomo (p. 309).

Post & Telegraph Office, Siroka Ulica, to the W. of the Corso.

Ragusa, Slav. Dubrownik, Turk. Paprownik, an old town of 12,000 inhab., lies most picturesquely at the foot and on the slopes of the Mte. Sergio (1350 ft.). Down to 1805 an independent republic, annexed in 1808 by Napoleon to the new 'kingdom of Illyria', the town has belonged to Austria since 1814. The interesting costumes of the natives are best seen on Sunday mornings.

The most frequented part of Ragusa is the Brsalje, a piazza outside the Porta Pille, with its beautiful avenues of mulberry trees. (Concerts frequently.) From the S. side of it we obtain a charming view of the sea and of Fort S. Lorenzo on an isolated rock. Down on the beach are the sea-baths. To the N.W. runs the highroad to Gravosa (p. 307). To the S.E. a bridge and the narrow Porta Pille lead into the town. Outside of these a road ascends to the left to the Mencetta Tower, turns to the E., and leads round the huge Town Walls* to the Porta Ploce (p. 309) on the S. side of the town.

Beginning at the Porta Pille, the Placa or Stradone, usually called the Corso, once an arm of the sea, intersects the whole town. On the left we first observe the Franciscan Church (Slav. Mala Braća), which has fine Romanesque cloisters. On the right is the round reservoir of the aqueduct (p. 310), dating from 1437. Since an earthquake in 1667, which left the town a heap of ruins, it has been customary to build the houses detached. To the right of the Corso, farther on, is the Servian Church. (Interesting service, Sun. 10-11 a.m.)

At the E. end of the Corso is the Cathedral Piazza. On the right rises the Cathedral, built in 1671-1713, containing an Assumption after Titian (the apostles by the master himself), a Head of Christ by Pordenone (to the right of the door leading to the sacristy), and (opposite) an excellent old copy of Raphael's Madonna della Sedia, on wood (all three usually covered). Rich treasury. On the left is the former mint, now the Dogana* or custom-house ('Sponza'), built about 1520 in the Venetian Renaissance style, adorned with a statue of St. Biagio (Blasius), the patron-saint of the town. Handsome court-yard, with warehouses.

Leaving the next town-gate with its clock-tower on the left, and passing the Guard House on the left, we reach the PALAZZO COMUNALE AND TEATRO, on the 2nd floor of which is the Museo Patrio (adm. Sun. and Wed., 10-12, for strangers on other days also), containing antiquities and natural history objects. Adjacent is the imposing *RECTORS' PALACE (1338-1424), now occupied by the district authorities, the upper floor of which was destroyed by the earthquake of 1667. Handsome porch. The court contains a bronze bust of Michael Prazatto (1638), a distinguished Ragusan, which was also damaged in 1667. — Nearly opposite the palace is the church of S. Biagio, in front of which stands a Roland figure 6½ ft. high.

Near this is the Piazza dell' Erbe, with a monument to the poet F. Gundulić (d. 1638), from which a broad flight of steps ascends to the Military Hospital in the old Jesuits' monastery and to the Jesuits' Church. We return to the Corso, pass through the Porta Ploce, and ascend to the left to the loftily situated Dominican Monastery, the church of which (S. Domenico) contains, at the first altar to left, a painting by Titian (Mary Magdalen between St. Blasius, the angel with the infant Tobias, and the donor; restored). Fine cloisters (entrance to the left, in front of the church).

We next pass through the outer gate of the fortifications. On the right is the Hospital, on the left the old Turkish bazaar of Rastello, now unimportant. We may now visit the Mte. Sergio (p. 308) and the Fort Imperiale by following the road from the Porta Ploce outside the town-wall, and then ascending a path to the right in 27 zigzags. Permission to enter the fort must be obtained from the commandant in the town. Splendid view, which is nearly as good from the garden outside. — From this point to the source of the Ombla (p. 310), a rough hilly path.

Following the Trebinje highroad from the Porta Ploce for about 20 min., and diverging to the right, we reach in 10 min. more the former monastery of S. Giacomo, and obtain a delightful view of Ragusa. Luxuriant vegetation; agaves and date-palms abound.

EXCURSIONS. From the old harbour of Casson, to the S.E. of Ragusa (p. 307), we may visit by boat (in 20 min.; there and back, 80 kr., first ¼ hr.'s stay 15 kr., each following ¼ hr. 10 kr.; permission to visit the island at Ragusa 50 kr., in Lacroma 1 fl.) the island of Lacroma (anagram of Marco) with its wonderful wealth of ericas, myrtles, aloes, and other plants. We land at the S.E. end of the island near the monastery; a lay-brother conducts visitors. The old monastery of S. Marco, in a depression on the S.E. side, with a church founded in 1023, is surrounded with charming grounds. *View of the sea and the coast. A little to the W. is the Mare Morto, a natural basin in the rock. On a hill to the N.W. is a deserted fort. A cross below it commemorates the accidental blowing up of the Triton, an Austrian man-of-war, in 1859.

The Church and Chapel of S. Biagio (Slav. Blaz), on the peninsula of Lapad, ¾ hr. to the N.W. of Ragusa, are reached by following the Gravosa highroad to the top of the hill (passing the Cimitero dei Signori on the right), and diverging thence to the left by a bridle-path through a fertile valley. Beyond the church (20 min.) is the chapel, built in 1857, in a pine-grove, commanding a view of the whole coast.

To the VALLEY OF THE OMBLA a delightful excursion (2½-3 hrs., best in the afternoon). From Ragusa we drive to Gravosa, row thence (with 1 rower, 2 fl.) into the Ombla (Slav. Rjeka, the ancient Arion), 160 yds. hroad, and flanked with villas and villages, and ascend as far as the mill, driven by the river which here bursts forth copiously from its subterranean channel (being probahly identical with the Trebinjčica, which disappears in the Herzegovina, a good many miles to the E.). As far as the monastery at Rožato the water of the river, 3 M. long in all, is fresh, and its current is so strong that travellers require to disembark a little helow the mill. Lower down the water is brackish, and at last quite salt. — WALKERS go from Gravosa on the left (S.) bank of the Ombla to a (5 min.) ferry, cross, and follow the right bank to Mokosica (opposite S. Stefano) and Rožato (see above). They then recross to the left bank and follow it to the mill. In the distance to the S.E., at the end of the Gionchetto valley, is seen Bergato (Brgat), where the Ragusa water-conduit begins. In returning, the traveller may follow the conduit direct to the suhurb of Pille (p. 308), a somewhat steep ascent. Splendid views of the bays, the sea, and the islands.

To THE BRENO VALLEY as far as the Molini di Breno (p. 311), a drive of 1¼ hr. (carriage 2 fl. 75 kr. there and hack, including 1 hr.'s stay), a favourite excursion, particularly on Sundays.

To CANNOSA the easiest route is by tue steamer (Cesare & Co.'s, comp. (p 304) which plies three times weekly in the morning from Gravosa to Stagno (p. 305), touching at Cannosa both going and retnrning. It is, however, more attractive to drive thither (15½ M.; carr. in abont 3 hrs.; 8-10 fl.), or still better to go by rowing-boat (with 2 rowers 2 hrs., 3½ fl.) and return by carriage previously ordered to meet the traveller at Cannosa. Walkers may visit the source of the Ombla on the way back from Cannosa. — Those who drive to Cannosa cross the Ombla by ferry (but this is often impossible in autumn when the violent Bora prevails). The beautiful road, called Strada Marmont after the French marshal Marmont (Duc de Ragnsa), leads chiefly along the heights (with view of the 'stag islands', p. 307) to Verbica, then round the deep bay of Malfi (Slav. Zaton), to Valdinoce (Slav. Orašac), with several fine planes, and so to (15½ M.) Cannosa (Osteria, dear). We alight by two gigantic Plane-trees*, each some 40 ft. in circumference and shading with its foliage a space of 65 yds. in diameter. By these trees is a spring of good water. Below them is the villa of Count Gozze of Ragusa. A beautiful road, commanding a charming view, descends to the (10 min.) small harbour of Serdupina.

A delightful excursion from Ragusa (diligence daily in 4½, returning in 3¾ hrs.; fare 2 fl. 40 kr.) is across the pass of Breno, with splendid views of the sea and the coast all the way, to (19 M.) Trebinje (Höt. Nagelic; Andrič; Zum Lustigen Michel; Müller), a little town of 1300 inhab. in the Herzegovina, most picturesquely situated in the valley of the Trebinjčica, enclosed by finely shaped mountains. (Turkish mosque, etc.)

Proceeding on its way to Cattaro, the steamer rounds the peninsula of Lapad and steers to the S. through the Bocca Grande. On the left rise the Pettini ('combs'), a series of cliffs with a lighthouse. Beautiful view of Ragusa. Farther on is Lacroma (p. 309); then the bay (Valle) of Breno and the rocky islands of Bobara and Merkan near Ragusa Vecchia (p. 311). Skirting the steep coast of the Canali (see p. 311), and rounding the sharp Punta d'Ostro, the southernmost meteorological station in Austria, we next reach the Bocche di Cáttaro. On the right are the fort on the Punta d'Arza and Fort Mamula on the rock of Rondoni.

Bocche di Cáttaro is the name given to a fjord or arm of the sea penetrating far into the mainland of Dalmatia, and in form somewhat resembling the Lake of Lucerne. Bounded on the N. and E. by imposing mountains, rising to nearly 6000 ft., and more open towards the S., the five different basins of this bay, connected in several cases by narrow straits, afford a series of grand and striking pictures.

The vessel steers to the N., past the Punta Kobila on the left, into the second basin of the Bocche, the W. bay of which is called the Bay of Topla, and touches at Castelnuovo (see below).

From Ragusa to Castelnuovo by Land, 31 M., diligence three times a week in about 6 hrs. (fare 2 fl. 60 kr.; carr. about 10 fl.). The local steamboat for Cattaro leaves Castelnuovo about 2 p.m. in summer (at other times at 1 p.m.), so that if an early start from Ragusa be made, Cattaro can easily be reached in one day. The highly picturesque road leaves Ragusa by the Porta Ploce (p. 309), and above S. Giacomo ascends to the promontory of Spezeria, 1½ M. beyond which the Trebinje road diverges to the left (p. 310). Our road then descends to the district (župa) of Breno and to Cibača. Farther on, by the Molini di Breno, is a good osteria. We next skirt the bay of Breno, passing several springs, to Plat and Obod (479 ft.), and ascend rapidly to a bifurcation of the road (osteria). At the top of the hill we obtain a striking view of the sea and the island of Meleda. The road straight on leads to the Canali (see below), that to the right to Ragusa Vecchia (Pappagallo), Slav. Cavtat (civitas), the ancient Epidaurus, and after its destruction by the Avari in 656 the mother-town of Ragusa. On the E. side it is bounded by a rock, the top of which (Punta S. Rocca), or still better the chapel higher up, commands a beautiful view. The principal harbour is on the W., a smaller on the E. side of the town.

The road to Castelnuovo at first traverses the W. and then the E. side of the Canali, a flat valley stretching between high mountains on the E. side and the lower spurs on the W. as far as the bay of Topla (see above). The natives (Canalesi) wear a peculiar costume. The S. part of the Canali was formerly the Suttorina, a Turkish enclave similar to that of Kleck to the S. of the Narenta delta, ceded to Turkey at the Peace of Passarowitz in 1718 with a view to separate the republic of Ragusa from the Venetian possessions. 31 M. Castelnuovo, see below.

Castelnuovo (Albergo Dulfo; Löffke; Caffè Bellavista), Slav. Erzeg Novi, a little town with venerable ivy-clad walls partially destroyed by an earthquake, is charmingly situated at the foot of the (½ hr.) Fort Spagnuolo (1538), for the possession of which the Turks and Venetians formerly had many a struggle. The fountain in the principal piazza and the Porta di Terra Ferma bear Turkish inscriptions. Beautiful walk to the E., through luxuriant vegetation, to the monastery of Savina and the harbour of Meljina, with its military hospital.

A charming drive, preferable to the steamboat trip, may be taken on the N. bank of the Bocche to Meljina, Gjenovič, and Andrič. We may then cross by boat to Lepatene (p. 312) and follow the beautiful road, or go on by boat, along the W. bank of the bay of Cattaro, to Donji, Stolivo, Perzagno (p. 312), Mula, and (5 hrs.) Cattaro.

Rowing-boat from Castelnuovo to Cattaro (about 1½ fl. for each rower; charge varies according to weather, etc.) also about 5 hrs.; a visit to Risano takes 1½ hr. more.

The steamer turns to the S., traverses the Canale di Combur, and enters the third basin of the Bocche called the Bay of Teodod, with a naval harbour. Over the flat S.E. bank, which yields the famous Marzamino wine, peep the mountains of Montenegro. We then steer N.E., between green and thickly peopled hilly banks, into the narrowest Bocca, called Le Catene because once shut off by chains. To the left are the village of Josica and the monastery of

S. Domenica; on the hill to the right lies Lepatene. From the Catene we enter the two innermost recesses of the Bocche, hounded on the E. hy huge limestone mountains. To the left are the pilgrimage church of S. Maria dello Scarpello, on an island, and the rock of S. Giorgio. Before us, at the foot of the Casson (2864 ft.), lies the large village of Perasto, with the little fort of Santa Croce. — The steamer then turns N. into the hay of Risano, the ancient Rhizinium, a little town (1000 inhab.) grandly situated at the N.E. end of the Bocche. To the N.W. (20 min.) is the Zoput Cavern, from which a spring sometimes hursts forth. On the hills, now crowned with a series of forts, lies the Krivošie, where revolts have frequently occurred.

From Risano a beautiful road leads on the E. hank to Perasto, Orahovac, Ljuta, the long and straggling Dóbrota, and past an inaccessible cavern high above us containing an orange-tree, to (10 M.) Cáttaro (see below).

The steamer returns to Perasto and steers S. into the fifth hasin, the superh Bay of Cáttaro, on the W. bank of which it touches at Perzagno and Mula. To the S. towers the huge Lovčen (5770 ft.).

Cáttaro (Stadt Graz, R. 1 fl. 20 kr., Zum Jäger, both plain; Stadt Triest; Dreher's Bierhalle, heyond the drill-ground; Café Doimi, on the marina; photographs at Fr. Laforest's), Slav. Kotor, the Roman Ascrivium, a strong frontier-fortress with 5432 inhab. and a considerahle garrison, the residence of the district governor and of a Greek Catholic bishop, is grandly situated at the E. angle of the hay, at the foot of the lofty mountains of Montenegro, on alluvial soil deposited hy the Scurda, a torrent which falls into the hay to the N. of the town-walls. Ahove the town rises the fortified hill of S. Giovanni (919 ft.). The cramped hut pleasant little town is entered from the harbour by the Porta detta Marina (closed at 11 p.m.), from the N. hy the Porta Fiumara (closed at 6 p.m.), and from the S. hy the Porta Gordicchio, the two last gates being named after two springs issuing from the rocks. Small as it is, Cáttaro boasts of a Cathedral, containing a chapel of the patron-saint Triphonius (whose festival is on 3rd Feh.), a Rom. Cath. Collegiate Church, a Franciscan Monastery, and a Theatre. Good military swimming-baths. Outside the Porta Fiumara the Montenegrins hold market on Mon., Thurs., and Sat., on which occasion they are required to lay aside their weapons. Notices and sign-boards in the Cyrillian (Russian) character also indicate the proximity of the frontier. — Beautiful walks along the shore, N.E. to Dóbrota (see ahove), N.W. to Mula (see above).

From Cáttaro to (15 M.) Budua, a little town to the S., on the coast of the Primorje, diligence 4 times weekly.

From Cáttaro by Antivari (p. 316) and Durazzo to Corfù, steamer once weekly in 50 hrs. (see Baedeker's Greece).

55. Excursion to Montenegro.

A visit from Cáttaro to Cetinje, the capital of Montenegro, takes two days; a most interesting excursion (diligence with 4 seats daily in 6 hrs., 2 fl.; carr. and pair with two seats, there and back, 15-24 fl.; saddle-horse 7½-10 fl.).

Montenegro (Serv. Crnagora, Turk. Karadag, 'black mountain'), 3500 sq. M. in area, with 230,000 inhab., almost exclusively Greek Catholics, is a grand and quite unique mountain-region, the W. half of which is almost destitute of valleys, but contains a few isolated rocky basins, where alone sufficient soil is found for the cultivation of rye and potatoes (krumbiri, 'earth-pears'). Only Cetinje, Nikšič, Podgorica, and a few other places lie in the midst of plains of some extent, which are mostly the beds of ancient lakes. The highest mountains in the W. are the Lovčen or Sturovnik, Ital. Sella (5770 ft.), and the Orjen (6218 ft.), which lies to the N., on the Dalmatian frontier. The E. part is a vast Alpine region, as yet imperfectly explored, the highest peaks being the Dormitor (8146 ft.), to the N., and the Kuckikom (8032 ft.), to the E. In this part of the country occur deep valleys, furrowed by rivers, such as the Zeta descending from the plateau of Nikšič (2132 ft.), and falling into the Moraca near Podgorica, which last empties itself through its delta-like embouchure into the Lake of Scutari, whence, through Turkish territory, the copious Bojana descends to the sea. The E. part alone is well wooded; the W. half is almost entirely bare (save for the beautiful wood at a considerable height on the N. side of the Lovčen); and it is probably the bleak and wild character of this part of the country, with its grey or reddish limestone rocks, that has given rise to the name of 'Montenegro'. — The exports, valued at 2 million fl. per annum, consist of cattle, hides, cheese, wool, tobacco, insect-powder, etc.

Inhabitants. The Montenegrins, who are Servian fugitives from Turkish sway, speak the same dialect as their compatriots. They are, as a rule, extremely poor. Their thatched huts resemble stables rather than the dwellings of human beings. Yet the men are remarkably dignified in their bearing, and they generally carry quite an arsenal of weapons in their girdles, while the women, though often beautiful, perform most of the menial tasks and soon lose their good looks. At places the traveller encounters quite a Homeric state of society, where war and poetry are the sole pursuits, and where the hero is seen seated in presence of the blind minstrel who extols his exploits in war or his last 'ceta' or predatory expedition to the twang of the one-stringed 'gusla'. The vendetta (for 'he who revenges himself is blessed'), which is deeply rooted in the Montenegrin notion of the unity of the family, is also occasionally prevalent.

History. In the middle of the 14th cent. Montenegro was an independent principality, and from 1499 onwards, after the flight of the last ruler of the house of Crnojević, its princes were also the highest spiritual dignitaries. Down to the 19th cent. battles and raids against their neighhours form the sole staple of the history of the people, and at a time when the whole of south-eastern Europe to the very gates of Vienna was trembling before the Turks, the Montenegrins managed to vindicate and maintain their independence. In 1687 the first 'Vladika' of the house of Petrović-Njegus assumed the government. — With the reign of Peter II. (1830-51) begins a new era in Montenegro; for that prince, himself one of the foremost Servian poets of his time, energetically devoted himself to the task of civilising his people. His successor Danilo (1852-60) separated the supreme temporal from the spiritual power, and founded an absolute principality. His nephew and successor Nicola, the present reigning prince, waged successful wars against the Turks (1861-62 and 1877-78), and by the Treaty of Berlin in 1878 not only obtained full recognition of his sovereignty, but gained an important addition to his territory, which afforded the country a long-wished-for access to the sea (Antivari-Dulcigno). Prince Nicola has the further merit of having introduced a new code of laws, and he is also known as a dramatist ('The Empress of the Balkans').

Inns exist in the chief towns only. Elsewhere travellers are dependent on private hospitality, in which case they should offer adequate gratuities (introduction desirable).

Money. Montenegro has no coinage of its own. Austrian money alone is current. As far as Cetinje paper-money is readily taken, but for the interior silver florins are requisite.

Post and Telegraph Offices, 12 of the former, 15 of the latter, in the larger towns only. Postage to Austria less than to other countries. Post-cards 2 and 3 kr. — Montenegro has postage-stamps of its own. — Good Turkish Cigarettes may be purchased at Cetinje at moderate prices.

British Chargé d'Affaires, R. J. Kennedy, Esq., at Cetinje.

The magnificent *Road to Cetinje (28 M.; a walk of about 12 hrs., or drive of 6-7 hrs.) leads from the Porta Gordicchio at Cattaro, past the village of Skaljari, and through a beautiful valley wooded with oaks. Straight at first, it afterwards ascends in windings to the (2½ M.) *'Hôtel' and Fort Trinità (758 ft.). The road straight on leads through the Župa to Budua (p. 312); to the right a path diverges to Fort Vermac (1588 ft.; a shorter way to the coast). We follow the road to the left, skirting the imposing Fort Gorazda, at first towards the S., then to the E., and cross the torrent Zvironjal. Thence a steady ascent in many windings to a (3½ M.) Guard House (2041 ft.) and the (2 M.) Montenegrin frontier (2966 ft.), indicated by slabs of stone. Thence N.E. to the top of the pass (3051 ft.), at the foot of the Lovćen, and a slight descent, past a cavern on the right, to the (1½ M.) guard-house of Zanevdo (3005 ft.), where the bridle-path (see below) joins the road. The whole route affords striking *Views of the Bocche, which resemble a lake, commanded on the N. by the Orjen (Gora Bianca; 6218 ft.), and of the Adriatic to the N.W., this scene being almost unsurpassed in Europe.

The Bridle Path from Cattaro to Cetinje (trying) leads from the Porta Fiumara on the E. side of Fort S. Giovanni, and viâ Spiljari, in sixty-six zigzags, to (3 hrs.) Zanevdo (see above), but even for walkers and riders the highroad is far preferable for the finer views it affords.

The road next leads past (1 M.) the guard-house of Kerstac, where a direct path diverges to (2 hrs.) Bajci (p. 315), to (2 M.) Njeguš (2953 ft.; tolerable Inn, one bed; landlady speaks Italian and a little German), the ancestral home of the reigning family and the cradle of the Montenegrin wars of independence. The town (1900 inhab.), situated in the old basin of a lake on the E. side of the Lovćen, consists of two parts, one with the school and the inn on the W., the other with the plain Country Residence of the Prince on the E. side. The whole character of the place is Montenegrin. At the inn strukkas, a kind of plaid with long fringes, and a peculiar kind of pouch, called torba or torbica, are offered for sale.

From Njegus the road ascends to the E. in windings to the pass of Krivačko Ždrjelo (4298 ft.), which affords a striking *View of the mountains to the N.E., towards Nikšič, and, to the S., of the Lake of Scutari and the Albanian Alps. On the right rises the Lovćen (5770 ft.), with the Chapel of St. Peter, the patron-saint of Montenegro. The road then descends towards the S., and the red houses of Cetinje soon become visible in a green basin. The cultivated floor of the valley is reached at Bajci (direct path from Kerstac, see p. 314). A drive of 2½-3 hrs. from Njegus brings us to — Cetinje (Grand Hôtel of Vuko Vuletic at the S. end, R. 1 fl. 40-1 fl. 80, B. 50 kr.; Trattoria al Kraljević Marko, with six rooms, plain; both landlords speak German), the capital of Montenegro, with 3000 inhab., residence of the Prince, and seat of his government. In some respects the place resembles a little German country town, but it has several distinctive features of its own. It may be seen in an hour, but a whole day may be pleasantly spent in observing the natives and their peculiarities.

Starting from the hotel and going through the main street, we first note the Girls' Institution on the right, founded by the Empress Maria Feodorowna of Russia; then the Post and Telegraph offices; and a little back from the street the Theatre. In the N. wing of the theatre is the Casino, with billiard and reading rooms; the S. wing is to be fitted up as a Museum of weapons, Turkish trophies, etc.

Farther to the N. are a small Church, with rock-hewn tombs, and a Monument to the warriors of 1861. On the E. side is the Hospital. We return to the main street, where modern houses are interspersed with thatched cottages, and where the representatives of foreign powers reside. On the left is the New Palace of the Prince, a pleasing white edifice (not shown; persons who obtain an audience must be in uniform or in evening-dress). The sentinels in front of it have a becoming uniform. Opposite is the Konak of Prince Mirko. A little farther to the W. is a large elm, under which the Prince occasionally administers justice. Behind the palace is the private chapel of the reigning family. On the N. side of the street is the Old Palace or Biljards, resembling a fortress, now the seat of the supreme court of justice, of the ministries, and of a grammar-school. In a side-street is the government printing-office, where the newspaper 'Glas Crnagorca' ('Voice of Montenegro') is published. — Behind the Grand Hôtel, to the left of the street, is the Public Park, with a band-stand; to the right, the Palace of the Hereditary Prince.

On a hill to the right, marked by the lofty tower of Kula, rises the Monastery of the Virgin, with its small but tasteful church. Interesting Ikonostas or altar-screen. On the right is the sarcophagus of St. Peter Petrowiš, founder of the present dynasty, popularly called 'Rade', by which the Montegrins are in the habit of binding themselves by oath. Above the monastery rises the round tower of Tabia (Turk. 'battery'), to which the skulls of fallen Turks used to be affixed. It now contains a bell which summons the devout to worship or the nation to war. Farther to the N. are the Prince's Stables, the Prison, and the Cartridge Works.

A day may be pleasantly spent in ascending the Lovčen (p. 315; 5 hrs., with guide; provisions should be taken). — No one should omit to visit Rjeka (9 M.; carr. there and back in 5 hrs., 8 fl.; Inn). The (1½ M.) Granica or Bellavista (rustic café), the boundary between the districts of Cetinje and Rjeka, commands a splendid view of the Lake of Scutari, the Albanian Mts. (the Prokletigori or 'accursed mountains', the Roman Bebii Montes), and the mountains by Antivari. The road, which begins just beyond the hospital (p. 315), cannot be mistaken. For the footpath a guide is advisable.

Longer tours in Montenegro must be made on horseback. (Horses and guides, who at Cetinje speak Italian, are almost everywhere procurable.) About 12 M. to the N.E. of Rjeka lies the little town of Podgorica, on the Moraća, the chief feeder of the Lake of Scutari. At Dukle, 1½ M. to the N., the ruins of a Roman town, supposed to be Dioclea, the birthplace of Emp. Diocletian, have lately been unearthed. The road proceeds thence viâ Spuž, Danilovgrad, and Bojetici (visit to the convent of Ostrok, to the E., in 2 hrs.), to the fortress of Nikšic (3000 inhab.). — Some little courage is required for the ascent of the Dormitor (p. 313) to the N., whence a tolerably easy pass crosses to Foča in Bosnia (where formerly the population was counted by 'rifles'), or for the ascent of the Kuckikom (p. 313) to the E. — The S. part of Montenegro, with the Lake of Scutari and Antivari, the Prince's winter-residence, may be visited either from Rjeka (see above), by crossing the lake and following a good road round the base of the Rumia Vrch (5233 ft.), or by sea (Lloyd steamers, p. 312). The town of Scútari (Turk. Skodra), for which passports must be viséd by a Turkish ambassador, is best visited from S. Giovanni di Medua (Lloyd station), or the traveller may cross the lake to it from Rjeka. In the S. part of Montenegro the government allows travellers an escort of 2-4 gensdarmes, each of whom receives 1½ fl. per day.

General Remarks. The HUNGARIAN CROWN LANDS, viz. Hungary and Transylvania, Fiume and its territory, Croatia and Slavonia, cover an area of 124,400 sq. M., with a population, according to the census of 1890, of 17,463,791. Of these inhabitants less than half (7,400,000) belong to the Hungarian or Magyar race, the other dwellers in Hungary being Roumanians (2,500,000), Germans (2,000,000), Slovakians, Ruthenians (400,000), Servians and Croats (2,500,000), Jews (725,000), and Gipsies. The Magyars dwell chiefly in the great plains on both sides of the Danube, and in the 'Szeklerland' in Transylvania; the Germans in the borderlands towards Lower Austria and Styria, in the Zips, and in the Transylvanian 'Sachsenland'; the Slovakians in the N.W., the Ruthenians in the N.E., the Croats and Servians in the S.W. and S., and the Roumanians in the S.E. districts. German, Roumanian, and Slavonic settlements are also frequently found in the midst of Magyar territory. The most singular mingling of races occurs in the S.E. regions (the former Banat), where Germans, Servians, Roumanians, Magyars, Slovakians, Bulgarians, Bohemians, Armenians, and Frenchmen dwell together. The German element is more or less present in all the Hungarian towns, but is becoming rapidly assimilated, while this process makes so little progress among the rural Germans that in some of their villages no one speaks Hungarian except the notary.

The N. portion of the country, intersected by the Carpathian Mts., and the former Banat possess mineral treasures in abundance, including rock-salt and the precious metals, as well as an inexhaustible supply of timber. The S. slopes of the Carpathians, particularly the Hegyalja near Tokaj, yield large quantities of excellent wine, while the great plains of the Danube and the Theiss stock the markets of Central Europe with their surplus produce.

Plan of Tour. Since the adoption of the Zone Tariff by the Hungarian state-railways travelling in this interesting country is no longer attended with difficulty or serious expense. Tickets for long distances are best purchased at the Vienna ticket-office of the Hungarian State Railways (p. 9), or at the railway-ticket office in the Grand Hôtel Hungaria at Budapest (p. 330).

The tariff of Zone XIV is the maximum; but after the expiry of 24 hours or if Budapest, Kelenföld, or Rákos be touched, a new ticket must be taken. The day is divided into four quarters beginning at 12 midnight, and each period of 24 hrs. is reckoned from the expiry of the quarter in which the original ticket was purchased. — Much higher tariffs prevail on the South Railway Co.'s lines from Wiener Neustadt to Nagy Kanizsa and Barcs, from Budapest to Pragerhof, etc.

Luggage Tariff. All luggage must be paid for. For a distance up to 55 kilomètres (34 M.): 1-50 kilogrammes 25 kr., 51-100 kilog. 50 kr., over 100 kilog. 1 fl.; up to 100 kilom. (62 M.): 50 kr., 1 fl., or 2 fl.; beyond 100 kilom.: 1, 2, or 4 fl.

The ordinary tourist will probably limit himself to a visit to Budapest, the descent of the Danube to Orsova, and perhaps an excursion into the Tatra Mts. The most convenient way of combining these is as follows: by steamboat from Budapest to Orsova (or partly by train, to Semlin-Belgrade, or by Temesvár to Báziás or Orsova); railway by Mehádia, Temesvár, Arad (or Grosswardein), Debreczin, Miskolcz, and Kaschau to Poprád (excursions to Schmecks and the Tatra); then either by railway to Oderberg (or from Zsolna through the Waagthal to Pressburg), or by Ruttek, Altsohl, and Losonez back to Budapest.

Debreczin, Szegedin, and the other large towns of Lower Hungary contain little to interest the traveller beyond their specific Hungarian character.

Language. The Magyar tongue belongs, like Turkish and Finnish, to the Finnish-Tartaric family (early Asiatic), and is not allied with the European or Indo-Germanic languages. An acquaintance with it is not necessary for a tour in Hungary, as German is understood at the hotels (see below) and by almost every educated person. The Hungarian names will often puzzle the stranger. The most important peculiarities of the pronunciation are: cs is pronounced like the English ch, cz like ts, ly like lyi, ny like nyi, gy like dyi, s and zs like sh, sz and ssz like s. Some of the words of most frequent occurrence are: ágy, bed; alsó, lower, under; Angol, English; ára, price; balra, to the left; Bécs, Vienna; bemenet, entrance; bor, wine (fehér bor, white wine, vörös bor, red wine); csikós, horse-boy; csordás, cow-herd; csütörtök, Thursday; czukrászda, confectioner's; dél, south; délelött, forenoon; délután, afternoon; egyház, church; ember, man; erdö, a wood; észak, north; etterem, dining-room; falva, village; fehér, white; fekete, black; fél, half; felsö, upper; fö, head; föld, earth; fürdö, bath; gulyás, cow-herd; halász, fisherman; ház, house; hegy, hill; hétfö, Monday; híd, bridge; hordár, porter; jobbra, to the right; juhász, shepherd; karúsz, swine-herd; kapu, gate; kedd, Tuesday; kérem, I beg, please; kert, garden; kimenet, exit; király, king; kis, small; kö, stone; körút, boulevard; liget, a wood; lova, horse; mezö, field; monostor, monastery; nagy, large; naponként, daily; Német, German; nö, woman; ó, old; óra, hour; Osztrák, Austrian; palota, palace; péntek, Friday; podgyász, luggage; podgyász vizsgálás, custom-house examination; sebes, quick; sétatér, promenade; só, salt; sör, beer; szálloda, hotel; számla, bill, account; szent, saint; szerda, Wednesday; sziget, island; szinház, theatre; szoba, room; szombat, Saturday; tava, tó, lake; ter, square, 'place'; tessék, pray, if you please; tilos, forbidden; Török, Turkish; uj, new; úr, sir, Mr., man; út, utcza, street, lane; vár, várad, castle; város, town; vásár, market town; vasárnap, Sunday; vendéglö, fogadó, hotel, inn; viz, water.

The accent indicates the length of the vowel, but the accentuation of the word is generally on the first syllable.

As only the Hungarian names of the railway-stations are announced, travellers ignorant of the language should apply beforehand to the guard for information.

Money (comp. p. xi). In Hungary, as in Austria, silver and paper-money are in common circulation. Gold pieces are rarely met with. The small coins are the same as in Austria, but with a Hungarian legend (korona = crown, fillér = heller, forint = florin, krajczár = Kreuzer).

Hotels. Budapest, Pressburg, Debreczin, Szegedin, Temesvar, Kaschau, and the other large towns, as well as the larger watering places and summer-resorts of Hungary contain good hotels, suited to modern requirements; and even in the country the Hungarian inns are generally tolerable. A national custom that prevails at many hotels is that of having gipsy-music every evening, often prolonged until a late hour.

Carriages for hire, except in the large towns, where the cabs have a fixed tariff, are generally owned by Jews. In case of overcharges the landlord or porter may be consulted, and as a rule a bargain should be made beforehand.

Fare to Budapest 5 fl. 50 or 3 fl. 45 kr. — Restaurant on board; table-d'hôte at 12.15 p.m., 1 fl. 20 kr. or 2 fl.

A LOCAL STEAMBOAT plying between Vienna and Pressburg usually leaves Vienna at 5 p.m. and Pressburg at 6 a.m. daily (down stream in $2^3/_4$ hrs., fare 1 fl. 50 or 1 fl. 10 kr.; up stream in 5 hrs., fare 1 fl. 20 or 85 kr.).

The right and left banks are denoted by r. and l. respectively. The names of the steamboat-stations are printed in bold type. The usual hours of arrival are given, provided the steamer starts at 7 a.m.

SCENERY. The finest is between Deutsch-Altenburg and Pressburg, between Nesmühl and Waitzen, and in nearing Budapest. The least attractive part of the route is from below Pressburg to below Komorn.

Vienna, see p. 1. The small steamer passes under the Franzens-Brücke, the bridge of the Verbindungsbahn or loop-line, the Sofien-Brücke, the Kaiser-Josefs-Brücke, and lastly the bridge of the Staatsbahn (p. 268). On the left lies the Prater, on the right rises the Weissgärberkirche (p. 62), in the district of Landstrasse. Farther on is the suburb of Erdberg, with its market-gardens. At the Pratereck, where the Danube Canal joins the main branch of the river, we embark in the large steamer.

(7.30 a.m.) L. The Lobau, the longest ($4^1/_2$ M. long, 3 M. broad) of the wooded islands which conceal the left bank. On that bank, a little inland, lie the villages of Aspern, Essling, and Wagram.

In 1809 Napoleon was master of Vienna. Half of his army had crossed by the Lobau to the left bank of the Danube, when the Austrians succeeded in burning the bridge between the right bank and the island. At the same time they attacked the villages of Aspern and Essling, positions of paramount importance occupied by the French. After a fearful carnage of two days (21st and 22nd May) the French again retired to the Lobau, which was now occupied by their whole army of 150,000 infantry, 30,000 horses, and 700 pieces of ordnance. Traces of the fortifications constructed on that occasion are still observable. From this island (Napoleon's headquarters 1st-5th July) a second passage of the Danube was effected at the beginning of July, and on the 5th and 6th of the month the memorable battle of Wagram (p. 268) was fought. The Austrians were driven back as far as Znaim (p. 261), where an armistice was shortly afterwards concluded. The Peace of Vienna was signed on 14th Oct. of the same year.

(8.10 a.m.) R. Fischamend; l. Schönau.

R. Ellend, close to the river, and Haslau. (8.25 a.m.) L. Orth (the village lies a little inland). Then, r. Regelsbrunn.

R. Petronell. The handsome château belongs to Count Traun.

(9 a.m.) R. Deutsch-Altenburg, with a castle and sulphur-baths. On a hill rises the elegant church of St. John, erected as a Romanesque basilica in 1213, and afterwards embellished with an early-Gothic choir (14th cent.) and late-Gothic vaulting. The churchyard contains a round Romanesque mortuary chapel ('Karner'), with an elaborate portal, restored in 1822. Adjacent is a mound, 62 ft. high, called the Hütelberg ('hat-hill'), which is said to have been heaped up by the people in hatfuls to commemorate the expulsion of the hated Turks. In the vicinity are remains of the Roman Carnuntum (large amphitheatre, etc.), the antiquities found in which are preserved in the museum of Deutsch-Altenburg.

(9.15) R. Hainburg (König von Ungarn; Lamm; pop. 5075), very picturesquely situated, with its old walls and towers. The Schlossberg is crowned with a large ruin; on the N. slope is the handsome Pioneer Cadet School. The Imperial Tobacco Manufactory here employs 2000 hands. The Rathhaus contains a Roman votive altar. On the Wiener-Thor is a stone figure of King Attila (?), who according to the Nibelungen-Lied once spent a night here. A rock rising abruptly from the river, below Hainburg, is crowned with the ruined castle of Rottenstein. Branch-line to Bruck, see p. 323. Hainburg and —

(9.30) L. Theben, Hungarian Dévény, form the gateway to Hungary. The March (or Morava), the boundary between Austria and Hungary, falls into the Danube at the foot of the lofty old castle of Theben, a considerable ruin, blown up by the French in 1809.

(9.55) L. Pressburg. — Hotels. *Grüner Baum (Pl. a; B, 4), R. 80 kr.-3 fl., with café-restaurant (Hr. K. v. Palugyay, the brother of the landlord, owns large and interesting wine-cellars near the station, which may be visited in the morning); Hôtel National (Pl. b; B, C, 4), Brückgasse; König von Ungarn (Pl. c; B, C, 4), at the steamboat-quay; Hirsch (Pl. f; C, 3), in the market-place, with good restaurant; Rother Ochs (Pl. d; C, 3), R. & A. 80, L. 15 kr., well spoken of; Goldne Rose (Pl. e; C, 3). — Wine at Schmidt-Hansl's, König-Ludwigs-Platz, by the Michaeler-Thor. — Beer at Wellisch's Bierhalle, Andreasgasse and Langegasse, and at Jaklitsch's, Michaeler Gasse. Café Strössner, Haupt-Platz; C. Apfel, Promenade. — Railway Restaurant.

Cabs. To the station, with one horse 60 kr., with two-horses 1 fl. 10 kr.; at night, 90 kr. or 1 fl. 65 kr. In the town, with one horse, 1/4 hr. 30 kr., each additional 1/4 hr. 20 kr.; with two horses, 1/2 hr. 60 kr., 1 hr. 1 fl. 10 kr., each additional 1/2 hr. 40 kr. — Electric Tramway from the station (Staatsbahnhof; Pl. B, C, 1) through the town to the Danube (10 kr.), and from the Marktplatz to the Neustadt (Blumenthal).

Pressburg, Hungar. Pozsony, with 52,500 inhab. (5000 Jews), formerly the capital of Hungary, where the coronation of the kings of the Hapsburg race took place, is beautifully situated on the spurs of the Little Carpathians. It consists of the inner town, or Altstadt, the Ferdinandstadt and Neustadt on the N., the Franz-Josefs-Stadt on the Danube, and the Theresienstadt to the W.

On the E. side of the Haupt-Platz (Pl. B, C, 3) in the Altstadt is the Rathhaus, begun in 1288, and frequently altered. On the first floor is the Städtische Museum (Sun. and Thurs. 9-12, for strangers on other days also by application), containing Roman and mediæval curiosities, weapons and uniforms, busts of Emp. Francis and others, a fine fountain-figure by Tilgner, etc. The wooden ceilings and the doors should be noticed. The Column of the Virgin, in front of the contiguous Jesuit church, was erected by Leopold I. in 1672, in honour of the Immaculate Conception. — In the Batthyanyi-Platz, behind the Rathhaus, is the Primatial-Gebäude (Pl. 14), the winter palace of the Primate of Hungary. — To the left of the Rathhaus is the Franciscan Church, founded in 1272, and afterwards altered (the tower rebuilt in 1897). On the N. side is the Gothic Chapel of St. John, with double crypt.

In the Landhaus, erected in 1783, now a court of justice, the Imperial diets were held from 1802 to 1848. Near it is the handsome Grassalkowich Palace, now the residence of Archduke Frederick.

The Gothic Cathedral of St. Martin (Pl. B, 3), formerly the coronation-church, begun in 1204, completed in 1445, was restored in 1861-80. The town is surmounted by a pyramid bearing a gilded Hungarian royal crown. The late-Gothic Chapel of St. Anna, in the N. aisle, dates from the 14th century. The Chapel of St. Eleemosinarius was built and decorated by Rafael Donner, who also executed the leaden equestrian statue of St. Martin, in Hungarian costume, outside the choir (1734).

At the E. end of the Promenaden-Platz is the Theatre (Pl. C, 3), built in 1886 by Fellner and Hellmer. In front of it are a pretty fountain with a figure of Ganymede and a bust of the composer Hummel, who was born at Pressburg in 1778, both by Tilgner. — To the S. on the Danube, on the coronation-hill, is the marble Monument of Maria Theresa*, by Fadrusz (1897): the empress on horseback, flanked by a Hungarian magnate and a Kurutz; on the pedestal, the inscription 'vitam et sanguinem'.

The Schlossgrund-Gasse and the Schloss-Stiegelead W. from the cathedral past the Synagogue in 6 min. to the Schlossberg (Pl. A, B, 3). A massive and imposing gateway gives access to a plateau (272 ft. above the Danube) enclosed by a wall, with the extensive ruins of the royal palace, which was burned down in 1811. Superb view from the terrace and the W. tower, embracing, to the N., the vine-clad slopes of the Little Carpathians, with the city at our feet; to the S., beyond the winding Danube, the villages of Karlsburg and Kittsee, the ruin of Wolfsthal, etc.; and to the W., Hainburg and Theben.

The iron König-Franz-Josef Bridge (Pl. C, 3), built in 1890 and traversed also by the railway to Steinamanger (see p. 328), a favourite evening-promenade, leads to the Au-Park on the right bank of the Danube, with restaurant and pleasant grounds, much frequented on summer-evenings (gnats troublesome). Open-air theatre in the Arena, a few hundred paces below the bridge. Horse-races take place annually in spring in the Engerau, farther to the S.

Another favourite excursion is that to the three Batzenhäusel, on the verge of the Gebirgs-Park (Pl. A, 1), about 1½ M. to the N.W. of the town. Best restaurant in the third Batzenhäusl.

The Environs afford many beautiful excursions. The (½ hr.) Calvarienberg, to the N., affords a fine view; descend thence to the Weidritz-Thal and (1 hr. the Eisenbründl a small mineral bath (Inn); then through beautiful woods to the (¾ hr.) Gemsenberg, the highest point of which, the Széchenyi Hill (1440 ft.), with its wooden tower, is an admirable point of view; back to the town by the Gemsgraben in 1¼ hr. more. Longer excursions to (12 M.) Marienthal, with an old abbey, now a château of Count Schaffgotsch, and to (¾ hr.) the ruin of Ballenstein, and back by the Kupferhammer and the ruin of Weissenstein to (9 M.) St. Georgen, a station on the Tyrnau railway (p. 351). To Theben (p. 326) by steamboat; ascend to the ruin and to the (1 hr.) top of the Thebner Kogel (1686 ft.; magnificent view); thence to Hainburg (p. 326), picturesquely situated on the opposite bank of the Danube, or to the latter direct from Pressburg on the right bank by Wolfsthal and the ruin of Mädchenburg.

From Pressburg to Steinamanger, see p. 391; to Tyrnau and Zsolna, see R. 62.

The steamboat passes below the Franz-Josef Bridge (p. 327). The banks of the Danube again become flat. The scenery is uninteresting, occasionally diversified by groups of mills in the water. The river is divided into several arms, which form two large islands, on the left the Grosse, and on the right the Kleine Schütt; the former is 56 M. long, 31 M. broad, and contains about a hundred villages.

(10.55) L. Körtvélyes and (11.55) Böös.

(1.5 p.m.) R. Gönyö, below the influx of the Raab. About 9½ M. to the S.W. (local steamer in 1½ hr.), lies Raab (p. 323).

R. Acs, at a distance from the river; on the hill the rich Benedictine abbey of St. Martinsberg (p. 323).

R. Neu-Szöny, or Uj-Szöny, a station of the Vienna and Budapest railway (p. 324), connected with Komorn by an iron bridge.

(2.10 p.m.) L. Komorn (König von Ungarn; Goldnes Fassl; pop. 20,000), Hung. Komárom, an ancient town on the right bank of the Waag, which here falls into the Danube, with strong fortifications, originally constructed under King Matthew Corvinus, and extended since 1805. During the last Hungarian war in 1849 the place was successfully defended by the Hungarians under Klapka, who is commemorated by a monument from Róna's designs (1896).

R. Alt-Szöny, the Brigetio of the Romans.

(2.55) L. Radvány; opposite (r.) Almás, with a warm mineral spring and marble-quarries. Nesmühl, Hung. Neszmély, is noted for its wine. The river is of imposing width.

(3.20) R. Piszke also possesses quarries of marble.

(4.10) R. Gran (Badhôtel; König von Ungarn; Drei Mohren), Hung. Esztergom, Lat. Strigonium, a town with 16,000 inhab., lies near the confluence of the Gran and the Danube, 3 M. from rail. stat. Párkány-Nána (p. 322). The huge dome of the Cathedral, resembling that of St. Peter's at Rome, rises very picturesquely on a hill 215 ft. above the Danube. This imposing edifice, in the Italian Renaissance style, was begun in 1820, under Cardinal Rudnay, Primate of Hungary, consecrated by Cardinal Szitowsky in 1856, and completed by Card. Simor. The nave is 350 ft. long, the transept 160 ft. long and 62 ft. high; the dome is 260 ft. high and 52 ft. in diameter.

The three large altar-pieces are by Grigoletti. On the high-altar, an Assumption (enlarged copy after Titian). Another altar-piece represents the baptism of St. Stephen, the first Christian king of Hungary, who founded the archbishopric of Gran in 1000. The Stefans-Capelle contains a marble statue of the same saint by Ferenczy. On the wall to the right is a marble statue of Card. Pázmány, by Della Vedova; to the left, another of Card. Simor, by Strobl. The first chapel to the right of the entrance contains the sumptuous marble monument of Archduke Karl Ambrosius, Archbishop of Gran and Primate of Hungary (d. 1809). The Bakócz Chapel, on the left, erected in another part of the town in 1507, was transferred hither in 1824. By the entrance to the crypt are statues of the Resurrection and Immortality by Schrott. The treasury (for admission apply on the previous day to the guardian of the cathedral) contains a *Mount Calvary, once the domestic altar of King Matthias Corvinus, a Florentine work preserved here since 1494, ecclesiastical vestments, etc.

At the E. base of the hill are the old Archiepiscopal Palace and the Priests' Seminary. On the W. side of the hill stands the Church of St. Ignatius, with two pointed towers, adjoining which is the imposing new Palace of the Primate, built in 1882 and containing a Museum of antiquities, paintings, engravings, etc. Near it is the Archiepiscopal Library (100,000 vols.; many incunabula and old manuscripts), shown on application to the keeper.

L. Párkány is connected with Gran by an iron bridge 1664 ft. long. Beyond this the railway (p. 322) follows the left bank.

The valley contracts, and is flanked with picturesque porphyry and limestone rocks.

(5.5) L. Gross-Maros, Hung. Nagy-Maros (railway, see p. 322). — Opposite (r.), on an abrupt rock, lies Visegrád (Slav. 'high fortress'), a castle inhabited by kings of Hungary as early as the 11th cent., and greatly embellished by Matthew Corvinus, who converted the barren rock into pleasant gardens. It was destroyed by the Turks, and the fortifications were again dismantled by Emp. Leopold. The old wall of the fortress extends down to the Danube, on which rises the lofty Salomons-Thurm. Visegrád is much frequented from Budapest as a summer-resort.

The hills recede. The Danube, turning S., now divides, forming the Andreas-Insel, 15 M. long.

(5.20) L. Verőcze. — (5.45) L. Waitzen, Hungar. Vácz (Stern; Curie; pop. 14,500), an episcopal see, with a cathedral erected in 1761-77. The episcopal palace and garden contain Roman and mediæval relics. At the upper end of the town is a triumphal arch commemorating the entry of Maria Theresa. Beside the river rises the large prison, with its Gothic church.

The banks become flatter. In the background rises the Blocksberg (p. 344); then the fortress of Ofen with the royal palace. The river now presents a busy scene, with its mills, rafts, barges, and local steamboats (p. 331).

L. Neu-Pest, in front of which extends the long quay of the Winter Harbour. The steamboat passes under the bridge of the Budapest and Gran railway.

R. Alt-Ofen (p. 345). To the W., on the slope of the Gaisberg, is the pensioners' hospital of Kleinzell, formerly a monastery.

The boat skirts the Margarethen-Insel (p. 342) and passes under the Margarethen-Brücke (p. 342). A fine view is then suddenly disclosed of the long city of Pest on the left, with its lofty palatial buildings facing the river, while Ofen rises on the right bank, crowned by the royal palace. In the background, the Blocksberg. At sunset this picture is strikingly beautiful. The steamer first touches at Ofen, then passes under the suspension-bridge, and stops on the opposite bank at —

a. Pest.

Pest (310 ft.), dependent upon Ofen and far inferior to it in importance down to the 15th cent., fell into decay during the Turkish wars in the 16th and 17th cent., and has only reached its present prosperity within the last 150 years. Since the 'Compromise' of 1867 it has been the capital of the Hungarian half of the empire, and next to Vienna it is now the most important place in the Austrian-Hungarian Empire, especially on account of its extensive grain-trade. Many handsome buildings have sprung up since the middle of this century, and extensive improvements are approaching completion. The finest part of the town adjoins the Danube, on which extends a succession of handsome buildings, 2½ M. in length. The inner town is surrounded by the Inner Ring-Strasse, viz. the Zollamts-Ring, Museums-Ring, and Karls-Ring (Vámház, Muzeum, and Károly Körút), and connected towards the N. by the Waitzner-Ring (Váczi Körút) with the Outer Ring-Strasse, 2½ M. in length, which describes a semicircle from the Margarethen-Brücke (Pl. D, 2) to the Boráros-Platz (Pl. G, 7), and is known in its successive sections as the Leopold-Ring, Theresien-Ring, Elisabeth-Ring, Joseph-Ring, and Franz-Ring (Lipót, Teréz, Erzsébet, József, and Ferencz Körút). Electric tramway, see p. 331.

On the Franz-Joseph-Platz (Ferencz József-Tér; Pl. D, 4) opposite the suspension-bridge, rises the Academy, a tasteful Renaissance edifice by Stüler (1862-64). The aim of the institution founded in 1825 by Count Stefan Széchenyi, and numbering 30 members, is to encourage the study of the Hungarian language and of science. The elegant vestibule is borne by marble columns of different colours. On the groundfloor, to the left, is the Library with 200,000 vols. (adm., see p. 332). The anteroom on the first floor contains portraits of eminent deceased members of the Academy. The room in which the Academy meets is adorned with Hungarian landscapes by Ligeti; and the board-room contains portraits and a picture by Alex. Wagner (Flight of Isabella of Transylvania). The lofty Reception Room, used on great public occasions, has a gallery borne by 24 columns of red marble, and a vaulted ceiling resting on Caryatides. The mural paintings, by Lotz, represent scenes from Hungarian history. The second and third floors are occupied by the National Picture Gallery, formerly the Esterházy Gallery, which was purchased by the state in 1865 for 1,300,000 fl. (adm., see p. 332). The collection consists of 810 pictures (including 50 Spanish; 6 Murillos), 60,000 engravings, and 3000 drawings. Catalogue 30 kr.

The Goethe Room on the Ground Floor contains portraits, books, MSS., and other objects connected with the poet (adm. Mon., Wed., & Frid., free).

In front of the Academy rises a bronze Statue of Count Stefan Széchenyi (d. 1860), by Engel, on a pedestal adorned with allegorical figures. On the E. side of the Franz-Joseph-Platz are the Erzherzog Stephan Hotel, the Police Office, the Prince of Coburg's Palace, and the Dianabad (p. 332). On the S. side is the Chamber of Commerce, with an Ionic portico, in front of which is a seated bronze statue of Franz Deák (d. 1876), the statesman, by Huszár. In the Eötvös-Platz, to the S., is a Statue of Joseph von Eötvös (d. 1871), the author and statesman, by Huszár.

The *Franz-Joseph-Quai (Ferencz József Rakpart; Pl. D, E, 5, 6), leading to the S. from the Franz-Joseph-Platz, skirts the Danube to the Custom House. This superb street (1 M. in length), to which carriages are not admitted, contains the most fashionable cafés, and is the favourite promenade in Pest. On fine summer-evenings it is thronged with a gay crowd (chair 3 kr.). This quay leads past the Exchange (Tözsde; hall with frescoes by Lotz; business-hour 12-1) to the Redouten-Park (café, see p. 331), on the E. side of which rise the large Redoute Buildings (Vigadó; Pl. D, 5; adm. on week-days 9-12 and 1-5, Sun. 9-12, 20 kr.), erected in 1862-65 by Fessl in the Romanesque-Moorish style, containing ball, concert, and other rooms, luxuriously fitted up. The staircase is adorned with frescoes from Hungarian legends by Than and Lotz. The 'Credenzsaal' is embellished with two large mural paintings: Wagner, Tournament of King Matthew; Than, Banquet of Attila.

Farther along the quay are the Hotels Hungaria and Bristol (p. 330) and the steamboat landing-place (for Vienna and Orsova). The street then skirts the shady Petöfi-Platz (Petöfi-Tér; Pl. D, E, 5), in which rises a bronze statue of the Hungarian poet Alexander Petöfi (1822-49), by Izsó and Huszár. On the farther side of the Platz is the small Greek Church, with its two towers. A few paces farther on, in the Schwur-Platz (Eskü-Tér), where Francis Joseph took the oath as king in 1867 (Schwur = oath), is the Stadt-Pfarrkirche (Pl. E, 5), or Parish Church, the oldest in Pest, built in the Gothic style in 1500, with rococo façade added in 1726. The interior was restored in 1890. At the back of it, in the Rathhaus-Platz (Városhaz-Tér), is the Alte Rathhaus, built in 1844, with a peculiar tower. In the Leopolds-Gasse (Lipót-Utcza), farther S., is the Neue Rathhaus (Pl. E, 6), built by Steindl in the early Renaissance style, with a handsome staircase and a large hall inlaid with marble (allegorical frescoes by Lotz).

The last of the new buildings on the Danube are the Custom House (Fővámház; Pl. E, F, 6), built in 1870-74 in the Renaissance style by Ybl, and the adjacent Central Market (opened in 1897). From the custom-house the Franz-Josef-Kettenbrücke (Ferencz Józsefhid) crosses the Danube to Ofen (Blocksberg, see p. 344). About $^1/_2$ M. lower down is a huge Elevator (Pl. F, 7), or corn-magazine. — To the N.E. of this point, in the Soroksárer-Gasse and the Bakáts-Platz (Pl. F, G, 7), is the new Franzstadt Church, a Romanesque edifice erected by Ybl in 1867-74, with frescoes by Than and Lotz. — Outside the town, in the continuation of the Soroksárer-Gasse (tramway, see p. 331), stands the vast Slaughter House (Köz-Vágóhid; Pl. H, 9), erected by Hennicke in 1870-72, with two colossal groups of bulls at the entrance by R. Begas.

The Inner Ring-Strasse (Pl. E, F, 6-2; p. 333) begins at the Custom House. The Zollamts-Ring leads to the Calvin-Platz (Calvin-Tér; Pl. F, 6), with its fine monumental Fountain. On the S. side is the plain Reformed Church.

Running to the S.E. from this Platz is the broad Üllöer-Strasse (Üllöi-Út; Pl. F-I, 6, 7), to the left in which (No. 28) are the University Cliniques. — Opposite, to the right (No. 33-35), is the Art-Industrial Museum (Pl. G, 6), built in 1893-97 by Lechner and Pártos in the Oriental style, with a dome, 154 ft. in height, above the centre of the chief façade. The coloured plant-ornamentation used on the exterior and in the interior is characteristically Hungarian. Adm., see p. 332.

Ground Floor. From the entrance we proceed straight on to the Court, covered with glass and containing the larger objects (altars, sculptures, etc.); on the back-wall, a fine painted choir from the church of Mezö-Csat (E. Hungary), of 1746. In the right wing, well-preserved furniture of the 17th century. — First Floor. *Faience and stoneware from Holics (1734-1832); painted wooden ceiling from Soly (17th cent.); Asiatic objects (China, Japan, etc.). H, I, 7; adm., see p. 332) and the Ludoviceum (Pl. I, 7), an academy for officers of the Honvéds, or Hungarian militia. Behind the Ludoviceum is the pleasant Orczy Garden (in the forenoon, tickets in the main building, on the right; in the afternoon, entrance by the Ludoviceum Utcza). At the end of the Üllöi-Út, on the right, $1^3/_4$ M. from the Calvin-Platz, are the two large municipal Infirmaries (Kórház; Pl. I, 8), and $^2/_3$ M. farther on, to the left, the Volksgarten (Népliget).

To the N.E. of the Calvin-Platz, in the MUSEUMS-RING, rises the National Museum (Nemzeti Muzeum; Pl. F, 5, 6), built in 1836-44 by M. Pollak, with a Corinthian portico. This building contains a library, the chief scientific collections of the city, and a gallery of modern paintings. On the staircase are allegorical frescoes by M. Than and a frieze by Lotz, both representing the development of culture in Hungary. The reception-room, at present the meeting-room of the Hungarian House of Magnates (parliamentary upper chamber), contains a large painting by Munkácsy: King Arpád taking possession of the country in 896. The entrance to the museum is on the N. side, to the left; that to the collections on the second floor is to the left, in the centre of the court. Admission, see p. 332.

In front of the steps leading to the museum is the seated bronze Statue of Johann Arany (d. 1882), the poet, by Strobl (1893). The garden contains bronze busts of Berzsényi, Kisfaludy, Kazinczy, and other Hungarian poets. In the adjoining 'Magnates' Quarter' are the handsome palace of Count Wenckheim (Baross-Gasse), the mansion of Count Károlyi, in the French Renaissance style (Universitätsgasse), and the houses of other Hungarian magnates (Esterházy, Festetics, etc.). — In the Universitäts-Platz (Egyetem-Tér; Pl. E, F, 5, 6) rise the University (under restoration), transferred to Pest from Tyrnau by Maria Theresa in 1780, and the University Church. The handsome Renaissance edifice containing the University Library (220,000 vols.; adm., see p. 332) lies to the N.W., in the Franziskaner-Platz (Ferenczieck-Tér; Pl. E, 5). — In the Sándor-Gasse, opposite the National Museum, is the House of Representatives (Országház; Pl. F, 5; cards of admission to the meetings obtainable in the forenoon at the office), erected by Ybl in 1866. Near it are the Polytechnic School (Museums-Ring 6) and the Physiological Institute, in the Esterházy-Gasse.

In the Kerepeser-Strasse (Pl. F, H, 5, 4) is the National Theatre (p. 332), plain externally, but well fitted up; and farther on, at the point of intersection with the Outer Ring-Strasse (p. 333), is the Hungarian Volks-Theater (p. 332), built by Fellner and Hellmer. Nearly opposite the last, at the corner of the Joseph-Ring and the Volkstheater-Gasse, is the Industrial School (built in 1892), containing the Technological Museum (unimportant; adm., see p. 332). At Kerepeser-Str. 22, on the first floor, is the Bazaar of Domestic Industries, belonging to the Museum of Commerce, containing objects for domestic use (on sale). Adjacent (No. 20) is the Information Office of the Commercial Museum, where information on commercial points may be obtained (gratis). — At the end of the street (1 M. from the Museums-Ring) is a monument to Baross (d. 1892), minister of commerce and introducer of the 'zone-tariff' (p. 319). Straight in front is the large East Station of the Hungarian state-railways (Pl. H, I, 4; p. 330); to the left the Rottenbiller-Gasse leads to the Veterinary Institute (M. K. Allatorvosi Akademia; Pl. H, 3) and the Roman Catholic church of St. Elizabeth, completed in 1898 from Steindl's designs; and to the right the Friedhof-Strasse (tramway) leads to the large Cemetery (Köztemetö; Pl. I, K, 4, 5), with monuments of Count Louis Batthyány, Franz Deák, L. Kossuth, etc.

We return to the Inner Ring-Strasse. In the Tabaksgasse (Dohány-Utcza), near the Karls-Ring (Károly-Körút), is the Synagogue (Pl. F, 5), a modern Moorish building in brick, by Förster. Near it, in the Rombach-Gasse, is the Orthodox Synagogue (Pl. E, F, 4), in the Moorish-Byzantine style, built by Wagner and Kallina in 1872. Farther on in the Karls-Ring is the large Karls-Kaserne (Károly-Laktanya; Pl. E, 5), the old Pensioners' Hospital, erected by Emp. Charles VI., with its chief façade towards the Grenadier-Gasse (Gránátos-Utcza), in the Renaissance style, by Martinelli.

At the corner of Koronaherczeg-Strasse and Zsibárus-Strasse stands the imposing Post and Telegraph Office (p. 331), with a rich Renaissance façade, by Skalnitzky and Koch. We now cross the Serviten-Platz (Szervita-Tér) and the Deák-Platz, with the Protestant Church, to the Elisabeth-Platz (Erzsébet-Tér; Pl. E, 4) with its pretty pleasure-grounds and its Kiosque, decorated with frescoes by Than and Lotz. In the neighbouring Joseph-Platz (Pl. D, 4) rises a bronze Statue of Archduke Joseph, Palatine of Hungary from 1796 to 1847, erected i 1869 from a design by Halbig. — The Palatin-Gasse (Nádor-Utcza) leads hence to the N. to the Széchenyi Promenade (Pl. D, E, 4), where on the site of the Neugebäude (pulled down in 1898) a new Town Hall is under construction, and terminates in a large open space, laid out in gardens. On the W. side of this space rises the —

New Parliament House (Uj Országház; Pl. D, 3), a huge sandstone edifice in the Gothic style, designed by Steindl, covering an area of $3^3/_4$ acres and surmounted by a central dome, 350 ft. in height. This building (interior still unfinished) will accommodate both the House of Representatives and the House of Magnates. In the interior (adm. 1 fl., Sat., 10-1, 50 kr.) at present are shown the staircase, lavishly decorated with marble and gold (ceiling-paintings by Lotz) and the throne-room, with 16 pillars preceded by coloured bronze statues of Hungarian kings. — Opposite, to the E., is the Kuria (Magyar Királyi Curia; the supreme court of law), a noble Renaissance building from Hauszmann's designs. Above the portico with its six columns, is a chariot with three horses and a figure of Justice, by Sennyei. The magnificent staircase is embellished with another figure of Justice, by Strobl, and with ceiling-paintings by Lotz. — To the right of the Kurie is the building for the Ministries of Agriculture and Justice (Földmivelésügyi and Igazsagügyi Ministerium). — On the left side of the Konstitutionsgasse (Alkotmány Utcza; Pl. E, 3) are the Law Courts (Törvényszéki Polata), including a handsome Jury Court-room, adorned with frescoes by Feszty, and a large prison. Adjacent (No. 24) is the office of the Journalists' Pension Fund.

At the N. end of the WAITZNER-RING (Váczi-Körút; Pl. E, 2-4) is the West Station (Pl. E, F, 2; p. 330). A little to the S. rises the Leopoldstadt Basilica (Pl. E, 4), a Romanesque church with a dome 315 ft. in height, begun in 1851 by Hild, continued by Ybl (d. 1891), but not yet completed. — To the E., straight to the Stadtwäldchen, runs the *ANDRÁSSY-STRASSE (Pl. E-H, 4-2), $1^1/_2$ M. long, flanked with handsome edifices resembling those in the Ring-Strasse at Vienna (underground railway, see p. 331). On the left side of this street rises the superb Opera House (Pl. E, 4), built in 1875-84 in the Italian Renaissance style by Ybl, and on the right are the Offices of the Hungarian state-railway. At the octagon, where it intersects the Outer Ring-Strasse (p. 333), the Andrássy-Strasse attains a width of 150 ft. Farther on, to the right, are the Academy of Music (Zeneakadémia), the old Künstlerhaus (Mücsarnok; No. 69), in the Italian Renaissance style by Lang containing a waxwork exhibition; adm. 20 kr.), and the National Drawing School with a tasteful façade by Rauscher, ornamented with sgraffiti. The street now expands into the Rondeau (Körönd; Pl. G, 2). The last part of the street is flanked with villas and gardens, and at the end, to the right, rises the Neue Künstlerhaus (Új Mücsarnok), built in 1894, where exhibitions of art are held (from 1st Dec. to 15th Jan. for Hungarian artists only; international exhibition from 15th April to 15th June; adm. 50 kr., Sun. afternoons 20 kr.). Near it a Millennium Monument is in progress.

The Stadtwäldchen (Városliget; Pl. H, I, 1, 2; electric and underground railways, see p. 331), laid out in 1797 and covering about 286 acres, is a favourite resort on Sunday afternoons (Café-Restaurant; military music). The large pond (Nagy Tó) in the N. part of the park is used for boating in summer and skating in winter. On the Széchenyi-Insel (Széchenyi-Sziget) is the *ROYAL AGRICULTURAL MUSEUM (Magyar Királyi Mezögazdasági-Muzeum; adm., see p. 332), installed in the Romanesque, Gothic, and Renaissance buildings of the Millennium Exhibition of 1896.

Gothic Building. Hunting, forestry, fishing, cattle-rearing (clever figures of animals by Vastagh), dairy. First Floor: Cultivation of agricultural plants, horticulture, rearing of bees and poultry. — Renaissance Building. Ground Floor: statistics, historical section, keeping of silk-worms, models of machines and buildings, cultivation of beetroot for sugar, mills. First Floor: Government estates, knowledge of the soil, water-works, cultivation of the vine. Bronze group of Count Széchenyi and Vásárhelyi, the engineer. — Romanesque Building. Office of the director.

To the E. of the Agricultural Museum are the Commercial Museum (adm., see p. 332), an industrial exhibition on a smaller scale, and the Museum of Traffic. Alt-Ofen (Ös-Budavár), another relic of the exhibition of 1896, is the scene of concerts (in summer), a theatre of varieties, etc. Near the pond are the Artesian Bath, a number of Booths like those in the Wurstel-Prater at Vienna (p. 72), and the Zoological Garden (Allatkert; adm., see p. 332; restaurant).

The Hungarian diets from the 10th to the 14th cent. were held in the open air in the Rákosfeld, an extensive plain to the E. of the town, where 100,000 men are said frequently to have assembled on these occasions. A visit to the village of Rákos Palota (electric tramway, see p. 331), with a pleasant grove of acacias, is recommended on Sun. afternoons.

In the Danube, at the upper end of the town, is the Margarethen-Insel (Margit-Sziget; Pl. C, D, 1), the property of Archduke Joseph, who has converted it, at an outlay of several million florins, into a most delightful park. Approach by the Margarethen-Brücke, see below. The steamboats (p. 331; return-tickets 20, on Sun. and holidays 40 kr.) call both at the upper and the lower end of the island. Near the lower landing-place is a *Restaurant, where a military band plays on Sun. and Thurs. evenings in summer. A tramway runs hence in 10 min. (fare 10 kr.) along the W. side of the island, chiefly through trees (with glimpses of Ofen to the left), to the ($1^1/_2$ M.) artesian well at the upper end, opposite Alt-Ofen (p. 341). This well yields warm sulphureous water (110° Fahr.), used both for drinking and bathing, and an elegant Bath House (Margarethen-Bad), by Ybl, has been erected here. The superfluous water falls into a pond in a pretty cascade. Near it are two hotels, a number of villas for the reception of patients, and a favourite restaurant (gipsy-music daily in summer).

b. Ofen (Buda)

is connected with Pest by means of two suspension-bridges, an iron bridge on arches, and a railway-bridge, while a fifth bridge opposite the Schwur-Platz is now being constructed. The imposing Suspension Bridge (Láncz-Hid; Pl. C, D, 4), constructed by the English engineers Tiernay and Adam Clark in 1840-49, is one of the largest in Europe. The chains rest on two pillars, 160 ft. high. Total length 410 yds., breadth 39 ft., height above the mean level of the water 36 ft. At the ends are four colossal lions in stone. — Toll for foot-passengers (keep to the right), from Pest to Ofen only, 2 kr.; for carriages, see p. 331.

The iron Margarethen-Brücke (Margit-Hid; Pl. C, D, 1, 2), 620 yds. long, at the upper end of the town, just below the Margarethen-Insel, was constructed in 1872-76 in the form of an obtuse angle pointing up-stream. On each side are three openings; the roadway is 60 ft. above the mean level of the river. The electric tramway crosses this bridge. From the apex of the angle a new junction-bridge leads to the Margarethen-Insel. — The Franz Josef-Brücke (Ferencz József-Hid; Pl. E, 6) was constructed in 1895-96; it is 362 yds. long and is borne by two piers in the stream. Charming view of the city and river. — The Railway Junction Bridge (Összeköttö Vasúti-Hid; Pl. F, G, 9), below the Custom House, spans the river in four arches, and has a footway for the use of the public on each side.

The Tunnel (383 yds. long) which pierces the castle-hill opposite the suspension-bridge, constructed by Adam Clark (1854), connects the Christinenstadt and the S. Railway Station with the river (toll 2 kr.; cabs, see p. 331).

Ofen was once a Roman colony (Aquincum, p. 345), the capital of Lower Pannonia, and headquarters of the only Roman legion (Prima Adjutrix) in that province. Numerous antiquities of that period have been found here. Ofen was destroyed by the Mongols in 1241 but was rebuilt by King Bela IV., who in 1247 erected the royal palace, which from 1351 down to the first conquest of Pest by the Turks after the Battle of Mohács in 1526 was the residence of the kings of Hungary. Sultan Soliman captured Ofen in 1541, garrisoned it with 12,000 janizaries, and made it the seat of a vizier. It remained for nearly 150 years in the hands of the Turks, who were at length expelled by the allied Germans under Charles of Lorraine and Lewis of Baden in 1686. The majority of the population is German.

The old Fortress (about 230 ft. above the Danube), with the large royal palace, crowns the summit of a hill on and around which the town is built. To the left of the entrance to the tunnel is the station of the Cable Tramway. Car every 5 min., ascending in 1 min. to the terminus near the Hentzi Monument in the Georgs-Platz (Szent György-Tér; Pl. C, 5; fine view; fare, there and back, 1st cl. 8, 2nd cl. 6 kr.).

The most frequented carriage-road to the fortress is the Albrechts-Strasse, which ascends to the right from the bridge in windings to the Georgs-Platz, 20 min. from the bridge. (A longer road leading down the Danube to the left from the bridge, and round the castle-hill, enters the fortress by the Burgthor on the S. side.)

The Hentzi Monument, to the memory of the general of that name and 418 soldiers who fell while defending the fortress against the Hungarians in 1849, is a Gothic column in bronze, 66 ft. in height, rising over a group of the dying hero crowned by victory. This monument is to be removed to make room for a monument to Empress Elizabeth (d. 1898). — On the S. side of the Georgs-Platz, to the right, are the Ministry of National Defence (Honvédelmi Ministerium) and the unpretending Palace of the Minister President.

The Royal Palace (Király Palota; Pl. C, 5; shown, in absence of the court, on week-days 9-12 and 2-6, on application to the castellan), erected by Maria Theresa in 1748-71, and partly burned down in 1849, has been restored in a more imposing style, and is now being greatly extended after Ybl's and Hauszmann's plans (850 rooms; 659 in the new portion). The opening of the Hungarian Diet takes place in the throne-room. The Hungarian regalia (crown of St. Stephen, sceptre, orb, sword, coronation-robes, etc.) are kept in a chapel in the left wing (not shown). The palace-garden (open to the public), commanding a beautiful view of Pest, extends down to the river. At the foot of it is the Palace Bazaar; in front of it, on the quay, with its pleasure-grounds (café), a bronze statue of Ybl (d. 1891), the architect, was erected in 1896.

From the Georgs-Platz we proceed to the N. to the Parade-Platz (Dísz-Tér; Pl. C, 4), in which the tasteful Honvéd Monument, by G. Zala, was unveiled in 1893 in memory of the Hungarian struggle for independence in 1848-49. — A little farther on is the Haupt-Platz or Dreifaltigkeits-Platz (Szent Háromság-Tér; Pl. B, 4). Here, on the left, is the Town Hall of Ofen; on the right rises the Matthias-Kirche, commenced by King Bela IV. in the 13th cent. in the Romanesque style, and completed in the 15th cent. in the Gothic style. It was used as a mosque during the Turkish domination, and was thoroughly restored in 1890-96 from plans by Schulek, on which occasion the tower (260 ft. high) was entirely rebuilt. In the gaudily painted interior, to the right of the principal entrance, is the coat-of-arms of King Matthias Corvinus (15th cent.; restored). King Francis Joseph and Queen Elizabeth were crowned in this church in 1867. — Below the church, towards the Danube, are the Staats-Gymnasium, a fine Renaissance building, and the Realschule, in the Gothic style. Farther N.W., in the Ferdinands-Platz (Nándor-Tér; Pl. B, 3), rises the Garrison Church, a Gothic building of the 13th century. We now return to the Georgs-Platz by the W. Bastei Promenade, which commands the Christinenstadt, the Raitzenstadt, and the Ofen Hills. In the Christinenstadt we observe the Teachers' Seminary (Tanitó Kézepede), containing the National Educational Museum (adm., see p. 332), the South Station, adjoined by the large Garrison Hospital, and, more to the left, the Christinenstadt Church, with its new tower.

At the foot of the Blocksberg rise powerful chalybeate and sulphureous hot springs (108-113° Fahr.), which are mostly used for baths. The Bruckbad (Rudas-Fürdö; Pl. D, 6), a vapour-bath, with a remarkable rotunda borne by eight columns of the Turkish period over a basin into which the thermal spring flows, restored in 1831 and connected in 1895 with a covered swimming-bath in a side-building, belongs to the town. Near this, No. 6 Döbrenteigasse, lies the Raitzenbad (Rácz-Fürdö), used as early as the reign of Matthew Corvinus, restored and well fitted up in 1860, with swimming-bath. — At the S. base of the Blocksberg rise the famous Hunyady-Janos, Franz-Josef, Apenta, and other mineral springs. Here also is the Elisabeth Salzbad (Erzsébet Fürdö; Pl. C, 9).

A footpath ascends from the Bruckbad in numerous windings to the (20 min.) Blocksberg (St. Gerhardsberg, Hung. Szent Gellérthegy; Pl. C, D, 6, 7), an abrupt dolomitic hill (770 ft., 394 ft. above the Danube). Mountain-railway projected. At the top is the former Citadel (about to be pulled down) and a restaurant. Beautiful *View of both the towns, the winding river, and the wide plain (best light in the afternoon). Below the top is the Restaurant Gellérthegy Kiosk, also with view.

At the N. end of the town, on the road to Alt-Ofen (see below), 40 minutes' walk from the chain-bridge (electric tram in 10 min.), lies the Kaiserbad (Császár Fürdö; Pl. C, 1), the most frequented of the Ofen sulphur-baths, a vapour-bath dating from the Turkish period. The temperature of the ten springs varies from 80° to 150° Fahr. Large swimming-basins for gentlemen and ladies. The café, colonnades, and gardens, where a band frequently plays in summer, are a very favourite resort. The adjacent St. Lucasbad (Lukács Fürdö; Hotel, see p. 330) is also elegantly fitted up, with swimming-basin, mud-baths, hydropathic, and concert-garden. Tramway and steamboat to Pest, see p. 331.

On a hill, 6 min. walk from the Kaiserbad, within the precincts of a large unfinished villa, is the Turkish Chapel, a small octagonal building, 25 ft. high, erected over the grave of the Shêkh Gül-Baba ('father of roses'), a Turkish 'santon' or monk. The obligation to preserve this monument forms a special article in the Peace of Karlowitz, concluded between the Emperor and the Porte in 1699.

The Wharves of the Danube Steamboat Co. at Alt-Ofen (p. 329) may also be visited (adm. 10 kr.). Permission obtained at the building to the left of the entrance (electric tramway and steamboat from Pest and electric tramway from Ofen).

A little to the N. of Alt-Ofen numerous remains of the Roman colony of Aquincum (p. 343) have been preserved (electric tramway, see p. 331). Among these are the foundations of a castrum, baths, a temple of Mithras, and a mosaic pavement representing gladiatorial combats. The objects are preserved in a small Museum. A few min. farther N., passing under the railway and through a wooden gate to the left, we reach the tolerably well preserved foundations of an Amphitheatre, whence a path leads past the fragments of a Roman aqueduct to the (20 min.) Römerbad (station of the electric tramway), with a good inn and shady garden.

A more extensive survey is obtained from the Schwabenberg (Svâb-Hegy; 1463 ft.), to the W. of Ofen, said to be so called from the Swabian troops encamped here at the time of the expulsion of the Turks in 1685. Its villas and restaurants are favourite resorts in summer. Electric tramway from the Károlyi-Körut (16 kr.) or from the suspension-bridge (10 kr.) to the station of the Zahnradbahn (rack-and-pinion railway), which ascends to the top of the Schwabenberg in 20 min. (April to Oct.; hours vary; enquire at the hotel or of the tramway-officials; there and back 40, Sun. 60 kr.). This is a charming drive (fine views to the right), latterly through oak-plantations. At the top, adjoining the terminus, is the Hôtel-Restaurant Schwabenberg (view). About 7 min. to the S.E. (follow the path straight on, then to the left) are the pleasant grounds on the Széchenyiberg, with a bronze bust of Count Széchenyi, and 2 min. farther up a hillock commanding an admirable *View (practically the same as from the balcony of the restaurant in the former Villa Eötvös, 5 min. from the station): at our feet lie the two towns with their sea of houses, above which the Blocksberg and the castle-hill seem scarcely to rise; to the right we see far down the Danube; to the S.E. stretches the vast plain; on the left are the Margarethen-Insel, Neu-Pest, and the Danube up to Waitzen; nearer rises the Johannisberg; below in the valley is the National Lunatic Asylum; in the background to the N.E., the Mátra Mountains. — From the Széchenyiberg we return to the railway-terminus (p. 345) and follow the road straight on, diverging at a finger-post ('Normafa-ut') to the (1/2 hr.) Norma-Baum, an ancient beech-tree (*View), whence we may either descend to (1/2 hr.) Auwinkel (see below), or continue along the hill to the (3/4 hr.) Johannisberg (János-Hegy; 1735 ft.; restaurant), with a belvedere commanding a wide prospect. Thence we may return to Pest viâ Auwinkel (Zugliget; electric tramway, see p. 331), a pleasant dale on the N. slope of the Schwabenberg, with villas and hotels (Saukopf; Fasan; Schöne Helena; Hirsch; Franzenshöhe), much frequented in summer.

The vineyards of Ofen yield excellent wine, of which Adlerberger (not Adelsberger) is the most esteemed.

To the S. is a modern château, sometimes called the Jungfern-Schloss, now used as a fire-watch tower. Schemnitz is the seat of a famous mining and forestry academy, which attracted many German and foreign students until Hungarian took the place of German as the language of tuition. (Valuable archives and cabinet of minerals.) The miners in the middle ages were chiefly Germans, the mines having been worked by the Fuggers under Ferdinand I., but are now almost exclusively Slovakians. The yield of the mines, some of which extend under the town, is still considerable (1½ million fl. per annum), although small compared with its former value. A visit to them is interesting and easy (permission at the office). The longest shaft ('Kaiser-Josef II.-Erbstollen') is 10 M. in length. Minerals 77 M. Trencsin, Hung. Trencsén (Lamm; Stern; Scheibner; Stark; pop. 5200), capital of the county of that name, on the left bank of the Waag, is commanded by the ruins of an old fortress. The castle-well, 590 ft. deep, was hewn in the rock by Turkish prisoners. The tower, 108 ft. in height, commands a beautiful view. Interesting Piarist Church. The Gothic Parish Church of the 14th cent. (altered in 1528), to which a covered flight of 122 steps ascends, contains the fine monument of a Count Illésházy (d. 1648; an alabaster statue in a niche of black marble). Opposite the town, on the right bank of the Waag, is a ruined church, and farther on is the semi-ruined monastery of Skalka (carr. 2 fl.).

82 M. Trencsin-Teplicz, Hung. Tepla-Trencsén-Teplitz (Hôtel Teplicz; numerous lodging-houses and private apartments), with warm lime and sulphur springs (117-126° Fahr.), lies in a fine mountainous region, 1 M. from the station (omnibus 40 kr.; cab 1 fl.). Good baths, especially in the luxurious Hammam. Curhaus with café-restaurant. The season lasts from May 1st to Sept. 30th. — Railway to Bisenz and Brünn, see p. 267.

The next place in the valley of the Waag is Dubnicz, with a château of Count D'Harcourt. 89 1/2 M. Illava, with a large castle used as a prison. Fine view of the valley. To the left, Pruskau.

or Pruszka, with a château of Count Königsegg; on a bold rock in the distance, the picturesque ruin of Oroszlánkö or Löwenstein. 94½ M. Bellus; 99 M. Puchó-Kocskócz. To the left, just before reaching (106 M.) Vág-Beszterce, we see the finely-situated château of Orlove, belonging to Prince Hohenlohe; and just beyond it, also on the left, is the ruin of Vág-Podhrad, with a modern château below. At (115½ M.) Nagy Bicse-Predmér, to the right, opens the romantic Szulyov Valley*, with its curious castellated rocks (a pleasant excursion of 5-6 hrs. by carriage). 120½ M. Hricsó. At Marczeg the valley suddenly turns to the S.E. (to the right, in the distance, the ruin of Ljetava; to the left, Schloss Budatin).

Return-tickets at reduced rates (2nd cl. 6, 3rd. cl. 4 fl.) available for 14 days are issued on Sat., Sun., and holidays in summer from Oderberg and Teschen to Csorba and Poprád (p. 355). Best views to the right between Jablunkau and Ruttka; thereafter to the left.

Oderberg, see p. 277. We diverge to the S.E. from the Vienna line (R. 48), and traverse a wooded hill-district, the N. spurs of the Beskid Mts. 8 M. Dombrau; 10½ M. Karwin (Rail. Restaurant), with a château of Count Larisch and large coal-mines; 12½ M. Darkau, with iodine and salt baths.

20 M. Teschen (1010 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Hirsch; Hôt. Schreinzer; Ochs; pop. 15,100), a thriving town, situated on a hill on the right bank of the Olsa, formerly the capital of the duchy of that name, is now the chief town in E. Silesia. The peace between Prussia and Austria, at the end of the Bavarian War of Succession in 1799, was concluded here. Spinning, weaving, and furniture-making are the chief industries. Observe the model houses of the workmen. Of the old castle of the 12th cent. a huge tower is still standing. Handsome modern château of Archduke Frederick, with a fine garden.

Teschen is the junction of the Kaiser-Ferdinands-Nordbahn: S.W. to (76 M.) Hullein (p. 275); and N.W. to Bielitz, Kalwarya, Skawina, and (85½ M.) Podgórze-Cracow (p. 279).

63 M. Zsolna, Ger. Sillein (1180 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; pop. 3800), a small and ancient town on the left bank of the Waag, once an important centre of the Hungarian wine-trade with Poland, contains a government salt-depot and several factories. About 1 M. to the N.W. are the ruins of Budatin, with a park and a tower (view).

To Tyrnau and Pressburg, see R. 62; to Saybusch, see p. 290. — To the S. (8½ M.; a drive of 1½ hr., passing the considerable ruin of Ljetava), in the picturesque Sitlinka Valley, is the thriving watering-place of Rajecz-Teplicz (1380 ft.; good accommodation in the bath-houses), with warm alum-springs (97-103°).

We cross the Waag. 68 M. Várna, Ger. Varin, 9 M. from Tyerchova, at the mouth of the wild Vratna Ravine. The valley contracts so as barely to leave room for river, road, and rail. On a bold rock to the right is the ruin of Sztrecsnó, to the left that of Óvár. The rapids of the river here are often dangerous to rafts. Beyond a tunnel we enter the romantic Defile of Sztrecsnó, 3 M. long, in which the Waag forces its passage through the Fátra Mts., and next reach (76½ M.) Ruttka, Ger. Ruttek (1260 ft.; Rail. Restaurant), junction of the Altsohl and Budapest line (R. 60), picturesquely situated at the confluence of the turbulent Turócz and the Waag.

79½ M. Szucsány, 6 M. to the S. of which is the château of Scsavinik. Beyond (81½ M.) Turán we thread a tunnel at the beginning of the Hradisko Pass and reach (87½ M.) Kralován, at the mouth of the valley of the Arva. On a lofty rock, 9 M. to the N.E., is the handsome, well-preserved castle of Arva. — 90½ M. Fenyöháza. — 99 M. Rózsahegy, Ger. Rosenberg (1628 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Kraliczek's Inn; pop. 3250), a small town, with a Piarist school on a hill above it. To the N., on the hillside, the ruins of Likava and the Liszkova Cavern.

The mineral-baths of Koritnicza, 9 M. to the S. (carr. 4-5 fl., omn. 1 fl. 60 kr.), a cure for ailments of the liver and stomach, are prettily situated. (R. 60 kr.-4 fl. 50 kr. per day.)

At (104½ M.) Liptó-Tepla a view is disclosed of the chief summits of the Central Carpathians. 113 M. Liptó Szent Miklós (1890 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Adler), capital of the county of Liptau and seat of a Protestant bishop, has leather-factories. To the S. rise the Poludnicza (5086 ft.) and, farther off, the Djumbir (see below), the highest summit of the Niedere Tatra. Road to the Deménfulva Grotto, 6 M. (see below; carr. in 1¼ hr., there and back 3 fl.).

120 M. Hradek, or Liptó-Ujvár (2090 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Hôtel Brüll, R. 80 kr.-1 fl.), at the confluence of the rapid Bela and the Waag, with a ruined castle and a school of forestry. Fine view here of the Hohe Tatra, with the Kriván (p. 362).

Splendid day's excursion (guide 2 fl.) by Szent Iván (Inn) and through the Stiavnica Valley (good accommodation at the house of the keeper, at the upper end), by a good path, to the (5-6 hrs.) top of the *Djumbir, Hung. Gyömbér (6710 ft.), which affords a fine survey of the W. Carpathians. Then down through the romantic Demanova Valley to the (3 hrs.) refuge hut of the Carpathian Club (good quarters), near the (¼ hr.) interesting Deménfalva Cavern, with its fine ice-formations and stalactites. Thence to (2 hrs.) Liptó Szent-Miklós (see above).

A tolerable road unites Liptó-Ujvár with (2 hrs.) Kokava (2710 ft.; Inn; guides), a small village on the left bank of the Bela, whence a footpath proceeds to the (2 hrs.) forester's house of Pod Bansko (3190 ft.; rustic accommodation), a starting-point for excursions in the W. part of the Hohe Tatra, about 10 M. (bridle-path) from the Lake of Csorba (p. 362). From Pod Bansko viâ the Tycha Valley to Zakopane, 7 hrs., see p. 366.

The line skirts the S. base of the Tatra, the wild serrated ridges and peaks of which are most picturesque. 123 M. Király-Lehota, at the confluence of the Weisse and the Schwarze Waag; 129½ M. Vychodna (2540 ft.; ascent of the Kriván, see p. 362); 133½ M. Vágfalva. The line crosses the watershed between the Waag and the Popper (i.e. between the Baltic and the Black Sea) at (137½ M.) Csorba (2946 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; rack-and-pinion railway to the Lake of Csorba, see p. 362). — 142 M. Lucsivna Fürdö, or Bad Lucsivna (2605 ft.), with a park of Hr. von Szakmáry and a Hydropathic, in the valley of the Popper (to the Mengsdorf Valley, see p. 363); 1 M. to the S.E. is the village of Lucsivna, Ger. Lautschburg (2517 ft.; Inn); 144½ M. Batizfalu, 3 M. to the E. of the village. Fine view of the tapering Končysta (8320 ft.) and the Gerlsdorfer Spitze (8737 ft.), the highest of the Tatra.

National*, both at the station and well spoken of; Zum Schützen, in the town), is one of the sixteen free Zips towns founded by 'Saxon' immigrants in the 12th cent., which still retain their German language and character, although they lost their political privileges in 1875. The Museum of the Carpathian Society is worth a visit. Poprád is the station for Schmecks (p. 359) and a good starting-point for excursions to the Hohe and Niedere Tatra.

About 1 M. to the N.E. of Poprád, on the line to Pudlein (p. 356), lies Georgenberg (Park Gréb, with extensive grounds, baths, etc., R. 40 kr.-1 fl., board 1 fl.), a summer-resort. At Felka and Gross-Schlagendorf are also good inns for summer-quarters (see p. 359).

A road leads to the S. to (3 M.) Blumenthal, Hung. Virágvölgy (2460 ft.; several lodging-houses, R. 1 fl.-1 fl. 20 kr.), a prettily situated summer resort; thence a walk of ¾ hr. to the S.E. through beautiful woods to the Belvedere (3025 ft.) of the Carpathian Club, which commands a magnificent panorama of the Tatra Mts. — About 3 M. to the S.E. of Poprád are the hot lime-water baths of Gánócz (2067 ft.; Hôtel). — A very enjoyable day's excursion may be made from Poprád to the Ice Cavern of Dobschau, in the valley of Straczena, 19 M. to the S. The road (carr. and pair in 4½ hrs., 8-10 fl. there and back) leads viâ Blumenthal (see above), Grenicz, and Vernar (2470 ft.; Inn) to the Popova Saddle (3415 ft.), whence it descends to the Pustapole Inn (2950 ft.), at the foot of the massive Königsberg or Kralova Hola (6375 ft.; fine view), which may be ascended hence in 4 hrs. (also on horseback; descent to Telgart, in 2½-3 hrs.). Thence we proceed viâ Telgart (2890 ft.; Inn) to the Inn zur Eishöhle, 1 M. from the entrance to the cavern (see p. 372).

From Poprád to Pudlein, 20½ M., railway in 2 hrs. (fares 1 fl. 40, 1 fl. 2, 65 kr.). — The line diverges to the N.E. from the Oderberg and Kaschau railway, and descends the valley of the Popper. 1¼ M. Georgenberg, Hung. Szepes-Szombat (see p. 355); 3½ M. Matzdorf, Hung. Matheócz. 6 M. Gross-Lomnitz, Hung. Nagy-Lomnicz, is the junction for Tatra-Lomnitz (p. 363; 4½ M., in ¾ hr.). 7½ M. Hunsdorf, Hung. Hunfalu. — 9½ M. Kesmark (2054 ft.; Hôt. Kesmark*; Hôt. Meese. with garden and veranda; Hôt. Central), prettily situated on the Popper, is one of the oldest towns in Hungary, having been a 'royal free town' since 1380. The old parish-church Zum Heiligen Kreuz (15th cent.) contains fine carved altars. New Prot. church built by Hansen (1894); interesting old timber Prot. church. The chapel of the old Tökölyi château is worthy of a visit. The Jerusalem, a hill ½ M. to the N.E. of the town, with remains of very ancient fortifications, affords a good survey of the E. Tatra. The linen-factories of Kesmark are of some importance. — To the N.W. (2½ M.), in the Weisswasserthal, is Tátraháza (2250 ft.; Inn*, R. 60 kr.-1 fl. 40 kr.; baths; pens. 14 fl. per week), a pleasant summer-resort; and 6 M. to the N.W. of Tátraháza is the Kesmarker Tränke (p. 363). — 11½ M. Nehre, Hung. Nagy-Eör; 13 M. Elágazás, station for Bela (Hung. Szepes-Béla), a village with 2500 inhab., and for Tatra-Höhlenhain (p. 364). From Bela viâ Wünschendorf to the Rothe Kloster and Szczawnica, see p. 364. — 14 M. Kreuz, Hung. Keresztfalu; 16½ M. Bauschendorf, Hung. Busocz. — 20½ M. Pudlein, Hung. Podolin, a village of 1500 inhab., is the present terminus of the line, which is to be continued to Orlô (p. 351).

The line crosses the Popper and quits the valley of that stream. A low hill near (158 M.) Kapsdorf (2250 ft.) forms the watershed between the Danube and the Vistula. We descend the valley of the Hernád. — 166 M. Igló, Ger. Neudorf (1503 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Hôt. Schwarzenberg, opposite the station), is another of the sixteen Zips free towns (comp. p. 355).

A branch-line runs hence in 40 min. to (8 M.) Leutschau, Hung. Löcse (1880 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Stadt-Hôtel or Városi szálloda), capital of the Zips, an old town with 7010 inhab., chiefly Germans. Fine Gothic church of St. James, of the 13th cent., with a slender tower, containing an elegant tabernacle, several well-carved altars, pictures, monuments, and a good organ. The Rathhaus, with its open arcades, in the Platz on the S. side of the church, was restored in 1894 (interesting interior). Beautiful view of the Tatra from the pilgrimage-church on the Marienberg (½ hr.). — On the Kesmark road, 2½ M. to the N. of Leutschau, lies Löcsefüred (2000 ft.), a watering-place and summer-resort, whence the Gehol (3550 ft.) may be ascended. — At Donnersmark, 1 hr.'s drive from Leutschau, is a Gothic double chapel, containing a late-Gothic altar.

Curious mural paintings of the 14th cent., some of them well preserved. About 2 M. from the station are the small baths of Baldócz (1420 ft.; Curhaus, R. 50 kr.-1 fl. 20, pens. 1 fl. 80 kr.), with springs containing sulphate of soda.

64. The Hohe Tatra.

The Central Carpathians, rising between the plains of the Waag, the Árva, the Dunajec, and the Popper and extending for a distance of about 70 M. with a breadth of 9-22 M., are the loftiest mountains in Hungary. This range, of limestone, gneiss, granite, and sandstone formation, consists of four principal groups, viz. the Árva-Liptau Gneis and Limestone Mts., or W. portion as far as the Lilijowe Pass, with peaks rising to a height of 7300 ft.; the Hohe Tatra, or central portion, stretching E. to the Kopa Pass and reaching the height of 8735 ft.; the Béla Limestone Alps, with peaks of 7070 ft., stretching at an angle from the Hohe Tatra to the Zdjar Pass; and lastly the lower Zipser Magura, adjoining the preceding, with peaks of 4150 ft. The most imposing portion is the Hohe Tatra, on the borders of Zips, Liptau, and Galicia, where the huge masses rise sheer from the valleys of the Popper and Waag like a gigantic wall, presenting mountain-scenery of the wildest description, in which only glaciers are wanting. The chief features here are barren, fissured peaks, precipitous and inaccessible crests, and bleak, rock-cumbered valleys, containing deep and lonely lakes (Pol. stawy, Slav. plesso, i.e. eyes of the sea), which are gradually being filled up with débris precipitated from the steep slopes above. The highest peaks are not free from snow except in midsummer, while many of the gorges, especially on the N. side, are filled with perpetual snow. The dwellers on the S. and W. sides of the Tatra are Slovakians, on the N. Poles, and in Zips, on the S.E. side, Germans.

Of Hotels and Inns there is now a tolerable array, especially on the S. side of the range, but in the height of the season (July-August) it is sometimes difficult to get quarters even after previous application. Close to the foot of the mountains (2460-4430 ft.) are the following, mostly surrounded by beautiful pine-woods and adapted as health-resorts for a stay of some time: the hotels on the Lake of Csorba; Hoch-Hági, at the foot of the Osterva and Končysta; Hôtel Weszterheim, at the foot of the Gerlsdorfer Spitze; Neu, Alt, and Unter Schmecks, at the foot of the Schlageudorfer Spitze; Hôtel Kohlbach, on the Kämmchen; Tatra-Lomnitz and Matlarenau, and Tatra-Höhlenhain, in the Kotlin valley. Simpler accommodation is offered by the forester's house of Pod Bansko, at the foot of the Kriván (see p. 355); the Majláth Hut, on the Lake of Popper; the Schlesier Haus, on the Lake of Felka; the Kesmarker Tränke, on the Weisswasserbach; and the Archduke Frederick Hut, on the Grüne See. The towns of Hradek, Poprád, Felka, and Kesmark all have good hotels and command fine views of the mountains, but they are less suited for a stay of some time owing to the want of woods in their vicinity and their distance (6-10 M.) from the foot of the mountains. The favourite hydropathic establishments of Lucsivna, Gross-Schlagendorf, and Tátraháza are rather more conveniently situated. The best headquarters for excursions on the N. side are Zakopane, the Iron Works (Kúznice) near Zakopane, the small baths of Jaszczurówka, and the good club huts of the Polish Tatra Club in the Roztoka Valley and on the Grosse Fischsee. — The best time for exploring this district is from July to the middle of September; but June and October, when charges are considerably abated, are also sometimes favourable.

The regulations for GUIDES, etc., have been framed by the Hungarian Carpathian Club and the Polish Tatra Club. The first-class guides, naturally the most expensive, are acquainted with the entire Tatra region; those of the second class undertake certain definite expeditions only; while third-class guides are qualified for still fewer. Tourists should employ only authorized guides ('autorisierte Führer'), who are bound to produce the official tariff on demand. Each guide may be required to carry about 33 lbs. of luggage, but for long tours, involving considerable supplies of baggage and provisions, a porter must also be engaged. As the nights are often very cold (even in summer the temperature sometimes falls below 32° at an elevation of 6000-6500 ft.), it is advisable to be well supplied with rugs. For expeditions in the S. Tatra the best guides are to be found at Schmecks or on the Lake of Csorba (2-3 fl. per day; for difficult mountain-expeditions 5-6 fl.). Porters receive 1-1½ fl. per day, and their food. Complaints should be addressed to the managers of the various baths. — The charge for guides from Zakopane (chiefly Poles, a few only speaking German), some of whom also undertake expeditions in the S. Tatra, is for ½ day 1 fl. 20 kr., per day 1½ fl. (3rd cl. 1 fl.), for several days 2 fl. per day, for the higher peaks 2-3 fl.; in all cases besides food. Porter usually 1 fl.

INFORMATION may be obtained at the offices of the Carpathian Club at Igló (head-office), Kesmark (Herr Genersich), Felka (Herr Krompecher); Gross-Schlagendorf (Herr Weszter), Lentschau (Herr Professor Dénes), at the bath-offices at Alt, Neu, and Unter Schmecks; and at the office of the Tatra Club in Zakopane. — New ordnance maps of the Tatra (scale 1:25,000) were published in 1898.

The best APPROACHES to the Tatra are: from Germany the railway from Oderberg to Kaschau (R. 63); from Vienna the railway through the Waagthal to Zsolna (R. 62); from Budapest the Miskolcz and Kaschau line (R. 59) or the Hatvan and Ruttka line (R. 60). Return-tickets are issued only at Oderberg (comp. p. 353). — Those who approach from the N. take the Galician railway from Oświęcim (p. 279) or Podgórze (Cracow), viâ Skawina and Sucha, to (4-5 hrs.) Chabówka (p. 290; Rail. Restaurant), whence a diligence runs thrice daily in 6 hrs. viâ (11 M.) Neumarkt (p. 366) and Poronin to (26½ M.) Zakopane (fare 2 fl. 15 kr.; one-horse carr. 4, two-horse 6-7 fl.; railway projected). A carriage from Zakopane to Tatra-Höhlenhain (7 hrs.' drive) costs 6-10 fl.; from Zakopane to Schmecks viâ Tatra-Höhlenhain (9 hrs.' drive), 8-15 fl. (bargain necessary).

EXCURSIONS. The following are the most important. From Csorba visit the Lake of Csorba. From the Lake of Csorba ascend the Kriván, visit the Popper and Hinzen lakes, ascend the Meeraugspitze, and visit the Grosse Fischsee. — From Hoch-Hagi ascend the Osterva. — From Weszterheim or Schmecks visit the Felka Valley and the Polnische Kamm, and ascend the Gerlsdorfer Spitze. — From Schmecks visit the Great and Little Kohlbach Valleys, ascend the Schlagendorf and Lomnitz peaks. — From Tatra-Lomnitz or Matlarenau visit the Kohlbach and Steinbach valleys and ascend the Lomnitzer Geograph. Anst. v. Wagner & Debes, Leipzig.

Spitze and the Ratzenberg. — From Matlarenau or the Kesmarker Tränke ascend the Weisswasser Valley to the Grüne See or cross the Kopa Pass to Javorina (guide desirable). — From Tatra-Höhlenhain visit the Stalactite Cavern at Béla, ascend the Stirnberg, the Fleischbänke, and the Greiner, and cross the Kopa or the Zdjár Pass to Javorina. — From Javorina ascend the Siroka, visit the Polish Fünfseen-Thal and the Grosse Fischsee, and go on to Zakopane. — From Zakopane cross the Jaszczurówka or the Zawrat Pass and proceed through the Polish Fünfseen-Thal to the Grosse Fischsee, ascend the Magóra and the Swinnica, and visit the Kościelisko Valley. — Many additional tours have, however, been opened up within the last ten or fifteen years by the establishment of new starting-points, and especially by the construction of the Carpathian Club's Tourists Road (Touristenweg), which unites the principal places of interest in the S. Tatra. This route, which has been made practicable for carriages within the last few years, begins at the Hotel on the Lake of Csorba (4450 ft.; p. 362), where the bridle-path from Pod Bansko ends (comp. p. 355), and descends the hill to the Postredna Meadow (3940 ft.) in the Mengsdorf Valley. (At the first kilometre-stone a shorter but rough footpath diverges to the right; and at the bend of the road begins a footpath to the Popper-See.) Crossing the Popper, our road turns to the E. and runs through pretty pine-woods to (5½ M.) Hoch-Hági (3515 ft.; p. 360). We then cross a number of small streams (pretty views of the Popper valley) and lastly the Felka, beyond which we reach Weszterheim (3260 ft.; p. 360). Thence we proceed to the N.E. through thick woods to (11 M.) Neu-Schmecks (3250 ft.; see below) and (11¾ M.) Alt-Schmecks (3335 ft.), where the KLOTILDEN-WEG, or older part of the road made in 1889, ends. The MARIA-THERESIA-WEG, the E. continuation of the Tourists' Road, completed in 1893, diverges to the left a few min. beyond Alt-Schmecks from the main road leading to Poprád, joins the carriage-road from Unter-Schmecks (see below) about ½ M. farther on, and then traverses the Kohl'ach Valley (2980 ft.), with its numerous old moraines. At (15½ M.) Tatra-Lomnitz (2785 ft.; p. 363) we enjoy a good view of the Lomnitzer Spitze to the left. The road continues thence on the same level to the (16½ M.) Matlarenau (2970 ft.; p. 363), pleasantly situated in a little plain on the Steinbach, and after crossing the stream descending from the Weisswasser Valley, reaches the (18½ M.) Kesmarker Tränke (2975 ft.; p. 363), at the foot of the Stösschen (5020 ft.). Thence the road gradually descends through wood to the Kotlin Valley, and a little beyond (21½ M.) Tatra-Höhlenhain (2512 ft.; p. 364) joins the Béla highroad. Walkers may cover the whole distance in a day, riders or drivers in half-a-day.

Poprád (2214 ft.), see p. 355. Road thence (7½ M.; cab to Schmecks in 1½ hr., 4 fl.) viâ (1 M.) Felka (2235 ft.; Touristenheim, hotel and villas with garden, R. 80 kr.-1½ fl., D. 1 fl. 10 kr., pens. 2-4 fl.; closed in winter), with a Tatra Museum and Alpine botanic garden, (1½ M.) Gross-Schlagendorf, Hung. Nagy-Szálok (2220 ft.; *Hôtel Weszter, with pleasant garden, R. 80 kr.-1 fl., L. & A. 25 kr., D. 1, pens. 2 fl.), and (4 M.) Unter-Schmecks, on the right (see below), to (¾ M.) Alt-Schmecks, Hung. Tátra-Füred (3335 ft.), a well-kept watering-place with mineral-springs, pine-cone baths, and cold-water cure, numerous lodging-houses, and a Cursaal, prettily situated at the foot of the Schlagendorf peak. — To the W. (½ M.) lies Neu-Schmecks, Hung. Uj-Tátra-Füred (3250 ft.), with its Curhaus (hydropathic, pine-cone baths, etc.), well fitted up, suited for a longer stay, and visited even in winter by patients with delicate lungs. — Below Alt-Schmecks, and connected with it by a pleasant road and footpath, lies (1¼ M.) Unter-Schmecks, Hung. Alsó-Tátra-Füred (3084 ft.), a watering-place founded in 1881, and much frequented (hydropathic, mud-baths, etc.).

The CHARGES at the three Schmecks are as follows in the season (at other times 25-30 per cent less): R. 1-5 fl. per day (in July and Aug. scarcely obtainable unless secured in advance); A. 1 fl. per week; visitor's and music tax, for a stay of more than three days, 1 fl. weekly (gipsy-music several times daily). Rooms, bath-tickets, guides, horses, etc., are all engaged through the director of the baths. — Good restaurants (with cheaper rooms for tourists), usually à la carte. Post, Telephone, and Telegraph Offices. Protestant service at Neu-Schmecks.

WALKS. From Alt- or Unter-Schmecks to the (20 min.) Café-Restaurant zur Tatra-Aussicht (B. 30-40 kr., D. 1 fl.-1 fl. 20 kr.; also beds), overlooking the plain of the Popper and the Lower Tatra. — From Alt-Schmecks to the N.W. to the (3/4 hr.) Fünf Quellen with the Rainer Monument, 20 min. above which the flower-carpeted Himbeerwiese affords a view of the three Schmecks and the Popper Valley. — From Neu-Schmecks to the Neu-Schmecks Waterfall, 10 min. to the S.W., and to the Vancsó Pond, 10 min. to the S.; and thence to the E. to (20 min.) Unter-Schmecks. — The following walks are a little longer. From Alt-Schmecks to the N.E. to the (1 hr.) Thurmberg (Toronyhegy; 3665 ft.) or to the (3/4 hr.) Räubersteine (Haramia-kö; 3819 ft.), three huge blocks of granite, a flat stone to the right of which affords a fine survey of the Kohlbach Valley and the plain of the Popper. Thence a poor but picturesque footpath leads to the (1/2 hr.) Kämmchen (see below). — From Neu-Schmecks by the Klotilden-Weg (p. 359) to the (3/4 hr.) Hôtel Westerheim or Schlesierheim, Hung. Tátra-Széplak (3260 ft.; R. 80 kr.-2 fl., D. 1 fl. 20 kr., board 12 fl. per week), frequented by Germans (to the Felka Lake and to the Polnische Kamm, see p. 361). From the Hôt. Westerheim we may go on to (1 1/4 hr.) Hoch-Hági (3515 ft.; Touristenhaus); ascent of the Osterva, p. 362. — From Alt-Schmecks or Unter-Schmecks by the Maria-Theresia-Weg (p. 359) to (1 1/4 hr.) Tatra-Lomnitz and (1/2 hr.) Matlarenau (p. 363).

To the Kohlbach Valley (1 1/4 hr. to the Rainerwiese; horse 1 fl. 20 kr.), very attractive. A road and a footpath ascend from Alt-Schmecks to the N.E. to the (3/4 hr.) Kämmchen (4200 ft.), which affords a beautiful view of the Lomnitzer Spitze, the Mittelgrat-Thurm, the Kohlbach-Thal with its rocky debris (old moraine), and the Popper-Thal studded with towns and villages. Immediately below the summit, on the E. side, is the Wildbad Kohlbach (R. 60 kr. to 1 1/2 fl.). We then proceed along the slope to the N., turn to the right after a few min., then again ascend the valley past the three Kohlbach Waterfalls, amidst beautiful wood and rock scenery, to the (1/2 hr.) Rainerwiese, on which is the little Hôtel Gemse (4310 ft.; R. 1 fl., restaurant expensive). About 3/4 M. to the N., a little to the right of the way to the Five Lakes (see below), is the Riesensturz, a waterfall 60 ft. high. (From the bridge at the first, or great, Kohlbach waterfall a footpath leads to the N.E. in 2 hrs. to the Steinbach-See and another to the S.E. in 1 1/2 hr. to Matlarenau, p. 363).

MOUNTAIN EXPEDITIONS (strong boots and alpenstock advisable). To the Five Lakes in the Little Kohlbach Valley, 3-4 hrs. from Alt-

Schmecks (guide 2½ fl., desirable). From the Hôt. Gemse (p. 360) we ascend the Treppchen to the right to the (1 hr.) Feuerstein (5220 ft.), an overhanging block of granite; we then cross the brook and ascend the S. slope by a new path cut out of the rock to the (1¼ hr.) Five Lakes in the highest basin of the Little Kohlbach Valley (6560-6690 ft.). Grand rock scenery, with large patches of snow, encircled by the Lomnitzer Spitze, the Schwalbenthurm, the Grünensee-Spitze, the Eisthaler Spitze, and the Mittelgrat-Thurm. Refuge-hut projected. — From the Five Lakes a difficult route leads over the Kleine Sattel-Pass (7810 ft.) to the Kroten-See (6235 ft.), and thence through the Javorinka Valley to (5 hrs.) Javorina (p. 365).

The Lomnitzer Spitze (Lomniczi-Csúcs; 8642 ft.; guide 3¾-5 fl.) is ascended in 5-6 hrs. from Alt-Schmecks. Above the Feuerstein (see above) the route ascends to the right over stony slopes to the (½ hr.) 'Probe' (a steep and fatiguing couloir); then to the (20 min.) Kapelle (lofty columns of granite), and up steep grassy slopes to the (1 hr.) Lomnitzer Kamm (7220 ft.; p. 363). Thence past the Moses-Quelle (7415 ft.), very steep for the most part, and 'Matirko's Umkehr' and 'Emericzy's Greiner' (8448 ft.), two difficult points, provided with chains by the Carpathian Club, to the (1½ hr.) summit, which commands a distant view to the N.E. and S. only.

The Eisthaler Spitze (Jégvölgyi-Csúcs; 8630 ft.; guide 4 fl. 10 kr.-5½ fl.), difficult, only for adepts, may be ascended from Alt-Schmecks in 7 hrs. From the Five Lakes in the little Kohlbach Valley (see above) we ascend over stony slopes and patches of snow to the main crest, which we follow, past a dangerous place at the 'Steinerne Ross', to the (3 hrs.) top. Fine view of the mountains and of the plains of Hungary and Galicia.

Easier is the ascent of the Schlagendorfer Spitze (Szalóki-Csúcs; 8050 ft.; 5 hrs. from Neu-Schmecks; guide 3 fl.). From the path into the Felka Valley, after 1 hr., we diverge to the right; 1½ hr. the three Schlagendorf Lakes (5545 ft.; refuge); thence to the summit in 2½ hrs. more over the Königsnase (7490 ft.; *View of the three Schmecks). Admirable view, intercepted on the W. and N. by the Gerlsdorf and Lomnitz peaks.

Visit to the Felka Valley and ascent of the Polnische Kamm (4 hrs.) from Neu-Schmecks; guide to the Schlesier Haus 2½ fl., unnecessary; over the Polnische Kamm to the Fischsee 6¾-9 fl.), interesting. Bridle-path over the (1½ hr.) Kreuzhübel (4705 ft.) and then through the Felka Valley (to the left, the huge Gerlsdorfer Spitze) to the (¾ hr.) Schlesier Haus (5505 ft.; R. 1½ fl., restaurant), 5 min. to the S.E. of the beautiful green Felka Lake (5495 ft.), reached in 2 hrs. from Weszterheim (p. 360) by a new road. Like the other high valleys of the Tatra, the Felka Valley contains distinct remains of the moraines of diluvial glaciers. Close to the old hut is a typical wall of moraine. We next skirt the Granatenwand (where garnet crystals are found in the mica-slate), pass under the 'Ewige Regen', a dripping rock, and cross the Seewand, more than 460 ft. high, to the (½ hr.) Blumengarten (5974 ft.), a beautiful Alpine pasture (once a lake). We now ascend to the (½ hr.) Langensee (6410 ft.). Then an easy ascent of 1 hr. over the grassy S. slope to the summit of the Polnische Kamm 7244 ft.), a narrow ridge with an abrupt precipice towards the N., whence a striking view is obtained of the N. side of the mountains. Far below lies the Gefrorne See (see below). The view is still better from the Kleine Visoka (7940 ft.; ascended without difficulty from the pass in ¾ hr.), which overlooks the tremendous precipices of the Gerlsdorfer Spitze. We descend by the Kaulige Hubel (7008 ft.), immediately above the Langensee, to the Blumengarten; or (less recommended) round the N.W. slope of the Kleine Visoka to the (1¼ hr.) Kerbchen (7546 ft.), a spur of the main crest, and thence by a steep but not difficult descent to the Gross-Kohlbacher Lakes and the (3½ hrs.) Hôtel Gemse (p. 360). — The descent from the Polnische Kamm to the (½ hr.) Gefrorne See (6715 ft.) is steep; thence we descend to the (1½ hr.) hunting-lodge of Prince Hohenlohe and follow the road to (4 hrs.) Javorina (p. 365), or to the (1½-2 hrs.) Roztoka Hut, whence we ascend the Bialka Valley to the left to the (2 hrs.) Grosse Fischsee (p. 365).

The Gerlsdorfer or Franz Josef Spitze (Gerlachfalvi-Csúcs; 8737 ft.; from Schmecks and back 10-12 hrs.; guide 4-6 fl.), the highest of the Tatra Mts., is very trying and difficult, but free from danger. The best plan is to sleep at the Schlesier Haus (p. 361), and make the ascent early in the morning from the Blumengarten (p. 361), whence there is 3 hrs.' steep climbing (chains and cramp-irons in places.) Impressive and picturesque view from the summit.

The Osterva (6510 ft.) may be ascended from the Popper-See or from Hoch-Hâgi (p. 360; guide 2½ fl.). An easy path through wood (practicable for horses) diverging from the Klotilden-Weg about ¾ hr. to the W. of Hoch-Hâgi (p. 360), and skirting the E. slope of the Smrekovec (4640 ft.), reaches the summit in 2-2½ hrs. The expedition may be profitably extended along the arête to the summit of the Tupa (1¼ hr.; 7523 ft.), for the sake of the fine view of the Končysta, Tatra-Spitze, and Bastei, and of the valleys of Mengsdorf, the Popper, and the Waag. Descent from the Osterva to the (1¼ hr.) Popper Lake, see below.

The Lake of Csorba (4430 ft.) may be reached from Schmecks by the Klotilden-Weg (p. 359) viâ Weszterheim and Hoch-Hâgi in 4½ hrs. (carr. there and back 7 fl.), or from the railway-station of Csorba (p. 355) by a rack-and-pinion railway in 35 min. (1 fl., there and back 1½ fl.). The lake, the largest (50 acres) in the S. Tatra, is situated on the watershed between the Waag and the Popper. Grand *View (N.) of the Tatra Mts., from the Kriván to the Schlagendorfer Spitze; to the S. the valley of the Waag, Popper, and Hernád, beyond which rises the mountain-chain from Korytnica, in the W., to Kaschau, in the E., 100 M. in length. On the S. bank are several good lodging-houses (together 165 rooms; R. in July and August 80 kr.-4 fl., D. 1 fl. 60 kr., pens. 4-5 fl., cheaper in June and Sept.), a restaurant and café; bath-house; gipsy band, etc. Pleasant boating on the lake (30 kr. each pers. per hr.).

Excursions from the Lake of Csorba. Ascent of the Kriván (8190 ft.; 5-5½ hrs.; guide 3 fl., not always to be found at the lake). The route crosses the S. base of the Szoliszko and of the Ostra to the valley of Predni Handel, and the (1½ hr.) brook Zlomisko (5125 ft.), where the route from Pod Bansko (p. 355) joins ours on the left. We then proceed to the N.W. to the (1 hr.) terrace below the Grüne See (6645 ft.), ascend the rock-strewn slopes of the Nad Parlovu to the (1¼ hr.) deserted Gold Mine, whence a steep and fatiguing climb brings us in 1¼ hr. to the summit, a plateau about 90 ft. long and 12-18 ft. broad, commanding a superb view. On the W. side the peak descends in huge precipices to the Koprova Valley; to the S. is the valley of the Waag, to the S.E. the Lake of Csorba, to the W. the Grüne See, and to the N. the Teriansko Lake (6388 ft.). The descent on the W. side leads at first over steep rocks and debris and then by a good zigzag-path on the W. side of the Kopa to the (2½ hrs.) Polana Krivánska (3986 ft.), at the S.W. base of the Kriván. Thence we may either proceed to the W. over the wooded hill of Pod Palenica (3773 ft.) to the (1½ hr.) keeper's house of Pod Bansko (p. 355), to which also a bridle-path leads direct in 3½ hrs. from the Csorba Lake; or we may go S., at first on the right, afterwards on the left bank of the Belanszka, viâ the Polana Kobierska, to the (3½ hrs.) inn of Belanszko (3183 ft.; rustic; guides to be had), which is within ¾ hr. of the stations of Vihodna-Vázsecz or Vágfalva (p. 355).

We may also visit the Mlinica Valley, crossing the meadows to the (2 hrs.) beautiful Schleier-Wasserfall (5640 ft.), then ascending to the right to the lakes of Skok, Untere and Obere Gemsen, and (2¼ hrs.) Szentivánvi (6787 ft.); thence W. over the Lorenzjoch (7590 ft.) to the (1 hr.) Wahlenberg Lakes (6760-7080 ft.), and through the Furkot Valley back to the (2 hrs.) Lake of Csorba. — Ascent of the Vordere Bastei (Bástya; 7730 ft.; 4 hrs.; guide 3 fl.), interesting. We cross the Mlinica brook, and ascend the wooded slope of the Mlinica, latterly steep, to the Patria (7235 ft.) and the Poppersee-Spitze (7510 ft.). Grand view of the Mengsdorf Valley with the Tupa, Končysta, Tatraspitze, Meeraugspitze, the long Ochsenrücken, and the tapering Bastei peaks.

The Valley of Mengsdorf is one of the grandest in the Tatra. From the Lake of Csorba we cross the pastures of the Bastei, or from the Klotilden-Weg we proceed direct (comp. p. 359) to the (1½ hr.) superbly situated Popper Lake* (4964 ft.), with the Majláth Hut (good accommodation), where the route from Lucsivna (p. 355) viâ Mengsdorf also leads in 4½ hrs. On the E. side of the lake tower the Osterva (6510 ft.; p. 362) and the Tupa (7523 ft.), on the N.E. the Tatraspitze (8415 ft.), and on the W. the Vordere Bastei (7730 ft.) and the Patria (7235 ft.). To the N.E., in a rock-strewn gorge at the foot of the Tatraspitze, is the Southern Eissee (6348 ft.; there and back 4 hrs.). — A splendid excursion from the Majláth Hut is the ascent of the *Meeraugspitze (Hung. Tengerszem-Csúcs, Pol. Rysy; 8210 ft.), the Rigi of the Tatra (4 hrs.; guide 3½ fl.). The route ascends past the two S. Frosch-Seen (6300 ft.) to the Hunfalvy-Joch (7685 ft.), and thence to the N.W. without danger to the summit. Magnificent panorama of the mountains and thirteen lakes. Far below on the N.W. side lie the Meerauge and the Grosse Fischsee (p. 365). From the Frosch-Seen (see above) an attractive return-route crosses N.W. to the Hinzen-See (6480 ft.), lying in the highest N.W. angle of the Mengsdorf Valley, and enclosed on the N. and W. by the Mengsdorfer Spitze (7985 ft.), the Cubrina (7800 ft.), and the Koprova-Spitze (7775 ft.), and thence leads across Alpine pastures inhabited by marmots to the Popper Lake. — From the Meeraugspitze we may descend (steep and difficult at places; guide 5 fl.) to the (3 hrs.) Meerauge (5195 ft.), and thence cross the rocky wall to the N.W. of the lake (650 ft.) to the (1¼ hr.) club-hut on the Grosse Fisch-See (p. 365).

The ascent of the Tatraspitze (Hohe Visoka; 8415 ft.; 4½-5 hrs.; guide 4-4½ fl.), difficult, and suitable for experts only, is made from the Majláth Hut and past the Drachensee. Difficult descent on the N. side to the (2 hrs.) Hunfalvy-Joch (see above) and the (1 hr.) Northern Eissee (Pol. Zamarzły Staw; 5810 ft.); then past the (¾ hr.) Böhmische See (Czeski Staw; 5305 ft.) to the (1 hr.) shooting-box of Prince Hohenlohe in the Poduplaski Valley (p. 361) and the (1½ hr.) Roztoka Refuge, 1½ hr. from Javorina (p. 365).

On the MARIA-THERESIA-WEG (p. 359), 1½ hr. to the N.E. of Alt-Schmecks and Unter-Schmecks, in a picturesque meadow among woods, is situated the health-resort of Tatra-Lomnitz (2785 ft.), established by government in 1894, with two large and well-equipped hotels (R. 1-3½ fl., L. 15, A. 20 kr.), lodging-houses, a hydropathic establishment, and several private villas. Railway to (5½ M.) Gross-Lomnitz, see p. 356. — About 1½ M. to the N.E. is the hotel of Matlarenau, Hung. Matlárháza (2940 ft.; R. 50 kr.-1 fl. 50 kr., D. 1 fl., board 12 fl. weekly), a favourite summer-resort; and 2 M. farther on, 6 M. to the N.W. of Tátrahâza (p. 356), is the Kesmarker Tränke (2975 ft.; *Touristenhaus).

EXCURSIONS. From Tatra-Lomnitz or Matlarenau to the (2 hrs.) Kohlbach Falls in the Kohlbach Valley (p. 360). — A path indicated by marks leads to the (3½ hrs.) Steinbach-See (5748 ft.) in the Steinbach Valley, lying at the foot of the precipices of the Lomnitzer Spitze, towering 2000 ft. above it, with diluvial glacier-moraines. Above the lake we traverse debris and then ascend steep slopes to the left to the Lomnitzer Grat (7218 ft.), and by a path indicated by blue marks, very steep at places, to the top of the Lomnitzer Spitze (p. 361). — From Matlarenau or the Kesmarker Tränke to the Weisswasser Valley, attractive. A bridle-path, diverging to the left from the Maria-Theresia-Weg about midway between these two places, ascends along the Weisse Wasser and past the Weisse Wand, remains of moraines on the S.W. slope of the Stösschen (5020 ft.), to the (¾ hr.) Kressbrunnen (3935 ft.), where we cross the stream to the (¼ hr.) Kesmarker Alp- hütte (Pol. Koszar; 4260 ft.) on the right bank. Where the road forks, 1/4 hr. farther on, we keep to the left and reach the (1 hr.) Grüne See (5060 ft.; accommodation in the Archduke Frederick Hut), finely situated at the head of the valley, between the precipices of the Ratzenberg (6693 ft.) and the Kesmarker Spitze (8335 ft.; ascent from the Ratzenberg in 3 hrs., difficult) on the S., the Rothensee-Spitze (7956 ft.), on the W., and the Weissensee-Spitze (7320 ft.) and Karfunkelthurm (7018 ft.), to which many legends attach, on the N.W. Thence we may either (guide necessary) proceed to the N.W. to the (1 hr.) Rothe See (5948 ft.), so named from the reddish hue of the bottom, and the (1/2 hr.) Blaue See, and thence descend a steep and difficult path, over the E. spurs of the Weissensee Spitze, with a glimpse of the Gelbe See, to the (3 hrs.) Weisse See (5295 ft.), 1/4 hr. above the Beler Alphütte (see below); or we may proceed direct to the (1 1/4 hr.) Weisse See by the path to the left at the guide-post below the Grüne See. From the Beler Alphütte we may reach our original starting-point by following the left bank of the Weisse Wasser to the S.E. through the Vordere Kupferschächte (see below) and viâ the (1 hr.) Kesmarker Alphütte; or we may proceed to (2 hrs.) Tatra-Höhlenhain (see below) by turning to the E. viâ the pastures of the Weidenau (ca. 4920 ft.) and following a new path above the seven springs in the Drechslerhäuschen. — To Javorina viâ the Weisswasser Valley and the Kopa Pass. At the fork of the road above the Kesmarker Alphütte (see above) we take the path to the right, which leads through the Vordere Kupferschächte and past the Beler Alphütte to the (1 3/4 hr.) Kopa Pass or Sattel (5750 ft.), 1/4 hr. below the Durlsberg (6030 ft.; pretty view). Thence we descend through the Hintere Kupferschächte and the Javorinka Valley to (3 hrs.) Javorina (p. 365).

Tatra-Höhlenhain, Hung. Tátra-Barlangliget (2510 ft.), another frequented health-resort and summer-residence, is pleasantly situated amongst fine woods in the Kotlina Valley, 6 M. to the N.W. of the railway-station of Bela (p. 356; omn. 40 kr.; carr. 2 1/2 fl.), and is connected by means of the Maria-Theresia-Weg (p. 359) with (1 1/2 hr.) Matlarenau, (1 3/4 hr.) Tatra-Lomnitz, and (2 3/4 hrs.; carriage there and back 5 fl.) Schmecks. The arrangements for visitors resemble those at the three Schmecks (R. 60 kr.-2 fl., D. 1 fl., board 12 fl. 60 kr. per week; comp. p. 359). — Tickets of admission to the Stalactite Cavern of Béla, re-discovered in 1881, are obtained at the baths-office (adm. during the season daily at 11, 1, and 3 o'cl.; 1 fl. 80 kr.; electric lighting). The cavern (46° Fahr.), the entrance of which (2900 ft.) is 1 M. from Höhlenhain, is accessible for a distance of 2 M.; its exploration, which takes 2-2 1/2 hrs., is fatiguing on account of the numerous steps.

Excursions. To the top of the Tokarnia (4003 ft.; 2 hrs.; guide convenient), a beautiful point, with rich flora. — A grand mountain-walk leads viâ the Nesselblösse and Faixblösse (4890 ft.), the Eiserne Thor (5325 ft.), the Stirnberg (6388 ft.), and the Vordere and Hintere Fleischbänke (6620-6640 ft.) to the summits of the Thörichte Gern (6765 ft.), the Greiner (7040 ft.), and the Havran (7067 ft.), which afford striking views of the Lomnitzer Spitze and Eisthaler Spitze with their precipices and snow-slopes, and of several waterfalls upwards of 300 ft. high (there and back 10 hrs., with guide). — New path viâ the Drechslerhäuschen (see above) to the (3 1/2 hrs.) Weisse See and to the (2 hrs.) Grüne See (see above).

A beautiful drive from Höhlenhain may be taken viâ Béla (p. 356) and Winschendorf to the Zipser Magura (3135 ft.; nn), and down by Altendorf (Langer's Inn) to (10 hrs.) the Rothe Kloster on the Dunajec (1/4 hr. to the S. of which are the small sulphur-baths of Smerdzonka). We may then drive by the road through the gorge of the Dunajec, or descend the Dunajec by canoe (1 fl.), through the picturesque limestone hills of the Pieninen, to (1 1/2 hr.) Bad Szczawnica (p. 351).

From Tatra-Höhlenhain to Javorina on the N. side of the mountains there are two routes: a bridle-path through the Weisswasser Valley and over the Kopa Pass (see p. 364); and a carriage road through the Kotlina Valley to Zdjár (2970 ft.; rustic inn) and over the Zdjár Pass (3547 ft.; *View of the Béler Limestone Alps to the left), and thence down viâ Podspady (3015 ft.; poor inn) to Javorina, a drive of 4 hrs. (carr. and pair there and back in two days, 12 fl.). — Javorina (3280 ft.; no inn), an abandoned iron-work, has a château and wood-pulp mills of Prince Hohenlohe, to whom a great part of the N. Tatra belongs.

The most attractive excursion from this point, and one of the finest in the Tatra, is to the (4 hrs.) *Grosse Fischsee (Pol. Morskie Oko, 'eye of the sea'; 4570 ft.), romantically situated in the Bialka Valley. The route leads over the hill of Pod-Holizu (3405 ft.; fine view) to the (3/4 hr.) sawmill of Lysa, in the Bialka valley, where the new road from Zakopane (see below) joins it, and then passes the (1 1/4 hr.) Roztoka Refuge (3385 ft.; inn) and reaches the lake in 2 hrs. more (good quarters at the two refuge-huts of the Tátra Club; R. 80 kr.-1 1/2 fl.). We cross the lake on a raft (20 min.; 1-10 pers. 1 fl. and fee of 20 kr.; round the lake on foot 1/2 hr) and ascend the rocks beyond it to the (1/2 hr.) *Meerauge (Pol. Czarny Staw nad Morskiem Okiem; 5195 ft.), a strikingly picturesque little lake of dark-brown colour, from which the Meeraugspitze (p. 363) rises precipitously. From the Fischsee over the Swistówka (5810 ft.) to the Five Polish Lakes in the Roztoka Valley (see below), 2 1/2 hrs., attractive. — To the waterfall (4 1/2 hrs.) in the Roztoka Valley or Fünfseen-Thal is also a fine excursion. By the Roztoka Refuge (see above) we ascend to the right to the (2 1/2 hrs.) Siklawa Fall, 144 ft. high, situated below the Wielki Staw (5575 ft.; refuge-hut), the largest of the Five Polish Lakes, which lie one above another in a bleak rocky valley, and also the largest in the Tatra (85 acres). Thence over the Zawrat Pass (7080 ft.; trying) to Zakopane, see p. 366. — The *Siroka (7286 ft.), ascended from Javorina in 5 hrs. (guide 3 fl.) affords an admirable survey of the wild scenery of the N. Tatra, from the Swinnica to the Kopa Pass. The permission of Prince Hohenlohe's steward is necessary for this excursion.

From Javorina to Zakopane (15 M.). The new road, still unfinished between Javorina and Lysa (see above), leads viâ Jaszczurówka (see below). — Zakopane (2730 ft.; Hôt.-Restaurant Kulig or Pod Giewontem, plain, moderate; Pens. Maxwald, Kronchelm, Mizerska, Jordan; Casino of the Tatra Club, with restaurant; Café Pronka), a village with 3000 inhab., is situated in a broad, sunny plain, at the sources of the White Dunajec, in view of the Swinnica, Giewont, and other peaks of the Galician Tatra. A favourite summer resort of the Poles, with three hydropathic establishments, it has recently also become a winter-resort for consumptive patients. The timber church dates from 1810, the stone church from 1894. Schools of wood-carving and lace-making and a Tatra Museum. Peculiar local costume. — A pretty road leads thence to the S.E. to the (3 M.) former Iron Works, Pol. Kuznice (3240 ft.; inn, with good restaurant), the property of Count Zamojski, with paper-mills and a school of domestic economy. A second road, diverging to the left 3/4 M. below the iron-works, leads (omn. 15 kr.) viâ Bystre to the small baths of Jaszczurówka, with a 'neutral' spring (68° Fahr.; swimming-bath), and thence up the Bialka Valley to Lysa (see above).

Excursions. The Gubałówka (3625 ft.), to the N.W., may be ascended in 3/4 hr.; the Nosal (3985 ft.) in 1 1/2 hr. viâ Jaszczurówka. — To the Grosse Fischsee (p. 365), carriage and pair (6 fl.) in 3 hrs. to Lysa; thence to the lake, see p. 365. — The Magóra (Kopa Magóry; 5590 ft.), a barren peak to the S.E. of the iron-works, easily ascended in 2 hrs., affords a picturesque view of the N. and W. side of the Tatra. In the ridge which runs from the Magóra to the W. is a large cavern (2 hrs. from Zakopane; guide and torches necessary).

To the S.E. a road leads to the (3 M.; carr. in 1/2 hr.) former Iron Works (see p. 365); footpath thence in 1 1/4 hr. to the pass (4960 ft.), between the Kopa Królowa (5065 ft.) and the Kopa Magóry (5590 ft.), and past the (1/2 hr.) refuge-hut of the Tatra-Verein (7 beds) in the Suchawoda Valley to the (1 1/4 hr.) *Schwarze See (Czarny Staw; 5315 ft.), with refuge-hut, one of the largest and most beautiful lakes in the Tatra, at the base of the precipitous Kościelec Spitze. An interesting excursion for sturdy climbers is from the Schwarze See to the (2 1/2 hrs.) Zawrat Pass (Swinnica-Scharte; 7047 ft.), which commands an Alpine prospect of surpassing grandeur; thence to the (1 hr.) Five Polish Lakes (p. 365) and across the Swistówka (5820 ft.) to (3 hrs.) the Grosse Fischsee (p. 365) and to (3 hrs.) Javorina (p. 365). Or from the Grosse Fischsee we may go to the Meerauge (p. 365), and thence by the Meeraugspitze to the Popper and Csorba Lakes (1 day), and then follow the Klotilden-Weg to (4 1/2 hrs.) Schmecks; or we may return from the Meerauge to the Fischsee, enter the Poduplaski Valley, pass the Gefrorne See, cross the Polnische Kamm (p. 361), and descend the Felka Valley to Schmecks (1 day). — From the refuge-hut in the Suchawoda Valley (see above) we may reach in 1 hr. the Zielony Staw (5840 ft.), in the depression between the Swinnica and Pośrednia Turnia, and thence in 1 1/4 hr. more the top of the Swinnica (7565 ft.; magnificent view). Descent across the S. slope to the (1 hr.) Zawrat Pass (see above). — From the refuge-hut in the Suchawoda Valley (see above) the Liliowe Pass (6105 ft.) may be reached in 1 1/2 hr. — The ascent of the Kryźne (7056 ft.; 6 1/2 hrs.) from Jaszczurówka is recommended. The route leads viâ the Polana Poroniec (3888 ft.) and Polana Waksmundska (4954 ft.) to the (3 hrs.) Koszysta stream, and then up the valley to the S.W. to the (2 1/2 hrs.) Feuerstein, whence an hour's climb brings us to the top, commanding fine views of the Five Polish Lakes and the Tatra chain. Descent viâ the pass between the Kryźne and the Woloszyn to the (2 1/2 hrs.) Wielki Staw, see p. 365. — Another fine excursion from Zakopane is to the Kościelisko Valley (3 hrs. to the W.), the romantic rocky ravine of the Czarny (Black) Dunajec. The Inn 'bei der Eisquelle' (3210 ft.) is reached in 2 hrs. viâ the footpath from the iron-works or in 2 1/2 hrs. by the road from Zakopane (carr. 1 1/2 fl.). Footpath thence to the (1/2 hr.) Pisana meadow and to the (3/4 hr.) Smerečin Lake (4020 ft.), at the head of the valley. A rough bridle-path leads from the Eisquelle over the Tycha Pass (5541 ft.) and through the valley of that name to (7 hrs.) Pod Bansko (p. 355). — The easy ascent of the Rothe Berge (Czerwony Wierch; 6885-6930 ft.) is most conveniently combined with the excursion to the Kościelisko valley. About 10 min. below the Inn 'bei der Eisquelle' (see above) the route leads through the Miętusia Valley and ascends the Gładkie Upłazianskie (6266 ft.) and the (3 hrs.) Ciemniak or Czerwony Wierch Upłazianski (6885 ft.), the S.W. summit of the Rothe Berge. The summits of the Krzesanica (6930 ft.) and the Czerwony Wierch Małołaczniak (6920 ft.) lie respectively 1/4 hr. and 1/2 hr. farther to the E., and both command fine views of the Beskids and the Tatra. We may descend by the pass between the Kopa Kondracka (6560 ft.), on the left, and the Goryczkowa, on the right, to the (1 1/2 hr.) Kalatowki (3855 ft.), the source of the Bystre, in the Kondratowa Valley, 3/4 hr. from the Iron Works.

A good road (diligence and carriages, see p. 358; railway projected) ascends the valley of the Dunajec, to the N., from Zakopane viâ Poronin to (15 M.) Neumarkt, Pol. Nowytarg (1945 ft.; Hôtel Herz, plain), and thence over the Beskid Hills to the N.W. to (25 1/2 M.) the railway-station of Chabówka (p. 290).

Pleasing scenery, with many conical hills. On an eminence to the right of (19 M.) Nagy-Szálancz is the ruined castle of Szálancz, with a well-preserved tower; to the left is a château of Count Forgách. The train passes the ruins of (l.) Barkó and (r.) Jeszenö. 40 M. Hoe monna, with a château of Count Aladár Andrássy. We ascend the ravinh of the Laborcz. 66 M. Mezö-Laborcz (Rail. Restaurant), whence we moune rapidly to the hill which forms the Galician frontier. 68 M. Vidrány, the last Hungarian station. At (77 M.) Lupkow is a tunnel ¼ M. long. We then descend into the Oslawa Valley, to Szczawne (near which is the healte resort of Kulaszne) and to (108 M.) Neu-Zagórz (p. 289).

On the right rises the finely-shaped Sátor-Hegy ('tent hill'). — 40½ M. Sátoralja-Ujhely (Rail. Restaurant; König von Ungarn; Jägerhorn), a wine-growing place, with 13,000 inhab., capital of the county of Zemplin and junction for the railway to Szerencs (p. 370). About 3 M. from Sátoralja (cab there and back 1½ fl.) is Széphalom, with the tomb of the Hungarian poet Kazinczy (d. 1831).

The train now enters the Bodrogköz, or plain of the Bodrog, which it crosses near (47 M.) Szomotor; to the right is the ruin of Nagy-Kövesd. To the S., between the Bodrog and the Theiss, stretches a vast marshy expanse, called the Hosszú Rét. Stations: Nagy-Géres; Perbenyik, with château and park of Count Majláth; 59 M. Bély, to the left of which is the Premonstratensian abbey of Lelesz. — 66 M. Csap (Rail. Reslaurant), the junction for the Nyiregyháza and Ungvár railway (p. 369).

To the N. (13 M.; railway in ¾ hr.) lies Ungvár (Krone; cab to the town 60 kr., per day 6 fl.), an old town on the Ung, with 11,850 inhab., capital of a county of the same name, the seat of a Greek Catholic bishop, with important potteries. The loftily situated castle, once strongly fortified and now a seminary, commands a fine survey of the mountains and of the boundless plain to the S. — To the N.W. (9 M.) are the sulphur baths of Szobráncz.

The house in which Munkácsy, the painter, was born in 1846, is indicated by a tablet. The old fastness of Munkács, or Vár-Palánka, of the 14th cent., situated on a trachyte rock, 197 ft. high, 1 M. to the S., is celebrated for its heroic defence by Helene Zrinyi, wife of Count Tököly, against the Imperial troops, who besieged it for three years before they captured it (1688). It was afterwards used as a state-prison, and here the Hungarian poet Kazinczy and Prince Alexander Ypsilanti, a hero of the Greek War of Independence, were once confined. On the plateau is a Millennium Monument (1896), commemorating the 1000th anniversary of the occupation of the country by the Hungarians, who here established their first encampment in the last decade of the 9th century. On the right bank of the Latorcza is the Basilian monastery of St. Nicholas, founded in the 14th century. — Beyond Munkács the skilfully engineered line skirts the richly wooded E. Beskid Mts. 20 M. Frigyesfalva (Friedrichsdorf), with iron-works, where we cross the Latorca. Then past (r.) Bereg Szent-Miklós, with a castle of the 16th cent., and (l.) the hunting-lodge of Beregvár, to (28 M.) Pászika, where we enter the basin of Szolyva. The old road to Galicia turns here to the N. through the Pinya Valley (rich in mineral waters, such as those of Polena in the valley of the Great Pinya, Paulova, Ploszko, and Olenyova on the Little Pinya) and leads by Alsó Verecke at the base of the Huszla or Pekuj (4610 ft.). — The train follows the Latorca to (32½ M.) Szolyva-Hárafalva (Ger. Lindendorf), a prettily situated chalybeate bath (R. from 80 kr.; pension 10½ fl. per week), and turns to the N. into the romantic and sequestered valley of the Vicsa, which it crosses twelve times. 39 M. Vócsi, with a shooting box of Count Schönborn (deer numerous). To the right is the Sztoj, the highest of the E. Beskid Mts. (5509 ft.; 'Kaisersteg', a bridle-path, nearly to the top). Many viaducts and tunnels 5½ M. The train approaches the mountains on the N., crosses the Theiss, and reaches (118½ M.) Királyháza (p. 372), where it joins the line from Debreczin. Thence to (162½ M.) Máramaros Sziget, see R. 68.

66. From Budapest to Miskolcz viâ Debreczin.

223 M. Railway in 14¾ hrs. (fares 9 fl., 6 fl., 4 fl.).

To (111 M.) Püspök-Ladány, see pp. 374, 375. The line traverses fertile plains, the country of the Hajduks ('Heyducs'). Stations Kaba, Szoboszló, and Ebes.

138 M. Debreczin (Goldner Stier; Königin von England; Frohner; Weisses Ross; steam-tramway to the town), the most important commercial town in lower Hungary, with 60,000 inhab., chiefly Protestants, lies in a sandy, but fertile plain. In the Egyház Tér (Kirchen-Platz) is the Prot. College for students of theology and law, one of the most frequented in Hungary (2000 students), founded in 1531, possessing a library of 100,000 vols., a botanic garden with palm-house, and various collections. Opposite the college is the Royal Agricultural School. In the centre of the square is a large Protestant Church, from the pulpit of which, on 14th April, 1849, Kossuth proclaimed the deposition of the Hapsburg dynasty. In the promenade near the church is a bronze statue to the popular Hungarian poet Csokonay, by Izsó. Between the church and the college a sandstone obelisk was erected in 1895 to the memory of the Dutch admiral De Ruyter (d. 1676), who liberated numerous Protestant clergymen condemned to the galleys at Naples. Adjacent is a monument (dying lion on a pedestal of rock) to the Honvéds who fell at the battle of Debreczin on 2nd Aug., 1849. The four annual Fairs, held in the suburb of Ispotály, are important, and the horse-market is famous. The town is connected by eight gates with the suburbs, around which extends a vast plain. — In the Grosse Wald, 1¼ M. to the N. of the town (steam-tramway, see above), is the Margarethenbad, much visited in summer.

From Debreczin to Füzes-Abony, 63 M., railway in 5 hrs. — 25 M. Nagy Hortobágy (tolerable inn) is the station for a visit to the Hortobágy Puszta, upwards of 300 sq. M. in area, with 50,000 head of cattle (worth 5 million fl.), the property of the town of Debreczin (permission granted on application to the municipal commissary). The characteristics of the puszta are here particularly well to be seen: an immense, treeless, grassy plain, enlivened only here and there by the huts of the shepherds, surrounded by small groves of acacias. Magnificent sunrises; about noon in July and August, the Délibáb, or Fata Morgana of the puszta, may frequently be seen. — From (35½ M.) Ohat-Kócs (Rail. Restaurant) branch-line viâ Tisza-Polgar to (51½ M.) Királytelek (p. 270). — 44 M. Tisza-Füred (p. 375); 63 M. Füzes-Abony (p. 349).

From Debreczin to Máramaros Sziget, see R. 68. — A branch-line (35 M. in 3 hrs.) runs to the N.W. through the Hajduk plain, viâ Hajdu Böszörmeny and Hajdu Nánás, to Büd Szent Mihály, in the plain of the Theiss, near the left bank of that river. — Another line runs viâ (8 M.) Sárand (junction for Derecske) to (20½ M. in 2 hrs.) Nagy-Léta-Vértes.

The line now runs to the N. across the vast plain of the Hajduks. Stations: Hadház, Téglás, Uj-Fehértó. — 169 M. Nyiregyháza (Krone; pop. 27,000), junction for Csap, to the N.E. (p. 367), and for Nagy Kálló, Nyirbátor, and (171 M.) Mátészalka, to the S.E. On a salt-pond, 1½ M. to the E., lie the unpretending baths of Sóstó, beneficial in cases of rheumatism and scrofula. — To the N.W. of (175 M.) Királytelek the Hegyalja Mts. become visible; to the S. is the isolated hill of Tokaj. Beyond (184 M.) Rakamaz the line crosses the Theiss.

188½ M. Tokaj (Goldner Adler, Hung. Arany Sas; pop. 4800), far famed for its wine ('Tokay'), lies at the confluence of the Bodrog and Theiss. The Tokaj-Hegyalja Mts., which yield the genuine Tokay, cover an area of about 135 sq. M. and belong to 32 communities. In 1872 the area planted with vines was upwards of 19,000 acres, of which, however, between 1886 and 1894 the phylloxera devastated 87 per cent. New vines have been freely planted in the last few years. The fame of the wines of Tokaj is due to the excellence of the soil ('nyirok', or disintegrated trachyte) and of the species of grapes ('formint'), and also to the extreme care bestowed for centuries on the vineyards and on the process of wine-making. The best quality, which is not generally sold, is called Ausbruch (Aszubór); the others are Szamarodni and Ordinari. The neighbouring towns of Mád, Tálya, and Tarczal are also noted for their wines, which resemble Tokay, but contain a larger proportion of alcohol.

The line skirts the S. side of the Tokaj hill, which is vine-clad to a height of 270 ft. 192 M. Tarczal; 197 M. Mád-Zombor. — 200 M. Szerencs (Rail. Restaurant), with an old château of Prince Rákóczy.

From Szerencs to Sátoralja-Ujhely, 28½ M., in 1¼-2 hrs. The line runs through the Bodrog Valley, skirting the E. side of the vine-clad Hegyalja Hills. 7½ M. Bodrog-Keresztur, to the S.E. of Tálya and Mád (see above), both noted for wine; 15 M. Liszka-Tolcsva; 22½ M. Sárospatak, a little town with a château of Prince Rákóczy and a Protestant seminary, in which Comenius taught in 1650-54. — 28½ M. Sátoralja-Ujhely, see p. 367.

206 M. Takta-Harkány; 211 M. Tisza-Lucz. The line crosses the Hernád, and at (220 M.) Zsolcza reaches the Budapest and Kaschau line (R. 61). — 223 M. Miskolcz (p. 349).

67. From Fülek to Bánréve, Dobschau, and Miskolcz.

Railway to Dobschau, 74 M., in about 6 hrs. (fares 4 fl. 80, 3 fl. 20 kr., 2 fl.); to Miskolcz, 59 M., in about 5 hrs. (fares 3 fl. 60, 2 fl. 40, 1 fl. 50 kr.).

Fülek, see p. 347. — The railway makes a long bend to the E. through a narrow valley. 7 M. Ajnácskö, a small chalybeate bath; on the right rise the ruins of the castle of Ajnácskö. 10½ M. Balogfalva; 13 M. Várgede. — 17 M. Feled (Rail. Restaurant).

To Theissholz, 31 M., railway in 3 hrs. The line ascends the valley of the Rima. 5 M. Jánosi, with many villas. 7½ M. Rimaszombat (Drei Rosen; Hôt. Gömör), a finely situated county town, with a royal agricultural school. We ascend the narrow valley, passing several châteaux and ruins. Near (23½ M.) Nyustya are the large Likér Iron Works, connected with the mines of Vashegy by a wire-rope railway. 31 M. Theissholz, Hung. Tiszolcz (pop. 3700; Steiner's Inn), on a lofty plateau, has busy industries, iron-mines, and mineral springs. To the N.E. lies (6 M) Murány (p. 371). Railway to Zólyom-Brezó, see p. 347.

The train follows the Rima to (24½ M.) Rimaszécs, with a château of Baron Vay. 30½ M. Bánréve (Rail. Restaurant), junction of the line to Dobschau and of a mineral line to the coal and iron mines of Ozd. Continuation of the line to Miskolcz, see p. 372.

The line to Dobschau, which gives access to the Gömör Cavern District, turns to the N. into the valley of the Sajó. From (40 M.) Tornalja (Grossmann; Tiger; Krone) a road leads to the N.E. to (5 M.; carr. there and back, including stay, 6 fl.) the Aggtelek Cavern, Hung. Baradla ('steaming place'), one of the largest stalactite grottoes in Europe, being with its ramifications 5 M. in length.

Two entrances give access to the cavern: the old one (with the tourists' house of the Hung. Carpathian Club, bed 50 kr.) to the W. of the village of Aggtelek (Inn), and the new, 1½ M. to the E. of the village. Guides are stationed at both (adm. 50 kr.; guide for 1-5 persons 2 fl., candle 10 kr., magnesium-wire 5 kr. per piece). To explore the whole cavern takes 5-6 hrs.; the finest parts are the Astronomical Tower, the Beinhaus (where antediluvian bones were found), the Fledermaushöhle (bats' cave), the Paradies, with the finest stalactites, and the Rettighöhle. Several chambers are of vast dimensions. From the cavern to Szin Perkupa, see p. 349. — Between Aggtelek and Pelsöcz (see below; drive of 1½ hr.) are several other caverns: viz. the Büdöstó or Domicza Cavern, the Csengölyuk ('bell-hole'), entered by a deep shaft, and the Szalánka Cavern.

50½ M Pelsöcz, with lead and tin mines.

A Branch Railway runs hence in 3 hrs. viâ Jolsva and Nagy-Röcse (Ger. Gross-Rauschenbach) to (25½ M.) Murány, with an old castle, defended by the heroic Maria Széchy in 1644 and 1670, now owned by the Duke of Coburg-Koháry. — From Murány we may proceed to the N.E. to Pustapole (p. 355) and Poprád (p. 355; carriage in 6 hrs., 12 fl.).

To the left appear the peaks of the Central Carpathians. The valley of the Sajó contracts. Near (53 M.) Gombaszög (with iron works of Count Andrássy), to the right, is the Plateau of Szilicz, with the Ice Cavern of Szilicz, within an imposing rocky gateway. Near the station is the smaller Leontine Cave. — 59 M. Rosenau, Hung. Rozsnyó (Schwarzer Adler; Weinberger; pop. 4850), the seat of a bishop, prettily situated. In the Csucsom Valley, ½ M. from the town (carr. 60, omn. 20 kr.), is the Rosenau Bath.

On the road to Torna (p. 350), on a rock about 1½ M. to the E., rises the castle of Krasznahorka, the property of Count Andrássy, by whom it has been restored, containing various antiquities and curiosities. — Ascent of the Poz Saló (3986 ft.), affording a view of the Tatra, on foot 4 hrs., by ox-waggon 5 hrs.

The iron, cobalt, and nickel mines in the Zemberg are very ancient. To the N. (4½ M.) lies the beautiful Valley of Straczena*, watered by the Göllnitz, which flows underground at places. From the Felsenthor or rock-gateway of Straczena a good road leads to the W., past the Spitzenstein, to the (4 M.) Inn Zur Eishöhle (burned down in 1894). From this point a pleasant path through the woods (with guide) leads to the (½ hr.)

entrance of the Dobschau Ice Cavern, Hung. Dobsinai Jégbarlang (3180 ft.), one of the largest of the kind, discovered in 1870.

The area of the cavern is about 10,000 sq. yds., 8000 of which are covered with ice. The total mass of ice is estimated at 140,000 cub. yds. Some of the blocks assume fantastic shapes, and all are of crystalline purity. — From the cavern or from Dobschau we may cross the Popova Sattel to Poprád (p. 355).

The RAILWAY FROM BÁNRÉVE TO MISKOLCZ follows the valley of the Sajó. 34 M. Putnok, with a château of Count Serényi. Then Vadna, Barczika, Sajó-Szent-Péter, and Sajó-Ecseg (p. 349). — 59 M. Miskolcz (p. 349).

ruin of Királyháza or Nyalabvár. We cross the Theiss, and ascend to its sources in the county of Máramaros, a basin of the principal chain of the Carpathians. The narrow ravine near Vörösmart is very picturesque. Near (104 M.) Huszt are the ruins of the castle of that name, of the 11th cent., destroyed by lightning in 1766 (view-tower of the Carpathian Club). 115½ M. Bustyaháza, station for Bad Visk on the opposite bank of the Theiss, with its chalybeate, alkaline, and muriatic spring (carr. in 1 hr., 2 fl.; to Técsö 3-4 fl.), amidst beautiful beech-forest. 120 M. Técsö. 126 M. Taraczköz, junction of a goods-line to Nyereznice, in the valley of the Taracz, and to Tereselpatak, in the valley of the Kobila.

To the E. rise the wooded Carpathians, usually capped with snow. The fairs annually held here present a curious mixture of nationalities (chiefly Ruthenians, also Roumanians, Germans, Magyars, Gipsies, Slovaks, Armenians, etc.).

The wooded and mountainous Environs, which abound in game (including the bear and the lynx), are very picturesque, and may be safely explored, though much less comfortably than the Tatra. Information as to guides and horses may be obtained from the local magistrates, the foresters, or the curés; also from Herr Karl Siegmeth at Debreczin, inspector of the N. Hungarian Railway and vice-president of the E. Carpathian mountaineering club.

Below Budapest the Danube traverses the vast Hungarian plain. Scener monotonous, banks thinly peopled, towns insignificant. Below the influ: of the Drave the scenery improves, and in the defile, 73 M. long, from Bá ziás to below the Iron Gates, it is grand at places. When the river i low, and the rapids are impassable for the larger steamboats, passengers an goods are transferred to smaller vessels at Moldova or Drencova. Th Danube Steamboat Company owns upwards of 200 steam-vessels, beside 850 barges. The goods-traffic is considerable.

The usual hours of arrival are given, assuming that the steamboa leaves Budapest at 10 p.m., and that the water is favourable. The name: of the stations are printed in heavy type.

Budapest, see p. 330. The vessel starts from the Franz-Joseph Quay (p. 331), touches at Ofen, and then descends the stream, passing under the Franz Josef-Brücke, and the Railway Junction Bridg (p. 343). Many floating mills are passed. The river divides, forming the large island of Csepel, 30 M. in length. The main arm flows on the W. side; the Soroksár Arm on the E. is closed by a lock.

R. Albertfalva (Ger. Sachsenfeld), with a royal château on the Danube, once the property of Prince Eugene.

Lower down begin the windings of the river, the longest of which, with the town of Tolna (p. 396), is cut off by means of a canal. To the right, in the distance, rise the Cserhát Mts. (p. 396), noted for their wine.

R. Dombori, station for Tolna; Szegszárd (p. 396).

R. Bâta, where Roman antiquities have been found, and Szekcsö. To the left begins the island of Mohács or Nagy Margitsziget, 25 M. in length.

R. (7.20 a.m.) Mohács (Hôtel Schwarz; cab into the town 40 kr.), with 14,400 inhab. and five churches, is famed for the disastrous battle of 29th Aug., 1526, which brought Hungary under the Turkish yoke. The battle-field lies 3 M. to the S.W. of the town. During the flight King Lewis II. perished in a swamp near the village of Czecze. Almost on the same field, on 12th Aug., 1687, Charles of Lorraine signally defeated the Turks, and put an end to their hated supremacy. The station of the Mohács and Fünfkirchen Railway (p. 392) is close to the pier. — The scenery continues unattractive.

R. Balina, with marble and alabaster quarries, and relics of the Roman period.

L. (9.35 a.m.) Bezdán, at the end of the Franzens or Bácser Canal, which connects the Danube and the Theiss (74 M. long, 65 ft. wide, $6^1/_2$ ft. deep).

L. (11.10 a.m.) Apatin (Zum Schäfer; 12,821 inhab.), in a hemp-growing district. The Römerschanze, an intrenchment 13 ft. high and 19 ft. broad (not visible from the steamboat), extends hence to the Theiss.

R. (12.20 p.m.) Drauеck, Hung. Drávalorok, at the mouth of the Drau or Drave, a considerable river, on which lies Essegg (p. 377; 9 M.; local steamboat in 1 hr.).

Below the influx of the Drave the left bank of the Danube continues flat. The right bank (belonging to Slavonia) rises in low hills clothed with vines and fruit-trees. R. Erdöd, with a ruined castle.

L. (1 p.m.) Gombos, a station on the Alföld Railway (p. 377).

R. Dálja, on the railway to Bosnisch-Brod (see p. 377).

R. (2.35 p.m.) Vukovár (Löwe; Hôtel Poumović), capital of Syrmia, with 14,000 inhab. and a château of Count Eltz. Vines and fruit-trees abound. The chain of hills on the S. side of the Danube between this and Slankamen is called Fruska-Gora (Roman Mons Almus). The well-known Karlowitzer wine (see p. 380) grows on the lower slopes, while the tops of the hills are densely wooded.

L. Novoszello. — R. Sárengrád, with a ruined castle.

L. (4.10 p.m.) Palánka. — R. (4.25 p.m.) Ilok, Hung. Ujlak (Jägerhorn), with a château of Prince Odescalchi and a castellated Franciscan monastery.

R. (5.35 p.m.) Cerevic-Beocsin, shortly above the village of Banoster.

L. Fatak. The scenery improves. In the distance to the left the fortress of Peterwardein is visible for some time.

R. (6.15 p.m.) Kamenitz, prettily situated, with a château and park of Count Karácsonyi. The large building on the hill is a military academy. The river turns suddenly to the N.

R. Peterwardein, Hung. Pétervárad (Zum Grünen Baum), a town with 3850 inhab., lies on a peninsula formed by the Danube, and at the base of the rock on which the Fortress stands (visitors admitted; fine view). The arsenal contains Turkish weapons. In the Franciscan church is the tomb of John Capistranus (d. 1465), the celebrated preacher of the Crusades. On 5th Aug., 1716, Prince Eugene defeated the Turks at Peterwardein, thus avenging their violation of the Peace of Karlowitz. — The steamer passes under the iron bridge, borne by four piers, and just below it through a bridge of boats. — Here begins the former Military Frontier, a long narrow strip of land parallel with the Turkish frontier, once under strict military organisation for defence against the Turks. The E. part of it was annexed to Hungary in 1872, the W. part to Croatia and Slavonia in 1881.

L. (6.30 p.m.) Neusatz, Hung. Ujvidék (Grand Hôtel; Hôtel Elisabeth), a thriving town with 28.000 inhab., founded in 1740, almost entirely destroyed in 1849, and since rebuilt, is the seat of a Greek bishop. Extensive corn-trade and fruit and vegetable cultivation. Railway to Zombor, see p. 377.

Below Peterwardein the Danube makes a long bend and again turns towards the S. The fortress long continues visible. On the hillside to the right is a large Franciscan monastery.

R. (7.15 p.m.) Karlowitz, Hung. Karlócza, Slav. Karlovci (Trompeter; pop. 6000), 3/4 M. from the river, the seat of a Greek Oriental patriarch, is memorable for the peace of 26th Jan., 1699, by which Austria acquired the greater part of Hungary and Transylvania. The chapel of Mariafried (663 ft.), in the vineyards above the town, occupies the site of the building in which the peace was concluded. The red wine (see p. 379) grown near Karlowitz and the 'Sliwowitz', or plum-brandy, distilled here, are highly esteemed. The main arm of the Danube is confined between numerous islands.

R. Slankamen, where the Margrave Lewis of Baden defeated the Turks in 1691. An obelisk, 52 ft. in height, commemorates the event.

L. Theisseck, at the influx of the Theiss (Hung. Tisza), is the starting-point of the steamers on the Theiss to Titel and Szegedin (see p. 386).

The hills on the right recede. In the distance appear the towers of Belgrade.

R. (10.15 p.m.) Semlin, Hung. Zimony (Rail. Restaurant; Hôtel Central; Grand Hôtel; pop. 16,400), the last Hungarian town on British Minister Resident, William E. Goschen, Esq.; Consul, Ranald D. G. Macdonald, Esq. — U. S. Vice-Consul General, E. Litzikas.

Belgrade (400 ft.), Serv. Beograd, Hung. Nandor-Fehérvar, the capital of the kingdom of Servia, with 60,000 inhab., lies picturesquely on a promontory formed by the Danube and Save, at the base of a limestone rock crowned by the dilapidated fortress. The town, the Roman Singidunum, was a fortress of the utmost importance during the Turkish wars. In 1455 it was successfully maintained by Hunyadi against Mohammed II., in 1521 it was captured by Soliman II., in 1688 retaken by Max Emanuel of Bavaria, in 1717 by Prince Eugene, and in 1789 by Laudon, having after each successive peace been restored to the Turks.

To the N.W., above the junction of the Save and Danube, is the dilapidated Fortress (Pl. A, 1, 2; not always accessible), occupied by a Turkish garrison down to 1867. In the upper part are prisons and the commandant's headquarters (with old cannon and mortars in front of them); in the lower part are barracks, magazines, and, on the bank of the Danube, the Nebojsche (torture) tower and a gate built under Prince Eugene. — To the S. of the fortress is the Kalemegdan Park (Pl. B, 2), the favourite afternoon promenade of the Belgradians, with beautiful flower-beds and bronze busts of Servian poets (military band on Sun.); charming view from the promenade Fikir-Baïr ('slope of dreaming'). — On the Danube, on the N.E. side of the fortress, is the former Turkish Town, or Dortschol, once the principal quarter, now nihabited by Jews, with a Turkish mosque (Djamia), a vapour-bath, and the scanty ruins of a palace of Prince Eugene (Pl. B, 2), the foundations of which seem to be much older. On the Save, on the W. side, is the SERVIAN or RASCIAN TOWN (Savamala), with steep streets and the steamboat quay. From the Kalemegdan the Usun-Mirkowa-Str. (Pl. C, 2, 3) leads S.E. to the MARKET PLACE (Weliki Trg; Pl. B, 3), where the picturesque costumes of the peasants may be seen in the forenoon. Here are the University (faculties of law, science, and philosophy), with the National Library; the Museum (adm. daily 9-12 and 3-5, free), containing Servian antiquities, coins, and weapons; and the Prefecture. In front of the University is the bronze statue of the Servian naturalist N. P. Panchitsch (1814-88), from Johanowitsch's design (1897). — Farther to the S.E. is the Theater-Platz (Pl. C, 3), with the National Theatre, opened in 1871, the Post & Telegraph Office, and the bronze Equestrian Statue of Prince Michael (see below), erected in 1882. From the Theater-Platz the Milan Street, formerly called the Terrasia, with a monumental fountain near its beginning, leads towards the S. In this street are various government offices, the New Konak (Royal Palace; Pl. C, D, 4), with the reception rooms, and the Old Konak, a plain one-storied building with a pleasant park; at the end of the street, to the right, is the Officers' Casino. — In the Prince Milosch Street, which diverges from the Milan Str. to the right, are (on the right) the Skuptschine (House of Representatives; Pl. C, D, 5), the Staatsrath-Gebäude (Privy Council Office), the Academy of War, and several other government offices. The third street to the right brings us back to the station.

Topschider, a station on the line to Nisch (electric tramway, see p. 381), the country-seat of the king, 3 M. to the W., has a large park (two restaurants), where Prince Michael Obrenowitch was assassinated on 10th June, 1868.

The steamboat, which usually starts at 5 a.m., passes close to the walls of the fortress. The left bank is flat and marshy. Numerous islands.

L. (6 a.m.) The navigable Temes falls into the Danube, which is here $1^1/_4$ M. in width. At its mouth is Pancsova, the station for the town of Pancsova (30,000 inhab.; local steamer to Semlin thrice daily), which is situated 3 M. above.

R. (7.35 a.m.) Semendria, once a Turkish fortress, still walled.

L. (7.55 a.m.) Kubin. The town lies on an island opposite the quay (railway to Versecz, see p. 389). Then on the right the influx of the Servian Morawa.

R. (8.30 a.m.) Dubrovitza. In the river, the island of Ostrova, 11 M. long.

R. Rama, a dilapidated Servian fort (near which are traces of Roman fortifications). Opposite lies —

L. Ó-Palánka, an Austrian frontier-post. The horizon is bounded by the spurs of the Carpathians.

L. (10 a.m.) Báziás (Rail. Restaurant, with rooms), with an old convent, the terminus of the Temesvár and Báziás railway (p. 389; the rail. station adjoins the steamboat-quay). — The Danube enters the hill-district of the Southern Carpathians. The Széchenyi-Strasse, a good road, made by the Hungarian government in 1834-37 at the instance of Count Széchenyi, leads hence to Orsova. Its viaducts and cuttings are frequently visible from the steamer.

R. (10.50 a.m.) Gradistje, a former Servian fortress, below the mouth of the Pek.

L. (11.20 a.m.) Moldŏva (6 M. to the N. of which are the copper mines of Uj-Moldova).

The banks become higher. Below Moldova the pointed Babakaj rock rises in the middle of the stream. On a pinnacle on the right bank stand the picturesque ruins of the fortress of Kolumbács (Galambosvár); opposite, the ruin of Lászlóvár. The rocks here contain numerous caverns. One of these (to the left) is the Kolumbács Cavern, filled with water, from which, according to the popular belief, come the swarms of poisonous stinging flies which often prove so destructive to cattle in summer. Below Kolumbács, to the left, is a tablet commemorating the regulation of the Danube, carried out in 1893. At —

L. (12.45 p.m.) Drenkova begin the rapidsof the Danube, which between this and Skela-Gladova falls over six ledges of rock, covered at times with barely 20 inches of water.

The scenery is now grand and severe. The vessel passes the ridges of Izlas and Tachtalia, and the prominent rock of Greben (627 ft.; partly blasted away in 1891), and suddenly enters a broad lake-like basin, enclosed by wooded heights. On the left is the village of Svinica; on the right (1.50 p.m.) the Servian town of Milanovac. On a hill to the left, farther on, are the ruins of three towers, called Trikule, said to be of Roman origin, beyond which are the villages of (l.) Tiszovica, (r.) Golubinje, and (l.) Plavisevica.

The Defile of Kasan, the grandest part of the passage, now begins. The Danube, here 180 ft. in depth, is confined to a width of 180 yds. by huge perpendicular cliffs. Before the construction of the Széchenyi Road the defile was impassable on either bank. On the right bank traces of the Roman Road constructed by Trajan, A. D. 103, from Orsova to Golubac are distinctly visible. It consisted of a path, 5-7 ft. in width, a little above the highest level of the water, carried at places round perpendicular rocks by means of covered wooden galleries. The holes in which the beams were inserted are frequently observable. The road was used by foot-passengers and cattle, as well as for towing vessels.

High above the road on the left bank, 1/4 hr. farther on, is the Veterani Cuvern in the Sukaru mountain, which was gallantly defended by the Austrian general Veterani with 400 men against a greatly superior Turkish force in 1682. The cavern, which is spacious in the interior, has a narrow entrance, almost completely hidden by trees. The Danube is here 285 yds. in width. At —

L. Dubova the Danube reaches its narrowest point (120 yds.). Opposite Ó Gradina, at the end of the defile, the celebrated time-worn, now barely legible Inscription of Trajan (Tabula Trajana) is seen on the perpendicular cliff:

MP. CAESAR DIVI. NERVAE F. NERVA TRAIANVS. AVG. GERM. PONT. MAXIMVS. . . .

It was probably intended to commemorate Trajan's first Dacian campaign and the construction of the road in 103 A.D.

L. (3.15 p.m.) Orsova (pron. Orshova; König von Ungarn, with garden on the river, R., L., & A. 1½-5 fl.; Goldner Hirsch, with café; Ungarische Krone*, at the station), a prettily-situated little town at the mouth of the Cerna, on the left bank of which, 2 M. from the pier (cab 1 fl.; to the Hercules-Bad 5 fl.), is the station of the Temesvár and Bucharest Railway (R. 72). Austrian custom-house. Above the town, 2 M. to the N., is the Shooting Range (rfmts.; fine view). A chapel near the railway-station, on the road to Verciorova, marks the spot where Kossuth buried the crown of Hungary in 1849. To the E. rises the hill of Allion (1040 ft.). This district is chiefly inhabited by Roumanians, recognisable by their peculiar costume. — The steamer moors at Orsova for the night.

About 3 M. lower down lies the island of Ada-Kaleh, taken by the Austrians in 1878, with an interesting Turkish colony and bazaar, old fortifications, etc. (interesting expedition by boat, 2 fl., and back on foot). To the left is the mouth of the Bachna, which forms the boundary between Hungary and Roumania. On the left bank is the first Roumanian village Verciorova (custom-house), a station on the railway to Bucharest (p. 388). Half-an-hour below it are the Iron Gates, Turkish Demir Kapu, the last great defile of the Danube, 1½ M. in length (scenery inferior to the Pass

It was the last seat of the Hungarian govern ment in August, 1849.

The road proceeds through wood in the gradually contracting valley viâ Bukóva to the (26 M.) Eiserne Thor Pass (2152 ft.), and descends viâ Zajkány in view of the broad Hátszeg valley to (31½ M.) Várhely (p. 417).

Agram (400 ft.), Slav. Zagreb, Hung. Zágráb, the capital of Croatia, with 53,000 inhab., and seat of a university founded in 1874, is prettily situated on the Medveščak, 1 1/2 M. from the Save. The town, partly destroyed by an earthquake on 9th Nov., 1880, but since rebuilt, consists of the Upper Town, the Lower Town, and (to the E. of the Medveščak) the Kapitel-Stadt. The two first are connected by a Cable Tramway (Rampe; Pl. C, 2), beginning in the Ilica, not far from the Jellačic-Platz. — In the Upper Town are the Palace of the Banus (governor of Croatia; Pl. 9, C 1), the Natural History Museum (Pl. C, 1; Sun. & Thurs., 10-1), St. Mark's Church (Pl. 1, C 1; Gothic, with rococo tower), and the Strossmayer Promenade (Pl. C, 2), affording a beautiful view of the valley of the Save. In the Kapitel-Stadt are the Archiepiscopal Palace (Pl. 16; D, 2), in the square in front of which rises a Column of the Virgin*, by Fernkorn and Pönninger, and the Cathedral* (Pl. D, 2), a fine late-Gothic edifice of the 15th cent., restored in 1890 (towers being rebuilt).

Lower Town. The Jellačić-Platz is adorned with an equestrian statue of the Banus Jellačić (d. 1859; Pl. D, 2). The Marie-Valerie-Gasse leads hence to the S., past the Synagogue (Pl. D, 2), to the large Zrinyi-Platz (Pl. D, 2; military band frequently in the afternoon). On the E. side rises the Palace of Justice (Pl. 10), in the Renaissance style; on the S. side is the palatial Academy of Science (Pl. 12; D, 3), with its fine court and valuable collections (antiquities and Strossmayer's picture-gallery, daily on application; library, 11-12, daily except Sun.). The Academie-Platz is adorned with marble busts of the Croatian painters Clovio and Medulić (Schiavone) and Gen. Frankopan (or Frangepani), and an equestrian statue of St. George by Fernkorn. On the S. side is the Chemical Laboratory of the University. Farther to the S. is the Franz-Josef-Platz, with the Kunst-Pavillon (Pl. 14) and the Staatsbahnhof (Pl. D, 3). — To the W. of the Academy the Kukovičgasse leads past the Protestant Church (Pl. 7, C 2; the only one in Croatia) to the Sveucilistni Trg, or Universitäts-Platz (Pl. C, 2), in which rises the Theatre (Pl. 13; performances in Croatian from Sept. to May). On the N. side of the square is the handsome Romanesque building of the Francis Joseph University, and on the E. side the headquarters of the Agricultural Society (Pl. 15). The Frankopangasse and the busy Ilica (Pl. B, C, 2), the chief street in Agram, lead back hence to the Jellačić-Platz.

Environs. The pleasant Maximir Park (restaurant) lies 1½ M. to the E. of the town. — A pleasant drive of 2 hrs. (fare 3 fl., bargain necessary) may be taken among the pretty vineyards and villas in the environs: from the Jellačić-Platz we drive through the Ilica and the Mesnićka-Strasse, passing the Schützenhaus (Pl. C, 1), to the Tuškanec Plateau, Cmrok, and Prekrizje, and return viâ Pantovčak or viâ Sestine and through the valley of the Medveščak viâ St. Xaver. — Near Mirogoi, 1½ M. to the N.E., beyond the suburb of Novaves, is the finely situated Central Cemetery. Thence we may reach the picturesque village of Remete in 25 min., and return viâ Bukovec and Maximir to the (1½ hr.) town (driving recommended). — About 15½ M. to the W. of Agram (carr. in 2½ hrs., there and back 6 fl.) lies the health resort of Samobor (Stadt Triest; grape-cure), with a ruined castle and fine views. — A fine excursion for a whole day is the ascent of the Sljeme (3527 ft.), the highest point of the Agram Mts. A new carriage-road ascends to the top (2½ hrs.' drive). On foot we walk to Gračane, a village at the foot of the hills, and ascend thence through wood in 2 hrs. to the bare summit, on which there is a refuge-hut; superb view.

From Agram to Steinbrück, see p. 196.

From Agram to Sissek, 31 M., railway in 1½-2 hrs. The line runs for the most part through oak-woods. 9½ M. Gross-Gorica; 21 M. Lekenik. — 31 M. Sissek (Rail. Restaurant; Hôt. Gross Kapitel, at the quay; Toplak, at the station; pop. 6500), which was besieged by the Turks in 1593, lies at the confluence of the Kulpa and the Save, and carries on a busy trade in grain, wood, and gall-nuts. Relics of the Roman colony of Siscia are still preserved. — From Sissek to Banjaluka, see R. 88.

The train now enters the Kapella Mts., which culminate in the Klek (see below). 272½ M. Dugaresa; a lofty viaduct; 283 M. Generalski-Stol. At (290 M.) Tuin, Croat. Tounj, we get a glimpse at the picturesque ravine of the Tuinschiza. — 293 M. Josipdol. — 300 M. Ogulin (1065 ft.; Hôtel Olzberger; Muzek, Rogović, at the station), a picturesquely-situated little town with 4200 inhabitants, on the Dobra, which here disappears in a rocky gully, 125 ft. in depth, to emerge again 3 M. to the E. Ascent of the Klek (3880 ft.; 4 hrs., with guide), interesting.

Ogulin and Josipdol are the most convenient starting-points for a visit to the Plitvica Lakes, 43½ M. from the former, 40 M. from the latter; carriage from either about 12 fl., there and back with stay of one day 17 fl. (bargain advisable). An omnibus plies every second day in summer (July 15th-Sept. 1st) in 7 hrs. (fare 4 fl.). Farther information from the Verein für Verschönerung der Plitvicer Seen, Academie-Platz 7, Agram. — The road passes Plaški (Inn, beside the church), a large village and the seat of a Greek bishop, Jasenica, with a ruined castle, and Zaborski. The *Plitvica Lakes (1660-2050 ft.), which are embosomed in woods and surrounded by mountains (highest peak 4200 ft.), form a chain about 7½ M. in length, and are connected with each other by cataracts, 10-130 ft. in height. There are 13 principal lakes, the water of which is of different colours. On the E. bank of the Kosjak Lake (1758 ft.) stands the well-equipped Vereins-Hotel (R. 60 kr.-2 fl., board 2 fl.) and the smaller Touristen-Haus. About 1½ M. to the N. of the hotel, before the Kosjak bridge, the Maria-Doro, thea-Weg diverges to the right, leading past the lower lakes (Milanovac, 1729 ft.; Osredak, 1700 ft.; Kaludjerovac, 1670 ft.; Novakovicev Brod, 1660 ft.) to the Plitvica Waterfall (255 ft.; 4 hrs. there and back). At (319 M.) Cameral-Moravice or Komorske-Moravice (Rail. Restaurant) we quit the valley of the Dobra. 329 M. Skrâd (2126 ft.), finely-situated. The train describes a wide curve and passes through three tunnels. 337 M. Delnice (2385 ft.; pop. 3000). Beyond (342½ M.) Lokve (2638 ft.) the train passes through the Sleme Tunnel, 340 yds. long, the highest point of the line (2884 ft.). It then descends, crossing the Ličanka Viaduct, to (347½ M.) Fuzine; then in long windings and through a tunnel to (352½ M.) Lič (2660 ft.), on the margin of the Karst plateau, where the Adriatic Sea first comes in sight. The line descends in a long bend to (358 M.) Plase (1808 ft.). Then Meja and Buccari, with a fine castle. The train crosses the Fiumara (Recina) and passes through a tunnel under the Calvarienberg.

Fiume, Slav. Rieka, the chief seaport in Hungary, lies picturesquely at the N.E. end of the Bay of Quarnero. Anciently a thriving town, and named St. Veit am Flaum in the middle ages, it was at one time a fief of the Patriarchs of Aquileia; it next belonged to the Counts of Duino and the Barons of Gorizia; in 1471 it was annexed to the dominions of the House of Hapsburg by Emp. Frederick III.; in 1779 it was attached to Hungary, with which, after several separations, it has been united since 1870. The town (pop. with the suburbs 40,000) has several harbours: the Porto Grande, protected by the Maria Theresia mole, and with large warehouses on the piers, the Porto Baross, for the timber-trade, the Porto Canale, for coasting vessels, the Petroleum Harbour, etc. Its trade is rapidly increasing. Among its factories are Whitehead's torpedo-works (to the W.) and Smith & Meynier's paper-mill in the Fiumara Ravine.

Near the centre of the town lies the Piazza Adamich, 1/2 M. to the E. of the station and a little to the N. of the steamboat-quay. Thence we follow the quay to the E., and then the Via del Porto (with the Savings Bank and the Market Hall) to the Piazza Ürmény, with the Theatre. To the S. of the theatre is the mouth of the Canale Fiumaria, to the N. the Piazza Scarpa, whence the Via S. Bernardino leads to the N.W. to the cathedral. The Cathedral, with a new façade in the style of the Pantheon in Rome, is the oldest church in Fiume. The church of St. Veit (1631), to the N.W., is an imitation of S. Maria della Salute in Venice. In this vicinity are the Governor's Palace and the Archduke Josef's Château (fine garden). Returning to the Piazza Scarpa, we follow the Corso, the main street of Fiume, which leads to the W. to the Piazza Adamich. The street entering the old town beneath the clock-tower on the Corso leads to a Roman Triumphal Arch, said to have been erected in honour of Emp. Claudius II. Gothicus (268-270). — To the N.W. of the railway-station is the Imperial Naval Academy, founded in 1856, and farther on is the beautiful Giardino Pubblico. — A pleasant walk (cab 1 fl.) ascends the valley of the Rieka to the (3 M.) Zakalj Mill.

A path flanked with oratories or stations, beginning near St. Veit's (see above), ascends in 400 steps to the Pilgrimage Church (Madonna del Mare), which contains a picture of the Madonna di Loreto ascribed by tradition to St Luke. The pillars are hung with the votive offerings of rescued mariners. From this point, which may also be reached viâ the Boulevard Sussak (cab 1 1/2 fl.), the sea looks like a large lake, enclosed by the hills on the islands of Veglia and Cherso. — Near the church is the château of Tersato, once the seat of the Frangepani (p. 397), now that of Count Nugent. In front of the mortuary chapel are preserved a column, eagle, and marble table erected by the Italians in honour of Consul Bonaparte on the battlefield of Marengo. *View of the Quarnero Bay with its islands, of Fiume, and the grand ravine of the Fiumara.

Charming excursion to Abbazia* (p. 214; a drive of 1 1/2 hr., 4-5 fl.; steamer nearly every hour in 3/4 hr., fare 40 kr., there and back 60 kr. — Pleasure-steamers frequently visit the islands of Veglia, Cherso, etc.; see advertisements in the newspapers. — An afternoon may be spent on an expedition to Buccari as follows: take the steamer to Buccari, walk thence by a picturesque route to the (1 1/4 hr.) loftily situated station (p. 399), and take the train back to (1/2 hr.) Fiume.

From Fiume to Trieste, see R. 35; to Zara, see R. 52.

TRANSYLVANIA, called Erdély by the Magyars, and Ardealu by the Roumanians (both meaning 'forest-land'), is a mountainous district of about 21,000 sq. M. in extent, lying between Hungary on the W. and Roumania on the E. Its German name of Siebenbürgen has been derived from the first seven 'burgs', or fortresses, built by the German colonists, or from the seven once fortified towns of Hermannstadt, Klausenburg, Kronstadt, Bistritz, Medias, Mühlenbach, and Schässburg.

History. At the beginning of the Christian era the district now known as Transylvania formed part of the kingdom of Dacia, and in 107 A.D., on the subjugation by Trajan of Decebalus, the last Dacian sovereign, it was incorporated with the Roman province of Dacia. It remained under Roman sway till 271 A. D., when the Emperor Aurelian was compelled to withdraw his troops and the flower of the Roman colonists across the Danube by the Gothic hordes from the N., which now poured into the country. From this date down to the beginning of the 12th cent. Transylvania was the great theatre of battles between the Ostrogoths, Huns, Longobards, Bulgarians, Magyars, Kumans, and other Eastern races which kept surging towards Western Europe. During the reign of Ladislaus I., King of Hungary (1078-95), who conquered the Kumans, Transylvania was united to Hungary, and began for the first time to enjoy the blessings of peace and order. Geisa II. (1141-61), who distinctly perceived the importance of Transylvania as the key of Hungary on the E., summoned German colonists to re-people and cultivate the desolated territory ('desertum') and to protect the empire ('ad retinendam coronam'). These immigrants, chiefly dwellers on the Middle Rhine (Middle Franconians), and collectively known as Saxons, settled in the 'Land unter dem Walde', or district below the forest (Broos, Mühlenbach, and Reussmarkt), in the 'Altland' (Hermannstadt, Leschkirch, Gross-Schenk, Reps), and in the 'Weinland' (Medias and Schässburg), where they built towns and tilled the soil. Andreas II. (1204-35) made over the Burzenland (see p. 412) to the Teutonic Order, which had been founded shortly before (in 1191), but had to recall this privilege and expel the knights of the Order in 1225, on their attempt to lay the conquered country at the feet of Pope Honorius III. as the property of the apostolic see. In 1224 the same monarch, however, granted a charter (the 'Golden Bull') to the other German settlers, on which the rights and privileges of the Germans in Transylvania have rested for centuries, and which was solemnly confirmed by several of his successors. During the following centuries Transylvania shared the fortunes of the kingdom of Hungary. Swarms of Mongolians (in 1241) and Turks (from 1420) invaded and ravaged the country, not, however, without meeting a heroic resistance (as from Hunyady Janos, d. 1456), and compelled the three privileged 'Nations' of Transylvania, the Magyars, Szeklers, and Germans, to form in 1437 a 'fraternal union' for mutual protection. After Lewis II. of Hungary had lost his life and crown, and Hungary her independence, at the battle of Mohács in 1526, the victorious Turks made Transylvania an independent principality under Turkish protection, and it was thenceforth governed by princes elected by the people and approved by the Sultan. Of these the most eminent was Bethlen Gábor (Gabriel Bethlen), who reigned from 1613 to 1629. The fluctuating policy of the Sultan and of the Hapsburgs, who possessed a hereditary claim to Transylvania, involved the country in numerous conflicts, but the Turks were at length decisively defeated at Vienna in 1683, and after the Peace of Karlowitz, in 1699, they abandoned their claim to the principality. On 4th Dec., 1691, Emp. Leopold I., by the 'Leopoldine Diploma', ratified the public and private laws of Transylvania, guaranteed religious toleration to the four 'received' creeds, and annexed the country to Austria. The German population had been Lutheran since 1540, while of the Magyars and Szeklers some had embraced the Calvinistic doctrines in 1557, others were Socinians or Unitarians (a sect established in 1568), and the remainder Roman Catholics. An insurrection under Francis II. Rakoczy in 1704-10, known as the 'Kurutz War', was quelled by the Austrians, and in 1718 the Turks were again defeated, and compelled by the Peace of Passarovitz to recognise the supremacy of Austria. Since that period Transylvania, which was erected into a 'grand principality' by Maria Theresa, has shared the fortunes of Austria and Hungary. The rebellion of Nicolaus Urss (Horjah) in 1784 and the revolutionary years 1848 and 1849 were attended by many evils Since 1868 Transylvania has been in legislative and administrative respects incorporated with Hungary.

Inhabitants. The Magyars, who entered the land as conquerors, and settled mainly in the N.W. districts.

The Szeklers, also Magyars, who were settled in E. Transylvania at an unknown date, in order to act as 'Szekler', or guardians of the frontier, and who at one time erroneously regarded themselves as descendants of the Huns. The Magyars in Transylvania, including the Szeklers, number about 765,000 souls.

The Saxons, about 222,000 in number, the descendants of the German immigrants invited by Geisa II. (p. 402) from the Middle Rhine, were at first called Teutones, Teutonici Hospites, or Flandrenses, but since 1206 have been known as Saxones or Saxons, as is the case also with most of the mediæval German immigrants into Hungary.

These three races have from an early period shared the government of the country among them, as being, by virtue of conquest and colonisation, the sole 'privileged nations'. Transylvania, however, is peopled by various other races. Indeed the largest part of the population consists of Roumanians or Wallachians, of whom there are no fewer than 1,395,000. These regard themselves as the lineal descendants of the Roman colonists, but are in reality a mixed race, made up of Roman and Slavonic elements, which was formerly settled on the Balkans. Driven thence by the Greek Emperor Isaac Angelus about 1186, they migrated to the left bank of the Danube, and, after the power of the Kumans had been broken by the Teutonic Order, are said to have crossed the mountains and entered Transylvania. They named themselves Roumanians as members of the E. Roman Empire (Rûm), and had adopted the Greek form of Christianity during their long subjection to the Greek emperors.

Another element in the population consists of the Armenians, 8400 in number, who first settled in Transylvania about 1668, and who occupy the towns of Szamos Ujvár, Elisabethstadt, Gyergyó Szent Miklos, Deés, etc. There are also about 88,000 Gipsies in Transylvania, of whom we hear as early as 1417, when they were governed by a Voivode of their own. Most of them are nomads; but at Háromszek, Torda, Ober-Weissenburg, and Innerszolnok some of them have settled down and become industrious husbandmen. The other races represented are Jews (26,000), Slovaks, Ruthenians, Bulgar- ians, Servians, and Greeks. — The total population is in round numbers 2,400,000.

Plan of Tour. The S. part of Transylvania is the most interesting; i.e. the district between Petrozsény, Hermannstadt, and Kronstadt, which may be explored in about a fortnight. About 3 days should be allowed for Hermannstadt and the Hohe Rinne (R. 82); 2 days for the ascent of the Negoi (p. 422); 4-5 days for Kronstadt and its attractive environs (R. 80; Rosenau, Schuler, Bucsecs, Tusnad), while the remaining days may be spent in visiting Petrozsény and Livazeny (R. 81) in the S., and Bistritz (with ascent of the Kuhhorn, p. 408) and Klausenburg in the N. In districts to which neither trains nor diligences have yet penetrated, decent carriages (6-8 fl. per day) or saddle-horses (1-1½ fl. per day) may be hired. The poor saddles generally require shawls or rugs to make them comfortable. — Guides (1 fl. 20-2 fl. per day), necessary for mountain-excursions, may be obtained in the neighbouring villages. When a guide or horse is discharged at a distance from home, the full charge for the return-journey is usually paid. Application for guides, etc., should be made to the Transylvanian Carpathian Club, which has its headquarters at Hermannstadt, and branches at Kronstadt, Bistritz, Schässburg, Fogaras, Broos, Mühlbach, Petrozsény, and Szasz Régen.

Mountain-boots should be brought from home, but good alpenstocks and knapsacks may be purchased at Kronstadt (Hornung Brothers) and Hermannstadt (Karl Jauernig). Rugs (8-12 fl.) also may be obtained at these towns.

Inns. The inns in the towns are fairly good on the whole and not dear. A tariff approved by the local authorities is usually displayed in the bed-rooms. On expeditions into the country or among the mountains it is advisable to carry provisions. Quarters for the night among the mountains may be found in the refuge-huts of the Carpathian Club, in the houses of the royal foresters, or in Roumanian chalets ('Stina').

Money, the Austrian. In case of a trip to Roumania or Bucharest French gold will be found useful. Francs are called Lei (sing. leu) in Roumania, centimes Bani (sing. ban).

Passports are unnecessary for Transylvania, but are essential for Roumania. The visa of a Roumanian consul is required.

Language. The official language is Hungarian, which is also the popular tongue in the W. and N. districts and in the districts of the Szeklers. German, however, will carry the traveller through in most places, even at Bucharest, though French is more common there. Travellers among the mountains will find the knowledge of a few Roumanian phrases convenient.

78. From Klausenburg to Bistritz.

74 M. Railway in 4¾ hrs. (fares 4 fl. 30, 3 fl. 20 kr., 2 fl.).

Klausenburg, Hung. Kolozsvár. — Hotels. *Hôtel New York, with electric light, R. & L. 80 kr.-5 fl. 10 kr., omn. 30 kr.; Central, in the market-place; Hungaria; Königin von England; Biasini, near the University. — Rail. Restaurant. — Cafés: Nagy Gabor, Europa, both in the market place. — Cab from the station 60 kr., with two horses 1 fl.; Omnibus 30 kr. — Steam Tramway from the station through the town to Kolozs Monostor (see below); also from the main square through the Inner and Outer Ungargasse.

Klausenburg (1145 ft.), a town with 34,500 inhab., on the Little Számos, founded by the Saxons in 1272, is the seat of the authorities of the county of Kolozs, of a Reformed and a Unitarian superintendent, and of a Magyar university (since 1872). The Saxons of Klausenburg, having adopted the Socinian creed, and thus separated from their compatriots, have long since become identified with the Magyar population. Being the headquarters of the numerous noblesse of Transylvania, the town is very animated in winter. — Proceeding to the W. from the station we pass through the 'Bridge Suburb' (Hidelve), with the Citadel (Fellegvár), erected by General Steinville in 1715. The slope of the citadel-hill is studded with gipsies' huts. We then cross the bridge over the Little Számos and enter the Inner Town. The oldest part of this is the N.E. corner, the Óvár, or 'old castle', built by the Saxons. Óvár contains the house (No. 3 Matyas Kiralfy-Utcza; tablet), now a barrack, in which King Matthew Corvinus was born in 1443. The banks of the Számos farther on are bordered by public gardens, in which military and gipsy bands frequently play. In the market-place is the Rom. Cath. Cathedral of St. Michael, erected in 1396-1432. In the S.E. part of the town is the Reformed Church, built by Matthew Corvinus in 1486, and ceded to the Calvinists by Bethlen Gábor in 1622. In the W. suburb is the Botanic Garden, presented to the town by Count Mikó, containing a Museum (adm. Sun., 10-12). Near it are the handsome buildings of the University Chemical and Anatomical Institutes. To the W. is the suburb of Kolozs Monostor, with an old monastery and an agricultural college. Opposite is a brewery with garden.

The train skirts the Little Számos, running at first on the rails of the Klausenburg and Kronstadt line (R. 79). — 7½ M. Apahida, on the Staatsbahn (p. 408), which here turns to the S.; 8½ M. Apahida, a Roumanian village of 1000 inhabitants.

We cross the river and skirt the left bank. 18 M. Válasút-Bonczhida, each with a castle and a park. At some distance to the left, Kendi-Lóna, with a château of Countess Teleky. We recross the Számos.

28 M. Szamos-Ujvár (Krone; Hungaria), a royal free town with regular streets, a handsome square, and 5800 inhab., chiefly Armenians, now 'Magyarised'. It is the seat of a Greek-Catholic bishop, and the tasteful Armenian-Cath. church contains an altar-piece attributed to Rubens. The fortress at the N. end of the town, erected in the 16th cent., is now a prison, where Rosza Sándor, the notorious bandit-chief, died in confinement. — On the left bank of the Számos, 1½ M. to the W., lie the small baths of Kérö, with sulphur and other springs (omn. hourly, 10 kr.; cab 1 fl.).

The Számos is crossed a third time; the valley contracts. To the left diverges the branch-line to the salt-works of Deésakna (see below). Szent Benedek, on the right, has a pilgrimage-church and a 15th cent. château of Count Kornis, once strongly fortified, afterwards a monastery. — At the foot of the Rosenberg (1010 ft.) lies — 36½ M. Deés (Europa; Zum Engländer; Rail. Restaurant; omn. to the town 20 kr.; cab 80 kr.; pop. 7700, chiefly Magyars), a royal free town, capital of the county of Szolnok-Doboka, at the confluence of the Great and Little Számos. Handsome Prot. church of the 15th century. In the upper promenade is a tower (16th cent.) of the old fortifications. Opposite, across the river, is the Béla-Berg (1055 ft.), with a rifle-range and fine view. — The village of Deésakna, with its salt-works and salt-baths, lies 1½ M. to the S. (cab with stay of 1 hr., 2 fl.).

From Deés to Zilah, 63 M., railway in 4¼ hrs. The line skirts the Számos to the N.W., sometimes on embankments in the river-bed. 8 M. Kaczkó; 14 M. Galgó; 18½ M. Sósmezö, in a pleasant district; 25 M. Nagy Illonda, near rocky scenery. — 29 M. Hosszúrév; 33 M. Letka; 37 M. Aranymezö. To the right are wooded slopes and fissured cliffs. We cross the Számos by a bridge, 160 yds. in length, before reaching (43½ M.) Szurduk, and proceed on the left bank in a broader part of the valley. Beyond (47½ M.) Zsibó, with a château and park, the line quits the Számos and enters a side-valley to the left. 54½ M. Nyirsid. Thence we proceed on lofty embankments and through deep cuttings to (63 M.) Zilah (Rail. Restaurant; Tiger), a small town with a Hungarian population. Thence to Nagy Károly viâ Sarmaság, 57 M., in 4¾ hrs., see p. 372.

From Galgó (see above) to Magyar-Lápos, 19½ M., diligence in 4 hrs. (fare 1½ fl.). — Magyar-Lápos is a Roumanian village (2000 inhab.) in the valley of the Lápos. About 4½ M. to the N. are the baths of Sztoika (pens. 2 3 fl.), with natron-springs. The road continues to ascend the valley of the Lápos to the N.E. viâ the iron-works of Oláh-Lápos and Sztrimbuly, and over the Rotunda (3484 ft.) to (22 M.) Kapnikbánya. — From Oláh-Lápos, 7 M. from Magyar-Lápos, we may drive in 2 hrs. to Tökés (p. 372).

From Nagy Illonda (see above) to Nagy Somkut, 16½ M., diligence in 3 hrs. (fare 1 fl. 40 kr.), viâ Kis-Körtvelyes, near which is a stalactite cavern. Nagy Somkut is a considerable village in the Bursa Valley. About 4½ M. to the S.E. of it is the rock-castle of Kövár, destroyed by the Imperial troops in 1670. Nagybánya (see p. 372) lies 16½ M. to the N., viâ Szakállasfalva.

The train (carriages changed at Deés) crosses the Great Számos, turns to the E., and runs along the right bank, viâ Bacza, with a château of Count Zichy, to (44 M.) Retteg (Roum. Reteagu). 47 M. Csicsó Keresztur (Roum. Cristuru); on a hill to the left are the picturesque ruins of the rocky fastness of Csicsó, destroyed in 1544. We cross the Számos. 52 M. Bethlen (2300 inhab.), ancestral residence of the Bethlen family. A road leads to the N.E., through the upper Számos Valley, to [illegible]

Beyond Bethlen we soon enter the valley of the Sajó, an affluent of the Számos. Fine view of the snow-peaks of the Czibles and Kuhhorn (see pp. 374, 408) and of the mountains on the N. frontier. At (57 M.) Somkerek the line bends to the S. and crosses the Sajó. To the right, in the distance, lies the village of Kerlés, with a château and park of Count Bethlen. About 3 M. to the S. is the Cserhalom ('oak-hill'), occupied by a château, where Prince Ladislaus, afterwards King of Hungary, defeated the Kumans in 1070 (p. 402). — 64 M. Sajó-Magyarós.

To MAROS LUDAS, 58½ M., railway in 5½ hrs. The train crosses the Számos and leads through pleasant valleys. Stations: Kerlés (see above), Lekencze (Ger. Lechnitz), Budatelke, Kis Sármás, Mezö Méhes. Then through the valley of the Rét to Mezö Záh, Mezö Szengyel-Tóhát, and (59 M.) Maros Ludas (p. 408).

The Sajó is again crossed. 67½ M. Szeretfalva, whence a road leads to Szász Régen (p. 409). The train recrosses the Sajó, and then enters the valley of the Bistritz, in which we soon come in sight of the Saxon village of Heidendorf, Hung. Bessenyö, on the left, with numerous vineyards.

Bistritz (1188 ft.), a royal free town and capital of the county of Bistritz-Naszód, on the Bistritz, with 10,300 inhab., chiefly Germans of earlier immigration than the other 'Saxons', was formerly called Nösen, and gave its name to the Nösner Land. The town has long since lost the commercial importance it enjoyed in the 15th and 16th cent., though it still has some wood and leather manufactures. Little is now left of its picturesque old walls and towers, which withstood many hostile attacks in the 16th and 17th centuries. The Gothic Prot. Church, finished in 1563, and much injured by repeated fires, has the highest tower in Transylvania (235 ft.; built in 1519); within the church are some captured Turkish banners. The houses with arcades, in the market-place, should be noticed. Pretty promenade at the foot of the wooded Schiefer berg (1640 ft.), to the E. The Burgberg* (2241 ft.; 1¼ hr.), where a castle of Hunyady Janos once stood, built in 1453 but destroyed by the townsfolk in 1464, affords a beautiful view of Bistritz, embedded among orchards, and of the E. Carpathians.

FROM BISTRITZ TO KIMPOLUNG IN THE BUKOWINA, 74 M., diligence in 2 days, spending the night at Tyhucza (fare 5 fl. 92 kr.). The road passes (3½ M.) Jaad (2½ M. to the S.E. of the Saxon village of Pintak, with saline baths) and (14 M.) Borgó-Prund in the Bistritz valley. — 26 M. Tyhucza. — At the Magura Kálului (4035 ft.), near (38 M.) Pojana Stampi, the frontier is crossed. From (47 M.) Dorna Watra to (55 M.) Jakobeny we ascend the valley of the Golden Bistritz. 74 M. Kimpolung is the terminus of a branch-railway from Hatna.

FROM BISTRITZ TO ALT-RODNA. The road (diligence to Naszód, 14½ M., in 2¾ hrs., 1 fl.; carr. to Alt-Rodna in 4½ hrs., 8 fl., there and back 12 fl.)

crosses the Stubenberg (1725 ft.), to Mettersdorf, and passes Naszód, a large village in the valley of the Számos; 28½ M. Oláh Szent Györgg, with the Borkút mineral spring; and Dombhát, with a similar spring. — 33 M. Alt-Rodna, Ger. Rodenau (1700 ft.; Pfeuffer's Inn), once had a large German population, but was destroyed by the Mongols in 1241; it is now inhabited by Roumanians. Pop. 3300. At the foot of the Kuhhorn, Roum. Ineu, Hung. Ünökö (7480 ft.; 5 hrs.; club-hut), 6 M. higher up, lead-mines are worked. In a narrow valley at the base of the Kuhhorn lies the mining village of Valea Vinului (Inn), Hung. Radna Borberek, with a natron-spring. Hence the Koronjis (6505 ft.; abundant edelweiss) may be ascended with guide.

Klausenburg (Kolozsvár), see p. 405. — The railway runs through the broad valley of the Számos to (7½ M.) Apahida (to Bistritz, see p. 405), and then turns to the right. 10½ M. Kolozs-Kara. The line, threading several tunnels, winds along the W. verge of the Mezöség, a bare hilly district that extends E. to Szász Régen (p. 409). 22½ M. Virágosvölgy. Near (32½ M.) Aranyos-Gyéres we cross the Aranyos; to the right is a view of the gorge of Torda.

Many diets have been held at Torda. Pleasant gardens on the Aranyos. About 1½ M. to the N.E. of the market-place are a saline-bath and large salt-mines. In the vicinity are numerous remains of a colony (perhaps Potaissa) founded here by the Romans, to whom the salt-deposit was known. — About 6 M. to the W. is the Tordai Hasadék, a defile eroded by the Peterd, ¾ M. long and 25-65 ft. wide, the rocky sides of which are pierced by two caverns. At the entrance of the defile is a club-hut. The drive there and back takes 2½ hrs. (carr. 5 fl.), the visit to the gorge, etc., 2½-3 hrs. more.

From Torda to Topánfalva (39 M.; carr. in 10 hrs., 16 fl.) and Toroczkó (15 M.; carr. in 4 hrs., 6 fl.). The road ascends the valley of the Aranyos viâ (10½ M.) Borév, beyond which the scenery improves, and (14 M.) Offenbánya to (63 M.) Topánfalva (Roum. Kimpény), a large Roumanian village, whence we may visit the waterfall of Unter-Vidra (about 2½ hrs. to the W.) or the ice-cavern of Skerisora (9 hrs. to the N.W., viâ Ober-Girda) in the Roumanian Motzenland. Abrudbánya (p. 419) lies 6 M. to the S. of Topánfalva. — From Borév a road leads S. through romantic gorges to (4½ M.) Toroczkó (Ger. Eisenmarkt), a small town with iron-works, inhabited by a peculiar and fine-looking race of Szeklers (Unitarians), the descendants of immigrants from Upper Austria, and thence past the ruined castle of Toroczkó-Szent-György (5½ M. to the W. of which is the stalactite cavern of Bedelö) and viâ several villages to (14 M.) Nagy Enyed (p. 409).

In the Széchenyi-Platz rises the monument to the Honvéd general Bem, distinguished in 1848-49. On the Postwiese is a monument to Török, Gálfy, and Horváth, three Szeklers executed here in 1854 on suspicion of conspiring against the Austrian dynasty. At the W. end of the town is the island of Elba, with pleasure-grounds, restaurant, vapour-baths, etc. — 44 M. Maros-Vásárhely Felsöv; 47½ M. Sáromberke: 49 M. Gernyeszeg. — 58 M. Szász Régen, Ger. Sächsisch-Regen (1265 ft.; Hôt. Schuster; Städtisches Gasthaus), a pleasantly situated town of 6000 inhab., chiefly Saxons. The Stadt-Park lies on an island in the Maros. Thence to Bistritz, see p. 407.

The 'Tököly' is a saline spring to the S.W., near the railway; it is so saturated with salt (20 per cent) that the bather finds it difficult to keep under water. At the beginning of the town, about ½ M. to the W., are the 'green' and the 'red' pond. The new town is picturesquely situated at the entrance to the Schaas valley, below the older Oberstadt or Burg, the wall of which is partly preserved. On the top of the Burg (to the S.) are the Berg-Kirche (with a *Ciborium and choir-stalls ascribed to the sons of Veit Stoss of Nuremberg) and a Gymnasium containing a good collection of antiquities. Lower down (on the N.) are the convent-church and the Stunden-Thurm, and farther on the considerable provincial buildings, the Roman Catholic church, and two other old towers (good

Beyond Héjasfalva (see below) the train enters the valley of the Great Kokel and passes Székely Keresztur, Nagy Galambfalva, and Bögöz. — 30 M. Székely Udvárhely (Hôtel Hungaria), an industrial town with 5500 inhab., mostly Szeklers, is the capital of a county of the same name. Attila is said to have once held his court here (Udvarhelo, 'place of a court'). — A good road, diverging from the valley of the Kokel at Tenyéd, leads hence to the (6 M.) Baths of Homoród, where an annual festival is celebrated on August 16th by the surrounding Unitarians (Socinians), and to the plateau on which lies Oláhfalu (2890 ft.), a large Szekler village (3700 inhab.) at the foot of the Hargita Mts. (5905 ft.). Kronstadt (1877 ft.), Hung. Brassó, Roum. Brasov, with 30,750 inhab., of whom about 9000 are Saxons, the most important commercial and manufacturing town in Transylvania, lies in a charming basin, with an opening on one side only towards the Burzen plain. Founded by the Teutonic Order (p. 402), the town still retains its German character, in spite of the steadily increasing Roumanian and Magyar element. It consists of four quarters: 1. The Inner Town, the centre of business; 2. The Old Town, or Ó Brassó, the oldest quarter, but now modern and insignificant; 3. Blumenau, Hung. Bolonya, the quarter next to the station, mainly inhabited by manufacturers; 4. The Upper or Roumanian Suburb, resembling a village, chiefly occupied by Roumanians, said to have been founded in 1392 by the Bulgarian labourers (hence called also Bolgárszeg) who came here to build the 'Black Church'.

In front of the E. side of the inner town rises the Schlossberg, crowned by a citadel built in 1553 by Count Arco, the Austrian general, to protect Kronstadt from the Voivode Peter of Wallachia. Fragments of the fortification-wall of the inner town still remain, besides the Schwarze and Weisse Thurm, on the N., the so-called Graft below the Schwarze Thurm, and the Weber-Bastei (at the S.W. angle), now a manual school. — Round the town runs a promenade, the prettiest part of which is the Upper* or Burg Promenade, on the S., on the slopes of the Zinne.

In the centre of the principal square in the Inner Town stands the Rathhaus (Pl. 15), built in 1420 (the tower, 190 ft. high, earlier), and restored in 1770 in 18th cent. taste. In the same square, to the S., is the Warenhalle (Pl. 5), erected in 1545; and to the S. a Greek-Catholic church with twin domes. In the adjoining Hirschergasse is the handsome new Concert-Haus.

The Protestant Church (Pl. 8), in the Kirchhof-Platz (Pl. B, 3), popularly called the 'Black Church' from its smoke-stained walls, is a Gothic edifice of 1385-1425, with traces of Romanesque influence. On the exterior of the choir-wall are statues of the twelve Apostles, amidst foliage, once gilded, but now black. The interior (sacristan, Honterushof 8; 1-2 pers. 40 kr., 3 or more 1 fl.) contains an altar, designed by Bartesch of Kronstadt, and carved by Schönthaler of Vienna in 1866; the altar-piece, 'Christ among the weary and heavy-laden', is by Martersteig of Weimar. Carved choir-stalls; seats of the guilds, hung with rich Oriental tapestry. Johannes Honterus (1498-1549), the 'Apostle of Transylvania', preached in this church. — Adjoining the church are the Honterus Gymnasium (grammar-school) and the Museum, the latter containing Natural History and Archaeological Collections and a valuable Library founded by Honterus in 1544. Between the church and the school is a Statue of Honterus, by H. Magnussen of Berlin (1898).

From the church we cross the Rossmarkt to the modern Girls School (Pl. 14), to the E. of which, by the Katharinen-Thor, is the Turnschule. Opposite, in the Schul-Platz, the open space between the inner town and the upper suburb, is the Roumanian Gymnasium (Pl. 16), to the left of which is the little Protestant Church of the Upper Suburb. Higher up the valley is the Greek-Oriental Church of St. Nicholas (Pl. 12), built in 1495 and restored in 1751.

The Roman Catholic Church (Pl. 11), Klostergasse, with the adjacent School and Gymnasium, occupies the site of an old Dominican monastery. The Church of St. Bartholomew (Pl. 6), at the end of the old town, is the oldest church in Kronstadt. The little Prot. church on the Martinsberg, in the old town, commands an attractive view.

On the N.E. side of the inner town are several large public buildings: the Pensions-Anstalt, at the end of the Klostergasse, containing the Post Office; the Protestant Church (to the S.), the Upper Commercial School, the Gewerbeverein, the Commercial Academy, and the new Finance Office.

The Environs afford many pleasant excursions. From the inner town a route crosses the Burggasse to the water-reservoir and thence leads through beech-woods to the (1¼ hr.) top of the *Zinne (3153 ft.; 1276 ft. above the town; rfmts.), which commands a beautiful view of the town and the Burzen plain: to the S., the Bucsecs, to the S.W., the Königstein, to the N.W., the Geister-Wald, to the N., the valley of the Alt and the Marienburg, to the N.E., the Háromszék plain and the Kászon Mts., and to the S.E., the Siebendörfer, Pietra Mare, and Csukás. On the summit is a Millennium Monument, designed by Berczik (1896): a Doric column on a circular pedestal supports the figure of a warrior of the time of Arpád. — From the Post-Wiese we may proceed above the Weisse Thurm to the Lorbeer-Gässchen and to the (35 min.) Warte (inn; view of the plain, the Schuler, and Bucsecs), and thence through beech-woods to the (1/2 hr.) inn below the Kleine Hangestein, 1/4 M. beyond which we obtain a view of Zeiden. About 1/4 M. before the inn a route diverges to the left to the (1 hr.) Grosse Hangestein (2982 ft.). About 1/2 hr. farther on is the Rabenstein (3295 ft.; fine view), whence we may regain the town in 1 1/2 hr., viâ the Kreuzberg, which projects into the Upper Suburb. — To the S.W., above the Upper Suburb, is the (1 1/2 hr.) Salomonsfelsen, or Solomon's Rock, with the caverns in which the Hungarian king Solomon (d. 1087) is said to have dwelt after his defeat by the Bulgarians.

From Kronstadt to Hosszufalú, 10 M., steam-tramway (p. 412). 3 M Honterus. At the Honterus-Platz (small inn), 3/4 M. to the W., amidst pretty beech-wood, a popular festival is celebrated annually at the beginning of July. The Honterus Spring rises 1/2 M. higher up. About 1 3/4 M. to the S. we reach (5 1/2 M.) Noa, the village of which name (Elysium Restaurant; Tannenau Bierhalle; military band frequently), with its pretty villas, lies 1/2 M. to the W. In the vicinity are the Poiana Florei (Tannenau) and the Räuber-Brunnen. — 5 1/2 M. Derestye (Dirste), a station on the Bucharest railway, whence an attractive expedition may be made to the Tömös Pass (p. 424). — 10 M. Hosszufalú, with 7000 inhab., is one of the Siebendörfer ('seven villages'), inhabited by Hungarians and Wallachians, which are situated close to each other at the foot of the Pietra Mare and Csukás. The easternmost village is the watering-place of Zaizon, reached from Kronstadt direct by omnibus twice a day (50 kr.).

From Kronstadt to Zernest, 17 1/2 M., railway in 1 3/4 hr. The train starts from the principal station and runs viâ (2 1/2 M.) Bertalan (p. 412) to (8 1/2 M.) Neustadt, Hung. Keresztényfalva (large inn), a thriving Saxon village, with a fortified church in good preservation. — 10 1/2 M. Rosenau, Hung. Barcza-Rozsnyó (Communal Inn, clean), a Saxon village with 4100 inhab., prettily situated at the foot of the Burgberg (2405 ft.; 1/2 hr.; fine views), on which are the considerable ruins of a castle and pretty woodland walks (on the side next Neustadt). About 10 M. to the S.W. of Rosenau (carr. in 1 1/2 hr.) lies Törzburg, with an imposing castle, at the entrance of the Törzburg Pass, on the site of the fortress of Dietrichstein, erected by the Teutonic Knights in 1212. In the neighbourhood are various scattered settlements of Roumanian peasants ('Kalibashi'). — About 2 1/2 hrs. farther (pleasant drive) lies Ober-Törzburg (Roum. La Crucea), on the Roumanian frontier (rustic vehicle from Törzburg, 4 fl.). Owing to the uncertainty of obtaining a carriage at Rosenau, it is better to drive all the way from Kronstadt to Törzburg viâ Rosenau, fare 8-10 fl.; a visit to Ober-Törzburg may be included for 3-4 fl. more, but Kronstadt must then be quitted about 4 a.m. — Thence we proceed along the Burzenbach, viâ (15 M.) Alt-Tohán, where the Austrian general Heissler was defeated in 1690 by Emerich Tököly, to (17 1/2 M.) Zernest, a Roumanian village with 2800 inhabitants.

Mountain Ascents. Guides (1 1/2 fl. per day), necessary for all ascents except perhaps that of the Schuler, should be engaged beforehand through the Kronstadt branch of the Carpathian Club (porter 1 fl.-1 fl. 20 kr., horse 1 fl. 30-1 fl. 80 kr. per day). The club-hut on the Schuler contains an inn for which coupons must be obtained at the Schützenhaus, the Hauptquartier Versailles, or elsewhere in Kronstadt. The other huts offer only shelter for the night (keys kept by the guides). Passports, see p. 404. — The Schuler (5927 ft.; 4 1/2 hrs.) is ascended by a marked path leading from the Upper Suburb (enquire for the path to the 'Poiana') to the (2 hrs.) Baumstumpf-Quelle in the Poiana or Schulerau, and thence past the Wolfs-Quelle to the (1 3/4 hr.) Schuler Haus of the Transylvanian Carpathian Club and the (3/4 hr.) summit (admirable view). The descent is best made from the Schuler Haus viâ Ruia and Rittersteig to the Schützenhaus (p. 412). — The Piatra Mare (Hohenstein; 6035 ft.; 4 1/2 hrs.). From Derestye (see above) we proceed by the Tömös Valley to the (1/2 hr.) forester's house, then gradually ascend in the Georginen Valley to the (3 hrs.) club-hut, beyond which a steeper climb brings us to the top in 1 hr. The descent (destitute of shade but commanding fine views) may be made past the Huttenfels and through the Tamina Gorge to the station of Tömös (p. 424). — The Csukás (6424 ft.; 7 hrs.). From Hosszufalú (p. 414) we ascend the Tatrang Valley to the customs-station at (1½ hr.) Altschanz, then skirt the Teszlabach to the (3 hrs.) Teszla-Sattel (4692 ft.), which is 2½ hrs. below the summit. — The Bucsecs (8230 ft.; 6¾ hrs.). From Rosenau (p. 414) we drive (carr. 2 fl.) up the valley of the Grosse Weidenbach for 1½ hr., and then ascend through the fine woods of the Malaiest Gorge to a (2¼ hrs.) club-hut. Thence we proceed either by the Friedrich-Deubel-Weg up the Buksoi (7897 ft.) to the Om, or by a steep route along the W. side of the Buksoi, surmounting several successive levels and finally traversing a meadow to the (3 hrs.) Stone Hut on the Om (i.e. 'man', so called from its shape), the highest of the numerous peaks rising on the verge of the massive Bucsecs group, close to the Roumanian frontier. The expedition may advantageously be continued along the ridge to the S.E. viâ the Caraiman (8185 ft.) and the Petra Arse (7647 ft.) to the (3¾ hrs.) Furnica (7506 ft.), and thence down, by-and-by through wood, to the vicinity of the château of Pelesch (2 hrs.; p. 424). A digression to the rock-convent of Skit la Jalomicza (lodging-house for visitors), romantically situated to the W. in the valley of the Jalomicza, adds 1½ hr. to the journey from the Om to the Furnica. Near the convent are several stalactite caves. A bridle-path leads hence viâ the Furnica (see above) to the château of Pelesch (p. 424), in 4½-5 hrs. — The Königstein (7352 ft.; 7-8 hrs.). From Zernest (p. 414) we proceed up the Riu Valley, to the E. of the Little Königstein (5950 ft.), for 1½ hr., then ascend gradually past Pestere (a little to the left) and through the Joc Gorge to the (2¼ hrs.) club-hut. Thence a steep ascent of 3 hrs. brings us to the Hirtenspitze, commanding a view of the imposing W. side with its fissures. Between the Königstein and the Little Königstein is the remarkable gorge of Crepatura. Near its upper exit is a club-hut.

FROM KRONSTADT TO KÉZDI VÁSÁRHELY, 48 M., railway in 3½ hrs. The line runs to the N.E. through the Burzen plain viâ (5 M.) Honigberg, Hung. Szász-Hermány, and (10 M.) Tartlau, Hung. Prázsmár, a Saxon village (3300 inhab.), with an interesting fortified church; and then through the plain of the Háromszék, passing the Fekete Ügy and several unimportant stations, to (20 M.) Szepsi-Szent-György (Hôt. Blasko), on the right bank of the Alt, capital of the county of Háromszék and one of the most important towns of the Szeklers, with 5700 inhab. (chiefly Prot.). The railway now turns to the E., viâ Rety-Eresztevény, Nagy Borosnyó, and Barátos (Rail. Restaurant). — 38 M. Kovászna (1840 ft.; Inn on the Promenade; pop. 3700) has mineral springs and baths (Pokólsár, impregnated with carbonic acid; Gözlo, vapour-bath); the hill of Pilis, 6 M. to the E., commands a beautiful view over the Háromszék district. — The line now bends abruptly to the N., and beyond Zabola-Páva and Imecsfalva reaches (48 M.) Kézdi Vásárhely (Hotel No. 1; Cserci; Szarvas), a royal free town, with 5200 Szekler inhab., situated above the influx of the Kászon into the Fekete Ügy, and carrying on a brisk trade with Moldavia.

FROM SZEPSI-SZENT-GYÖRGY (see above) TO BORSZÉK, about 98 M. Railway in 3¾ hrs. to Csik Szereda; thence by road (see p. 416; carr. from Kronstadt to Borszék in 2½ days, 20 fl.). — 13 M. Málnás-Fürdö, with mineral springs; 18 M. Bükszád-Balványos, with glass-works, whence a route leads to the N.E. through beech-woods in 1½ hr. to the St. Anna Lake (see below). From the station an omnibus plies in 1 hr. to Fidelisbad, with chalybeate and other baths (pens. 3 fl.). — 22 M. Jusnád-Fürdö (Drei Husaren; Rosza's Restaurant*; Restaurant* near the Iodine baths and in the Curhaus), situated amidst beautiful fir-woods, a favourite watering-place, with mineral baths and springs, particularly patronized by Jews. A pleasant excursion may be made to the E. over the wooded ridge of the Csomál to the (2 hrs.) beautiful St. Anna Lake (3120 ft.). About 2 hrs. to the N.E. of the lake is the Budösberg (3610 ft.), on which are mineral springs (Curhotel) and a cavern filled to a height of 3-5 ft. above the floor with carbonic acid gas and hydrosulphuric acid gas (used as a bath). — The railway beyond Tusnád continues to follow the valley of the Alt. 39 M. Csik Szereda (Hutter Pál's Inn; 1600 inhab.), capital of the county of Csik, lying at the base of the Hargita Mts. The neighbouring Franciscan monastery of Csik Somlyó is visited by Roman Catholic Szekler pilgrims. To Székely Udvárhely, see p. 411. — Hence we proceed by road (carr. to Borszek and back in 3 days, 15 fl.). The road passes the villages of Csicsó, Csik Rákos, Madaras, and Szent Tamas. 15 M. Csik Szent Domokos, 6 M. to the N. of which, near the source of the Alt, is the copper-mine of Bálanbánya. The road now quits the valley of the Alt, crosses the N. spur of the Hargita Mts., the watershed between the Alt and the Maros, and leads over the high-lying Plain of Gyergyó, viâ Vasláb and Tekeröpatak, to (32 M.) Gyergyó Szent Miklós (Laurenzi's Inn), a town of 6100 inhab., mostly Armenians. Farther on is Szárhegy, with a Franciscan monastery and a château of Count Lazar; the latter, in which Prince Bethlen Gábor spent his youth, was destroyed during the Kurutz war, or Rakoczy rebellion, in 1705. Beyond Szárhegy the road leads by Ditro, the hill of Tilalmas, and the Kőzrész (4124 ft.), to (59 M.) Borszék (p. 409).

81. From Arad to Hermannstadt.

Railway in 4½-7 hrs. From Arad to Hermannstadt viâ Tövis, 203 M. in 9¼-11¾ hrs.; viâ Alvincz, 177 M. (fares in each case the maximum zone-tariff, see p. 319).

Arad, see p. 375. The Temesvár line (see p. 375) diverges to the right. The Transylvanian railway follows the valley of the Maros, the banks of which produce excellent wine (Menescher, Magyaráder, etc.), though the yield has been much reduced by the phylloxera. On the left rise the vine-clad Arad Hills, with the ruined castle and village of Világos (p. 375). Stations: Glogovács, Gyorok, Paulis. — 22 M. Maria-Radna (Schwarzer Adler or Fekete Sas), with a pilgrimage-church with two towers, containing a wonder-working image of the Virgin. On the opposite bank of the Maros lies Lippa (Erzherzog Josef or József Föherczeg; pop. 7000). Branch-line from Maria-Radna to Temesvár, see p. 387. — On the left stands the ruin of Solymos.

The train follows the right bank of the Maros. Stations: Konop, with a château; Soborsin (Rail. Restaurant), with château and park of Count Nádasdy. At (64 M.) Zám we cross the frontier of Transylvania. 74½ M. Guraszáda, with an old church; to the right, in the distance, Dobra, with its ruined castle. 77½ M. Maros Illye, birthplace of Bethlen Gábor (1580-1629), prince of Transylvania (p. 402). Near (84 M.) Branyicska we cross the Maros. On the right is Vecel or Véczel, with the ruins of the Roman fort of Micia.

92 M. Déva (Hôt. Müllner; Fehérkereszt or Weisses Kreuz, R. 80 kr.-1½ fl.; pop. over 4700) is the capital of the county of Hunyad. The castle, on a trachyte rock, 610 ft. high (¾ hr.), affords a fine view of the valleys of the Cserna, the Strell, and the Maros, and of the Hátszeg Mts. (p. 417). The Gold Mines of Nagyág are reached from Déva by carriage in 3½ hrs. (4-5 fl.). The gold is found in the greenstone and trachyte rock, in conjunction with tellurium.

The train crosses the Cserna (view of the Transylvanian Erzgebirge to the left). — 98 M. Piski (Rail. Restaurant; Hôt. Központ or Central, at the station), with large railway-workshops, at the confluence of the Strell with the Maros. The bridge over the Strell here was defended against the Austrians in 1849 by General Bem (commemorative obelisk near the station).

From Piski to Vajna Hunyan, 10 M., railway in 1 hr. — Vajda Hunyad, Roum. Hunedióra (Városi Fogado or Städtischer Gasthof; Café Strauss), has 3000 inhabitants. At the confluence of the Cserna and the Zalasd, at the W. end of the town, is the *Castle of Hunyady Janos (1387-1456), the celebrated conqueror of the Turks. The Gothic building to the right of the entrance was built by Hunyady himself, the rest by Matthew Corvinus (1486) and Bethlen Gábor (1619-24). The castle was injured by a fire in 1854, but was restored in 1870. Near the castle are large iron works, whence a wire-rope railway, 33 M. in length, extends viâ Gyalár to Vadu Dobri.

From Piski to Petrozsény ann Lupény, 61½ M., railway in 5¾ hrs. (fares 3 fl. 60, 2 fl. 40, 1 fl. 50 kr.). The line traverses the valley of the Strell. 9 M. Kalán-Zeykfalva. At the village of Kalán, 2 M. to the N., are thermal baths (inn); Zeykfalva, to the S., has an ancient church, said to date from the Roman period. — 18½ M. Váralja-Hátszeg. About 3½ M. to the W. (diligence thrice daily in ¾ hr.; 40 kr.) is the little town of Hátszeg (1035 ft.; inn, in the market-place, fair). Fine view of the valley of the Hátszeg and of the Hátszeg Mts. (finest from the Orlia Hill, ½ hr. from the station and 1½ hr. from the town, with the ruins of a Roman watch-tower). — On the road to Karánsebes (p. 387), 10½ M. to the W. of the town, is Várhely, the Roman Sarmizegetusa, with the remains of a Roman amphitheatre and other traces of the Roman dominion (which are also abundant elsewhere in the Hátszeg valley). About 3 hrs.' drive to the S.W. of Hátszeg, and about 4½ M. to the E. of Várhely, lies Malomvicz, with the ruined castle of Kolczvár (whence the Retjezat, 8190 ft., may be ascended in 9 hrs.).

Beyond (27½ M.) Puj the line quits the valley of the Strell and ascends in long windings. 35½ M. Krivádia, with a Roman watch-tower. At Merisor we cross the Bánicza by a lofty bridge. Traversing several tunnels, we pass the Dealu Bábi hill to (42½ M.) Bánicza, the highest point of the line (about 2460 ft.); and beyond the hill of Csetate Boli (on the left; worth a visit) reach — 50 M. Petrozsény (2000 ft.; Hôt. Prokopp, No. 426, Hôt. Bukarest, respectively to the W. and E. of the railway; Berger's Bierhalle), with 8000 inhab., situated in a fine mountain-valley of the Hungarian Schiel. On each side of the line lie large coal-beds (350 sq. M. in area and 3-114 ft. in thickness), connected with each other by a mineral railway.

The line runs hence to the S. to (53½ M.) Livazény, whence a pleasant excursion may be made to the Szurduk Pass, and along the bank of the Schiel to Tirgu Jiu (p. 388) in Roumania, and thence to Orsova (p. 388) by railway. — 55 M. Alsó-Barbatény; 58 M. Vulkan (Hôt. Prokop). — 61½ M. Lupény, with coal-pits worked by a French company.

For guides, etc., for mountain-tours in the neighbourhood of Petrozsény we apply to the Schielthal branch of the Carpathian Club there (guide 2 fl., horse 1 fl. per day; provisions necessary; passport, see p. 404). To the S.E. rise the picturesque Paring Mts. A route leads viâ Zsiecz, partly through beech-woods, to the top of the Szlima (4879 ft.) and to the (3 hrs.) club-hut below the Paring (6810 ft.), and thence viâ the (2 hrs.) Cârjia (7897 ft.) to the (1 hr.) Verfu Mundri (8259 ft.), the highest summit, commanding a wide view. A path diverging to the N.E. at the Cârjia descends viâ the Verfu Capre (6329 ft.) to the (4½ hrs.) Poiana Mueri (p. 418).

From Petrozsény to Hermannstadt, an interesting mountain-tour of 3 days (accommodation in the foresters' cottages). We ascend the valley of the Schiel to the N.E. to (1½ hr.) Lonyai, and thence follow the road to the left through the gorge of the Riu Taia to the (4 hrs.) forester's house of Auschel (3935 ft.), beyond which are the (4 hrs.) club-hut on the Surian

Lake below the Surian (6565 ft.) and the (2 hrs.) forester's house of Brigona. A picturesque path now skirts the Riu Brigona and afterwards the Riu Sebes or Mühlbach viâ the (3½ hrs.) forester's house of Teu (2425 ft.) to the (3½ hrs.) colony of Bistra (4334 ft.), 1 M. from which is another forester's house. Our route next runs viâ the (3½ hrs.) customs-station of La Duz (4740 ft.; inn) and down the valley of the Zibin to (6 hrs.) Guraro and Orlát (p. 420), or along the ridge to the N.E. viâ the gamekeeper's house Poenitia direct to Orlát, whence we take the train to Hermannstadt. — An alternative route from Lonyai (p. 417) continues to ascend the Schiel valley, becoming steep after 2 hrs. and traversing beech-wood for a long distance, to the (3¼ hrs.) club-hut below the Poiana Mueri (5790 ft.; comp. p. 417), whence it proceeds up and down hill to (3½ hrs.) Timpa, a Roumanian frontier-post (accommodation here or in a 'Stina', 1¼ M. distant), and then down to (1¾ hr.) Piatra Alba (5060 ft.; Inn), a Hungarian frontier-post. Crossing the valley of the Mühlbach (on the other side of which begin the Zibin Mts.) we proceed by the Frumosa, with the (3¼ hrs.) Cindrel (7375 ft.), on the N. slope of which the Zibin issues from the Zibin Lake. Then, passing the Besineu and the Batrina (6036 ft.), we turn to the left at a (3½ hrs.) gamekeeper's cottage, and descend through wood to the (1 hr.) Curhaus Hohe Rinne. Thence to Hermannstadt, see p. 421.

108 M. Broos, Hung. Szászváros (735 ft.; Zwei Pistolen; Széchenyi; Krone; pop. 5650, 25 per cent German), lies on the Saxon 'Königsboden', in the 'Land unter dem Walde'. The church is surrounded by a wall with three towers. Walk to the (½ hr.) top of the Holumbu (1116 ft.; extensive view). In the Gyögy Valley, on the right bank of the Maros, lie the small thermal baths of Algyógy, 7½ M. to the N.

Pleasant drive (carr. 5-6 fl.) into the mountains, passing Berény, Alsó-Városnize, Felsö-Városvize, Ludesd, and Koztesd to (3½ hrs.) Gredistye (1740 ft.; quarters at the forester's). Thence we may ride to the (3 hrs.) venerable ruins of a Roman castle, lying amidst beech-woods on the mountain-ridge of Muncsel.

116 M. Alkenyér (Sibót) lies in the fertile plain called the Brodfeld (Kenyérmezö), where Stephan Báthory defeated the Turks under Ali Beg in 1479 (monument at the station). — 125½ M. Alvincz, Ger. Winz or Winzendorf, with a castle in which Cardinal Martinuzzi was assassinated in 1551. On the opposite bank of the Maros lies Borberek, noted for its wine. Hence to Hermannstadt direct, see p. 419.

The train crosses the Maros near Maros Porto.

131 M. Karlsburg, formerly Weissenburg, Hung. Gyula Fehérvár (720 ft.; Europa; Hôtel National, R. 60 kr.-2 fl.; Hungaria; Rail. Restaurant; pop. 8200, one-sixth Jews), the Roman Apulum, was once the residence of the princes of Transylvania. Many Roman relics in the vicinity. The only attraction is the Citadel (restaurant), built in 1716-35 by Emp. Charles VI. Here rises the Cathedral of St. Michael*, originally in the round-arch style, but enlarged and altered in the Gothic style by Hunyady Janos in 1443-44. It contains the sarcophagi of Hunyady Janos (d. 1456), his son Ladislaus (beheaded at Ofen in 1457), Queen Isabella (d. 1556), and her son John Sigismund (d. 1571). Adjoining the cathedral is the Episcopal Palace. In the N. part of the fortress is the Academy, now a barrack, built by Bethlen Gábor as a Protestant grammar-school, where the poet Martin Opitz taught philosophy in 1629-30; the Church of the Jesuits, the resting-place of Christof Báthory (d. 1581), now a military magazine; and, lastly, the Batthyaneum, founded by Bishop Count Batthyány in 1794, with geological and archæological collections, a library, and an observatory. — Excellent wine (Rozsamal) is produced in the environs.

From Karlsburg to Abrudbánya, in the Transylvanian Erzgebirge. Railway to Zalathna, 23½ M. in 2¾ hrs.; thence by road. The railway ascends the Ompoly Valley, passing (10 M.) Tótfalud (with the castle of Szent Mihalykö, on a rock, erected by Bela IV. in 1268), Metesd, Preszaka, and Galacz (excursion in the romantic Fenes Valley to Peatra Capri, 4½ M.). — 23½ M. Zalathna (Moscovics Inn), Ger. Klein-Schlatten, the Auraria Minor of the Romans, the seat of the mining authorities for Transylvania, with gold-mines. — We now proceed by road (carr. to Abrudbánya 7 fl., there and back 11 fl.). The road crosses the hill of Petricsa (3020 ft.), with a monument in memory of the making of the road (1836), and passes (12½ M.) Bucsum in the Vale Cserbului. About 5 M. to the N.E. is the Detunata Gola, a basaltic rock 360 ft. high, on a neighbouring hill; several of its columns, which rise in clusters, have been overthrown by lightning, whence the epithet 'detunata'. — 16½ M. Abrudbánya (Detonata Inn), Ger. Gross-Schlatten (1965 ft.; pop. 3000, chiefly Rouman.), is the Roman Auraria Major. The Vulkan Mts. (4147 ft.), 9 M. to the S.W., command fine views. To the N.E. (diligence in 1½ hr.; 60 kr.) is (7 M.) Verespatak, the Alburnus Major of the Romans (numerous remains), with the most productive gold-mine in Europe. On the hill of Kirnik are the Csetata Mare and Csetate Mike, ancient workings in the form of craters. Topánfalva (p. 408) lies 6 M. to the N.

Beyond Karlsburg the line traverses a small plain, the scene of the battle of Maros Szent Imre, where Hunyady Janos routed the Turks under Mezet Beg in 1442. On the left rise the spurs of the Transylvanian Erzgebirge; the tower-shaped peak is named Kecs kekö (Wallachian Peatra Capri, 'goat's rock'; 4000 ft.).

143 M. Tövis, and thence to (203 M.) Hermannstadt, see p. 409.

From Alvincz to Hermannstadt, 51½ M., railway in 5 hrs. — Alvincz, see p. 418. — 5½ M. Mühlbach, Hung. Szász Sebes (815 ft.; Goldner Löwe; Schunn), with 6700 Saxon and Roumanian inhab., has a Protestant church of the 15th cent. on Roman foundations, one of the most interesting architectural monuments in Transylvania. There are also a few remains of the mediæval fortifications. Part of the outer town is inhabited by a colony introduced in 1743 and 1770 from the Breisgau (Baden). An agreeable wine is produced in the neighbourhood. To the N. of the town is the Rothe Berg.

Mühlbach is a good starting-point for excursions in the Mühlbach Mts., where accommodation is found in the foresters' cottages. — To the S. is (2¼ M.) Petersdorf, with a large paper-mill; 4½ M. farther is Szászcsor, with a ruined mediæval castle. — Bistra, 35 M. up the Mühlbach valley, is frequented by consumptives.

The railway gradually ascends. 10½ M. Kelling (Hung. Kelnek) 20½ M. Kleinpold (Hung. Kis-Apold); 25 M. Grosspold (Hung. Nagy-Apold), a Roman settlement, now noted for its wine. We rapidly ascend (best views on the left) through a tunnel and over iron viaducts to (29 M.) Gális. Above lies Tetscheln (Ecsellö), below which is the watershed (1900 ft.) between the Maros and the Alt. — 33 M. Szelistye, 1 M. from the Roumanian village of that name. We descend viâ (35½ M.) Szecsel to (37½ M.) Kakova, in the valley of the Cerna Voda or Schwarzbach. — 39 M. Orlat (p. 418), inhabited by Roumanians. On the right (E.) rises the chain of the S. Carpathians, on which snow is frequently seen even at the height of summer. — 42 M. Grossau (Hung. Keresztényszsiget), with a fortified church. Drive hence to the (5 hrs.) top of the Hohe Rinne, see p. 421. — 49 M. Neppendorf (Hung. Kis-Torony). — 51½ M. Hermannstadt (see below).

Hermannstadt (1411 ft.), Hung. Nagy Szeben, Roum. Sibiu, Lat. Cibinium, the former capital of Transylvania, and one of the earliest Saxon colonies, lies on a hill on the river Zibin. It is now the capital of the county of the same name and seat of the Prot. Saxon bishop and of a Greek Oriental archbishop. Of its 21,500 inhab. two-thirds are Saxons. Garrison, 2500.

The central point of traffic is the Grosse Ring (Pl. C, 4), in which is the House of the Saxon Nation. The Grosse Ring is connected with the Kleine Ring by a tower built in 1588. To the W. is the Roman Catholic Church (Pl. 8)

The Protestant Church (Pl. 4), dating from the 14-16th cent., contains a beautiful cup-shaped font, cast by Meister Leonhardus in 1438. On the N. wall of the choir is a large mural painting of the *Crucifixion, with numerous figures, by Johann of Rosenau (1445), one of the best specimens of Transylvanian art. In the sacristy are valuable chalices and ciboria (15-17th cent.), and vestments embroidered with gold. The 'New Church', an addition of the 16th cent., contains many interesting tombstones of old Saxon counts, burgomasters, etc. The tower, 240 ft. high, with turrets at the angles, commands a fine view. (Sacristan, Huët-Platz 6.)

The Church of the Ursuline Nuns (Pl. 6), the Chapel by the Elisabeth-Thor, with a huge crucifix carved from a single block of stone by Landregen of Ratisbon (1417), the Prot. Hospital Church, and the Greek and Reformed churches are without artistic merit.

The Rathhaus (Pl. 9), originally the fortified dwelling of a patrician, purchased by the town in 1545, presents interesting architectural details. It contains the Archives of the 'Saxon Nation', and a well-arranged armoury (adm. on application). The staircase passes a very fine door of the beginning of the 16th century.

Geograph. Anstalt von Wagner & Debes, Leipzig.

The Brukenthal Palace (Pl. 1; adm. gratis, 11-1 and 3-5 daily in summer, except Sun. & holidays), built by Baron Brukenthal, governor of Transylvania in 1777-87, contains a Library of 100,000 vols. and 500 incunabula (Codex Altenberger of 1481; superb missal); a Cabinet of Minerals, with beautiful specimens from the Erzgebirge (gold-ore and tellurium); and an Archaeological Collection, rich in Transylvanian coins. On the second floor is a Picture Gallery, with about 1100 paintings, including many copies (adm. on Thurs., 11-1; in winter on application). The tasteful new Museum (Pl. 11; open Thurs. & Sun. 11-1; also to strangers on application) contains the Collection of the Natural History Society, including specimens of the entire fauna and flora of Transylvania, a well arranged geological cabinet, and an ethnographical collection. — The once strong fortifications are now represented by portions of the wall and a few towers near the Theatre (Pl. 10).

Excursions. Through the beautiful Erlen-Park (Pl. A, 6), beginning near the military swimming-school, to the (3/4 hr.) Resinar road and then to the right to the (1/4 hr.) inn in the Junge Wald, a pleasure-resort with fine oaks. — From the Elisabeth suburb to (1/2 hr.) Hammersdorf (inn) and the (1/4 hr.) Grigori-Warte, on the S. slope of the Grigoriberg (1972 ft.), commanding the best view of the town and the mountains.

To the Hohe Rinne Curhaus. We take the train to Orlát (p. 420) and thence drive up the valley of the Menger viâ the Valare (4435 ft.) and the forester's house of Paltinisch. Or we may drive all the way (6 hrs.; carr. 6 fl.) by a good road, almost destitute of shade, running viâ Neppendorf, immediately to the W. of Hermannstadt, Grossau (p. 420), and Orlát. The Hohe Rinne Curhaus (4660 ft.; R. 4-10 fl. per week, pens. 12 fl.), in a sheltered situation, with a fine view, belongs to the Hermannstadt branch of the Carpathian Club. — The Route viâ Resinar (about 6 hrs.) is preferable. We drive (carr. about 2 fl.; diligence 50 c.) in 1 1/2 hr. through the extensive Junge Wald (see above) to (8 M.) Resinar (inn; to Michelsberg, see p. 422), a Roumanian village with 5300 inhab., on a mountain-spur on the Schewisbach. The Greek-Oriental prelate Schaguna (d. 1873), a benefactor of the Roumanians, is buried near the smaller church. From Resinar we may drive by the new road which joins the road from Grossau at Curmantura, or we may proceed on foot up the smiling valley of the Riu Stezi to the (2 1/2 hrs.) six saw-mills of Resinar. About 1/2 hr. farther up is the lower Hermannstadt gamekeeper's house (3065 ft.). We may thence take the footpath (to the W., then S.W.) joining the hunter's path which ends in the road at Gradina; or we may follow the road which ascends in curves (steeper footpath to the left, through fine beech-woods) to the (2 hrs.) Rehwiese or Schanta (4410 ft.; tavern), at the foot of the Oncest (5635 ft.), whence a pleasant and well-marked path leads to the (1 1/2 hr.) Curhaus. — Thence to Petrozsény over the Zibin Mts., see p. 418.

The local club willingly affords all information as to mountain-tours in the neighbourhood of Hermannstadt. There are club-huts with beds and provisions on the Prâsbe (p. 422), the Negoi (p. 422), and in the Bullea Valley (p. 423), for which coupons must be purchased at Hermannstadt (in the Hôtel Römischer Kaiser, Restaurant Pankiewicz, etc.) or other starting-place. It is advisable to provide food and to order guides, horses, and carriages (6-8 fl. per day) in advance.

83. From Hermannstadt to Fogaras.

53 M. Railway in 4 hrs. (fares 2 fl. 50 kr., 2 fl., 1 fl. 25 kr.). This is the continuation of the line from Kis Kapus (p. 410).

Hermannstadt, see p. 420. — The railway follows the valley of the Zibin to (3 M.) Schellenberg (Hung. Sellemberk), where a hill to the right commemorates the defeat of Andreas Báthory by the Wallachian Voivode Michael in 1598.

A Branch Railway runs hence to (5 M.) Heltau, Hung. Nagy Disznód. Roum. Cisnedia (Bonfert, near the station; Central Inn; Zum Siebenburg, Carpathen-Verein), a large Saxon village, prettily situated on the Kaltbach. The church contains a cross and monstrance, masterpieces of the goldsmith's art among the Saxons in the 16th century. — From Zoodt, 1¼ hr. to the S. of Heltau, the attractive ascent of the Prásbe (5735 ft.; porter and horse each 1 fl. per day; see p. 421) is made in 4 hrs. — Michelsberg, Hung. Kis Disznód, Roum. Cisnediora (1916 ft.; Inn), ¾ M. to the W. of Heltau, is the only Saxon mountain-village. Close to it rises a wooded hill with a ruined castle and a tolerably preserved Romanesque church. The wooded Götzenberg (4280 ft.; dilapidated refuge-hut) is ascended hence viâ the Mällseifen (view) in 2½-3 hrs., or viâ the Rosengarten in 4 hrs. (from Heltau in 2½ hrs.). A footpath leads from Michelsberg to (3 M.) Resinar (p. 421), and a carriage-road to the (4½ M.) inn in the Junge Wald (p. 421).

11 M. Talmesch, Hung. Nagy-Talmácz (Rail. Restaurant), at the junction of the Zoodt with the Zibin. On a hill 2¼ M. to the S.E. is the ruin of Landskron, built in 1370, demolished in 1453. Zoodt (see above) lies 4½ M. to the W.

A Branch Railway runs to the S.W. from Talmesch through the valley of the Alt, viâ Boicza, to Rotenthurm (Hung. Vöröstorony), the frontier station in the direction of Roumania (railway being prolonged to Rimnicu Válcea). Pedestrians, turning to the S. at the bridge over the Alt, proceed from Talmesch viâ Boicza, to the (6 M.) Rothenthurm Pass (1198 ft.), a passage through the hills formed by the Alt, and at one time a highly important trade-route to the East. The name is derived from a red tower at one end, a relic of the former fortifications. About 1½ M. beyond the pass is Riu Vadúlui, the boundary between Transylvania and Roumania.

The railway now crosses the Zibin and the Alt, affording a continuous view of the Fogaras Mts. to the right. 15½ M. Ober-Sebesch, Hung. Felsö-Sebes; 20 M. Freck, Hung. Felek (Rail. Restaurant), a Roumanian village with a park and a château, built by Baron Brukenthal (p. 421).

Mountain Ascents (guides at Freck, 1 fl. 20 kr.-1½ fl. per day; horse 1 fl.). The Szurul (7484 ft.) is ascended from Ober-Sebesch viâ Fruntea Moasi in 6 hrs. The descent may be made to the (1¾ hr.) Freck Lake (6575 ft.), then along the Riu Mare to the (1¾ hr.) Freck Chalet (Stina intre Tri Izvori) and over the Burcaciu to the (2¼ hrs.) Poiana Niamtiului (see below). — From Freck (accommodation in the Schloss Inn) we may ascend the Negoi* (8347 ft.; 2-3 days there and back), the highest mountain in Transylvania (bridle-path to the refuge-hut). The route at first leads up the Riu Mare, passing an abandoned glass-work and a woollen-mill, to the (3-3½ hrs.) customs-station on the Poiana Niamtiului. Thence we follow the 'Plaiu Teri', or main road, to Roumania, which ascends steeply through beech woods to the (1¼ hr.) Marienquelle on the Burcaciu, beyond which it follows the ridge towards the S., at an easier slope but destitute of shade. At the Hirtenfels (3835 ft.), 1¼ hr. from the Marienquelle, the path diverges to the left from the road, descends into a hollow, crosses a ridge to the streamlet of Serbota, and once more ascends to the (2 hrs.) Club Hut (5050 ft.; good quarters, comp. p. 422), situated on a spur of the main summit. We thence ascend to the Gemsstein by the 'Drachen-Steig', a club-path constructed in 1896, traverse a patch of snow to the (3¼ hrs.) Michelis-Ruhe, and, finally skirting the slope of the Little Negoi, climb steeply to the (¾ hr.) summit. Fine view of the mountains and plain as far as Fogaras and Hermaunstadt. An attractive but more difficult descent leads down in about 8 hrs. to the Bullea Lake (see below).

25½ M. Ober-Porumbach, Hung. Alsó-Porumbák. — 31½ M. Kercz, a Saxon village with the ruins of a Cistercian abbey suppressed by Matthew Corvinus in 1474, on account of the immorality of the monks.

Excursion to the Bullea Valley (guides as at Freck, see p. 422). We drive (carr. 2 fl.; to be ordered in advance) viâ the (2 hrs.) abandoned Kercz Glass Works (accommodation), occasionally running through wood, to the (3½ hrs.) Club Hut (4048 ft.; comp. p. 422) below the Bullea Waterfall, and thence to the (3½ hrs.) Bullea Lake (6748 ft.), at the foot of the Paltina (7875 ft.; 1 hr.) and the Venatorea lui Buteanu (8230 ft.; 2½ hrs.). We may return from the lake to Kercz in 6 hrs. viâ the Valea Domna Valley and the Mieria (5240 ft.; splendid view).

33½ M. Alsó-Arpás, Ger. Unter-Arpad.

Ascent of the Podragu. From Alsó-Arpás we drive (carr. 1½-2 fl.; best obtained with the aid of one of the railway-officials) to the abandoned Felsö Arpás Glass Works, where cheap accommodation and a guide (1 fl. 20-1 fl. 50 kr. per day) may be obtained from Ratz. Thence we walk or ride to the (3 hrs.) Tăritia Refuge Hut (5050 ft.; no rfmts.), ascend the 'Abrahams-Steig' on foot to the Podragu Lake (6890 ft.), and finally reach the summit of the Podragu (8060 ft.; fine view) in 1¼ hr. more. In descending we may follow the ridge to the E., and descend into the valley of the Vistea Mâre Brook (see below), which we reach about 10 hrs. from the station of Alsó-Vist (see below).

39 M. Alsó-Vist; 41½ M. Besimbák; 45½ M. Alsó-Szombatfalva, with a large government stud-farm.

53 M. Fogaras (Hôtel Merkur; Lauritsch, well spoken of; Stadt Mexico, a garden-restaurant), on the Alt, with 5870 inhab., the capital of the county of Fogaras, has a large castle, built in 1310, which successfully resisted many attacks of the Turks.

Excursions (trying and for experts only; Herr Jaros courteously gives information). — Ascent of the Pietra Rosi (3 days), commanding magnificent views of Roumania and Transylvania; ascent of the Vistea Mâre (8270 ft.; refuge-hut); and to the Podragu Lake (see above), viâ the ridge of the Tăritia (see above), 3 days.

From Fogaras to Kronstadt, 40½ M., diligence in 8 hrs. (fare 3 fl. 90 kr.; carr. 8-10 fl.). At (8 M.) Schirkanjen, Hung. Sárkány, a large Saxon village, a road diverges on the left to Reps (comp. p. 411). The Kronstadt road then ascends past (13 M.) Persány and crosses the Persány Hills (the N. part of which is also called Geister-Wald, p. 411) to (23½ M.) Vledény (inn, at the E. end). We then cross a wooded spur of the Zeidnerberg, commanding views of the beautiful Burzenland, with the Königstein, Bucsecs, etc. (in the distance, the church of St. Bartholomew and the castle of Kronstadt), and reach (31 M.) Zeiden, a large Saxon village at the base of the Zeidnerberg (4255 ft.; attractive ascent in 2½ hrs.; below the summit is a grotto with seats). The road then crosses the Burzenbach, with a view, to the right, of the Königstein and the Rosenau picturesquely situated at the foot of the Bucsecs, and traverses the (35 M.) village of Weidenbach, Hung. Vidombák. At the station of Bertalan in the old town we come in right of (40½ M.) Kronstadt (p. 412), surrounded by mountains.

84. From Kronstadt to Bucharest viâ Predeal.

115 M. Railway to (18½ M.) Predeal in 1¼ hr. (fares 1 fl., 80 kr., 50 kr.); to Bucharest in 6½ hrs. (fares 16 fr. 5, 11 fr. 75, 7 fr. 87 c.). A stay at Sinaia or Bucharest is apt to be expensive. — Passports, see p. 404.

Kronstadt, see p. 412. The line bends towards the S.E. On the left, at the foot of the mountains, are Bácsfalu, Csernátfalu, Türkös, and Hosszufalu, four of the Magyar 'Siebendörfer' (p. 414). Beyond (4 M.) Derestye-Hétfalu we enter the valley of the Tömös; to the left rises the Piatra Mare or Hohenstein (p. 414). We pass Unter-Tömös (2368 ft.) and a simple Honvéd monument on a hill to the left at the narrowest part of the pass, and reach (10½ M.) Tömös (2854 ft.); looking back, we obtain a fine view of the Schuler (p. 414) to the right.

The train then ascends from Ober-Tömös to the Tömös Pass (3330 ft.), which it penetrates by a tunnel 900 yds. long. Beyond a shorter tunnel we have a fine view of the Schuler and the Bucsecs to the right. — 18½ M. Predeal (3280 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Hôtel Bucsk, opposite the station, R., L., & A. 5-6 fr.; Klein's Grenzwirthshaus), with numerous new villas built by inhabitants of Bucharest, is the Roumanian frontier-station (luggage and passports examined; halt of about 1 hr.).

A pleasant walk of about 6 hrs. may be taken along the Roumanian frontier to the valleys of the Prahova and the Tömösch, and then across the Rosenau meadows to Rosenau (p. 414).

The train now descends into the valley of the Prahova, passing the convent Predeal on the left. 23½ M. Azuga, with a cloth-factory, at the union of the two main sources of the Prahova, which the train crosses several times. 26 M. Busteni, with large saw-mills, is visited as a summer-resort; to the right rises the huge Bucsecs (p. 415).

30½ M. Sinaia (Hôt. Caraiman, above the station; Sinaia, R., L., & A. 6, D. 6, pens. 15 fr.; Oppler's, at the N. end, with restaurant, moderate; Rail. Restaurant), a fashionable summer-resort of recent origin, often crowded in the season. In the centre of the village, not far from the station, are the new Baths. To the N. is an old Monastery, and farther on, amidst pine-woods, is the Château of Pelesch* (built 1871-84), the summer-residence of the King of Roumania. To Rosenau viâ the Bucsecs, see p. 415.

Bucharest (Rouman. Bucuresci), the capital of the kingdom of Roumania, with 250,000 inhab., lies in a monotonous plain, and is divided into two parts by the Dimbovitza, which is crossed by fifteen bridges. The town is divided for administrative purposes into five districts, the Yellow (Colórea galbeu; N.), Red (rosie; central), Green (verde; W.), Black (negru; E.), and Blue (albastru; S.). The suburbs are somewhat Oriental in appearance, but the numerous new buildings in the rest of the town give it an essentially modern air. The principal streets are the Calea Victoriei, which intersects the town from N. to S., the Boulevards, lighted by electricity, and the Strada Lipscani (so called because the Bucharest merchants formerly hought their goods at the Leipsic Fair).

In the Calea Victoriei is the Royal Palace (Palatul Regal; Pl. D, 3), formerly the Palais Golescu, altered in 1882-85. It contains the king's library. The staircase of the central building is adorned with a ceiling-painting by Veith (Apotheosis of Roumania). To the S. of the palace is the National Theatre (Teatru Nazional; Pl. D, 3); and to the N.E. is the Athenaeum (Pl. D, 2), with its conspicuous dome. In the Boulevard Academiei is the University (Pl. D, 3), founded in 1864, with an interesting archæological museum (Thurs. & Sun., 11-3; at other times on application; fee). Opposite the University stands an equestrian statue of Voivode Michael III. (1592-1601), erected in 1871, and at the sides are statues of the Roumanian scholars Ivan Heliade Radulescu (1802-72) and George Lazar (1779-1823), erected in 1886.

In the adjoining Strada Coltzei is the old Hospital Coltzei, the court-yard of which contains a marble monument, erected in 1870, to its founder, Prince Stephen Cantacuzenos, the Wallachian patriot, who was executed at Constantinople in 1716. In the Strada Lipscani is the National Bank (Pl. D, 3, 4), approached by the 'Passage Ghica'. To the S.W. of it are the large Market (Halle Ghica; Pl. 7) and the Law Courts (Palatul Justitziei; Pl. D, 4); to the N. are the new Post Office (p. 425) and the Police Office (Prefectura Politziei; Pl. 9).

Bucharest contains very many churches, most of which are low cruciform structures and few of much interest. The Stavropoleos Chapel, built in 1724, in the Strada Stavropoleos, behind the new post-office, is characterised by the harmony of its proportions and its rich plastic decoration. In the neighbourhood is the church of Curtea Veche (Pl. 14), built in 1393 by Mirza the Old (1387-1419) and rebuilt after the fire of 1847. — On the right bank of the river rises the splendid new church of Doamna Balasha, completed in 1834. — The Metropolitan Church (Pl. D, 4), built in 1656 and restored in 1839, stands on a hill to the S. of the last-named, commanding a good survey of the town. Adjacent is the residence of the Archbishop. To the S.E. is the church of St. Spiridion (Pl. D, E, 5), built in 1767, with interesting campanili; and in the direction of the river are the church and monastery of Radu Voda (Pl. E, 5), built by Alexander II. in 1572 and restored in 1859. The neighbouring Bukur Church, a small edifice of the 15th cent., is named after the traditionary founder of the town. To the S. of the Hospital Coltzei is the church of S. Giorgio (Pl. E, 4), rebuilt since 1847. — The Roman Catholic Cathedral of St. Joseph (Pl. D, 2), built in 1884, is situated in the Strada Fontanei. — Bucharest also has a Lutheran church (Biserica Luterana; Pl. D, 2) and a Reformed church (Biserica Ungureasca).

To the W. of the theatre lies the pretty park of Cismedgiu (Gradina Cismegiu; Pl. C, D, 3). To the W. of the town are the park and château of Cotroceni (Pl. A, 3), residence of the crown-prince. — To the N. of the town, at the end of the Calea Victoriei, is the Chaussee Kisselew (Pl. C, D, 1), a favourite afternoon promenade, with pleasure-grounds and villas on each side (several cafés). — To the N.E. of the town, at the end of the Calea Mosilor (1¾ M. in length), is the Obor (Pl. G, 2), where the popular life may be studied on Tues. and Frid., the market-days. The 'Mosh', a great popular festival, is celebrated here during the week before Whitsunday.

FROM BUCHAREST TO GIURGEVO AND SMARDA, 48 M., railway in 2½ hrs. (fares 6 fr. 10, 4 fr. 30, 2 fr. 95 c.). The train starts from the N. station (Gara du Nord) and stops after 4½ M. at the S. station (Gara Filaret). It then runs through a monotonous district, past Vidra and Comana. A little to the W. is Calugareni, where the Voivode Michael VI., the famous national hero, defeated a Turkish army of 140,000 men under Sinan Pasha on 15th Aug., 1594. Stations: Banessa, Fratesti, and (45 M.) Giurgevo, Roum. Giurgiu, on the Danube, the chief commercial town of Roumania, with 15,000 inhab., the Theodoropolis of the Romans, but rebuilt and named Santo Giorgio in the 14th cent. by the Genovese, who then held the trade of the lower Danube. — 48 M. Smarda, whence a steamer plies in ¾ hr. to Rustchuk, on the Bulgarian bank. From Rustchuk a railway runs to Varna, whence steamers ply to Constantinople.

Bosnia (Bosna) in the wider sense includes Bosnia Proper, the Herzegovina, Turkish Croatia (Krajina), and the ancient Rascia (Sandjak Novibasar): — that is, in all, the region bounded on the N.W. and N. by Croatia and Slavonia, on the E. by Servia, on the S. by Albania (Turk. Vilayet Prisren) and Montenegro, and on the S.W. and W. by Dalmatia. This territory, covering an area of 23,853 (or, without Novibasar, 19,961) sq. M., nominally forms the N.W. vilayet of the Ottoman Empire, but in accordance with the Treaty of Berlin of 13th July, 1878, followed by the convention of 21st April, 1879, has been occupied and, with the exception of the Sandjak Novibasar, governed by Austria-Hungary, under reservation of the sovereignty of the Sultan.

Inhabitants. The population of Bosnia, excluding the Sandjak Novibasar, numbers 1,568,000, and their nationality is almost exclusively Slavonic. About 673,250 profess the Greek-Oriental creed, 334,150 are Roman Catholics, 548,630 Mohammedans, and 8200 Jews. The last are mainly descendants of Jewish immigrants from Spain and Portugal in the 16-17th centuries.

History. The aboriginal inhabitants of Bosnia were Illyrians (Desidiates, Ardieri, Autariates, etc.) of the Celto-Illyrian stock of the Iapodes, who dwelt in the N.W. (the present district of Bihać). Bosnia is mentioned in history for the first time in the Roman period (34 B. C.), and in close connection with Dalmatia. The Roman sway over these lands was repeatedly shaken and finally destroyed (end of the 4th cent.) by the invasions of the Goths, which were followed in 610 by an inroad of the Croatians and by another of the Servians. The S.W. part of the country embraced Christianity under Justinian (527-565), and the rest of it was converted by the Servian apostles Cyril and Methodius about the year 880. From 940 onwards Bosnia was governed by elective princes or 'bans', who afterwards became feudatories of the Hungarian kings. In 1377 the ruling Ban assumed the title of King Stephan Tvertko I. In the reign of his eighth successor, Stephan Tomashewitch, Bosnia was conquered by Sultan Mohammed II. (1463). The sect of the Bogomiles (Patarenes) had many followers in Bosnia, especially among the nobles, and these now embraced Mohammedanism. In 1527 the banat of Jajce, and in 1592 the N.W. part of Bosnia, were incorporated with the Turkish empire. Bosnia became the chief theatre of the long wars between Austria and Turkey, which were at length ended by the peace of Sistova in 1791. But the land was seldom long at peace, as the oppressive sway of the Turks caused the Christians to revolt repeatedly, particularly in 1850 and 1875. The Russian and Turkish war of 1878 did not directly affect Bosnia at the time, but by the Treaty of Berlin Austria was allowed to occupy Bosnia and the Herzegovina. The Austrian troops under General von Philippovich marched into the country on 19th July, 1878, but it was only after conflicts of several months that the country was subjugated. The introduction of the general military conscription in the autumn of 1881 caused a new revolt, which was quelled by force of arms. Much has been done to develop the country since the Austrian occupation. All the more important places are now united by roads, and there are already more than 480 M. of railway. A well-organized corps of 2400 gensdarmes provides for the public safety.

Plan of Tour. A slight acquaintance with the country and its inhabitants may be obtained by taking the following tour. 1st day: From Sissek to Banjaluka (R. 88); 2nd day: Diligence to Jajce (p. 442); 3rd day: Jajce and the Jezero Lake (p. 442); 4th day: Train to Bugojno and diligence thence to Jablanica (pp. 442, 436); 5-7th days: Train to Mostar (p. 436; source of the Buna) and thence to Sarájevo (R. 86); 8-10th days: Sarájevo (p. 432); 11th day: Train to Bosnisch-Brod (R. 85). Routes 85 and 87 are more easily accomplished but less satisfactory; about 9 or 10 days should be allowed for R. 87. — The diligences from Banjaluka to Jajce and from Bugojno to Jablanica have 7 seats; the post-vehicles on other stages have usually room for two passengers only. For excursions of any length a carriage should be hired (about 8 fl., with fee of 50 kr., daily). The best season for the tour is September. Cook's Tours in Dalmatia and Bosnia, see p. 294.

Inns. At Sarájevo, Banjaluka, Mostar, Jajce, Doboj, and other towns there are good and reasonable hotels. In the smaller places the restaurants usually have a few rooms to let. Good quarters may generally be reckoned upon in places where there is a garrison. Off the beaten tracks the traveller must put up at the objectionable Turkish khans or 'Hans'.

Money, Austrian; but Servian and Turkish copper coins are sometimes current, and are accepted at their par value.

Passports are convenient, though not necessary, in Bosnia. For a visit to the Sandjak Novibasar a passport and the visa of a Turkish consul are necessary.

The Language of Bosnia is the Servian-Croatian, which belongs to the S.E. group of the Slavonic dialects, but is much mixed with Turkish words. For all ordinary purposes, however, German suffices, as it is spoken by the Austrian officials. the inn-keepers, and a number of the traders. The following hints about the pronunciation will often be useful: c = ts, ć = ty, č = ch, š = sh, ž = the French j. A few words of frequent occurrence are: gostiona, inn; kuća, house; ulaz, entrance; izlaz, exit; zahod (Slav.), ćenifa (Turk.), closet; krevet, bed; svjetlo, light; svijeć, candle; vatra, fire; kruh, bread; mijeko, milk; vino, wine; kava, coffee; kavana, café; rakija, spirits; pivo, beer; voda, water; šljive, plums; jaja, eggs; meso, meat; riba, fish; sir, cheese; sol, salt; nož, knife; viljuska, fork; boca, bottle; čaša, glass; srebro, silver; zlato, gold; skupo, too dear; jutro, sutra, morning; dan, day; večer, evening; ulica, street; put, road; crkva, church; kula, tower; dzamija, mosque; gora, brdo, or brijeg, mountain; planina, alp; dol, dolina, valley; potok, rijeka, brook; ćuprija, bridge; ostrvo, island; hamal, porter; konj, horse; mazga, mule; kola, carriage; pošta, post-office; drvo, tree; šuma, a wood; kiša, rain; — desno, to the right; lijevo, to the left; pod, under; od, from; za, behind; blizo, near; daleko, far; kasno, late; dobro, good; pol, half; kako, how; je, is; mali, small; veliki, large; visok, high; gornji, upper; donji, lower; — 1-12: jedan, dva, tri, četiri, pet, šest, sedam, osam, devet, deset, jedanest, dvanaest; 15, petnaest; 20, dvadeset; 21, dvadeset i jedan, 30, trideset; 50, pedeset; 100, sto, stotina; 1000, hiljada.

Articles in Wood, Gold, and Silver, Šljivinagasse 4. — Embroidery and Textile Fabrics, at the Government School of Weaving, Isevićgasse 6. — Carpets at the Government Carpet Factory, Bistrik-Str. 13. — Filigree Work, at Jovo Mitričević's, Terezijagasse. — Attar of Roses, etc., at Kabilijo's, at the corner of the Franz-Josef-Str. and Rudolf-Str. — Herzegovina Tobacco ('Ausstich' the best), opposite the Hôt. Europa.

Principal Attractions. Walk through the town, visit the Bazaar and the Bosnian Museum, ascend the Castle, make an excursion to the Ziegen-Brücke, the Košava Valley, Miljević, etc. — Mon., Tues., Wed. (market-day), and Thurs. are the best days for visiting the town; on Frid., Sat., and Sun., being Mohammedan, Jewish, and Christian holidays respectively, the town is less lively. — For short excursions in the environs a Hamal (porter) may be engaged (found at hotel; fee about 30 kr. per hour, and a few cigarettes). — For longer excursions visitors should apply for information to the Tourists' Club (president, Baron Mollinary).

Sarájevo or Serájevo (1770 ft.), the capital of Bosnia, seat of the authorities, and residence of a Roman Catholic archbishop and a Greek metropolitan, with 38,083 inhab. (17,18 Mohammedans and 4058 Jews) and an Austrian garrison of 2900 men, lies in a narrow valley watered by the Miljačka, at the foot and on the slopes of hills rising to a height of 5250 ft. The numerous minarets and the little houses standing in gardens give the town a very picturesque appearance. The river, which bursts forth from a gorge just above the town, is crossed by seven bridges. The streets on the river-banks are chiefly occupied by the Austrian and other immigrants, while most of the Turks and the Servians have their houses on the hillsides. The so-called Gipsies' Quarter (Hisseta; Pl. A, 2), at the W. end of the town, was at one time inhabited by the lowest classes, though not by gipsies (comp. p. 434), but several large residences are being built here. — Most of the troops are accommedated in the Fortified Camp, between the railway-station and the town. Farther on, to the right, at the intersection of the electric tramways, is the Tobacco Factory (Pl. A, 4; adm. on application).

The three main streets on the right bank of the Miljačka, the Franz-Josef (Franje Josipa Ulica; Pl. C, D, 3), containing the best hotels and the Greek Church, the Ćemaluša, and the Ferhadia streets, lead E. to the Bazaar (Čaršija; Pl. D, 3), the focus of business, most lively on Wednesdays, when the natives come from long distances to attend the market. The bazaar consists of a labyrinth of lanes, flanked with wooden booths, behind which are warehouses of solid stone. Shoemakers, tailors, green-grocers, saddlers, coppersmiths, second-hand dealers, and in fact every trade and handicraft, have their own allotted part of the bazaar. The copper wares, silver filigree-work, and carpets are particularly attractive, but purchases cannot well be made without an interpreter. Many of the so-called Oriental goods are of Austrian make. In the centre of the bazaar is a small house where coffee is dispensed to the poor at the cost of the 'Wakf', a Turkish pious foundation. The Bezistan, a large vaulted market-hall dating from the early Turkish period, is worth a visit (entrances in the Franz-Josef-Str. and the Bazaar).

In the W. part of the bazaar rises the Husref Beg Mosque (Begova Djamia; Pl. 2), the chief mosque in the town, erected in the second half of the 16th cent., to which even non-Mohammedans may gain admission on application to the keeper, who lives close by (fee 50 kr. for unlocking the door and for the use of the overshoes which the visitor must put on). The fore-court contains a fine fountain for religious ablutions shaded by a venerable lime. Strangers may be present at the public prayers here at 3 p.m. The bodies of deceased Mohammedans are placed here for a short time, covered with a green cloth, those of men being indicated by turbans. To the left of the mosque is the Tomb of Husref Beg, its founder (30-40 kr.). — Opposite the mosque is the old Kuršumli Medreseh (i.e. 'leaden school'), a seminary for the Softas or Mohammedan clergy.

In the Dom-Platz, to the N. of the Greek church (see above), rises the Roman Catholic Cathedral (Pl. C, 3), with its two towers, consecrated in 1889. Behind it is the Bosnian Museum (Pl. D, 3; open free on Frid., Sat., & Sun., 9-1; to strangers at other times also), containing prehistoric and Roman antiquities, a large natural history collection (including a good collection of birds' eggs), and an interesting collection of costumes (life-size figures in Bosnian dress, etc.). A little to the N. is a Roman Catholic Seminary, and $^1/_2$ M. farther to the E. is the Sheriat School, in the Oriental style, with a fine colonnade, erected by the Austrian government as a law-seminary for sheriats (kadis). About 5 min. to the S.E. of this point, on the Miljačka, is the red and yellow brick Rathhaus (1892-95).

At the Sinan Tekijah (Pl. D, 2), to the N. of the Sheriat School, viâ the Logavina Street, Dancing Dervishes are to be seen every Thurs. evening (tickets of admission at the police-office, opposite the Rathhaus; no charge).

On the left bank of the Miljačka is the Philippovich-Platz (Pl.

D, 3), with the large Barracks. The so-called Konak is the residence of the Austrian commandant. Visitors are admitted to the garden. Towards the E., near the river-bank, extends the Kaiser-Strasse (Careva Ulica), the chief street on the left bank. At the beginning of it, on the right, is the Careva Djamia or Imperial Mosque, on which the Turks hoist the sultan's flag every Friday at noon.

At the E. end of the Kaiser-Str. the stone Seher-Čehajina Bridge, the farthest up the river, crosses to the Rathhaus (p. 433) on the right bank. From this point the road (passing several Turkish cafés after about a hundred paces, on the left) leads to the Castle (Pl. E, F, 2) in windings. Passing the so-called Yellow Bastion, we reach a small open space with a large mulberry-tree and a good Turkish café (muto). Going straight on, we observe a Turkish burial-ground on the right and the Višegrad Gate on the left. We turn to the right to the White Bastion* (Pl. F, 3), to which the officer or seregant on duty grants access. Splendid view of the town, the ravine of the Miljačka, the steep Kapa (see below), and the hill of Trebeović. An Aqueduct, constructed by the Austrian government, begins at the castle and traverses the entire city. — The channel of the Miljačka has recently been regulated, and a quay (Appel-Quai; Pl. C, D, 3) over 700 yds. in length has been laid out on the right bank (electric tramway, see p. 432).

The following Excursion of about 3 hrs. (guide advisable) is recommended. From the E. end of the Kaiser-Strasse we either ascend rapidly straight on, or follow the winding road to the right; at the top of the hill we pass several Turkish burial-grounds; farther on we pass the custom-house, and in 3/4 hr. reach the so-called Ziegen-Brücke (Kozia - Cupria), which bridges the river in a single arch built about 1600. (Continuation of route, see p. 438.) Retracing our steps a little, we next ascend a steep footpath to the Kapa (3179 ft.), an old Turkish guard-house, opposite the castle, affording a charming view, and descend thence steeply to the W. to the (35 min.) town.

In the W. part of the Čemaluša-Str., opposite No. 10, the Koševo Street (Pl. B, 2) diverges to the right. Ascending the latter, passing the Austrian commissariat magazine, the admirably equipped Hospital (Pl. B, 1), and the cemetery of the immigrants, and crossing the brook Koševa, we reach a hollow between the valleys of the Koševa and the Sušica, where there is a café. Thence following the crest of the Gorica to the S., we come to a Gipsy Camp of some 30-70 men, women, and children, and beyond it the finest point of *View near the town. We descend by a footpath; or return to the café, descend the valley, turn to the S., and go through the camp to the town.

Another excursion (guide necessary) is by the steep paved road ascending behind the barracks (Pl. 4; D, 3) and by a footpath to (about 1 1/2 hr.) the houses of Miljević, where we get an extensive view of the heights of the Trebević, of the Lukavica valley, and of the Treskavica (6982 ft.) and the Bjelašnica (6782 ft.), the highest mountains in Bosnia. We return by the old Jewish Burying Ground to the Alexander Bridge in the town about 3 hrs. in all).

To Ilidže, 7 M., a pleasant excursion either by local train (station, see p. 432) in 1/2 hr. (fare 12 kr.) or by carriage (4 1/2 fl. incl. 2 hrs.' stay), Ilidže (1640 ft.; Austria, Hungaria, Bosna, all belonging to government. R. 80 kr.-2 fl.), prettily situated on the Zeljeznica, a watering-place with thermal sulphur-springs, well managed bath-establishment (swimming bath), and pretty gardens. Horse-races in June. — An omnibus plies daily in ½ hr. from the station of Ilidže to the Source of the Bosna, 2½ M. to the S.W. The Bosna rises in several springs at the base of the wooded Igmán (4095 ft.), and within a few hundred yards of its source attains a breadth of over 30 yds.

Mountain Ascents (Tourists' Club, see p. 432). A bridle-path ascends the Trebević (5345 ft.; refuge-hut; fine view), to the S., in 4 hrs. Horses (2-3 fl.) should be engaged and paid for at the hotel; the horse-owner acts as guide. — From Ilidže (p. 434) walk or (better) ride (horse, see above; provisions should be taken) to the (9 hrs.) top of the Bjelašnica (6782 ft.; to the S. fine view), on which is a meteorological station (quarters). — Walk or ride to the (3 hrs.) Skakavac Waterfall (230 ft. in height). — Through the castle to the Han Vaso and to the Source of the Mošćanica, with the reservoir of the waterworks.

86. From Sarájevo to Mostar and Metković.

110½ M. Railway (narrow-gauge and partly rack-and-pinion) to (84 M.) Mostar in 8¼ hrs. (fares 5 fl. 40, 4 fl. 5, 2 fl. 70 kr.; one train daily; halt of ½ hr. at Konjica); from Mostar to (27 M.) Metković, two trains daily in 2 hrs. (fares 1 fl. 72, 1 fl. 29, 86 kr.). This interesting line traverses a fine mountain-district. Enquiry should be made beforehand as to the connection of the trains with the steamers at Metković, which is unsuitable for night-quarters owing to malaria.

Sarájevo, see p. 432. — The railway runs for some distance near the Bosna Line (p. 430). On the left is the Cengić Villa, formerly a military hospital, adjoining which is a monument to soldiers who fell in 1878. The line then successively crosses the Miljačka, the Željeznica, at (4 M.) Ilidže (p. 434), and the Bosna, which rises 2 M. to the S.W. It next leads past the base of the Igmán (see above) to (7 M.) Blažuj, a group of houses with a large khan, and past the inn of Križanje (where a road diverges to Busovača and Travnik, p. 442). Then through a beautiful wooded valley viâ (11 M.) Hadžići and (15½ M.) Pazarić, whence the Bjelašnica (see above) may be reached in 2 hrs.' ride. — Crossing the saddle of Vilovac (2307 ft.), the train reaches (19½ M.) Tarčin (2126 ft.), a military station, on the Lepenica. To the W. rises the Bitovnja.

Here the line begins the ascent of the Ivan Planina, a transverse ridge separating the valleys of the Lepenica and the Narenta, and it is therefore provided at intervals with toothed rails (11½ M. in aggregate length between Tarčin and Konjica), for which the locomotive is fitted with an adjustable toothed wheel. The gradient is still steeper between (21½ M.) Rastelica and (24 M.) Ivan (2870 ft.; Rail. Restaurant, with rooms). The ridge of Ivan Planina (3172 ft.), the watershed between the Black Sea and the Adriatic, and also the boundary between Bosnia and the Herzegovina, is pierced by means of a tunnel 700 yds. in length, beyond which the train rapidly descends the wild and romantic valley of the Trešanica, traversing five tunnels and two large cuttings and passing the stations of Bradina, Brdjani, and Podorošac, to —

35 M. Konjica (919 ft.; Hôt. Kaiser Franz Josef; Rail. Restaurant; halt of ½ hr.), a district town of 1520 inhab., prettily situated on the Narenta, which is crossed by a handsome stone bridge. The temperature here is already about 10° Fahr. warmer than that of Bosnia. About 12½ M. to the S.E. lies the Borke Lake (Boračko Jezero; 1325 ft.), ½ M. in length.

The railway now runs through the wild and romantic Narenta Valley, bounded on the right by the Čvronica and the Cabulja Planina, and on the left by the Prenj (see below), the Porim, and the Velež. — 40½ M. Lisičić; 43 M. Ostrožac; 49 M. Rama, at the entrance to the valley of that name. — 53½ M. Jablanica (650 ft.; Inn, near the station), a military station in an impressive and picturesque district, is a good starting-point for mountain-tours and hunting-expeditions (numerous chamois). The Krstac*, ¾ hr.'s walk to the E., commands a fine panorama.

Mountain Ascents. Guides, 1½ fl. per day, should be engaged and paid through the landlord of the hotel; provisions should be taken. The Prenj Planina (ca. 6890 ft.) commands an extensive view of the mountains of the Herzegovina, Montenegro, Novibasar, and Bosnia. It is ascended in 2 days (night-quarters in a shepherd's hut; rugs necessary). — The ascent of the Plasa (ca. 4590 ft.), to the S.W., takes 9 hrs. there and back; part of the way is a bridle-path.

From Jablanica to Bugojno, 46 M., diligence daily in summer in 8½ hrs., 5 fl.; carr. about 12 fl. Pedestrians, who require 2 days for this attractive excursion, find the best night-quarters at Prozor (provisions should not be forgotten). The road follows the railway almost to Rama (see above), then turns to the N.W., and ascends the valley of the Rama, with the slopes of the Bočina Planina on the left, and the river on the right. Farther on a stalactite cave is passed (right). — 19½ M. Prozor (Kraus; 1 hr.'s halt), with 1000 inhab., is commanded by a ruined castle. — The road now winds up to the Makljen Saddle (3685 ft.; view), whence it descends through wood to (34 M.) Gornji-Vakuf, noted for Turkish coffee mills (1½ fl. each). — 46 M. Bugojno, see p. 442.

The train crosses the Narenta, passes through a tunnel, and enters a most picturesque defile, on the opposite side of which is the high-road. We then cross the Glogošnica Valley, with a beautiful view, to the left of the Prenj Mts. (see above), covered with snow even in summer, and traverse the Glogošnica Tunnel. Below the road, on the right bank, appears the fine waterfall of the Praporac or Komadina, a little beyond which the railway and road change sides. From this point to Raškagora the narrow and wild rocky gorge of the Narenta is known as the 'Great Defile'. — 62 M. Grabovica; 65½ Drežnica (Inn, at the station), at the mouth of the Drežanka, which issues from a wild gorge; 72½ M. Raškagora; 77 M. Vojno. To the left are the precipices of the Velez (6225 ft.).

84 M. Mostar. — Hotels. *Narenta, R. 1-2 fl., L. 20 kr., with garden restaurant, beer on draught; Kronprinz. — Railway Restaurant. — Cabs. Within the town, per ½ hr., 1 fl., each addit. ½ hr., 50 kr.; outside the town 1 fl. 40 and 70 kr.

Mostar (194 ft.), a picturesquely situated district town with 17,000 inhab., the business centre of the Herzegovina, and seat of a Rom. Cath. and a Greek bishop. The town, which contains many new and several handsome buildings, consists of two long streets, confined in the narrow Narenta valley between the hills of Hum and Podvelež. The Narenta is crossed by an iron bridge built in 1881, and by a stone bridge, with an arch of 100 ft. span, 60 ft. above the stream, perhaps of Roman origin and restored by Sultan Soliman II. in 1567 (for foot-passengers only). The handsome Oriental-Greek Cathedral, on the left bank, commands a good survey of the town. The Karagjoz Mosque deserves a visit. The government Tobacco Factory, to the S. of the town, may be visited on application. The bazaar is inferior to that of Sarájevo, though Oriental carpets, embroidery, inlaid silver-work from Livno, etc., may be obtained comparatively cheaply. — Pleasing view from the Hum road, which may be ascended to the second or third bend; grander from the top of the hill (1430 ft.; 1¼ hr.), with its small fort, which may be entered with leave of the guard.

An attractive excursion may be made to the *Source of the Buna at (7½ M.) Blagaj (carr. in 1½ hr.; 4 fl. there and back). The stream issues from a stalactite grotto at the base of a huge cliff behind a half-ruined mosque near the ruin of Stepangrad (see below). The government Station for Fruit and Vine Cultivation and Jelačić's Wine Cellars (excellent Herzegovina wine) may be visited on the return-journey.

From Mostar to Trebinje, 105 M., diligence thrice weekly in 2 days (fare 13 fl. 40 kr.). Beyond (7½ M.) Blagaj (see above) the road ascends to a monotonous plateau, crosses it to the Grabok Saddle (3640 ft.), and descends to (25½ M.; 6½ hrs.' drive) Nevesinje (Bilic), with a military station. — Skirting the left bank of the Zalomska, we traverse a solitary region to (47 M.) Fojnica (military station) and cross the Gacko Polje, a plain 9 M. wide, to (57 M.) Gacko (Metohija Inn), where the night is spent (7 hrs.' drive from Nevesinje). — We next cross a karst-like region (provisions necessary) to (60 M.) Avtovac (military station), cross the Musica, and proceed viâ Stepen (a guard-house), (70 M.) Korito, and Neu-Bilek (fortified camp) to (89 M.; 8 hrs. from Gacko) Bilek (Stadt Wien), with 2000 inhabitants. — Crossing the plateau of Mosko (1970 ft.) and skirting the Gliva Planina (4025 ft.), we enter a more fertile district, and finally reach (105 M.) Trebinje (p. 310).

The railway to Metcović runs through a narrow defile at the foot of the Hum and then enters a broad plain, called Bišce-Polje. To the left, near Blagaj, is the ruin of Stepangrad, once the residence of the Bosnian Princes Hranic, the last of whom (Herceg Ahmed Pasha) embraced Islam. Near (91 M.) Buna (which lies on the left bank), opposite the mouth of the Buna (see above), the valley contracts and the narrow Narenta valley is again picturesque. 96 M. Zitomišlić, opposite the monastery of that name (founded in 1585); 99 M. Kručević; 103 M. Dretelj, station for Počitelj, on the left bank, a little Turkish town with an interesting old castle. Beyond (105 M.) Capljina we cross the Trebežat. 108 M. Gabela, a little town, formerly fortified, between two hills. Above us, as we quit the tunnels, are the dilapidated ramparts of the old Venetian frontier-fortress of Gabela (220 ft.). We then cross the Dalmatian frontier to —

27 M. Metković, see p. 305

87. From Sarájevo to Goražda and Plevlje and back to Sarájevo viâ Priepolje and Višegrad.

9-10 Days. For this most interesting mountain-tour (in the second half of which riding or walking is alone practicable) luggage should be packed in two boxes or bags of equal size and weight, suitable for transport on horseback. (The small military trunks used by the Austrian officers are well adapted for the purpose. They are 22-24 inches long and about 18 inches in height and in width.) The small mountain-horses go at a foot-pace only; they are very sure-footed, and should generally be left very much to themselves. Each night is spent at a military station, where lodging, food, a doctor, and a post-office are always to be found. The stage from Plevlje to Priboz (on which provisions should be carried) may be made on foot in about as little time as on horseback. — From Sarájevo to Plevlje (98 M.) a DILIGENCE ('Post'), starting daily, runs in 2 days (fare 12 fl. 60 kr.): 1st day to (53½ M.) Goražda in 12 hrs., 2nd day to (44½ M.) Plevlje in 11 hrs. Passports are examined at the Metalka Saddle. — From Priboj to (25 M.) Višegrad a diligence plies thrice a week in 6½ hrs. (2 fl. 40 kr.); from Višegrad to (26½ M.) Rogatica daily in 7¾ hrs. (3 fl. 70 kr.); and from Rogatica to (47 M.) Sarájevo daily in 11 hrs. (6 fl. 40 kr.).

Sarájevo, see p. 432. The road leads through the ravine of the Miljačka, crosses the Ziegen-Brücke (p. 434), and ascends in several serpentines. On the right are the scarcely recognisable ruins of the castle of Starigard. — 10½ M. Pale (2930 ft.), a fortified barrack on the Repaśnica. The road ascends thence in sixteen serpentines to the top of the Karoline Saddle (3422 ft.), with its military station, and descends through beautiful beech-woods to the Praća or Gabrovica Valley. — 28 M. Prača (2270 ft.; inn and post office), a military post; near it, the ruin of Pavlovac.

The road crosses the Praća and mounts on the wooded slope of the Poglej Brdo, in forty-five windings, to (39½ M.) Ranjen Karaula (3920 ft.; military station; inn), which affords a superb distant view of the mountains to the S., some of which belong to Montenegro (Dormitor range, p. 313). The road winds round the precipices of the Sienokos (walkers taking the short-cuts), and descends, in full view of the beautiful valley of the Drina, to — 54 M. Goražda (1132 ft.; Olehla's Inn, R., L., & A. 80 kr.-1 fl. 40, B. 20-35 kr., well spoken of; pop. 1500), on the left bank of the Drina, with a small bazaar. Good survey from the bridge.

FROM GORAŽDA TO FOČA, 21 M., diligence in 3¼ hrs. (fare 2½ fl.). The road ascends the left bank of the Drina, through tobacco-plantations. 2 hrs. Ustikolina, with a mosque of the 15th century. — Foča (Gerstl's Inn), at the junction of the Cehotina and the Drina, has a fortified camp. The Aladža Djamia ('painted mosque'; 1549) is worth a visit. Tasteful inlaid work in gold and silver. A road leads hence to Cajnica (see below).

A voyage on a RAFT (ca. 10 fl.) down the Drina from Goražda to Višegrad (p. 440), in 4-6 hrs., is interesting. Apply to the posting-master.

The road ascends the Drina for a short distance, then mounts to the left to the Kozara Saddle (2333 ft.), and descends through a pretty valley to (66 M.) Cajnica (Eva Weber's Inn), a pleasant little town of 1800 inhab., picturesquely situated in a broad basin, with a large Greek church, frequented by pilgrims, and a fine mosque.

The road ascends through wood to the (73½ M.) Metalka Saddle (4000 ft.; military station; inn), the boundary between Bosnia and the Turkish province of Lim, which is temporarily occupied by the Austrians, and descends to (83 M.) Boljanic (4290 ft.), another military post. To the left rise the bare slopes of the Gradina Planina (4387 ft.). The road then descends in long windings, through deep gorges, to — 98 M. Plevlje (2624 ft.; Taślidža, near the Austrian camp; beer at the Brewery; introduction to the Military Casino desirable), a little town of some importance. A visit should be paid to the (½ hr.) Greek Monastery of Troitza, where the shrine of St. Saba and a collection of ancient vestments and Slavonic books are shown. On the W. side of the town are the stone-huts of the Austrian garrison; on the N. side is a Turkish camp (visitors admitted). At Staro-Plevlje ('Old Plevlje'), on the Veležnica brook, are the remains of a Roman town, perhaps the Stanecli of the Peutinger Tables.

From Plevlje to Priepolje (18½ M., a ride of 7-8 hrs.).

The traveller should order horses from his inn to be in readiness at the Austrian post-office, one for riding, and a second for luggage (2½-3 fl. each). The attendant, who walks, expects a few cigarettes and cups of coffee by way of gratuity. The horse-owners are, as a rule, very honest. Travellers usually join the Austrian horse-post, which starts at 6 a.m.

The track gradually ascends to the top of the Mihailović Planina (4521 ft.), from the W. margin of which we enjoy a superb view, with the mountains of Montenegro and the Dormitor (p. 313) in the distance. 8½ M. Karaula Jabuka (4236 ft.), a lonely military post. Then down to (3 hrs.) Han Seljačnica and through the valley of the Lim to (1 hr.) —

18½ M. Priepolje (1496 ft.; quarters at a Cantine next to the post-office), a little town on the Lim, consisting of a long street. Horses should be at once engaged for the next day (2½-3 fl. each). We start at 6 a.m., in company of the post-patrol for Priboj.

From Priepolje to Priboj (23 M.; a ride of 8-9 hrs.). The narrow bridle-path skirts the right bank of the Lim, which flows between lofty wooded mountains. A ride of 3 hrs. brings us to the Bistrica Bridge, where a post-patrol from Priboj relieves that from Priepolje. On an abrupt rock on the left bank stands the ruin of Jerina Gradina. Farther on we pass the military post of Karaula. 23 M. Priboj (1293 ft.; Schreiber's Inn; pop. 963), a small town and an Austrian military station. On the left bank of the Lim is the ruin of Jagod, with its large subterranean chambers.

From Priboj to Sarajevo viâ Višegrad and Rogatica: diligence, see p. 438; carr. and pair in 10 hrs. (incl. rest of 2 hrs., 10-12 fl.), a most attractive drive. We follow the right bank of the Lim to the (3 M.) Uvac Bridge, above the influx of the Uvac into the Lim, and then ascend to the (9½ M.) saddle of Bjelo Brdo (2726 ft.; Austrian military station), commanding a superb panorama. Thence we descend through beautiful wooded valleys in about 3 hrs. to a Greek-Oriental church, where a picnic meal is usually taken. (Near it is the interesting ruin of Dobrunj, once the largest castle in Bosnia, destroyed by the Turks in 1570, with remains of early Slavonic frescoes in the chapel.) The road next leads through the Rzava Valley to Dobrunj, Celikov (where the river is crossed), and —

25 M. Višegrad (1128 ft.; Schreiber's Inn, R., L., & A. 1 fl.), a little town charmingly situated at the influx of the Rzava into the Drina, which is crossed by a handsome stone bridge built by the Vizier Sokolovich in 1571. On a steep rock above the town is the ruin of Višegrad, which has given its name to the town.

To Rogatica (26½ M.; carr. in 10 hrs., 8-10 fl.) the road ascends to the top of the (13 M.) Semeć Planina (4285 ft.; gendarmerie station; night-quarters), and descends thence through a hilly and wooded region, past Han Pešurić and Han Seljani, to (26½ M.) Rogatica (1725 ft.; Zur Post Inn; pop. 2013), a small town on the Rakitnica, about 23 M. to the N. of Goražda (p. 438).

To Sarájevo (47 M.; carr. in 14-16 hrs., 12-14 fl.) the road ascends past Kovanje in about 3 hrs. to Han Kapić (3090 ft.), on the Ivan Polje, and crosses the lofty plain of Glasinac (numerous prehistoric tumuli) to the (19 M.) Han Podromanjom (2848 ft.; fortified camp; inn). It then crosses the Romanja Planina (a tableland, used as a pasture) to the Han na Romanji and Franz-Josefs-Karaula (4534 ft.), the highest point on the route, then winds down to (31½ M.) Mokro (3350 ft.; Spitzer's Inn), a pleasantly situated little town, and descends the valley of the Miljačka to (47 M.) Sarájevo.

88. From Sissek to Novi and Banjaluka and to Travnik and Sarájevo.

Comp. Map, p. 295.

Railway to Banjaluka (101 M.) in 7¾ hrs.; fares 6 fl. 60, 4 fl. 40, 2 fl. 75 kr. (military railway beyond Doberlin). From Banjaluka to Jajce, 45½ M., diligence daily in 7¾ hrs. (5 fl.); carr. 12-15 fl. — From Jajce to Lašva, 58½ M., railway in 5 hrs. (3 fl. 76, 2 fl. 82, 1 fl. 88 kr.); thence by rail in 2½ hrs. to Sarájevo.

Sissek, see p. 398. The train crosses the Kulpa (passing the old fortress of Alt-Sissek on the left), and runs S. through the broad valley of the Save, through wood and fields of maize. At (16½ M.) Sunja (*Rail. Restaurant) we cross the Sunja, then ascend its right bank, and cross the saddle of Majur into the Una Valley. 26 M. Kostajnicza (pop. 3000), a pleasant little town (opposite Bosnisch-Kostajnicza). At (29 M.) Volinja the Una is crossed. 33 M. Doberlin; 36 M. Ravnice. — 42 M. Novi (391 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Hôtel Novi; pop. 3500), the first Bosnian town, on the Una, above the influx of the Sana.

From Novi to Ogulin, a highly attractive excursion of 3 days by carriage, the nights being spent at Krupa and at the Plitvica Lake (carr. and pair from Novi to Bihač, 6-7 fl.; from Bihač to Ogulin, 63½ M. in 12-13 hrs., 14-17 fl.). A diligence also plies daily in 8½ hrs. from Novi to Bihač (3 fl.). — The road leads through the pretty wooded valley of the Una viâ (15 M.) Otoka, beyond which are mills on the river, to (22 M.) Krupa (525 ft.; Hôt. Krupa), with its ruined castle, and then winds up the slope of the Debeli Oklinjak (to the left) to the Drenovo Pass (1580 ft.), beyond which it descends, with a fine view of the Plješevica (5410 ft.), to (40 M.) Bihač (740 ft.; Hôtel Fritz; pop. 6000), a district town on the Una. The Fethija Mosque, originally a Gothic church, was converted to its present use on the capture of the town by the Turks in 1592. The interesting ruin of Sokolac lies 4½ M. to the S.E. At Ripač is a prehistoric lake-dwelling. — From Bihač the road ascends in serpentines viâ Žegar, a military post, and, passing a monument to soldiers who fell in 1878 (behind us, the ruin of Sokolac, see above), to (3 M.) Zavalje (1385 ft.), the first Croatian village, with an abandoned frontier-post. We then skirt the E. verge of the plateau of Plješevica to the N.W. to (13½ M.) Petrovoselo (1210 ft.), and ascend in windings towards the S.W. to Priboj (2200 ft.). Here we diverge to the right from the road in order to visit the (25 M.) beautiful Plitvica Lakes* (p. 399). Thence to Ogulin, see p. 398.

The train turns to the W. into the valley of the Sana. 46 M. Blagaj; 54½ M. Dragotinja. — 61½ M. Prjedor (440 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Kaiser von Oesterreich), a district town (pop. 5000).

A carriage-road (diligence thrice a week in 8 hrs.; 4 fl. 10 kr.) ascends the valley of the Sana, viâ (18½ M.) Sanskimost and (30 M.) Vrhpolje, to (41½ M.) Ključ (925 ft.; Inn next to the post-office), a small town picturesquely situated on the Sana, with a grand old castle. In 1493 the castle was taken by the Turks, and Tomashewitch, the last king of Bosnia, was captured and cruelly put to death at Jajce. Splendid view, particularly of the passage which the Sana has forced through the rocks below the town. Ključ was the scene of fierce conflicts in 1878, and was taken by storm on Sept. 7th.

We quit the Sana and follow the Gomjenica through the Omarska Plain to (72 M.) Omarska, and then cross the saddle of Kukovica, with the small station of Ivanjska (998 ft.), to — 101 M. Banjaluka (535 ft.; Hôtel Bosna, at the station, R., L., & A. 1 fl. 40 kr.-3 fl., Stadt Wien, both with cafés-restaurants), a district town with 15,000 inhab. (incl. many Mohammedans), lies on the left bank of the Vrbas, in a broad valley enclosed by mountains. Numerous Turkish burying-grounds. A small bazaar in the main street. The Ferhad-Pasha Mosque dates from the end of the 16th century. On the right bank of the Vrbas, 2 M. above the town, are remains of Roman baths. A visit may be paid to the German Trappist Monastery. 4½ M. from the town (carr. 2-3 fl.).

To Jajce, 45½ M. (diligence, p. 440), an attractive drive up the Vrbas. Pedestrians require 2 days, and should carry provisions. The road leads through a smiling district to (8½ M.) Karanovac, where it crosses the Vrbas. It then traverses the wild and picturesque Tjesno Gorge, 1¾ M. in length, at the exit from which is the ruin of Zvečaj-Grad. Beyond the village of Krupa, with the ruined castle of that name, we pass through wood to the broad valley of Aginoselo. — 24 M. Bočac (Bočac Inn; halt of ¾ hr.) is commanded by a massive ruined castle. The next part of our route lies amidst grand mountain-scenery. We finally pass through two tunnels, cross an iron bridge, and reach — 45½ M. Jajce (1119 ft.; Grand Hôtel*, belonging to government, R., L., & A. 1 fl. 30, omn. 30 kr.; pop. 4000), an old town picturesquely situated on the left bank of the Vrbas, on the slope of the Gola Planina. High above the town rises the old fortress, the object of many contests, which was captured by the Turks in 1527 and remained in their possession until 1878. Fragments of the old Bosnian royal palace are built into the walls. The old catacombs are interesting; they were probably originally a subterranean church, formed in a cave. (Permission to visit the castle and the keys of the catacombs obtained at the office of the district authorities; the attendant provides torches; fee 20 kr. for each person.) The church of S. Luca is now represented by its detached campanile. To the right in the nave of the Franciscan Church is the coffin of King Tomashewitch (p. 441), whose remains were re-discovered in 1888. The superb Waterfall of the Pliva*, which is precipitated from the Lake of Jezero in a leap of 100 ft. into the Vrbas, is not far from the Grand Hôtel, where directions may be obtained. A pavilion above the fall affords the best view; wraps are necessary.

Jezero* (1420 ft.; Touristenhaus), on the beautiful Lake of Jezero (trout; cray-fish) is 1 hr.'s drive or 2 hrs.' walk from Jajce.

From Jajce to Lašva, 58½ M., railway in 5 hrs. The railway ascends the picturesque valley of the Vrbas viâ (8 M.) Vijenac (1295 ft.), a little town with an old castle, and (15 M.) Babinoselo to (21 M.) Dônji Vakuf (1685 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Heller's Hotel), a pleasant little town, with several tasteful mosques.

A Branch Railway runs hence in ½ hr. to (7 M.) Bugojno (Schwarzer Adler), with its large Roman Catholic church. Diligence from Bugojno to Jablanica and railway thence to Mostar, see p. 436.

From Bugojno to Spalato. A diligence plies daily in 8 hrs. (5 fl. 20 kr.), running at first through wood, then across a Karst region, to (46 M.) Livno, a small town (3000 inhab.) picturesquely situated on the verge of the wide Livansko Polje. A diligence runs thence thrice a week in 7½ hrs. to Sinj (p. 298), whence there is a diligence daily to (4½ hrs.) Spalato (p. 298).

The railway now ascends the wooded valley of the Jablan to the N. to (25½ M.) Oborci (2035 ft.), and thence to the N.E. to the pass (tunnel) of (29 M.) Komar (2460 ft.), whence it descends, skirting the Lašva, viâ Goleš and Turbe. — 39½ M. Travnik (1150 ft.; Rail. Restaurant; Kaiser von Oesterreich; pop. 6000), an old town, rebuilt after repeated fires. Fine view from the castle, dating from the time of Tvertko II. The bazaar is not unimportant. Until 1850 Travnik was the residence of the Bosnian viziers, whose mausoleum-like tombs are scattered throughout the town.

Beyond Travnik the railway continues to follow the broad valley of the Lašva (Travansko Polje) viâ (42 M.) Dolac, (46 M.) Bjela, (50 M.) Vitez, and (54 M.) Busovača to (58½ M.) Lašva (p. 431).
